Foundation Assists Lancaster Rotary Club in Awarding Scholarships to Local Students

Lancaster Rotary Club hosted its annual scholarship luncheon on June 2014
2, 2014, at The Lodge in Lancaster, Ohio. The club celebrated the individuals awarded scholarships for the 2014-2015 school year as well as a noteworthy landmark in the club's history. This year, the club surpassed $2 million in funds contributed to the continuation of scholars' education since 1992.

"We are so proud to award the efforts of our community's hardworking students and help motivate their future achievements," said Fairfield County Foundation Executive Director and Rotarian, Amy Eyman. "Reaching this incredible mark in the amount given to graduates reminds me of the important impact Rotary has on shaping future leaders and makes me feel honored to be part of something so special."

Lancaster Rotary Club works with the Fairfield County Foundation to administrate Rotary scholarships. The club retains the responsibility of setting policies and selecting recipients for the scholarships they offer. Having granted $2 million in 22 years, the organization has provided its community with ample opportunities for educational advancement.

The club awarded 51 scholarships totaling $119,450 this year. Recipients are selected on a variety of criteria covering areas of scholastic achievement, involvement and service above self.
