ADJUDICATOR

Aimee Timmons

Aimee has over 25 years experience in the performing arts industry. She began her dance training in classical ballet, RAD Syllabus before taking up other styles of dance including tap, jazz, contemporary and hip hop. She attended high school at the McDonald College of performing arts on a scholarship then went on to complete her Certificate IV in performing arts at Brent Street Studios. She then moved to London to further her studies in Musical Theatre at London Studio Centre, graduating in 2008.

She was presented with the Lia Williams award for best performance in a musical, playing the role of Rita La Porta in “Lucky Stiff”. During her time at London Studio Centre she made her West End debut as Miss Honey in A MY NAME IS ALICE, at the Criterion Theatre. In 2015 she spent a summer in New York City at Stella Adler School of Acting and has since split her time between Sydney and New York.

Aimee has worked at various theatre companies including Belvoir and Sydney Theatre Company. She has been an Agent and Producer, working on musicals such as JERSEY BOYS and ROCK OF AGES. Aimee teaches workshops at a variety of dance schools across Sydney and continues to be a part of new musical development workshops. Aimee loves adjudicating and encouraging new talent; she has adjudicated multiple eisteddfods across Sydney including Northern Beaches Eisteddfod, Destiny Star, Ryde Eisteddfod, Dance Quest and many more. Aimee is also a member of the Australian Dance Adjudicators Association and holds a special place in her heart for classical ballet believing it is the foundation of all dance.

ADJUDICATOR

Chris Haines

Chris is a Sydney based Professional Dancer, Performing Artist, Commercial Model. Chris began training at Vanessa Lee Dance Academy in Wollongong and once finishing his studies Chris trained at the prestigious “Brent Street Studios” securing his place within the industry with some of Australia’s finest Choreographers. Shortly after graduating, Chris was cast as an international dancer for Carnival Cruise Lines and was subsequently requested to assist in the creation, conception and direction of some of the company’s most innovative and cutting edge production shows. Upon his return he was taken under PJ Clarke’s wing at Jeep Management, Australia’s leading Commercial Agency.

Throughout his career, Chris has had the opportunity to perform and work alongside some of the industries most Elite Professionals and recording artists in internationally acclaimed events such as; Dance Boss, The Voice Australia, The Full Monty, Cinderella Pantomime “Bonnie Lythgoe Productions”, Paulini, Zoe Badwi, Em Rusciano, Bob Downe, Inaya Day, Peyton, Carnival Choreographers Ball, Industry Dance, Ben Hur “The Arena Spectacular”, Australian Dance Festival (ADF) & So You Think You Can Dance Australia. As a Commercial Talent, Chris has appeared in many National and International television campaigns; Bonds, Close Up India, ING Direct, KFC, Telstra and Bachelorette to name a few. As a model, Chris is regularly engaged to model for fashion labels such as ‘Puma’, ‘New Balance’ and Westfield Seasons.

ADJUDICATOR

Vicki Attard

Vicki Attard comes from Mackay, Queensland, where she studied ballet with Dawn Armstrong and Betty Meskell before her acceptance into The Australian Ballet School. In 1985 she joined The Australian Ballet and was promoted to Coryphee in 1987, Soloiste in 1991, Senior Artiste in 1992 and Principal Artiste in 1993. She joined Sydney Dance Company for its 1989 season and rejoined The Australian Ballet in 1990.

Vicki performed all principal roles and many and varied leading roles during her 15 year career with the Australian Ballet. Vicki retired at the end of 1999, and immediately undertook and received a Graduate Diploma in Dance Instruction.

Early 2001 saw Vicki assisting Stanton Welch in re-staging Madame Butterfly with The National Ballet of Canada for the ballet's North American debut, and subsequent American seasons with Atlanta Ballet, Boston Ballet and Houston Ballet. Later in 2003 Vicki oversaw the final staging of Madame Butterfly for the Royal New Zealand Ballet, and once again re-staged Madame Butterfly for The Australian Ballet in 2011.

Vicki has been instructing at many major Sydney institutions over the past 18 years and has produced her own unique pointe programs, entitled 'My Beginner Pointe' and 'My Pointe', which are all-encompassing programs specifically designed for young dancers and dance teachers alike, covering the safe dance practices and aesthetic components involved in the instruction of pointe work.

Most recently Vicki was appointed Interim Director of the Houston Ballet Academy by its company Director Mr. Stanton Welch AM. She maintained the position for 2 and a half years where she oversaw 1,000+ students, 7 full time faculty members as well as co-managing the second company HBII.

Vicki continues to instruct and adjudicate within Australia and abroad.
