OCHIN Revenue Cycle Consulting

OCHIN offers comprehensive Revenue Cycle Consulting services to help members improve financial outcomes. Our consultants pinpoint strengths and opportunities within your current revenue cycle, suggest improvements, and enhance overall fiscal functioning.

Available Services

Consulting engagements are tailored to fit your organization’s specific revenue cycle needs and can include any combination of the following:

- Revenue Cycle Health Assessment
  Find out exactly where your organization stands so you know which areas are working well and which might need improvement.

- Reporting and Metric Design
  Learn how to determine appropriate reports, evaluate data, and apply that data to better manage your revenue cycle and make the most of the technology and information at your fingertips.

- Education
  Increase your team’s understanding and productivity with custom group or one-on-one education on the latest revenue cycle principles and best practices.

- Strategic Optimization
  If you are concerned that your revenue cycle is not performing as it should, an OCHIN Revenue Cycle Consultant can help you develop workflows and processes that strengthen your organization.

Revenue Cycle Consulting can take place on-site at your facility or remotely, at your discretion.

GETTING STARTED

To discuss your organization’s needs and design a program to improve financial health, contact William Augustine at augustinew@ochin.org.

OCHIN Revenue Cycle Consultants

OCHIN leverages our team’s extensive experience and expertise to help you optimize financial returns so you can focus on providing care to your patients.

With decades of revenue cycle management and consulting experience, OCHIN consultants work with all types of health centers, from solo practitioners to provider groups of over 250, presenting complex concepts in meaningful and memorable ways.