Join us for the Telehealth Summit
Webinar Series Hosted by the CTRC

Wednesdays from 12pm - 1pm PDT
August 5, 2020 through September 9, 2020

Session 1:
The Building Blocks to Telehealth Success: How to Structure a Compliant Telehealth Offering
Before rolling out a new telehealth offering, providers must understand the key legal, regulatory, and operational issues involved in structuring and operating a compliant telehealth program. This presentation will address the following topics:

- An overview of telehealth models (direct-to-consumer, business-to-business, and hybrid models)
- Examples of companies operating in the telehealth market
- Corporate structures and key contracts
- Provider credentialing/onboarding (including licensing, practice standards, liability/insurance requirements, credentialing by proxy)
- An overview of key legal and regulatory practice standard issues, including state informed consent requirements, modalities, and prescribing requirements and limitations
- Issues relating to telehealth reimbursement (including cash/self-pay, commercial insurance, Medicaid and Medicare)

Speakers: Monica Chmielewski and Sunny Levine, Foley & Lardner LLP
August 5, 2020 12pm – 1pm PDT

Session 2:
Take Four: Telemedicine in a Rural School District
This presentation will dive in to the Take Four program, which aims to transform mental health counseling services in rural school settings through a collaborative, three-year pilot program at six schools within the Fall River Joint Unified School District (FRJUSD) in Northeastern California.

Speaker: Amanda Harris, Mayers Memorial Hospital District
August 12, 2020 12pm – 1pm PDT

Session 3:
Grant Writing Overview: Tips, Tricks and What’s Available
This presentation will highlight potential grant programs and funding sources that are aimed at technology opportunities (specifically focused on telehealth delivery), how to apply for those grants and what to do once you receive the grant.

Speaker: Dana Satterwhite, Learn Design Apply, Inc.
August 19, 2020 12pm – 1pm PDT

Session 4:
Navigating the Telehealth Landscape: Pressing Legal Issues in Telehealth

Telehealth utilization is growing across the health care continuum, and the legal issues that telehealth implicates are growing in number and complexity. This presentation will focus on three important areas in today’s digital health marketplace; telehealth beyond the provider facility, opioids and telehealth, and federal and state level enforcement actions.

Speaker: Jeremy Sherer, Hooper, Lundy & Bookman, P.C.
August 26, 2020 12pm – 1pm PDT
