Food Vendor Information, Guidelines and Application

Hello Vendors! We are thrilled to present the 1st annual Paolifest at the Tomato Factory in Paoli, Indiana.

Vendor fee: $50 if submitted before July 15, 2018. $75 if submitted after July 15.

Location: 495 W Thornton St. Paoli, IN 47454

Attendance: We are expecting between 300 and 500 music and art lovers throughout the day on Saturday.

Correspondence: All vendor correspondence will be conducted via email. Our email is vendors@letmusicsspeak.org

Hours of operation: 10 a.m. - 10 p.m., Saturday August 11

Vendor load-in will take place at 8:00 a.m. All vendors are expected to be present at this time.

What we are looking for:

- Food vendors representing a variety of cuisines. We strongly encourage offering vegetarian and vegan options to appeal to what we expect will be a unique and diverse audience.
- Craft vendors displaying a high level of creativity and offering products at a variety of price points. High quality, handmade local items and services will be highly emphasized.

Vending fee includes:

- Space on festival grounds
- Electric. All electrical equipment such as power strips, multi-outlet taps, extension cords, etc., must be grounded and suitable for outdoor use. Lighting and electrical accessories are to be furnished at vendor's own expense. Additional power needs must be specified and paid for prior to the event.
- Water. Source provided for all food vendors. Hoses, splitters, and filters must be provided at vendor's own expense.
- Interactive Media: Company name, contact information, and menu/prices will be listed in the vendors' section of the Paolifest website. The earlier you submit your final menu and price list, the sooner it will appear on the website.
