THE UPPER DECK VENUE OVERVIEW
2018
HANG WITH US.
OH HEY

FROM STANLEY, WITH LOVE
a third-story stage for your VIPs or intimate gatherings, it’s the best view in the house.
The Upper Deck at Stanley is one of the only third-floor locations in the building and the perfect locale for your warm-weather gathering. Offer your guests expansive views of The Field at Stanley, the original air traffic control tower from Stapleton’s early days, and the entirety of the Front Range in the distance. The Upper Deck serves as an exclusive VIP experience, solace from a pulsing event below, or a stage for artistic installations.

Accessible via stairs or an elevator, this deck is a covered outdoor overlook on the west side of Stanley Marketplace. Find a rotating series of art hanging on or from the deck throughout the year, or bring your own to give your event an extra pop!

A FEW THINGS TO KEEP IN MIND

• Our team includes an event coordinator and a venue manager who help make each event a success.
• The Upper Deck is an ideal location for a VIP hour before a larger event elsewhere at Stanley.
• The Upper Deck is lighted, but does not have an outlet for power at this time.
• Tables and chairs from The Hangar may be rented for events on the Upper Deck.

Learn more about additional policies by inquiring for your event.
we are always ready and willing to work with you on a custom solution per request, event, and circumstance.

Does that include free carry-on?
The Stanley Venues team works with every client to craft the perfect beverage program that caters to each event. We offer a variety of packages for both hosted and cash bars, and handle all related permitting and regulations. Our expert team of bartenders and servers are trained to know each Stanley venue inside and out. We make sure the beverage program is one less thing you have to worry about, because you should be enjoying your event, not sweating the small things.
Welcome to Stanley Marketplace. This is no ordinary marketplace. We are a community of like-minded businesses and people who believe in doing things differently: sustainable, thoughtfully, creatively, with way more than the bottom line in mind. We have grand ambitions and we are guided by mighty beliefs.

We believe in bringing people together and making them happy.

We believe in making connections: between neighborhoods and generations and strangers and friends. And we do that, by taking down fences and building bridges, figuratively and literally.

We believe the best rules are simple and clear: love your neighbor. Leave each place better than you found it. Be good and do good.

We believe there is no point in making a profit if you’re not also making a difference.

We believe one of the best ways to take care of yourself is to take care of others.

We believe in honoring the history of the land we temporarily occupy. Bob Stanley was the first American to fly a jet plane. Also, he invented the ejection seat. There is a history of innovation here, of boldness. We embrace it.

We embrace collaboration and curiosity, too. Also good food and music and dancing in the grass.

We are locally inspired and community desired. We asked ourselves what would make the best marketplace in the universe. Then we asked out neighbors. And then we built it.

We are guided by the belief that there is nothing better than spending time with family and friends in a beautiful place with excellent food and incredible views.

Every day is an opportunity to put goodness into the world. Positivity is contagious. Kindness is a virtue. We live these beliefs, and that’s why we are all at home here.

A store is a place people go to buy things. Stanley Marketplace is where people go to live: to eat, drink, work, play, learn, grow, gather, and explore, to see friends and make new ones.

We’re Stanley. And we’re here for good.
We’d love to show you The Upper Deck and answer any questions you might have!
