You may copy, modify, and distribute this software (in source and binary forms) and its supporting documentation (if any) under the Original Licensors’ (as identified in the box above) copyright rights, for any purpose other than developing standards, conditioned upon the following:

* This software and all future modifications made to any software files under this license or supporting documentation incorporating this license shall be distributed under the terms of this license which includes the original text as provided in the box above.

* Redistributions of the source code or supporting documentation incorporating this license must retain the above copyright notices and this license.

* Redistributions in binary form must reproduce the above copyright notices and include this license in the documentation and/or other materials provided with the distribution.

* The names of the Original Licensors may not be used to endorse or promote products, specifications, or modifications of this software without specific prior written permission from the Original Licensors.

* If you modify the software or the supporting documentation for that software you are encouraged to contribute your modifications back to the Original Licensors.

* Also, if you permit non-confidential access to your modifications to the source code or documentation, anyone may include such modifications in a contribution of theirs back to the Original Licensors.

* If that contribution containing your modification is accepted by the Original Licensors, you grant to the Original Licensors the rights to copy, modify, and distribute your modification for any purposes related to standardization, including sublicensable, worldwide rights to the foregoing.

* This license is provided under copyright rights only. No rights are given under this license either to copy, modify or distribute any standard(s) / specification(s) or other code or documentation of the Original Licensors, in part or whole, which were not distributed under this license, or to develop implementations of any of the Original Licensor’s standard(s) / specification(s), other than as permitted under this license, unless you have permission otherwise from the Original Licensors. Please refer to the Original Licensors’ additional information link for further details, including any patent licensing commitments made to its standard(s) / specification(s). Where there is only one Original Licensor, references in this license to Original Licensors will be read in the singular.
