

1

2

3

PHOTO BY ROLAND PASCHHOFF

4

5

Some of our favorite picks from the Architectural Digest Home Design Show

1

The Mostra Stone Cabinet from Valitalia features push-pull doors in stone, wood, lacquer, glass or Ecomalta,® a durable non-toxic coating. Cabinet at left (Ecomalta, aged basalto oak) is $3,249. The other one (Ecomalta, matte lacquer, black slate) is $4,189. Valitalia, with a new store in Paramus, represents artisans in Italy's Friulian region. VALITALIA.COM.

2

Retro and industrial styles meet up with chic glamour and sophisticated finishes on the Hicks large pendant light shown in hand-rubbed antique brass and white glass. Designed by Thomas O'Brien for Visual Comfort. $735. FERGUSON.COM.

3

Engineered to emphasize the geometry of its pattern, Piatti from Artistic Tile is a three-dimensional carved mosaic inspired by the jeweler's art of faceting stones. Shown in polished Calacatta Gold, Piatti can be fashioned out of your choice of natural stone. $120 per square foot. ARTISTIC TILE.COM.

4

Zelouf + Bell's sapphire figured sycamore Gimlet Cocktail Cabinet is inlaid with aluminum and has an ivory ripple sycamore interior, leather-lined drawers, sterling silver pulls and a mirror-finish stainless steel base. Double hinges allow the doors to fold back completely. Only six plus one artist's proof are available. $30,000. ZELOUFANDBELL.COM.

5

The deep charcoal interior of the Obsidian line of Jenn-Air refrigerators creates drama every time you open the door. Available in 36-inch ($8,499 to $9,898) and 42-inch ($7,999 to $9,398) models. Electronic interface, LED lighting, soft-close drawers and a TwinFresh® climate-control system for the best refrigerator and freezer humidity. JENNAIR.COM.