THE PREFACE.

WHILE we sing the Praises of our God in his Church, we are employ'd in that part of Worship which of all others is the nearest a-kin to Heaven; and 'tis pity that this of all others should be perform'd the worst upon Earth. The Gospel brings us nearer to the heavenly State than all the former Dispensations of God amongst Men: And in these last Days of the Gospel we are brought almost within sight of the Kingdom of our Lord; yet we are very much unacquainted with the Songs of the New Jerusalem, and unpractis'd in the Work of Praise. To see the dull Indifference, the negligent and the thoughtless Air that fits upon the Faces of a whole Assembly, while the Psalm is on their lips, might tempt even a charitable Observer to suspect the Fervency of inward Religion; and 'tis much to be fear'd that the Minds of most of the Worshippers are absent or unconcern'd. Perhaps the Modes of Preaching in the best Churches still want some Degrees of Reformation, nor are the Methods of Prayer so perfect as to stand in A a need:
need of no Correction or Improvement: But of all our Religious Solemnities Psalmody is the most unhappily manag'd. That very Action which should elevate us to the most delightful and divine Sensations, doth not only flat our Devotion, but too often awakens our Regret, and touches all the Springs of Uneasiness within us.

I have been long convinc'd, that one great Occasion of this Evil arises from the Matter and Words to which we confine all our Songs. Some of 'em are almost opposite to the Spirit of the Gospel: Many of them foreign to the State of the New-Testament, and widely different from the present Circumstances of Christians. Hence it comes to pass, that when spiritual Affections are excited within us, and our Souls are raised a little above this Earth in the beginning of a Psalm, we are check'd on a sudden in our Ascent toward Heaven, by some Expressions that are more suited to the Days of Carnal Ordinances, and fit only to be sung in the Worldly Sanctuary. When we are just entering into an Evanglic Frame by some of the Glories of the Gospel presented in the brightest Figures of Judaism, yet the very next Line perhaps which the Clerk parcels out unto us, hath something in it so extremely Jewish and cloudy, that darkens our Sight of God the Saviour: Thus by keeping too close to David in the House of God, the Vail of Muses is thrown over our Hearts. While we are kindling into Divine Love by the
The Preface.

The Meditations of the loving Kindness of God, and the Multitude of his tender Mercies, within a few Verses some dreadful Curse against Men is propos'd to our Lips; That God would add Iniquity unto their Iniquity, not let 'em come into his Righteousness, but blot 'em out of the Book of the Living, Psal. 69. 16, 27, 28. which is so contrary to the New Commandment, of loving our Enemies; and even under the Old Testament is best accounted for, by referring it to the Spirit of Prophetic Vengeance. Some Sentences of the Psalmist that are expressive of the Temper of our own Hearts, and the Circumstances of our Lives, may compose our Spirits to Seriousness, and allure us to a sweet Retirement within our selves; but we meet with a following Line which so peculiarly belongs but to one Action or Hour of the Life of David or of Asaph, that breaks off our Song in the midst; our Consciences are affrighted left we should speak a Falshood unto God: Thus the Powers of our Souls are shock'd on a sudden, and our Spirits ruffled before we have time to reflect that this may be sung only as a History of antient Saints: And perhaps in some Instances that Salvo is hardly sufficient neither. Besides, it almost always spoils the Devotion by breaking the Uniform Thread of it. For while our Lips and our Hearts run on sweetly together, applying the Words to our own Case, there is something of Divine Delight in it: But at once we are forced to turn off the
the Application abruptly, and our Lips speak nothing but the Heart of David: Thus our own Hearts are as it were forbid the Pursuit of the Song, and then the Harmony and the Worship grow dull of meer necessity.

Many Ministers and many private Christians have long groan’d under this Inconvenience, and have wish’d rather than attempted a Reformation: At their importunate and repeated Requests I have for some Years past devoted many Hours of leisur to this Service. Far be it from my Thoughts to lay aside the Book of Psalms in publick Worship; few can pretend so great a Value for ’em as my Self: It is the most artful, most Devotional and Divine Collection of Poesy; and nothing can be suppos’d more proper to raise a pious Soul to Heaven than some parts of that Book; never was a piece of Experimental Divinity so nobly written, and so justly reverenced and admired: But it must be acknowledged still, that there are a thousand Lines in it which were not made for a Church in our Days, to assume as its own: There are also many Deficiencies of Light and Glory, which our Lord Jesus and his Apostles have supply’d in the Writings of the New Testament; and with this Advantage I have compos’d these Spiritual Songs which are now presented to the World. Nor is the Attempt vain-glorious or presuming; for in respect of clear Evangelick Knowledge, The least in the Kingdom of Heaven is greater than all the Jewish Prophets, Mat. ii. 11.

Now let me give a short Account of the following Compositions.

The greatest Part of 'em are suited to the general State of the Gospel, and the most common Affairs of Christians: I hope there will be very few found but what may properly be used in a religious Assembly, and not one of 'em but may well be adapted to some Seasons, either of private or of publick Worship. The most frequent Tempests and Changes of our Spirit, and Conditions of our Life are here copied, and the Breathings of our Piety express'd according to the variety of our Passions, our Love, our Fear, our Hope, our Desire, our Sorrow, our Wonder and our Joy, as they are refined into Devotion, and act under the Influence and Conduct of the Blessed Spirit; all conversing with God the Father by the new and living Way of Access to the Throne, even the Person and the Mediation of our Lord Jesus Christ. To him also, even to the Lamb that was slain and now lives, I have address'd many a Song; for thus doth the holy Scripture instruct and teach us to Worship, in the various short Patterns of Christian Psalmodie described in the Revelations. I have avoided the more obscure and controverted Points of Christianity, that we might all obey the Direction of the Word of God, and sing his Praises with Understanding, Psal. 47. 7. The Contentious and Distinguishing Words of A 4 Sects
The Preface.

Sects and Parties are seclude, that whole Assemblies might assist at the Harmony, and different Churches join in the same Worship without Offence.

If any Expressions occur to the Reader that favour of an Opinion different from his own, yet he may observe these are generally such as are capable of an extensive Sense, and may be used with a charitable Latitude. Tho' I don't pretend this is the properest Method to write Treatises of Divinity which are to be read in private; yet I think 'tis most agreeable, that what is provided for publick Worship should give to sincere Consciences as little Vexation and Disturbance as possible. However, where any unpleasing Word is found, he that leads the Worship may substitute a better; for (Blessed be God) we are not confin'd to the Words of any Man in our public Solemnities.

The whole Book is written in four sorts of Metre, and fitted to the most common Tunes. I have seldom permitted a Stop in the middle of a Line, and seldom left the end of a Line without one, to comport a little with the unhappy Mixture of Reading and Singing, which cannot presently be reformed. The Metaphors are generally sunk to the Level of vulgar Capacities. I have aimed at ease of Numbers and Smoothness of Sound, and endeavour'd to make the Sense plain and obvious. If the Verse appears so gentle and flowing as to incur the Censure of Feebleness, I may honestly affirm, that sometimes it cost me Labour to make it so; Some of the Beauties of Poesy are neglected, and some wilfully defac'd: I have thrown out the Lines that were too sonorous, and have given an Allay to the Verse, left a more exalted Turn of Thought or Language should darken or disturb the Devotion of the weakest Souls. But hence it comes to pass that I have been forc'd to lay aside many Hymns after they were finish'd, and utterly exclude 'em from this Volume, because of the bolder Figures of Speech that crowded themselves into the Verse, and a more unconfin'd Variety of Number which I could not easily restrain.

These, with many other Divinie and Moral Compositions, are now printed in a Second Edition of the Poems entitled Hymnæ Lyricæ; for as in that Book I have endeavou'rd to please and profit the politer part of Mankind without offending the plainer sort of Christians, so in this it has been my Labour to promote the pious Entertainment of Souls truly serious, even of the meanest Capacity, and at the same time (if possible) not to give Disgust to Persons of richer Sense and nicer Education; and I hope in the present Volume this End will appear to be pursu'd with much greater Happiness than in the former: Impression of it, tho' the World assur'd me the former has not much Reason to complain.

The whole is divided into Three Books.

In the first I have borrow'd the Sentences and much of the Form of the Song from some particular Portions of Scripture, and have paraphras’d most of the Doxologies in the New Testament, that contain any thing in ’em peculiarly Evangelical, and many parts of the Old Testament also, that have a reference to the Times of the Messiah. In these I expect to be often cenfur’d for a too religious Observance of the Words of Scripture, whereby the Verse is weaken’d and debas’d according to the Judgment of the Criticks: But as my whole Design was to aid the Devotion of Christians, so more especially in this Part: and I am satisfy’d I shall hereby attain Two Ends, (viz.) assist the Worship of all serious Minds, to whom the Expressions of Scripture are ever dear and delightful, and gratify the Taste and Inclination of those who think nothing must be sung unto God but the Translations of his own Word. Yet you will always find in this Paraphrase dark Expressions enlighten’d, and the Levitical Ceremonies and Hebrew Forms of Speech chang’d into the Worship of the Gospel, and explain’d in the Language of our Time and Nation; and what would not bear such an Alteration is omitted and laid aside. After this manner should I rejoice to see a good part of the Book of Psalms fitted for the Use of our Churches, and David converted into a Christian: But because I cannot persuade others to attempt this glorious Work, I have suffered my self to be persuaded to begin it, and have, thro’
Divine Goodness, already proceeded half way thro'.

The Second Part consists of Hymns, whose Form is of meer Human Composure, but I hope the Sense and Materials will always appear Divine. I might have brought some Text or other, and apply'd it to the Margin of every Verse, if this Method had been as useful as it was easy. If there be any Poems in the Book that are capable of giving Delight to Persons of a more refin'd Taste and polite Education, perhaps they may be found in this Part; but except they lay aside the Humour of Criticism, and enter into a devout Frame, every Ode here already despairs of pleasing. I confess my self to have been too often tempted away from the more Spiritual Designs I propos'd, by some gay and flowry Expressions that gratify'd the Fancy; the bright Images too often prevail'd above the Fire of Divine Affection; and the Light exceeded the Heat: Yet I hope, in many of them the Reader will find that Devotion dictated the Song, and the Head and Hand were nothing but Interpreters and Secretaries to the Heart: Nor is the Magnificence or Boldness of the Figures comparable to that Divine License which is found in the Eighteenth and Sixty Eighth Psalms, several Chapters of Job, and other Poetical Parts of Scripture: and in this Respect I may hope to escape the Reproof of those who pay a sacred Reverence to the Holy Bible.
The Preface.

I have prepar'd the Third Part only for the Celebration of the Lord's Supper, that, in Imitation of our blessed Saviour, we might sing an Hymn after we have partaken of the Bread and Wine. Here you will find some Paraphrases of Scripture, and some other Compositions. There are above an Hundred Hymns in the Two former Parts that may very properly be used in this Ordinance, and sometimes perhaps appear more suitable than any of these last: But there are Expressions generally us'd in these which confine 'em only to the Table of the Lord, and therefore I have distinguish'd and set 'em by themselves.

If the Lord who inhabits the Praisers of Israel shall refuse to smile upon this Attempt for the Reformation of Psalmody amongst the Churches, yet I humbly hope that his blessed Spirit will make these Compositions useful to private Christians; and if they may but attain the Honour of being esteem'd pious Meditations, to assist the devout and the retir'd Soul in the Exercises of Love, Faith and Joy, 'twill be a valuable Compensation of my Labours; my Heart shall rejoice at the Notice of it, and my God shall receive the Glory. This was my Hope and Vow in the first Publication, and 'tis now my Duty to acknowledge to him with Thankfulness how useful he has made these Compositions already, to the Comfort and Edification of Societies and of private Persons; and, upon the same Grounds I have a better

Having found by Converse with Christians, what Words or Lines in the former made them less useful, I have not only made various Corrections in them, but have endeavour'd to avoid the same Mistakes in all the new Composures. And whereas many of the former were too particularly adapted to special Frames and Stations of the Christian Life, almost all that are added have a more general and extensive Sense, and may be attain'd and sung by most Persons in a worshipping Congregation.

Those Parts are also included in such Crotchets, which contain Words too Poetical for meaner Understandings, or too particular for whole Congregations to sing. But after all, 'tis best in publick Psalmody, for the Minister to choose the particular Parts and Verses of the Psalm or Hymn that is to be sung, rather than leave it to the Judgment or casual Determination of him that leads the Tune.

The Essay concerning the Improvement of Psalmody by the Use of Evangelical Hymns, which took up many Pages of the last Edition, is quite left out here, partly left the Bulk should swell too much, but chiefly because I intend a more complete Treatise of Psalmody, in which the Substance of that Essay will be interspersed, and I hope with fuller Evidence of the Duty of singing new Songs to Him that sits upon the Throne, since the Lamb is ascended thither too.

Let Pharisees of high Esteem
Let the Old Heathen tune their Songs
Let the seventh Angel sound on high
Let the whole Race of Creatures lie
Let the wild Leopards of the Wood
Let them neglect thy Glory Lord
Let us adore th’ Eternal Word
Life and immortal Joys are giv’n
Life is the Time to serve the Lord
Lift up your Eyes to th’ heavenly Seats
Like Sheep we went astray
So the young Tribes of Adam rise
So what a glorious Sight appears
So what an entertaining Sight
Long have I sat beneath the Sound
Look, gracious God, how numerous they
Lord, at thy Temple we appear
Lord, how Divine thy Comforts are
Lord, how secure and blest are they

Lord,
A Table

Lord, how secure my conscience was
Lord, we adore thy bounteous Hand
Lord, we adore thy bounteous Design
Lord, we adore thy bounteous Designs
Lord, we are blind, we Mortals blind
Lord, we confess our numerous Faults
Lord, what a feeble Piece
Lord, what a Heav’n of Saving Grace
Lord, what a Thoughtless Wretch was I
Lord, what a wretched Land is this
Lord, when my Thoughts with Wonder roll
Loud Hallelujahs to the Lord

M.

Man has a Soul of vast Desires
Misstaken Souls that dream of Heav’n
My dear Redeemer and my Lord
My drowsy Powers, why sleep you so
My God, how endless is thy Love
My God, my Life, my Love
My God, my Portion, and my Love
My God, permit me not to be
My God, the Spring of all my Joys
My God, what endless Pleasures dwell
My Heart, how dreadful hard it is
My Saviour God, my Sovereign Prince
My Soul, come meditate the Day
My Soul forsakes her vain Delight
My Thoughts on awful Subjects roll
My Thoughts surmount these lower Skies

N.

Asked as from the Earth we came
Nature with all her Powers shall sing
Nature with open Volume stands
No, I’ll repine at Death no more
No, I shall envy them no more
No more, my God, I boast no more
Nor Eye has seen, nor Ear has heard
Not all the Blood of Beasts
Not all the outward Forms on Earth

Not different Food or different Dress
Not from the Dust Affliction grows
Not the Malicious or Profane
Not to condemn the Sons of Men
Not to the Terrors of the Lord
Not with our mortal Eyes
Now be the God of Israel blest
Now by the Bowels of my God
Now for a Tune of lofty Praise
Now have our Hearts embrac'd our God
Now in the Galleries of his Grace
Now in the Heat of Youthful Blood
Now let a spacious World arise
Now let our Pains be all forgot
Now let the Lord my Saviour smile
Now Satan comes with dreadful Roar
Now shall my inward Joys arise
Now to the Lord a noble Song
Now to the Lord that makes us know
Now to the Power of God Supreme

O
For an overcoming Faith
O! if my Soul were form'd for Woe
O the Almighty Lord
O the Delights, the Heavenly Joys
Often I seek my Lord by Night
Once more, my Soul, the rising Day
Our Days, alas! our mortal Days
Our God how firm his Promise stands
Our Sins, alas! how strong they be
Our Souls shall magnify the Lord
Our Spirits join to adore the Lamb

Praise, Everlasting Praise be paid

Raise thee, my Soul, fly up, and run
Raise your triumphant Songs
Rise, rise, my Soul, and leave the Ground
Saints at your Father's Heavenly Word Salvation! O the joyful Sound See where the great Incarnate God Shall the vile Race of Flesh and Blood Shall we go on to sin Shall Wisdom cry aloud Shine, mighty God, on Britain shine Shout to the Lord, and let our Joys Sin has a thousand treacherous Arts Sin like a venomous Disease Sing to the Lord that built the Skies Sing to the Lord with joyful Voice Sing to the Lord, ye Heavenly Hosts Sitting around our Father's Board So did the Hebrew Prophet raise So let our Lips and Lives express So new-born Babes desire the Breast Stand up, my Soul, shake off thy Fears Stoop down, my Thoughts, that use to rise Straight is the Way, the Door is strait

Terrible God, that reign'st on high That awful Day will surely come Thee we adore, Eternal Name The Glories of my Maker God The God of Mercy be ador'd The King of Glory sends his Son The Lands that long in Darkness lay The Law by Moises came The Law commands and makes us know The Lord declares his Will The word descending from above The Lord Jehovah reigns The Lord on high proclaims The Majesty of Solomon The Majesty of our dying Lord
The Promise of my Father's Love
The Promise was divinely free
The true Messiah now appears
The Voice of my beloved sounds
The wond'ring World enquires to know
There is a House not made with Hands
There is a Land of pure Delight
There's no Ambition swells my Heart
There was an Hour when Christ rejoyn'd
These glorious Minds how bright they shine
This is the Word of Truth and Love
You, whom my Soul admires above
Thus did the Sons of Abraham pass
Thus far the Lord has led me on
Thus faith the first, the great Command
Thus faith the high and lofty One
Thus faith the Ruler of the Skies
Thus faith the Mercy of the Lord
Thus faith the Wisdom of the Lord
By Favours, Lord, surprize our Souls
One, what an empty Vapour 'tis
This by the Faith of Joys to come
This from the Treasures of his Word
This is not the Law of Ten Commands
To God the only wise
To him that chose us first
It was by an Order from the Lord
It was on that dark that doeful Night
It was the Commission of our Lord

Vain are the Hopes the Sons of Men
Vain are the Hopes that Rebels place
Unshaken as the Sacred Hill
Up to the Fields where Angels lie
Up to the Lord that reigns on high

We are a Garden wall'd around
We bless the Prophet of the Lord

HYMNS
HYMNS AND Spiritual Songs.

BOOK I.

Collected from the Holy Scriptures.

I. A New Song to the Lamb that was slain, Rev. 5. 6, 8, 9, 10, 12.

Behold the Glories of the Lamb
Amidst his Father's Throne:
Prepare new Honours for his (Name, And Songs before unknown.

2. Let Elders worship at his Feet,
The Church adore around,
With Vials full of Odours sweet; And Harps of sweeter Sound.

3. Those are the Prayers of the Saints; And these the Hymns they raise;
Hymns and B. I.

Jesus is kind to our Complaints,
He loves to hear our Praise.

[4 Eternal Father, who shall look
Into thy Secret Will?
Who but the Son should take that Book
And open ev'ry Seal?*

5 He shall fulfil thy great Decrees,
The Son deserves it well;
Lo, in his Hand the Sov'reign Keys
Of Heav'n, and Death, and Hell.]

6 Now to the Lamb that once was slain,
Be endless Blessings paid;
Salvation, Glory, Joy remain
For ever on thy Head.

7 Thou hast redeem'd our Souls with Blood,
Hast set the Pris'ners free,
Hast made us Kings and Priests to God,
And we shall reign with thee.

8 The Worlds of Nature and of Grace
Are put beneath thy Pow'r;
Then shorten these delaying Days,
And bring the promis'd Hour.

II. The Deity and Humanity of Christ,
John 1. 1, 3, 14. & Col. 1. 16.
& Eph. 3. 9, 10.

1 E'ER the blue Heav'ns were stretch'd abroad,
From Everlasting was the Word;
    With
B. I. Spiritual Songs.

With God he was; the Word was God,
And must Divinely be ador’d.

2 By his own Pow’r were all things made;
By him supported all things stand;
He is the whole Creation’s Head,
And Angels fly at his Command.

3 E’er Sin was born, or Satan fell,
He led the Host of Morning-Stars;
(Thy Generation who can tell,
Or count the Numbers of thy Years?)

4 But lo, he leaves those Heavenly Forms,
The Word descends and dwells in Clay,
That he may hold Converse with Worms,
Drest in such feeble Flesh as they.

5 Mortals with Joy beheld his Face,
Th’ Eternal Father’s only Son;
How full of Truth! how full of Grace;
When thro’ his Eyes the Godhead shone!

6 Arch-Angels leave their high Abode,
To learn new Mysteries here, and tell
The Loves of our descending God,
The Glories of Emmanuel.

1 Behold, the Grace appears,
The Promise is fulfill’d;
Mary the wondrous Virgin bears,
And Jesus is the Child.

B 2 [2 The
[2 The Lord, the Highest God
   Calls him his only Son;
He bids him rule the Lands abroad,
   And gives him David's Throne.

3 O'er Jacob shall he reign
   With a peculiar Sway;
The Nations shall his Grace obtain;
   His Kingdom ne'er decay.]

4 To bring the glorious News
   A heav'ny Form appears;
He tells the Shepherds of their Joys;
   And banishes their Fears.

5 Go, humble Swains, said he,
   To David's City fly;
The promis'd Infant born to Day
   Doth in a Manger lie.

6 With Looks and Hearts serene
   Go visit Christ your King;
And strait a flaming Troop was seen;
   The Shepherds heard them sing.

7 Glory to God on High,
   And heavenly Peace on Earth,
Good-Will to Men, To Angels Joy,
   At the Redeemer's Birth.

[8 In Worship so Divine
   Let Saints imploy their Tongues;
With the Celestial Host we join,
   And loud repeat their Songs.

9 Glory to God on High,
   And Heavenly Peace on Earth;
V. Submission to Afflictive Providences, Job 1:21.

Naked as from the Earth we came,
And crept to Life at first,
We to the Earth return again,
And mingle with our Dust.

The dear Delights we here enjoy,
And fondly call our own,
Are but short Favours borrow'd Now,
To be repay'd Anon.

'Tis God that lifts our Comforts high,
Or sinks 'em in the Grave.
He gives, and (blessed be his Name)
He takes but what he gave.

Peace, all our angry Passions then,
Let each rebellious Sigh
Be silent at his Sovereign Will,
And every Murmur die.

If smiling Mercy crown our Lives
Its Praises shall be spread,
And we'll adore the Justice too
That strikes our Comforts dead.
VI. Triumph over Death, Job 19, ver. 25, 26, 27.

1 Great God, I own thy Sentence just,
   And Nature must decay,
   I yield my Body to the Dust,
   To dwell with Fellow-clay.

2 Yet Faith may triumph o'er the Grave,
   And trample on the Tombs:
   My Jesus, my Redeemer lives,
   My God, my Saviour comes.

3 The mighty Conqu'ror shall appear
   High on a Royal Seat,
   And Death the last of all his Foes
   Lie vanquish'd at his Feet.

4 Tho' greedy Worms devour my Skin,
   And gnaw my wasting Flesh,
   When God shall build my Bones again,
   He clothes 'em all afresh.

5 Then shall I see thy lovely Face
   With strong immortal Eyes,
   And feast upon thy unknown Grace
   With Pleasure and Surprize.

VII. The Invitation of the Gospel,
or Spiritual Food and Clothing;
Isa. 55. 1, 2, &c.

1 Let ev'ry mortal Ear attend,
   And ev'ry Heart rejoice,
The Trumpet of the Gospel sounds
With an inviting Voice.

Ho, all ye hungry starving Souls,
That feed upon the Wind,
And vainly strive with Earthly Toys
To fill an empty Mind.

Eternal Wisdom has prepar'd
A Soul-reviving Feast,
And bids your longing Appetites
The Rich Provision taste.

Ho, ye that pant for living Streams,
And pine away and die,
Here you may quench your raging Thirst
With Springs that never dry.

Rivers of Love and Mercy here
In a rich Ocean joyn;
Salvation in abundance flows
Like Floods of Milk and Wine.

Ye perishing and naked Poor,
Who work with mighty Pain,
To weave a Garment of your own
That will not hide your Sin.

Come naked, and adorn your Souls
In Robes prepar'd by God,
Wrought by the Labours of his Son
And dy'd in his own Blood.

Dear God, the Treasures of thy Love
Are everlasting Mines,
Deep as our helpless Miseries are,
And boundless as our Sins.
The happy Gates of Gospel-Grace
Stand open Night and Day,
Lord, we are come to seek Supplies,
And drive our Wants away.

VIII. The Safety and Protection of the Church, I sa. 26. 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6.

1 How honourable is the Place
   Where we adoring stand,
   Zion the Glory of the Earth,
   And Beauty of the Land.

2 Bulwarks of mighty Grace defend
   The City where we dwell,
   The Walls of Strong Salvation made;
   Defie th' Assaults of Hell.

3 Lift up the everlasting Gates,
   The Doors wide open fling,
   Enter the Nations that obey
   The Statutes of our King.

4 Here shall you taste unmangled Joys,
   And live in perfect Peace,
   You that have known Jehovah's Name,
   And ventured on his Grace.

5 Trust in the Lord, for ever trust,
   And banish all your Fears;
   Strength in the Lord Jehovah dwells;
   Eternal as his Years.

6 What tho' the Rebels dwell on high,
   His Arm shall bring them low,
   Low as the Caverns of the Grave
   Their lofty Heads shall bow.
On Babylon our Feet shall tread
In that rejoicing Hour,
The Ruins of her Walls shall spread
A Pavement for the Poor.

Mica. 7. 19. Ezek. 36. 25, &c.

1 In vain we lavish out our Lives
To gather empty Wind,
The choicest Blessings Earth can yield
Will starve a hungry Mind.

2 Come, and the Lord shall feed our Souls
With more substantial Meat,
With such as Saints in Glory love,
With such as Angels eat.

3 Our God will ev'ry Want supply,
And fill our Hearts with Peace,
He gives by Cov'nant and by Oath
The Riches of his Grace.

4 Come, and He'll cleanse our spotted Souls,
And wash away our Stains
In the dear Fountain that his Son
Pour'd from his dying Veins.

5 Our Guilt shall vanish all away.
Tho' black as Hell before,
Our Sins shall sink beneath the Sea
And shall be found no more.

6 And left Pollution shou'd o'er-spread
Our inward Pow'rs again,
Hymns and

[His Spirit shall bedew our Souls
Like purifying Rain.]

7 Our Heart, that flinty stubborn thing,
That Terrors cannot move,
That fears no Threatnings of his Wrath
Shall be dissolv'd by Love.

8 Or he can take the Flint away
That wou'd not be refin'd,
And from the Treasures of his Grace
Borrow a softer Mind.

9 There shall his sacred Spirit dwell,
And deep engrave his Law,
And every Motion of our Souls
To swift Obedience draw.

10 Thus will he pour Salvation down,
And we shall render Praise,
We the dear People of his Love,
And be our God of Grace.

X. The Blessedness of Gospel-Times:
Or, The Revelation of Christ to Jews and Gentiles, Is. 5. 2, 7, 8, 9, 10. Mat. 13. 16, 17.

1 How beauteous are their Feet
Who stand on Zion's Hill,
Who bring Salvation on their Tongues,
And Words of Peace reveal!

2 How charming is their Voice!
How sweet the Tidings are!

Zion,
B I. Spiritual Songs.

"Zion, behold thy Saviour-King,
He Reigns and Triumphs here.

3 How happy are our Ears
That hear this joyful Sound,
Which Kings and Prophets waited for,
And sought, but never found!

4 How blessed are our Eyes
That see this Heav'nly Light;
Prophets and Kings desir'd it long
But dy'd without the Sight!

5 The Watchmen join their Voice;
And tuneful Notes imploy;
Jerusalem breaks forth in Songs,
And Desarts learn the Joy.

6 The Lord makes bare his Arm
Thro' all the Earth abroad,
Let ev'ry Nation now behold
Their Saviour and their God.

1 There was an Hour when Christ rejoyc'd,
And spoke his Joy in Words of Praise;
"Father, I thank thee, mighty God,
"Lord of the Earth and Heavens and Seas.

2 "I thank thy Sov'reign Pow'r and Love,
"That crowns my Doctrine with Success;
"And
"And makes the Babes in Knowledge learn
The Heights, and Breadths, and Lengths
(of Grace).

"But all this Glory lies conceal'd
From Men of Prudence and of Wit:
The Prince of Darkness blinds their Eyes,
And their own Pride refills the Light.

"Father, 'tis thus, because thy Will
Chose and ordain'd it should be so;
'Tis thy Delight t' abase the Proud,
And lay the haughty Scorn'er low.

"There's none can know the Father right,
But those who learn it from the Son;
Nor can the Son be well receiv'd,
But where the Father makes him known.

Then let our Souls adore our God
That deals his Graces as he please,
Nor gives to Mortals an Account
Or of his Actions, or Decrees.

XII. Free Grace in revealing Christ,

Jesus the Man of constant Grief,
A Mourner all his Days;
His Spirit once rejoice'd aloud,
And turn'd his Joy to Praise.

Father, I thank thy wondrous Love
That hath reveal'd thy Son
To Men unlearn'd; and to Babes
Has made thy Gospel known,
3 The Myst'ries of Redeeming Grace
Are hidden from the Wise,
While Pride and carnal Reas'nings join
To swell and blind their Eyes.

4 Thus doth the Lord of Heav'n and Earth
His great Decrees fulfill,
And orders all his Works of Grace
By his own Sovereign Will.

XIII. The Son of God incarnate; Or,
The Titles and the Kingdom of Christ, Isa. 9. 2, 6, 7.

1 The Lands that long in Darkness lay
Now have beheld a heavenly Light;
Nations that sat in Death's cold Shade
Are blest with Beams divinely bright.

2 The Virgin's promis'd Son is born,
Behold th'expected Child appear;
What shall his Names or Titles be?
The Wonderful, the Counsellor.

3 This Infant is the Mighty God
Come to be suckled and ador'd;
Th'Eternal Father, Prince of Peace;
The Son of David, and his Lord.

4 The Government of Earth and Seas
Upon his Shoulder shall be laid:
His wide Dominions still increase,
And Honours to his Name be paid.

If Jesus the Holy Child shall sit
High on his Father David's Throne,
And makes the Babes in Knowledge learn
The Heights, and Breadths, and Lengths (of Grace.

But all this Glory lies conceal'd
From Men of Prudenc: and of Wit:
The Prince of Darkness blinds their Eyes,
And their own Pride refills the Light.

Father, 'tis thus, because thy Will
Chose and ordain'd it should be so;
'Tis thy Delight to abase the Proud,
And lay the haughty Scornèr low.

There's none can know the Father right,
But those who learn it from the Son;
Nor can the Son be well receiv'd,
But where the Father makes him known.

Then let our Souls adore our God
That deals his Graces as he please,
Nor gives to Mortals an Account
Or of his Actions, or Decrees.

XII. Free Grace in revealing Christ,

1. Jesus the Man of constant Grief,
A Mourner all his Days;
His Spirit once rejoic'd aloud,
And turn'd his Joy to Praise.

2. Father, I thank thy wondrous Love
That hath reveal'd thy Son
To Men unlearn'd; and to Babes
Has made thy Gospel known,
The Myst'ries of Redeeming Grace
Are hidden from the Wise,
While Pride and carnal Reas'nings join
To swell and blind their Eyes.

Thus doth the Lord of Heav'n and Earth
His great Decrees fulfil,
And orders all his Works of Grace
By his own Sovereign Will.

XIII. The Son of God incarnate; Or,
The Titles and the Kingdom of Christ, Isa. 9. 2, 6, 7.

The Lands that long in Darkness lay
Now have beheld a heavenly Light;
Nations that sat in Death's cold Shade
Are blest with Beams divinely bright.

The Virgin's promis'd Son is born,
Behold th'expected Child appear;
What shall his Names or Titles be?
The Wonderful, the Counsellor.

This Infant is the Mighty God
Come to be suckled and ador'd;
Th'Eternal Father, Prince of Peace;
The Son of David, and his Lord.

The Government of Earth and Seas
Upon his Shoulder shall be laid:
His wide Dominions (till increase,
And Honours to his Name be paid.

Jesus the Holy Child shall sit
High on his Father David's Throne,
Shall crush his Foes beneath his Feet,
And reign to Ages yet unknown.

XIV. The Triumph of Faith: Or,
Christ's unchangeable Love, Rom.
8. 33, &c.

1 Who shall the Lord's Elect condemn? ’Tis God that justifies their Souls,
And Mercy like a mighty Stream
O're all their Sins divinely rolls.

2 Who shall adjudge the Saints to Hell?
’Tis Christ that suffer'd in their stead,
And the Salvation to fulfil
Behold him rising from the Dead.

3 He lives, he lives, and sits above
For ever interceding there.
Who shall divide us from his Love,
Or what should tempt us to despair?

4 Shall Persecution, or Distress,
Famine, or Sword, or Nakedness?
He that hath lov'd us bears us thro',
And makes us more than Conqu'rors too.

5 Faith hath an over-coming Power,
It triumphs in the dying Hour;
Christ is our Life, our Joy, our Hope,
Nor can we sink with such a Prop.

6 Not all that Men on Earth can do,
Nor Pow'rs on high, nor Pow'rs below,
Shall chuse his Mercy to remove,
Or wean our Hearts from Christ our Love.
XV. Our own Weakness, and Christ our Strength, 2 Cor. 12. 7, 9, 10.

Let me but hear my Saviour say,
Strength shall be equal to thy Day,
Then I rejoice in deep Distress,
Leaning on All-sufficient Grace.

I Glory in Infirmitv,
That Christ's own Pow'r may rest on me;
When I am weak, then I am strong,
Grace is my Shield, and Christ my Song.

I can do all things, or can bear
All Sufferings, if my Lord be there;
Sweet Pleasures mingle with the Pains,
While his Left-hand my Head sustains.

But if the Lord be once withdrawn,
And we attempt the Work alone,
When new Temptations spring and rise
We find how great our Weakness is.

So Samson, when his Hair was lost,
Met the Philistines to his Cost,
Shook his vain Limbs with sad Surprize,
Made feeble Fight, and lost his Eyes.

Hosanna to the Royal Son
Of David's antient Line,
His Natures Two, his Person One,
Mysterious and Divine.

2 The Root of David here we find,
And Offspring is the same;
Eternity and Time are join'd
In our Emanuel's Name.

3 Blest He that comes to wretched Man
With peaceful News from Heav'n;
Hosanna's of the highest Strain
To Christ the Lord be giv'n.

4 Let Mortals ne'er refuse to take
Th' Hosanna on their Tongues,
Left Rocks and Stones should rise, and break
Their Silence into Songs.

XVII. Victory over Death, 1 Cor.
15. 55, &c.

1 O For an overcoming Faith
To cheer my Dying Hours,
To triumph o'er the Monster Death,
And all his frightful Pow'rs!

2 Joyful with all the Strength I have
My quivering Lips should sing,
Where is thy boasted Victory, Grave?
And where the Monster's Sting?

3 If Sin be pardon'd I'm secure,
Death hath no Sting beside;
The Law gives Sin its damning Pow'rs;
But Christ my Ransom dy'd.

4 Now
1 Now to the God of Victory
   Immortal Thanks be paid,
Who makes us Conquerors while we die,
   Thro' Christ our Living Head.

XVIII. Blessed are the Dead that die in the Lord, Rev. 14. 13.

Hear what the Voice from Heav'n pro-
   For all the pious Dead,
Sweet is the savour of their Names,
   And soft their sleeping Bed.
They die in Jesus, and are blest;
   How kind their Slumbers are!
From Sufferings and from Sins releas'd,
   And freed from ev'ry Snare.
Far from this World of Toil and Strife;
   They're present with the Lord;
The Labours of their Mortal Life
   End in a large Reward.

XIX. The Song of Simeon; or, Death
made desirable, Luke 1. 27, &c.

Lord, at thy Temple we appear,
   As happy Simeon came,
And hope to meet our Saviour here;
   O make our Joys the same!
With what Divine and vast Delight
   The good old Man was fill'd,
   When
When fondly in his wither'd Arms
He clasp'd the holy Child!

3 Now I can leave this World, he cry'd,
   Behold thy Servant dies,
   I've seen thy great Salvation, Lord,
   And close my peacefull Eyes.

4 This is the Light prepar'd to shine
   Upon the Gentile Lands,
   Thine Israel's Glory, and their Hope
   To break their Slavish Bands.

[5 Jesus, the Vision of thy Face
   Hath overpow'ring Charms,
   Scarce shall I feel Death's cold Embrace,
   If Christ be in my Arms.

6 Then while ye hear my Heart-strings break,
   How sweet my Minutes roll!
   A mortal Paleness on my Cheek,
   And Glory in my Soul.]

XX. Spiritual Apparel, (viz.) The
   Robe of Righteousness, and Garments of Salvation, Isaiah 61. 10.

1 A Wake my Heart, arise my Tongue,
   Prepare a tuneful Voice,
   In God the Life of all my Joys
   Aloud will I rejoyce.

2 'Tis he adorn'd my naked Soul,
   And made Salvation mine,
   Upon a poor polluted Worm
   He makes his Graces shine.
3. And left the shadow of a Spot
    Should on my Soul be found,
  He took the Robe the Saviour wrought,
   And cast it all around.

How far the Heavenly Robe exceeds
   What earthly Priests wear!
These Ornaments how bright they shine!
   How white the Garments are!

The Spirit wrought my Faith and Love,
   And Hope and every Grace,
But Jesus spent his Life to work
   The Robe of Righteousness.

Strangely, my Soul, art thou array'd
   By the great Sacred Three:
In sweetest Harmony of Praise
   Let all thy Powers agree.

XXI. A Vision of the Kingdom of Christ among Men, Revel. 21. 1, 2, 3, 4.

L o, what a Glorious Sight appears
   To our believing Eyes!
The Earth and Sea are pass'd away,
   And the old rolling Skies.

2 From the third Heaven where God resides,
   That holy happy Place,
The New Jerusalem comes down
   Adorn'd with shining Grace.

3 Attending Angels shout for Joy,
   And the bright Armies sing,

Mor-
Hymns and

Mortals, behold the Sacred Seat
Of your descending King.

4 The God of Glory down to Men
Removes his blest Abode,
Men the dear Objects of his Grace,
And he the loving God.

5 His own soft Hand shall wipe the Tears
From every weeping Eye, (Fear
And Pains, and Groans, and Griefs, an
And Death it self shall die.

6 How long, dear Saviour, oh how long.
Shall this bright Hour delay?
Fly swifter round ye Wheels of Time,
And bring the welcome Day.

XXII. & XXIII. Referr'd to the 125th Psalm.

XXIV. The rich Sinner dying; Psal
49. 6, 9. Eccles. 8. 8. Job 3
14.

1 In vain the wealthy Mortals toyl,
And heap their shining Dust in vain,
Look down and scorn the humble Poor,
And boast their lofty Hills of Gain.

2 Their Golden Cordials cannot eafe
Their pained Hearts or aking Heads,
Nor fright nor bribe approaching Death
From glittering Roofs and downy Beds.

3 The lingering, the unwilling Soul
The dismale Summons must obey,

And
And bid a long, a sad Farewell
To the pale Lump of lifeless Clay.
Thence they are huddled to the Grave,
Where Kings & Slaves have equal Thrones,
Their Bones without Distinction lie
Amongst the Heap of meaner Bones.

The rest referr'd to the 49th Psalm.

XV. A Vision of the Lamb; Revel.
5. 6, 7, 8, 9.

ALL mortal Vanities, be gone;
Nor tempt my Eyes, nor tire my Ears;
Behold amidst th' Eternal Throne
A Vision of the Lamb appears.

Glory his Fleecy Robe adorns,
Dank'd with the bloody Death he bore;
Sev'n are his Eyes, and Sev'n his Horns,
So speak his Wisdom and his Pow'r.

So he receives a Sealed Book
From him that sits upon the Throne:
As my Lord prevails to look
In dark Decrees, and things unknown.

All the assembl ing Saints around
All worshipping before the Lamb,
And in new Songs of Gospel-Sound
Address their Honours to his Name.

The Joy, the Shout, the Harmony
Fies o're the Everlasting Hills,
Worthy art thou alone (they cry)
To read the Book, to loose the Seals.

6 Our Voices join the Heav'nly Strain,
And with transporting Pleasure sing,
Worthy the Lamb, that once was slain,
To be our Teacher and our King.

7 His Words of Prophecy reveal
Eternal Counsels, deep Designs;
His Grace and Vengeance shall fulfil
The peaceful and the dreadful Lines.

8 Thou hast redeem'd our Souls from Hell
With thine invaluable Blood;
And Wretches that did once rebel
Are now made Fav'rites of their God.

9 Worthy for ever is the Lord,
That dy'd for Treasons not his own,
By ev'ry Tongue to be ador'd,
And dwell upon his Father's Throne.

XXVI. Hope of Heaven by the Resurrection of Christ; 1 Pet. 1. 3, 4, 5

1 Blest be the everlasting God,
The Father of our Lord,
Be his abounding Mercy prais'd,
His Majesty ador'd.

2 When from the Dead he rais'd his Son,
And call'd him to the Sky,
He gave our Souls a lively Hope
That they should never die.

Spiritual Songs.

What tho' our inbred Sins require
Our Flesh to see the Dust,
Yet as the Lord our Saviour rose
So all his Followers must.

There's an Inheritance divine
Reserv'd against that Day,
'Tis uncorrupted, undefil'd,
And cannot waste away.

Saints by the Pow'r of God are kept
Till the Salvation come;
We walk by Faith as Strangers here,
Till Christ shall call us home.

XVII. Assurance of Heaven, or a Saint prepared to die; 2 Tim. 4. 6, 7, 8, 18.

Death may dissolve my Body now,
And bear my Spirit home;
Why do my Minutes move so slow,
Nor my Salvation come?

With heav'nly Weapons I have fought
The Battles of the Lord,
Finish'd my Course, and kept the Faith,
And wait the sure Reward.]

God has laid up in Heav'n for me
A Crown which cannot fade;
The Righteous Judge at that great Day
Shall place it on my Head.

This Prize for me alone;

XXVIII. The Triumph of Christ over the Enemies of his Church; Isa. 63, 1, 2, 3, &c.

1 What Mighty Man, or Mighty God
Comes Travelling in state,
Along the Ilumean Road
Away from Bozrah's Gate?

2 The Glory of his Robes proclaim
'Tis some Victorious King:
"'Tis I, the Just, th'Almighty One

Why thine Apparel red?
And all thy Vesture stain'd like those
Who in the Wine-press tread?

"And crush'd my Foes alone,
"My Wrath has struck the Rebels dead,
"My Fury stamp'd 'em down.

While we thy awful Vengeance sing,
And our Deliverer praise.

1 IN thine own Ways, O God of Love,
We wait the Visits of thy Grace,
Our Souls Desire is to thy Name,
And the Remembrance of thy Face.

2 My Thoughts are searching, Lord, for thee
'Mongst the black shades of lonesom Night;
My earnest Cries salute the Skies
Before the Dawn restore the Light.

3 Look, how Rebellious Men deride
The tender Patience of my God;
But they shall see thy lifted Hand,
And feel the Scourges of thy Rod.

4 Hark, the Eternal rends the Sky,
A mighty Voice before him goes,
A Voice of Musick to his Friends,
But threatening Thunder to his Foes.

5 Come Children to your Father's Arms;
Hide in the Chambers of my Grace,
Till the fierce Storms be overblown,
And my revenging Fury cease.
My Sword shall boast its Thousands slain,
And drink the Blood of haughty Kings,
While Heavenly Peace around my Flock
Stretches its soft and shady Wings.

XXXII. Strength from Heaven; Isa.
40. ver. 27, 28, 29, 30.

Wheince do our mournful Thoughts arise?

And where's our Courage fled?
Has restless Sin and raging Hell
Strock all our Comforts dead?

Have we forgot th'Almighty Name
That form'd the Earth and Sea?
And can an all-creating Arm
Grow weary or decay?

Treasures of Everlasting Might
In our Jehovah dwell,
He gives the Conquest to the Weak,
And treads their Foes to Hell.

Mee dull mortal Power shall fade and die;
And youthful Vigour cease,
But we that wait upon the Lord
Shall feel our Strength encrease.

The Saints shall mount on Eagles Wings;
And ta'st the promis'd Bliss,
Till their unweary'd Feet arrive
Where perfect Pleasure is.

XXXIII,
XXXIX. God's tender Care of his Church; Isa. 49. v. 13, 14, &c.

1 NOW shall my inward Joys arise
   And built into a Song,
   Almighty Love inspires my Heart,
   And Pleasure tunes my Tongue.

2 God on his thirsty Sion-Hill
   Some Mercy-Drops has thrown,
   And solemn Oaths have bound his Love
   To shower Salvation down.

3 Why do we then indulge our Fears,
   Suspicions and Complaints?
   Is he a God, and shall his Grace
   Grow weary of his Saints?

4 Can a kind Woman e'er forget
   The Infant of her Womb,
   And 'mongst a thousand tender Thoughts
   Her Suckling have no room?

5 Yet, faith the Lord, shou'd Nature change
   And Mothers Monsters prove,
   Sion still dwells upon the Heart
   Of Everlasting Love.

6 Deep on the Palms of both my Hands
   I have Engrav'd her Name,
   My Hands shall raise her ruin'd Walls,
   And build her broken Frame.
XL. The Business and Blessedness of Glorify’d Saints; Rev. 7. 13, 14, 15, &c.

What happy Men, or Angels, these, That all their Robes are spotless White? Whence did this Glorious Troop arrive A. the pure Realms of Heavenly Light?

From tort’ring Rack and burning Fires, And Seas of their own Blood they came: But nobler Blood has wash’d their Robes, Flowing from Christ the dying Lamb.

Now they approach th’ Almighty Throne With loud Hosanna’s Night and Day, Sweet Anthems to the Great Three-One, Measure their blest Eternity.

No more shall Hunger pain their Souls, He bids their parching Thirst be gone, And spreads the shadow of his Wings To screen ’em from the scorching Sun.

The Lamb that fills the middle Throne Shall shed around his milder Beams, Where shall they feast on his rich Love, And drink full Joys from living Streams.

Thus shall their mighty Bliss renew Thro’ the vast Round of endless Years, And the soft Hand of Sovereign Grace Heals all their Wounds, and wipes their Tears.
XLI. The Same. Or, the Martyr
Glorify'd; Rev. 7. 13, &c.

1 These Glorious Minds how bright they shine
   Whence all their white Array?
   How came they to the happy Seats
   Of Everlasting Day?

2 From tort'ring Pains to endless Joys
   On fiery Wheels they rode,
   And strangely washt their Rayment white
   In Jesus' dying Blood.

3 Now they approach a spotless God,
   And bow before his Throne,
   Their warbling Harps and sacred Songs
   Adore the Holy One.

4 The unvail'd Glories of his Face,
   Amongst his Saints reside,
   While the rich Treasure of his Grace
   Sees all their Wants supply'd.

5 Tormenting Thirst shall leave their Souls
   And Hunger flee as fast:
   The Fruit of Life's Immortal Tree
   Shall be their sweet Repast.

6 The Lamb shall lead his Heavenly Flock
   Where living Fountains rise,
   And Love Divine shall wipe away
   The Sorrows of their Eyes.
XLII. Divine Wrath and Mercy;
from Nahum 1. 1, 2, 3, &c.

1 A Dore and tremble, for our God
   Is a * Consuming Fire, * Heb. 12. 29;
   His jealous Eyes his Wrath enflame,
   And raise his Vengeance higher.

2 Almighty Vengeance how it burns!
   How bright his Fury glows!
   Vaft Magazines of Plagues and Storms
   Lie treasur’d for his Foes.

3 Those heaps of Wrath by flow degrees
   Are forc’d into a Flame,
   But kindled, oh! how fierce they blaze!
   And rend all Nature’s Frame.

4 At his Approach the Mountains flee,
   And seek a watry Grave;
   The frightened Sea makes haft away,
   And shrinks up every Wave.

5 Through the wide Air the weighty Rocks
   Are swift as Hail-stones hurl’d:
   Who dares engage his fiery Rage
   That shakes the Solid World?

6 Yet Mighty God, thy Sovereign Grace
   Sits Regent on the Throne,
   The Refuge of thy chosen Race
   When Wrath comes rushing down.

7 Thy Hand shall on Rebellious Kings
   A fiery Tempest pour,
   While

XLV. The Last Judgment; Rev. 21. 5, 6, 7, 8—

1 See where the Great Incarnate God
   Fills a Majestic Throne,
While from the Skies his awful Voice
Bears the Last Judgment down.

I am the First, and I the Last,
   Thro' endless Years the same:
   I AM is my Memorial still,
   And my Eternal Name.

3 Such Favours as a God can give
   My Royal Grace bestows.
   Ye thirsty Souls, come taste the Streams
   Where Life and Pleasure flows.

4 The Saint that triumphs o'er his Sins,
   I'll own him for a Son,
   The whole Creation shall reward
   The Conquests he has won.

5 But bloody Hands, and Hearts unclean,
   And all the lying Race,
   The Faithless, and the Scoffing Crew,
   That spurn at offer'd Grace;

6 They shall be taken from my Sight,
   Bound fast in Iron Chains,
   And
And headlong plung’d into the Lake
Where Fire and Darkness reigns.]

O may I stand before the Lamb,
When Earth and Seas are fled!
And hear the Judge pronounce my Name
With Blessings on my Head!

May I with those for ever dwell
Who here were my Delight,
While Sinners banish’d down to Hell
No more offend my Sight.

XLVI, & XLVII, Referr’d to Psal. 148. & 3.

XLVIII. The Christian Race; Isa.
40. 28, 29, 30, 31.

A Wake our Souls, (away our Fears,
Let every trembling Thought be gone).
Awake and run the heavenly Race,
And put a cheerfull Courage on.

True, ’tis a straight and thorny Road,
And Mortal Spirits tire and faint,
But they forget the mighty God
That feeds the Strength of every Saint.

Thee, mighty God, whose matchless Pow’r
Is ever new and ever young,
And firm endures while endless Years
Their everlast’ng Circles run.

From thee the overflowing Spring,
Our Souls shall drink a fresh Supply,

While
While such as trust their native Strength
Shall melt away, and drop, and die.

5 Swift as an Eagle cuts the Air
We'll mount aloft to thine Abode,
On Wings of Love our Souls shall flye,
Nor tire amidst the Heavenly Road.

XLIX. The Works of Moses and the Lamb; Revel. 15. 3.

1 How strong thine Arm is, mighty (God!)
Who would not fear thy Name?
Jesus, how sweet thy Graces are!
Who would not love the Lamb?

2 He has done more than Moses did,
Our Prophet and our King;
From Bonds of Hell he free'd our Souls,
And taught our Lips to sing.

3 In the Red Sea by Moses hand
Th' Egyptian Holt was drown'd; But his own Blood hides all our Sins,
And Guilt no more is found.

4 When thro' the Desert Israel went,
With Manna they were fed; Our Lord invites us to his Flesh,
And calls it living Bread.

5 Moses beheld the promis'd Land,
Yet never reach'd the Place; But Christ shall bring his Followers home To see his Father's Face.

6 Then
Then shall our Love and Joy be full,
And feel a warmer Flame,
And sweeter Voices tune the Song
Of Moses and the Lamb.

The Song of Zecharias, and the Message of John the Baptist; or, Light and Salvation by Jesus Christ; Luke i. 68, &c. John i. 29, 32.

Now be the God of Israel blest,
Who makes his Truth appear,
His mighty Hand fulfills his Word,
And all the Oaths he sware.

Now he bedews old David's Root
With Blessings from the Skies;
He makes the Branch of Promise grow;
The promis'd Horn arise.

John was the Prophet of the Lord,
To go before his Face,
The Herald which our Saviour-God
Sent to prepare his Ways.

He makes the great Salvation known,
He speaks of pardon'd Sins;
While Grace Divine and heavenly Love
In its own Glory shines.

Behold the Lamb of God, he cries,
That takes our Guilt away:
I saw the Spirit o'er his Head
On his Baptizing Day.

" Be-
6 “Be every Vale exalted high,
   “Sink every Mountain low;
   “The proud must stoop, and humble Souls
   “Shall his Salvation know.

7 “The Heathen Realms with Israel's Land
   “Shall join in sweet Accord:
   “And all that's born of Man shall see

8 “Behold the Morning-Star arise,
   “Ye that in Darkness sit;
   “He marks the Path that leads to Peace,
   “And guides our doubtful Feet.

II. Persevering Grace; Jude 24, 25.

1 To God the only Wise,
   Our Saviour, and our King,
Let all the Saints below the Skies
   Their humble Praises bring.

2 'Tis his Almighty Love,
   His Counsel, and his Care,
Preserves us safe from Sin and Death,
   And every hurtful Snare.

3 He will present our Souls
   Unblemish'd and compleat,
Before the Glory of his Face,
   With Joys divinely great.

4 Then all the chosen Seed
   Shall meet around the Throne,
Shall bless the Conduct of his Grace,
   And make his Wonders known.

5 To
5 To our Redeemer-God
Wisdom and Pow'r belongs,
Immortal Crowns of Majesty,
And everlasting Songs.

LII. Baptism; Mat. 28. 19. Acts 2. 38.

1 'Twas the Commission of our Lord,
   Go teach the Nations, and Baptize,
The Nations have receiv'd the Word
Since he ascended to the Skies.

2 He sits upon th' eternal Hills
   With Grace and Pardon in his Hands,
And sends his Covenant with the Seals,
To bless the distant British Lands.

3 Repent and be Baptiz'd, he faith,
   For the Remission of your Sins;
And thus our Sente affixts our Faith,
And shows us what his Gospel means.

4 Our Souls he washes in his Blood,
   As Water makes the Body clean;
And the good Spirit from our God
Descends like purifying Rain.

5 Thus we ingage our selves to Thee,
   And seal our Covenant with the Lord:
O may the great Eternal Three
In Heaven our solemn Vows record!

LIII. The
LIII. The Holy Scripture: Heb. i. 1. 2 Tim. 3. 15, 16. Psal. 147. 19, 20.

1 God who in various Methods told His Mind and Will to Saints of Old, Sent his own Son with Truth and Grace, To teach us in these latter Days.

2 Our Nation reads the written Word, That Book of Life, that sure Record: The bright Inheritance of Heav'n, Is by the sweet Conveyance giv'n.

3 God's kindest Thoughts are here express, Able to make us Wise and Blest; The Doctrines are divinely true, Fit for Reproof, and Comfort too.

4 Ye British Isles who read his Love In long Epistles from above; (He hath not sent his Sacred Word To every Land) Praise ye the Lord.

LIV. Eleeting Grace: or, Saints be-loved in Christ; Eph. i. 3, &c.

1 Jesus, we bless thy Father's Name; Thy God and ours are both the same: What Heav'nly Blessings from his Throne Flow down to Sinners thro' his Son?

2 Christ
Spiritual Songs.

2 Christ be my first Elect, he said,
Then chose our Souls in Christ our Head,
Before he gave the Mountains Birth,
Or laid Foundations for the Earth.

3 Thus did eternal Love begin,
To raise us up from Death and Sin;
Our Characters were then decreed,
Blameless in Love, A holy Seed.

4 Predestinated to be Sons,
Born by degrees, but chose at once;
A new regenerated Race,
To praise the Glory of his Grace.

5 With Christ our Lord we share our part
In the Affections of his Heart,
Nor shall our Souls be thence remov'd
Till he forgets his First-belov'd.

LV. Hezekiah's Song: or, Sickness and Recovery; Isa. 38. 9, &c.

1 When we are rais’d from deep Distress,
   Our God deserves a Song;
   We take the Pattern of our Praise
   From Hezekiah's Tongue.

2 The Gates of the devouring Grave
   Are open’d wide in vain,
   If he that holds the Keys of Death
   Commands them fail again.

3 Pains of the Flesh are wont t'abuse
   Our Minds with lavish Fears;
Our Days are past, and we shall lose
The remnant of our Years.

4 We chatter with a Swallow's Voice,
   Or like a Dove we mourn,
With Bitterness instead of Joys,
   Afflicted and forlorn.

5 Jehovah speaks the healing Word,
   And no Dand disease withstands:
Fevers and Plagues obey the Lord,
   And fly at his Commands.

6 If half the Strings of Life should break,
   He can our Frame restore:
He calls our Sins behind his Back,
   And they are found no more.

LVI. The Song of Moses and the Lamb: or, Babylon falling; Rev. 15. 3. & 16. 19. & 17. 6.

1 We sing the Glories of thy Love,
   We found thy dreadful Name;
The Christian Church unites the Songs,
   Of Moses and the Lamb.

2 Great God, how wond'rous are thy Works
   Of Vengeance and of Grace?
Thou King of Saints, Almighty Lord,
   How just and true thy Ways?

3 Who dares refuse to fear thy Name,
   Or worship at thy Throne?

Thy
Spiritual Songs.

Thy Judgments speak thine Holiness
Thro' all the Nations known.

Great Babylon that rules the Earth,
Drunk with the Martyrs Blood,
Her Crimes shall speedily awake
The Fury of our God.

The Cup of Wrath is ready mixt,
And She must drink the Dregs;
Strong is the Lord her Sovereign Judge,
And shall fulfil the Plagues.

VII. Original Sin: or, the first and second Adam; Rom. 5. 12, &c.
Psal. 51. 5. Job 14. 4.

Backward with humble Shame we look
On our Original,
How is our Nature dash'd and broke
In our first Father's Fall!

To all that's Good averse and blind,
But prone to all that's ill;
What dreadful Darkness vails our Mind!
How obtinate our Will!

Conceiv'd in Sin, (O wretched state!)
Before we draw our Breath,
The first young Pulse begins to beat
Iniquity and Death.

How strong in our degenerate Blood
The old Corruption reigns,
And mingling with the crooked Flood,
Wanders thro' all our Veins!]

[5 Wild
Hymns and B.I.

[5 Wild and unwholsome as the Root
Will all the Branches be;
How can we hope for living Fruit
From such a deadly Tree?

6 What mortal Pow'r from things unclean
Can pure Productions bring?
Who can command a vital Stream
From an infected Spring?]

7 Yet mighty God, thy wondrous Love
Can make our Nature clean,
While Christ and Grace prevail above
The Tempter, Death and Sin.

8 The Second Adam shall restore
The Ruins of the First,
Hos:anna to that Sov'reign Pow'r
That New-creates our Dust.

LVIII. The Devil vanquish'd: or, Michael's War with the Dragon; Rev. 12. 7.

1 Let mortal Tongues attempt to sing
The Wars of Heav'n, when Michael
Chief General of th' Eternal King,
And fought the Battles of our God.

2 Against the Dragon and his Host
The Armies of the Lord prevail:
In vain they rage, in vain they boast,
Their Courage links, their Weapons fail.
3 Down to the Earth was Satan thrown,
   Down to the Earth his Legions fell;
   Then was the Trump of Triumph blown
   And shook the dreadful Deeps of Hell.

4 Now is the Hour of Darkness past,
   Christ has assum'd his reigning Pow'r;
   Behold the great Accuser cast
   Down from the Skies, to rise no more.

5 'Twas by thy Blood, Immortal Lamb,
   Thine Armies trod the Tempter down;
   'Twas by thy Word and pow'rful Name
   They gain'd the Battle and Renown.

6 Rejoyce ye Heav'ns; let every Star
   Shine with new Glories round the Skie;
   Saints, while ye sing the heav'nly War,
   Raise your Deliverer's Name on high.

LIX. Babylon fallen; Rev. 18.
  20, 21.

1 In Gabriel's Hand a Mighty Stone
   Lyes, a fair Type of Babylon:
   Prophets rejoice, and all ye Saints,
   God shall avenge your long Complaints.

2 He said, and dreadful as the Flood,
   He sunk the Millstone in the Flood:
   Thus terribly shall Babel fall,
   Thus, and no more be found at all.
LX. The Virgin Mary's Song: or, the promised Messiah Born; Luke 1. 46, &c.

1 Our souls shall magnify the Lord,
   In God the Saviour we rejoice:
   While we repeat the Virgin's Song,
   May the same Spirit tune our Voice.

2 The Highest saw her low Estate,
   And mighty Things his Hand hath done:
   His over-shadowing Power and Grace
   Makes her the Mother of his Son.

3 Let every Nation call her Blest,
   And endless Years prolong her Fame;
   But God alone must be ador'd:
   Holy and Reverend is his Name.

4 To those that fear and trust the Lord
   His Mercy stands for ever sure:
   From Age to Age his Promise lives,
   And the Performance is secure.

5 He spake to Abra'm and his Seed,
   In thee shall all the Earth be blest:
   The Memory of that ancient Word
   Lay long in his Eternal Breast.

6 But now no more shall Israel wait,
   No more the Gentils' eye forlorn:
   Lo, the desire of Nations comes;
   Behold the promis'd Seed is born.

LXI. Christ
LXI. Christ our High-Priest and King; and Christ coming to Judgment; Rev. 1. 5, 6, 7.

1 NOW to the Lord that makes us know
The Wonders of his dying Love,
Be humble Honours paid below,
And strains of nobler Praise above.

2 'Twas he that cleans'd our foulest Sins,
And wash'd us in his richest Blood;
'Tis he that makes us Priests and Kings,
And brings us Rebels near to God.

3 To Jesus our Atoning Priest,
To Jesus our Superior King,
Be everlasting Power confessed,
And every Tongue his Glory sing.

4 Behold on flying Clouds he comes,
And every Eye shall see him move;
Tho' with our Sins we pierc'd him once,
Then he displays his pardoning Love.

5 The Unbelieving World shall wail,
While we rejoice to see the Day,
Come Lord; nor let they Promise fail,
Nor let thy Chariots long delay.

LXII. Christ
LXII. Christ Jesus the Lamb of God, worshipped by all the Creation; Rev. 5. 11, 12, 13.

1 Come let us join our cheerful Songs
   With Angels round the Throne;
   Ten thousand thousand are their Tongues,
   But all their Joys are one.

2 Worthy the Lamb that dy'd, they cry,
   To be exalted thus;
   Worthy the Lamb, our Lips reply,
   For He was slain for us.

3 Jesus is worthy to receive
   Honour and Power divine;
   And Blessings more than we can give,
   Be, Lord, for ever thine.

4 Let all that dwell above the Sky,
   And Air, and Earth, and Seas,
   Conspire to lift thy Glories high,
   And speak thine endless Praise.

5 The whole Creation join in one,
   To bless the Sacred Name
   Of him that sits upon the Throne,
   And to adore the Lamb.

LXIII. Christ's Humiliation and Exaltation, Rev. 5. 12.

1 What equal Honours shall we bring
   To thee, O Lord our God, the Lamb,
When all the Notes that Angels sing
Are far inferior to thy Name?

2 Worthy is he that once was slain,
The Prince of Peace that groan’d and dy’d,
Worthy to rise, and live, and reign
At his Almighty Father’s side.

3 Pow’r and Dominion are his Due,
Who stood condemn’d at Pilate’s Bar:
Wisdom belongs to Jesus too,
Tho’ he was charg’d with Madness here.

4 All Riches are his Native Right,
Yet he sustains’d amazing Loss:
To him ascribe eternal Might,
Who left his Weakness on the Cross.

5 Honour Immortal must be paid,
Instead of Scandal and of Scorn:
While Glory shines around his Head,
And a bright Crown without a Thorn.

6 Blessings for ever on the Lamb,
Who bore the Curse for wretched Men:
Let Angels found his Sacred Name,
And every Creature say, Amen.

LXIV. Adoption, 1 John 3. 1, &c.
Gal. 4. 6.

1 Behold what wondrous Grace
The Father hath bestow’d
On Sinners of a Mortal Race,
To call them Sons of God!

2 ’Tis
2 'Tis no surprizing thing
That we should be unknown;
The Jewish World knew not their King,
God's everlasting Son.

3 Nor doth it yet appear
How great we must be made;
But when we see our Saviour here,
We shall be like our Head.

4 A Hope so much divine
May Trials well endure,
May purge our Souls from Sense and Sin,
As Christ the Lord is pure.

5 If in my Father's Love
I share a filial part,
Send down thy Spirit like a Dove
To rest upon my Heart.

6 We would no longer lie
Like Slaves beneath thy Throne;
My Faith shall, Abba Father, cry
And thou the Kindred own.

LXV. The Kingdoms of the World become the Kingdoms of our Lord or, the Day of Judgment; Rev
11. 15.

1 LET the Sev'nth Angel sound on high,
Let Shouts be heard thro' all the Sky,
Kings of the Earth! with glad Accord
Give up your Kingdoms to the Lord.

2 A
Spiritual Songs.

2 Almighty God, thy Pow'r assume,
Who wait, and art, and art to come:
Jesus the Lamb who once was slain,
For ever live, for ever reign.

3 The angry Nations fret and roar,
That they can slay the Saints no more;
On Wings of Vengeance flies our God
To pay the long Arrears of Blood.

Now must the rising Dead appear,
Now the decisive Sentence hear;
Now the dear Martyrs of the Lord
Receive an Infinite Reward.

LXVI. Christ the King at his Table;
Sol. Song 1. 2, 3, 4, 5, 12, 13, 17.

LET him embrace my Soul, and prove
Mine Interest in his heavenly Love:
The Voice that tells me, Thou art mine,
Exceeds the Blessings of the Vine.

On Thee th' anointing Spirit came,
And spreads the favour of thy Name;
That Oyl of Gladness and of Grace
Draws Virgin-Souls to meet thy Face.

Jesus, allure me by thy Charms,
My Soul shall fly into thine Arms!
Our wandring Feet thy Favours bring
To the Fair Chambers of the King.

   And black as Kedar-Tents appear,
   Yet when we put thy Beauties on,
   Fair as the Courts of Solomon.

LXVII. Seeking the Pastures
   Christ the Shepherd; Solomon
   Song I. 7.

Thou whom my Soul admires above
   All Earthly Joy and Earthly Love.
   Tell me, dear Shepherd, let me know
   Where doth thy sweetest Pasture grow.
Where is the shadow of that Rock,
That from the Sun defends thy Flock?
Fain would I feed among thy Sheep,
Among them rest, among them sleep.

Why should thy Bride appear like one
That turns aside to Paths unknown?
My constant Feet would never rove,
Would never seek another Love.

The Footsteps of thy Flock I see:
Thy sweetest Pastures here they be;
A wondrous Feast thy Love prepares,
Bought with thy Wounds, and Glean,
(and Tears)

His dearest Flesh he makes my Food,
And bids me drink his richest Blood;
Here to these Hills my Soul will come,
Till my Beloved lead me home.

XVIII. The Banquet of Love, Sol.
Song 2. 1, 2, 3, 4, 6, 7.

Behold the Rose of Sharon here,
The Lilly which the Valleys bear;
Behold the Tree of Life, that gives
Refreshing Fruit, and healing Leaves.

Amongst the Thorns to Lillies mine;
Amongst wild Gourds the noble Vine;
So in mine Eyes my Saviour proves
Amidst a thousand meaner Loves.

Beneath his cooling Shade I sit,
To shield me from the burning Heat;

Of
Of Heav'ny Fruit he spreads a Feast,
To feed my Eyes and please my Taste.

Kindly he brought me to the Place
Where stands the Banquet of his Grace,
He saw me faint, and o're my Head
The Banner of his Love he spread.

With living Bread and generous Wine
He cheers this sinking Heart of mine;
And opening his own Heart to me,
He shows his Thoughts, how kind they be.

O never let my Lord depart,
Lye down and rest upon my Heart;
I charge my Sins not once to move,
Nor stir, nor wake, nor grieve my Love.

LXIX. Christ appearing to his Church and seeking her Company; Sol.Son.
2. 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, 13.

The Voice of my Beloved sounds
Over the Rocks and rising Grounds,
O're Hills of Guilt and Seas of Grief
He leaps, he flies to my Relief.

Now thro' the Vail of Flesh I see,
With Eyes of Love he looks at me;
Now in the Gospel's clearest Glass
He shows the Beauties of his Face.

Gently he draws my Heart along;
Both with his Beauties and his Tongue:
Rise, faith my Lord, make haste away,
No mortal Joys are worth thy Stay.
B. I.  Spiritual Songs.

4 The Jewish wintry State is gone,
The Mists are fled, the Spring comes on,
The sacred Turtle-Dove we hear
Proclaim the New, the Joyful Year.

5 Th’ Immortal Vine of Heavenly Root,
Blossoms and buds, and gives her Fruit.
Lo, we are come to taste the Wine;
Our Souls rejoice and bless the Vine.

6 And when we hear our Jesus say,
Rise up my Love, make haste away:
Our Hearts would fain outfly the Wind;
And leave all Earthly Loves behind.

LXX. Christ Inviting, and the Church answering the Invitation; Solomon. Song 2. 14, 16, 17.

1 Hark, the Redeemer from on high
Sweetly invites his Favourites nigh;
From Caves of Darkness and of Doubt,
He gently speaks, and calls us out.

2 My Dove, who hidest in the Rock,
Thine Heart almost with Sorrow broke,
Lift up thy Face, forget thy Fear,
And let thy Voice delight mine Ear:

3 Thy Voice to me sounds ever sweet;
My Graces in thy Countenance meet;
Thou, the vain World thy Face despise,
’Tis bright and comely in mine Eyes.

Dear Lord, our thankful Heart receives
The Hope thine Invitation gives:
To thee our joyful Lips shall raise
The Voice of Prayer, and of Praise.

5 I am my Love's, and he is mine;
Our Hearts, our Hopes, our Passions join;
Nor let a Motion, nor a Word,
Nor Thought arise to grieve my Lord.

6 My Soul to Pastures fair he leads,
Amongst the Lillies where he feeds;
Amongst the Saints (whose Robes are white Washed in his Blood) is his delight.

7 Till the Day break, and Shadows flee,
Till the sweet dawning Light I see,
Thine Eyes to me-ward often turn,
Nor let my Soul in Darkness mourn.

8 Be like a Hart on Mountains green,
Leap o're the Hills of Fear and Sin;
Nor Guilt nor Unbelief divide
My Love, my Saviour from my side.

LXXI. Christ found in the Street and brought to the Church; Song 3. 1, 2, 3, 4, 5.

1 Often I seek my Lord by Night,
Jesus, my Love, my Soul's delight;
With warm Desire and restless Thought
I seek him oft, but find him not.

2 Then I arise and search the Street,
Till I my Lord, my Saviour meet;
I ask the Watchmen of the Night,
Where did you see my Soul's Delight?
Sometimes I find him in my Way,
Directed by a Heavenly Ray;
I leap for Joy to see his Face,
And hold him fast in mine Embrace.

I bring him to my Mother's home,
Nor does my Lord refuse to come,
To Sion's sacred Chambers, where
My Soul first drew the vital Air.

He gives me there his bleeding Heart,
Pierc'd for my Sake with deadly Smart;
I give my Soul to him, and there
Our Loves their mutual Tokens share.

I charge you all, ye Earthly Toys,
Approach not to disturb my Joys;
Nor Sin, nor Hell come near my Heart,
Nor cause my Saviour to depart.

LXXII. The Coronation of Christ, and Espousals of the Church; Sol.
Song 3. 2.

Daughters of Sion, come, behold
The Crown of Honour and of Gold,
Which the glad Church with Joys unknown
Plac'd on the Head of Solomon.

Jesus, thou everlasting King,
Accept the Tribute which we bring;
Accept the well-deserv'd Renown,
And wear our Praises as thy Crown.

Let every Act of Worship be
Like our Espousals, Lord, to Thee;
Like the dear Hour when from above
We first receiv’d thy Pledge of Love.

4 The gladness of that happy Day,
Our Hearts would wish it long to stay,
Nor let our Faith forfake it’s hold,
Nor Comfort sink, nor Love grow cold.

5 Each following Minute as it flies,
Increase thy Praise, improve our Joys,
Till we are rais’d to sing thy Name
At the great Supper of the Lamb.

6 O that the Months would roll away,
And bring that Coronation-Day!
The King of Grace shall fill the Throne
With all his Father’s Glories on.

LXXIII. The Churches Beauty in the Eyes of Christ; Sol. Song 4
1, 10, 11, 7, 9, 8.

1 Kind is the Speech of Christ our Lord,
Affection founds in every Word,
Lo, thou art fair, my Love, he cries,
Not the young Doves have sweeter Eyes.

[2 Sweet are thy Lips, thy pleasing Voice
Salutes mine Ear with secret Joys,
No Spice so much delights the Smell,
Nor Milk nor Honey taste so well.]

3 Thou art all fair, my Bride, to me,
I will behold no spot in thee.
What mighty Wonders Love performs,
And puts a Comeliness on Worms!
4 Deaf'd and loathsom as we are,
   He makes us white, and calls us fair;
   Adorns us with that heavenly Dress,
   His Graces, and his Righteousness.

5 My Sister and my Spouse, he cries,
   Bound to my Heart by various Tyes,
   Thy powerful Love my Heart detains
   In strong Delight and pleasing Chains.

6 He calls me from the Leopards Den,
   From this wild World of Beasts and Men,
   To Sion where his Glories are;
   Not Lebanon is half so fair.

7 Nor Dens of Prey, nor flow'ry Plains,
   Nor Earthly Joys, nor Earthly Pains
   Shall hold my Feet, or force my stay,
   When Christ invites my Soul away.

LXXIV. The Church the Garden of Christ; Sol. Song 4. 12, 14, 15.
   and 5. 1.

1 We are a Garden wall'd around,
   Chosen and made peculiar Ground;
   A little Spot inclos'd by Grace
   Out of the World's wide Wilderness.

2 Like Trees of Myrrh and Spice we stand
   Planted by God the Father's Hand;
   And all his Springs in Sion flow,
   To make the young Plantation grow.

Awake, O heavenly Wind, and come,
Blow on this Garden of Perfume.
Spirit Divine, descend and breathe
A gracious Gale on Plants beneath.

4 Make our best Spices flow abroad
To entertain our Saviour God:
And Faith, and Love, and Joy appear,
And every Grace be active here.

5 Let my beloved come, and taste
His pleasant Fruits at his own Feast.
I come, my Spouse, I come, he crys,
With Love and Pleasure in his Eyes.

6 Our Lord into his Garden comes,
Well pleas’d to smell our poor Perfumes,
And calls us to a Feast divine,
Sweeter than Honey, Milk, or Wine.

7 Eat of the Tree of Life, my Friends,
The Blessings that my Father sends;
Your Taste shall all my Dainties prove,
And drink abundance of my Love.

8 Jesus, we will frequent thy Board,
And sing the Bounties of our Lord:
But the rich Food on which we live
Demands more Praise than Tongues can

LXXV. The Description of Christ the Beloved; Sol. Song 5. 9, 10, 11, 12, 14, 15, 16.

1 The wond’ring World enquires why
Why I should love my Jesus so:
What are his Charms, say they, above
The Objects of a Mortal Love?

2 Yes, my Beloved, to my Sight,
She weds a sweet Mixture, Red and White:
All Human Beauties, all Divine
In my Beloved meet and shine.

3 White is his Soul, from Blemish free;
Red with the Blood he shed for me;
The fairest of ten thousand Fairs:
A Sun amongst ten thousand Stars.

[4 His Head the finest Gold excels,
There Wisdom in Perfection dwells;
And Glory like a Crown adorns
Those Temples once beset with Thorns.

5 Compassions in his Heart are found,
Hard by the Signals of his Wound;
His sacred Side no more shall bear
The cruel Scourge, the piercing Spear.

[6 His Hands are fairer to behold
Than Diamonds set in Rings of Gold;
Those heavenly Hands that on the Tree
Were nail'd, and torn, and bled for me.

7 Tho' once he bow'd his feeble Knees,
Loaded with Sins and Agonies,
Now on the Throne of his command
His Legs like Marble Pillars stand.

[8 His Eyes are Majesty and Love,
The Eagle temper'd with the Dove;
No more shall trickling Sorrows roll
Thro' those dear Windows of his Soul.

9 His Mouth that pour’d out long Complaints,

Now smiles, and cheers his fainting Saints:

His Countenance more Graceful is

Must be belov’d, and yet ador’d.

His Worth if all the Nations knew,

Sure the whole Earth would love him too.

LXXVI. Christ dwells in Heaven,
 But visits on Earth; Sol. Song 6.

1, 2, 3, 12.

1 When Strangers stand and hear me tell

What Beauties in my Saviour dwell;

Where he is gone, they fain would know,

That they may seek and love him too.

2 My best Beloved keeps his Throne

On Hills of Light, in Worlds unknown;

But he descends, and shows his Face

In the young Gardens of his Grace.

3 In Vineyards planted by his Hand,

Where fruitful Trees in order stand;

He feeds among the spicy Beds,

Where Lillies show their spotless Heads.

4 He has ingross my warmest Love,

No Earthly Charms my Soul can move:

I have a Mansion in his Heart,

Nor Death nor Hell shall make us part.

LXXVII. The Love of Christ to the Church, in his Language to her, and Provisions for her; Sol. Song 7. 5, 6, 9, 12, 13.

1 NOW in the Galleries of his Grace
Appears the King, and thus he says,
How fair my Saints are in my sight!
My Love how pleasant for delight!

2 Kind is thy Language, Sovereign Lord,
There's heavenly Grace in every Word:
From that dear Mouth a Stream divine
Flows sweeter than the choicest Wine.

3 Such wondrous Love awakes the Lip
Of Saints that were almost asleep,
To speak the Praises of thy Name,
And makes our cold Affections flame.

4 These are the Joys he lets us know
In Fields and Villages below,
Gives us a relish of his Love,
But keeps his noblest Feast above:
5 In Paradise within the Gates
   An higher Entertainment waits;
Fruits new and old laid up in store,
Where we shall feed, but thirst no more.

LXXVIII. The Strength of Christ's Love, and the Souls Jealousy of her own; Sol. Song 8. 5, 6, 7, 13, 14.

WHO is this fair One in distress,
That travels from the Wilderness,
And press'd with Sorrows and with Sins,
On her beloved Lord she leans.

2 This is the Spouse of Christ, our God,
   Bought with the Treasure of his Blood:
   And her Request and her Complaint
   Is but the Voice of every Saint]

3 "O let my Name ingraven stand,
   Both on thy Heart and on thy Hand:
   Seal me upon thine Arm; and wear
   That Pledge of Love for ever there:

4 "Stronger than Death thy Love is known,
   Which floods of Wrath could never drown;
   And Hell and Earth in vain combine
   To quench a Fire so much divine.

5 "But I am jealous of my Heart,
   Left it should once from thee depart;
   Then let thy Name be well impress
   As a fair Signet on my Breast.

6 "Till
Till thou hast brought me to thy home,
Where Fears & Doubts can never come,
Thy Countenance let me often see,
And often thou shalt hear from me.

Come my Beloved, haste away,
Cut short the Hours of thy Delay,
Fly like a youthful Hart or Roe
Over the Hills where Spices grow.

LXXIX. A Morning Hymn; Plat. 19. 5, 8 & 73. 24, 25.

1 God of the Morning, at whose Voice
The cheerful Sun makes haste to rise,
And like a Giant doth rejoice
To run his Journey through the Skies.

2 From the fair Chambers of the East
The Circuit of his Race begins,
And without Weariness or Rest
Round the whole Earth he flies and shines.

3 O like the Sun may I fulfill
Th' appointed Duties of the Day,
With ready Mind and active Will
March on and keep my heavenly Way.

4 But I shall rove and lose the Race,
If God my Sun should disappear,
And leave me in this World's wild Maze
To follow every wand'ring Star.

5 Lord, thy Commands are clean and pure,
Inlightning our beclouded Eyes,
Thy Threat'nings just, thy Promise sure,
Thy Gospel makes the Simple wise.

6 Give me thy Counsels for my Guide,
And then receive me to thy Bliss;
All my Desires and Hopes beside;
Are faint and cold, compar'd with this.

LXXX. An Evening Hymn; Ps. 4. 8. & 3. 5, 6. & 143. 8.

1 Thus far the Lord has led me on,
   Thus far his Power prolongs my Day,
   And every Evening shall make known
   Some fresh Memorial of his Grace.

2 Much of my Time has run to waste,
   And I perhaps am near my Home;
   But he forgives my Follies past,
   He gives me Strength for Days to come.

3 I lay my Body down to sleep,
   Peace is the Pillow for my Head,
   While well appointed Angels keep
   Their watchful Stations round my Bed.

4 In vain the Sons of Earth or Hell
   Tell me a thousand frightful things,
   My God in Safety makes me dwell
   Beneath the Shadow of his Wings.

5 Faith in his Name forbids my Fear:
   O may thy Presence ne'er depart!
   And in the Morning make me hear
   The Love and Kindness of thy Heart.
Thus when the Night of Death shall come,
My Flesh shall rest beneath the Ground,
And wait thy Voice to rouse my Tomb,
With sweet Salvation in the Sound.

LXXXI. A Song for Morning or Evening; Lam. 3. 23. Isa. 45. 7.

My God, how endless is thy Love?
Thy Gifts are every Evening new,
And Morning Mercies from above
Gently distil like early Dew.
Thou spreadst the Curtains of the Night,
Great Guardian of my sleeping Hours;
Thy Sovereign Word restores the Light,
And quickens all my drowsy Powers.

I yield my Powers to thy Command,
To thee I consecrate my Days;
Perpetual Blessings from thine Hand
Demand perpetual Songs of Praise.

LXXXII. God far above Creatures,
or, Man vain and mortal; Job 4.
17—21.

Shall the vile Race of Flesh and Blood
Contend with their Creator, God?
Shall Mortal Worms presume to be
More Holy, Wise, and Just than He?
2 Behold he puts his Trust in none
Of all the Spirits round his Throne;
Their Natures, when compar'd with His,
Are neither Holy, Just, nor Wise.

3 But how much meaner Things are they
Who spring from Dust, and dwell in Clay!
Toucht by the Finger of thy Wrath,
We faint and vanish like the Moth.

4 From Night to Day, from Day to Night,
We die by thousands in thy Sight;
Bury'd in Dust whole Nations lie
Like a forgotten Vanity.

5 Almighty Power, to thee we bow;
How frail are we! How Glorious Thou!
No more the Sons of Earth shall dare
With an Eternal God compare.

LXXXIII. Afflictions and Death
under Providence; Job 5. 6, 7, 8.

1 Not from the Dust Affliction grows;
Not Troubles rise by chance;
Yet we are born to Cares and Woes,
A sad Inheritance.

2 As Sparks break out from burning Coals,
And still are upwards born;
So Grief is rooted in our Souls,
And Man grows up to mourn.
Yet with my God I leave my Cause,
And trust his promis'd Grace;
He rules me by his well-known Laws
Of Love and Righteousness.

Not all the Pains that e'er I bore
Shall spoil my future Peace,
For Death and Hell can do no more
Than what my Father please.

LXXXIV. Salvation, Righteousness,
and Strength in Christ; Isa. 45.
21—25.

Jehovah speaks, let Israel hear,
Let all the Earth rejoice and fear,
While God's Eternal Son proclaims
His Sovereign Honours and his Names.

"I am the Last, and I the First,
"The Saviour God, and God the Just;
"There's none beside pretends to shew
"Such Justice and Salvation too.

"Ye that in Shades of Darkness dwell,
"Just on the Verge of Death and Hell,
"Look up to me from distant Lands,
"Light, Life and Heav'n are in my Hands.

"I by my holy Name have sworn,
"Nor shall the Word in vain return;
"To me shall all things bend the Knee,
"And every Tongue shall swear to me.

"5 In
5 "In me alone shall Men confess
Lies all their Strength, and Righteousness:
"But such as dare despise my Name,
"I'll cloath 'em with eternal Shame.

6 "In me the Lord, shall all the Seed
Of Israel from their Sins be freed,
And by their shining Graces prove
Their Interest in my pard'ning Love:

LXXXV. The Same.

1 THE Lord on high proclaims
His Godhead from his Throne;
'Mercy and Justice are the Names
By which I will be known.

2 Ye dying Souls that sit
In Darkness and Distress,
Look from the Borders of the Pit
To my recovering Grace.

3 Sinners shall hear the Sound;
Their thankful Tongues shall own,
Our Righteousness and Strength is found
In Thee, the Lord, alone:

4 In thee shall Israel trust,
And see their Guilt forgiv'n;
God will pronounce the Sinners just,
And take the Saints to Heav'n.

LXXXVI. G
LXXXVI. God Holy, Just and Sovereign; Job 9. 2—10.

1 HOW should the Sons of Adam's Race
    Be pure before their God?
    If he contend in Righteousness,
    We fall beneath his Rod.

2 To vindicate my Words and Thoughts
    I'll make no more Pretence;
    Not one of all my thousand Fau'ts
    Can bear a just Defence.

3 Strong is his Arm, his Heart is wise;
    What vain Presumers dare
    Against their Maker's Hand to rise,
    Or tempt th' unequal War?

4 Mountains by his Almighty Wrath
    From their old Seats are torn;
    He shakes the Earth from South to North,
    And all her Pillars mourn.

5 He bids the Sun forbear to rise,
    Th' obedient Sun forbears;
    His Hand with Sackcloth spreads the Skies,
    And seals up all the Stars.

6 He walks upon the Stormy Sea;
    Flies on the Stormy Wind;
    There's none can trace his wond'rous Way;
    Or his dark Footsteps find.]
Hymns and B.I.

LXXXVII. God dwells with the Humble and Penitent; Isa. 57. 15, 16.

1 Thus saith the high and lofty One,
   "I sit upon my holy Throne,
   "My Name is God, I dwell on high,
   "Dwell in my own Eternity.

2 "But I descend to Worlds below,
   "On Earth I have a Mansion too,
   "The humble Spirit and contrite
   "Is an Abode of my Delight.

3 "The humble Soul my Words revive,
   "I bid the mourning Sinner live,
   "Heal all the broken Hearts I find,
   "And ease the Sorrows of the Mind.

4 ["When I contend against their Sin,
   "I make them know how vile they've been
   "But should my Wrath for ever smoke,
   "Their Souls would sink beneath my Stroke.

5 O may thy pard'ning Grace be nigh,
   Left we should faint, despair and die!
   Thus shall our better Thoughts approve
   The Methods of thy chast'ning Love.

LXXXVIII. 4
LXXXVIII. Life the Day of Grace and Hope; Eccles. 9. 4, 5, 6, 10.

Life is the Time to serve the Lord,
The Time t'insure the great Reward;
And while the Lamp holds out to burn
The vilest Sinner may return.

Life is the Hour that God has giv'n
To 'scape from Hell and fly to Heav'n,
The Day of Grace, and Mortals may Secure the Blessings of the Day.]

The Living know that they must die,
But all the Dead forgotten lie,
Their Memory and their Sense is gone,
Alike unknowing and unknown.

Their Hatred and their Love is lost,
Their Envy bury'd in the Dull;
They have no Share in all that's done
Beneath the Circuit of the Sun.]

Then what my Thoughts design to do,
My Hands, with all your Might pursue,
Since no Device, nor Work is found,
Nor Faith, nor Hope beneath the Ground.

There are no Acts of Pardon past
In the cold Grave, to which we haste;
But Darkness, Death, and long Despair
Reign in Eternal Silence there.

LXXXIX. Tomb
LXXXIX. Youth and Judgment
Ecclef. xi. 9.

1 Ye Sons of Adam, vain and young,
   Indulge your Eyes, indulge your Tongue,
   Taste the Delights your Souls desire,
   And give a loose to all your Fire.

2 Pursue the Pleasures you design,
   And cheer your Hearts with Songs and merry Ditties,
   Injoy the Day of Mirth; but know there
   There is a Day of Judgment too.

3 God from on high beholds your Thoughts,
   His Book records your secret Faults;
   The Works of Darkness you have done,
   Must all appear before the Sun.

4 The Vengeance to your Follies due
   Should strike your Hearts with Terror there.
   How will ye stand before his Face,
   Or answer for his injur'd Grace?

5 Almighty God, turn off their Eyes
   From these alluring Vanities;
   And let the Thunder of thy Word
   Awake their Souls to fear the Lord.

XC. The same.

6 O the young Tribes of Adam rise,
   And thro' all Nature rove,
Fulfil the Wishes of their Eyes,
And taste the Joys they love.

They give a loose to wild Desires;
But let the Sinners know
The strict Account that God requires
Of all the Works they do.

The Judge prepares his Throne on high,
The frightened Earth and Seas
Avoid the Fury of his Eye,
And flee before his Face.

How shall I bear that dreadful Day,
And stand the fiery Test?
I give all mortal Joys away
To be for ever blest.

XCI. Advice to Youth; or, Old Age
and Death in an unconverted State;
Eccles. 12. 1, 7. Isa. 65. 20.

Now in the Heat of youthful Blood
Remember your Creator God,
Behold, the Months come hast'ning on
When you shall say, My Joys are gone.

Behold, the aged Sinner goes
Laden with Guilt and heavy Woes
Down to the Regions of the Dead,
With endless Curses on his Head.

The Dust returns to Dust again,
The Soul in Agonies of Pain

Ascends
Ascends to God, not there to dwell,
But hears her Doom, and sinks to Hell.

4 Eternal King, I fear thy Name,
Teach me to know how frail I am;
And when my Soul must hence remove,
Give me a Mansion in thy Love.

XCII. Christ the Wisdom of God.
Prov. 8. 1, 22——32.

1 Shall Wisdom cry aloud,
   And not her Speech be heard?
The Voice of God’s Eternal Word,
   Deserves it no Regard?

2 "I was his chief Delight,
   "His everlasting Son,
"Before the first of all his Works
   "Creation was begun.

[3 "Before the flying Clouds,
   "Before the solid Land,
"Before the Fields, before the Floods
   "I dwelt at his Right Hand.

4 "When he adorn’d the Skies,
   "And built them, I was there
"To order where the Sun should rise,
   "And marshal every Star.

5 "When he pour’d out the Sea,
   "And spread the flowing Deep,
"I gave the Flood a firm Decree
   "In its own Bounds to keep.

6 "U
 Upon the empty Air
 The Earth was ballanc'd well;
 With joy I saw the Mansion where
 The Sons of Man should dwell.

 My busy Thoughts at first
 On their Salvation ran,
 E'er Sin was born, or Adam's Dust
 Was fashion'd to a Man.

 Then come receive my Grace,
 Ye Children, and be wise,
 Happy the Man that keeps my Ways;
 The Man that shuns them dies.

 Thus faith the Wisdom of the Lord,
 Blest is the man that hears my Word,
 Keeps daily Watch before my Gates,
 And at my Feet for Mercy waits.

 The Soul that seeks me shall obtain
 Immortal Wealth and heavenly Gain;
 Immortal Life is his Reward,
 Life, and the Favour of the Lord.

 But the vile Wretch that flies from me
 Both his own Soul an Injury;
 Fools that against my Grace rebel
 Seek Death, and love the Road to Hell.
XCIV. Justification by Faith, not by Works; or, The Law condemns, Grace justifies; Rom. 3. 19—22

1. Vain are the Hopes the Sons of Men
   On their own Works have built;
   Their Hearts by Nature all unclean,
   And all their Actions Guilt.

2. Let Jew and Gentile stop their Mouths
   Without a murm'ring Word,
   And the whole Race of Adam stand
   Guilty before the Lord.

3. In vain we ask God's righteous Law
   To justify us now,
   Since to convince and to condemn
   Is all the Law can do.

4. Jesus, how glorious is thy Grace
   When in thy Name we trust!
   Our Faith receives a Righteousness
   That makes the Sinner just.

XCV. Regeneration; John 1. 13. 3. 3, &c.

1. Not all the outward Forms on Earth
   Nor Rites that God has giv'n,
   Nor Will of Man, nor Blood, nor Birth
   Can raise a Soul to Heav'n.

2. The Sovereign Will of God alone
   Creates us Heirs of Grace;
B. I.  Spiritual Songs.

Born in the Image of his Son
A new peculiar Race.

The Spirit like some heavenly Wind,
Blows on the Sons of Flesh,
New-models all the carnal Mind,
And forms the Man a fresh.

Our quickned Souls awake, and rise
From the long Sleep of Death;
On heavenly things we fix our Eyes,
And Praise imploys our Breath.

CVI. Election excludes Boasting;
1 Cor. 1. 26—31.

But few among the carnal Wise,
But few of noble Race
Obtain the Favour of thine Eyes,
Almighty King of Grace.

He takes the Men of meanest Name
For Sons and Heirs of God;
And thus he pours abundant Shame
On honourable Blood.

He calls the Fool, and makes him know
The Mysteries of his Grace,
To bring aspiring Wisdom low,
And all its Pride abase.

Nature has all its Glories lost
When brought before his Throne;
No Flesh shall in his Presence boast
But in the Lord alone.

E 3  XCVII.
XCVII. Christ our Wisdom, Righteousness, &c. 1 Cor. i. 30.

1 Bur'd in Shadows of the Night
   We lie till Christ restores the Light;
   Wisdom descends to heal the Blind,
   And chase the Darkness of the Mind.

2 Our guilty Souls are drown'd in Tears
   Till his atoning Blood appears,
   Then we awake from deep Distress,
   And sing The Lord our Righteousness.

3 Our very Frame is mix'd with Sin,
   His Spirit makes our Natures clean;
   Such Virtues from his Sufferings flow,
   At once to cleanse and pardon too.

4 Jesus beholds where Satan reigns,
   Binding his Slaves in heavy Chains;
   He lets the Prisoners free, and breaks
   The Iron Bondage from our Necks.

5 Poor helpless Worms in thee possest
   Grace, Wisdom, Power, and Righteousness;
   Thou art our mighty All, and we
   Give our whole selves, O Lord, to thee.

XCVIII. The same.

1 How heavy is the Night
   That hangs upon our Eyes
   Till Christ with his reviving Light
   Over our Souls arise!
2 Our guilty Spirits dread
To meet the Wrath of Heaven,
But in his Righteousness array’d
We see our Sins forgiv’n.

3 Unholy and impure
Are all our Thoughts and Ways;
His Hands infected Nature cure
With sanctifying Grace.

4 The Pow’rs of Hell agree
To hold our Souls in vain;
He sets the Sons of Bondage free,
And breaks the cursed Chain.

5 Lord, we adore thy Ways
To bring us near to God,
Thy Sovereign Power, thy healing Grace,
And thine atoning Blood.

XCIX. Stones made Children of Abraham; or, Grace not conveyed by religious Parents; Mat. 3. 9.

1 Vain are the Hopes that Rebels place
Upon their Birth and Blood,
Descended from a pious Race;
(Their Fathers now with God.)

2 He from the Caves of Earth and Hll
Can take the hardest Stones,
And fill the House of Abraham well
With new-created Sons.
3 Such wondrous Pow'r doth he possess
Who form'd our mortal Frame,
Who call'd the World from Emptiness,
The World obey'd and came.

C. Believe and be saved; John 3. 16, 17, 18.

1 NOT to condemn the Sons of Men
Did Christ, the Son of God, appear;
No Weapons in his Hands are seen,
No flaming Sword, nor Thunder there.

2 Such was the Pity of our God,
He lov'd the Race of Man so well,
He sent his Son to bear our Load
Of Sins, and save our Souls from Hell.

3 Sinners, believe the Saviour's Word,
Trust in his mighty Name, and live;
A thousand Joys his Lips afford,
His Hands a thousand Blessings give.

4 But Vengeance and Damnation lies
On Rebels who refuse the Grace;
Who God's Eternal Son despise,
The hottest Hell shall be their Place.

1 WHO can describe the Joys that rise,
Thro' all the Courts of Paradise,
To see a Prodigal return,
To see an Heir of Glory born?

2 With
B. I. Spiritual Songs.

2 With Joy the Father doth approve
   The Fruit of his Eternal Love;
The Son with Joy looks down and sees
   The Purchase of his Agonies.

3 The Spirit takes Delight to view,
   The holy Soul he form'd anew;
   And Saints and Angels joyn to sing
   The growing Empire of their King.

CII. The Beatitudes; Mat. 5.3—12.

[1 Blest are the humble Souls that see
   Their Emptiness and Poverty;
   Treasures of Grace to them are giv'n,
   And Crowns of Joy laid up in Heav'n.]

[2 Blest are the Men of broken Heart,
   Who mourn for Sin with inward Smart;
   The Blood of Christ divinely flows
   A healing Balm for all their Woes.]

[3 Blest are the Meek, who stand afar
   From Rage, and Passion, Noise, and War
   God will secure their happy State,
   And plead their Cause against the Great.]

[4 Blest are the Souls that thirst for Grace,
   Hunger and long for Righteousness,
   They shall be well supply'd, and fed
   With living Streams and living Bread.]

[5 Blest are the Men whose Bowels move
   And melt with Sympathy and Love;
   From Christ the Lord shall they obtain
   Like Sympathy and Love again.]
Blest are the Pure, whose Heart is clean
From the defiling Powers of Sin,
With endless Pleasure they shall see
A God of spotless Purity.

Blest are the Men of peaceful Life,
Who quench the Coals of growing Strife,
They shall be call'd the Heirs of Bliss,
The Sons of God, the God of Peace.

Blest are the Sufferers who partake
Of Pain and Shame for Jesus sake;
Their Souls shall triumph in the Lord;
Glory and Joy are their Reward.

CIII. Not ashamed of the Gospel;
2 Tim. 1. 12.

1 I'm not ashamed to own my Lord,
   Or to defend his Cause,
Maintain the Honour of his Word,
The Glory of his Cross.

2 Jesus, my God; I know his Name,
   His Name is all my Trust,
Nor will he put my Soul to shame,
Nor let my Hope be lost.

3 Firm as his Throne his Promise stands,
   And he can well secure
What I've committed to his Hands
Till the decisive Hour.

4 Then will he own my worthless Name
   Before his Father's Face,
And in the new Jerusalem
Appoint my Soul a Place.
CIV. A State of Nature and Grace;
1 Cor. 6. 10, 11.

Not the Malicious, or Profane,
The Wanton or the Proud,
Nor Thieves, nor Sland'ris shall obtain
The Kingdom of our God.

Surprizing Grace! and such were we
By Nature and by Sin,
Heirs of Immortal Misery,
Unholy and unclean.

But we are wash'd in Jesus Blood,
We're pardon'd thro' his Name;
And the good Spirit of our God
Has sanctify'd our Frame.

O for a persevering Power
To keep thy just Commands!
We would defile our Hearts no more,
No more pollute our Hands.

IV. Heaven invisible and holy;
1 Cor. 2. 9, 10. Rev. 21. 27.

Nor Eye has seen, nor Ear has heard,
Nor Sense, nor Reason known
What Joys the Father has prepar'd
For those that love the Son.

But the good Spirit of the Lord
Reveals a Heav'n to come;
The Beams of Glory in his Word
Allure and guide us home.

3 Pure are the Joys above the Sky,
And all the Region Peace;
No wanton Lips nor envious Eye
Can see or taste the Bliss.

4 Those holy Gates for ever bar
Pollution, Sin and Shame;
None shall obtain Admittance there
But Followers of the Lamb.

5 He keeps the Father’s Book of Life,
There all their Names are found;
The Hypocrite in vain shall strive
To tread the heav’nly Ground.

CVI. Dead to Sin by the Cross of Christ; Rom. 6. 1, 2, 6.

1 Shall we go on to sin,
Because thy Grace abounds,
Or crucify the Lord again,
And open all his Wounds?

2 Forbid it mighty God,
Nor let it e’er be said
That we whose Sins are crucify’d,
Should raise them from the Dead.

3 We will be Slaves no more,
Since Christ has made us free,
Has nail’d our Tyrants to his Cross,
And bought our Liberty.

CVII.
CVII. The Fall and Recovery of Man; or, Christ and Satan at Enmity; Gen. 3. 1, 15, 17. Gal. 4. 4. Col. 2. 15.

Deceiv'd by subtil Snares of Hell,
Adam our Head, our Father fell,
When Satan in the Serpent hid
Propos'd the Fruit that God forbid.

Death was the Threatning: Death began
To take Possession of the Man;
His unborn Race receiv'd the Wound,
And heavy Curses smote the Ground.

But Satan found a worse Reward;
Thus faith the Vengeance of the Lord,
Let Everlasting Hated be
Betzwixt the Woman's Seed and Thee.

The Woman's Seed shall be my Son,
He shall destroy what thou hast done,
Shall break thy Head, and only feel
Thy Malice raging at his Heel.

He spake; and bid four thousand Yeats
Roll on; At length his Son appears;
Angels with Joy descend to Earth,
And sing the young Redeemer's Birth.

Lo, by the Sons of Hell he dies;
But as he hung 'twixt Earth and Skies,
He gave their Prince a fatal Blow,
And triumph'd o'er the Pow'rs below.
C VIII. Christ unseen and beloved;
1 Pet. 1. 8.

1 Not with our mortal Eyes
Have we beheld the Lord,
Yet we rejoice to hear his Name,
And love him in his Word.

2 On Earth we want the sight
Of our Redemer's Face,
Yet, Lord, our inmost Thoughts delight
To dwell upon thy Grace.

3 And when we taste thy Love,
Our Joys divinely grow
Unspeakeable like those above,
And Heav'n begins below.

C IX. The Value of Christ, and his Righteousness; Phil. 3. 7, 8, 9.

1 No more, my God, I boast no more
Of all the Duties I have done;
I quit the Hopes I held before,
To trust the Merits of thy Son.

2 Now for the Love I hear his Name
What was my Gain I count my Loss,
My former Pride I call my Shame,
And nail my Glory to his Cross.

3 Yes, and I must and will esteem
All things but Loss for Jesus' sake;
O may my Soul be found in him,
And of his Righteousness partake!

4 The
I. Spiritual Songs.

The best Obedience of my Hands
Dares not appear before thy Throne;
But Faith can answer thy Demands
By pleading what my Lord has done.

Ex. Death and immediate Glory:

2 Cor. 5. 1, 5—8.

There is a House not made with Hands,
Eternal and on high,
And here my Spirit waiting stands
Till God shall bid it fly.

Shortly this Prison of my Clay
Must be dissolv'd and fall,
Then, O my Soul, with joy obey
Thy heav'nly Father's Call.

Tis He by his Almighty Grace
That forms thee fit for Heav'n,
And as an earnest of the Place
Has his own Spirit giv'n.

We walk by Faith of Joys to come,
Faith lives upon his Word;
But while the Body is our Home
We're absent from the Lord.

Tis pleasant to believe thy Grace,
But we had rather see;
We would be absent from the Flesh,
And present, Lord, with Thee.
CXI. Salvation by Grace; Titus 3, 3—7.

1 Lord, we confess our num'rous Faults,
   How great our Guilt has been!
Foolish and vain were all our Thoughts,
   And all our Lives were Sin.

2 But, O my Soul, for ever praise
   For ever love his Name,
Who turns thy Feet from dang'rous Ways
   Of Folly, Sin and Shame.]

3 'Tis not by Works of Righteousness
   Which our own Hands have done;
But we are fav'd by Sovereign Grace
   Abounding thro' his Son.]

4 'Tis from the Mercy of our God
   That all our Hopes begin;
'Tis by the Water and the Blood
   Our Souls are wash'd from Sin.

5 'Tis thro' the Purchase of his Death;
   Who hung upon the Tree,
The Spirit is sent down to breathe
   On such dry Bones as we.

6 Rais'd from the Dead we live anew;
   And justify'd by Grace,
We shall appear in Glory too,
   And see our Father's Face.
CXII. The Brazen Serpent; or, looking to Jesus; 3 John, ver. 14—16.

1 So did the Hebrew Prophet raise
   The Brazen Serpent high,
   The Wounded felt immediate Ease,
   The Camp forborne to dye.

2 Look upward in the dying Hour,
   And live, The Prophet cries,
   But Christ performs a nobler Cure
   When Faith lifts up her Eyes.

3 High on the Cross the Saviour hung,
   High on the Heav'ns he reigns:
   Here Sinners by th' old Serpent hung,
   Look, and forget their Pains.

4 When God's own Son is lifted up
   A dying World revives;
   The Jew beholds the glorious Hope,
   Th' expiring Gentile lives.

1 HOW large the Promise! How divine,
   To Abraham and his Seed!
   I'll be a God to Thee and Thine,
   Supplying all their Need.

2 The Words of his extensive Love
   From Age to Age indure;
The Angel of the Cov'nant proves,
And seals the Blessing sure.

3 Jesus the ancient Faith confirms
To our great Fathers giv'n;
He takes young Children to his Arms,
And calls them Heirs of Heav'n.

4 Our God, how faithful are his Ways!
His Love endures the same;
Nor from the Promise of his Grace
Blots out the Children's Name.

CXIV. The same; Rom. 11. 16, 17

1 Gentiles by Nature we belong
To the wild Olive-wood,
Grace took us from the Barren Tree,
And grafts us in the Good.

2 With the same Blessings Grace endows
The Gentile and the Jew;
If pure and holy be the Root,
Such are the Branches too.

3 Then let the Children of the Saints
Be dedicate to God;
Pour out thy Spirit on them, Lord,
And wash them in thy Blood.

4 Thus to the Parents and their Seed
Shall thy Salvation come,
And numerous Households meet at last
In one Eternal Home.
CXV. Conviction of Sin by the Law;
Rom. 7. 8, 9, 14, 24.

1 Lord, how secure my Conscience was,
   And felt no inward Dread!
I was alive without the Law,
   And thought my Sins were dead.

2 My hopes of Heav’n were firm and bright;
   But since the Precept came
With a convincing Pow’r and Light,
   I find how vile I am.

3 My Guilt appear’d but small before,
   Till terribly I saw
How perfect, holy, just and pure
   Was thine Eternal Law.

4 Then felt my Soul the heavy Load,
   My Sins reviv’d again,
I had provok’d a dreadful God,
   And all my Hopes were slain.

5 I’m like a helpless Captive fold
   Under the Pow’r of Sin;
I cannot do the Good I would,
   Nor keep my Conscience clean.

6 My God, I cry with every Breath
   For some kind Pow’r to save,
To break the Yoke of Sin and Death,
   And thus redeem the Slave.

CXVI.
CXVI. Love to God and our Neighbour; Mat. 22. 37—40.

1 Thus faith the first, the great Command,
   "Let all thy inward Pow'rs unite
   "To love thy Maker and thy God
   "With utmost Vigour and Delight.

2 "Then shall thy Neighbour next in Place
   "Share thine Affections and Esteem,
   "And let thy Kindness to thy self
   "Measure and rule thy Love to him.

3 This is the Sense that Moses spoke,
   This did the Prophets preach and prove,
   For want of this the Law is broke,
   And the whole Law's fulfill'd by Love.

4 But Oh! how base our Passions are!
   How cold our Charity and Zeal!
   Lord, fill our Souls with heavenly Fire;
   Or we shall ne'er perform thy Will.

CXVII. Election Sovereign and Free;
Rom. 9. 21, 22, 23, 24.

1 Behold the Potter and the Clay,
   He forms his Vessels as he please:
   Such is our God, and such are We,
   The Subjects of his high Decrees.

2 Doth not the Workman's Pow'r extend
   O'er all the Mass; which Part to chuse,
   And
And mould it for a nobler End,
And which to leave for viler Life?

May not the Sovereign Lord on high
 Dispense his Favours as he will,
 Chuse some to Life while others dye,
 And yet be just and gracious still?

What if to make his Terror known
 He lets his Patience long indure,
 Suffering vile Rebels to go on
 And seal their own Destruction sure?

What if he means to show his Grace,
 And his electing Love imploys
 To mark out some of mortal Race,
 And form them fit for heavenly Joys?

Shall Man reply against the Lord,
 And call his Maker's Ways unjust,
 The Thunder of whose dreadful Word
 Can crush a thousand Worlds to Dust?

But, O my Soul, if Truths so bright
 Should dazzle and confound thy sight,
 Yet still his written Will obey,
 And wait the great decisive Day.

Then shall he make his Justice known,
 And the whole World before his Throne,
 With Joy or Terror shall confess
 The Glory of his Righteousness.
CXVIII. Moses and Christ; or, Sins against the Law and Gospel; John 1. 17. Heb. 3. 3, 5, 6. & 10. 28, 29.

1 THE Law by Moses came,
   But Peace, and Truth, and Love
Were brought by Christ, (a nobler Name)
   Descending from above.

2 Amidst the House of God
   Their different Works were done;
Moses a faithful Servant stood,
   But Christ a faithful Son.

3 Then to his new Commands
   Be strict Obedience paid;
O'er all his Father's House he stands
   The Sovereign and the Head.

4 The Man that durst despite
   The Law that Moses brought;
Behold! how terribly he dyes
   For his presumptuous Fau't.

5 But forer Vengeance falls
   On that rebellious Race,
Who hate to hear when Jesus calls,
   And dare relish his Grace.
CXIX. The different Success of the Gospel; 1 Cor. 1, 23, 24. 2 Cor. 2. 16. 1 Cor. 3. 6, 7.

Christ and his Cross is all our Theme;
The Mysteries that we speak
Are Scandal in the Jews Esteem,
And Folly to the Greek.

But Souls enlightened from above
With Joy receive the Word;
They see what Wisdom, Power, and Love
Shines in their dying Lord.

The vital Savour of his Name
Restores their fainting Breath;
But Unbelief perverts the same
To Guilt, Despair, and Death.

Till God diffuse his Graces down
Like Showers of heavenly Rain,
In vain Apollos sows the Ground,
And Paul may plant in vain.

XX. Faith of Things unseen; Heb. 11. 1, 3, 8, 10.

Faith is the brightest Evidence
Of Things beyond our sight,
Breaks thro’ the Clouds of Flesh and Sense,
And dwells in heavenly Light.
2 It sets Times past in present View,
Brings distant Prospects home,
Of Things a Thousand Years ago,
Or Thousand Years to come.

3 By Faith we know the Worlds were made
By God's Almighty Word;
Abraham to unknown Countrys led
By Faith obey'd the Lord.

4 He fought a City fair and high,
Built by th' Eternal Hands;
And Faith affures us, tho' we dye,
That heavenly Building stands.

CXXI. Children devoted to God;
(For those who practise Infant-Baptism.)

1 Thus faith the Mercy of the Lord,
I'll be a God to thee;
I'll bless thy nuns'rous Race, and they
Shall be a Seed for me.

2 Abraham believ'd the promis'd Grace,
And gave his Sons to God;
But Water feals the Blessing now,
That once was seal'd with Blood.

3 Thus Lydia sanctify'd her House
When she receiv'd the Word;
Thus the believing Jaylor gave
His Household to the Lord.

4 Thus later Saints, Eternal King,
Thine antient Truth embrace;
CXXII. Believers buried with Christ in Baptism; Rom. 6. 3, 4, &c.

1. Do we not know that solemn Word,
That we are bury'd with the Lord,
Baptiz'd into his Death, and then
Put off the Body of our Sin?

2. Our Souls receive Diviner Breath,
Rais'd from Corruption, Guilt and Death;
So from the Grave did Christ arise,
And lives to God above the Skies.

3. No more let Sin or Satan reign
Over our mortal Flesh again;
The various Lusts we serv'd before
Shall have Dominion now no more.

CXXIII. The Repenting Prodigal; Luke 15. 13, &c.

Behold the Wretch whose Lust and Wine
Had wasted his Estate,
He begs a Share amongst the Swine,
To taste the Husks they eat.

I die with Hunger here, he cries,
I starve in foreign Lands,
My Father's House has large Supplies;
And bounteous are his Hands.
3 I'll go, and with a mournful Tongue
    Fall down before his Face,
    Father, I've done thy Justice wrong,
    Nor can deserve thy Grace.

4 He said, and hastened to his Home,
    To seek his Father's Love;
    The Father saw the Rebel come,
    And all his Bowels move.

5 He ran, and fell upon his Neck,
    Embrac'd and kiss'd his Son;
    The Rebel's Heart with Sorrow brake
    For Follies he had done.

6 Take off his Cloaths of Shame and Sin,
    (The Father gives Command)
    Dress him in Garments white and clean,
    With Rings adorn his Hand.

7 A Day of Feasting I ordain,
    Let Mirth and Joy abound;
    My Son was dead, and lives again,
    Was lost, and now is found.

CXXIV. The First and Second Ada
Rom. 5. 12, &c.

1 Deep in the Dust before thy Throne
    Our Guilt and our Disgrace we own;
    Great God, we own th' unhappy Nat
    Whence sprung our Nature and our Shi

2 Adam the Sinner: At his Fall
    Death like a Conqueror seiz'd us all;
Spiritual Songs.

A thousand new-born Babes are dead By fatal Union to their Head.

3 But whilst our Spirits fill'd with Awe Behold the Terrors of thy Law, We sing the Honours of thy Grace, That sent to save our ruin'd Race.

4 We sing thine Everlasting Son, Who join'd our Nature to his own; Adam the Second from the Dull Raises the Ruins of the First.

5 By the Rebellion of one Man Thro' all his Seed the Mischief ran; And by One Man's Obedience now Are all his Seed made righteous too.

6 Where Sin did reign and Death abound, There have the Sons of Adam found Abounding Life; there glorious Grace Reigns thro' the Lord our Righteousness.

CXXV. Christ's Compassion to the Weak and Tempted; Heb. 4, 15, 16. & 5. 7. Mat. 12. 20.

1 With Joy we meditate the Grace Of our High-Priest above; His Heart is made of Tenderness, His Bowels melt with Love.

2 Touch'd with a Sympathy within He knows our feeble Frame, He knows what fore Temptations mean, For he has felt the same.

F 2
3 But spotless, innocent and pure
   The Great Redeemer stood,
While Satan's fiery Darts he bore,
   And did resist to Blood.

4 He in the Days of feeble Flesh
   Pour'd out his Cries and Tears,
And in his Measure feels afresh
   What every Member bears.

[5 He'll never quench the smoaking Flax,
   But raise it to a Flame;
The bruised Reed he never breaks,
   Nor scorns the meanest Name.]

6 Then let our humble Faith address
   His Mercy and his Power,
We shall obtain delivering Grace
   In the distressing Hour.

CXXVI. Charity and Uncharitableness; Rom.14.17,19. 1 Cor.10.32

1 Not different Food or different Dress
Compose the Kingdom of our Lord,
But Peace and Joy and Righteousness,
Faith and Obedience to his Word.

2 When weaker Christians we despise
We do the Gospel mighty wrong;
For God the Gracious and the Wise
Receives the Feeble with the Strong.

3 Let Pride and Wrath be banish'd hence,
   Meekness and Love our Souls pursue:
Nor shall our Practice give Offence
   To Saints, the Gentile or the Jew.
CXXVII. Christ's Invitation to Sinners; or, Humility and Pride; Mat. 11. 28—30.

"Come hither all ye weary Souls,
"Ye heavy laden Sinners come,
"I'll give you Rest from all your Toils,
"And raise you to my heavenly Home.

"They shall find Rest that learn of me;
"I'm of a meek and lowly Mind;
"But Passion rages like the Sea,
"And Pride is restless as the Wind.

"Blest is the Man whose Shoulders take
"My Yoke, and bear it with Delight;
"My Yoke is easy to his Neck,
"My Grace shall make the Burden light.

Jesus, we come at thy Command;
With Faith and Hope and humble Zeal
Resign our Spirits to thy Hand,
To mould and guide us at thy Will.

XXVIII. The Apostles Commission; or, the Gospel attested by Miracles; Mark 16. 15, &c. Mat. 28. 18, &c.

"Go preach my Gospel, faith the Lord,
"Bid the whole Earth my Grace receive;
"He
He shall be fav’d that trust’s my Word,
He shall be damn’d that won’t believe.

I’ll make your great Commission known,
And ye shall prove my Gospel true
By all the Works that I have done,
By all the Wonders ye shall do.

Go heal the Sick, go raise the Dead,
Go call out Devils in my Name ;
Nor let my Prophets be afraid,
Tho’ Greeks reproach, & Jews blaspheme.

Teach all the Nations my Commands,
I'm with you till the World shall end;
All Pow’r is trusted to my Hands,
I can destroy, and I defend.

He spake, and Light shone round his Head;
On a bright Cloud to Heav’n he rode ;
They to the farthest Nations spread
The Grace of their ascended God.

CXXIX. Submission and Deliverance;
or, Abraham offering his Son;
Gen. 22. 6, &c.

Saints, at your Father’s heav’ly Word
Give up your Comforts to the Lord;
He shall restore what you resign,
Or grant you Blessings more divine.

So Abraham with obedient Hand
Led forth his Son at God’s Command;
The Wood, the Fire, the Knife he took,
His Arm prepar’d the dreadful Stroke.
A'br'ham, forbear, the Angel cry'd,
Thy Faith is known, thy Love is try'd;
The Son shall live, and in thy Seed
Shall the whole Earth be bless'd indeed.

Just in the last distressing Hour
The Lord displays delivering Pow'r;
The Mount of Danger is the Place
Where we shall see surprizing Grace.

CXXX. Love and Hatred; Phil. 2.
2. Ephes. 4. 30, &c.

NOW by the Bowels of my God,
His sharp Distress, his sore Complaints,
By his last Groans, his dying Blood,
I charge my Soul to love the Saints.

Clamour and Wrath and War be gone,
Envy and Spite for ever cease,
Let bitter Words no more be known
Amongst the Saints, the Sons of Peace.

The Spirit like a peaceful Dove
Flies from the Realms of Noise and Strife;
Why should we vex and grieve his Love,
Who heals our Souls to heav'nly Life?

Tender and kind be all our Thoughts,
Thro' all our Lives let Mercy run:
So God forgives our num'rous Faults
For the dear Sake of Christ his Son.
CXXXI. The Pharisee and Publican;

1 Behold how Sinners disagree,
   The Publican and Pharisee!
   One doth his Righteousness proclaim;
   The other owns his Guilt and Shame.

2 This Man at humble distance stands,
   And cries for Grace with lifted Hands;
   That boldly rises near the Throne,
   And talks of Duties he has done.

3 The Lord their different Language knows;
   And different Answers He bestows;
   The humble Soul with Grace he crowns,
   Whilst on the Proud his Anger frowns.

4 Dear Father, let me never be
   Joyn'd with the boasting Pharisee;
   I have no Merits of my own,
   But plead the Sufferings of thy Son.

CXXXII. Holiness and Grace; Tit.
2. 10—13.

1 So let our Lips and Lives express
   The Holy Gospel we profess,
   So let our Works and Virtues shine,
   To prove the Doctrine all Divine.

2 Thus shall we best proclaim abroad
   The Honours of our Saviour God;
   When the Salvation reigns within,
   And Grace subdues the Power of Sin.

3 Our
3 Our Flesh and Sense must be deny'd,
    Passion, and Envy, Lust and Pride;
    While Justice, Temperance, Truth and
    Our inward Piety approve. (Love

4 Religion bears our Spirits up,
    While we expect that blessed Hope,
    The bright Appearance of the Lord,
    And Faith stands leaning on his Word.

CXXXIII. Love and Charity; 1 Cor.
    13. 2—7, 13.

1 Let Pharisees of high Esteem
    Their Faith and Zeal declare,
    All their Religion is a Dream
    If Love be wanting there.

2 Love suffers long with patient Eye,
    Nor is provok'd in haste,
    She lets the present Injury die,
    And long forgets the past.

[3 Malice and Rage, those Fires of Hell,
    She quenches with her Tongue;
    Hopes, and believes, and thinks no Ill,
    Tho' she indure the wrong.]

[4 She nor desires nor seeks to know
    The Scandals of the Time;
    Nor looks with Pride on those below,
    Nor envies those that climb.]

5 She lays her own advantage by
    To seek her Neighbour's Good:
    So.
So God's own Son came down to die,
And bought our Lives with Blood.

6 Love is the Grace that keeps her Pow'r,
   In all the Realms above;
There Faith and Hope are known no
   But Saints for ever love.

CXXXIV. Religion vain without
   Love; 1 Cor. 13. 1, 2, 3.

1 Had I the Tongues of Greeks and Jews,
   And nobler Speech that Angels use,
If Love be absent, I am found
   Like tinkling Brass, an empty Sound.

2 Were I inspir'd to preach and tell
   All that is done in Heaven and Hell,
Or could my Faith the World remove,
   Still I am nothing without Love.

3 Should I distribute all my Store
   To feed the Bowels of the Poor,
Or give my Body to the Flame
   To gain a Martyr's glorious Name;

4 If Love to God and Love to Men
   Be absent, all my Hopes are vain;
Nor Tongues, nor Gifts, nor fiery Zeal,
   The Work of Love can e're fulfil.

CXXXVII.
CXXXV. The Love of Christ shed abroad in the Heart; Eph. 3.

1 Come dearest Lord, descend and dwell
   By Faith and Love in every Breast;
Then shall we know, and taste, and feel
The Joys that cannot be express.

2 Come fill our Hearts with inward Strength;
   Make our enlarged Souls possess,
And learn the height, and breadth, and
Of thine unmeasurable Grace. (length

3 Now to the God, whose Power can do
   More than our Thoughts or Wishes know,
Be everlasting Honours done
By all the Church, thro' Christ his Son.

CXXXVI. Sincerity and Hypocrisy;
or, Formality in Worship; John 4.

1 GOD is a Spirit Just and Wise,
   He sees our inmost Mind;
In vain to Heaven we raise our Cries,
And leave our Souls behind.

2 Nothing but Truth before his Throne
   With Honour can appear,
The painted Hypocrites are known
   Thro' the Disguise they wear.

3 Their

   Their bending Knees the Ground;
   But God abhors the Sacrifice
   Where not the Heart is found.

4 Lord, search my Thoughts, and try my
   And make my Soul sincere; (Ways,
Then shall I stand before thy Face,
   And find Acceptance there.

CXXXVII. Salvation by Grace in Christ; 2 Tim. i. 9, 10.

1 NOW to the Power of God Supreme
   Be everlasting Honours giv’n,
   From Hell, (we bless his Name)
   He calls our wand’ring Feet to Heav’n.

2 Not for our Duties or Deserts,
   But of his own abounding Grace,
   He works Salvation in our Hearts,
   And forms a People for his Praise.

3 ’Twas his own Purpose that begun
   To rescue Rebels doom’d to die;
   Grace in Christ his Son
   Before he spread the Starry Sky.

4 Jesus the Lord appears at last,
   And makes his Father’s Counsels known;
   The great Transactions past,
   And brings Immortal Blessings down.

5 He dies, and in that dreadful Night
   Did all the Pow’rs of Hell destroy;
   Rising he brought our Heaven to light,
   And took Possession of the Joy.
CXXXVIII. Saints in the Hand of Christ; John 10. 28, 29.

Firm as the Earth thy Gospel stands,
My Lord, my Hope, my Trust;
If I am found in Jesus Hands
My Soul can ne'er be lost.

His Honour is engag'd to save
The meanest of his Sheep,
All that his heavenly Father gave
His Hands securely keep.

Nor Death, nor Hell shall e'er remove
His Favarites from his Breast,
In the dear Bosom of his Love
They must for ever rest.

XXXIX. Hope in the Covenant;
or, God's Promise and Truth unchangeable; Heb. 6. 17——19.

How oft have Sin and Satan strove
To rend my Soul from thee, my God?
But everlasting is thy Love,
And Jesus seals it with his Blood.

The Oath and Promise of the Lord
Joyn to confirm the wond'rous Grace;
Eternal Power performs the Word,
And fills all Heav'n with endless Praise.

Amidst Temptations sharp and long
My Soul to this dear Refuge flies:

CXXXVII. Salvation by Grace in Christ; 2 Tim. 1. 9, 10.

1 Now to the Power of God Supreme
    Be everlasting Honours giv'n,
He saves from Hell, (we bless his Name)
    He calls our wand'ring Feet to Heav'n.

2 Not for our Duties or Deserts,
    But of his own abounding Grace,
He works Salvation in our Hearts,
    And forms a People for his Praise.

3 'Twas his own Purpose that begun
    To rescue Rebels doom'd to die;
He gave us Grace in Christ his Son
    Before he spread the Starry Sky.

4 Jesus the Lord appears at last,
    And makes his Father's Counsels known;
Declares the great Transactions past,
    And brings Immortal Blessings down.

5 He dies, and in that dreadful Night
    Did all the Pow'rs of Hell destroy;
Rising he brought our Heaven to light,
    And took Possession of the Joy.
CXXXVIII. Saints in the Hand of Christ; John 10. 28, 29.

Firm as the Earth thy Gospel stands,
   My Lord, my Hope, my Trust;
If I am found in Jesus Hands
   My Soul can ne'er be lost.

His Honour is engag'd to save
   The meanest of his Sheep,
All that his heavenly Father gave

Nor Death, nor Hell shall e'er remove
   His Favorites from his Breast,
In the dear Bosom of his Love
   They must for ever rest.

XXXIX. Hope in the Covenant; or, God's Promise and Truth unchangeable; Heb. 6. 17——19.

How oft have Sin and Satan strove
   To rend my Soul from thee, my God?
But everlasting is thy Love,
   And Jesus seals it with his Blood.

The Oath and Promise of the Lord
   To confirm the wond'rous Grace;
Eternal Power performs the Word,
   And fills all Heav'n with endless Praise:

Amidst Temptations sharp and long
   My Soul to this dear Refuge flies:

Hope
Hope is my Anchor, firm and strong,
While Tempests blow and Billows rise.

4 The Gospel bears my Spirits up;
A faithful and unchanging God
Lays the Foundation for my Hope
In Oaths, and Promises, and Blood.

CXL. A Living and a Dead Faith,
collected from several Scriptures.

1 Mistaken Souls! that dream of Heav'n,
And make their empty Boat
Of inward Joys, and Sins forgiv'n,
While they are Slaves to Lust.

2 Vain are our Fancies airy Flights,
If Faith be cold and dead,
None but a living Power unites
To Christ the living Head.

3 'Tis Faith that changes all the Heart,
'Tis Faith that works by Love,
That bids all sinful Joys depart,
And lifts the Thoughts Above.

4 'Tis Faith that conquers Earth and Hell
By a Celestial Power,
This is the Grace that shall prevail
In the decisive Hour.

5 Faith must obey her Father's Will,
As well as trust his Grace;
A pard'ning God is jealous still
For his own Holiness.

6 When
When from the Curse he sets us free
He makes our Natures clean,
Nor would he send his Son to be
The Minister of Sin.

His Spirit purifies our Frame,
And seals our Peace with God;
Jesus, and his Salvation came
By Water and by Blood.]

CXLII. The Humiliation and Exaltation of Christ; Isa. 53. 1—5.
10—12.

1 WHO has believ'd thy Word,
   Or thy Salvation known?
Reveal thine Arm, Almighty Lord,
And glorify thy Son.

2 The Jews esteem'd him here
   Too mean for their Belief:
Sorrows his chief Acquaintance were,
And his Companion, Grief.

3 They turn'd their Eyes away,
   And treated him with Scorn;
But 'twas their Grief upon him lay,
Their Sorrows he has born.

4 'Twas for the stubborn Jews
   And Gentiles then unknown,
The God of Justice pleas'd to bruise
His best-beloved Son.

5 " But I'll prolong his Days,
   " And make his Kingdom stand,
"My Pleasure (faith the God of Grace)
"Shall prosper in his Hand.

[6 "His joyful Soul shall see
"The Purchase of his Pain,
"And by his Knowledge justify
"The guilty Sons of Men.]

[7 "Ten thousand Captive Slaves
"Releas’d from Death and Sin,
"Shall quit their Prisons and their Graves,
"And own his Pow’r Divine.]

[8 "Heav’n shall advance my Son
"To Joys that Earth deny’d;
"Who saw the Follies Men had done,
"And bore their Sins, and dy’d.]

CXLII. The same; Isa. 53.6—9, 12.

1 Like Sheep we went astray,
   And broke the Fold of God,
Each wand’ring-in a different way,
   But all the downward Road.

2 How dreadful was the Hour
   When God our Wand’rings laid,
And did at once his Vengeance pour
   Upon the Shepherd’s Head!

3 How glorious was the Grace,
   When Christ sustaine’d the Stroke!
His Life and Blood the Shepherd pays
   A Ransom for the Flock.

4 His Honour and his Breath
   Were taken both away;

Join’d
Spiritual Songs.

Join'd with the Wicked in his Death,
    And made as vile as they.

5 But God shall raise his Head
    O'er all the Sons of Men,
And make him see a num'rous Seed
    To recompence his Pain.

6 I'll give him (faith the Lord)
    A Portion with the Strong;
He shall possess a large Reward,
    And hold his Honours long.

CXLIII. Characters of the Children of God. From several Scriptures.

1 So new-born Babes desire the Breast,
   To feed, and grow, and thrive;
50 Saints with Joy the Gospel taste,
   And by the Gospel live.

2 With inward Gust their Heart approves
    All that the Word relates;
They love the Men their Father loves,
    And hate the Works he hates.

3 Not all the flatt'ring Baits on Earth
   Can make them Slaves to Lust:
They can't forget their heav'nly Birth,
    Nor grovel in the Dust.

Not all the Chains that Tyrants use
    Shall bind their Souls to Vice:
Faith like a Conqu'ror can produce
    A thousand Victories.

5 Grace
[5 Grace like an uncorrupting Seed
   Abides and reigns within;
   Immortal Principles forbid
   The Sons of God to sin.]

[6 Not by the Terrors of a Slave
   Do they perform his Will,
   But with the noblest Pow'r's they have
   His sweet Commands fulfil.]

7 They find Access at every Hour
   To God within the Vail;
   Hence they derive a quickening Power,
   And Joys that never fail.

8 O happy Souls! O glorious State
   Of over-flowing Grace!
   To dwell so near their Father's Seat,
   And see his lovely Face!

9 Lord, I address thy heav'nly Throne;
   Call me a Child of thine,
   Send down the Spirit of thy Son
   To form my Heart Divine.

10 There shed thy choicest Loves abroad,
   And make my Comforts strong;
   Then shall I say, My Father, God,
   With an unwavering Tongue.

CXLIV. The Witnessing and Sealing
   13, 14.

1 Why should the Children of a King
   Go mourning all their Days?

   Great
Great Comforter descend, and bring
Some Tokens of thy Grace.

Dost thou not dwell in all the Saints,
And seal the Heirs of Heav'n?
When wilt thou banish my Complaints,
And show my Sins forgiv'n?

Assure my Conscience of her Part
In the Redeemer's Blood;
And bear thy Witness with my Heart,
That I am born of God.

Thou art the Earnest of his Love,
The Pledge of Joys to come;
And thy soft Wings, Celestial Dove,
Will safe convey me home.

CXLV. Christ and Aaron, taken from Heb. 7. & 9.

Jesus, in thee our Eyes behold
A thousand Glories more
Than the rich Gems and polish'd Gold
The Sons of Aaron wore.

They first their own Burnt-Offerings brought
To purge themselves from Sin;
Thy Life was pure without a Spot,
And all thy Nature clean.

Freshest Blood as constant as the Day
Was on their Altar spilt;
But thy one Offering takes away
For ever all our Guilt.]
[4 Their Priesthood ran thro' several Hands,
   For mortal was their Race;
   Thy never-changing Office stands
   Eternal as thy Days.]

[5 Once in the Circuit of a Year;
   With Blood but not his own,
   Aaron within the Vail appears
   Before the Golden Throne.

6 But Christ by his own pow'rful Blood
   Ascends above the Skies;
   And in the Presence of our God
   Shows his own Sacrifice.]

7 Jesus, the King of Glory, reigns
   On Sion's heavenly Hill;
   Looks like a Lamb that has been slain,
   And wears his Priesthood still.

8 He ever lives to intercede
   Before his Father's Face:
   Give him, my Soul, thy Cause to plead,
   Nor doubt the Father's Grace.

CXLVI. Characters of Christ, borrowed from inanimate Things in Scripture.

1 Go, worship at Immanuel's Feet,
   See in his Face what Wonders meet;
   Earth is too narrow to express
   His Worth, his Glory, or his Grace.

[2 The whole Creation can afford
   But some faint Shadows of my Lord;
B. I. Spiritual Songs.

Nature to make his Beauties known
Mult mingle Colours not her own.

[3] Is he compar'd to Wine or Bread?
  Dear Lord, our Souls would thus be fed;
  That Flesh, that dying Blood of thine,
  Is Bread of Life, is heav'ly Wine.

[4] Is he a Tree? The World receives
  Salvation from his healing Leaves;
  That righteous Branch, that fruitful Bough
  Is David's Root, and Offspring too.

[5] Is he a Rose? Not Sharon yields
  Such Fragrancy in all her Fields:
  Or if the Lilly he assume,
  The Valleys bless the rich Perfume.

[6] Is he a Vine? His heav'ly Root
  Supplies the Boughs with Life and Fruit:
  O let a lasting Union join
  My Soul the Branch to Christ the Vine!

[7] Is he the Head? Each Member lives,
  And owns the vital Pow'rs he gives;
  The Saints below, and Saints above,
  Join'd by his Spirit and his Love.

[8] Is he a Fountain? There I bathe,
  And heal the Plague of Sin and Death;
  These Waters all my Soul renew,
  And cleanse my spotted Garments too.

[9] Is he a Fire? He'll purge my Dross,
  But the true Gold sustains no Loss;
  Like a Refiner shall he fit,
  And tread the Refuse with his Feet.
Is he a Rock? How firm he proves!
The Rock of Ages never moves;
Yet the sweet Streams that from him flow
Attend us all the Desert thro'.

Is he a Way? He leads to God,
The Path is drawn in Lines of Blood;
There would I walk with Hope and Zeal,
Till I arrive at Zion's Hill.

Is he a Door? I'll enter in;
Behold the Pastures large and green,
A Paradise Divinely fair,
None but the Sheep have freedom there.

Is he a Corner-Stone,
For Men to build their Heav'n upon?
I'll make him my Foundation too,
Nor fear the Plots of Hell below.

Is he a Temple? I adore
Th' indwelling Majesty and Pow'r;
And still to this most holy Place
When e'er I pray I turn my Face.

Is he a Star? He breaks the Night,
Piercing the Shades with dawning Light;
I know his Glories from afar,
I know the Bright, the Morning-Star.

Is he a Sun? His Beams are Grace,
His Course is Joy, and Righteousness:
Nations rejoice when he appears
To chase their Clouds, and dry their Tear.

O let me climb those higher Skies,
Where Storms, and Darkness never rise!

This
There he displays his Power abroad,
And Shines, and Reigns th' Incarnate God.

Nor Earth, nor Seas, nor Sun, nor Stars,
Nor Heav'n his full Resemblance bears;
His Beauties we can never trace,
Till we behold him Face to Face.

CXLVII. The Names and Titles of Christ, from several Scriptures.

1. 'TIS from the Treasures of his Word
I borrow Titles for my Lord;
Nor Art, nor Nature can supply
Sufficient Forms of Majesty.

2. Bright Image of the Father's Face,
Shining with undiminish'd Rays;
Th' Eternal God's Eternal Son,
The Heir, and Partner of his Throne.

3. The King of Kings, the Lord most high
Writes his own Name upon his Thigh:
He wears a Garment dipt in Blood,
And breaks the Nations with his Rod.

4. Where Grace can neither melt nor move
The Lamb reflects his injur'd Love,
Awakes his Wrath without Delay,
And Judah's Lion tears the Prey.

5. But when for Works of Peace he comes,
What winning Titles he assumes?
Light of the World, and Life of Men;
Nor bears those Characters in vain.

6. With
With tender Pity in his Heart
He acts the Mediator's Part;
A Friend and Brother he appears,
And well fulfils the Names he wears.

At length the Judge his Throne ascends,
Divides the Rebels from his Friends,
And Saints in full Fruition prove
His rich variety of Love.

CXLVIII. The same, as the 148th Psalm.

With cheerful Voice I Sing
The Titles of my Lord,
And borrow all the Names
Of Honour from his Word:
Nature and Art
Can ne'er supply
Sufficient Forms
Of Majesty.

In Jesus we behold
His Father's Glorious Face;
Shining for ever bright
With mild and lovely Rays:
Th' Eternal God's
Eternal Son
Inherits and
Partakes the Throne.]

The Sovereign King of Kings,
The Lord of Lords most high,
Writes his own Name upon
His Garment and his Thigh.
His Name is call'd
The Word of God;
He rules the Earth
With Iron Rod.

Where Promises and Grace
Can neither melt nor move,
The angry Lamb resents
The Injuries of his Love;
Awakes his Wrath
Without delay,
As Lions roar
And tear the Prey.

But when for Works of Peace
The great Redeemer comes,
What gentle Characters,
What Titles he assumes?
Light of the World,
And Life of Men;
Nor will he bear
Those Names in vain.

Immensse Compassion reigns
In our Immanuel's Heart,
When he descends to act
A Mediator's Part.
He is a Friend
And Brother too;
Divinely kind,
Divinely true.

At length the Lord the Judge
His awful Throne ascends,
And drives the Rebels far
From Favourites and Friends:

Then
Then shall the Saints
Compleatly prove
The Heights and Depths
Of all his Love.

CXLIX. The Offices of Christ from several Scriptures.

1 Join all the Names of Love and Power
That ever Men or Angels bore;
All are too mean to speak his Worth,
Or set Immanuel's Glory forth.

2 But O what condescending ways
He takes to teach his heav'nly Grace!
My Eyes with Joy and Wonder see
What Forms of Love he bears for me.

[3. The Angel of the Covenant stands
With his Commission in his Hands,
Sent from his Father's milder Throne
To make the great Salvation known.]

[4. Great Prophet, let me bless thy Name;
By Thee the joyful Tidings came,
Of Wrath appeas'd, of Sins forgiv'n,
Of Hell subdu'd, and Peace with Heav'n.]

[5. My bright Example, and my Guide,
I would be walking near thy Side;
O let me never run astray,
Nor follow the forbidden Way!]

[6. I love my Shepherd, he shall keep My wand'ring Soul amongst his Sheep:}
He feeds his Flock, he calls their Names,
And in his Bosom bears the Lambs.

[7 My Surety undertakes my Cause,
Answering his Father's broken Laws;
Behold my Soul at freedom set;
My Surety paid the dreadful Debt.]

[8 Jesus my Great High-Priest has dy'd,
I seek no Sacrifice beside;
His Blood did once for all atone,
And now it pleads before the Throne.]

[9 My Advocate appears on high,
The Father lays his Thunder by;
Not all that Earth or Hell can say
Shall turn my Father's Heart away.]

[10 My Lord, my Conqu'ror, and my King,
Thy Scepter and thy Sword I sing;
Thine is the Victory, and I sit
A joyful Subject at thy Feet.]

[11 Aspire, my Soul, to glorious Deeds,
The Captain of Salvation leads,
March on, nor fear to win the Day,
Tho' Death and Hell obstruct the way.]

Should Death, and Hell, and Powers
Put all their Forms of mischief on,
I shall be safe; for Christ displays
Salvation in more Sovereign Ways.
CL. The Same; as the 148th Psalm.

1 Oyn all the glorious Names
   Of Wisdom, Love, and Power,
   That ever Mortals knew,
   That Angels ever bore:
      All are too mean
      To speak his Worth,
      Too mean to set
      My Saviour forth.

2 But O what gentle Terms,
   What condescending Ways
   Doth our Redeemer use
   To teach his heavenly Grace!
      Mine Eyes with joy
      And wonder see
      What forms of Love
      He bears for me.

[3 Array'd in Mortal Flesh
   He like an Angel stands,
   And holds the Promises,
   And Pardons in his Hands:
      Commission'd from
      His Father's Throne,
      To make his Grace
      To Mortals known.]

[4 Great Prophet of my God,
   My Tongue would bless thy Name;
   By thee the joyful News
   Of our Salvation came;
      The joyful News
      Of Sins forgiv'n,
Of Hell subdued,
And Peace with Heav'n.]

[5 Be thou my Counsellor,
My Pattern, and my Guide;
And thro' this Desart Land
Still keep me near thy side.
O let my Feet
Ne'er run astray,
Nor rove, nor seek
The crooked Way!]

[6 I love my Shepherd's Voice;
His watchful Eyes shall keep,
My wand'ring Soul among
The thousands of his Sheep:
He feeds his Flock,
He calls their Names;
His Bosom bears
The tender Lambs.]

[7 To this dear Surety's Hand
Will I commit my Cause;
He answers and fulfils
His Father's broken Laws:
Behold my Soul
At freedom set!
My Surety paid
The dreadful Debt.]

[8 Jesus my Great High-Priest
Offer'd his Blood and dy'd;
My guilty Conscience seeks
No Sacrifice beside.
His powerful Blood
Did once atone;
And now it pleads
Before the Throne.

My Advocate appears
For my Defence on high,
The Father bows his Ear,
And lays his Thunder by.

Not all that Hell
Or Sin can say
Shall turn his Heart,
His Love away.

My Dear Almighty Lord,
My Conqueror and my King,
Thy Scepter, and thy Sword,
Thy reigning Grace I sing.

Thine is the Power;
Behold I sit
In willing Bonds
Before thy Feet.

Now let my Soul arise,
And tread the Tempter down;
My Captain leads me forth
To Conquest and a Crown:

A feeble Saint
Shall win the Day,
Tho' Death and Hell
Obstruct the way.

Should all the Hosts of Death,
And Powers of Hell unknown,
Put their most dreadful Forms
Of Rage and Mischief on;
I shall be safe,
For Christ displays
Superiour Power
And Guardian-Grace.

Spiritual Songs.

BOOK II.

Composed on Divine Subjects.

I. A Song of Praise, to God, from Great-Britain.

Nature with all her Powers shall (sing)
God the Creator and the King
Nor Air, nor Earth, nor Skies (nor Sea)
Deny the Tribute of their Praise.

[2 B]
B. II. Spiritual Songs. 129

2 Begin to make his Glories known,
Ye Seraphs that sit near his Throne;
Tune your Harps high, and spread the
To the Creations utmost Bound. (Sound

3 All mortal Things of meaner Frame,
Exert your Force and own his Name;
Whilst with our Souls and with our Voice
We sing his Honours and our Joys.)

4 To him be sacred all we have
From the young Cradle to the Grave:
Our Lips shall his loud Wonders tell,
And every Word a Miracle.

5 This Northern-Isle, our Native Land,
Lies safe in God th’Almighty’s Hand:
Our Foes of Vict’ry dream in vain,
And wear the captivating Chain.

6 He builds and guards the British Throne;
And makes it gracious like his own,
Makes our successive Princes kind,
And gives our Dangers to the Wind.

7 Raise Monumental Praises high
To him that thunders thro’ the Skie,
And with an awful Nod or Frown
Shakes an aspiring Tyrant down.

8 Pillars of lasting Brass proclaim
The Triumphs of th’Eternal Name;
While trembling Nations read from far
The Honours of the God of War.

Thus let our flaming Zeal imploy
Our loftiest Thoughts and loudest Songs:

G 5 Britain,
Britain, pronounce with warmest Joy
Hosanna from ten thousand Tongues.

Yet, mighty God, our feeble Frame
Attempts in vain to reach thy Name;
The Strongest Notes that Angels raise
Faint in the Worship and the Praise.

II. The Death of a Sinner.

1 My Thoughts on awful Subjects roll,
   Damnation and the Dead;
What Horrors seize the guilty Soul
Upon a dying Bed.

2 Lingring about these mortal Shores
   She makes a long delay,
Till like a Flood with rapid Force
Death sweeps the Wretch away.

3 Then swift and dreadful she descends
   Down to the fiery Coast,
Amongst abominable Fiends,
   Her felt a frightful Ghost.

4 There endless Clouds of Sinners lye,
   And Darkness makes their Chains;
Tortur'd with keen Despair they cry,
   Yet wait for fiercer Pains.

5 Not all their Anguish and their Blood
   For their old Guilt atones,
Nor the Compassions of a God
   Shall hearken to their Groans.
6 Amazing Grace, that kept my Breath,
Nor bid my Soul remove,
Till I had learn'd my Saviour's Death,
And well insur'd his Love!

III. The Death and Burial of a Saint.

1 Why do we mourn departing Friends?
   Or shake at Death's Alarms?
'Tis but the Voice that Jesus sends
To call them to his Arms.

2 Are we not tending upward too
   As fast as Time can move?
Nor would we wish the Hours more slow
To keep us from our Love.

3 Why should we tremble to convey
   Their Bodies to the Tomb?
There the dear Flesh of Jesus lay;
And left a long Perfume.

4 The Graves of all his Saints he blest,
   And softned every Bed;
Where should the dying Members rest,
But with the dying Head?

5 Thence he arose ascending high
   And shew'd our Feet the way;
Up to the Lord our Flesh shall fly
At the great Rising Day.

6 Then let the last loud Trumpet sound;
   And bid our Kindred rise,
Awake ye Nations under Ground,
Ye Saints, ascend the Skies.
IV. Salvation in the Cross.

1 Here at thy Cross, my dying God,
   I lay my Soul beneath thy Love,
   Beneath the Droppings of thy Blood,
   Jesus, nor shall it e're remove.

2 Not all that Tyrants think or say
   With Rage and Lightning in their Eyes,
   Nor Hell shall fright my Heart away,
   Should Hell with all its Legions rise.

3 Should Worlds conspire to drive me thence,
   Moveless and firm this Heart should lie;
   Resolv'd (for that's my last Defence)
   If I must perish, there to die,

4 But speak, my Lord, and calm my Fear;
   Am I not safe beneath thy Shade?
   Thy Vengeance will not strike me here,
   Nor Satan dares my Soul invade.

5 Yes, I'm secure beneath thy Blood,
   And all my Foes shall lose their aim.
   Hosanna to my dying God,
   And my best Honours to his Name.

V. Longing to Praise Christ better.

1 Lord, when my Thoughts with wonder
   O'er the sharp Sorrows of thy Soul,
   And see my Maker's broken Laws
   Repair'd and honour'd by thy Cross.

2 When
When I behold Death, Hell and Sin,
Vauquish'd by that dear Blood of thine,
And view the Man that groan'd and dy'd,
Sit Glorious by his Father's side:

My Passions rise and soar above,
I'm wing'd with Faith, and fir'd with
Fain would I reach Eternal things, (Love;
And learn the Notes that Gabriel sings.

But my Heart fails, my Tongue complains,
For want of their immortal Strains;
And in such humble Notes as these
Must fall below thy Victories.

Well, the kind Minute must appear
When we shall leave these Bodies here,
These Clogs of Clay, and mount on high
To joyn the Songs above the Sky.

VI. A Morning Song.

Once more, my Soul, the rising Day
Salutes thy waking Eyes,
Once more, my Voice, thy Tribute pay
To him that rolls the Skies.

Night unto Night his Name repeats,
The Day renews the Sound,
Wide as the Heaven on which he sits
To turn the Seasons round.

'Tis he supports my Mortal Frame,
My Tongue shall speak his Praise;
My Sins would rouse his Wrath to Flame,
And yet his Wrath delays.

[4 On a poor Worm thy Power might tread,
And I could ne'er withstand:
Thy Justice might have crush'd me dead,
But Mercy held thine Hand.

A thousand wretched Souls are fled
Since the last setting Sun,
And yet thou lengthnest out my Thread,
And yet my Moments run.]

Dear God, let all my Hours be thine
Whilst I enjoy the Light,
Then shall my Sun in Smiles decline,
And bring a pleasing Night.

VII. An Evening Song.

[1 D]read Sov'reign, let my Evening Song
Like holy Incense rise;
Assist the Offerings of my Tongue
To reach the lofty Skies.

Through all the Dangers of the Day,
Thy Hand was still my Guard,
And still to drive my Wants away
Thy Mercy [hood prepar'd.]

Perpetual Blessings from above
Encompass me around,
But oh how few Returns of Love
Hath my Creator found!

What have I done for him that dy'd
To save my wretched Soul?
How are my Follies multiply'd,
Fast as my Minutes roll!

Lord, with this guilty Heart of mine
To thy dear Cross I flee,
And to thy Grace my Soul resign
To be renew'd by thee.

Sprinkled afresh with pard'ning Blood
I lay me down to rest,
As in th' Embraces of my God,
Or on my Saviour's Breast.

Hosanna, with a cheerful Sound,
To God's upholding Hand,
Ten thousand Snares attend us round,
And yet secure we stand.

That was a most amazing Power
That rais'd us with a Word,
And every Day and every Hour
We lean upon the Lord.

The Evening rests our weary Head,
And Angels guard the Room;
We wake and we admire the Bed
That was not made our Tomb.

The rising Morning can't assure
That we shall end the Day,
For Death stands ready at the Door
To seize our Lives away:

Our
5 Our Breath is forfeited by Sin
   To God's revenging Law;
   We own thy Grace, Immortal King,
   In every Gasp we draw.

6 God is our Sun, whose daily Light
   Our Joy and Safety brings:
   Our feeble Flesh lies safe at Night
   Beneath his shady Wings.

IX. Godly Sorrow arising from the Sufferings of Christ.

1 A Lass! and did my Saviour bleed,
   And did my Sovereign die?
   Would he devote that sacred Head
   For such a Worm as I?

2 Thy Body slain, sweet Jesus, thine,
   And bath'd in its own Blood,
   While all expos'd to Wrath divine
   The glorious Sufferer died?

3 Was it for Crimes that I had done
   He groan'd upon the Tree?
   Amazing Pity! Grace unknown!
   And Love beyond degree!

4 Well might the Sun in Darkness hide,
   And shut his Glories in,
   When God the mighty Maker dy'd
   For Man the Creatures Sin.

5 Thus might I hide my blushing Face!
   While his dear Cross appears,
Spiritual Songs.

Dissolve my Heart in Thankfulness,
And melt my Eyes to Tears.

But Drops of Grief can ne'er repay
The Debt of Love I owe;
Here, Lord, I give my self away,
'Tis all that I can do.

X. Parting with Carnal Joys.

My Soul forfares her vain Delight,
And bids the World farewell;
Base as the Dirt beneath my Feet,
And mischievous as Hell.

No longer will I ask your Love,
Nor seek your Friendship more;
The Happiness that I approve
Lies not within your Power.

There's nothing round this spacious Earth
That suits my large Desire;
To boundless Joy and solid Mirth
My nobler Thoughts aspire.

Where Pleasure rolls its living Flood
From Sin and Dross refin'd,
Still springing from the Throne of God,
And fit to cheer the Mind.

Th' Almighty Ruler of the Sphere,
The glorious and the great,
Brings his own All-sufficiency there,
To make our Bliss compleat.

Had I the Pinions of a Dove
I'd climb the Heav'nly Road;

There
There sits my Saviour drest in Love,
And there my smiling God.

XI. The same.

1 I send the Joys of Earth away,
   Away ye Tempters of the Mind,
   False as the smooth deceitful Sea,
   And empty as the whistling Wind.

2 Your Streams were floating me along
   Down to the Gulph of black Despair,
   And whilst I listen'd to your Song,
   Your Streams had e'en convey'd me there.

3 Lord, I adore thy matchless Grace,
   That warn'd me of that dark Abyss,
   That drew me from those treacherous Sea
   And bid me seek superior Blifs.

4 Now to the shining Realms above
   I stretch my Hands, and glance mine Eye
   O for the Pinions of a Dove,
   To bear me to the upper Skies!

5 There from the Bosom of my God
   Oceans of endless Pleasure roll,
   There would I fix my last Abode,
   And drown the Sorrows of my Soul.

XII. Christ is the Substance of Levitical Priesthood.

1 The true Messiah now appears,
   The Types are all withdrawn;
So fly the Shadows and the Stars
Before the rising Dawn.

No smoking Sweets, nor bleeding Lambs,
Nor Kid, nor Bullock slain;
Incense and Spice of costly Names
Would all be burnt in vain.

Aaron must lay his Robes away,
His Mitre and his Veil,
When God himself comes down to be
The Offering and the Priest.

He took our mortal Flesh to show
The Wonders of his Love,
For us he paid his Life below,
And prays for us above.

Father, he cries, forgive their Sins,
For I myself have dy’d;
And then he shows his open’d Veins,
And pleads his wounded Side.

III. The Creation, Preservation,
Dissolution and Restoration of this World.

Sing to the Lord that built the Skies,
The Lord that rear’d this stately Frame,
Let half the Nations found his Praise,
And Lands unknown repeat his Name.

He form’d the Seas, and form’d the Hills,
Made every Drop and every Dust,
Nature and Time, with all their Wheels,
And push’d them into Motion first.

Now
3 Now from his high Imperial Throne
He looks far down upon the Spheres,
He bids the shining Orbs roll on,
And round he turns our happy Years.

4 Thus shall this moving Engine last
Till all his Saints are gather'd in,
Then for the Trumpets dreadful Blast
To shake it all to Dust again!

5 Yet when the Sound shall tear the Skies,
And Lightning burn the Globe below,
Saints, you may lift your joyful Eyes,
There's a New Heaven and Earth for you.

XIV. The Lord's Day; or, Delight in Ordinances.

1 Welcome sweet Day of Rest
That saw the Lord arise;
Welcome to this reviving Breast,
And these rejoicing Eyes!

2 The King himself comes near,
And feasts his Saints to Day,
Here we may sit, and see him here,
And love, and praise, and pray.

3 One Day amidst the Place,
Where my dear God hath been,
Is sweeter than ten thousand days
Of pleasureable Sin.

4 My willing Soul would stay
In such a Frame as this,
And sit and sing her self away
To everlasting Bliss.
V. The Enjoyment of Christ; or,
Delight in Worship.

FAR from my Thoughts, vain World,
Let my religious Hours alone:
Fain would my Eyes my Saviour see,
I wait a Visit, Lord, from thee.

My Heart grows warm with Holy Fire,
And kindles with a pure Desire:
Come my dear Jesus from above,
And feed my Soul with Heavenly Love.

The Trees of Life Immortal stand
In flourishing Rows at thy Right-hand,
And in sweet Murmurs by their side
Rivers of Blifs perpetual glide:

Haste then, but with a smiling Face,
And spread the Table of thy Grace:
Bring down a taste of Fruit Divine,
And cheer my Heart with sacred Wine.

Blest Jesus, what delicious Fare!
How sweet thy Entertainments are!
Never did Angels taste above
Redeeming Grace and dying Love.

Hail great Immanuel, All Divine,
In thee thy Father's Glories shine:
Thou brightest, sweetest, fairest One,
That Eyes have seen, or Angels known.

XVI. Part
XVI. Part the Second.

7 Lord, what a Heaven of Saving Grace
Shines thro' the Beauties of thy Face,
And lights our Passions to a Flame!
Lord, how we love thy charming Name!

8 When I can say, My God is mine,
When I can feel thy Glories shine,
I tread the World beneath my Feet,
And all that Earth calls Good, or Great.

9 While such a Scene of Sacred Joys
Our Raptur'd Eyes and Souls imploys,
Here we could sit, and gaze away
A long, an everlasting Day.

10 Well, we shall quickly pass the Night
To the fair Coasts of perfect Light;
Then shall our joyful Senses rove
O'er the dear Object of our Love.

11 There shall we drink full draughts of Bliss
And pluck new Life from Heavenly Trees
Yet now and then, dear Lord, bestow
A drop of Heaven on Worms below.

12 Send Comforts down from thy Right-hand
While we pass thro' this barren Land,
And in thy Temple let us see
A glimpse of Love, a glimpse of Thee.
XVII. God's Eternity.

Rise, rise my Soul, and leave the Ground,
Stretch all my Thoughts abroad,
And rouze up every tuneful Sound
To praise th' Eternal God.

Long e'er the lofty Skies were spread
Jehovah fill'd his Throne;
Or Adam form'd, or Angels made,
The Maker liv'd alone.

His boundless Years can ne'er decrease;
But still maintain their Prime;
Eternity's his Dwelling-place,
And Ever is his Time.

While like a Tide our Minutes flow,
The present and the past,
He fills his own Immortal NOW,
And sees our Ages waste.

The Sea and Sky must perish too,
And vast Destruction come;
The Creatures, look, how old they grow,
And wait their fiery Doom!

Well, let the Sea shrink all away,
And Flame melt down the Skies,
My God shall live an endless Day
When th' old Creation dies.

XVIII.
XVIII. The Ministry of Angels.

1 High on a Hill of dazzling Light
   The King of Glory spreads his Seat,
   And troops of Angels stretch'd for flight
   Stand waiting round his awful Feet.

2 * Go, faith the Lord, my Gabriel, go,
   Salute the Virgin's fruitful Womb;
† Make haste, ye Cherubs down below,
   Sing and proclaim the Saviour come.

3 || Here a bright Squadron leaves the Skies;
   And thick around Elisha stands;
   Anon a heavenly Soldier flies (hands
   And breaks the Chains from Peter's

4 Thy winged Troops, O God of Hosts,
   Wait on thy wand'ring Church below;
   Here we are failing to thy Coasts,
   Let Angels be our Convoy too.

5 * Are they not all thy Servants, Lord?
   At thy Command they go and come,
   With cheerful haste obey thy Word,
   And guard thy Children to their Home.

XIX. Our Frail Bodies, and God our Preserver.

I Let others boast how strong they be;
   Nor Death nor Danger fear;
But we'll confess, O Lord, to thee,
   What feeble things we are.

2 Fresh as the Grass our Bodies stand,
   And flourish bright and gay,
A blasting Wind sweeps o'er the Land;
   And fades the Grass away.

3 Our Life contains a thousand Springs,
   And dies if one be gone;
Strange! that a Harp of thousand Strings
   Should keep in tune so long!

4 But 'tis our God supports our Frame,
   The God that built us first;
Salvation to th' Almighty Name
   That rear'd us from the Dust.

5 He spoke, and strait our Hearts and Brains
   In all their Motions rose;
Let Blood, said he, flow round the Veins;
   And round the Veins it flows.

6 While we have Breath or use our Tongues
   Our Maker we'll adore;
His Spirit moves our heaving Lungs
   Or they would breath no more.
XX. Backslidings and Returns: or, the Inconstancy of our Love.

1 WHY is my Heart so far from thee
   My God, my chief Delight?
Why are my Thoughts no more by Day
   With thee, no more by Night?

2 Why should my foolish Passions rove?
   Where can such Sweetness be
As I have tasted in thy Love,
   As I have found in thee?

3 When my forgetful Soul renew
   The Savour of thy Grace,
My Heart presumes I cannot lose
   The Relish all my Days.

4 But e'er one fleeting Hour is past,
   The flattering World employs,
Some sensual Bait to seize my Taste,
   And to pollute my Joys.

5 Trifles of Nature or of Art
   With fair deceitful Charms
Intrude upon my thoughtless Heart,
   And thrust thee from my Arms.

6 Then I repent and vex my Soul
   That I should leave thee so,
Where will those wild Affections roll
   That let a Saviour go?

7 Sins promis'd Joys are turn'd to Pain,
   And I am drown'd in Grief;
B. II.  Spiritual Songs.

But my dear Lord returns again,
He flies to my Relief.

§ Seizing my Soul with sweet Surprize,
He draws with loving Bands;
Divine Compassion in his Eyes,
And Pardon in his Hands.]

[9 Wretch that I am to wander thus
In chase of false Delight!
Let me be fasten'd to thy Cross
Rather than lose thy sight.]

[10 Make haste, my Days, to reach the Goal,
And bring my Heart to rest
On the dear Centre of my Soul,
My God, my Saviour's Breast.]

XXI. A Song of Praise to God the Redeemer.

1 LET the old Heathens tune their Song
Of great Diana and of Jove,
But the sweet Theme that moves my
Is my Redeemer and his Love.  (Tongue

2 Behold a God descends and dies
To save my Soul from gaping Hell;
How the black Gulph where Satan lies,
Yawn'd to receive me when I fell!

3 How Justice frown'd, & Vengeance stood
To drive me down to endless Pain!
But the great Son propos'd his Blood,
And Heav'nly Wrath grew mild again.

H 2  4. Inf-
4 Infinite Lover, Gracious Lord,
To thee be endless Honours given;
Thy wondrous Name shall be ador'd
Round the wide Earth and wider Heaven.

XXII. With God is Terrible Majesty.

1 Terrible God, that reign'st on high,
   How awful is thy Thundring Hand!
   Thy fiery Bolts how fierce they fly!
   Nor can all Earth or Hell withstand.

2 This the old rebel-Angels knew,
   And Satan fell beneath thy Frown:
   Thine Arrows strook the Traytor thro',
   And weighty Vengeance sunk him down.

3 This Sodom felt, and feels it still,
   And roars beneath th' Eternal Load,
   With endless Burnings who can dwell,
   Or bear the Fury of a God?

4 Tremble, ye Sinners, and submit,
   Throw down your Arms before his Thron
   Bend your Heads low beneath his Feet,
   Or his strong Hand shall crush you down.

5 And ye, blest Saints, that love him too,
   With Reverence bow before his Name,
   Thus all his Heavenly Servants do:
   God is a bright and burning Flame.
XXIII. The Sight of God and Christ in Heaven.

1 Descend from Heaven, Immortal Dove,
Stoop down and take us on thy Wings,
And mount and bear us far above
The reach of these inferior things.

2 Beyond, beyond this lower Sky,
Up where Eternal Ages roll,
Where solid Pleasures never die,
And Fruits Immortal feast the Soul.

3 Oh for a sight, a pleasing sight
Of our Almighty Father's Throne!
There sits our Saviour crown'd with Light,
Cloath'd in a Body like our own.

4 Adoring Saints around him stand,
And Thrones and Powers before him fall;
The God shines gracious thro' the Man,
And sheds sweet Glories on them all.

5 O what amazing Joys they feel
While to their golden Harps they sing,
And sit on every heavenly Hill,
And play the Triumphs of their King.

6 When shall the Day, dear Lord, appear
That I shall mount to dwell above,
And stand and bow amongst 'em there,
And view thy Face, and sing, and love.
XXIV. The Evil of Sin visible in the Fall of Angels and Men.

1 When the great Builder stretch'd the (Skies,
   And form'd all Nature with a Word,
   The joyful Cherubs tun'd his Praise,
   And every bending Throne ador'd.

2 High in the midst of all the Throng
   Satan a tall Arch-angel sat,
   * Amongst the Morning-stars he sung
   Till Sin destroy'd his Heav'nly State.

3 'Twas Sin that hurl'd him from his Throne,
   Groveling in Fire the Rebel lies :
   † How art thou sunk in Darkness down,
   Son of the Morning, from the Skies !

4 And thus our two first Parents stood
   Till Sin defil'd the happy Place ;
   They lost their Garden and their God,
   And ruin'd all their unborn Race.

5 So sprung the Plague from Adam's Bow;
   And spread Destruction all abroad ;
   Sin, the curst Name, that in one Hour
   Spoil'd six-Days Labours of a God.

6 Tremble my Soul, and mourn for Grief
   That such a Foe should seize thy Breast;
   Fly to thy Lord for quick Relief ;
   O may he slay this treacherous Gueft.

* Job 38. 7. † Isa. 14. 12.
B. II. Spiritual Songs.

7 Then to thy Throne, victorious King,
    Then to thy Throne our Shouts shall rise,
Thine everlasting Arm we sing,
For Sin the Monster bleeds and dies.

XXV. Complaining of spiritual Sloth.

1 My drowzie Powers, why sleep ye so?
   Awake my sluggish Soul!
Nothing has half thy Work to do,
   Yet nothing's half so dull.

2 The little Ants for one poor Grain
   Labour, and tugg, and strive,
Yet we who have a Heaven t'obtain
   How negligent we live!

3 We for whose sake all Nature stands,
   And Stars their Courtes move;
We for whose Guard the Angel-bands
   Come flying from above;

4 We for whom God the Son came down,
   And labour'd for our Good,
How careless to secure that Crown
   He purchas'd with his Blood?

5 Lord, shall we lie so sluggish still,
   And never act our Parts?
Come, holy Dove, from th'heav'ny Hill;
   And sit and warm our Hearts.

Then shall our active Spirits move,
   Upward our Souls shall rise:
With Hands of Faith and Wing of Love
   We'll fly and take the Prize.
XXVI. God Invisible.

1 Lord, we are blind, we Mortals blind,
   We can't behold thy bright Abode;
   O'tis beyond a Creature Mind,
   To glance a Thought half way to God.

2 Infinite Leagues beyond the Sky
   The Great Eternal reigns alone,
   Where neither Wings nor Souls can fly,
   Nor Angels climb the toplees Throne.

3 The Lord of Glory builds his Seat
   Of Gems insufferably bright,
   And lays beneath his sacred Feet
   Substantial Beams of gloomy Night.

4 Yet, glorious Lord, thy gracious Eyes
   Look thro', and cheer us from above;
   Beyond our Praise thy Grandeur flies,
   Yet we adore, and yet we love.

XXVII. Praise ye him all his Angels;
   Psal. 148. 2.

1 GOD! the Eternal awful Name
   That the whole Heavenly Army fears
   That knocks the wide Creation's Frame,
   And Satan trembles when he hears.

2 Like Flames of Fire his Servants are,
   And Light surrounds his Dwelling-place
   But, O ye fiery Flames, declare
   The brighter Glories of his Face.
3 'Tis not for such poor Worms as we
To speak to infinite a Thing,
But your immortal Eyes survey
The Beauties of your Sov'reign King.

4 Tell how he shows his smiling Face,
And cloathes all Heaven in bright Array;
Triumph and Joy run thro' the Place,
And Songs Eternal as the Day.

5 Speak, (for you feel his burning Love)
What Zæcal it spreds thro' all your Frame:
That sacred Fire dwells all above,
For we on Earth have lost the Name.

6 Sing of his Power and Justice too,
That infinite right Hand of his
That vanquisht'd Satan and his Crew;
And Thunder drove them down from (Blf.)

7 What mighty Storms of poison'd Darts
Were hurl'd upon the Rebels there!
What deadly Javelins nail'd their Hearts
Fast to the Racks of long Despair!]

8 Shout to your King, you heavenly Host;
You that beheld the sinking Foe,
Firmly ye stood when they were lost;
Praise the rich Grace that kept ye so.

9 Proclaim his Wonders from the Skies,
Let every distant Nation hear;
And while you found his lofty Praise,
Let humble Mortals bow and fear.
XXVIII. Death and Eternity.

1 Stoop down, my Thoughts, that use to Converse a while with Death:
   Think how a gasping Mortal lies,
   And pants away his Breath.

2 His quiv’ring Lip hangs feebly down;
   His Pulses faint and few,
   Then speechless with a doleful Groan
   He bids the World adieu.

3 But, O the Soul that never dies!
   At once it leaves the Clay!
   Ye Thoughts, pursue it where it flies;
   And track its wond’rous Way.

4 Up to the Courts where Angels dwell,
   It mounts triumphing there,
   Or Devils plunge it down to Hell
   In infinite Despair.

5 And must my Body faint and die?
   And must this Soul remove?
   O for some guardian Angel nigh
   To bear it safe above!

6 Jesus, to thy dear faithful Hand
   My naked Soul I trust,
   And my Flesh waits for thy Command
   To drop into my Dust.
XXIX. Redemption by Price and Power.

1 Jesus, with all thy Saints above
   My Tongue would bear her Part,
   Would sound aloud thy Saving Love,
   And sing thy bleeding Heart.

2 Blest be the Lamb, my dearest Lord,
   Who bought me with his Blood,
   And quench’d his Father’s flaming Sword
   In his own vital Flood.

3 The Lamb that freed my Captive Soul
   From Satan’s heavy Chains,
   And sent the Lion down to howl
   Where Hell and Horror reigns.

4 All Glory to the dying Lamb,
   And never ceasing Praise,
   While Angels live to know his Name,
   Or Saints to feel his Grace.

XXX. Heavenly Joy on Earth.

[1 Come, we that love the Lord,
   And let our Joys be known:
   Join in a Song with sweet accord,
   And thus surround the Throne.

2 The Sorrows of the Mind
   Be banish’d from the Place!
   Religion never was design’d
   To make our Pleasures less.]
3 Let those refuse to sing
That never knew our God,
But Favorites of the heavenly King
May speak their Joys abroad.

[4 The God that rules on high,
And thunders when he please,
That rides upon the Stormy Sky,
And manages the Seas.]

5 This awful God is ours,
Our Father and our Love,
He shall send down his heav'nly Pow'rs
To carry us above.

6 There we shall see his Face,
And never, never sin;
There from the Rivers of his Grace
Drink endless Pleasures in.

7 Yes, and before we rise
To that immortal State,
The Thoughts of such amazing Bliss
Should constant Joys create.

[8 The Men of Grace have found
Glory begun below,
Celestial Fruits on Earthly Ground
From Faith and Hope may grow.]

9 The Hill of Zion yields
A thousand sacred Sweets,
Before we reach the heavenly Fields,
Or walk the golden Streets.

10 Then let our Songs abound,
And every Tear be dry;
XXXI. Christ's Presence makes Death easy.

1 Why should we start and fear to die?
   What timorous Worms we Mortals
   Death is the Gate of endless Joy (are!)
   And yet we dread to enter there.

2 The Pains, the Groans, and dying Strife
   Fright our approaching Souls away;
   Still we shrink back again to Life,
   Fond of our Prison and our Clay.

3 O, if my Lord would come and meet,
   My Soul should stretch her Wings in haste;
   Fly fearless thro' Death's Iron Gate,
   Nor feel the Terrors as shepast.

4 Jesus can make a dying Bed
   Feel soft as downy Pillows are;
   While on his Breast I lean my Head,
   And breathe my Life out sweetly there.

XXXII. Frailty and Folly.

1 How short and hasty is our Life!
   How vast our Souls Affairs!
   Yet senseless Mortals vainly strive
   To lavish out their Years.

2 Our Days run thoughtlessly along,
   Without a Moments stay,
Just like a Story or a Song
We pass our Lives away.

3 God from on high invites us home,
    But we march heedless on,
And ever hast'ning to the Tomb,
    Stoop downwards as we run.

4 How we deserve the deepest Hell
    That flight the Joys above!
What Chains of Vengeance should we feel
    That break such Cords of Love!

5 Draw us, O God, with Sovereign Grace,
    And lift our Thoughts on high,
That we may end this mortal Race
    And see Salvation nigh.

XXXIII. The blessed Society in Heaven.

1 Raise thee, my Soul, fly up and run
    Thro' every heavenly Street,
And say, There's nought below the Sun,
    That's worthy of thy Feet.

[2 Thus will we mount on sacred Wings;
    And tread the Courts above;
Nor Earth, nor all her mightiest Things
    Shall tempt our meanest Love.]

3 There on a high Majestick Throne
    Th' Almighty Father reigns,
And shews his glorious Goodness down
    On all the blissful Plains.

4 Bright like a Sun the Saviour sits,
    And spreads Eternal Noon,
No Evenings there, nor gloomy Nights
To want the feeble Moon.

Amidst those ever shining Skies
Behold the sacred Dove,
While banish'd Sin and Sorrow flies
From all the Realms of Love.

The Glorious Tenants of the Place
Stand bending round the Throne;
And Saints and Seraphs sing and praise
The Infinite Three-One.

But O what Beams of heavenly Grace
Transport them all the while!
Ten thousand Smiles from Jesus Face,
And Love in every Smile!]

Jesus, and when shall that dear Day,
That joyful Hour appear,
When I shall leave this House of Clay
To dwell amongst 'em there?

XXXIV. Breathing after the Holy Spirit; or, Fervency of Devotion
desir'd.

Come Holy Spirit, heavenly Dove,
With all thy quickning Powers,
Kindle a Flame of sacred Love,
In these cold Hearts of ours.

Look how we grovel here below,
Fond of these trifling Toys;
Our Souls can neither fly nor go
To reach Eternal Joys.
3 In vain we tune our formal Songs,
   In vain we strive to rise;
Hosannas languish on our Tongues,
   And our Devotion dies.

4 Dear Lord! and shall we ever lie
   At this poor dying rate?
   Our Love so faint, so cold to thee?
      And thine to us so great?

5 Come Holy Spirit, Heavenly Dove,
   With all thy quickning Powers,
Come shed abroad a Saviour's Love,
   And that shall kindle ours.

XXXV. Praise to God for Creation and Redemption.

1 Let them neglect thy Glory, Lord,
   Who never knew thy Grace,
But our loud Song shall still record
   The Wonders of thy Praise.

2 We raise our Shouts, O God, to thee;
   And send them to thy Throne,
   All Glory to th'UNITED Three,
   The Undivided One:

3 'Twas He (and we'll adore his Name)
   That form'd us by a Word,
   'Tis He restores our ruin'd Frame;
   Salvation to the Lord!

4 Hosanna! let the Earth and Skies
   Repeat the joyful Sound,
XXXVI. Christ's Intercession.

1 Well, the Redeemer's gone,
   To appear before our God,
   To sprinkle o'er the flaming Throne
   With his atoning Blood.

2 No fiery Vengeance now,
   Nor burning Wrath comes down;
   If Justice call for Sinners Blood,
   The Saviour shows his own.

3 Before his Father's Eye
   Our humble Suit he moves;
   The Father lays his Thunder by,
   And looks, and smiles, and loves.

4 Now may our joyful Tongues
   Our Maker's Honour sing,
   As the Priest receives our Songs,
   And bears 'em to the King.

5 We bow before his Face,
   And found his Glories high,
   Hosanna to the God of Grace
   "That lays his Thunder by."

6 "On Earth thy Mercy reigns,
   "And triumphs all above;
   "Lord, how weak are Mortal Strains
   To speak Immortal Love?"

7 How jarring and how low
   Are all the Notes we sing?
XXXVII. The same.

1 Lift up your Eyes to th' heavenly Seats
   Where your Redeemer stays;
   Kind Intercessor, there he sits,
   And loves, and pleads, and prays.

2 'Twas well, my Soul, he dy'd for thee,
   And shed his vital Blood,
   Appeas'd stern Justice on the Tree,
   And then arose to God.

3 Petitions now and Praise may rise,
   And Saints their Offerings bring,
   The Priest with his own Sacrifice
   Presents them to the King.

[4 Let Papists trust what Names they plead
   Their Saints and Angels boast;
   We've no such Advocates as these,
   Nor pray to th' Heavenly Host.]

5 Jesus alone shall bear my Cries
   Up to his Father's Throne,
   He (dearest Lord) perfumes my Sighs,
   And sweetens every Groan.

[6 Ten thousand Praises to the King,
   Hosanna in the higheft;
   Ten thousand Thanks our Spirits bring
   To God and to his Christ.]
XXXVIII. Love to God.

Happy the Heart where Graces reign;
Where Love inspires the Breast:
Love is the brightest of the Train,
And strengthens all the rest.

Knowledge, alas, 'tis all in vain,
And all in vain our Fear,
Our Stubborn Sins will fight and reign;
If Love be absent there.

'Tis Love that makes our cheerful Feet
In swift Obedience move,
The Devils know and tremble too,
But Satan cannot love.

This is the Grace that lives and sings
When Faith and Hope shall cease,
'Tis this shall strike our joyful Strings
In the sweet Realms of Bliss.

Before we quite forswake our Clay,
Or leave this dark Abode,
The Wings of Love bear us away
To see our smiling God.

XXXIX. The Shortness and Misery of Life.

Our Days, alas! our Mortal Days
Are short and wretched too;
Hymns and

* Evil and few the Patriarch says,
And well the Patriarch knew.

2 'Tis but at best a narrow Bound
That Heaven allows to Men,
And Pains and Sins run thro' the Round
Of threescore Years and ten.

3 Well, if ye must be sad and few,
Run on, my Days, in haste.
Moments of Sin, and Months of Woe,
Ye cannot fly too fast.

4 Let Heavenly Love prepare my Soul,
And call her to the Skies,
Where Years of long Salvation roll,
And Glory never dies.

XL. Our Comfort in the Covenant made with Christ.

1 OUR God, how firm his Promise stan
Ev'n when he hides his Face;
He trusts in our Redeemer's hands
His Glory and his Grace.

2 Then why, my Soul, these sad Complai
Since Christ and We are One?
Thy God is faithful to his Saints,
Is faithful to his Son.

3 Beneath his smiles my Heart has liv'd
And part of Heav'n possess'd;

* Gen. 47. 9.
I praise his Name for Grace receiv'd,
And trust him for the rest.

XLII. A sight of God mortifies us to the World.

Up to the Fields where Angels lye,
And living Waters gently roll,
Fain would my Thoughts leap out and fly,
But Sin hangs heavy on my Soul.

Thy wondrous Blood, dear dying Christ,
Can make this load of Guilt remove;
And thou canst bear me where thou fly'st,
On thy kind Wings, Celestial Dove.

0 might I once mount up and see
The Glories of th' Eternal Skies,
What little things these Worlds would be,
How despicable to my Eyes!

Had I a Glance of thee, my God,
Kingdoms and Men would vanish soon,
Vanish as tho' I saw 'em not,
As a dim Candle dies at Noon.

Then they might fight, and rage, and rave,
I should perceive the Noise no more
Than we can hear a shaking Leaf
While rattling Thunders round us roar.

Great All in All, Eternal King,
Let me but view thy lovely Face,
And all my Pow'rs shall bow and sing,
Thine endless Grandeur, and thy Grace.
XLII. Delight in God.

1 My God, what endless Pleasures dwell
   Above at thy Right Hand!
The Courts below, how amiable,
   Where all thy Graces stand!

2 The Swallow near thy Temple lies,
   And chirps a chearful Note;
The Lark mounts upwards to thy Skies,
   And tunes her warbling Throat.

3 And we, when in thy Presence, Lord,
   We shout with Joyful Tongues,
Or sitting round our Father's Board,
   We crown the Feast with Songs.

4 While Jesus shines with quickning Grace
   We sing and mount on high;
But if a Frown becloud his Face,
   We faint, and tire, and die.

5 Just as we see the lonesome Dove
   Bemoan her Widow'd State,
Wandring she flies thro' all the Grove,
   And mourns her loving Mate.

6 Just so our Thoughts from thing to thing
   In restless Circles rove,
Just so we droop, and hang the Wing,
   When Jesus hides his Love.]
XLIII. Christ's Sufferings and Glory.

NOW for a Tune of lofty Praise
To great Jehovah's equal Son!
Awake, my Voice, in heavenly Lays,
Tell the loud Wonders he hath done.

Sing how he left the Worlds of Light;
And the bright Robes he wore above,
How swift and joyful was his flight
On Wings of everlasting Love.

Down to this base, this sinful Earth
He came to raise our Nature high;
He came t'atone Almighty Wrath;
Jesus the God was born to die.]

Hell and its Lions roar'd around,
His precious Blood the Monsters spilt,
While weighty Sorrows prest him down,
Large as the Loads of all our Guilt.]

Deep in the Shades of gloomy Death
Th' Almighty Captive Prisoner lay,
Th' Almighty Captive left the Earth,
And rose to everlasting Day.

Lift up your Eyes, ye Sons of Light,
Up to his Throne of shining Grace,
See what immortal Glories lit
Round the sweet Beauties of his Face:

Amongst a thousand Harps and Songs
Jesus the God exalted reigns,
His sacred Name fills all their Tongues,
And echo's thro' the heavenly Plains.

XLIV.
XLIV. Hell; or, the Vengeance of God.

1 With holy Fear, and humble Song
The dreadful God our Souls adore;
Reverence and Awe becomes the Tongue
That speaks the Terrors of his Power.

2 Far in the Deep where Darkness dwells,
The Land of Horror and Despair,
Justice has built a dismal Hell,
And laid her Stores of Vengeance there:

[3 Eternal Plagues, and heavy Chains,
Tormenting Racks and fiery Coals,
And Darts t' inflict immortal Pains
Dy'd in the Blood of Damned Souls.]

[4 There Satan the first Sinner lies,
And roars and bites his Iron Bands;
In vain the Rebel strives to rise, (Hands
Crush'd with the weight of both thin

5 There guilty Ghosts of Adam's Race
Shriek out and howl beneath thy Rod;
Once they could scorn a Saviour's Grace,
But they incens'd a dreadful God.

6 Tremble, my Soul, and kiss the Son;
Sinners, obey the Saviour's Call;
Else your Damnation hastens on,
And Hell gapes wide to wait your Fall.
XLV. God's Condescension to our Worship.

1 Thy Favours, Lord, surprize our Souls;
   Will the Eternal dwell with us?
   What canst thou find beneath the Poles,
   To tempt thy Chariot downward thus?

2 Still might he fill his Starry Throne,
   And please his Ears with Gabriel's Songs;
   But th' heavenly Majesty comes down,
   And bows to hearken to our Tongues.

3 Great God, what poor Returns we pay
   For Love so infinite as thine?
   Words are but Air, and Tongues but Clay;
   But thy Compassion's all Divine.

XLVI. God's Condescension to Human Affairs.

1 Up to the Lord that reigns on high
   And views the Nations from afar,
   Let everlasting Praises fly,
   And tell how large his Bounties are.

2 He that can shake the Worlds he made,
   Or with his Word, or with his Rod,
   His Goodness how amazing great!
   And what a condescending God!]

3 God that must stoop to view the Skies,
   And bow to see what Angels do,
Hymns and

Down to our Earth he calls his Eyes,
And bends his Footsteps downward too.

He over-rules all mortal Things,
And manages our mean Affairs;
On humble Souls the King of Kings
Bestows his Counsels and his Cares.

Our Sorrows and our Tears we pour
Into the Bosom of our God,
He hears us in the mournful Hour,
And helps us bear the heavy Load.

In vain might lofty Princes try
Such Condescension to perform;
For Worms were never rais’d so high
Above their meanest Fellow-worm.

O could our thankful Hearts devise
A Tribute equal to thy Grace,
To the third Heav’n our Songs should rise,
And teach the golden Harps thy Praise.

XLVII. Glory and Grace in the Person of Christ.

1 NOW to the Lord a noble Song!
Awake my Soul, awake my Tongue
Hosanna to th’ Eternal Name,
And all his boundless Love proclaim.

2 See where it shines in Jesus Face,
The brightest Image of his Grace:
God in the Person of his Son
Has all his mightiest Works out-done.
3 The spacious Earth, and spreading Flood,
   Proclaim the wise, the powerful God,
   And thy rich Glories from afar
   Sparkle in every rolling Star.

4 But in his Looks a Glory stands,
   The noblest Labour of thine Hands:
   The pleasing Lustre of his Eyes
   Out-shines the Wonders of the Skies.

5 Grace, 'tis a sweet, a charming Theme;
   My Thoughts rejoice at Jesus Name:
   Ye Angels, dwell upon the Sound,
   Ye Heav'n's, reflect it to the Ground.

6 O may I live to reach the Place
   Where he unveils his lovely Face,
   Where all his Beauties you behold,
   And sing his Name to Harps of Gold!

XLVIII. Love to the Creatures is dangerous.

HOW vain are all things here below!
   How false, and yet how fair!
Each Pleasure hath its Poison too,
   And every Sweet a Snare.

The brightest Things below the Sky
   Give but a flattering Light;
We should suspect some Danger nigh
   Where we possess Delight.

Our dearest Joys, and nearest Friends,
   The Partners of our Blood,
   How
How they divide our wavering Minds,
And leave but half for God.

4 The Fondness of a Creatures Love,
How strong it strikes the Seafe!
Thither the warm Affections move,
Nor can we call 'em thence.

5 Dear Saviour, let thy Beauties be
My Soul's Eternal Food;
And Grace command my Heart away
From all created Good.

XLIX. Moses dying in the Embraces of God.

1 Death cannot make our Souls afraid
   If God be with us there;
   We may walk thro' her darkest Shade,
   And never yield to Fear.

2 I could renounce my All below
   If my Creator bid,
   And run if I were call'd to go,
   And die as Moses did.

3 Might I but climb to Pisgah's Top,
   And view the promis'd Land,
   My Flesh it felt should long to drop,
   And pray for the Command.

4 Claspt in my heavenly Father's Arms
   I would forget my Breath,
   And lose my Life among the Charms
   Of so divine a Death.
L. Comfort under Sorrows and Pains.

NOW let the Lord my Saviour smile;
And show my Name upon his Heart;
I would forget my Pains a while,
And in the Pleasure lose the Smart:

But oh! it swells my Sorrows high
To see my blessed Jesus frown,
My Spirits sink, my Comforts die,
And all the Springs of Life are down.

Yet why, my Soul, why these Complaints?
Still while he frowns his Bowels move;
Still on his Heart he bears his Saints,
And feels their Sorrows and his Love.

My Name is printed on his Breast;
His Book of Life contains my Name;
I’d rather have it there impress
Than in the bright Records of Fame.

When the last Fire burns all things here,
Those Letters shall securely stand,
And in the Lamb’s fair Book appear
Writ by th’ Eternal Father’s Hand.

Now shall my Minutes smoothly run,
Whilst here I wait my Father’s Will:
My Rising and my Setting Sun
Roll gently up and down the Hill.
LI. God the Son equal with the Father.

1 Bright King of Glory, dreadful God!
   Our Spirits bow before thy Seat,
   To thee we lift an humble Thought,
   And worship at thine awful Feet.

2 Thy Power hath form'd, thy Wisdom sways
   All Nature with a Sovereign Word;
   And the bright World of Stars obeys
   The Will of their superior Lord.

3 Mercy and Truth unite in one,
   And shining sit at thy Right-hand;
   Eternal Justice guards thy Throne,
   And Vengeance waits thy dread Command.

4 A Thousand Seraphs strong and bright
   Stand round the glorious Deity;
   But who amongst the Sons of Light
   Pretends Comparison with thee?

5 Yet there is one of humane Frame,
   Jesus, array'd in Flesh and Blood,
   Thinks it no Robbery to claim
   A full Equality with God.

6 Their Glory shines with equal Beams;
   Their Essence is for ever one,
   Tho' they are known by different Names,
   The Father-God, and God the Son.

7 Then let the Name of Christ our King
   With equal Honours be ador'd;
His Praise let every Angel sing,
And all the Nations own their Lord.

Death dreadful or delightful.

Death! 'Tis a melancholy Day
To those that have no God,
When the poor Soul is forc'd away
To seek her last Abode.

In vain to Heaven she lifts her Eyes,
But Guilt, a heavy Chain,
Still drags her downward from the Skies
To Darkness, Fire, and Pain.

Awake and mourn ye Heirs of Hell,
Let Stubborn Sinners fear,
You must be driv'n from Earth, and dwell
A long For-ever there.

See how the Pit gapes wide for you,
And flashes in your Face,
And thou, my Soul, look downwards too,
And sing recovering Grace.

He is a God of sovereign Love
That promis'd Heaven to me;
And taught my Thoughts to soar above;
Where happy Spirits be.

Prepare me, Lord, for thy Right-hand,
Then come the joyful Day,
Come Death, and some Celestial Band
To bear my Soul away.
LIII. The Pilgrimage of the Saints; or, Earth and Heaven.

1 Lord! What a wretched Land is this
   That yields us no Supply?
   No cheering Fruits, no wholesome Trees,
   Nor Streams of living Joy.

2 But prickling Thorns thro' all the Ground,
   And Mortal Poisons grow,
   And all the Rivers that are found
   With dangerous Waters flow.

3 Yet the dear Path to thine Abode
   Lies thro' this horrid Land,
   Lord! we would keep the heavenly Road
   And run at thy Command.

   With undiverted Feet;
   And Faith and flaming Zeal subdue
   The Terrors that we meet.]

Infinite Grace shall be our Song,

The Glory of my brightest Days,
And Comfort of my Nights.

2 In darkest Shades if he appear,
   My Dawning is begun:
He is my Soul's sweet Morning-Star,
   And He my rising Sun.

3 The opening Heavens around me shine
   With Beams of sacred Bliss,
While Jesus shows his Heart is mine,
   And whispers, I am his.

4 My Soul would leave this heavy Clay
   At that transporting Word,
Run up with Joy the shining Way
   T' embrace my dearest Lord.

   I'd break thro' every Foe;
The Wings of Love, and Arms of Faith

LV. Frail Life, and succeeding Eternity.

   And humbly own to thee,
How feeble is our Mortal Frame!
   What dying Worms are we!

And every beating Pulse we tell
   Leaves but the Number less.

To push us to the Tomb,
And fierce Diseases wait around
To hurry Mortals home.

Hang everlasting Things!

Upon Life’s feeble Strings.

Attends on every Breath;
And yet how unconcern’d we go
Upon the Brink of Death!

7 Waken, O Lord, our drowsy Sense
To walk this dangerous Road;
And if our Souls are hurried hence,
May they be found with God.

Who grow profanely Great,
Tho’ they increase their Golden Store;
And rise to wond’rous Height.

Upon this earthly Cid,
Well they may search the Creature thro’;

But Death comes halting on to you
To mow your Glory down.

4 Yes, you must bow your stately Head,
Away your Spirit flies,
And no kind Angel near your Bed
To bear it to the Skies.

5 Go now, and boast of all your Stores,
And tell how bright you shine;
Your Heaps of glittering Dust are yours,
And my Redeemer's mine.

LVII. The Pleasures of a Good Conscience.

1 Lord, how secure and blest are they
Who feel the Joys of pardon'd Sin?
Should Storms of Wrath shake Earth and (Sea)
Their Minds have Heaven and Peace
(within)

2 The Day glides sweetly o're their Heads,
Made up of Innocence and Love;
And soft and silent as the Shades
Their Nightly Minutes gently move.

3 Quick as their Thoughts their Joys com;
But fly not half so fast away,
Their Souls are ever bright as Noon,
And calm as Summer-Evenings be.

4 How oft they look to th' heavenly Hills
Where Groves of Living Pleasure grow!
And longing Hopes and cheerfull Smiles,
Sit undisturb'd upon their Brow.

They scorn to seek our Golden Toys,
But spend the Day and share the Night
In numbr'ing o'er the richer Joys
That Heaven prepares for their Delight.

While wretched we like Worms and Moles
Lie groveling in the Dust below,
Almighty Grace, renew our Souls,
And we'll aspire to Glory too.

LVIII. The Shortness of Life, and the Goodness of God.

Time! What an empty Vapour 'tis!
And Days how swift they are!
Swift as an Indian Arrow flies,
Or like a shooting Star.

The present Moments just appear,
Then slide away in haste,
That we can never say, They're here,
But only say, They're past.

Our Life is ever on the Wing,
And Death is ever nigh;
The Moment when our Lives begin
We all begin to die.

Yet, Mighty God, our fleeting Days
Thy lasting Favours share,
Yet with the Bounties of thy Grace
Thou load'st the rolling Year.
5 'Tis Sovereign Mercy finds us Food,
   And we are cloath'd with Love:
While Grace stands pointing out the Road;
That leads our Souls above.

6 His Goodness runs an endless Round;
   All Glory to the Lord:
His Mercy never knows a Bound;
   And be his Name ador'd.

7 Thus we begin the lasting Song,
   And when we close our Eyes,
Let the next Age thy Praise prolong
   Till Time and Nature dies.

LIX. Paradise on Earth.

1 Glory to God that walks the Sky,
   And sends his Blessings thro',
That tells his Saints of Joys on high,
   And gives a taste below.

2 Glory to God that stoops his Throne
   That Dust and Worms may see't,
And brings a glimpse of Glory down
   Around his Sacred Feet.

3 When Christ with all his Graces crown'd
   Sheds his kind Beams abroad,
'Tis a young Heaven on Earthly Ground,
   And Glory in the Bud.

4 A blooming Paradise of Joy
   In this wild Desart springs;
And every Sense I strait employ
   On sweet Celestial Things.
White Lillies all around appear,
And each his Glory shews;
The Rose of Sharon blossoms here,
The fairest Flower that blows.

Cheerful I feast on heavenly Fruit,
And drink the Pleasures down,
Pleasures that flow hard by the Foot
Of the Eternal Throne.]

But ah! how soon my Joys decay,
How soon my Sins arise,
And snatch the Heavenly Scene away
From these lamenting Eyes!

When shall the Time, dear Jesus, when
The shining Day appear,
That I shall leave those Clouds of Sin,
And Guilt and Darkness here.

Up to the Fields above the Skies
My hasty Feet would go,
There Everlasting Flowers arise
And Joys unwithering grow.

LX. The Truth of God the Promiser:
or, The Promises are our Security.

Praise, everlasting Praise be paid
To him that Earths Foundations laid;
Praise to the God whose strong Decrees
Sway the Creation as He please.

Praise to the Goodness of the Lord
Who rules his People by his Word,
And there as strong as his Decrees
He sets his kindest Promises.

3 Firm are the Words his Prophets give,
Sweet Words on which his Children live;
Each of them is the Voice of God,
Who spoke and spread the Skies abroad.

4 Each of them powerful as that Sound
That bid the new-made Heav'n's go round
And stronger than the solid Poles
On which the Wheel of Nature rolls.]

5 Whence then should Doubts and Fear ( arise
Why trickling Sorrows drown our Eyes?
Slowly, alas, our Mind receives
The Comforts that our Maker gives.

6 O for a strong, a lasting Faith
To credit what th' Almighty faith!
To embrace the Message of his Son,
And call the Joys of Heav'n our own.

7 Then should the Earths old Pillars shake,
And all the Wheels of Nature break,
Our tender Souls should fear no more
Than solid Rocks when Billows roar.

8 Our Everlasting Hopes arise
Above the ruinable Skies;
Where the Eternal Builder reigns,
And his own Courts his Power sustains.
LXI. A Thought of Death and Glory.

My Soul, come meditate the Day,
And think how near it stands,
When thou must quit this House of Clay,
And fly to unknown Lands.

And you mine Eyes look down and view
The hollow gaping Tomb,
This gloomy Prison waits for You
When e're the Summons come.]

O could we die with those that die,
And place us in their Head,
Then would our Spirits learn to fly,
And converse with the Dead.

Then should we see the Saints above
In their own Glorious Forms,
And wonder why our Souls should love
To dwell with Mortal Worms.

How should we scorn these Cloaths of Flesh;
These Fetter's and this Load!
And long for Ev'ning to undress,
That we may rest with God.]

We should almost forsake our Clay
Before the Summons come,
And pray, and with our Souls away
To their Eternal Home.

LXII: God
LXII. God the Thunderer— or, The Last Judgment and Hell *.

1 Sing to the Lord, ye Heavenly Hosts,
    And thou, O Earth, adore,
    Let Death and Hell thro' all their Coasts
    Stand trembling at his Power.

2 His founding Chariot shakes the Sky,
    He makes the Clouds his Throne,
    There all his Stores of Lightning lie
    Till Vengeance darts them down.

3 His Nostrils breathe out fiery Streams,
    And from his awful Tongue
    A Sovereign Voice divides the Flames;
    And Thunder roars along.

4 Think, O my Soul, the dreadful Day
    When this incensed God
    Shall rend the Sky, and burn the Sea,
    And fling his Wrath abroad.

5 What shall the Wretch the Sinner do?
    He once defy'd the Lord?
    But he shall dread the Thunderer now,
    And sink beneath his Word.

6 Tempests of angry Fire shall roll
    To blast the Rebel-Worm,
    And beat upon his naked Soul
    In one Eternal Storm.

LXIII. A Funeral Thought.

Hark! from the Tombs a dolceful sound!
My Ears attend the Cry,
"Ye living Men, come view the Ground
"Where you must shortly lie.

"Princes this Clay must be your Bed
"In spight of all your Tow'rs;
"The Tall, the Wise, the Rev'rend Head
"Must lie as low as ours.

Great God, is this our certain Doom?
And are we still secure?
Still walking downwards to our Tomb,
And yet prepare no more?

Grant us the Powers of quick'ning Grace;
To fit our Souls to fly,
Then when we drop this dying Flesh,
We'll rise above the Sky.

XIV. God the Glory and the Defence of Sion.

Happy the Church, thou sacred Place,
The Seat of thy Creator's Grace;
Thine holy Courts are his Abode,
Thou Earthly Palace of our God.

Thy Walls are Strength, and at thy Gates;
A Guard of heavenly Warriors waits;
Nor shall thy deep Foundations move,
Fixt on his Counsels and his Love.
3 Thy Foes in vain Designs engage,
Against his Throne in vain they rage,
Like rising Waves with angry Roar,
That dash and die upon the Shore.

4 Then let our Souls in Sion dwell,
Nor fear the Wrath of Rome and Hell:
His Arms embrace this happy Ground
Like Brazen Bulwarks built around.

5 God is our Shield, and God our Sun;
Swift as the fleeting Moments run
On us he sheds new beams of Grace;
And we reflect his brightest Praise.

LXV. The Hope of Heaven our Support under Trials on Earth.

1 When I can read my Title clear
To Mansions in the Skies,
I bid farewell to every Fear,
And wipe my weeping Eyes.

2 Should Earth against my Soul engage;
And hellish Darts be hurl’d,
Then I can smile at Satan’s Rage,
And face a frowning World.

3 Let Cares like a wild Deluge come,
And Storms of Sorrow fall,
May I but safely reach my Home,
My God, my Heaven, my All.

4 There shall I bathe my weary Soul
In Seas of heavenly Rest;
And not a Wave of Trouble roll
Across my peaceful Breast.

LXVI. A Prospect of Heaven makes Death easy.

There is a Land of pure Delight
Where Saints Immortal reign;
Infinite Day excludes the Night,
And Pleasures banish Pain.

There everlasting Spring abides,
And never-withering Flowers:
Death like a narrow Sea divides
This Heav'ly Land from ours.

Sweet Fields beyond the dwelling Flood
Stand drest in living Green:
So to the Jews old Canaan stood,
While Jordan roll'd between.

But timorous Mortals start and shrink
To cross this narrow Sea,
And linger shivering on the Brink,
And fear to land away.

O could we make our Doubts remove,
These gloomy Doubts that rise,
And see the Canaan that we love,
With unclouded Eyes.

Could we but climb where Moses stood,
And view the Landskip o're, (Flood,
Not Jordan's Stream, nor Death's cold
Should fright us from the Shore.

LXVII.
LXVII. God's Eternal Dominion.

1 Great God! how Infinite art Thou!
What worthless Worms are we!
Let the whole Race of Creatures bow,
And pay their Praise to thee.

2 Thy Throne Eternal Ages stood
E're Seas or Stars were made;
Thou art the Ever-living God,
Were all the Nations dead.

3 Nature and Time quite naked lie
To thine Immensee Survey,
From the Formation of the Sky
To the great Burning-Day.

4 Eternity with all its Years
Stands present in thy View;
To thee there's nothing Old appears,
Great God, there's nothing New.

5 Our Lives thro' various Scenes are drawn,
And vex'd with trifling Cares;
While thine Eternal Thought moves on
Thine undisturb'd Affairs.

6 Great God; how Infinite art thou!
What worthless Worms are we!
Let the whole Race of Creatures bow
And pay their Praise to thee.

LXVIII.
LXVIII. The Humble Worship of Heaven.

F'ather, I long, I faint to see
The Place of thine Abode,
I'd leave thy Earthly Courts and flee
Up to thy Seat, my God!

Here I behold thy distant Face,
And 'tis a pleasing Sight;
But to abide in thine Embrace
Is Infinite Delight.

I'd part with all the Joys of Sense,
To gaze upon thy Throne:
Pleasure springs fresh for ever thence,
Unspeakable, Unknown.

There all the Heavenly Hosts are seen,
In shining Ranks they move,
And drink Immortal Vigour in
With Wonder and with Love.

Then at thy Feet with awful Fear
Th' adoring Armies fall;
With Joy they shrink to NOTHING
Before th' Eternal ALL.

There I would vie with all the Host
In Duty and in Bliss,
While LESS THAN NOTHING I could
* And VANITY confess.] (boast

* Isa. 40. 17.
The more thy Glories strike mine Eyes,
The humbler I shall lie;
Thus while I sink, my Joys shall rise
Unmeasurably high.

LXIX. The Faithfulness of God's Promises.

Begin my Tongue, some heav'nly Thing
And speak some boundless thing,
The mighty Works, or mightier Name
Of our Eternal King,

Tell of his wond'rous Faithfulness,
And found his Power abroad,
Sing the sweet Promise of his Grace,
And the performing God.

Proclaim Salvation from the Lord
For wretched dying Men;
His Hand has writ the sacred Word
With an Immortal Pen.

Engrav'd as in Eternal Brass
The mighty Promise shines,
Nor can the Powers of Darkness raise
Those everlasting Lines.

He that can dash whole Worlds to Dea
And make them when he please,
He speaks, and that Almighty Breath
Fulfils his great Decrees.

His very Word of Grace is strong
As that which built the Skies,
The Voice that rolls the Stairs along
Speaks all the Promises.

7 He said, Let the wide Heav'n be spread,
   And Heaven was stretch'd abroad;
Abrah'm I'll be thy God, He said,
   And He was Abrah'm's God.

8 O might I hear thine heavenly Tongue
   But whisper, Thou art Mine,
Those gentle Words should raise my Song
   To Notes almost Divine.

How would my leaping Heart rejoynce,
   And think my Heaven secure!
I trust the All-Creating Voice,
   And Faith desires no more.]

LXX. God's Dominion over the Sea;
Psalm 107. 23, &c.

GOD of the Seas, thy thundering Voice
   Makes all the roaring Waves rejoynce,
And one soft Word of thy Command
   Can sink them silent in the Sand.

If but a Moses wave thy Rod,
The Sea divides and owns its God;
The stormy Floods their Maker knew,
   And let his chosen Armies thro'.

The scaly Flocks amidst the Sea
To thee their Lord a Tribute pay;
The meanest Fish that swims the Flood
Leaps up, and means a Praise to God.
The larger Monsters of the Deep
On thy Commands attendance keep,
By thy Permission sport and play,
And cleave along their foaming Way.

If God his Voice of Tempest rears
Leviathan lies still and fears,
Anon he lifts his Nostrils high,
And spouts the Ocean to the Sky.

How is thy glorious Power ador'd
Amidst these watry Nations, Lord!
Yet the bold Men that trace the Seas,
Bold Men, refuse their Maker's Praise.

What Scenes of Miracle they see,
And never tune a Song to thee!
While on the Flood they safely ride,
They curse the Hand that smooths the Tide.

Anon they plunge in watry Graves,
And some drink Death among the Wave.
Yet the surviving Crew blaspheme,
Nor own the God that rescu'd them.

O for some Signal of thine Hand!
Shake all the Seas, Lord, shake the Land,
Great Judge descend, lest Men deny
That there's a God that rules the Sky.

From the 70th to the 108th Hymn, the Reader will forgive the neglect of Rhyme in the First and Third Lines of the Stanza.
LXXI. Praise to God from all Creatures.

The Glories of my Maker God
   My joyful Voice shall sing,
And call the Nations to adore
   Their Former and their King:

Twas his Right-hand that shap'd our Clay
   And wrought this humane Frame,
But from his own immediate Breath
   Our nobler Spirits came.

We bring our mortal Powers to God,
   And worship with our Tongues:
We claim some kindred with the Skies
   And joyn th' Angelic Songs.

Let groveling Beasts of every Shape,
   And Fowls of every Wing,
And Rocks, and Trees, and Fires, and Seas
   Their various Tribute bring.

Ye Planets to his Honour shine,
   And Wheels of Nature roll,
Praise him in your unwearied Course
   Around the steady Pole.

The Brightness of our Maker's Name
   The wide Creation fills,
And his unbounded Grandeur flies
   Beyond the Heavenly Hills.
LXXII. The Lord's Day; or, The Resurrection of Christ.

1 Blest Morning, whose young dawnin [Ray
    Beheld our rising God,
    That saw him triumph o're the Dust,
    And leave his dark Abode.

2 In the cold Prison of a Tomb.
    The dead Redeemer lay,
    Till the revolving Skies had brought
    The third, th' appointed Day.

3 Hell and the Grave unite their Force
    To hold our God in vain,
    The sleeping Conqueror arose,
    And burst their feeble Chain.

4 To thy great Name, Almighty Lord,
    These Sacred Hours we pay,
    And loud Hosanna's shall proclaim
    The Triumph of the Day.

5 Salvation and Immortal Praise
    To our Victorious King,
    Let Heaven, and Earth, and Rocks, a
    With glad Hosannas ring.]

LXXIII. Doubts scatter'd; or, Spiritual Joy restor'd.

1 Hence from my Soul, sad Thoughts,
    And leave me to my Joys,
My Tongue shall triumph in my God,
And make a joyful Noise.

Darkness and Doubts had vail'd my Mind,
And drown'd my Head in Tears,
Till Sovereign Grace with shining Rays
Dispell'd my gloomy Fears.

O what Immortal Joys I felt,
And Raptures all Divine,
When Jesus told me, I was his,
And my Beloved, mine.

In vain the Tempter frights my Soul,
And breaks my Peace in vain,
One Glimpse, dear Saviour, of thy Face
Revives my Joys again.

XXIV. Repentance from a Sense of Divine Goodness; or, A Complaint of Ingratitude.

1 Is this the kind Return,
   And these the Thanks we owe?
   Thus to abuse Eternal Love
   Whence all our Blessings flow?

2 To what a stubborn Frame
   Has Sin reduc'd our Mind?
   What strange rebellious Wretches we,
   And God as strangely kind?

3 On us he bids the Sun
   Shed his reviving Rays,
   or us the Skies their Circles run
   To lengthen out our Days.
4 The Brutes obey their God,
   And bow their Necks to Men,
But we more base, more brutish Things
   Reject his ealy Reign.]

5 Turn, turn us, mighty God,
   And mould our Souls afreih,
Break, Sov'reign Grace, these Hearts of
   And give us Hearts of Flesh. (Stops)

6 Let old Ingratitude
   Provoke our weeping Eyes,
And hourly as new Mercies fall
   Let hourly Thanks arise.

LXXV. Spiritual and Eternal Joys
  or, The beatific Sight of Christ.

1 From Thee, my God, my Joys shall ris
   And run Eternal Rounds,
Beyond the Limits of the Skies,
   And all created Bounds.

2 The holy Triumphs of my Soul
   Shall Death it self out-brave,
Leave shall Mortality behind,
   And fly-beyond the Grave.

3 There where my blessed Jesus reigns
   In Heavens unmeasurable Space,
I'll spend a long Eternity
   In Pleasure and in Praise.

4 Millions of Years my wond'ring Eyes
   Shall o're thy Beauties rove,
Spiritual Songs.

And endless Ages I'll adore
The Glories of thy Love.

Sweet Jesus, every Smile of thine
Shall fill thine Endearments bring,
And thousand Tastes of new Delight
From all thy Graces spring.

Haste my Beloved, fetch my Soul
Up to thy blest Abode,
Fly, for my Spirit longs to see
My Saviour and my God.

LXXVI. The Resurrection and Ascension of Christ.

Hosanna to the Prince of Light
That cloath'd himself in Clay,
Enter'd the Iron Gates of Death,
And tore the Bars away.

Death is no more the King of dread,
Since our Emmanuel rose,
He took the Tyrant's Sting away,
And spoil'd our hellish Foes.

See how the Conqueror mounts aloft
And to his Father flies,
With Scars of Honour in his Flesh,
And Triumph in his Eyes.

There our exalted Saviour reigns,
And scatters Blessings down,
Our Jesus fills the middle Seat
Of the Celestial Throne.

K 4 [5 Raif]
Hymns and B. II.

5 Raise your Devotion, Mortal Tongues,
    To reach his bless'd Abode,
Sweet be the Accents of your Songs
    To our Incarnate God.

6 Bright Angels, strike your loudest Strings,
    Your sweetest Voices raise,
Let Heaven and all Created Things
    Sound our Emanuel's Praise.]

LXXVII. The Christian Warfare.

[1 Stand up, my Soul, shake off thy Fears,
    And gird the Gospel-Armour on,
March to the Gates of endless Joy
    Where thy Great Captain-Saviour's gone.

2 Hail and thy Sins resist thy Course,
    But Hell and Sin are vanquish'd Foes,
Thy Jesus nail'd 'em to the Cross,
    And sung the Triumph when he rose.]

[3 What tho' the Prince of Darkness rage,
    And waste the Fury of his Spight,
Eternal Chains confine him down
    To fiery Deeps and endless Night.

4 What tho' thine inward Lusts rebel;
    'Tis but a strugling Gasp for Life;
The Weapons of Victorious Grace
    Shall slay thy Sins, and end the Strife.]
There shall I wear a starry Crown,
And triumph in Almighty Grace,
While all the Armies of the Skies
Joyn in my glorious Leader's Praise.

LXXVIII. Redemption by Christ.

When the first Parents of our Race
Rebell'd and lost their God,
And the Infection of their Sin
Had tainted all our Blood;

Infinite Pity touch't the Heart
Of the Eternal Son,
Descending from the heavenly Court:
He left his Father's Throne.

Aside the Prince of Glory threw
His most divine Aray,
And wrap'd his Godhead in a Veil:
Of our inferior Clay.

His living Power, and dying Love
Redeem'd unhappy Men,
And rais'd the Ruins of our Race
To Life and God again.

To thee, dear Lord, our Flesh and Soul:
We joyfully resign,
Blest Jesus, take us for thy own,
For we are doubly thine.

Thine Honour shall for ever be,
The Business of our Days,
For ever shall our thankful Tongues
Speak thy deserved Praise.
LXXIX. Praise to the Redeemer.

1. Plung'd in a Gulph of dark Despair
   We wretched Sinners lay,
   Without one cheerful Beam of Hope,
   Or Spark of glimmering Day.

2. With pitying Eyes the Prince of Grace
   Beheld our helpless Grief,
   He saw, and (O amazing Love)
   He ran to our Relief.

3. Down from the shining Seats above
   With joyful haste he fled,
   Enter'd the Grave in Mortal Flesh,
   And dwelt among the Dead.

4. He spoil'd the Powers of Darkness thus,
   And brake our Iron Chains;
   Jesus has freed our Captive Souls
   From everlasting Pains.

5. In vain the baffled Prince of Hell
   His cursed Projects tries,
   We that were doom'd his endless Slaves
   Are rais'd above the Skies.]

6. O for this Love let Rocks and Hills
   Their lasting Silence break,
   And all harmonious human Tongues
   The Saviour’s Praises speak.

7. Yes, we will praise thee, dearest Lord,
   Our Souls are all on Flame,
   Hosanna round the Spacious Earth
   To thine adored Name.
8 Angels, affint our mighty Joys,
Strike all your Harps of Gold;
But when you raise your highest Notes
His Love can ne'er be told.]

LXXX. God's awful Power and Goodness.

1 O The Almighty Lord!
How matchless is his Power!
Tremble, O Earth, beneath his Word,
And all the Heavens adore.

2 Let Proud Imperious Kings
Bow low before his Throne,
Crouch to his Feet ye haughty Things
Or he shall tread you down.

3 Above the Skies he reigns,
And with amazing Blows
He deals unsufferable Pains
On his Rebellious Foes.

4 Yet, Everlasting God,
We love to speak thy Praise;
Thy Scepter's equal to thy Rod,
The Scepter of thy Grace.

5 The Arms of mighty Love
Defend our Zion well,
And heavenly Mercy walls us round
From Babylon and Hell.

6 Salvation to the King
That sits enthron'd above;
Thus we adore the God of Might,
And bless the God of Love.

LXXXI.
LXXXI. Our Sin the Cause of Christ's Death.

1. And now the Scales have left mine Eyes,
   Now I begin to see;
   Oh the cursed Deeds my Sins have done!
   What murderous Things they be!

2. Were these the Traytors, dearest Lord,
   That thy fair Body tore?
   Monsters, that slain'd those heavenly
   With Floods of purple Gore? (Limbs

3. Was it for Crimes that I had done
   My dearest Lord was slain,
   When Justice seiz'd God's only Son:
   And put his Soul to Pain?

4. Forgive my Guilt, O Prince of Peace,
   I'll wound my God no more;
   Hence from my Heart, ye Sins, be gone,
   For Jesus I adore.

5. Furnish me, Lord, with heavenly Arms
   From Grace's Magazine,
   And I'll proclaim Eternal War
   With every darling Sin.

LXXXII. Redemption and Protection from Spiritual Enemies.

1. A Rise my Soul, my Joyful Powers,
   And triumph in my God,
   Awake my Voice, and loud proclaim
   His glorious Grace abroad.

2. He
B. II. Spiritual Songs.

2 He rais'd me from the Deeps of Sin,
   The Gates of gaping Hell,
   And fix'd my Standing more secure
   Than 'twas before I fell.

3 The Arms of everlasting Love
   Beneath my Soul he plac'd,
   And on the Rock of Ages set
   My slippery Footsteps fast.

4 The City of my blest Abode
   Is wall'd around with Grace,
   Salvation for a Bulwark stands
   To shield the sacred Place.

5 Satan may vent his sharpest Spight,
   And all his Legions roar,
   Almighty Mercy guards my Life,
   And bounds his raging Power.

6 Arise my Soul, awake my Voice,
   And Tunes of Pleasure sing,
   Loud Hallelujahs shall address
   My Saviour and my King.

LXXXIII. The Passion and Exaltation of Christ.

1 Thus faith the Ruler of the Skies,
    Awake my dreadful Sword;
    Awake my Wrath, and smite the Man
    My fellow, faith the Lord.

2 Vengeance receiv'd the dread Command,
    And armed down the flies.
Hymns and B. II

Jesus submits t' his Father's Hand,
And bows his Head and dies.

3 But oh! the Wisdom and the Grace
That join with Vengeance now!
He dies to save our Guilty Race,
And yet he rises too.

4 A Person so divine was he
Who yielded to be slain,
That he could give his Soul away,
And take his Life again.

5 Live, glorious Lord, and reign on high,
Let every Nation sing,
And Angels found with endless Joy
The Saviour and the King.

LXXXIV. The Same.

1 Come all harmonious Tongues,
Your noblest Music bring,
'Tis Christ the everlasting God,
And Christ the Man we sing.

2 Tell how he took our Flesh
To take away our Guilt,
Sing the dear Drops of sacred Blood
That Hellish Monsters spilt.

[3 Alas, the cruel Spear
Went deep into his Side,
And the rich Flood of purple Gore
Their murderous Weapons dy'd.]

[4 The Waves of swelling Grief
Did o'er his Bosom roll,
S. II. Spiritual Songs.

And Mountains of Almighty Wrath
Lay heavy on his Soul.]

5 Down to the Shades of Death
He bow'd his awful Head,
Yet he arose to live and reign
When Death it self is dead.

6 No more the bloody Spear,
The Cross and Nails no more;
For Hell it self shakes at his Name
And all the Heav'ns adore.

7 There the Redeemer sits
High on the Father's Throne;
The Father lays his Vengeance by,
And smiles upon his Son.

8 There his full Glories shine
With uncreated Rays,
And bless his Saints and Angels Eyes
To everlasting Days.

LXXXV. Sufficiency of Pardon.

1 Why does your Face, ye humble Souls,
Those mournful Colours wear?
What Doubts are these that waste your
And nourish your Despair? (Faith,

2 What tho' your numerous Sins exceed
The Stars that fill the Skies,
And aiming at the Eternal Throne
Like pointed Mountains rise;

3 What tho' your mighty Guilt beyond
The wide Creation swell,
And has its curst Foundations laid
Low as the Deeps of Hell.

4 See here an endless Ocean flows:
   Of never failing Grace;
Behold a dying Saviour's Veins
   The sacred Flood increase:

5 It rises high and drowns the Hills,
   'T has neither Shore nor Bound:
Now if we search to find our Sins,
   Our Sins can ne're be found.

6 Awake our Hearts, adore the Grace
   That buries all our Faut's,
And pardoning Blood that swells above
   Our Follies and our Thoughts.

LXXXVI. Freedom from Sin and Misery in Heaven.

1 OUR Sins, alas, how strong they be!
   And like a violent Sea
They break our Duty (Lord) to thee,
   And hurry us away.

2 The Waves of Trouble how they rise!
   How loud the Tempests roar!
But Death shall land our weary Souls
   Safe on the heavenly Shore,

3 There to fulfil his sweet Commands
   Our speedy Feet shall move,
No Sin shall clog our winged Zeal,
   Or cool our burning Love.

4 Then
There shall we sit, and sing, and tell
The Wonders of his Grace,
Till heavenly Raptures fire our Hearts,
And smile in ev'ry Face.

For ever his dear sacred Name
Shall dwell upon our Tongue,
And Jesus and Salvation be
The close of ev'ry Song.

XXXVII. The Divine Glories above our Reason.

How wond'rous great, how glorious
Must our Creator be, (bright
Who dwells amidst the dazling Light
Of vast Infinity?

Our soaring Spirits upwards rise
Tow'rd the Celestial Throne,
Fain would we see the Blessed Three,
And the Almighty One.

Our Reason stretches all its Wings,
And climbs above the Skies,
But still how far beneath thy Feet
Our groveling Reason lies!

Lord, here we bend our humble Souls,
And awfully adore,
For the weak Pinions of our Mind
Can stretch a Thought no more.

Thy Glories infinitely rise
Above our labouring Tongue,

In
In vain the highest Seraph tries,
To form an equal Song.

[6 In humble Notes our Faith adores
The great mysterious King,
While Angels strain their nobler Powers
And sweep th’ immortal String.]

LXXXVIII. Salvation.

1 Salvation! O the joyful Sound!
’Tis PLEASURE to our Ears;
A Sovereign Balm for every Wound,
A Cordial for our Fears.

2 Bury’d in Sorrow and in Sin,
At Hell’s dark Door we lay,
But we arise by Grace Divine
To see a heavenly Day.

3 Salvation! Let the Echo fly
The Spacious Earth around,
While all the Armies of the Sky
Conspire to raise the Sound.

LXXXIX. Christ’s Victory over Satan.

1 HOsanna to our conquering King,
The Prince of Darkness flies,
His Troops rush headlong down to Hell
Like Lightning from the Skies.

2 There bound in Chains the Lions roar,
And fright the rescu’d Sheep,
But heavy Bars confine their Pow'r
And Malice to the Deep.

Hosanna to our conquering King,
Ail hail, incarnate Love!
Ten thousand Songs and Glories wait
To crown thy Head above.

Thy Vict'ries and thy deathless Fame
Thro' the wide World shall run,
And everlasting Ages sing
The Triumphs thou hast won.

XCI. Faith in Christ for Pardon and Sanctification.

HOW sad our State by Nature is!
Our Sin how deep it stains!
And Satan binds our captive Minds
Falt in his flavius Chains.

But there's a Voice of sovereign Grace
Sounds from the sacred Word,
Ho, ye despairing Sinners come,
And trust upon the Lord.

My Soul obeys th' Almighty Call
And runs to this Relief,
I would believe thy Promise, Lord,
Oh, help my Unbelief.

To the dear Fountain of thy Blood
Incarnate God, I fly,
Here let me wash my spotted Soul
From Crimes of deepest Dye.
5 Stretch out thine Arm, victorious King,
My reigning Sins subdue,
Drive the old Dragon from his Seat,
With all his hellish Crew.]

6 A guilty, weak, and helpless Worm
On thy kind Arms I fall:
Be thou my Strength and Righteousness,
My Jesus, and my All.

XCI. The Glory of Christ in Heaven.

1 O The Delights, the heavenly Joys,
The Glories of the Place
Where Jesus sheds the brightest Beams
Of his O'er-flowing Grace!

2 Sweet Majesty and awful Love
Sit smiling on his Brow,
And all the glorious Ranks above
At humble Distance bow.

[3 Princes to his Imperial Name
Bend their bright Scepters down,
Dominions, Thrones, and Powers rejoice
To see him wear the Crown.]

4 Archangels found his lofty Praise
Thro' every heavenly Street,
And lay their highest Honours down
Submissive at his Feet.

5 Those soft, those blessed Feet of his
That once rude Iron tore,
High on a Throne of Light they stand,
And all the Saints adore.

6 His Head, the dear Majestick Head
That cruel Thorns did wound,
See what Immortal Glories shine,
And circle it around.

7 This is the Man, th' exalted Man
Whom we unseen adore;
But when our Eyes behold his Face,
Our Hearts shall love him more.

8 Lord, how our Souls are all on Fire
To see thy blest Abode,
Our Tongues rejoice in Tunes of Praise,
To our Incarnate God.

9 And whilst our Faith enjoys this Sight,
We long to leave our Clay,
And wish thy fiery Chariots, Lord,
To fetch our Souls away.]

XCII. The Church saved, and her Enemies disappointed.

Composed the 5th of November, 1694.

1 Shout to the Lord, and let our Joys
Thro' the whole Nation run;
Ye British Skies resound the Noise
Beyond the rising Sun.

2 Thee, mighty God, our Souls admire,
Thee our glad Voices sing,
Hymns and

And joyn with the Celestial Quire
To praise th' Eternal King.

3 Thy Power the whole Creation rules,
And on the starry Skies
Sits smiling at the weak Designs
That envious Foes devise.

4 Thy Scorn derides their feeble Rage,
And with an awful Frown
Flings vast Confusion on their Plots,
And shakes their Babel down.

5 Their secret Fires in Caverns lay,
And we the Sacrifice:
But gloomy Caverns strove in vain
To escape all-searching Eys.

6 Their dark Designs were all reveal'd,
Their Treasons all betray'd:
Praise to the God that broke the Snare
Their cursed Hands had laid.

7 In vain the busie Sons of Hell
Still new Rebellions try,
Their Souls shall pine with envious Rage
And vex away and die.

8 Almighty Grace defends our Land
From their malicious Power,
Let Britain with united Songs
Almighty Grace adore.
XCIII. God all, and in all; Psal. 73. 25.

1 My God, my Life, my Love,
To thee, to thee I call,
cannot live if thou remove,
For thou art all in all.

2 Thy shining Grace can cheer
This Dungeon where I dwell;
Is Paradise when thou art here,
If thou depart, 'tis Hell.]

3 The Smilings of thy Face,
How amiable they are!
Is Heaven to rest in thine Embrace,
And no where else but there.]

4 To thee, and thee alone,
The Angels owe their Bliss;
They sit around thy gracious Throne;
And dwell where Jesus is.]

5 Not all the Harps above
Can make a heavenly Place,
God his Residence remove,
Or but conceal his Face.]

6 Nor Earth, nor all the Sky
Can one Delight afford,
Not a Drop of real Joy
Without thy Presence, Lord.

7 Thou art the Sea of Love
Where all my Pleasures roll,
The Circle where my Passions move,
And Centre of my Soul.

[8 To
[8 To thee my Spirits fly
With infinite Desire,
And yet how far from thee I lie;
Dear Jesus raise me higher.]

XCIV. God my only Happiness
Psal. 73. 25.

1 MY God, my Portion, and my Lord,
My everlasting All,
I've none but thee in Heaven above,
Or on this Earthly Ball.

[2 What empty things are all the Skies,
And this Inferiour Clod?
There's nothing here deserves my Joys,
There's nothing like my God.]

[3 In vain the bright, the burning Sun
Scatters his feeble Light;
'Tis thy sweet Beams create my Noon;
If thou withdraw, 'tis Night.

4 And whilst upon my restless Bed
Amongst the Shades I roll,
If my Redeemer show his Head,
'Tis Morning with my Soul.]

5 To thee we owe our Wealth and Friend;
And Health and safe Abode;
Thanks to thy Name for meaner things;
But they are not my God.

6 How vain a Toy is glittering Wealth
If once compar'd to thee?
Or what's my Safety, or my Health,
Or all my Friends to me?
Were I Possessor of the Earth,
And call’d the Stars my own,
Without thy Graces and thy self
I were a Wretch undone.

Let others stretch their Arms like Seas,
And grasp the Shore,
Grant me the Visits of thy Face,
And I desire no more.

CV. Look on him whom they pierced, and mourn.

Infinite Grief! amazing Woe!
Behold my bleeding Lord:
Hill and the Jews conspir’d his Death,
And us’d the Roman Sword.

Oh the sharp Pangs of smarting Pain
My dear Redeemer bore,
When knotty Whips, and ragged Thorns
His sacred Body tore!

But knotty Whips and ragged Thorns
In vain do I accuse,
In vain I blame the Roman Bands,
And the more spightful Jews.

Twere you, my Sins, my cruel Sins,
His chief Tormentors were;
Each of my Crimes became a Nail,
And Unbelief the Spear.
Hymns and B. II.

5 Were you that pull'd the Vengeance Upon his guiltless Head: (down Break, break my Heart, oh burst mine And let my Sorrows bleed. (Eyes,

6 Strike, mighty Grace, my flinty Soul Till melting Waters flow,
And deep Repentance drown mine Eyes In undissembled Woe.

XCVI. Distinguishing Love; or, Ang- gels punish'd, and Man saved.

1 Down headlong from their native Skies The Rebel-Angels fell,
And Thunderbolts of flaming Wrath Pursu'd them deep to Hell.

2 Down from the Top of earthly Bliss Rebellious Man was hurl'd,
And Jesus stoop'd beneath the Grave To reach a sinking World.

3 O Love of infinite Degrees!
Unmeasurable Grace!
Murt Heaven's eternal Darling die,
To save a trayt'rous Race?

4 Must Angels sink for ever down,
And burn in quenchless Fire,
While God forsakes his shining Throne To raise us Wretches higher?

5 O for this Love let Earth and Skies With Hallelujahs ring,
And the full Choir of human Tongues
All Hallelujah sing.

XCVII. The Same.

1 From Heaven the sinning Angels fell,
   And Wrath and Darkness chain’d ’em down:
   But Man, vile Man forsook his Bliss,
   And Mercy lifts him to a Crown.

2 Amazing Work of Sovereign Grace
   That could distinguish Rebels so!
   Our guilty Treasons call’d aloud
   For Everlasting Fetters too.

3 To thee, to thee, Almighty Love;
   Our Souls, our Selves, our All we pay:
   Millions of Tongues shall sound thy Praise
   On the bright Hills of heavenly Day.

XCVIII. Hardness of Heart Complain’d of.

MY Heart, how dreadful hard it is!
   How heavy here it lies,
Heavy and cold within my Breast
   Just like a Rock of Ice!

Sin like a raging Tyrant sits
   Upon this flinty Throne,
And every Grace lies bury’d deep
   Beneath this Heart of Stone.

How seldom do I rise to God,
   Or taste the Joys above?

L 2
This Mountain presses down my Faith,
And chills my flaming Love.

4 When smiling Mercy courts my Soul
With all its heavenly Charms,
This stubborn, this relentless thing
Would thrust it from my Arms.

5 Against the Thunders of thy Word
Rebellious I have stood,
My Heart, it shakes not at the Wrath
And Terrors of a God.

6 Dear Saviour, keep this Rock of mine
In thine own crimson Sea!
None but a Bath of Blood Divine
Can melt the Flint away.

XCIX. The Book of God's Decrees.

1 LET the whole Race of Creatures lie
Abas'd before their God:
What e're his Sovereign Voice has form'd
He governs with a Nod.

2 Ten thousand Ages e're the Skies,
Were into Motion brought,
All the long Years and Worlds to come
Stood present to his Thought.

3 There's not a Sparrow or a Worm
But's found in his Decrees;
He raises Monarchs to their Thrones,
And sinks them as he please.

4 If Light attends the Course I run
'Tis he provides those Rays;
And 'tis his Hand that hides my Sun,
If Darkness cloud my Days.

Yet I would not be much concern'd,
Nor vainly long to see
The Volume of his deep Decrees,
What Months are writ for me.

When he reveals the Book of Life,
O may I read my Name
Amongst the Chosen of his Love,
The Followers of the Lamb.

The Presence of Christ is the Life of my Soul.

How full of Anguish is the Thought,
How it distresses and tears my Heart,
If God at last my Sovereign Judge
Should frown, and bid my Soul, Depart.

Lord, when I quit this earthly Stage,
Where shall I fly but to thy Breast?
For I have sought no other Home;
For I have learnt no other Rest.

I cannot live contented here,
Without some Glimpses of thy Face;
And Heaven without thy Presence there
Would be a dark and tiresome Place.

When Earthly Cares ingross the Day,
And hold my Thoughts aside from thee,
The shining Hours of cheerful Light
Are long and tedious Years to me.

L 3 5 And
5 And if no Evening Visit's paid
Between my Saviour and my Soul,
How dull the Night! how fad the Shade!
How mournfully the Minutes roll!

6 This Flesh of mine might learn as soon
To live, yet part with all my Blood;
To breathe when vital Air is gone,
Or thrive and grow without my Food.

[7 Christ is my Light, my Life, my Care,
My blessed Hope, my heavenly Prize;
Dearer than all my Passions are,
My Limbs, my Bowels, or my Eyes.

8 The Strings that twine about my Heart,
Tortures and Racks may tear them off;
But they can never, never part
With their dear hold of Christ my Love.

[9 My God! and can an humble Child
That loves thee with a Flame so high
Be ever from thy Face exil'd
Without the Pity of thine Eye?

10 Impossible.— For thine own hands
Have ty'd my Heart so fast to thee;
And in thy Book the Promise stands,
That where thou art thy Friends must be.

Cl. The World's Three Chief Temptations.

1 When in the Light of Faith Divine
We look on things below,
B. II.  Spiritual Songs.

Honour, and Gold, and sensual Joy,
How vain and dangerous too.

[2 Honour's a Puff of noisy Breath:
Yet Men expose their Blood,
And venture everlasting Death
To gain that airy Good.

3 Whilst others starve the nobler Mind,
And feed on shining Dust;
They rob the Serpent of his Food
T'indulge a sordid Lust.]

4 The Pleasures that allure our Sense
Are dangerous Snares to Souls;
There's but a drop of flattering Sweet,
And dash'd with bitter Bowls.

5 God is mine All-sufficient Good,
My Portion and my Choice;
In him my vast Desires are fill'd,
And all my Pow'rs rejoice.

6 In vain the World accosts my Ear,
And tempts my Heart anew;
I cannot buy your Bliss so dear,
Nor part with Heaven for you.

CII. "A Happy Resurrection.

1 No, I'll repine at Death no more,
But with a cheerful Gasp resign
To the cold Dungeon of the Grave
These dying, withering Limbs of mine.

2 Let Worms devour my wasting Flesh,
And crumble all my Bones to Dust,
My God shall raise my Frame anew
At the Revival of the Jull.

Break, sacred Morning, thro' the Skies,
Bring that delightful, dreadful Day,
Cut short the Hours, dear Lord, and come,
Thy ling'ring Wheels, how long they stay!

[4. Our weary Spirits faint to see
The Light of thy returning Face,
And hear the Language of those Lips
Where God has shed his richest Grace.]

[5. Haste then upon the Wings of Love,
Rouse all the pious sleeping Clay,
That we may joy in heav'nly Joys,
And sing the Triumph of the Day.]

CIII. Christ's Commission; John 3
16, 17.

Come, happy Souls, approach your God
With new melodious Songs,
Come render to Almighty Grace
The Tribute of your Tongues.

So strange, so boundless was the Love
That pity'd dying Men,
The Father sent his equal Son
To give them Life again.

Thy Hands, dear Jesus, were not arm'd
With a revenging Rod,
No hard Commission to perform
The Vengeance of a God.
But all was Mercy, all was mild,
And Wrath forsook the Throne
When Christ on the kind Errand came,
And brought Salvation down.

Here Sinners you may heal your Wounds,
And wipe your Sorrows dry;
Trust in the mighty Saviour's Name,
And you shall never die.

See, dearest Lord, our willing Souls
Accept thine offer'd Grace;
We bless the great Redeemer's Love,
And give the Father Praise.

CIV. The Same.

Raise your Triumphant Songs
To an Immortal Tune,
'the wide Earth resound the Deeds
Celestial Grace has done.

Sing how Eternal Love
Its chief Beloved chose,
And bid him raise our wretched Race
From their Abyss of Woes.

His Hand no Thunder bears,
Nor Terror cloaths his Brow;
Bolts to blast our guilty Souls
To fiercer Flames below.

'Twas Mercy fill'd the Throne,
And Wrath flood silent by,
Then Christ was sent with Pardons down
To Rebels doom'd to die.

5 Now,
5 Now, Sinners, dry your Tears,
Let hopeless Sorrow cease:
Bow to the Sceptre of his Love,
And take the offer’d Peace.

6 Lord, we obey thy Call,
We lay an humble Claim
To the Salvation thou hast brought,
And love and praise thy Name.

CV. Repentance flowing from the Patience of God.

1 AND are we Wretches yet alive?
   And do we yet rebel?
   'Tis boundless, 'tis amazing Love
   That bears us up from Hell.

2 The burthen of our weighty Guilt
   'Wou’d sink us down to Flames,
   And threat’ning Vengeance rolls above
   To crush our feeble Frames.

3 Almighty Goodness cries, Forbear,
   And strait the Thunder stays;
   And dare we now provoke his Wrath,
   And weary out his Grace?

4 Lord, we have long abus’d thy Love,
   Too long indulg’d our Sin;
   Our aking Hearts e’en bleed to see
   What Rebels we have been.

5 No more, ye Lufts, shall ye command,
   No more will we obey;
   Stretch out, O God, thy conquering Hand,
   And drive thy Foes away.

   CVI,
CVI. Repentance at the Cross.

O If my soul was form'd for woe,
How would I vent my sighs!
Repentance should like rivers flow
From both my streaming eyes.

'Twas for my sins my dearest Lord
Hung on the curled Tree,
And groan'd away a dying Life
For Thee, my Soul, for Thee.

O how I hate those lusts of mine
That crucify'd my God,
Those sins that pierce'd and nail'd his Flesh
Fast to the fatal Wood.

Yes, my Redeemer, they shall die,
My Heart has so decreed,
Nor will I spare the guilty Things
That made my Saviour bleed.

Whilst with a melting broken Heart
My murther'd Lord I view,
I'll raise Revenge against my Sins,
And slay the Murtherers too.

VII. The everlasting Absence of God intolerable.

That awful Day will surely come,
Th' appointed Hour makes haste;
When I must stand before my Judge,
And pass the solemn Test.

Thou lovely Chief of all my Joys,
Thou Sovereign of my Heart, How
How could I bear to hear thy Voice
Pronounce the sound, Depart?

[3 The Thunder of that dismal Word
Would so torment my Ear,
'Twould tear my Soul asunder, Lord,
With most tormenting Fear.]

[4 What, to be banished from my Life,
And yet forbid to die?
To linger in Eternal Pain,
Yet Death for ever fly?]

5 O wretched State of deep Despair,
To see my God remove,
And fix my doleful Station where
I must not taste his Love?

6 Jesus, I throw my Arms around
And hang upon thy Breast;
Without a gracious Smile from thee,
My Spirit cannot rest.

7 O tell me that my worthless Name
Is graven on thy Hands,
Show me some Promise in thy Book
Where my Salvation stands.

[3 Give me one kind assuring Word
To sink my Fears again;
And cheerfully my Soul shall wait
Her threescore Years and ten.]

CVIII. Access to the Throne of Grace
by a Mediator.

1 O come let us lift our joyful Eyes
Up to the Courts above,
III. Spiritual Songs.

And smile to see our Father there
Upon a Throne of Love.

Once 'twas a Seat of dreadful Wrath,
And shot devouring Flame;
Our God appear'd Consuming Fire,
And Vengeance was his Name.

Rich were the Drops of Jesus Blood
That calm'd his frowning Face,
That sprinkled o're the burning Throne,
And turn'd the Wrath to Grace.

Now we may bow before his Feet,
And venture near the Lord;
No fiery Cherub guards his Seat,
Nor double flaming-Sword.

The peaceful Gates of heavenly Blifs
Are open'd by the Son;
High let us raise our Notes of Praise,
And reach th' Almighty Throne.

To thee ten thousand Thanks we bring,
Great Advocate on high;
And Glory to th' Eternal King
That lays his Fury by.

IX. The Darkness of Providence.

Lord, we adore thy vast Designs,
Th' obscure Abyss of Providence,
Too deep to found with mortal Lines,
Too dark to view with feeble Sense.

Now thou array'rt thine awful Face
In angry Frowns, without a Smile;
We thro' the Cloud believe thy Grace,
Secure of thy Compassions still.

3 Thro' Seas and Storms of deep Distress
We sail by Faith and not by Sight;
Faith guides us in the Wilderness,
Through all the Briars and the Night.

4 Dear Father, if thy lifted Rod
Resolve to scourge us here below;
Still we must lean upon our God,
Thine Arm shall bear us safely through.

CX. Triumph over Death in hope of the Resurrection.

1 And must this Body die?
This mortal Frame decay?
And must these active Limbs of mine
Lie mould’ring in the Clay?

2 Corruption, Earth and Worms,
Shall but refine this Flesh,
Till my triumphant Spirit comes,
To put it on afresh.

3 God my Redeemer lives,
And often from the Skies
Locks down and watches all my Dust,
Till he shall bid it rise.

4 Array’d in glorious Grace
Shall these vile Bodies shine,
And every Shape, and every Face
Look heavenly and divine.
II. Spiritual Songs.

These lively Hopes we owe
To Jesus dying Love;
We would adore his Grace below,
And sing his Pow'r above.

Dear Lord, accept the Praise
Of these our humble Songs,
Tunes of nobler Sound we raise
With our Immortal Tongues.

XII. Thanksgiving for Victory; or,
God's Dominion and our Deliverance.

ZION rejoice, and Judah sing;
The Lord assumes his Throne;
Let Britain own the heavenly King,
And make his Glories known.

The Great, the Wicked, and the Proud
From their high Seats are hurl'd;
Jehovah rides upon a Cloud,
And thunders thro' the World.

He reigns upon th' Eternal Hills,
Distributes mortal Crowns,
Empires are fix'd beneath his Smiles,
And totter at his Frowns.

Savages that rule the Ocean wide
Are vanquish'd by his Breath;
And Legions arm'd with Pow'r and Pride
Descend to watry Death.

Tyrants make no more Pretence
To vex our happy Land;
Jehovah's Name is our Defence,
Our Buckler is his Hand.
CXII. Angels ministering to Christ and Saints.

1 Great God, to what a glorious Height
   Halt thou advance'd the Lord thy Son?
   Angels in all their Robes of Light
   Are made the Servants of his Throne.

2 Before his Feet their Armies wait,
   And swift as Flames of Fire they move
   To manage his Affairs of State
   In Works of Vengeance or of Love.

3 His Orders run thro' all their Hoods,
   Legions descend at his Command
   To shield and guard the British Coasts
   When Foreign Rage invades our Land.

4 Now they are sent to guide our Feet
   Up to the Gates of thine Abode,
   Thro' all the Dangers that we meet
   In travelling the heav'nly Road.

5 Lord, when I leave this mortal Ground
   And thou shalt bid me rise and come,
   Send a beloved Angel down
   Safe to conduct my Spirit Home.
CXIII. The same.

The Majesty of Solomon!
How glorious to behold
The Servants waiting round his Throne,
The Ivory and the Gold!

But, mighty God, thy Palace shines
With far superiour Beams:
Thine Angel-Guards are swift as Winds,
Thy Ministers are Flames.

Soon as thine only Son had made
His Entrance on this Earth,
A shining Army downward fled
To celebrate his Birth.

And when oppress with Pains and Fears
On the cold Ground he lies,
Behold a heav'nly Form appears
T' allay his Agonies.

Now to the Hands of Christ our King
Are all their Legions giv'n;
They wait upon his Saints, and bring
His chosen Heirs to Heaven.

Pleasure and Praise run thro' their Hoft
To see a Sinner turn;
Then Sion has a Captive lost,
And Christ a Subject born.

But there's an Hour of brighter Joy
When he his Angels sends
Obstinate Rebels to destroy,
And gather in his Friends.
5 O could I say, without a Doubt,
There shall my Soul be found,
Then let the great Archangel Shout,
And the last Trumpet Sound.

CXIV. Christ's Death, Victory and Dominion.

1 I sing my Saviour's wondrous Death;
He conquer'd, when he fell:
'Tisfinish'd, said his dying Breath,
And shook the Gates of Hell.

2 'Tis finish'd, our Immanuel cries,
The dreadful Work is done;
Hence shall his Sovereign Throne arise,
His Kingdom is begun.

3 His Cross a sure Foundation laid
For Glory and Renown,
When thro' the Regions of the dead,
He pass'd to reach the Crown.

4 Exalted at his Father's Side
Sits our Victorious Lord;
To Heaven and Hell his Hands divide
The Vengeance or Reward.

5 The Saints from his propitious Eye,
Await their several Crowns,
And all the Sons of Darkness fly
The Terror of his Frowns.

CXV
CXV. God the Avenger of his Saints; or, his Kingdom Supreme.

High as the Heavens above the Ground
Reigns the Creator God,
Wide as the whole Creation's Bound
Extends his awful Rod.

Let Princes of exalted State
To him ascribe their Crown,
Render their Homage at his Feet,
And cast their Glories down.

Know that his Kingdom is Supreme,
Your lofty Thoughts are vain:
He calls you Gods, that awful Name,
But ye must die like Men.

Then let the Sovereigns of the Globe
Not dare to vex the Just;
He puts on Vengeance like a Robe,
And treads the Worms to Dust.

Ye Judges of the Earth be wise,
And think on Heaven with fear;
The meanest Saint that you despise
Has an Avenger there.

CXVI. Mercies and Thanks.

How can I sink with such a Prop
As my Eternal God,
Who bears the Earths huge Pillars up,
And spreads the Heav'ns abroad?
2 How can I die while Jesus lives,
    Who rose and left the Dead?
Pardon and Grace my Soul receives
    From mine exalted Head.

3 All that I am, and all I have
    Shall be for ever thine,
What e'er my Duty bids me give
    My cheerful Hands resign.

4 Yet if I might make some Reserve,
    And Duty did not call,
I love my God with Zeal so great
    That I should give him all.

CXVII. Living and Dying with God present.

1 I Cannot bear thine Absence, Lord,
    My Life expires if thou depart:
Be thou, my Heart, still near my God,
    And thou, my God, be near my Heart.

2 I was not born for Earth and Sin,
    Nor can I live on things so vile;
Yet I would stay my Father's Time,
    And hope and wait for Heav'n awhile.

3 Then, dearest Lord, in thine Embrace
    Let me resign my fleeting Breath,
And with a Smile upon my Face
    Pass the Important Hour of Death.
CXVIII. The Priesthood of Christ.

Blood has a Voice to pierce the Skies,
Revenge, the Blood of Abel cries;
But the dear Stream when Christ was slain
Speaks Peace as loud from every Vein.

Pardon and Peace from God on high,
Behold he lays his Vengeance by,
And Rebels that deserv’d his Sword
Become the Favorites of the Lord.

To Jesus let our Praises rise
Who gave his Life a Sacrifice;
Now he appears before his God,
And for our Pardon pleads his Blood.

CXIX. The Holy Scriptures.

Laden with Guilt, and full of Fears
I fly to thee my Lord,
And not a glimpse of Hope appears
But in thy written Word.

The Volume of my Father’s Grace
Does all my Griefs affermage;
Here I behold my Saviour’s Face
Almost in every Page.

This is the Field where hidden lies
The Pearl of Price unknown,
That Merchant is divinely wise
Who makes the Pearl his own.
4 Here consecrated Water flows
To quench my Thirst of Sin;
Here the fair Tree of Knowledge grows,
Nor Danger dwells therein.]

5 This is the Judge that ends the Strife
Where Wit and Reason fail:
My Guide to Everlasting Life
Thro' all this gloomy Vale.

6 O may thy Counsels, mighty God,
My roving Feet command,
Nor I forsake the happy Road
That leads to thy Right-Hand.

CXX. The Law and Gospel joyned in Scripture.

1 THE Lord declares his Will,
And keeps the World in awe;
Amidst the Smoke on Sinai's Hill
Breaks out his fiery Law.

2 The Lord reveals his Face,
And smiling from above
Sends down the Gospel of his Grace,
Th' Epistles of his Love.

3 These sacred Words impart
Our Maker's just Commands;
The Pity of his melting Heart,
And Vengeance of his Hands.

[4 Hence we awake our Fear,
We draw our Comfort hence;
Spiritual Songs.

The Arms of Grace are treat in'd here,
And Armour of Defence.

We learn Chrift Crucify'd,
And here behold his Blood;
Arts and Knowledge beside,
Will do us little good.

We read the heavenly Word,
We take the offer'd Grace,
By the Statutes of the Lord,
And trust his Promises.

In vain shall Satan rage
Against a Book Divine;
The Wrath and Lightning fills the Page,
Here Beams of Mercy shine.

XXI. The Law and Gospel distinguish'd.

The Law commands, and makes us know
What Duties to our God we owe;
But 'tis the Gospel must reveal
Where lies out Strength to do his Will:

The Law discovers Guilt and Sin,
And shows how vile our Hearts have been:
Only the Gospel can express
Forgiving Love and cleansing Grace.

What Curses doth the Law denounce
Against the Man that fails but once?
But in the Gospel Chrift appears
Pard'ning the Guilt of num'rous Years.
CXXII. Retirement and Meditation

1 My God, permit me not to be
   A Stranger to my self and Thee;
   Amidst a thousand thoughts I love
   Forgetful of my highest Love.

2 Why should my Passions mix with Earth,
   And thus debase my heavenly Birth?
   Why should I cleave to things below,
   And let my God, my Saviour go?

3 Call me away from Flesh and Sense,
   One Sovereign Word can draw me thence
   I would obey the Voice Divine,
   And all inferior Joys resign.

4 Be Earth with all her Scenes withdrawn,
   Let Noise and Vanity be gone;
   In secret Silence of the Mind
   My Heav’n, and there my God I find.

CXXIII. The Benefit of publick Ordinances.

1 A Way from every Mortal Care,
   Away from Earth our Souls Retreat;
   We leave this worthless World afar,
   And wait and worship near thy Seat.
Lord, in the Temple of thy Grace
We see thy Feet, and we adore;
We gaze upon thy lovely Face,
And learn the Wonders of thy Pow'r.

While here our various Wants we mourn,
United Groans ascend on high,
And Prayer bears a quick Return
Of Blessings in variety.

If Satan rage, and Sin grow strong,
Here we receive some cheering Word;
We gird the Gospel-Armour on
To fight the Battles of the Lord.

Or if our Spirit faints and dies, (Stings)

Father, my Soul would still abide
Within thy Temple, near thy Side;
But if my Feet must hence depart
Still keep thy Dwelling in my Heart.

XXIV. Moses, Aaron, and Joshua.

XXIV. Moses, Aaron, and Joshua.

'TIS not the Law of Ten Commands
On holy Sinai giv'n,
Or sent to Men by Moses Hands,
Can bring us safe to Heav'n,

'Tis not the Blood which Aaron spilt,
Nor Smoke of sweetest smell

Can buy a Pardon for our Guilt,
Or save our Souls from Hell.

3 Aaron the Priest resigns his Breath
At God’s immediate Will;
And in the Desert yields to Death
Upon th’ appointed Hill.

4 And thus on Jordan’s yonder side
The Tribes of Israel stand;
While Moses bow’d his Head and dy’d
Short of the promis’d Land.

5 Israel rejoice, now * Joshua leads;
He’ll bring your Tribes to Rest;
So far the Saviour’s Name exceeds
The Ruler and the Priest.

CXXV. Faith and Repentance, Unbelief and Impenitence.

1 Life and immortal Joys are giv’n (done)
To Souls that mourn the Sins they’ve
Children of Wrath made Heirs of Heav’n
By Faith in God’s Eternal Son.

2 Woe to the Wretch that never felt
The inward Pangs of pious Grief,
But adds to all his crying Guilt
The stubborn Sin of Unbelief.

3 The Law condemns the Rebel dead;
Under the Wrath of God he lies,

* Joshua the same with Jesus, and signifies a Saviour.
CXXVI. God Glorify'd in the Gospel.

The Lord descending from Above
Invites his Children near,
While Power and Truth and boundless
Display their Glories here. (Love

Here in thy Gospels wondrous Frame
Fresh Wisdom we pursue;
A thousand Angels learn thy Name
Beyond what e're they knew.

Thy Name is writ in fairest Lines;
Thy Wonders here we trace;
Wisdom thro' all the Mystery shines;
And shines in Jesus Face.

The Law its best Obedience owes
To our Incarnate God;
And thy revenging Justice shows
Its Honours in his Blood.

But still the Lustre of thy Grace
Our warmer Thoughts imploys;
Gilds the whole Scene with brighter Rays;
And more exalts our Joys.

CXXVII. Circumcision and Baptism.

Written only for those who practise the Baptism of Infants.)

Thus did the Sons of Abraham pass
Under the bloody Seal of Grace;
The young Disciples bore the Yoke,
Till Christ the painful Bondage broke.

2 By milder Ways doth Jesus prove,
His Father’s Covenant and his Love;
He seals to Saints his glorious Grace,
And not forbids their Infant-Race.

3 Their Seed is sprinkled with his Blood,
Their Children set apart for God;
His Spirit on their Offspring shed
Like Water pour’d upon the Head.

4 Let every Saint with cheerful Voice
In this large Covenant rejoice;
Young Children in their early Days
Shall give the God of Abraham Praise.

CXXVIII. Corrupt Nature from Adam.

1 Left with the Joys of Innocence
Adam, our Father, stood,
Till he debas’d his Soul to Sense,
And eat th’ unlawful Food.

2 Now we are born a sensual Race;
To sinful Joys inclin’d;
Reason has left its Native Place,
And Flesh infrafles the Mind.

3 While Flesh and Sense and Passion reigns
Sin is the sweetest Good:
We fancy Musick in our Chains
And so forget the Load.

4 Great
Great God, renew our ruin'd Frame,
Our broken Pow'rs restore,
Inspire us with a heav'ny Flame,
And Flesh shall reign no more.

Eternal Spirit, write thy Law
Upon our inward Parts,
And let the second Adam draw
His Image on our Hearts.

CXXIX. We walk by Faith not by Sight.

'Tis by the Faith of Joys to come
We walk thro' Desarts dark as Night;
Till we arrive at Heav'n our Home
Faith is our Guide, and Faith our Light.

The want of Sight she well supplies,
She makes the Pearly Gates appear;
Far into distant Worlds she pries,
And brings Eternal Glories near.

Chearful we tread the Desart thro',
While Faith inspires a heav'ny Ray,
Tho' Lions roar, and Tempells blow,
And Rocks and Dangers fill the Way.

So Abr'ham by divine Command
Left his own House to walk with God;
His Faith beheld the promis'd Land,
And fir'd his Zeal along the Road.
CXXX. The New Creation.

1. Attend while God’s exalted Son
   Doth his own Glories shew;
   Behold, I sit upon my Throne
   Creating all Things new.

2. Nature and Sin are pass’d away,
   And the old Adam dies;
   My Hands a new Foundation lay,
   See the new World arise.

3. I’ll be a Sun of Righteousness
   To the new Heav’n’s I make;
   None but the New-born Heirs of Grace
   My Glories shall partake.

4. Mighty Redeemer, set me free
   From my old State of Sin;
   O make my Soul alive to thee,
   Create new Powers within.

5. Renew mine Eyes, and form mine Ears,
   And mould my Heart afresh;
   Give me new Passions, Joys and Fears,
   And turn the Stone to Flesh.

6. Far from the Regions of the Dead,
   From Sin, and Earth, and Hell,
   In the New World that Grace has made
   I would for ever dwell.
CXXXI. The Excellency of the Christian Religion.

1. LET everlasting Glories crown
   Thy Head, my Saviour and my Lord;
   Thy Hands have brought Salvation down,
   And writ the Blessings in thy Word.

2. What if we trace the Globe around,
   And search from Britain to Japan,
   There shall be no Religion found
   So just to God, so safe for Man.

3. In vain the trembling Conscience seeks
   Some solid Ground to rest upon;
   With long Despair the Spirit breaks,
   Till we apply to Christ alone.

4. How well thy blessed Truths agree!
   How wise and holy thy Commands!
   Thy Promises how firm they be!
   How firm our Hope and Comfort stands!

5. Not the feign’d Fields of Heathenish Bliss
   Could raise such Pleasures in the Mind;
   Nor does the Turkish Paradise
   Pretend to Joys so well refin’d.

6. Should all the Forms that Men devise
   Assault my Faith with treacherous Art,
   I’d call them Vanity and Lies,
   And bind the Gospel to my Heart.
CXXXII. The Offices of Christ.

1. We bless the Prophet of the Lord,
   That comes with Truth and Grace;
   Jesus, thy Spirit and thy Word
   Shall lead us in thy Ways.

2. We reverence our High-Priest above;
   Who offer'd up his Blood;
   And lives to carry on his Love,
   By pleading with our God.

3. We honour our exalted King,
   How sweet are his Commands!
   He guards our Souls from Hell and Sin
   By his Almighty Hands.

4. Hosanna to his Glorious Name,
   Who saves by different Ways;
   His Mercies lay a Sovereign Claim
   To our immortal Praise.

CXXXIII. The Operations of the Holy Spirit.

1. Eternal Spirit, we confess
   And sing the Wonders of thy Grace.
   Thy Power conveys our Blessings down
   From God the Father and the Son.

2. Inlightened by thine heavenly Ray,
   Our Shades and Darkness turn to Day;
   Thine inward teachings make us know
   Our Danger and our Refuge too.
Thy Power and Glory works within,
And breaks the Chains of reigning Sin;
Doth our imperious Lusts subdue,
And formas our wretched Hearts anew.

The troubled Conscience knows thy Voice;
Thy cheering Words awake our Joys;
Thy Words allay the stormy Wind,
And calm the Surges of the Mind.

CXXXIV. Circumcision abolished.

The Promise was divinely free,
Extensive was the Grace;
I will the God of Abraham be,
And of his numerous Race.

He said; and with a bloody Seal
Confirm'd the Words He spoke;
Long did the Sons of Abraham feel
The sharp and painful Yoke.

Till God's own Son descending low
Gave his own Flesh to bleed;
And Gentiles taste the Blessing now
From the hard Bondage freed.

The God of Abraham claims our Praise;
His Promises indure;
And Christ the Lord in gentler Ways
Makes the Salvation sure.
CXXXV. Types and Prophecies of Christ.

Behold the Woman's promis'd Seed,
Behold the great Messiah come;
Behold the Prophets all agreed
To give him the superiour Room.

Abraham the Saint rejoyc'd of old
When Visions of the Lord he saw;
Moses the Man of God foretold
This great Fulfiller of his Law.

The Types bore Witness to his Name,
Obtain'd their chief Design, and ceas'd
The Incense and the bleeding Lamb,
The Ark, the Altar, and the Priest.

Predictions in abundance meet
To joyn their Blessings on his Head;
Jesus, we worship at thy Feet,
And Nations own the Promis'd Seed.

CXXXVI. Miracles at the Birth of Christ.

The King of Glory sends his Son
To make his Entrance on this Earth
Behold the Midnight bright as Noon,
And Heav'nly Hosts declare his Birth.

About the young Redeemer's Head
What Wonders and what Glories meet
An unknown Star arose, and led
The Eastern Sages to his Feet.

Simeon and Anna both conspire
The Infant-Saviour to proclaim,
Inward they felt the sacred Fire,
And bless'd the Babe, and own'd his Name.

Let Jews and Greeks blaspheme aloud,
And treat the holy Child with scorn;
Our Souls adore th' Eternal God
Who condescended to be born.

CXXXVII. Miracles in the Life,
  Death and Resurrection of Christ.

Behold the Blind their Sight receive;
Behold the Dead awake and live;
The Dumb speak Wonders; and the Lame
Leap like the Hart, and bless his Name.

Thus doth th' Eternal Spirit own
And seal the Mission of the Son;
The Father vindicates his Cause
While he hangs bleeding on the Cross.

He dies; the Heavens in Mourning flood;
He rises, and appears a God;
Behold the Lord ascending high,
No more to bleed, no more to die.

Hence and for ever from my Heart
I bid my Doubts and Fears depart;
And to those Hands my Soul resign
Which bear Credentials to Divine.

CXXXVII.
CXXXVIII. The Power of the Gospel.

1 This is the Word of Truth and Love,
   Sent to the Nations from above;
Jehovah here resolves to shew
What his Almighty Grace can do.

2 This Remedy did Wisdom find,
   To heal Diseases of the Mind;
This Sovereign Balm, whose Virtues can
Restore the ruin'd Creature, Man.

3 The Gospel bids the Dead revive,
   Sinners obey the Voice, and live;
Dry Bones are rais'd and cloth'd afresh;
And Hearts of Stone are turn'd to Flesh.

[4. Where Satan reign'd in Shades of Night
   The Gospel strikes a heavenly Light;
Our Lusts its wondrous Power control;
   And calms the Rage of angry Souls.]

[5. Lions and Beasts of Savage Name
   Put on the Nature of the Lamb;
While the wild World esteems it strange,
   Gaze, and admire, and hate the Change.

6 May but this Grace my Soul renew,
   Let Sinners gaze and hate me too;
The Word that saves me does engage
   A sure Defence from all their Rage.

CXXXIX.
CXXXIX. The Example of Christ.

1 My dear Redeemer and my Lord,
I read my Duty in thy Word,
But in thy Life the Law appears
Drawn out in living Characters.

2 Such was thy Truth, and such thy Zeal,
Such Deference to thy Father's Will,
Such Love, and Meekness so Divine,
I would transcribe and make them mine.

3 Cold Mountains, and the Midnight-Air
Witness'd the Fervour of thy Prayer;
The Desert thy Temptations knew,
Thy Conflict and thy Victory too.

4 Be thou my Pattern; make me bear
More of thy gracious Image here;
Then God the Judge shall own my Name
Amongst the Followers of the Lamb.

CXL. The Examples of Christ and the Saints.

1 Give me the Wings of Faith to rise
Within the Vail, and see
The Saints above, how great their Joys
How bright their Glories be.

2 Once they were mourning here below,
And wet their Couch with Tears;
They wrestled hard, as we do now,
With Sins, and Doubts, and Fears.
3 I ask them whence their Victory came;
   They with united Breath,
   Ascribe their Conquest to the Lamb,
   Their Triumph to his Death.

4 They mark'd the Footsteps that he trod,
   (His Zeal inspir'd their Breast:)
   And following their Incarnate God
   Possess the promis'd Rest.

5 Our glorious Leader claims our Praise
   For his own Pattern giv'n,
   While the long Cloud of Witnesses
   Shew the same Path to Heav'n.

CXLII. Faith Assisted by Sense; or
Preaching, Baptism, and the Lord's Supper.

1 My Saviour God, my Sovereign Prince
   Reigns far above the Skies;
   But brings his Graces down to Sense,
   And helps my Faith to rise.

2 My Eyes and Ears shall bless his Name
   They read and hear his Word;
   My Touch and Taste shall do the same
   When they receive the Lord.

3 Baptismal Water is design'd
   To seal his cleansing Grace;
   While at his Feast of Bread and Wine
   He gives his Saints a Place.
B. II.  Spiritual Songs.

4 But not the Waters of a Flood
   Can make my Flesh so clean,
   As by his Spirit and his Blood
   He'll wash my Soul from Sin.

5 Not choicest Meats, or noblest Wines
   So much my Heart refresh,
   As when my Faith goes thro' the Signs
   And feeds upon his Flesh.

6 I love the Lord that stoops so low
   To give his Word a Seal;
   But the rich Grace his Hands bestow
   Exceeds the Figures still.

CXLII. Faith in Christ our Sacrifice.

1 NOT all the Blood of Beasts
   On Jewish Altars slain
Could give the guilty Conscience Peace,
   Or wash away the Stain.

2 But Christ the Heavenly Lamb
   Takes all our Sins away;
A Sacrifice of nobler Name,
   And richer Blood than they.

3 My Faith would lay her Hand
   On that dear Head of thine,
While like a Penitent I stand
   And there confess my Sin.

4 My Soul looks back to see
   The Burdens thou didst bear

When
When hanging on the cursed Tree,
And hopes her Guilt was there.

5 Believing we rejoice
To see the Curse remove;
We bless the Lamb with cheerful Voice,
And sing his bleeding Love.

CXLIII. Flesh and Spirit.

1 What different Pow'rs of Grace and Sin
Attend our Mortal State?
I hate the Thoughts that work within,
And do the Works I hate.

2 Now I complain, and groan, and die,
While Sin and Satan reign:
Now raise my Songs of Triumph high,
For Grace prevails again.

3 So Darkness struggles with the Light
Till perfect Day arise;
Water and Fire maintain the Fight
Until the weaker dies.

4 Thus will the Flesh and Spirit strive,
And vex and break my Peace;
But I shall quit this Mortal Life,
And Sin for ever cease.
CXLIV. The Effusion of the Spirit; or, The Success of the Gospel.

Great was the Day, the Joy was great,
When the Divine Disciples met;
Whilst on their Heads the Spirit came,
And sat like Tongues of cloven Flame.

What Gifts, what Miracles he gave?
And Power to kill, and Power to save!
Furnish'd their Tongues with wond'rous
(\textit{Words,}

Instead of Shields, and Spears, and Swords.

Thus arm'd, he sent the Champions forth
From East to West, from South to North:
\textit{Go, and assert your Saviour's Cause,}
\textit{Go, spread the Mystery of his Cross.}

These Weapons of the holy War,
Of what Almighty Force they are,
To make our stubborn Passions bow,
And lay the proudest Rebel low!

Nations, the Learned and the Rude,
Are by these heavenly Arms subdu'd;
While Satan rages at his Loss,
And hates the Doctrine of the Cross.

Great King of Grace, my Heart subdue,
I would be led in Triumph too,
A willing Captive to my Lord,
And sing the Victories of his Word.
CXLV. Sight thro' a Glass, and Face to Face.

1 I Love the Windows of thy Grace
   Thro' which my Lord is seen,
   And long to meet my Saviour's Face,
   Without a Glass between.

2 O that the happy Hour were come
   To change my Faith to Sight!
   I shall behold my Lord at Home
   In a diviner Light.

3 Hasten, my Beloved, and remove
   These interposing Days;
   Then shall my Passions all be Love,
   And all my Powers be Praise.

CXLVI. The Vanity of Creatures, or, No Rest on Earth.

1 MAN has a Soul of vast Desires
   He burns within with restless Fires,
   Tost to and fro his Passions fly
   From Vanity to Vanity.

2 In vain on Earth we hope to find
   Some solid Good to fill the Mind;
   We try new Pleasures, but we feel
   The inward Thirst and Torment still.

3 So when a raging Fever burns
   We shift from side to side by turns,
And 'tis a poor Relief we gain
To change the Place, but keep the Pain.

Great God subdue this vicious Thirst,
This Love to Vanity and Dust;
Cure the vile Fever of the Mind,
And feed our Souls with Joys refin'd.

CXLVII. The Creation of the World.
Gen. 1.

1 NOW let a spacious World arise,
   Said the Creator-Lord:
   At once th' Obedient Earth and Skies
   Rose at his Sovereign Word.

2 Dark was the Deep; the Waters lay
   Confus'd, and drown'd the Land:
   He call'd the Light; The new-born Day
   Attends on his Command.

3 He bid the Clouds ascend on high;
   The Clouds ascend, and bear
   A wat'ry Treasure to the Sky,
   And float on softer Air.

4 The liquid Element below
   Was gather'd by his Hand;
   The rolling Seas together flow,
   And leave the solid Land.

5 With Herbs and Plants (a flowry Birth):
   The naked Globe he crown'd,
   E're there was Rain to bless the Earth,
   Or Sun to warm the Ground.

6 Then
6 Then he adorn'd the upper Skies;
    Behold the Sun appears,
The Moon and Stars in Order rise,
    To mark our Months and Years.

7 Out of the Deep th' Almighty King
    Did vital Beings frame,
The painted Fowls of every Wing,
    And Fish of every Name.

8 He gave the Lion and the Worm
    At once their wond'rous Birth,
And grazing Beasts of various Form;
    Rose from the Teeming Earth.

9 Adam was fram'd of equal Clay,
    Tho' Sovereign of the rest,
Design'd for nobler Ends than they;
    With God's own Image blest.

10 Thus glorious in the Maker's Eye
    The young Creation stood;
He saw the Building from on high;
    His Word pronounc'd it good.

11 Lord, while the Frame of Nature stands
    Thy Praise shall fill my Tongue;
But the new World of Grace demands
    A more exalted Song.

CXLVIII. God reconcil'd in Christ.

1 Dearest of all the Names above,
    My Jesus and my God,
Who can resist thy heavenly Love,
    Or trifle with thy Blood?
Tis by the Merits of thy Death
The Father smiles again;
Tis by thine interceeding Breath
The Spirit dwells with Men.

Till God in human Flesh I see,
My Thoughts no comfort find;
The Holy, Just, and Sacred Three
Are Terrors to my Mind.

But if Immanuel's Face appear,
My Hope, my Joy begins;
His Name forbids my flabby Fear,
His Grace removes my Sins.

While Jews on their own Law rely,
And Greeks of Wisdom boast,
I love th' Incarnate Mystery,
And there I fix my Trust.

CXLIX. Honour to Magistrates;
or, Government from God.

Eternal Sovereign of the Sky,
And Lord of all below,
We Mortals to thy Majesty
Our first Obedience owe.

Our Souls adore thy Throne supreme,
And bless thy Providence
For Magistrates of meaner Name,
Our Glory and Defence.

The Crowns of British Princes shine

While Vertue finds Reward;
And Sinners perish from the Land

But Consciences and Souls were made
To be the Lord's alone:

CL. The Deceitfulness of Sin.

1 Sin has a thousand treacherous Arts
To practise on the Mind;
With flattering Looks she tempts us
But leaves a Sting behind. (Hearts

And gives a fair Pretence;
But cheats the Soul of heavenly things;
And chains it down to Sense.

4 So on a Tree Divinely Fair
Grew the forbidden Food;
Our Mother took the Poison there;
And tainted all her Blood.

Be lost and vanish in the Wind;
Here I can fix my Hope secure,
This is thy Word, and must endure.

CLII. Sinai and Sion. Heb. 12. 18, &c.

The Tempest, Fire, and Smoke;
Not to the Thunder of that Word
Which God on Sinai spoke;

But we are come to Sion’s Hill,
The City of our God,

Where milder Words declare his Will,

3 Behold th' innumerable Host
   Of Angels cloath'd in Light;
Behold the Spirits of the Just,
   Whose Faith is turn'd to Sight.

4 Behold the blest Assembly there,
   Whose Names are writ in Heav'n;
And God the Judge of All declares
   Their vilest Sins forgiv'n.

5 The Saints on Earth, and all the Dead
   But one Communion make;
All joyn in Christ their living Head,
   And of his Grace partake.

5 In such Society as this
   My weary Soul would rest;
The Man that dwells where Jesus is
   Must be for ever blest.

CLIII. The Distemper, Folly and
Madness of Sin.

1 Sin like a venomous Disease
   Infects our vital Blood;
The only Balm is Sovereign Grace,
   And the Physician, God.

2 Our Beauty and our Strength are fled,
   And we draw near to Death;
But Christ the Lord recalls the Dead
   With his Almighty Breath.
Spiritual Songs.

 Madness by Nature reigns within,
   The Passions burn and rage,
 Till God's own Son with Skill Divine
   The inward Fire atwage.

 We lick the Dust, we grasp the Wind,
   And solid Good despite;
 Such is the Folly of the Mind
 Till Jesus make us wise.

 We give our Souls the Wounds they feel,
   We drink the poys'rous Gall,
 And rush with Fury down to Hell;
   But Heav'n prevents the Fall.

 The Man posses'd amongst the Tombs,
 Cuts his own Flesh and cries;
 He foams, and raves, till Jesus comes,
 And the foul Spirit flies.

Hymns and B. II

Look to my Righteousness, and live;
Comfort and Peace are mine to give."

4 "Ye Sons of Pride that kindle Coals

5 "This is your Portion at my Hands;
Hell waits you with her Iron Bands,
Ye shall lie down in Sorrow there,

CLV. Christ our Passover.

1 Lo the destroying Angel flies
To Pharaoh's stubborn Land;
The Pride and Flower of Egypt dies
By his vindictive Hand.

2 He pass'd the Tents of Jacob o'er,
Nor pour'd the Wrath Divine;
He saw the Blood on ev'ry Door,
And blest the peaceful Sign.

3 Thus the appointed Lamb must bleed
To break th' Egyptian Yoke;
Thus Israel is from Bondage freed,
And 'scapes the Angel's Stroke.

4 Lord, if my Heart were sprinkled too
With Blood so rich as thine,
Justice no longer would pursue
This guilty Soul of mine.

Jesus our Passover was slain,
And has at once procur'd
Freedom from Satan's heavy Chain;
And God's avenging Sword.

CLVI. Presumption and Despair;
or, Satan's various Temptations:

1 I hate the Tempter and his Charms,
   I hate his flattering Breath;
The Serpent takes a thousand Forms
   To cheat our Souls to Death.

2 He feeds our Hopes with airy Dreams;
   Or kills with slavish Fear;
   And holds us still in wide Extremes,
   Presumption, or Despair.

3 Now he persuades, how easy 'tis
   To walk the Road to Heav'n;
   Anon he swells our Sins, and cries,
   They cannot be forgiv'n.

4 He bids young Sinners, Yet forbear
   To think of God or Death;
   For Prayer and Devotion are
   But melancholy Breath.

5 He tells the Aged, They must die,
   And 'tis too late to pray;
   In vain for Mercy now they cry
   For they have lost their Day.

N 2

6 Thus
6 Thus he supports his cruel Throne
   By Mischief and Deceit;
   And drags the Sons of Adam down
   To Darkness and the Pit.

7 Almighty God, cut short his Power;
   Let him in Darkness dwell:
   And that he vex the Earth no more,
   Confine him down to Hell.

CLVII. The Same.

1 NOW Satan comes with dreadful Roar,
   And threatens to destroy;
   He worries whom he can't devour
   With a malicious Joy.

2 Ye Sons of God, oppose his Rage,
   Resist, and he'll be gone:
   Thus did our dearest Lord engage
   And vanquish him alone.

3 Now he appears almost Divine
   Like Innocence and Love,
   But the old Serpent lurks within
   When he assumes the Dove.

4 Fly from the false Deceiver's Tongue;
   Ye Sons of Adam, fly;
   Our Parents found the Snare too strong,
   Nor should the Children try.
CLVIII. Few saved; or, The almost Christian, the Hypocrite, and Apostate.

1 But Road is the Road that leads to Death, And thousands walk together there; But Wisdom shows a narrower Path With here and there a Traveller.

2 Deny thy Self, and take thy Cross, Is the Redeemer’s great Command; Nature must count her Gold but Dross If she would gain this heav’nly Land.

3 The fearful Soul that tires and faints, And walks the Ways of God no more Is but esteem’d almost a Saint, And makes his own Destruction sure.

4 Lord, let not all my Hopes be vain, Create my Heart intirely new, Which Hypocrites could ne’re attain, Which falle Apostates never knew.

CLIX. An Unconverted State; or, Converting Grace.

[Great King of Glory and of Grace, We own with humble Shame How vile is our degenerate Race, And our first Father’s Name.]
2 From Adam flows our tainted Blood,
   The Poyson reigns within,
   Makes us averse to all that's Good,
   And willing Slaves to Sin.

3 Daily we break thy holy Laws,
   And then reject thy Grace;
   Engag'd in the old Serpent's Cause
   Against our Maker's Face.

4 We live estrang'd afar from God,
   And love the Distance well;
   With haste we run the dang'rous Road
   That leads to Death and Hell.

5 And can such Rebels be restor'd!
   Such Natures made Divine!
   Let Sinners see thy Glory, Lord,
   And feel this Pow'r of thine?

6 We raise our Father's Name on high,
   Who his own Spirit sends
   To bring Rebellious Strangers nigh,
   And turn his Foes to Friends.

CLX. Custom in Sin.

1 Let the wild Leopards of the Wood
   Put off the Spots that Nature gives,
   Then may the Wicked turn to God,
   And change their Tempers, and thei

II. Spiritual Songs.

The Dead as well may leave their Graves
As Old Transgressors cease to sin.

Where Vice has held its Empire long
'Twill not endure the least Controll;
None but a Power divinely strong
Can turn the Current of the Soul.

Great God, I own thy Power Divine,
That works to change this Heart of mine;
I would be form'd anew, and bless
The Wonders of Creating Grace.

CLXI. Christian Vertues; or, The Difficulty of Conversion.

Straight is the Way, the Door is strait,
That leads to Joys on high;
'Tis but a few that find the Gate,
While Clouds mistake, and die.

Beloved Self must be deny'd,
The Mind and Will renew'd,
Passion suppress'd, and Patience try'd,
And vain Desires subdu'd.

Flesh is a dangerous Foe to Grace,
Where it prevails and rules;
Flesh must be humbled, Pride abas'd,
Left they destroy our Souls.

The Love of Gold be banish'd hence,
(That vile Idolatry)
And every Member, every Sense
In sweet Subjection lie.]
5 The Tongue, that most unruly Pow'r,
Requires a strong Restraint;
We must be watchful every Hour,
And pray, but never faint.

6 Lord, can a feeble helpless Worm
Fulfil a Task so hard?
Thy Grace must all my Work perform;
And give the free Reward.

CLXII. Meditation of Heaven; or,
The Joy of Faith.

1 MY Thoughts surmount these lower
And look within the Veil; (Skies,
There Springs of endless Pleasure rise,
The Waters never fail.

2 There I behold with sweet Delight
The blessed Three in One;
And strong Affections fix my Sight
On God's Incarnate Son.

3 His Promise stands for ever firm,
His Grace shall ne'er depart;
He binds my Name upon his Arm,
And seals it on his Heart.

4 Light are the Pains that Nature brings,
How short our Sorrows are,
When with Eternal Future Things
The Present we compare!

5 I would not be a Stranger still
To that Celestial Place,
CLXIII. Complaint of Desertion and Temptations.

Dear Lord, behold our sore Distress;
Our Sins attempt to reign;
Stretch out thine Arm of Conquering
And let thy Foes be slain.  (Grace,

The Lion with his dreadful Roar
Afrights thy feeble Sheep:
Reveal the Glory of thy Power,
And chain him to the Deep.

Must we indulge a long Despair?
Shall our Petitions die?
Our Mournings never reach thine Ear,
Nor Tears affect thine Eye?]

If thou despise a mortal Groan
Yet hear a Saviour's Blood;
An Advocate so near the Throne
Pleads and prevails with God.

He bought the Spirit's powerful Sword
To slay our deadly Foes;
Our Sins shall die beneath thy Word,
And Hell in vain oppose.

How boundless is our Father's Grace,
In Heighth, and Depth, and Length!
He makes his Son our Righteousness,
His Spirit is our Strength.
CLXIV. The End of the World.

1 Why should this Earth delight us so? Why should we fix our Eyes On these low Grounds where Sorrows And every Pleasure dies? (grow

2 While Time his sharpest Teeth prepares Our Comforts to devour, There is a Land above the Stars, And Joys above his Power.

3 Nature shall be dissolv'd and die. The Sun must end his Race, The Earth and Sea for ever fly Before my Saviour’s Face.

4 When will that Glorious Morning rise? When the last Trumpet sound, And call the Nations to the Skies, From underneath the Ground?

CLXV. Unfruitfulness, Ignorance, and Unsanctify'd Affections.

1 Long have I sat beneath the Sound Of thy Salvation, Lord, But still how weak my Faith is found, And Knowledge of thy Word!

2 Oft I frequent thy holy Place, And hear almost in vain; How small a Portion of thy Grace My Memory can retain!

[3: My
My Dear Almighty, and my God,
How little art thou known
By all the Judgments of thy Rod,
And Blessings of thy Throne!]

How cold and feeble is my Love!
How negligent my Fear!
How low my Hope of Joys above!
How few Affections there!]

Great God, thy Sovereign Power impart
To give thy Word Success;
Write the Salvation in my Heart,
And make me learn the Grace.

Show my forgetful Feet the way
That leads to Joys on high;
There Knowledge grows without Decay;
And Love shall never die.

CLXVI. The Divine Perfections.

HOW shall I praise th' Eternal God,
That Infinite unknown?
Who can ascend his high Abode,
Or venture near his Throne?

The Great Invisible! He dwells
Conceal'd in dazling Light;
But his All-searching Eye reveals
The Secrets of the Night.

3 Thos.
3. Those watchful Eyes that never sleep
   Survey the World around;
   His Wisdom is a boundless Deep
   Where all our Thoughts are drown'd.

4. Speak we of Strength? His Arm is strong,
   To save or to destroy;
   Infinite Years his Life prolongs,
   And endless is his Joy.

5. He knows no shadow of a Change,
   Nor alters his Decrees;
   Firm as a Rock his Truth remains,
   To guard his Promises.

6. Sinners before his Presence die;
   How holy is his Name!
   His Anger and his Jealousy
   Burn like devouring Flame.

7. Justice upon a dreadful Throne
   Maintains the Rights of God;
   While Mercy sends her Pardons down,
   Bought with a Saviour's Blood.

8. Now to my Soul, Immortal King,
   Speak some forgiving Word;
   Then 'twill be double Joy to sing
   The Glories of my Lord.
Great God, thy Glories shall employ
My holy Fear, my humble Joy;
My Lips in Songs of Honour bring
Their Tribute to th' Eternal King.

[2 Earth and the Stars and Worlds unknown
Depend precarious on his Throne;
All Nature hangs upon his Word,
And Grace and Glory own their Lord.]

[3 His Sovereign Power, what Mortal knows?
If he command who dares oppose?
With Strength he girds himself around,
And treads the Rebels to the Ground.]

[4 Who shall pretend to teach him Skill?
Or guide the Counsels of his Will?
His Wisdom like a Sea Divine
Flows deep and high beyond our Line.]

[5 His Name is Holy, and his Eye
Burns with immortal Jealousy;
He hates the Sons of Pride, and sheds
His fiery Vengeance on their Heads.]

[6 The Beamings of his piercing Sight
Bring dark Hypocrisy to Light;
Death and Destruction naked lie,
And Hell uncover'd to his Eye.]

[7 Th' Eternal Law before him stands;
His Justice with impartial Hands

Divides
Divides to all their due Reward
Or by the Scepter, or the Sword.

[8 His Mercy like a boundless Sea
Washes our Loads of Guilt away,
While his own Son came down and dy'd
T'engage his Justice on our Side.]

[9 Each of his Words demands my Faith,
My Soul can rest on all He faith;
His Truth inviolably keeps
The largest Promise of his Lips.]

10 O tell me with a gentle Voice,
Thou art my God, and I'll rejoice!
Fill'd with thy Love, I dare proclaim
The brightest Honours of thy Name.

CLXVIII. The Same.

1 Jehovah reigns, his Throne is high,
   His Robes are Light and Majesty;
   His Glory shines with Beams so bright
   No Mortal can sustain the Sight.

2 His Terrors keep the World in awe,
   His Justice guards his holy Law,
   His Love reveals a smiling Face,
   His Truth and Promise seal the Grace.

3 Thro' all his Works his Wisdom shines,
   And baffles Satan's deep Designs;
   His Power is Sovereign to fulfil
   The noblest Counsels of his Will.

4 And will this glorious Lord descend
To be my Father, and my Friend!
Then let my Songs with Angels joyn;
Heav'n is secure if God be mine.

CLXIX. The Same: as the 148th Psalm.

1 THE Lord Jehovah reigns,
     His Throne is built on high;
The Garments he assumes
Are Light and Majesty;
     His Glories shine
     With Beams so bright:
No mortal Eye
Can bear the Sight.

2 The Thunders of his Hand
Keep the wide World in awe;
His Wrath and Justice stand
To guard his Holy Law:
     And where his Love
     Resolves to bless,
His Truth confirms
And seals the Grace.

3 Thro' all his ancient Works
Surprizing Wisdom shines,
Confounds the Pow'rs of Hell,
And breaks their curt Designs,
     Strong is his Arm,
     And shall fulfil
His great Decrees,
His Sovereign Will.

4 And can this mighty King
Of Glory condescend?
And will he write his Name,
My Father and my Friend?
I love his Name,
I love his Word;
Joyn all my Pow'rs,
And praise the Lord.

CLXX. God Incomprehensible and Sovereign.

1. Can Creatures to Perfection find
Th' Eternal uncreated Mind?
Or can the largest Stretch of Thought
Measure and search his Nature out?

2. 'Tis high as Heav'n, 'tis deep as Hell,
And what can Mortals know or tell?
His Glory spreads beyond the Sky,
And all the shining Worlds on high.

3. But Man, vain Man would fain be wise,
Born like a wild young Colt he flies
Thro' all the Follies of his Mind,
And swells and snuffs the empty Wind.]

4. God is a King of Power unknown,
Firm are the Orders of his Throne;
If he resolve, who dares oppose,
Or ask him why, or what he does?

5. He wounds the Heart, and he makes
He calms the Tempest of the Soul;

* Job xi. 7, &c.

When
When he shuts up in long Despair
Who can remove the heavy Bar?

6 * He frowns, and Darkness veils the Morn;
The fainting Sun grows dim at Noon;
† The Pillars of Heav'n's Starry Roof
Tremble and start at his Reproof.

7 He gave the vaulted Heav'n its Form
The crooked Serpent, and the Worm;
He breaks the Billows with his Breath,
And smites the Sons of Pride to Death.

8 These are a Portion of his Ways,
But who shall dare describe his Face?
Who can endure his Light? or stand
To hear the Thunders of his Hand?

The End of the Second BOOK.
Twas on that dark, that doleful Night,
When Powers of Earth and Hell arose
Against the Son of God's Delight,
And Friends betray'd him to his Foes;

I. The Lord's Supper Instituted,
1 Cor. 11. 23, &c.

Prepared for the Holy Ordinance of the Lord's Supper.

BOOK III.
Before the mournful Scene began
He took the Bread, and blest, and brake:
What Love thro' all his Actions ran!
What wond'rous Words of Grace he (spake!)

This is my Body broke for Sin,
Receive and eat the living Food:
Then took the Cup, and blest the Wine;
'Tis the New Cov'nant in my Blood.

For us his Flesh with Nails was torn,
He bore the Scourge, he felt the Thorn;
And Justice pour'd upon his Head
Its heavy Vengeance in our stead.

For us his vital Blood was spilt,
To buy the Pardon of our Guilt,
When for black Crimes of biggest Size
He gave his Soul a Sacrifice.

Do this (he cry'd) till Time shall end,
In Memory of your dying Friend;
Meet at my Table, and record
The Love of your departed Lord.

Jesus, thy Feast we celebrate,
We show thy Death, we sing thy Name;
Till thou return, and we shall eat
The Marriage-Supper of the Lamb.
II. Communion with Christ, and with Saints; 1 Cor. 10. 16, 17.

[1] Jesus invites his Saints
To meet around his Board;
Here pardoned Rebels sit, and hold
Communion with their Lord.

2 For Food he gives his Flesh,
He bids us drink his Blood;
Amazing Favour! matchless Grace
Of our descending God!]

3 This holy Bread and Wine
Maintains our fainting Breath,
By Union with our living Lord,
And Interest in his Death.

4 Our heavenly Father calls
Christ and his Members one;
We the young Children of his Love,
And he the first-born Son.

5 We are but several Parts
Of the same broken Bread;
One Body hath its several Limbs,
But Jesus is the Head.

6 Let all our Pow’rs be join’d
His glorious Name to raise;
Pleasure and Love fill every Mind,
And every Voice be Praise.

The Promise of my Father's Love
Shall stand for ever Good.
He said; and gave his Soul to Death,
And seal'd the Grace with Blood.

To this dear Cov'nant of thy Word
I set my worthless Name;
I seal th'Ingagement to my Lord,
And make my humble Claim.

Thy Light and Strength, and pard'n ing
And Glory shall be mine; (Grace,
My Life and Soul, my Heart and Flesh,
And all my Pow'rs are thine.

I call that Legacy my own
Which Jesus did bequeath;
'Twas purchas'd with a dying Groan,
And ratify'd in Death.

Sweet is the Memory of his Name,
Who bless'd us in his Will,
And to his Testament of Love
Made his own Life the Seal.

IV. Christ's dying Love; or, Our Pardon bought at a dear Price.

How condescending and how kind
Was God's Eternal Son?
Our Misery reach'd his heav'ny Mind,
And Pity brought him down.

[2 When Justice by our Sins provok'd
Drew forth its dreadful Sword,
He gave his Soul up to the Stroke
Without a murmuring Word.]

[3 He sunk beneath our heavy Woes
To raise us to his Throne;
There's ne'er a Gift his Hand bestows
But cost his Heart a Groan.]

4 This was Compassion like a God,
That when the Saviour knew
The Price of Pardon was his Blood,
His Pity ne'er withdrew.

5 Now tho' he reigns exalted high,
His Love is still as great:
Well he remembers Calvary,
Nor lets his Saints forget.

[6 Here we behold his Bowels roll
As kind as when he dy'd;
And see the Sorrows of his Soul;
Bleed thro' his wounded Side.]

[7 Here we receive repeated Seals
Of Jesus dying Love:
Hard is the Wretch that never feels
One soft Affection move.]

8 Here let out Hearts begin to melt,
While we his Death record,
And with our Joy for pardon'd Guilt
Mourn that we pierc'd the Lord.
V. Christ the Bread of Life; John 6. 31, 35, 39.

1 LET us adore th' eternal Word,
’Tis he our Souls hath fed;
Thou art our living Stream, O Lord;
And thou th' immortal Bread.

2 The Manna came from lower Skies,
But Jesus from above,
Where the fresh Springs of Pleasure rise;
And Rivers flow with Love.

3 The Jews the Fathers dy’d at last
Who eat that heavenly Bread;
But these Provisions which we taste
Can raise us from the Dead.

4 Blest be the Lord that gives his Flesh
To nourish dying Men;
And often spreads his Table fresh
Lest we should faint again!

5 Our Souls shall draw their heav’ly Breath
While Jesus finds Supplies;
Nor shall our Graces sink to Death,
For Jesus never dies.

6 Daily our mortal Flesh decays,
But Christ our Life shall come;
His unexulted Power shall raise
Our Bodies from the Tomb.

1 Jesus is gone above the Skies,
Where our weak Senses reach him not;
And carnal Objects court our Eyes
To thrust our Saviour from our Thought.

2 He knows what wand'ring Hearts we
Apt to forget his lovely Face;
(have)
And to refresh our Minds he gave
These kind Memorials of his Grace.

3 The Lord of Life this Table spread
With his own Flesh and dying Blood;
We on the rich Provision feed,
And taste the Wine, and bless the God.

4 Let sinful Sweets be all forgot,
And Earth grow less in our Esteem;
Christ and his Love fill every Thought,
And Faith and Hope be fix'd on him.

5 While he is absent from our Sight
'Tis to prepare our Souls a Place,
That we may dwell in heav'nly Light;
And live for ever near his Face.

6 Our Eyes look upwards to the Hills
Whence our returning Lord shall come;
We wait thy Chariots awful Wheels
To fetch our longing Spirits home.]
VII. Crucifixion to the World by the Cross of Christ; Gal. 6. 14.

When I survey the wondrous Cross
On which the Prince of Glory dy'd,
My richest Gain I count but Loss,
And pour Contempt on all my Pride.

Forbid it, Lord, that I should boast
Save in the Death of Christ my God;
All the vain things that charm me most,
I sacrifice them to his Blood.

See from his Head, his Hands, his Feet,
Sorrow and Love how mingled down;
Did e'er such Love and Sorrow meet?
Or Thorns compose so rich a Crown?

His dying Crimson like a Robe
Spreads o'er his Body on the Tree,
Then am I dead to all the Globe,
And all the Globe is dead to me.

Were the whole Realm of Nature mine,
That were a Present far too small;
Love so amazing, so divine
Demands my Soul, my Life, my All.

VIII. The Tree of Life.

Come let us join a joyful Tune
To our exalted Lord,

O Ye

1 Jesus is gone above the Skies,
Where our weak Senses reach him not;
And carnal Objects court our Eyes
To thrust our Saviour from our Thought.

VIII. The Tree of Life.

Come let us join a joyful Tune
To our exalted Lord,
Ye Saints on high around his Throne,
And we around his Board.

2 While once upon this lower Ground
   Weary and faint ye stood,
   What dear Refreshments hear ye found
   From this immortal Food ?]

3 The Tree of Life that near the Throne
   In Heavens high Garden grows
   Laden with Grace bends gently down
   Its ever-smiling Boughs.

[4. Hovering amongst the Leaves there stand
   The Sweet Celestial Dove ;
   And Jesus on the Branches hangs
   The Banner of his Love.]

[5 'Tis a young Heaven of strange Delight
   While in his Shade we sit ;
   His Fruit is pleasing to the Sight,
   And to the Taste as sweet :

6 New Life it spreads thro' dying Hearts,
   And cheers the drooping Mind ;
   Vigor and Joy the Juice imparts
   Without a Sting behind.]

7 Now let the flaming Weapon stand,
   And guard all Eden's Trees :
   There's ne'er a Plant in all that Land
   That bears such Fruits as these.

8 Infinite Grace our Souls adore,
   Whose wondrous Hand has made
   This living Branch of Sovereign Power
   To raise and heal the Dead.
[1] Let all our Tongues be one
   To praise our God on high,
Who from his Bosom sent his Son
   To fetch us Strangers nigh.

2 Nor let our Voices cease
   To sing the Saviour's Name;
Jesus th' Embassador of Peace
   How cheerfully he came!

3 It cost him Cries and Tears
   To bring us near to God;
Great was our Debt, and he appears
   To make the Payment good.]

[4] My Saviour's pierced Side,
   Pour'd out a double Flood;
By Water we are purify'd,
   And pardon'd by the Blood.

5 Infinite was our Guilt,
   But he our Priest atones;
On the cold Ground his Life was spilt,
   And offer'd with his Groans.

6 Look up my Soul to him
   Whose Death was thy Desert
And humbly view the living Stream
   Flow from his breaking Heart.

7 There on the cursed Tree
   In dying Pangs he lies,
Fulfil his Father's great Decree,
And all our Wants supplies.

8 Thus the Redeemer came
By Water and by Blood;
And when the Spirit speaks the same,
We feel his Witness good.

9 While the Eternal Three
Bear their Record above,
Here I believe he dy'd for me,
And seal my Saviour's Love.

[10 Lord, cleanse my Soul from Sin,
Nor let thy Grace depart;
Great Comforter, abide within,
And witness to my Heart.]

X. Christ Crucify'd; The Wisdom and Power of God.

1 Nature with open Volume stands
To spread her Maker's Praise abroad;
And every Labour of his Hands
Shows something worthy of a God.

2 But in the Grace that rescu'd Man
His brightest Form of Glory shines;
Here on the Cross 'tis fairest drawn
In precious Blood and crimson Lines.

[3 Here his whole Name appears compleat;
Nor Wit can guess, nor Reason prove
Which of the Letters best is writ,
The Power, the Wisdom, or the Love.]
B. III. Spiritual Songs.

4 Here I behold his inmost Heart
Where Grace and Vengeance strangely
Piercing his Son with sharpest smart,
To make the purchas'd Pleasures mine.

5 O the sweet Wonders of that Cross
Where God the Saviour lov'd and dy'd!
Her noblest Life my Spirit draws
From his dear Wounds and bleeding Side.

6 I would for ever speak his Name
In Sounds to mortal Ears unknown,
With Angels joy to praise the Lamb,
And worship at his Father's Throne.

XI. Pardon brought to our Senses.

1 Lord, how Divine thy Comforts are!
How heavenly is the Place
Where Jesus spreads the sacred Feast
Of his Redeeming Grace!

2 There the rich Bounties of our God
And sweetest Glories shine,
There Jesus says, that, I am his,
And my Beloved's mine.

3 Here (says the kind Redeeming Lord;
And shows his wounded Side)
See here the Spring of all your Joys,
That open'd when I dy'd.

4 He smiles and cheers my mournful Heart,
And tells of all his Pain,
All this, says he, I bore for thee,
And then he smiles again.

What shall we pay our heavenly King
For Grace so vast as this?
He brings our Pardon to our Eyes,
And seals it with a Kiss.

Let such amazing Loves as these
Be founded all abroad,
Such Favours are beyond Degrees,
And worthy of a God.

To him that wash'd us in his Blood
Be everlasting Praise,
Salvation, Honour, Glory, Power,
Eternal as his Days.

How rich are thy Provisions, Lord,
Thy Table furnish'd from above,
The Fruits of Life o'er-spread the Board,
The Cup o'er-flows with heavenly Love.

Thine ancient Family the Jews
Were first invited to the Feast,
We humbly take what they refuse,
And Gentiles thy Salvation taste.

We are the Poor, the Blind, the Lame,
And Help was far, and Death was nigh,
But at the Gospel Call we came,
And every Want receiv'd Supply.
From the High-way that leads to Hell,
From Paths of Darkness and Despair,
Lord, we are come with thee to dwell,
Glad to enjoy thy Presence here.]

What shall we pay th' Eternal Son
That left the Heaven of his Abode,
And to this wretched Earth came down
To bring us Wand'rsers back to God.

It cost him Death to save our Lives,
To buy our Souls it cost his own;
And all the unknown Joys he gives
Were bought with Agonies unknown:

Our everlasting Love is due
To him that ransom'd Sinners lost.
And pity'd Rebels, when he knew
The vast Expence his Love would cost.]

XIII. Divine Love making a Feast, and calling in the Guests; Luke
14. 17, 22, 23.

How sweet and awful is the Place
With Christ within the Doors,
While everlasting Love displays
The choicest of her Stores.

Here every Bowel of our God
With loft Compassion rolls,
Here Peace and Pardon bought with Blood
Is Food for dying Souls.

While all our Hearts and all our Songs
Joyn to admire the Feast,

O 4. Each
Each of us cry with thankful Tongues,
"Lord, why was I a Guest?"

4 "Why was I made to hear thy Voice,
"And enter while there's Room?"
"When thousands make a wretched choice
"And rather starve than come."

5 'Twas the same Love that spread the Feast,
That sweetly forc'd us in,
Else we had still refus'd to taste,
And perish'd in our Sin.

[6 Pity the Nations, O our God,
Constrain the Earth to come;
Send thy victorious Word abroad,
And bring the Strangers home.

7 We long to see thy Churches full,
That all the chosen Race
May with one Voice and Heart and Soul
Sing thy redeeming Grace.]

XIV. The Song of Simeon; Luke 2.

Now have our Hearts embrac'd our
We would forget all earthly Charms,
And wish to die as Simeon would
With his young Saviour in his Arms.

2 Our Lips should learn that joyful Song,
Were but our Hearts prepar'd like his,
Our Souls still willing to be gone,
And at thy Word depart in Peace.

3 Here
Here we have seen thy Face, O Lord,
And view'd Salvation with our Eyes,
Tasted and felt the living Word,
The Bread descending from the Skies.

Thou hast prepar'd this dying Lamb,
Hast set his Blood before our Face,
To teach the Terrors of thy Name,
And show the Wonders of thy Grace.

He is our Light; our Morning Star
Shall shine on Nations yet unknown:
The Glory of thine Israel here,
And Joy of Spirits near the Throne.

XV. Our Lord Jesus at his own Table.

THE Memory of our dying Lord
Awakes a thankful Tongue:
How rich he spread his Royal Board,
And blest the Food, and sung.

Happy the Man that eat this Bread,
But double-blessed was he
That gently bow'd his loving Head,
And lean'd it, Lord, on thee.

By Faith the same Delights we taste
As that great Favourite did,
And sit and lean on Jesus Breast,
And take the heavenly Bread.

Down from the Palace of the Skies
Hither the King descends,
Come, my Beloved, Eat, (he cries)
And drink Salvation, Friends,

My Flesh is Food and Physick too,
A Balm for all your Pains:
And the red Streams of Pardon flow
From these my pierced Veins.]

Hosanna to his bounteous Love
For such a Taste below!
And yet he feeds his Saints above
With nobler Blessings too.

Come the dear Day, the glorious Hour
That brings our Souls to Rest!
Then we shall need these Types no more,
But dwell at th' heavenly Featt.]

XVI. The Agonies of Christ.

NOW let our Pains be all forgot,
Our Hearts no more repine,
Our Sufferings are not worth a Thought,
When, Lord, compar'd with thine.

In lively Figures here we see,
The bleeding Prince of Love;
Each of us hope, he dy'd for me,
And then our Griefs remove.

Our humble Faith here takes her Rise
While sitting round his Board;
And back to Calvary she flies
To view her groaning Lord.

His Soul what Agonies it felt
When his own God withdrew!
And the large Load of all our Guilt
Lay heavy on him too.

5 But the Divinity within
Supported him to bear:
Dying he conquer'd Hell and Sin,
And made his Triumph there.]

6 Grace, Wisdom, Justice joyn'd and
The Wonders of that Day: (wrought
No Mortal Tongue, nor Mortal Thought
Can equal Thanks repay.

7 Our Hymns should sound like those above
Could we our Voices raise;
Yet, Lord, our Hearts shall all be Love,
And all our Lives be Praise.

XVII. Incomparable Food; or, The Flesh and Blood of Christ.

[1 We sing th' amazing Deeds
That Grace Divine performs;
Th' Eternal God comes down and bleeds
To nourish dying Worms.

2 This Soul.reviving Wine,
Dear Saviour, 'tis thy Blood;
We thank that sacred Flesh of thine
For this Immortal Food.]

3 The Banquet that we eat
Is made of Heav'nly things;
Earth hath no Dainties half so sweet
As our Redeemer brings.
Hymns and B. III.

4 In vain had Adam sought
   And search'd his Garden round,
For there was no such blessed Fruit
   In all the happy Ground.

5 Th' Angelic Host above,
   Can never taste this Food,
They feasted upon their Maker's Love,
   But not a Saviour's Blood.

6 On us th' Almighty Lord
   Bestows this matchless Grace,
And meets us with some cheering Word,
   With Pleasure in his Face.

7 Come all ye drooping Saints,
   And banquet with the King,
This Wine will drown your sad Complaints,
   And tune your Voice to sing.

8 Salvation to the Name
   Of our adored Christ:
Thro' the wide Earth his Grace proclaim,
   His Glory in the High'st.

XVIII. The Same.

1 Jesus, we bow before thy Feet,
   Thy Table is divinely set:
Thy Sacred Flesh our Souls have eat,
   'Tis living Bread; we thank thee, Lord!

2 And here we drink our Saviour's Blood,
   We thank thee, Lord; 'tis generous Wine,
Mingled with Love the Fountain flow'd
   From that dear bleeding Heart of thine.
3 On Earth is no such Sweetness found,
For the Lamb's Flesh is heav'ly Food;
In vain we search the Globe around
For Bread so fine, or Wine so good.

4 Carnal Provisions can at best
But cheer the Heart or warm the Head,
But the rich Cordial that we taste
Gives Life Eternal to the Dead.

5 Joy to the Master of the Feast,
His Name our Souls for ever bless:
To God the King and God the Priest
A loud Hosanna round the Place.

XIX. Glory in the Cross; or, not ashamed of Christ Crucify'd.

1 At thy Command, our dearest Lord,
Here we attend thy dying Feast;
Thy Blood like Wine adorns thy Board,
And thine own Flesh feeds every Guest.

2 Our Faith adores thy bleeding Love,
And trusts for Life in one that dy'd;
We hope for heavenly Crowns above
From a Redeemer Crucify'd.

3 Let the vain World pronounce it shame,
And fling their Scandals on thy Cause;
We come to boast our Saviour's Name,
And make our Triumphs in his Cross.

4 With Joy we tell the scoffing Age
He that was dead has left his Tomb.
Hymns and B. III.

He lives above their utmost Rage,
And we are waiting till he come.

XX. The Provisions for the Table of our Lord: Or, The Tree of Life and River of Love.

1 Lord, we adore thy bounteous Hand,
   And sing the solemn Feast
Where sweet Celestial Dainties stand
   For every willing Guest.

2 The Tree of Life adorns the Board
   With rich Immortal Fruit,
   And ne'er an angry flaming Sword
   To guard the Passage to't.

3 The Cup stands crown'd with living Juice;
   The Fountain flows above,
   And runs down streaming for our Use
   In Rivulets of Love.

4 The Food's prepar'd by Heav'nly Art,
   The Pleasures well refin'd,
They spread new Life thro' every Heart,
   And cheer the drooping Mind.

5 Shout and proclaim the Saviour's Love
   Ye Saints that taste his Wine,
Joyn with your kindred Saints above,
   In loud Hosannas joyn.

6 A thousand Glories to the God
   That gives such Joys as this,
Hosanna! let it sound abroad,
   And reach where Jesus is.
XXI. The Triumphal Feast for Christ's Victory over Sin, and Death, and Hell.

1 Come let us lift our Voices high,
   High as our Joys arise,
   And joyn the Songs above the Sky,
   Where Pleasure never dies.

2 Jesus the God that fought and bled,
   And conquer'd when he fell,
   That rose and at his Chariot-wheels
   Drag'd all the Powers of Hell.]

3 Jesus the God invites us here
   To his triumphal Feast,
   And brings immortal Blessings down
   For each redeemed Guest.]

4 The Lord! how glorious is his Face!
   How kind his Smiles appear!
   And O what melting Words he says
   To every humble Ear!

5 " For you the Children of my Love,
   " It was for you I dy'd,
   " Behold my Hands, behold my Feet,
   " And look into my Side.

6 " These are the Wounds for you I bore;
   " The Tokens of my Pains,
   " When I came down to free your Souls
   " From Misery and Chains.

7 " Justice unsheath'd its fiery Sword,
   " And plung'd it in my Heart :
Hymns and B. III.

"Infinite Pangs for you I bore,"
"And most tormenting Smart.

8 "When Hell and all its spiteful Powers
"Stood dreadful in my Way,
"To rescue those dear Lives of yours
"I gave my own away.

9 "But while I bled, and groan'd and dy'd,
"I ruin'd Satan's Throne,
"High on my Cross I hung, and spy'd
"The Monster tumbling down.

10 "Now you must triumph at my Feast,
"And taste my Flesh, my Blood;
"And live eternal Ages blest,
"For 'tis immortal Food.

11 Victorious God! what can we pay
   For Favours so divine?
We would devote our Hearts away
   To be for ever thine.]

12 We give thee, Lord, our highest Praise,
   The Tribute of our Tongues;
   But Themes so infinite as these
   Exceed our noblest Songs.

XXII. The Compassion of a dying Christ.

1 OUR Spirits joyn t' adore the Lamb;
   O that our feeble Lips could move
In Strains immortal as his Name,
   And melting as his dying Love.
B. III.  Spiritual Songs.

2 Was ever equal Pity found?
    The Prince of Heaven resigns his Breath,
    And pours his Life out on the Ground
    To ransom guilty Worms from Death.

3 Rebels, we broke our Maker's Laws;
    He from the Threatning let us free,
    Bore the full Vengeance on his Cross,
    And nail'd the Curses to the Tree.

4 The Law proclaims no Terror now,
    And Sinai's Thunder roars no more;
    From all his Wounds new Blessings flow,
    A Sea of Joy without a Shore.

5 Here we have wash'd our deepest Stains;
    And heal'd our Wounds with heavenly
    Blood:
    Blest Fountain! springing from the Veins
    Of Jesus our Incarnate God.

6 In vain our mortal Voices strive
    To speak Compassion so Divine;
    Had we a thousand Lives to give,
    A thousand Lives should all be thine.

XXIII. Grace and Glory by the Death of Christ.

1 Sitting around our Fathers Board
    We raise our tuneful Breath;
    Our Faith beholds her dying Lord,
    And dooms our Sins to Death.

2 We
2 We see the Blood of Jesus shed,
    Whence all our Pardons rise;
The Sinner views th' Atonement made,
    And loves the Sacrifice.

3 Thy cruel Thorns, thy shameful Cross
    Procure us heav'nly Crowns;
Our highest Gain springs from thy Loss,
    Our healing from thy Wounds.

4 'Tis impossible that we
    Who dwell in feeble Clay,
Should equal Sufferings bear for thee,
    Or equal Thanks repay.

XXIV. Pardon and Strength from Christ.

1 Father, we wait to feel thy Grace,
    To see thy Glories shine;
The Lord will his own Table blest,
    And make the Feast Divine.

2 We touch, we taste the heav'nly Bread,
    We drink the sacred Cup;
With outward Forms our Sense is fed,
    Our Souls rejoice in Hope.

3 We shall appear before the Throne
    Of our forgiving God,
Drest in the Garments of his Son,
    And sprinkled with his Blood.

4 We shall be strong to run the Race,
    And climb the upper Sky;
B. III.  Spiritual Songs.

Christ will provide our Souls with Grace,
He bought a large Supply.

Let us indulge a cheerful Frame,
For Joy becomes a Feast;
We love the Memory of his Name
More than the Wine we taste.

XXV. Divine Glories and our Graces.

1 How are thy Glories here display'd,
   Great God, how bright they shine;
While at thy Word we break the Bread,
   And pour the flowing Wine!

2 Here thy revenging Justice stands
   And pleads its dreadful Cause;
Here saving Mercy spreads her Hands
   Like Jesus on the Cross.

3 Thy Saints attend with every Grace
   On this great Sacrifice;
And Love appears with cheerful Face,
   And Faith with fixed Eyes.

4 Our Hope in waiting Posture sits,
   To Heav'n directs her Sight;
Here every warmer Passion meets,
   And warmer Pow'rs unite.

5 Zeal and Revenge perform their Part;
   And rising Sin destroy;
Repentance comes with aking Heart,
   Yet not forbids the Joy.
Dear Saviour, change our Faith to Sight,
Let Sin for ever die;
Then shall our Souls be all Delight,
And every Tear be dry.

I cannot persuade my self to put a full Period to these Divine Hymns, till I have addressed a special Song of Glory to God the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. Tho' the Latin Name of it, Gloria Patri, be retain'd in our Nation from the Roman Church; and there may be some Exceptions of Superstitions Honour paid to the Words of it, which may have wrought some unhappy Prejudices in Weak Christians, yet I believe it still to be one of the noblest Parts of Christian Worship. The Subject of it is the Doctrines of the Trinity, which is that peculiar Glory of the Divine Nature that our Lord Jesus Christ has so clearly revealed unto Men, and is so necessary to true Christianity. The Action is Praise, which is the most compleat and exalted Part of heavenly Worship. I have cast the Song into a Variety of Forms, and have fitted it by a plain Version or a larger Paraphrase, to be sung either alone or at the Conclusion of another Hymn. I have added also a few Hosannas, or Ascriptions of Salvation to Christ, in the same manner, and for the same end.
A Song of Praise to the ever blessed Trinity, God the Father, Son and Spirit.

XXVI. 1st. Long Metre.

Blest be the Father and his Love,
To whose Celestial Source we owe
Rivers of endless Joy above,
And Rills of Comfort here below.

Glory to Thee, great Son of God,
From whose dear wounded Body rolls
A precious Stream of vital Blood,
Pardon and Life for dying Souls.

We give the sacred Spirit Praise,
Who in our Hearts of Sin and Woe
Makes living Springs of Grace arise,
And into boundless Glory flow.

Thus God the Father, God the Son,
And God the Spirit we adore,
That Sea of Life and Love unknown
Without a Bottom or a Shore.

XXVII. 1st. Common Metre.

Glory to God the Father's Name,
Who from our sinful Race
Chose out his Fav'rites to proclaim
The Honours of his Grace.
Hymns and

2 Glory to God the Son be paid,
   Who dwelt in humble Clay,
   And to redeem us from the Dead
   Gave his own Life away.

3 Glory to God the Spirit give,
   From whose Almighty Power
   Our Souls their heavenly Birth derive,
   And bless the happy Hour.

4 Glory to God that reigns above
   Th' Eternal Three and One,
   Who by the Wonders of his Love
   Has made his Nature known.

XXVIII. 1st. Short Metre.

1 Let God the Father live
   For ever on our Tongues;
   Sinners from his first Love derive
   The Ground of all their Songs.

2 Ye Saints, imploy your Breath
   In Honour to the Son,
   Who bought your Souls from Hell and Death
   By offering up his own.

3 Give to the Spirit Praise
   Of an Immortal Strain,
   Whose Light and Power and Grace conveys
   Salvation down to Men.

4 While God the Comforter
   Reveals our pardon'd Sin,
   O may the Blood and Water bear
   The same Record within.

Eternal Son,
To die for Sins

XXXVIII. A Song of Praise to the Blessed Trinity. The 1st as the 148th Psalm.
I Give immortal Praise
To God the Father's Love
For all my Comforts here,
And better Hopes Above;
He sent his own
Eternal Son,
To die for Sins
That Man had done.
2 To God the Son belongs
   Immortal Glory too,
   Who bought us with his Blood
   From everlasting Woe:
   And now he lives
   And now he reigns,
   And sees the Fruit
   Of all his Pains.

3 To God the Spirit's Name
   Immortal Worship give,
   Whose new-creating Power
   Makes the dead Sinner live:
   His Work compleats
   The great Design,
   And fills the Soul
   With Joy Divine.

4 Almighty God, to Thee
   Be endless Honours done;
   The undivided Three,
   And the Mysterious One:
   Where Reason fails
   With all her Pow'rs,
   There Faith prevails,
   And Love adores.

XXXIX. The 2d as the 148th Psalm

1 To him that chose us first
   Before the World began,
   To him that bore the Curfe
   To save Rebellious Man,
B. III. Spiritual Songs.

To him that form'd
Our Hearts anew,
Is endless Praise
And Glory due.

2 The Father's Love shall run
Thro' our Immortal Songs,
We bring to God the Son
Hosannas on our Tongues:
Our Lips address
The Spirit's Name
With equal Praise,
And Zeal the same.

3 Let every Saint above,
And Angel round the Throne;
For ever bless and love
The sacred Three in One:
Thus Heav'n shall raise
His Honours high
When Earth and Time
Grow old and die.

XL. The 3d as the 148th Psalm.

To God the Father's Throne
Perpetual Honours raise;
Glory to God the Son,
To God the Spirit Praise:

Our Faith adores
The Name we sing.

To our eternal God,
The Father and the Son,
And Spirit all Divine,
Three Mysteries in One,
Salvation, Pow'r,
And Praise be given

And all in Heaven.

1 Hosanna to King David's Son
Who reigns on a superior Throne;

In this delightful Work engage;
Old Men and Babes in Sion sing
The growing Glories of her King.

XLIII. Common Metre.

1 Hosanna to the Prince of Grace;
Sion, behold thy King;
Proclaim the Son of David's Race,
And teach the Babes to sing.

2 Hosanna to th' Incarnate Word
Who from the Father came;
Ascribe Salvation to the Lord
With Blessings on his Name.
XLIV. Short Metre.

1 Hosanna to the Son
    Of David and of God,
Who brought the News of Pardon down,
    And bought it with his Blood.

2 To Christ th’ anointed King
    Be endless Blessings giv’n,
Let the whole Earth his Glory sing
    Who made our Peace with Heav’n.

XLV. As the 148th Psalm.

1 Hosanna to the King
    Of David’s ancient Blood;
Behold he comes to bring
Forgiving Grace from God:
    Let Old and Young
Attend his Way,
    And at his Feet
Their Honours lay.

2 Glory to God on high,
Salvation to the Lamb;
    Let Earth, and Sea, and Sky,
His wondrous Love proclaim:
    Upon his Head
Shall Honours rest;
    And every Age
Pronounce him blest.
