Methodology

TARGETING

Registered voters in Chicago were solicited, between November 9-12, in a survey conducted in English.

Change Research applied proprietary Bias Correct approach to solicitations in order to yield a mostly representative sample.

Incomplete responses, respondents outside of Chicago, and unregistered voters were filtered out, leaving a sample of 1007.

WEIGHTING

Results based on 1007 registered voters living in Chicago, and who answered most of the questions.

Sample demographics are close to this population for age, gender, and ethnicity.

Post-stratification done on gender, age, race, and 2016 presidential vote.
