

Rose Bowl Riders is an all-volunteer, not-for-profit organization whose mission is to connect people to horses and nature through responsible horsemanship, sustainable horsekeeping, education & public outreach. We seek to provide leadership in responsible, sustainable, and affordable horse keeping, excellence in horsemanship and instruction, and inclusiveness through community outreach while forming lasting relationships with people who share a common interest in horses.

Our full equestrian facility is situated on 12 oak-shaded acres within Pasadena's Hahamongna Watershed Park. Rose Bowl Riders shares this special natural environment with an abundance of wildlife including quail, western bluebirds, egrets, Cooper's and red-tailed hawks, gopher snakes, rabbits, bobcats, coyotes, deer and more.

Rose Bowl Riders also has a partnering 501(c)(3) called The Rose Bowl Riders Charitable Organization (RBRCO) which funds free and reduced-fee horse programs. Assistance and programs are offered to youth groups, disadvantaged children and adults, public school students and others within the local community who might not otherwise be able to participate. Our goal is to expand the equestrian opportunities at our facility as well as provide greater access to horses and the outdoors.

RBR offers riding lessons for all ages and levels in Hunters, Jumpers, Equitation, Low-level Dressage, Western Pleasure & Horsemanship.

Our resident trainer is Katherine Ginzton who heads up Myrtle Hill Farm and emphasizes good horsemanship, on and off the ground. School horses for all levels are available for those who do not own a horse. Katherine may be reached at (818) 516-5008.

In addition to riding instruction, we provide a variety of programs for all ages and interests:

- U English and Western riding lessons
- U Affordable, friendly horse shows
- U Multi-disciplinary clinics
- U Reasonably priced horse boarding
- U Scouting programs
- U Community-based programs
