FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

Where is the Navy Memorial located?
The Navy Memorial is located at 701 Pennsylvania Ave NW, adjacent to Archives-Navy Memorial-Penn Quarter Station.

What are the Visitor Center hours?
We encourage you to visit our website at www.navymemorial.org before planning a visit, as our hours vary due to the changing nature of the pandemic. We will also accommodate tour groups outside of regular business hours via special arrangements made in advance when possible.

Where do the buses park for an Honor Flight?
The Washington Metro Police allow Honor Flight busses to park on Pennsylvania Ave, NW, which provides quick and easy access to the Navy Memorial.

Is there a cost for the Honor Flights?
No, the program is free; tours can be self-guided, or we can offer a guided tour. The only possible cost would be the cost of the box lunches if the group opts to eat at the Navy Memorial.

Is the Navy Memorial wheelchair accessible?
Yes, the Navy Memorial is ADA Compliant. An elevator is available to take visitors to the Visitors Center. We ask that you please make arrangements in advance if there is need for numerous wheelchairs as arrangements can be made for additional elevators.

Are pets allowed?
Service animals are welcome.

What are your guidelines for Covid-19?
The Navy Memorial is compliant with all CDC as well as Washington DC guidelines. Due to the changing nature of the pandemic, we are monitoring all guidelines to ensure visitor and staff safety. Please check our website for the latest updates.

SCHEDULE YOUR VISIT TODAY

If you are organizing an Honor Flight and would like to plan a visit to the Navy Memorial or learn more about the organization, contact Mr. Andrew Campbell at acampbell@navymemorial.org or 202-380-0730.
The United States Navy Memorial welcomes all Veterans and their families to the Navy Memorial. We are especially pleased to welcome visits from the Honor Flight Network as these heroes are the focus of the mission of the United States Navy Memorial: to Honor, Recognize and Celebrate the Men and women of the sea services, past, present and future; and to Inform the public about their service.

The Navy Memorial Honor Flight Visit Program tailors an Honor Flight visit to meet the unique needs of the group. Featuring a beautiful “Granite Sea” with the Lone Sailor in the middle and surrounded by 26 bas reliefs depicting various elements of the sea services, an outdoor visit is extremely welcoming and a great spot for photos. Additionally, the air-conditioned Visitors Center has interesting exhibits including the National Chief’s Mess, and a Ship’s Store, and bathrooms.

THANK YOU FOR CHOOSING THE NAVY MEMORIAL FOR YOUR HONOR FLIGHT VISIT

- Honor Flights coming to the Navy Memorial are met with heartfelt gratitude. Volunteers and staff are always ready to assist and provide Honor Flight Veterans with a dynamic visitor experience.

- It is our pleasure to extend an open invitation to Veterans from Honor Flight hubs all across the country to visit us whenever they are in the Nation’s Capital.

Depending on the amount of time you have to spend at the Navy Memorial, there are numerous options for your visit. Please contact the Navy Memorial to confirm availability of the following:

Option #1
If your time is limited, a walk around the “Granite Sea,” looking at the 26 bas relief sculptures and taking photos with the “Lone Sailor Statue”, makes for a great experience.

Option #2
If time permits, Honor Flight Veterans are invited to come inside to the air-conditioned Visitors Center to see the exhibits, including the National Chief's Mess, and visit the Ship's Store. There are also bathrooms on site.

Option #3
The President and CEO would be honored to greet the group and convey our tremendous appreciation for their service.

Option #4
With more time, Navy Memorial can request a performance on the “Granite Sea” by the Navy’s Ceremonial Guard Silent Drill Team.

Option #5
The best opportunity, allowing us to set up tables in the Visitor Center for the group to have a private luncheon; we can assist in arranging box lunches at the group’s expense. There is no additional cost beyond the box lunches for this opportunity.
