Delaware – James Joachimowski

i. 10-15% above average on service requests
ii. More spraying than usual related to marsh restoration project and heavy rains in the late summer
iii. Low numbers of viral activity
iv. ZIKV Response
   1. Improved communications with public health
   2. Responded to travel related cases
   3. Treated surrounding areas
   4. Surveillance
      a. 25 NJ light traps statewide
      b. Increased albo trapping effort
v. What's new in 2017?
   1. Tick control – maybe, based on funding
   2. Considering the use of drones – FFA involvement
   3. Increased surveillance and control of urban mosquitoes