DAUK PRIVACY POLICY

At The Doctors’ Association UK, it is important to us that our members and supporters are aware of how we use the data we collect from them.

The Doctors’ Association UK

The Doctors’ Association UK (DAUK) is a data controller and can be contacted at doctorsassociationuk@gmail.com. The Chair acting as representative, and the Secretary acting as Data Protection Officer, can also be contacted at this email address.

How we collect and use your information

We currently collect personal information including your name, email address and for UK doctors, their GMC number when adding members and supporters to our mailing list. We use that information to send you our newsletter which we aim to send out weekly. We provide you with our privacy policy at the time we collect your data and the privacy policy is available to view on our website at any time. We use a third-party provider, MailChimp, to deliver our newsletter. We gather statistics around email opening and clicks using industry standard technologies to help us monitor and improve our e-newsletter. For more information, please see MailChimp’s privacy notice. You can unsubscribe from our mailing list at any time by clicking the unsubscribe link at the bottom of our emails. Your data will only be retained for the period you are subscribed to our mailing list. We take reasonable and appropriate measures to protect your personal information for loss, misuse and unauthorised access, disclose, alteration and destruction. Our mailing lists are password protected.

Lawful basis for processing data

We are required by law to state the lawful basis for collecting your information. We are able to lawfully collect the data you provide us by your consent, meaning that you have given us clear consent to process your personal data for a specific purpose. For DAUK, this means that you have given us clear consent for us to add you to our mailing list, so that you may receive our newsletter, as detailed above.

Sharing your information

We do not share personal information with any third parties, other than MailChimp as detailed above. DAUK does not sell, rent or trade email lists with other companies, businesses or organisations.
Google Analytics

DAUK uses Google Analytics, a third party service to collect visitor patterns, including the number of visitors to our site, and the sources which they come from, for example, social media. This does not identify any particular visitor. We do make, and do not allow Google to make any attempt to find out the identities of those visiting our website.

Your rights

You are entitled to view, amend, or delete the personal information that we hold. Email your data request to our Secretary and nominated Data Protection Officer (insert name) at doctorsassociationUK@gmail.com. You have the right to without prejudice lodge a complaint with a supervisory authority; in the UK this is the Information Commissioner's Office.

Reviewing this policy

This privacy notice will be reviewed yearly and was last reviewed May 2018. We will review this information if and when we change the way we collect personal information, or the information we collect.