Overview of the Collection

Creator
Campbell, John, 1766-1840

Title
John Newton and John Campbell Correspondence

Dates
1789-1802 (inclusive)

Quantity
1 linear foot

Collection Number
MS010 (collection)

Summary
The collection contains correspondence between John Newton, clergyman and hymn writer ("Amazing Grace"), and John Campbell, philanthropist, author, and traveller. Portions of the letters were published by Campbell in "Letters and conversational remarks, by the late Rev. John Newton, rector of St. Mary Woolnoth, Lombard-street, London: during the last eighteen years of his life." The collection contains 36 letters written by John Newton to John Campbell and copies of seven letters from Newton to recipients other than Campbell. All letters date between 1789 and 1802.

Repository
Seattle Pacific University
3307 Third Avenue West
Suite 306
Seattle, Washington
98119-1957
Telephone: 206-281-2422
Fax: 206-281-2936
ameier@spu.edu

Access Restrictions
Collection is open for research.

Languages
English

Content Description
The collection contains 36 letters written by John Newton to John Campbell of Edinburgh, Scotland, and seven copies of letters written by Newton to recipients other than Campbell. All letters date between 1789 and 1802. Newton wrote on theological and personal topics and current events. Some of the letters are stamped for postage and have sealing wax residue on them.

Use of the Collection

Alternative Forms Available
Digitized copies of the letters in the collection are available on Digital Commons at SPU: digitalcommons.spu.edu/newton_campbell/.
Administrative Information

Location of Collection
Seattle Pacific University Archives

Names and Subjects

Personal Names:
Campbell, John, 1766-1840 (creator)
Newton, John, 1725-1807 (creator)

Adrienne Meier
2015