WaterNSW requires the payment of variable usage charges for all allocation assignments involving a buyer licence not linked to a NSW Works Approval.

Applicants should note that the variable usage charge will be based on the valley of use. Variable usage charges should be included with the transfer fee on application.

This charge is payable directly to WaterNSW at the time the application is lodged.

<sup>8</sup> Authority fees (annual transfer fees) apply where one party is external to CICL.

Exemptions

CICL has not applied for any exemptions to publishing infrastructure charges for a customer under Rule 15, Water Charge Rules 2010.

Generally available discounts

CICL does not have any generally available discounts.

Hardship policy

CICL does not have a hardship policy, however, any customer experiencing hardship should contact CICL's Finance Team to discuss in confidence individual payment arrangements on T: 02 6954 4003. CICL applies interest on overdue accounts at the post judgement interest rate set by the NSW Supreme Court.

Dispute resolution

Any customer wishing to make an enquiry or resolve a dispute with CICL can contact CICL via one or more of the following avenues:

- a. In person at CICL's Offices, 7 Brolga Place, Coleambally
- b. In writing addressed to PO Box 103, Coleambally, NSW 2707
- c. Via email at enquiries@colyirr.com.au
- d. By telephone on T: 02 6954 4003.

Rules 131 and 132 of CICL Rules also provide for dispute resolution.

How are our infrastructure and planning and management charges determined?

CICL's charges are determined by the Board of CICL based on advice from CICL's management.

CICL customers can participate in CICL's process for determining its charges by providing customer feedback directly to CICL at enquiries@colyirr.com.au or attending one of CICL's customer meetings held throughout the year.

How are our pass-through charges determined?

CICL passes on to its customer's ancillary charges for water entitlements (irrigation rights) and use at the amount set by IPART for WaterNSW, WAMC and NSW's contributions to the MDBA. IPART generally sets these charges every four years after a public consultation process. It updates some of these charges annually during this period to reflect changes in the consumer price index and changes in demand for WaterNSW services. Information about IPART and their role in determining maximum water prices is available from here.

How are our pass-through costs which are network operation costs determined?

CICL recovers the fixed and variable costs associated with holding its conveyance and groundwater licence based on an average year net of the WaterNSW Irrigation Corporation rebate. CICL recovers these pass-through costs per delivery entitlement.
