IV. BREAKAGE

Any damage to Yeshiva property including the dormitory or school furniture, or to the building itself, incurred through improper use by a student will be the full responsibility of the students' parents. Given the expense and difficulty of repairing damaged items, we reserve the right to replace the damaged items rather than repair them. These must be paid within 30 days of the billing statement.

V. FUND RAISING

Tuition alone cannot meet the budgetary requirements of any Yeshiva. While the administration of the Yeshiva accepts the responsibility to raise the necessary funds, it is understood that each parent will participate in supplementary fund raising activities:

Fund Raising Drives

The Yeshiva attempts to raise funds in as many cities as possible. Parents are expected to assist the Rabbis through organizing Parlor Meetings, introducing the Rabbis to potential contributors and foundations, and similar endeavors. Parents will be called upon occasionally during the year to actively participate in fund raising by contacting friends, relatives and local businesses.

VI. REFUNDS

Each of the undersigned parent(s)/guardian(s) agrees to pay, in full, all charges for the entire school year provided by this Agreement whether or not the student is withdrawn by the parent(s)/guardian(s) of the student, or withdraws, is dismissed or is absent for any cause whatsoever during the year. The undersigned agrees that NO REFUND OF ANY TUITION OR ANY OTHER FEES OR CHARGES WILL BE MADE FOR ANY WITHDRAWAL, DISMISSAL OR ABSENCE DURING THAT YEAR.

VII. ADMISSION AND RETENTION

Retention of the student during any academic year, and reenrollment of a student for any subsequent academic year, will remain conditional upon timely performance by the student consistent with the academic and disciplinary standards of the Wisconsin Institute for Torah Study. Without termination of the obligation of the undersigned parent(s)/guardian(s) to pay the tuition as set forth above, the Wisconsin Institute for Torah Study can refuse to allow a student to attend school in the event that the undersigned fail to comply with the tuition, and/or other payment obligations as set forth in this Agreement. TRANSCRIPTS AND GRADES WILL NOT BE ISSUED UNTIL ALL OBLIGATIONS ARE MET AS SET FORTH IN THIS AGREEMENT.

VIII. ENTIRE AGREEMENT

This Agreement constitutes the entire Agreement and understanding between the parties, and supersedes all prior agreements, understanding and representations, whether written or oral. It shall not be modified, amended, altered or changed, nor shall any provision hereof be waived, except by written agreement signed by all of the parties to this Agreement. The undersigned parent(s)/guardian(s) hereby acknowledge that they have read and fully understand the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement. Students will not receive admission cards without submission of this agreement.
