CALL TO ORDER AND WELCOME

Chairman Tonya Moody called the meeting to order at 6:01 pm

APPROVAL OF AGENDA

Member Susan Hall made a motion to approve the agenda.

Co-Chairman Doug Matthews seconded the motion, and the vote was unanimous.

APPROVAL OF MINUTES

Secretary Vicky Matthews made a motion to approve the minutes from the May 15, 2019 meeting.

Co-Chairman Doug Matthews seconded the motion, and the vote was unanimous.

OLD BUSINESS

Timothy Echols- Golden Tech Towing Services, 195 Date Lane, Business Occupation License.

Secretary Vicky Matthews made a motion to recommend approval of Golden Tech Towing Service Occupational License conditional upon the following: The existing garage/mechanical repair shop must become compliant with the current ordinance by either removing all visible junk, wrecked vehicles, dismantled parts or supplies OR by installing a privacy fence so that junk, wrecked vehicles, dismantled parts or supplies are not visible from beyond the premises. Member Susan Hall seconded the motion. The vote was unanimous.

Mayor Steve Ledbetter informed the Commission in reference to new fire station, according to Mr.

Theron Gay, there can be no changes to the design plans that were previously presented to the Commission during the May 2019 meeting. The new fire station is needed and the commission does not want to delay construction which could begin in the next 2 weeks.

Co-Chairman Doug Matthews made a motion to accept the design plans for the new County Fire Station as presented in the May meeting by Mr. Gay. Member Susan Hall seconded the motion and the vote was unanimous. Mayor Ledbetter will inform Mr. Gay of the Commission's decision.
