TO THE READERS

On the following HEADS.

Of the different EDITIONS of this BOOK.

THE large Edition is prefaced with a Discourse on the right Way of fitting the Psalms of David for Christian Worship; wherein a plain Account is given of the Author's general Conduct in this Imitation of the Psalms, together with some evident and convincing Arguments to support it. There are also particular Notes added at the End of a great Number of the Psalms, which explain their Evangelical Sense, and show the Reason why they are either paraphrased or abridged in such a Manner late.
At the Request of many Friends, the Author has permitted this Edition in a smaller Form, to render it more portable and convenient for publick Worship; he therefore desires, and may reasonably demand this Piece of Justice of all his Readers, that they will not censure and condemn any Part of this Work, without a diligent Perusal of the larger Edition, wherein the Preface and Notes, in the Judgment of many learned and pious Men, have given a sufficient Vindication of the whole Performance.

Of the Use of this Psalm-Book.

The chief Design of this Work was to improve Psalmody or Religious Singing, and to encourage the frequent Practice of it in publick Assemblies and private Families with more Honour and Delight; yet the Author hopes the reading of it may also entertain the Parlour and the Closet with devout Piafure and holy Meditations. Therefore he would request his Readers, at proper Seasons, to peruse it thro', and among 340 sacred Hymns they may find out several that suit their own Case and Temper, or the Circumstances of their Families and Friends; they may teach their Children such as are proper for their Age, and by treasuring them in their Memory, they may be furnish'd
To the Readers.

Miss’d for pious Retirement, or may entertain their Friends with holy Melody.

Of chusing or finding the Psalm.

The Perusal of the whole Book will acquaint every Reader with the Author’s Method, and by consulting the Index or Table of Contents at the End, he may find Hymns very proper for many Occasions of the Christian Life and Worship; though no Copy of David’s Psalter can provide for all, as I have shown in the Preface.

Or if he remembers the first Line of any Psalm, the Table of the first Lines will direct where to find it.

Or if any shall think it best to sing all the Psalms in Order in Churches or Families, it may be done with Profit; provided these Psalms be omitted that refer to special Occurrences of Nations, Churches, or single Christians.

Of naming the Psalms.

Let the Number of the Psalm be named distinctly, together with the particular Metre, and particular Part of it: As for Instance; Let us sing the 33rd Psalm, 2nd Part, Common Metre; or, Let us sing the 91st Psalm, 1st Part, beginning at the Pause; A 3 or,

or, ending at the Pause; or, Let us sing the 84th Psalm as the 148th Psalm, &c. And then read over the first Stanza before you begin to sing, that the People may find it in their Books, whether you sing with or without reading Line by Line.

Of dividing the Psalm.

If the Psalm be too long for the Time or Custom of Singing, there are Pauses in many of them, at which you may properly rest: Or you may leave out those Verses which are included in Crochets [ ] without disturbing the Sense: Or, in some Places, you may begin to sing at a Pause.

Do not always confine yourselves to six Stanza's, but sing seven or eight, rather than confound the Sense, and abuse the Psalm in solemn Worship.

Of the Manner of Singing.

It were to be wished that all Congregations and private Families would sing as they do in foreign Protestant Countries, without reading Line by Line. Though the Author has done what he could to make the Sense complete in every Line or two, yet many Inconveniences will will always attend this unhappy Manner of Singing: But where it cannot be alter'd, these two Things may give some Relief.

First, Let as many as can do it, bring Psalm-Books with them, and look on the Words while they sing, so far as to make the Sense compleat.

Secondly, Let the Clerk read the whole Psalm over aloud before he begins to parcel out the Lines, that the People may have some Notion of what they sing; and not be forc'd to drag on heavily through eight tedious Syllables without any Meaning; till the next Lines come to give the Sense of them.

It were to be wish'd also that we might not dwell so long upon every single Note, and produce the Syllables to such a tiresome Extent with a constant Uniformity of Time, which disgraces the Musick, and puts the Congregation quite out of Breath in singing five or six Stanza's: Whereas if the Method of Singing were but reform'd to a greater Speed of Pronunciation, we might often enjoy the Pleasure of a longer Psalm with less Expanse of Time and Breath; and our Psalmody would be more agreeable to that of the ancient Churches, more intelligible to others, and more delightful to ourselves.
The various Measures of the Verse are fitted to the Tunes of the Old Psalm-Book.

To the Common Tunes sing all entitled Common Metre.

To the Tunes of the 100th Psalm sing all entitled Long Metre.

To the Tune of the 25th Psalm sing Short Metre.

To the 50th Psalm sing one Metre of the 50th and 93rd.

To the 112th or 127th Psalm sing one Metre of the 104th and 148th.

To the 113th Psalm sing one Metre of the 19th, 33rd, 58th, 89th, last Part, 96th, 112th, 113th.

To the 122d Psalm sing one of the Metres of the 93rd, 122d, and 133d.

To the 148th Psalm sing one Metre of the 84th, 121st, 136th, and 148th.

Psalm I. Common Metre.
The Way and End of the Righteous and the Wicked.
BLEST is the Man who shuns the Place
Where Sinners love to meet;
Who fears to tread their wicked Ways,
And hates the Scoffer's Seat.
But in the Statutes of the Lord,
Has plac'd his chief Delight;
By Day he reads or hears the Word,
And meditates by Night.
Psalm I.

3 [He like a Plant of generous Kind
   By living Waters fed,
   Safe from the Storms and blasting Wind,
   Enjoys a peaceful State.]

4 Green as the Leaf, and ever fair
   Shall his Profession shine;
   While Fruits of Holiness appear
   Like Clusters on the Vine.

5 Not so the Impious and Unjust;
   What vain Designs they form!
   Their Hopes are blown away like Duff,
   Or Chaff before the Storm.

6 Sinners in Judgment shall not stand
   Amongst the Sons of Grace,
   When Christ the Judge at his Right-hand
   Appoints his Saints a Place.

7 His Eye beholds the Path they tread,
   His Heart approves it well;
   But crooked Ways of Sinners lead;
   Down to the Gates of Hell.

Psalm I. Short Metre.

The Saint Happy, the Sinner Miserable.

1 The Man is ever blest
   Who turns the Sinner's Ways,
   Among their Counsels never strands,
   Nor takes the Scorner's Place.

2 But makes the Law of God
   His Study and Delight,
   Amidst the Labours of the Day,
   And Watches of the Night.

3 He like a Tree shall thrive,
   With Waters near the Root;
Psalm I.

Flesh as the Leaf his Name shall live,
His Works are heav'nly Fruit.

4 Not so th' ungodly Race,
They no such Blessings find:
Their Hopes shall flee like empty Chaff
Before the driving Wind.

5 How will they bear to stand
Before that Judgment-Seat,
Where all the Saints at Christ's Right-hand
In full Assembly meet?

6 He knows, and he approves
The Way the Righteous go;
But Sinners and their Works shall meet
A dreadful Overthrow.

Psalm I. Long Metre.

The Difference between the Righteous and the Wicked

1 Happy the Man, whose cautious Feet
Shun the broad Way that Sinners go,
Who hates the Place where Atheists meet,
And fears to talk as Scoffers do.

2 He loves to employ his Morning-Light
Amongst the Statutes of the Lord;
And spends the wholeful Hours of Night
With Pleasure pondering o'er the Word.

3 He, like a Plant by gentle Streams,
Shall flourish in immortal Green;
And Heaven will shine with kindled Beams
On every Work his Hands begin.

4 But Sinners find their Counsels crook'd;
As Chaff before the Tempest flies;
So shall their Hopes be blown and lost,
When the last Trumpet shakes the Skies.
Psalm II.

5 In vain the Rebel seeks to stand
   In Judgment with the pious Race;
The dreadful Judge with stern Command
   Divides him to a different Place.

6 "Strait is the Way my Saints have trod,
   I blest the Path, and drew it plain;
   But you would chuse the crooked Road;
   And down it leads to endless Pain.

Psalm II. Short Metre.

Translated according to the Divine Pattern, Acts iv. 24, &c.

Christ Dying, Rising, Interceding, and Reigning.

1 Maker and sovereign Lord
   Of Heaven, and Earth, and Seas,
   Thy Providence confirms thy Word,
   And answers thy Decrees.

2 The Things so long foretold
   By David are fulfill'd,
   When Jesus and Gentiles join to say
   Jesus, thine Holy Child.]

3 Why did the Gentiles rage,
   And Jesus with one Accord
   Bend all their Counsels to destroy
   Th' Anointed of the Lord?

4 Rulers and Kings agree
   To form a vain Design;
   Against the Lord, their Powers unite,
   Against his Christ they join.

5 The Lord derides their Rage,
   And will support his Throne;
   He that hath rais'd him from the Dead
   Hath ow'd Him for his Son.
Psalm II.

Pause.

6 Now he's ascended high,
   And asks to rule the Earth;
The Merit of his Blood he pleads,
   And pleads his heavenly Birth.

7 He asks, and God bestows
   A large Inheritance:
Far as the World's remotest Ends
   His Kingdom shall advance.

8 The Nations that rebel
   Must feel his Iron Rod;
He'll vindicate those Honours well
   Which he receiv'd from God.

9 [Be wise, ye Rulers, now,
   And worship at his Throne;
With trembling Joy, ye People, bow
   To God's exalted Son.

10 If once his Wrath arise,
   Ye perish on the Place;
Then blessed is the Soul that flies
   For Refuge to his Grace.]

Psalm II. Common Metre.

1 Why did the Nations join to slay
   The Lord's Anointed Son?
Why did they cast his Laws away,
   And tread his Gospel down?

2 The Lord that sits above the Skies,
   Derides their Rage below,
He speaks with Vengeance in his Eyes,
   And strikes their Spirits through.

3 "I call him my Eternal Son,
   "And raise him from the Dead;
Psalm II.

"I make my holy Hill his Throne,
"And wide his Kingdom spread.

4 "Ask me, my Son, and then enjoy
"The utmost Heathen Lands:
"Thy Rod of Iron shall destroy
"The Rebel that withstands.

5 Be wise, ye Rulers of the Earth,
   Obey the Anointed Lord,
   Adore the King of heavenly Birth,
   And tremble at his Word.

6 With humble Love address his Throne;
   For if he frown, ye die:
'Those are secure, and those alone
   Who on his Grace rely.

Psalm II. Long Metre.

Christ's Death, Resurrection, and Ascension.

1 Why did the Jews proclaim their Rage:
The Romans, why their Swords employ;
Against the Lord their Powers engage
His dear Anointed to destroy?

2 "Come, let us break his Bands, they say,
"This Man shall never give us Laws;
And thus they cast his Yoke away,
And nail'd the Monarch to the Cross.

3 But God, who high in Glory reigns,
   Laughs at their Pride, their Rage controls;
He'll vex their Hearts with inward Pains,
And break in Thunder to their Souls.

4 "I will maintain the King I made
"On Zion's everlasting Hill,
"My Hand shall bring him from the Dead,
"And he shall stand your Sovereign Hill.

5 [III:}
Psalm III

5 [His wondrous Rising from the Earth
Mikes his eternal Godhead known;
The Lord declares his heavenly Birth:
"This Day have I begot my Son.

6 "Ascend, my Son, to my Right-hand,
"There thou shalt ask, and I bestow
"The utmost Bounds of Heathen Lands;
"To thee the Northern Isles shall bow.

7 But Nations that resist his Grace
Shall fall beneath his Iron Stroke;
His Rod shall crush his Foes with Ease,
As Potters Earthen Work is broke.

Pause.

8 Now ye that sit on earthly Thrones,
Be wise, and serve the Lord, the Lamb:
Now to his Feet submit your Crowns,
Rejoice and tremble at his Name.

9 With humble Love address the Son,
Left he grow angry, and ye die;
His Wrath will burn to Worlds unknown,
If ye provoke his Jealousy.

10 His Storms shall drive you quick to Hell,
He is a God, and ye but Dolt:
Happy the Souls that know him well,
And make his Grace their only Trust.

Psalm III. Common Metre.

Doubts and Fears suppress; or, GOD our Defence from Sin and Satan.

1 MY God, how many are my Fears!
How fast my Fears increase!
Conspiring my eternal Death,
They bere.\[\text{Is my present Peace.}\]
The lying Tempter would persuade
There's no Relief in Heaven,
And all my swelling Sins appear
Too big to be forgiven.

But thou, my Glory and my Strength,
Shalt on the Tempter tread,
Shalt silence all my threatening Guilt,
And raise my drooping Head.

[I cry'd, and from his holy Hill
He bow'd a list'ning Ear;
I call my Father, and my God,
And he subdu'd my Fear.

He shed soft Slumbers on mine Eyes
In spite of all my Foes;
I 'woke, and wonder'd at the Grace
That guarded my Repose.]

What tho' the Hofts of Death and Hell
All arm'd against me stood,
Terrors no more shall shake my Soul;
My Refuge is my God.

Arise, O Lord, fulfil thy Grace,
While I thy Glory sing:
My God has broke the Serpent's Teeth,
And Death has lost his Sting.

Salvation to the Lord belongs,
His Arm alone can save:
Blessings attend thy People here,
And reach beyond the Grave.

Psalm III. 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 8. Long Metre.
A Morning Psalm.

Lord, how many are my Foes
In this weak State of Flesh and Blood!

My
Psalm IV. My Peace they daily discompose,
But my Defence and Hope is God,

2 'Tir'd with the Burdens of the Day
'To Thee I rais'd an Evening Cry:
Thou heard'st when I began to pray,
And thine Almighty Help was nigh.

Supported by thine heavenly Aid
I laid me down and slept secure:
Not Death should make my Heart afraid,
Though I should wake and rise no more.

4 But God sustain'd me all the Night:
Salvation doth to God belong:
He rais'd my Head to see the Light,
And makes his Praise my Morning Song.

Psalm IV. 1, 2, 3, 5, 6, 7. Long Metre.

Hearing of Prayer; or, GOD our Portion, and Christ our Hope.

1 O God of Grace and Righteousness,
Hear and attend when I complain;
Thou hast enlarg'd me in Distress,
Bow down a gracious Ear again.

2 Ye Sons of Men, in vain ye try
To turn my Glory into Shame;
How long will Scoffers love to lie,
And dare reproach my Saviour's Name?

3 Know that the Lord divides his Saints
From all the Tribes of Men beside;
He hears the Cry of Penitents
For the dear Sake of Christ that dy'd.

4 When our obedient Hands have done
A thousand Works of Righteousness,
We put our Trust in God alone,
And glory in his pard'ning Grace.

5 Let the unthinking Many say,
"Who will bestow some earthly Good?"
But, Lord, thy Light and Love we pray;
Our Souls desire this heavenly Food.

6 Then shall my cheerful Pow'rs rejoice
At Grace and Favours so divine,
Nor will I change my happy Choice
For all their Corn, and all their Wine.

Psalm IV. 3, 4, 5, 8. Common Metre.

An Evening Psalm.

1 Lord, thou wilt hear me when I pray;
I am for ever thine;
I fear before thee all the Day,
Nor would I dare to sin.

2 And while I rest my weary Head
From Cares and Business free,
'Tis sweet conversing on my Bed
With my own Heart and Thee.

3 I pay this Evening Sacrifice;
And when my Work is done,
Great God, my Faith and Hope relies
Upon thy Grace alone.

4 Thus with my Thoughts compos'd to Peace,
I'll give mine Eyes to keep;
Thy Hand in Safety keeps my Days,
And will my Slumbers keep.

Psalm V.

For the Lord's-Day Morning.

1 Lord, in the Morning thou shalt hear
My Voice ascending high;
Psalm V.

To Thee will I direct my Pray'r,
To Thee lift up mine Eye.

2 Up to the Hills where Christ is gone
To plead for all his Saints,
Presenting at his Father's Throne
Our Songs and our Complaints.

3 Thou art a God, before whose Sight
The Wicked shall not stand,
Sinners shall never be thy Delight,
Nor dwell at thy Right-hand.

4 But to thy House will I resort,
To taste thy Mercies there;
I will frequent thine holy Court,
And worship in thy Fear.

5 O may thy Spirit guide my Feet
In Ways of Righteousness!
Make every Path of Duty right,
And plain before my Face.

Pause.

6 My watchful Enemies combine
To tempt my Feet astray;
They flatter with a base Design,
To make my Soul their Prey.

7 Lord, crush the Serpent in the Dial,
And all his Plots destroy;
While those that in thy Mercy trust;
For ever shout for Joy.

8 The Men that love and fear thy Name
Shall see their Hopes fulfilled;
The mighty God will compass them
With Favour as a Shield.
Psalm VI.

Psalm VI. Common Metre.

Complaint in Sickness; or, Diseases healed.

1 IN Anger, Lord, rebuke me not,
   Withdraw the dreadful Storm;
   Nor let thy Fury grow so hot
   Against a feeble Worm.

2 My Soul's bows'd down with heavy Cares,
   My Flesh with Pain oppress'd;
   My Couch is Witness to my Tears,
   My Tears forbid my Rest.

3 Sorrow and Pain wear out my Days;
   I waste the Night with Cries,
   Counting the Minutes as they pass,
   'Till the slow Morning rise.

4 Shall I be still tormented more?
   Mine Eye consum'd with Grief?
   How long, my God, how long before
   Thine Hand afford Relief?

5 He hears when Dust and Ashes speak,
   He pities all our Groans,
   He saves us for his Mercies sake,
   And heals our broken Bones.

6 The Virtue of his sovereign Word
   Restores our fainting Breath:
   For silent Graves praise not the Lord,
   Nor is he known in Death.

Psalm VI. Long Metre.

Temptations in Sickness overcome.

1 LORD, I can suffer thy Rebukes,
   When thou with Kindness dost chastise;
   But thy fierce Wrath I cannot bear,
   O let it not against me rise!

2 Pity
Psalm VII.

2 Pity my languishing Estate,
   And ease the Sorrows that I feel;
The Wounds time heavy Hand hath made,
   O let thy gentler Touches heal!

3 See how I pass my weary Days
   In Sighs and Groans; and when 'tis Night,
   My Bed is water'd with my Tears;
   My Grief consumes, and dims my Sight.

4 Look how the Pow'rs of Nature mourn!
   How long Almighty God, how long?
   When shall thine Hour of Grace return?
   When shall I make thy Grace my Song?

5 I feel my Flesh so near the Grave,
   My Thoughts are tempted to Despair;
   But Graves can never praise the Lord,
   For all is Dust and Silence there.

6 Depart, ye Tempters, from my Soul;
   And all despairing Thoughts depart;
   My God who hears my humble Moan,
   Will ease my Flesh, and cheer my Heart.

Psalm VII.

GOD's Care of his People, and Punishment of Persecutors.

My Trust is in my heavenly Friend,
   My Hope in Thee, my God;
Rife, and my helpless Life defend
   From those that seek my Blood.

With Insolence and Fury they
   My Soul in pieces tear,
   And hungry Lions rend the Prey
   When no Deliverer's near.
Psalm VII.

3 If I had e'er provok'd them first,
Or once abus'd my Foe,
Then let him tread my Life to Dust,
And lay mine Honour low.

4 If there be Malice found in me,
I know thy piercing Eyes;
I should not dare appeal to Thee,
Nor ask my God to rise.

5 Arise, my God, lift up thy Hand,
Their Pride and Pow'r controul;
Awake to Judgment, and command
Deliv'rance for my Soul.

Pause.

6 Let Sinners and their wicked Rage
Be humbled to the Dust;
Shall not the God of Truth engage
To vindicate the Just!

7 He knows the Heart, he tries the Reins,
He will defend th' Upright;
His sharpest Arrows he ordains
Against the Sons of Spight.

8 For me their Malice digg'd a Pit,
But there themselves are call;
My God makes all their Mischief light
On their own Heads at last.]

9 That cruel persecuting Race
Must feel his dreadful Sword;
Awake, my Soul, and praise the Grace,
And Justice of the Lord.
PSALM VIII. Short Metre.

GOD's Sovereignty and Goodness; and Man's Dominion over the Creatures.

1 O Lord, our heavenly King,
   Thy Name is all Divine;
Thy Glories round the Earth are spread,
   And o'er the Heav'ns they shine.

2 When to thy Works on high
   I raise my wond'ring Eyes,
And see the Moon complete in Light
   Adorn the darksome Skies:

3 When I survey the Stars
   And all their shining Forms,
Lord, what is Man, that worthless Thing
   A-kin to Dust and Worms?

4 Lord, what is worthless Man,
   That thou should'lt love him so?
Next to thine Angels is he plac'd,
   And Lord of all below.

5 Thine Honours crown his Head,
   While Beasts, like Slaves obey,
And Birds that cut the Air with Wings,
   And fish that cleave the Sea.

6 How rich thy Bounties are!
   And wond'rous are thy Ways:
Of Dust and Worms thy Pow'r can frame
   A Monument of Praise.

7 [Out of the Mouths of Babes
   And Sucklings thou canst draw
Surprising Honours to thy Name,
   And strike the World with Awe.
Psalm VIII.

8 O Lord, our heav'nly King,
Thy Name is all Divine:
Thy Glories round the Earth are spread,
And o'er the Heav'ns they shine.

Psalm VIII. Common Metre.

Christ's Condescension and Glorification; or, GOD made Man.

1 O Lord, our Lord, how wondrous great
Is thine exalted Name!
The Glories of thy heav'nly State
Let Men and Babes proclaim.

2 When I behold thy Works on high,
The Moon that rules the Night,
And Stars that well adorn the Sky,
Those moving Worlds of Light;

3 Lord, what is Man, or all his Race,
Who dwells so far below,
That thou should'st visit him with Grace,
And love his Nature so?

4 That thine eternal Son should bear
To take a mortal Form,
Made lower than his Angels are,
To save a dying Worm.

5 [Yet while he liv'd on Earth unknown,
And Men would not adore,
Th' obedient Seas and Fishes own
His Godhead and his Pow'r.

6 The Waves lay spread beneath his Feet;
And Fish at his Command
Bring their large Shoals to Peter's Net,
Bring Tribute to his Hand.
Psalm VIII.

7 These lesser Glories of the Son
   Shone thro' the fleshly Cloud;
   Now we behold him on his Throne,
   And Men confess him God.

8 Let him be crown'd with Majesty
   Who bow'd his Head to Death;
   And be his Honours founded high,
   By all Things that have Breath.

9 Jesus, our Lord, how wondrous great
   Is thine exalted Name!
   The Glories of thy heavenly State
   Let the whole Earth proclaim.

Psalm VIII. Ver. 1, 2. Paraphras'd.
First Part. Long Metre.
The Hosanna of the Children; or, Infants praising God.

1 Almighty Ruler of the Skies,
   Thro' the wide Earth thy Name is spread,
   And thine eternal Glories rise
   O'er all the Heav'n's thy Hands have made.

2 To thee the Voices of the Young
   A Monument of Honour raise;
   And Babes with un instructed Tongue
   Declare the Wonders of thy Praise.

3 Thy Pow'r afflicts their tender Age
   To bring proud Rebels to the Ground,
   To still the bold Blasphemer's Rage,
   And all their Policies confound.

4 Children amidst thy Temple throng
   To see their great Redeemer's Face;
   The Son of David is their Song,
   And young Hosanna's fill the Place.
Psalm VIII.

The frowning Scribes and angry Priests
In vain their impious Cavils bring;
Revenge fits silent in their Breasts,
While Jewish Babes proclaim their King.

Psalm VIII. Ver. 3, &c. Paraphras’d.
Second Part. Long Metre.

Adam and Christ, Lords of the Old and New Creation.

LORD, what was Man, when made at first,
Adam the Offspring of the dust,
That thou should’st set him and his Race
But just below an Angel’s Place?

That thou should’st raise his Nature so,
And make him Lord of all below,
Make every Beast and Bird submit,
And lay the Fishes at his Feet?

But O what brighter Glories wait
To crown the second Adam’s State?
What Honours shall thy Son adorn
Who condescended to be born?

See him below his Angels made;
See him in Dust amongst the Dead,
To save a ruined World from Sin:
But he shall reign with Pow’r divine.

The World to come redeem’d from all
The Miseries that attend the Fall,
Now made, and glorious, shall submit
At our exalted Saviour’s Feet.

Psalm IX. First Part.

Wrath and Mercy from the Judgment-Seat.

With my whole Heart I’ll raise my Song,
Thy Wonders I’ll proclaim.

Thou
Thou sovereign Judge of Right and Wrong
Wilt put my Foes to Shame.

2 I'll sing thy Majesty and Grace;
My God prepares his Throne
To judge the World in Righteousness,
And make his Vengeance known.

3 Then shall the Lord a Refuge prove
For all the Poor oppressed;
To save the People of his Love,
And give the Weary Rest.

4 The Men that know thy Name will trust
In thy abundant Grace;
For thou hast never forsook the Just,
Who humbly seek thy Face.

5 Sing Praises to the Righteous Lord,
Who dwells on Zion's Hill,
Who executes his threat'ning Word,
And doth his Grace fulfil.

Psalm IX. Ver. 12. Second Part.
The Wisdom and Equity of Providence.

1 WHEN the great Judge Supreme and Just,
Shall once enquire for Blood,
The humble Souls that mourn in Dust
Shall find a faithful God.

2 He from the dreadful Gates of Death
Does his own Children raise:
In Zion's Gates with cheerful Breath
They sing their Father's Praise.

3 His Foes shall fall with heedless Feet
Into the Pit they made;
And Sinners perish in the Net
That their own Hands have spread.

B 2 Thus
Psalm X.

4 Thus by thy Judgments, mighty God,
   Are thy deep Counsels known;
When Men of Mischief are destroy'd,
   The Snare must be their own.

PAUSE.

5 The Wicked shall sink down to Hell;
   Thy Wrath devour the Lands
That dare forget Thee, or rebel
   Against thy known Commands.

6 Tho' Saints to sore Distress are brought,
   And wait and long complain,
Their Cries shall not be still forgot,
   Nor shall their Hopes be vain.

7 [Rise, great Redeemer, from thy Seat
   To judge and save the Poor:
Let Nations tremble at thy Feet,
   And Man prevail no more.

8 Thy Thunder shall affright the Proud,
   And put their Hearts to Pain,
Make 'em confess that thou art God,
   And they but feeble Men.]

Psalm X.

Prayer heard, and Saints saved; or, Pride, Atheism and Oppression punish'd.

For a Humiliation Day.

W HY doth the Lord stand off so far?
   And why conceal his Face,
When great Calamities appear,
   And Times of deep Distress?

2 Lord, shall the Wicked still deride
   Thy Justice and thy Power?
Shall they advance their Heads in Pride,
And still thy Saints devour?

3 They put thy Judgments from their Sight,
And then insult the Poor;
They boast in their exalted Height,
That they shall fall no more.

4 Arise, O God, lift up thine Hand,
Attend our humble Cry;
No Enemy shall dare to stand
When God ascends on high.

Pause.

5 Why do the Men of Malice rage,
And say with foolish Pride,
"The GOD of Heaven will never engage
To fight on Zion's Side.

6 But thou for ever art our Lord;
And pow'rful is thine Hand,
As when the Heathens felt thy Sword,
And perish'd from thy Land.

7 Thou wilt prepare our Hearts to pray,
And cause thine Ear to hear;
He hearkens what his Children say,
And puts the World in Fear.

8 Proud Tyrants shall no more oppress,
No more despise the Just;
And mighty Sinners shall confess
They are but Earth and Dust.

Psalm XI.

GOD loves the Righteous, and hates the Wicked.

My Refuge is the God of Love,
Why do my Foes insult and cry,
B 3
Psalm XII.

"Fly like a timorous trembling Dove,
To distant Woods or Mountains fly."

2 If Government be all destroy'd,
(That firm Foundation of our Peace)
And Violence makes Justice void,
Where shall the Righteous seek Redress?

3 The Lord in Heaven has fix'd his Throne,
His Eye surveys the World below;
To him all mortal Things are known,
His Eye-lids search our Spirits thro'.

4 If he afflicts his Saints so far,
To prove their Love, and try their Grace,
What may the bold Transgressors fear?
His very Soul abhors their Ways.

5 On impious Wretches he shall rain
Tempests of Brimstone, Fire and Death,
Such as he kindled on the Plain
Of Sodom, with his angry Breath.

6 The righteous Lord loves righteous Souls,
Whose Thoughts and Actions are sincere,
And with a gracious Eye beholds
The Men that his own Image bear.

Psalm XII. Long Metre.

The Saint's Safety and Hope in evil Times; or, Sins of the Tongue complained of, (viz.) Blasphemy, Falseness, &c.

1 LORD, if thou dost not soon appear,
Virtue and Truth will fly away;
A faithful Man amongst us here
Will scarce be found if thou delay.

2 The whole Discourse when Neighbours meet,
Is fill'd with Trifles loose and vain;

Their
Their Lips are Flattery and Deceit,
And their proud Language is profane.

3 But Lips that with Deceit abound
Shall not maintain their Triumph long;
The God of Vengeance will confound
The flattring and blaspheming Tongue.

4 “Yet shall our Words be free, they cry;
Our Tongues shall be controuled by none.
Where is the Lord will ask us why?
Or say, our Lips are not our own?”

5 The Lord who sees the Poor opprest,
And hears th’ Oppressor’s haughty Strain,
Will rise to give his Children Rest,
Nor shall they trust his Word in vain.

6 Thy Word, O Lord, tho’ often try’d,
Void of Deceit shall till appear;
Not Silver seven times purify’d
From Dross and Mixture shines so clear.

7 Thy Grace shall in the darkest Hour
Defend the holy Soul from Harm;
Tho’ when the vilest Men have Power
On every Side will Sinners swarm.

Psalm XII. Common Metre.

Complaint of a general Corruption of Manners;
or, The Promise and Signs of Christ’s coming to Judgment.

1 HELP, Lord, for Men of Virtue fail,
Religion loses Ground;
The Sons of Violence prevail,
And Treacheries abound.

B 4. 2 Their
Psalm XII.

2 Their Oaths and Promises they break,
   Yet act the Flatterer's Part;
With fair deceitful Lips they speak,
   And with a double Heart.

3 If we reprove some hateful Lye,
   How is their Fury stirr'd?
"Are not our Lips our own, they cry,
"And who shall be our Lord?"

4 Scoffers appear on every Side,
   Where a vile Race of Men
Is rais'd to Seats of Pow'r and Pride,
   And bears the Sword in vain.

Pause.

5 Lord, when Iniquities abound,
   And Blasphemy grows bold,
When Faith is hardly to be found,
   And Love is waxing cold;

6 Is not thy Chariot haft'ning on?
   Hast thou not giv'n this Sign?
May we not trust and live upon
   A Promise so divine?

7 "Yes, faith the Lord, now will I rise,
   "And make Oppressors flee;
"I shall appear to their Surprize,
   "And let my Servants free.

8 Thy Word, like Silver seven times try'd,
   Thro' Ages shall endure;
The Men that in thy Truth confide
   Shall find the Promise sure.
Psalm XIII. Long Metre.

Pleading with GOD under Desertion; or, Hope in Darkness.

1 How long, O Lord, shall I complain
   Like one that seeks his God in vain?
   Can't thou thy Face for ever hide?
   And I still pray, and be deny'd?

2 Shall I for ever be forgot,
   As one whom thou regardest not?
   Still shall my Soul thine Absence mourn?
   And still despair of thy Return?

3 How long shall my poor troubled Breast
   Be with these anxious Thoughts oppress?
   And Satan, my malicious Foe,
   Rejoice to see me sunk so low?

4 Hear, Lord, and grant me quick Relief,
   Before my Death conclude my Grief,
   If thou with-hold thy heavenly Light,
   I sleep in everlasting Night.

5 How will the Pow'rs of Darkness boast
   If but one praying Soul be lost?
   But I have trusted in thy Grace,
   And shall again behold thy Face.

6 Whate'er my Fears or Foes suggest,
   Thou art my Hope, my Joy, my Rest.
   My Heart shall feel thy Love, and raise
   My cheerful Voice to Songs of Praise.

Psalm XIII. Common Metre.

Complaint under Temptations of the Devil.

3 How long wilt thou conceal thy Face?
   My God, how long delay?
When shall I feel those heavenly Rays
That chase my Fears away?^

2 How long shall my poor lab'ring Soul
Wrestle and toil in vain?
Thy Word can all my Foes controul,
And ease my raging Pain.

3 See how the Prince of Darkness tries
All his malicious Arts,
He spreads a Mist around my Eyes,
And throws his fiery Darts.

4 Be thou my Sun, and thou my Shield,
My Soul in Safety keep;
Make haste before mine Eyes are seal'd
In Death's eternal Sleep.

5 How would the Tempter boast aloud
If I become his Prey!
Behold the Sons of Hell grow proud
At thy so long Delay.

6 But they shall fly at thy Rebuke,
And Satan hide his Head;
He knows the Terrors of thy Look,
And hears thy Voice with Dread.

7 Thou wilt display that sovereign Grace
Where all my Hopes have hung;
I shall employ my Lips in Praise,
And Victory shall be sung.

PSALM XIV. First Part.

By Nature all Men are Sinners.

Fools in their Hearts believe and say,
"That all Religion's vain,
There is no God that reigns on high,
Or minds th' Affairs of Men.

2 From
Psalm XIV.

2 From Thoughts so dreadful and profane
   Corrupt Discourse proceeds;
   And in their impious Hands are found
   Abominable Deeds.

3 The Lord from his Celestial Throne
   Look'd down on Things below,
   To find the Man that sought his Grace,
   Or did his Justice know.

4 By Nature all are gone astray,
   Their Practice all the same;
   There's none that fears his Maker's Hand,
   There's none that loves his Name.

5 Their Tongues are us'd to speak Deceit,
   Their Slanders never cease;
   How swift to Mischief are their Feet,
   Nor know the Paths of Peace!

6 Such Seeds of Sin (that bitter Root)
   In ev'ry Heart are found;
   Nor can they bear diviner Fruit,
   'Till Grace refine the Ground.

Psalm XIV. Second Part:

The Folly of Persecutors.

1 A R E Sinners now so senseless grown
   That they the Saints devour?
   And never worship at thy Throne,
   Nor fear thine awful Power?

2 Great God, appear to their Surprieze,
   Reveal thy dreadful Name;
   Let them no more thy Wrath despise,
   Nor turn our Hope to Shame.

3 Doft thou not dwell among the Just,
   And yet our Foes deride,
   That
That we should make thy Name our Trust:
Great God, confound their Pride.

O that the joyful Day were come
To finish our Distresses!
When God shall bring his Children home,
Our Songs shall never cease.

Psalm XV. Common Metre.

Characters of a Saint; or, a Citizen of Zion;
or, the Qualifications of a Christian.

1 Whose shall inhabit in thy Hill,
   O God of Holiness?
Whom will the Lord admit to dwell
   So near his Throne of Grace?

2 The Man that walks in pious Ways,
   And works with righteous Hands;
That trusts his Maker's Promises,
   And follows his Commands.

3 He speaks the Meaning of his Heart,
   Nor flanders with his Tongue;
Will scarce believe an ill Report,
   Nor do his Neighbour Wrong.

4 The wealthy Sinner he contemns,
   Loves all that fear the Lord;
And tho' to his own Hurt he swears,
   Still he performs his Word.

5 His Hands disdain a golden Bribe,
   And never gripe the Poor.
This Man shall dwell with God on Earth,
   And find his Heaven secure.
Psalm XV. Long Metre.

Religion and Justice, Goodness and Truth; or, Duties to God and Man; or, the Qualifications of a Christian.

1. Who shall ascend thy heav’nly Place, Great God, and dwell before thy Face? The Man that minds Religion now, And humbly walks with God below.

2. Whose Hands are pure, whose Heart is clean; Whose Lips still speak the Thing they mean; No Slanders dwell upon his Tongue: He hates to do his Neighbour Wrong.

3. [Scarce will he trust an ill Report, Nor vents it to his Neighbour’s Hurt: Sinners of State he can despise, But Saints are honour’d in his Eyes.]

4. [Firm to his Word he ever stood, And always makes his Promise good? Nor dares to change the Thing he swears, Whatever Pain or Loss he bears.]

5. [He never deals in bribing Gold, And mourns that Justice should be sold: While others gripe and grind the Poor, Sweet Charity attends his Door.]

6. He loves his Enemies, and prays For those that curse him to his Face: And doth to all Men still the same That he would hope or wish from them.

7. Yet, when his holiest Works are done, His Soul depends on Grace alone: This is the Man thy Face shall see, And dwell for ever, Lord, with Thee.
Psalm XVI. First Part. Long Metre.

Confession of our Poverty; and, Saints the best Company: or, Good Works profit Men, not GOD.

P Reserve me, Lord, in Time of Need,
For Succour to thy Throne I flee,
But have no Merits there to plead;
My Goodness cannot reach to Thee.

2 Oft have my Heart and Tongue confess,
How empty and how poor I am;
My Praise can never make thee blest,
Nor add new Glories to thy Name.

3 Yet, Lord, thy Saints on Earth may reap
Some Profit by the Good we do;
These are the Company I keep,
These are the choicest Friends I know.

4 Let others chuse the Sons of Mirth
To give a Relish to their Wine,
I love the Men of heavenly Birth,
Whose Thoughts and Language are divine.

Psalm XVI. Second Part. Long Metre.

Christ’s All-sufficiency.

1 How fast their Guilt and Sorrows rise,
Who haflle to seek some Idol God?
I will not taste their Sacrifice,
Their Off’rings of forbidden Blood.

2 My God provides a richer Cup,
And nobler Food to live upon,
He for my Life has offer’d up
Jesus his best-beloved Son.

3 His Love is my perpetual Feast;
By Day his Counsels guide me right;
And
And be his Name for ever blest,
Who gives me sweet Advice by Night.

4 I set him still before mine Eyes;
At my Right-hand he stands prepar’d
To keep my Soul from all Surprize,
And be my everlasting Guard.

Courage in Death, and Hope of the Resurrection.

1 When God is nigh, my Faith is strong,
   His Arm is my almighty Prop:
   Be glad, my Heart, rejoice, my Tongue,
   My dying Flesh shall rest in Hope.

2 Tho’ in the Dust I lay my Head,
   Yet, gracious God, thou wilt not leave
   My Soul for ever with the Dead,
   Nor lose thy Children in the Grave.

3 My Flesh shall thy first Call obey,
   Shake off the Dust, and rise on high;
   Then shalt thou lead the wondrous Way
   Up to thy Throne above the Sky.

4 There Streams of endless Pleasure flow;
   And full Discoveries of thy Grace
   (Which we but tasted here below)
   Spread Heav’nly Joys thro’ all the Place.

Support and Counsel from GOD without Merit.

1 Save me, O Lord, from every Foe;
   In Thee my Trust I place,
   Tho’ all the Good that I can do
   Can ne’er deserve thy Grace.

Psalm XVI.

2 Yet if my God prolong my Breath,
   The Saints may profit by't;
The Saints the Glory of the Earth,
The Men of my Delight.

3 Let Heathens to their Idols haste,
   And worship Wood or Stone;
But my delightful Lot is cast
   Where the True God is known.

4 His Hand provides my constant Food,
   He fills my daily Cup;
Much am I pleas'd with present Good,
   But more rejoice in Hope.

5 God is my Portion and my Joy;
   His Counsels are my Light:
He gives me sweet Advice by Day,
   And gentle Hints by Night.

6 My Soul would all her Thoughts approve
   To his all-seeing Eye;
Not Death nor Hell my Hope shall move
   While such a Friend is nigh.

Psalm XVI. Second Part. Common Metre.

The Death and Resurrection of Christ.

1 "I Set the Lord before my Face,
   " He bears my Courage up:
   " My Heart and Tongue their Joys express,
   " My Flesh shall rest in Hope.

2 " My Spirit, Lord, thou wilt not leave
   " Where Souls departed are;
   " Nor quit my Body to the Grave
   " To see Corruption there.

3 " Thou wilt reveal the Path of Life,
   " And raise me to thy Throne:
PSALM XVII.

"Thy Courts immortal Pleasure give,
Thy Presence Joys unknown.

4 [Thus in the Name of Christ, the Lord,
The holy David sung,
And Providence fulfilst the Word
Of his Prophetick Tongue.

5 Jesus, whom every Saint adores,
Was crucify'd and slain;
Behold the Tomb its Prey restores,
Behold he lives again.

6 When shall my Feet arise and stand
On Heav'n's eternal Hills?
There sits the Son at God's Right-hand,
And there the Father smiles.]

PSALM XVII. Ver. 13, &c. Short Metre.

Portion of Saints and Sinners; or, Hope and Despair in Death.

1 ARISE, my gracious God,
And make the Wicked flee;
They are but thy chastising Rod
To drive thy Saints to Thee.

2 Behold the Sinner dies,
His haughty Words are vain;
Here in this Life his Pleasure lies,
And all beyond is Pain.

3 Then let his Pride advance,
And boast of all his Store;
The Lord is my Inheritance,
My Soul can wish no more.

4 I shall behold the Face
Of my forgiving God:
And
Psalm XVII.

And stand compleat in Righteousness,
Wash'd in my Saviour's Blood.

5 There's a new Heav'n begun
When I awake from Death,
Drest in the Likeness of thy Son,
And draw immortal Breath.

Psalm XVII. Long Metre.

The Sinner's Portion and Sain's Hop'; or, the Heaven of separate Souls, and the Resurrection.

1 LORD, I am thine: But thou wilt prove My Faith, my Patience, and my Love;
When Men of spite against me join,
They are the Sword, the Hand is thine.

2 Their Hope and Portion he below;
'Tis all the Happiness they know,
'Tis all they seek; they lose their Shares,
And leave the rest among their Heirs.

3 What Sinners value, I reign;
Lord, 'tis enough that thou art mine:
I shall behold thy blissful Face
And stand compleat in Right:

4 This Life's a Dream, an empty One: But the bright World to which I go, Hath joys substantial and sincere;
When shall I wake, and find me there?

5 O glorious Hour! O blest Abode!
I shall be near, and like my God!
And Flesh and Sin no more controul
The sacred Pleasures of the Soul.

6 My Flesh shall slumber in the Ground,
Till the last Trumpet's joyful Sound;

Then
Then burst the Chains with sweet Surprize,
And in my Saviour's Image rise.

Psalm XVIII. First Part.

Long Metre. Ver. 1–6, 15–18.

Deliverance from Despair; or, Temptations overcome.

1. THEE will I love, O Lord, my Strength,
   My Rock, my Tower, my high Defence;
   Thy mighty Arm shall be my Trust,
   For I have found Salvation thence.

2. Death, and the Terrors of the Grave
   Stood round me with their dismal Shade;
   While Floods of high Temptations rofe,
   And made my sinking Soul afraid.

3. I saw the op'ning Gates of Hell
   With endless Pains and Sorrows there,
   Which none but they that feel can tell,
   While I was hurry'd to Despair.

4. In my Distress I call'd my God,
   When I could scarce believe him mine:
   He bow'd his Ear to my Complaint;
   Then did his Grace appear divine.

5. [With Speed he flew to my Relief,
   As on a Cherub's Wing he rode;
   Awful and bright as Lightning shone
   The Face of my Deliverer God.

6. Temptations fled at his Rebuke,
   The Blast of his Almighty Breath;
   He sent Salvation from on high,
   And drew me from the Deeps of Death.]

7. Great were my Fears, my Foes were great,
   Much was their Strength, and more their Rage;
   But
But Christ, my Lord, is Conqueror still
In all the Wars that Devils wage.

8 My Song for ever shall record
That terrible, that joyful Hour;
And give the Glory to the Lord
Due to his Mercy and his Power.

Psalm XVIII.

Sincerity proved and rewarded.

1 LORD, thou hast seen my Soul sincere,
Haft made thy Truth and Love appear;
Before mine Eyes I set thy Laws,
And thou hast own'd my righteous Cause.

2 Since I have learn'd thy holy Ways,
I've walk'd upright before thy Face;
Or if my Feet did e'er depart,
'Twas never with a wicked Heart.

3 What fore Temptations broke my Rest!
What Wars and Strugglings in my Breast!
But thro' thy Grace that reigns within
I guard against my darling Sin.

4 That Sin that close besets me still,
That works and strives against my Will;
When shall thy Spirit's sovereign Power
Destroy it, that it rise no more?

5 [With an impartial Hand the Lord
Deals out to Mortals their Reward:
The kind and faithful Souls shall find
A God as faithful and as kind.

6 The Just and Pure shall ever say,
Thou art more pure, more just than they:
Psalm XVIII.

And Men that love Revenge shall know
God hath an Arm of Vengeance too.

Rejoicing in God; or, Salvation and Triumph.

Just are thy Ways, and true thy Word,
Great Rock of my secure Abode:
Who is a God beside the Lord?
Or where's a Refuge like our God?

'Tis He that girds me with his Might,
Gives me his holy Sword to wield;
And while with Sin and Hell I fight,
Spreads his Salvation for my Shield.

He lives, (and blessed be my Rock)
The God of my Salvation lives,
The dark Designs of Hell are broke:
Sweet is the Peace my Father gives.

Before the Scoffers of the Age
I will exalt my Father's Name,
Nor tremble at their mighty Rage,
But meet Reproach, and bear the Shame.

To David and his Royal Seed
Thy Grace for ever shall extend;
Thy Love to Saints in Christ their Head
Knows not a Limit, nor an End.

Psalm XVIII. First Part. Common Metre.

Victory and Triumph over Temporal Enemies.

We love Thee, Lord, and we adore,
Now is thine Arm reveal'd:
Thou art our Strength, our heav'nly Tow'r,
Our Bulwark and our Shield.
Psalm XVIII.

2 We fly to our eternal Rock,
    And find a sure Defence;
His holy Name our Lips invoke,
    And draw Salvation thence.

3 When God our Leader shines in Arms,
    What mortal Heart can bear
The Thunder of his loud Alarms?
    The Lightning of his Spear?

4 He rides upon the winged Wind,
    And Angels in Array
In Millions wait to know his Mind,
    And swift as Flames obey.

5 He speaks, and at his fierce Rebuke
    Whole Armies are dismayed;
His Voice, his Frown, his angry Look
    Strikes all their Courage dead.

6 He forms our Generals for the Field
    With all their dreadful Skill;
Gives them his awful Sword to wield,
    And makes their Hearts of Steel.

7 [He arms our Captains to the Fight,
    (Tho' there his Name's forgot;]
He girded Cyrus with his Might,
    But Cyrus knew him not.)

8 Oft has the Lord whole Nations blest
    For his own Church's sake;
The Powers that give his People Rest

Thy Terrors, Lord, confound the Foe,

3 How have we chas'd them thro' the Field,
And trod them to the Ground,
While thy Salvation was our Shield,
But they no Shelter found!

4 In vain to Idol Saints they cry,
And perish in their Blood;
Where is a Rock so great, so high,
So powerful as our God?

Psalm XIX. First Part. Short Metre.

The Book of Nature and Scripture.

For a Lord's-Day Morning.

1 Behold the lofty Sky
Declares its Maker God,
And all his Starry Works on high
Proclaim his Power abroad.

2 The Darkness and the Light
Still keep their Course the same;
While Night to Day, and Day to Night
Divinely teach his Name.

3 In every different Land
Their general Voice is known;
They shew the Wonders of his Hand,
And Orders of his Throne.

4 Ye Britifh Lands rejoice,
Here he reveals his Word,
We are not left to Nature’s Voice
To bid us know the Lord.

5 His Statutes and Commands
Are set before our Eyes,
He put his Gospel in our Hands,
Where our Salvation lies.

6 His Laws are just and pure,
His Truth without Deceit,
His Promises for ever sure,
And his Rewards are great.

7 [Not Honey to the Taste

Nor Gold that has the Furnace past

8 While of thy Works I sing,
Thy Glory to proclaim,
Accept the Praise, my God, my King,
In my Redeemer’s Name.]

Psalm XIX. Second Part. Short Metre

GOD’s Word most excellent; or, Sincerity and Watchfulness.

For a Lord’s-Day Morning.

Behold the Morning Sun
Begins his glorious Way;
Psalm XIX.

His Beams thro' all the Nations run,
And Life and Light convey.

2 But where the Gospel comes
It spreads diviner Light,
It calls dead Sinners from their Tombs,
And gives the Blind their Sight.

3 How perfect is thy Word!
And all thy Judgments just;
For ever sure thy Promise, Lord,
And Men securely trust.

4 My gracious God, how plain
Are thy Directions giv'n!
O may I never read in vain,
But find the Path to Heaven!

Pause.

5 I hear thy Word with Love,
And I would fain obey;
Send thy good Spirit from above
To guide me, lest I stray.

6 O who can ever find
The Errors of his Ways?
Yet with a bold presumptuous Mind
I would not dare transgress.

7 Warn me of every Sin,
Forgive my secret Faults,
And cleanse this guilty Soul of mine,
Whose Crimes exceed my Thoughts.

8 While with my Heart and Tongue
I spread thy Praise abroad;
Accept the Worship and the Song,
My Saviour and my God.
Psalm XIX.

Psalm XIX. Long Metre.

The Books of Nature and of Scripture compar’d; or,
The Glory and Success of the Gospel.

1. The Heavens declare thy Glory, Lord,
In every Star thy Wisdom shines:
But when our Eyes behold thy Word,
We read thy Name in fairer Lines.

2. The rolling Sun, the changing Light,
And Nights and Days thy Power confess;
But the blest Volume thou haft writ
Reveals thy Justice and thy Grace.

3. Sun, Moon and Stars convey thy Praise
Round the whole Earth, and never stand:
So when thy Truth begun its Race,
It touch’d, and glanc’d on ev’ry Land.

4. Nor shall thy spreading Gospel rest
Till thro’ the World thy Truth has run;
’Till Christ has all the Nations blest
That see the Light, or feel the Sun.

5. Great Sun of Righteousness, arise,
Bless the dark World with heavenly Light;
Thy Gospel makes the Simple wise;
Thy Laws are pure, thy Judgments right.

6. Thy noblest Wonders here we view
In Souls renew’d, and Sins forgiv’n:
Lord, cleanse my Sins, my Soul renew,
And make thy Word my Guide to Heav’n.

Psalm XIX. To the Tune of the 113th Psalm.

The Book of Nature and Scripture.

Great God, the Heaven’s well-order’d Frame
Declares the Glories of thy Name:

Then
Psalm XIX.

There thy rich Works of Wonder shine,
A thousand starry Beauties there,
A thousand radiant Marks appear
Of boundless Power, and Skill divine.

From Night to Day, from Day to Night,
The dawning and the dying Light,
Lectures of heavenly Wisdom read;
With silent Eloquence they raise
Our Thoughts to our Creator's Praise,
And neither Sound nor Language need.

Yet their divine Instructions run
Far as the Journeys of the Sun,
And every Nation knows their Voice:
The Sun like some young Bridegroom drest,
Breaks from the Chambers of the East,
Rolls round, and makes the Earth rejoice.

Where'er he spreads his Beams abroad,
He smiles, and speaks his Maker, God:
All Nature joins to shew thy Praise:
Thus God in every Creature shines;
Fair is the Book of Nature's Lines,
But fairer is the Book of Grace.

Pause.

I love the Volumes of thy Word;
What Light and Joy those Leaves afford
To Souls benighted and distressed!
Thy Precepts guide my doubtful Way,
Thy Fear forbids my Feet to stray,
Thy Promise leads my Heart to Rest.

From the Discoveries of thy Law
The perfect Rules of Life I draw;
These are my Study and Delight;
Not Honey so invites the Taste.

C 2
N O W may the God of Power and Grace
Attend his People's humble Cry!
Jehovah hears when Israel prays,
And brings Deliverance from on high.

The Name of Jacob's God defends
Better than Shields or brazen Walls;
He from his Sanctuary sends
Succour and Strength when Zion calls.

Well he remembers all our Sighs,
His Love exceeds our best Delights;
His Love accepts the Sacrifice
Of humble Groans and broken Hearts.

In his Salvation is our Hope,
And in the Name of Israel's God
Our Troops shall lift their Banners up,
Our Navies spread their Flags abroad.

3 Some trust in Horses train'd for War,
And some of Chariots make their Boasts;
Our surest Expectations are
From Thee the Lord of heavenly Horses.

[O may the Memory of thy Name
Inspire our Armies for the Fight!
Our Foes shall fall and die with Shame,
Or quit the Field with shameful Flight.]

7 Now save us, Lord, from slavish Fear,
Now let our Hope be firm and strong,
Till thy Salvation shall appear,
And Joy and Triumph raise the Song.

Psalm XXI. Common Metre.
Our King is the Care of Heaven.

1 The King, O Lord, with Songs of Praise
Shall in thy Strength rejoice;
And blest with thy Salvation raise
To Heaven his cheerful Voice.

2 Thy sure Defence thro' Nations round
Has spread his glorious Name;
And his successful Actions crown'd
With Majesty and Fame.

3 Then let the King on God alone
For timely Aid rely;
His Mercy shall support the Throne,
And all our Wants supply.

4 But, righteous Lord, his stubborn Foes
Shall feel thy dreadful Hand;
Thy vengeful Arm shall find out those
That hate his mild Command.

C 3 5 When
Psalm XXI

5 When thou against them dost engage
   Thy just, but dreadful doom
   Shall, like a fiery Oven's Rage,
   Their Hopes and them consume.

6 Thus, Lord, thy wondrous Power declare,
   And thus exalt thy Fame;
   Whilst we glad Songs of Praise prepare
   For thine Almighty Name.

Christ exalted to the Kingdom.

A V i D rejoic'd in God his Strength,
Rais'd to the Throne by special Grace,
But Christ the Son appears at length,
Fulfil's the Triumph and the Praise.

2 How great is the Messiah's Joy
   In the Salvation of thy Hand!
   Lord, thou hast rais'd his Kingdom high,
   And giv'n the World to his Command.

3 Thy Goodness grants whate'er he will,
   Nor doth the least Request with-hold;
   Blessings of Love prevent him still,
   And Crowns of Glory, not of Gold.

4 Honour and Majesty divine
   Around his sacred Temples shine;
   Blest with the Favour of thy Face,
   And Length of everlasting Days.

5 Thine Hand shall find out all his Foes;
   And as a fiery Oven glows
   With raging Heat and living Coals,
   So shall thy Wrath devour their Souls.
Psalm XXII. 1—16. First Part.
Common Metre.

The Sufferings and Death of Christ.

1 Why has my God my Soul forsook,
   Nor will a Smile afford?
(Thus David once in Anguish spoke,
   And thus our dying Lord.)

2 Thou'st thy chief Delight to dwell
   Among thy praising Saints,
Yet thou can't hear a Groan as well,
   And pity our Complaints.

3 Our Fathers trusted in thy Name,
   And great Deliverance found;
But I'm a Worm despis'd of Men,
   And trodden to the Ground.

4 Shaking the Head they pass me by,
   And laugh my Soul to Scorn;
   "In vain he trusts in GOD, they cry, Neglected and forlorn."

5 But thou art he who form'd my Flesh,
   By thine Almighty Word,
And since I hung upon the Breast
   My Hope is in the Lord.

6 Why will my Father hide his Face
   When Foes stand threatening round
In the dark Hour of deep Distrefs,
   And not an Helper found?

Pause.

Behold thy Darling left among
   The Cruel and the Proud,
As Bulls of Bashan fierce and strong,
   As Lions roaring loud.

C 4
8 From
8 From Earth and Hell my Sorrows meet
To multiply the Smart;
They nail my Hands, they pierce my Feet,
And try to vex my Heart.

9 Yet if thy Sovereign Hand let loose
The Rage of Earth and Hell,
Why will my heavenly Father bruise
The Son he loves so well?

10 My God, if possible it be,
With-hold this bitter Cup:
But I resign my Will to Thee,
And drink the Sorrows up.

11 My Heart dissolves with Pangs unknown,
In Groans I waste my Breath:
Thy heavy Hand has brought me down
Low as the Dust of Death.

12 Father, I give my Spirit up,
And trust it in thy Hand;
My dying Flesh shall rest in Hope,
And rise at thy Command.

Psalm XXII. 20, 21, 27-31. Second Part.
Common Metre.
Christ's Sufferings and Kingdom.

1 "Now from the roaring Lion's Rage,
" O Lord, protect thy Son,
" Nor leave thy Darling to engage
" The Powers of Hell alone.

2 Thus did our suffering Saviour pray
With mighty Cries and Tears;
God heard him in that dreadful Day,
And chas'd away his Fears.
Psalm XXII.

3 Great was the Vi'erty of his Death,
   His Throne exalted high;
And all the Kindreds of the Earth
Shall worship or shall die.

4 A num'rous Offspring must arise
   From his expiring Groans;
They shall be reckon'd in his Eyes
   For Daughters and for Sons.

5 The meek and humble Souls shall see
   His Table richly spread;
And all that seek the Lord shall be
   With Joys immortal fed.

5 The Isles shall know the Righteousness
   Of our incarnate God,
And Nations yet unborn profess
   Salvation in his Blood.

Psalm XXII. Long Metre.

Christ's Sufferings and Exaltation.

NOW let our mournful Songs record
   The dying Sorrows of our Lord,
When he complain'd in Tears and Blood,
   As one forfaken of his God.

2 The Jews beheld him thus forlorn,
   And shake their Heads and laugh in Scorn;
" He refus'd others from the Grave;
" Now let him try himself to save.

" This is the Man did once pretend
   God was his Father and his Friend;
" If God the Blessed lov'd him so,
" Why doth he fail to help him now?

Barbarous People! Cruel Priests!
   How they stood round like savage Beasts;

Psalm XXIII:

Like Lions gaping to devour,
When God had left him in their Power.

5 They wound his Head, his Hands, his Feet,
Till Streams of Blood each other meet;
By Lot his Garments they divide,
And mock the Pangs in which he dy'd.

6 But God his Father heard his Cry;
Rais'd from the Dead he reigns on high;
The Nations learn his Righteousness,
And humble Sinners taste his Grace.

Psalm XXIII. Long Metre.

GOD our Shepherd.

1 My Shepherd is the living Lord;
Now shall my Wants be well supply'd;
His Providence and holy Word
Become my Safety and my Guide.

2 In Pastures where Salvation grows
He makes me feed, he makes me rest;
There living Water gently flows,
And all the Food divinely blest.

3 My wand'ring Feet his Ways mistake,
But he restores my Soul to Peace,
And leads me for his Mercy's sake
In the fair Paths of Righteousness.

4 'Tho' I walk thro' the gloomy Vale
Where Death and all its Terrors are,
My Heart and Hope shall never fail,
For God my Shepherd's with me there.

5 Amidst the Darkness and the Deeps
Thou art my Comfort, thou my Stay;
Thy Staff supports my feeble Steps,
Thy Rod directs my doubtful Way.
The Sons of Earth and Sons of Hell
Gaze at thy Goodness, and repine
To see my Table spread so well
With living Bread and cheerful Wine.

[How I rejoice when on my Head
Thy Spirit condescends to rest!`
'Tis a Divine Anointing shed
Like Oil of Gladness at a Feast.

Surely the Mercies of the Lord
Attend his Household all their Days;
There will I dwell to hear his Word,
To seek his Face, and sing his Praise.]

Psalm XXIII. Common Metre.

My Shepherd will supply my Need,
Jehovah is his Name;
In Pastures fresh he makes me feed
Beside the living Stream.

He brings my wand’ring Spirit back
When I forsook his Ways;
And leads me for his Mercy’s sake
In Paths of Truth and Grace.

When I walk thro’ the Shades of Death
Thy Presence is my Stay;
A Word of thy supporting Breath
Drives all my Fears away.

Thy Hand in Sight of all my Foes
Doth fill my Table spread;
My Cup with Blessings overflows,
Thine Oil anoints my Head.

The sure Provisions of my God
Attend me all my Days:
Psalm XXIII.

O may thy House be mine Abode,
And all my Work be Praise!

6 There would I find a settled Rest,
(While others go and come)
No more a Stranger or a Guest,
But like a Child at Home.

Psalm XXIII. Short Metre.

1 The Lord my Shepherd is,
I shall be well supply’d;
Since he is mine and I am his,
What can I want beside?

2 He leads me to the Place
Where heavenly Pasture grows,
Where living Waters gently pass,
And full Salvation flows.

3 If e’er I go astray,
He doth my Soul reclaim,
And guides me in his own right Way
For his most holy Name.

4 While he affords his Aid
I cannot yield to Fear;
‘Thou’ I should walk thro’ Death’s dark Shade,
My Shepherd’s with me there.

5 In spight of all my Foes
Thou dost my Table spread,
My Cup with Blessings overflows,
And Joy exalts my Head.

6 The Bounties of thy Love
Shall crown my following Days;
Nor from thy House will I remove
Nor cease to speak thy Praise.

Psalm
Psalm XXIV. Common Metre.

Dwelling with GOD.

1. The Earth for ever is the Lord's,
   With Adam's numerous Race;
   He rais'd its Arches o'er the Floods,
   And built it on the Seas.

2. But who among the Sons of Men
   May visit thine Abode?
   He that has Hands from Mischief clean,
   Whose Heart is right with God.

3. This is the Man may rise and take
   The Blessings of his Grace;
   This is the Lot of those that seek
   The God of Jacob's Face.

4. Now let our Souls, immortal Powers,
   To meet the Lord prepare,
   Lift up their everlasting Doors,
   The King of Glory's near.

5. The King of Glory! Who can tell
   The Wonders of his Might?
   He rules the Nations; but to dwell
   With Saints is his Delight.

Psalm XXIV. Long Metre.

Saints dwell in Heaven; or, Chriill's Ascension.

1. His spacious Earth is all the Lord's,
   And Men and Worms, and Beasts and Birds:
   He rais'd the Building on the Seas,
   And gave it for their Dwelling-place.

2. But there's a brighter World on high,
   Thy Palace, Lord, above the Sky:
   Who shall ascend that blest Abode?
   And dwell so near his Maker GOD.

3. He
Psalm XXV.

3 He that abhors and fears to sin,
Whose Heart is pure, whose Hands are clean,
Him shall the Lord the Saviour bless,
And clothe his Soul with Righteousness.

4 These are the Men, the pious Race
That seek the God of Jacob's Face:
These shall enjoy the blissful Sight,
And dwell in everlasting Light.

Pause.

5 Rejoice ye shining Worlds on high,
Behold the King of Glory nigh;
Who can this King of Glory be?
The mighty Lord, the Saviour's He.

6 Ye heavenly Gates, your Leaves display
To make the Lord the Saviour Way:
Laden with Spoils from Earth and Hell
The Conqueror comes, with God to dwell.

7 Rais'd from the Dead he goes before,
He opens Heaven's eternal Door,
To give his Saints a blest Abode
Near their Redeemer and their God.

Psalm XXV. I — II. First Part
Waiting for Pardon and Direction.

1 Lift my Soul to God,
My Trust is in his Name;
Let not my Foes that seek my Blood
Still triumph in my Shame.

2 Sin, and the Powers of Hell
Persuade me to Despair;
Lord, make me know thy Covenant well,
That I may 'scape the Snare.
3 From the first dawning Light
Till the dark Evening rise,
For thy Salvation, Lord, I wait
With ever-longing Eyes.

4 Remember all thy Grace,
And lead me in thy Truth;
Forgive the Sins of riper Days,
And Follies of my Youth.

5 The Lord is just and kind,
The Meek shall learn his Ways,
And every humble Sinner find
The Methods of his Grace.

6 For his own Goodness sake
He saves my Soul from Shame;
He pardons (tho' my Guilt be great)
Thro' my Redeemer's Name.

PSALM XXV. 12, 14, 10, 13. Second Part.
Divine Instrucion.

1 WHERE shall the Man be found
That fears t'offend his God,
That loves the Gospel's joyful Sound,
And trembles at the Rod?

2 The Lord shall make him know
The Secrets of his Heart,
The Wonders of his Covenant show,
And all his Love impart.

3 The Dealings of his Hand
Are Truth and Mercy still,
With such as to his Covenant stand,
And love to do his Will.

4 Their Soul shall dwell at Ease
Before their Maker's Face,
Psalm XXV.

Their Seed shall taste the Promises
In their extensive Grace.

Psalm XXV. 15—22. Third Part.

Distress of Soul; or, Backsliding and Desertion.

1 My Eyes and my Desire
   Are ever to the Lord;
I love to plead his Promises,
   And rest upon his Word.

2 Turn, turn thee to my Soul,
   Bring thy Salvation near;
When will thy Hand release my Feet
   Out of the deadly Snare?

3 When shall the Sovereign Grace
   Of my forgiving God
Restore me from those dangerous Ways
   My wand’ring Feet have trod!

4 The Tumult of my Thoughts
   Doth but enlarge my Woe;
My Spirit languishes, my Heart
   Is desolate and low.

5 With every Morning Light
   My Sorrow new begins;
Look on my Anguish and my Pain,
   And pardon all my Sins.

Pause.

6 Behold the Hasts of Hell,
   How cruel is their Hate?
Against my Life they rise, and join
   Their Fury with Deceit.

7 O keep my Soul from Death,
   Nor put my Hope to Shame.
Psalm XXVI.

For I have plac'd my only Trust
In my Redeemer's Name.

8 With humble Faith I wait
To see thy Face again;
Of Israel it shall ne'er be said,
He sought the Lord in vain.

Psalm XXVI.

Self-Examination; or, Evidences of Grace.

1 Judge me, O Lord, and prove my Ways,
And try my Reins, and try my Heart;
My Faith upon thy Promise stays,
Nor from thy Law my Feet depart.

2 I hate to walk, I hate to sit
With Men of Vanity and Lyes;
The Scoffer and the Hypocrite
Are the Abhorrence of mine Eyes.

3 Amongst thy Saints will I appear
With Hands well wash'd in Innocence:
But when I stand before thy Bar,
The Blood of Christ is my Defence.

4 I love thy Habitation, Lord,
The Temple where thine Honours dwell;
There shall I hear thy holy Word,
And there thy Works of Wonders tell.

5 Let not my Soul be join'd at last
With Men of Treachery and Blood,
Since I my Days on Earth have part
Among the Saints, and near my God.

Psalm XXVII. 1 — 6. First Part.

The Church is our Delight and Safety.

1 The Lord of Glory is my Light,
And my Salvation too.
Psalm XXVII.

God is my Strength; nor will I fear
What all my Foes can do.

2 One Privilege my Heart desires;
   O grant me an Abode
   Among the Churches of thy Saints,
   'The Temples of my God!'

3 There shall I offer my Requests,
   And see thy Beauty still;
   Shall hear thy Messages of Love,
   And there enquire thy Will.

4 When Troubles rise, and Storms appear,
   There may his Children hide;
   God has a strong Pavilion, where
   He makes my Soul abide.

5 Now shall my Head be lifted high
   Above my Foes around,
   And Songs of Joy and Victory
   Within thy Temple found.

Psalm XXVII. Ver. 8, 9, 13, 14. Second Part.

Prayer and Hope.

1 Soon as I heard my Father say,
   "Ye Children, seek my Grace,
   My Heart reply'd without Delay,
   "I'll seek my Father's Face."

2 Let not thy Face be hid from me,
   Nor frown my Soul away;
   God of my Life, I fly to Thee
   In a distressing Day.

3 Should Friends and Kindred near and dear
   Leave me to want or die,
   My God would make my Life his Care,
   And all my Need supply.
My fainting Flesh had dy'd with Grief
Had not my Soul believ'd,
To see thy Grace provide Relief,
Nor was my Hope deceiv'd.

Wait on the Lord, ye trembling Saints,
And keep your Courage up;
He'll raise your Spirit when it faints,
And far exceed your Hope.

Psalm XXIX.

Storm and Thunder.

Give to the Lord, ye Sons of Fame,
Give to the Lord Renown and Power,
Atcribe due Honours to his Name,
And his eternal Might adore.

The Lord proclaims his Power aloud
Over the Ocean and the Land;
His Voice divides the watry Cloud,
And Lightnings blaze at his Command.

He speaks, and Tempest, Hail and Wind
Lay the wide Forest bare around;
The fearful Hart and frighted Hind
Leap at the Terror of the Sound.

To Lebanon he turns his Voice,
And lo, the stately Cedars break;
The Mountains tremble at the Noise,
The Valleys roar, the Deserts quake.

The Lord sits Sovereign on the Flood,
The Thunderer reigns for ever King;
But makes his Church his blest Abode,
Where we his awful Glories sing.

In gentler Language there the Lord
The Counsels of his Grace imparts:
Psalm XXX.

Amidst the raging Storm his Word
Speaks Peace and Courage to our Hearts.

Psalm XXX. First Part.

Sickness heal'd, and Sorrow remov'd.

1 I will extol Thee, Lord, on high,
   At thy Command Diseases fly;
   Who but a God can speak, and save
   From the dark Borders of the Grave?

2 Sing to the Lord, ye Saints of his,
   And tell how large his Goodness is;
   Let all your Powers rejoice, and bless,
   While you record his Holiness.

3 His Anger but a Moment stays;
   His Love is Life and Length of Days;
   Tho' Grief and Tears the Night employ,
   The Morning-Star restores the Joy.

Psalm XXX. Ver. 6. Second Part.

Health, Sickness, and Recovery.

1 Firm was my Health, my Day was bright,
   And I presum'd 'twou'd ne'er be Night:
   Fondly I said within my Heart,
   "Pleasure and Peace shall ne'er depart.

2 But I forgot thine Arm was strong,
   Which made my Mountain stand so long;
   Soon as thy Face began to hide,
   My Health was gone, my Comforts dy'd.

3 I cry'd aloud to Thee, my God;
   "What can't thou profit by my Blood?
   "Deep in the Dust can I declare
   "Thy Truth, or sing thy Goodness there?

4 "Hear me, O God of Grace, I said,
   "And bring me from among the Dead;
Thy Word rebuk'd the Pains I felt,
Thy pardoning Love remov'd my Guilt.

5 My Groans, and Tears, and Forms of Woe
Are turn'd to Joy and Praises now;
I throw my Sackcloth on the Ground,
And Ease and Gladness gird me round.

6 My Tongue, the Glory of my Frame,
Shall ne'er be silent of thy Name;
Thy Praise shall sound thro' Earth and Heav'n
For Sickness heal'd, and Sins forgiv'n.

Psalm XXXI. 5, 13—19, 22, 23. First Part.
Deliverance from Death.

1 Into thine Hand, O God of Truth,
My Spirit I commit;
Thou hast redeem'd my Soul from Death,
And sav'd me from the Pit.

2 The Passions of my Hope and Fear
Maintain'd a double Strife,
While Sorrow, Pain, and Sin conspir'd
To take away my Life.

3 "My Times are in thine Hand, I cry'd;
"Tho' I draw near the Dust:
Thou art the Refuge where I hide,
The God in whom I trust.

4 O make thy reconciled Face
Upon thy Servant shine,
And save me for thy Mercy sake,
For I'm entirely thine.

Pause.

5 [Twast in my Haste, my Spirit said,
"I must despair and die,
Psalm XXXI.

“... I am cut off before thine Eyes; But thou hast heard my Cry.]

6 Thy Goodness how divinely free! How wondrous is thy Grace, To those that fear thy Majesty, And trust thy Promises!

7 O love the Lord, all ye his Saints, And sing his Praises loud; He'll bend his Ear to your Complaints, And recompense the Proud.

Deliverance from Slander and Reproach.

1 My Heart rejoices in thy Name, My God, my Help, my Trust; Thou hast preserved my Face from Shame, Mine Honour from the Dust.

2 "My Life is spent with Grief, I cry'd, "My Years consumed in Groans, "My Strength decays, mine Eyes are dry'd, "And Sorrow waits my Bones.

3 Among mine Enemies my Name Was a mere Proverb grown, While to my Neighbours I became Forgotten and unknown.

4 Slander and Fear on every Side Seiz'd and beset me round; I to the Throne of Grace apply'd, And speedy Rescue found.

Pause.

5 How great Deliverance thou hast wrought Before the Sons of Men!
The lying Lips to Silence brought,
And made their Boastings vain!

6 Thy Children from the Strife of Tongues
   Shall thy Pavilion hide,
   Guard them from Infamy and Wrongs,
   And crush the Sons of Pride.

7 Within thy secret Presence, Lord,
   Let me for ever dwell;
   No fenced City wall'd and barr'd
   Secures a Saint so well.

Psalm XXXII. Short Metre.

Forgiveness of Sins upon Confession.

1 O Blessed Souls are they
   Whose Sins are cover'd o'er!
Divinely blest, to whom the Lord
Imputes their Guilt no more.

2 They mourn their Follies past,
   And keep their Hearts with Care;
Their Lips and Lives without Deceit
Shall prove their Faith sincere.

3 While I conceal'd my Guilt,
   I felt the fell'ring Wound,
Till I confess'd my Sins to Thee,
   And ready Pardon found.

4 Let Sinners learn to pray,
   Let Saints keep near the Throne;
Our Help in Times of deep Distress
Is found in God alone.
Psalm XXXII. Common Metre.

Free Pardon, and sincere Obedience; or, Confession and Forgiveness.

1 Happy the Man to whom his God
   No more imputes his Sin,
   But wash'd in the Redeemer's Blood
   Hath made his Garments clean!

2 Happy, beyond Expression, he
   Whose Debts are thus discharg'd;
   And from the guilty Bondage free
   He feels his Soul inlarg'd.

3 His Spirit hates Deceit and Lyes,
   His Words are all sincere:
   He guards his Heart, he guards his Eyes,
   To keep his Conscience clear.

4 While I my inward Guilt supprest,
   No Quiet could I find;
   Thy Wrath lay burning in my Breast,
   And rack'd my tortur'd Mind.

5 Then I confess'd my troubled Thoughts,
   My secret Sins reveal'd;
   Thy pardoning Grace forgave my Faults,
   Thy Grace my Pardon seal'd.

6 This shall invite thy Saints to pray;
   When like a raging Flood
   Temptations rise, our Strength and Stay
   Is a forgiving God.
Psalm XXXII. First Part. Long Metre.

Repentance and Free Pardon; or, Justification and Sanctification.

1 Blest is the Man, for ever blest,
Whose Guilt is pardon'd by his God,
Whose Sins with Sorrow are confess'd,
And cover'd with his Saviour's Blood.

2 Blest is the Man to whom the Lord
Imputes not his Iniquities,
He pleads no Merit of Reward,
And not on Works, but Grace relies.

3 From Guile his Heart and Lips are free,
His humble Joy, his holy Fear,
With deep Repentance well agree,
And join to prove his Faith sincere.

4 How glorious is that Righteousness
That hides and cancels all his Sins!
While a bright Evidence of Grace
Thro' his whole Life appears and shines.

Psalm XXXII. Second Part. Long Metre.

A guilty Conscience eas'd by Confession and Pardon.

1 While I keep Silence and conceal
My heavy Guilt within my Heart,
What Torments doth my Conscience feel!
What Agonies of inward Smart!

2 I spread my Sins before the Lord,
And all my secret Faults confess;
Thy Gospel speaks a pard'n'ing Word,
Thine Holy Spirit seals the Grace.

3 For this shall every humble Soul
Make swift Address to thy Seat:

D

When
Psalm XXXIII.

When Floods of huge Temptations roll,
There shall they find a blest Retreat.

4 How safe beneath thy Wings I lie,
When Days grow dark, and Storms appear;
And when I walk, thy watchful Eye
Shall guide me safe from ev'ry Snare.

Psalm XXXIII. First Part. Common Metre.

Works of Creation and Providence.

1 Rejoice, ye Righteous, in the Lord,
This Work belongs to you:
Sing of his Name, his Ways, his Word,
How holy, just and true.

2 His Mercy and his Righteousness
Let Heaven and Earth proclaim;
His Works of Nature and of Grace
Reveal his wondrous Name.

3 His Wisdom and Almighty Word
The Heavenly Arches spread;
And by the Spirit of the Lord
Their shining Hoto's were made.

4 He bid the liquid Waters flow
To their appointed Deep;
The flowing Seas their Limits know,
And their own Station keep.

5 Ye Tenants of the spacious Earth,
With Fear before him stand;
He spake, and Nature took its Birth,
And rests on his Command.

6 He scorns the angry Nations Rage,
And breaks their vain Designs;
His Counsel stands thro' ev'ry Age,
And in full Glory shines.
Creatures vain, and GOD All-sufficient.

1. Blest is the Nation where the Lord
Hath fix'd his gracious Throne;
Where he reveals his heavenly Word,
And calls their Tribes his own.

2. His Eye with infinite Survey
Does the whole World behold;
He form'd us all of equal Clay,
And knows our feeble Mould.

3. Kings are not rescu'd by the Force
Of Armies from the Grave;
Nor Speed nor Courage of an Horse
Can the bold Rider save.

4. Vain is the Strength of Beasts or Men,
To hope for Safety thence;
But holy Souls from GOD obtain
A strong and sure Defence.

5. GOD is their Fear, and GOD their Trust:
When Plagues or Famine spread,
His watchful Eye secures the Just
Among ten thousand Dead.

6. Lord, let our Hearts in Thee rejoice,
And bless us from thy Throne;
For we have made thy Word our Choice,
And trust thy Grace alone.

Psalm XXXIII. As the 113th Psalm. First Part.
Works of Creation and Providence.

Ye holy Souls, in GOD rejoice,
Your Maker's Praise becomes your Voice.
Great is your Theme, your Songs be new:
Sing of his Name, his Word, his Ways,

His,
Psalm XXXIII.

His Works of Nature, and of Grace,
How wise and holy, just and true!

2 Justice and Truth he ever loves,
And the whole Earth his Goodness proves,
His Word the Heavenly Arches spread;
How wide they shine from North to South!
And by the Spirit of his Mouth
Were all the Starry Armies made.

3 He gathers the wide flowing Seas,
Tholc watry Treasures know their Place
In the vast Store-house of the Deep.
He spake, and gave all Nature Birth;
And Fires, and Seas, and Heaven, and Earth,
His everlasting Orders keep.

4 Let Mortals tremble and adore
A God of such resistless Power,
Nor dare indulge their feeble Rage:
Vain are your Thoughts, and weak your Hands;
But his eternal Council stands,
And rules the World from Age to Age.

Psalm XXXIII. As the 113th Psal. Second Part.
Creatures vain, and God All-sufficient.

1 O Happy Nation, where the Lord
Reveals the Treasure of his Word,
And builds his Church, his earthly Throne;
His Eye the Heathen World surveys,
He form'd their Hearts, he knows their Ways;
But God their Maker is unknown.

2 Let Kings rely upon their Host,
And of his Strength the Champion boast;
In vain they boast, in vain rely;
In vain we trust the brutal Force,
Or Speed, or Courage of an Horse,
To guard his Rider, or to fly.
The Eye of thy Compassion, Lord,
Doth more secure Defence afford
When Deaths or Dangers threat'ning stand:
Thy watchful Eye preserves the Jutt,
Who make thy Name their Fear and Trust,
When Wars or Famine waste the Land.

In Sickness or the bloody Field,
Thou our Physician, thou our Shield,
Send us Salvation from thy Throne;
We wait to see thy Goodness shine;
Let us rejoice in Help Divine,
For all our Hope is God alone.

Psalm XXXIV. First Part. Long Metre.

GOD's Care of the Saints; or, Deliverance by Prayer.

Lord, I will bless thee all my Days,
Thy Praise shall dwell upon my Tongue;
My Soul shall glory in thy Grace,
While Saints rejoice to hear the Song.

Come, magnify the Lord with me,
Come, let us all exalt his Name;
I sought th' eternal God, and He
Has not expos'd my Hope to Shame.

I told him all my secret Grief,
My secret Groaning reach'd his Ears!
He gave my inward Pains Relief,
And calm'd the Tumult of my Fears.

To him the Poor lift up their Eyes,
Their Faces feel the heavenly Shine;
A Beam of Mercy from the Skies
Fills them with Light and Joy divine.

His holy Angels pitch their Tents
Around the Men that serve the Lord.
Psalm XXXIV.

O fear and love him, all his Saints,
Taste of his Grace, and trust his Word.

6 The wild young Lions pinch'd with Pain
And Hunger, roar thro' all the Wood;
But none shall seek the Lord in vain,
Nor want Supplies of real Good.

Psalm XXXIV. 11—22. Second Part.
Long Metre.

Religious Education; or, Instructions of Piety.

1 Children in Years, and Knowledge young,
Your Parents Hope, your Parents Joy,
Attend the Counsels of my Tongue,
Let pious Thoughts your Minds employ.

2 If you desire a Length of Days,
And Peace to crown your mortal State,
Restrain your Feet from impious Ways,
Your Lips from Slander and Deceit.

3 The Eyes of God regard his Saints,
His Ears are open to their Cries;
He sets his frowning Face against
The Sons of Violence and Lies.

4 To humble Souls and broken Hearts
God with his Grace is ever nigh;
Pardon and Hope his Love imparts
When Men in deep Contrition lie.

5 He tells their Tears, he counts their Groans,
His Son redeems their Souls from Death;
His Spirit heals their broken Bones,
They in his Praise employ their Breath.
Psalm XXXIV. 1—10. First Part.
Common Metre.

Prayer and Praise for eminent Deliverance.

1 I'll bless the Lord from Day to Day;
   How good are all his Ways?
   Ye humble Souls that use to pray,
   Come, help my Lips to praise.

2 Sing to the Honour of his Name,
   How a poor Sufferer cry'd,
   Nor was his Hope expos'd to Shame,
   Nor was his Suit deny'd.

3 When threatening Sorrows round me stood,
   And endless Fears arose,
   Like the loud Billows of a Flood,
   Redoubling all my Woes;

4 I told the Lord my sore Distress,
   With heavy Groans and Tears,
   He gave my sharpest Torments Ease,
   And silenc'd all my Fears.

   Pause.

5 [O Sinners, come and taste his Love,
   Come, learn his pleasant Ways,
   And let your own Experience prove
   The Sweetness of his Grace.

6 He bids his Angels pitch their Tents
   Round where his Children dwell;
   What Ills their heavenly Care prevents
   No earthly Tongue can tell.]

7 [O love the Lord, ye Saints of his;
   His Eye regards the Just;
   How richly blest'd their Portion is
   Who make the Lord their Trust!]

Psalm XXXIV.

8 Young Lions pinch'd with Hunger roar,
   And famish in the Wood;
But God supplies his holy Poor
   With every needful Good.]

Psalm XXXIV. 11—22. Second Part.

Common Metre.

Exhortations to Peace and Holiness.

COME, Children, learn to fear the Lord,
   And that your Days be long,
Let not a false or spiteful Word
   Be found upon your Tongue.

Depart from Mischief, practise Love,
   Pursue the Works of Peace;
So shall the Lord your Ways approve,
   And set your Souls at Ease.

His Eyes awake to guard the Just,
   His Ears attend their Cry;
When broken Spirits dwell in Dust,
   The God of Grace is nigh.

What tho' the Sorrows here they taste
   Are sharp and tedious too,
The Lord, who saves them all at last,
   Is their Supporter now.

Evil shall smite the Wicked dead;
   But God secures his own,
Prevents the Mischief when they slide,
   Or heals the broken Bone.

When Desolation like a Flood
   O'er the proud Sinner rolls,
Saints find a Refuge in their God,
   For he redeem'd their Souls.
Psalm XXXV. 1 — 9. First Part.

Prayer and Faith of persecuted Saints; or, Impeccations mix'd with Charity.

1. Now plead my Cause, Almighty God,
   With all the Sons of Strife;
   And fight against the Men of Blood,
   Who fight against my Life.

2. Draw out thy Spear and stop their Way,
   Lift thy avenging Rod;
   But to my Soul in Mercy say,
   "I am thy Saviour GOD."

3. They plant their Snares to catch my Feet,
   And Nets of Mischief spread;
   Plunge the Destroyers in the Pit
   That their own Hands have made.

4. Let Fogs and Darkness hide their Way,
   And slippery be their Ground;
   Thy Wrath shall make their Lives a Prey,
   And all their Rage confound.

5. They fly like Chaff before the Wind,
   Before thine angry Breath;
   The Angel of the Lord behind
   Pursues them down to Death.

6. They love the Road that leads to Hell;
   Then let the Rebels die,
   Whose Malice is implacable
   Against the Lord on high.

7. But if thou hast a chosen Few
   Amongst that impious Race,
   Divide them from the bloody Crew
   By thy surprizing Grace.

8. Then
Psalm XXXV.

8 Then will I raise my tuneful Voice
   To make thy Wonders known:
In their Salvation I'll rejoice,
   And blest thee for my own.

Psalm XXXV. Ver 12, 13, 14. Second Part.

Love to Enemies; or, the Love of Christ to Sinners typify'd in David.

Behold the Love, the generous Love
   That holy David shows;
Hark, how his sounding Bowels move
   To his afflicted Foes!

When they are sick, his Soul complains,
   And seems to feel the Smart;
The Spirit of the Gospel reigns,
   And melts his pious Heart.

How did his flowing Tears condole
   As for a Brother dead!
And fasting mortify'd his Soul,
   While for their Life he pray'd.

They groan'd, and curs'd him on their Bed,
   Yet still he pleads and mourns;
And double Blessings on his Head
   The righteous God returns.

O glorious Type of heavenly Grace!
   Thus Christ the Lord appears;
While Sinners curse, the Saviour prays,
   And pities them with Tears.

He the true David, Israel's King,
   Blest and belov'd of God,
To save us Rebels dead in Sin
   Pay'd his own dearest Blood.
The Perfections and Providence of God; or, General Providence and Special Grace.

1 High in the Heavens, eternal God,
Thy Goodness in full Glory shines;
Thy Truth shall break thro' ev'ry Cloud
That veils and darkens thy Designs.

2 For ever firm thy Justice stands,
As Mountains their Foundations keep;
Wise are the Wonders of thy Hands;
Thy Judgments are a mighty Deep.

3 Thy Providence is kind and large,
Both Man and Beast thy Bounty share;
The whole Creation is thy Charge,
But Saints are thy peculiar Care.

4 My God! how excellent thy Grace;
Whence all our Hope and Comfort springs?
The Sons of Adam in Distress
Fly to the Shadow of thy Wings.

5 From the Provisions of thy House
We shall be fed with sweet Repast;
There Mercy like a River flows,
And brings Salvation to our Taste.

6 Life like a Fountain rich and free
Springs from the Presence of my Lord;
And in thy Light our Souls shall see
The Glories promis'd in thy Word.

Psalm XXXVI. 1, 2, 5, 6, 7, 9. Common Metre.
Practical Atheism expos'd; or, the Being and Attributes of God asserted.

While Men grow bold in wicked Ways,
And yet a God they own,
Psalm XXXVI.

My Heart within me often says,
"Their Thoughts believe there's none.

2 Their Thoughts and Ways at once declare
(Whate'er their Lips profess)
God hath no Wrath for them to fear,
Nor will they seek his Grace.

3 What strange Self-flattery blinds their Eyes!
But there's a hal'ning Hour
When they shall see with sore Surprize
The Terrors of thy Pow'r.

4 Thy Justice shall maintain its Throne,
Tho' Mountains melt away;
Thy Judgments are a World unknown,
A deep unfathom'd Sea.

5 Above these Heavens created Rounds,
Thy Mercies, Lord, extend:
Thy Truth out-lives the narrow Bounds
Where Time and Nature end.

6 Safety to Man thy Goodness brings,
Nor overlooks the Beast;
Beneath the Shadow of thy Wings
Thy Children chase to rest.

7 [From Thee, when Creature-streams run low,
And mortal Comforts die,
Perpetual Springs of Life shall flow,
And raise our Pleasures high.

8 Tho' all created Light decay,
And Death close up our Eyes,
Thy Presence makes eternal Day
Where Clouds can never rise.]
Psalm XXXVI. 1—7. Short Metre.
The Wickedness of Man, and the Majesty of God; or, Practical Atheism expos'd.

1 When Man grows bold in Sin,
   My Heart within me cries,
   "He hath no Faith of God within,
   "Nor Fear before his Eyes.

2 [He walks a while conceal'd
   In a Self-flatt'ring Dream,
   'Til his dark Crimes at once reveal'd,
   Expose his hateful Name.]

3 His Heart is false and foul,
   His Words are smooth and fair;
   Wisdom is banish'd from his Soul,
   And leaves no Goodness there.

4 He plots upon his Bed
   New Mischiefs to fulfil,
   He sets his Heart, and Hand, and Head
   To practise all that's ill.

5 But there's a dreadful God,
   Tho' Men renounce his Fear;
   His Justice hid behind the Cloud
   Shall one great Day appear.

6 His Truth transcends the Sky,
   In Heaven his Mercies dwell;
   Deep as the Sea his Judgments lie,
   His Anger burns to Hell.

7 How excellent his Love,
   Whence all our Safety springs!
   O never let my Soul remove
   From underneath his Wings.
Psalm XXXVII.

Psalm XXXVII. I — 15. First Part.

The Cure of Envy, Fretfulness, and Unbelief; or, The Rewards of the Righteous and the Wicked; or, The World's Hatred and the Saints Patience.

Why should I vex my Soul, and fret
To see the Wicked rise?
Or envy Sinners waxing great
By Violence and Lies?

As flow'ry Grass cut down at Noon,
Before the Evening fades,
So shall their Glories vanish soon
In everlasting Shades.

Then let me make the Lord my Trust,
And practise all that's good;
So shall I dwell among the Just,
And He'll provide me Food.

I to my God my Ways commit,
And cheerful wait his Will;
Thy Hand, which guides my doubtful Feet,
Shall my Desires fulfil.

Mine Innocence shalt thou display,
And make thy Judgments known,
Fair as the Light of dawning Day,
And glorious as the Noon.

The Meek at last the Earth possess,
And are the Heirs of Heav'n;
True Riches, with abundant Peace,
To humble Souls are giv'n.

Pause.

Rest in the Lord, and keep his Way,
Nor let your Anger rise,
Tho' Providence should long delay
To punish haughty Vice.
8 Let Sinners join to break your Peace,
   And plot, and rage, and foam;
The Lord derides them, for he sees
   Their Day of Vengeance come.

9 They have drawn out the threat'ning Sword,
   Have bent the murd'rous Bow,
   To slay the Men that fear the Lord,
   And bring the Righteous low.

10 My God shall break their Bows, and burn
   Their persecuting Darts,
   Shall their own Swords against them turn;
   And Pain surprize their Hearts.

Psalm XXXVII. 16, 21, 26—31. Second Part.
Charity to the Poor; or, Religion in Words and Deeds.

WHY do the wealthy Wicked boast,
   And grow profanely bold?
The meanest Portion of the Just Excels the Sinners Gold.

2 The Wicked borrows of his Friends,
   But ne'er designs to pay;
The Saint is merciful and lends,
   Nor turns the Poor away.

3 His Alms with lib'ral Heart he gives
   Amongst the Sons of Need;
   His Mem'ry to long Ages lives,
   And blessed is his Seed.

4 His Lips abhor to talk profane,
   To slander or defraud;
   His ready Tongue declares to Men
   What he has learn'd of God.

5 The Law and Gospel of the Lord
   Deep in his Heart abide;
Psalm XXXVII.

Led by the Spirit and the Word
His Feet shall never slide.

6 When Sinners fall, the Righteous stand,
Preserv'd from ev'ry Snare;
They shall possess the promis'd Land,
And dwell for ever there.

Psalm XXXVII. 23—37. Third Part.
The Way and End of the Righteous and the Wicked.

1 My God, the Steps of pious Men
Are order'd by thy Will;
Tho' they should fall, they rise again,
Thy Hand supports them still.

2 The Lord delights to see their Ways;
Their Virtue he approves:
He'll ne'er deprive them of his Grace,
Nor leave the Man he loves.

3 The heavenly Heritage is theirs,
Their Portion and their Home;
He feeds them now, and makes them Heirs
Of Blessings long to come.

4 Wait on the Lord, ye Sons of Men,
Nor fear when Tyrants frown;
Ye shall confess their Pride was vain
When Justice calls them down.

Pause.

5 The haughty Sinner have I seen
Not fearing Man nor God,
Like a tall Bay-Tree fair and green,
Spreading his Arms abroad.

6 And lo, he vanish'd from the Ground,
Destroy'd by Hands unseen;
Nor
Psalm XXXVIII.

Nor Root, nor Branch, nor Leaf was found
Where all that Pride had been.

7 But mark the Man of Righteousness,
His several Steps attend;
True Pleasure runs thro' all his Ways,
And peaceful is his End.

Psalm XXXVIII.

Guilt of Conscience and Relief; or, Repentance and Prayer for Pardon and Health.

1 Amidst thy Wrath remember Love,
Restore thy Servant, Lord,
Nor let a Father's Chast'ning prove
Like an Avenger's Sword.

2 Thine Arrows stick within my Heart,
My Flesh is sorely prey'd;
Between the Sorrow and the Smart
My Spirit finds no Rest.

3 My Sins a heavy Load appear,
And o'er my Head are gone;
Too heavy they for me to bear,
Too hard for me t' atone.

4 My Thoughts are like a troubled Sea,
My Head still bending down;
And I go mourning all the Day
Beneath my Father's Frown.

5 Lord, I am weak and broken sore,
None of my Pow'rs are whole;
The inward Anguish makes me roar,
The Anguish of my Soul.

6 All my Desire to Thee is known,
Thine Eye counts every Tear,
And every Sigh, and every Groan
Is notice'd by thine Ear.

7 Thou
Thou art my God, my only Hope;
My God will hear my Cry,
My God will bear my Spirit up
When Satan bids me die.

My Foot is ever apt to slide,
My Foes rejoice to see't;
They raise their Pleasure and their Pride
When they supplant my Feet.

But I'll confess my Guilt to Thee,
And grieve for all my Sin;
I'll mourn, how weak my Graces be,
And beg Support Divine.

My God, forgive my Follies past,
And be for ever nigh;
O Lord of my Salvation hast,
Before thy Servant die.

Psalm XXXIX. 1, 2, 3. First Part.

Watchfulness over the Tongue; or, Prudence and Zeal.

Thus I resolv'd before the Lord,
"Now will I watch my Tongue,
Left I let slip one sinful Word,
Or do my Neighbour Wrong.

And if I'm e'er constrain'd to stay
With Men of Lives profane,
I'll set a double Guard that Day,
Nor let my Talk be vain.

I'll scarce allow my Lips to speak
The pious Thoughts I feel,
Left Scoffers should th' Occasion take
To mock my holy Zeal.
Yet if some proper Hour appear,
I'll not be over-aw'd,
But let the scoffing Sinners hear
That we can speak for God.

Psalm XXXIX. 4, 5, 6, 7. Second Part.
The Vanity of Man as mortal.

Each me the Measure of my Days,
Thou Maker of my Frame;
I would survey Life's narrow Space,
And learn how frail I am.

A Span is all that we can boast,
An Inch or two of Time;
Man is but Vanity and Dust
In all his Flower and Prime.

See the vain Race of Mortals move
Like Shadows o'er the Plain,
They rage and strive, desire and love,
But all the noise is vain.

Some walk in Honour's gaudy Show,
Some dig for golden Ore,
They toil for Heirs they know not who,
And frail are seen no more.

What should I wish or wait for then
From Creatures, Earth and Dust?
They make our Expectations vain,
And disappoint our Trust.

Now I forbid my carnal Hope,
My fond Desires recall;
I give my mortal Interest up,
And make my God my All.
Psalm XXXIX. 9—13. Third Part.

Sick-Bed Devotion; or, Pleading without Repining.

1 God of my Life, look gently down,
    Behold the Pains I feel;
But I am dumb before thy Throne,
    Nor dare dispute thy Will.

2 Diseases are thy Servants, Lord,
    They come at thy Command;
I'll not attempt a murmuring Word,
    Against thy chast'ning Hand.

3 Yet I may plead with humble Cries,
    Remove thy sharp Rebukes:
My Strength consumes, my Spirit dies,
    Thro' thy repeated Strokes.

4 Crush'd as a Moth beneath thy Hand
    We moulder to the Dust;
Our feeble Pow'rs can ne'er withstand,
    And all our Beauty's loft.

5 [This mortal Life decays apace,
    How soon the Bubble's broke!
Adam and all his numerous Race
    Are Vanity and Smoke.]

6 I'm but a Sojourner below,
    As all my Fathers were;
May I be well prepar'd to go,
    When I the Summons hear!

7 But if my Life be spar'd a while Before my last Remove,
Thy Praise shall be my Businesse still,
    And I'll declare thy Love.
Psalm XL. 1, 2, 3, 5, 17. First Part. Com. Metre.

A Song of Deliverance from great Distress.

1 I waited patient for the Lord,
He bow'd to hear my Cry;
He saw me resting on his Word,
And brought Salvation nigh.

2 He rais'd me from a horrid Pit,
Where mourning long I lay,
And from my Bonds releas'd my Feet,
Deep Bonds of miry Clay.

3 Firm on a Rock he made me stand,
And taught my cheerful Tongue
To praise the Wonders of his Hand
In a new thankful Song.

4 I'll spread his Works of Grace abroad;
The Saints with Joy shall hear,
And Sinners learn to make my God
Their only Hope and Fear.

5 How many are thy Thoughts of Love;
Thy Mercies, Lord, how great!
We have not Words nor Hours enough
Their Numbers to repeat.

6 When I'm afflicted, poor and low,
And Light and Peace depart,
My God beholds my heavy Woe,
And bears me on his Heart.

The Incarnation and Sacrifice of Christ.

1 Thus saith the Lord, "Your Work is vain,
"Give your Burnt-Offerings o'er,
"In dying Goats and Bullocks slain
"My Soul delights no more.

2 Then
Psalm XL.

2 Then spake the Saviour, "Lo, I'm here,
   "My God, to do thy Will;
   "Whate'er thy sacred Books declare
   "Thy Servant shall fulfil.

3 "Thy Law is ever in my Sight,
   "I keep it near my Heart:
   "Mine Ears are open'd with Delight
   "To what thy Lips impart.

4 And see, the blest Redeemer comes,
   Th' Eternal Son appears,
   And at th' appointed Time assumes
   The Body God prepares.

5 Much he reveal'd his Father's Grace,
   And much his Truth he shew'd,
   And preach'd the Way of Righteousness
   Where great Assemblies stood.

6 His Father's Honour touch'd his Heart,
   He pity'd Sinners Cries,
   And to fulfil a Saviour's Part
   Was made a Sacrifice.

   Pause.

7 No Blood of Beasts on Altars shed
   Could wash the Conscience clean;
   But the rich Sacrifice he paid,
   Atones for all our Sin.

8 Then was the great Salvation spread,
   And Satan's Kingdom shook;
   Thus by the Woman's promis'd Seed
   The Serpent's Head was broke.
Psalm XL.

Psalm XL. 5—10. Long Metre.

Christ our Sacrifice.

1. The Wonders, Lord, thy Love has wrought,
   Exceed our Praise, surmount our Thought:
   Should I attempt the long Detail,
   My Speech would faint, my Numbers fail.

2. No Blood of Beasts on Altars spilt
   Can cleanse the Souls of Men from Guilt;
   But thou hast set before our Eyes
   An All-sufficient Sacrifice.

3. Lo! thine eternal Son appears,
   To thy Designs he bows his Ears;
   Assumes a Body well prepar'd,
   And well performs a Work so hard.

4. "Behold, I come, (the Saviour cries,
   With Love and Duty in his Eyes)
   "I come to bear the heavy Load
   "Of Sins, and do thy Will, my God.

5. "'Tis written in thy great Decree,
   'Tis in thy Book foretold of Me,
   "I must fulfil the Saviour's Part,
   "And lo! thy Law is in my Heart.

6. "I'll magnify thy holy Law,
   "And Rebels to Obedience draw,
   "When on my Crofs I'm lifted high,
   "Or to my Crown above the Sky.

7. "The Spirit shall descend and show
   "What thou hast done, and what I do;
   "The wond'ring World shall learn thy Grace,
   "Thy Wisdom and thy Righteousnes.
Psalm XLII. 1—5. First Part.

Desertion and Hope; or, Complaint of Absence from publick Worship.

1 With earnest Longings of the Mind,
My God, to Thee I look;
So pants the hunted Hart to find
And taste the cooling Brook.

2 When shall I see thy Courts of Grace,
And meet my God again?
So long an Absence from thy Face
My Heart endures with Pain.

3 Temptations vex my weary Soul,
And Tears are my Repast;
Psalm XLII.

The foe insults without control.

"And where's your God at last?"

4 'Tis with a mournful pleasure now
Think on ancient days:
Then to thy house did numbers go,
And all our work was praise.

5 But why, my soul, sink down so far
Beneath this heavy load?
Why do my thoughts indulge despair,
And sin against my God?

6 Hope in the Lord, whose mighty hand
Can all thy woes remove;
For I shall yet before him stand,
And sing restoring love.

Psalm XLII. 6—11. Second Part.

Melancholy thoughts reproved; or, Hope in Afflictions.

My spirit sinks within me, Lord,
But I will call thy name to mind,
And times of past distress record,
When I have found my God was kind.

2 Huge troubles with tumultuous noise
Swell like a sea, and round me spread;
Thy water-spouts drown all my joys,
And rising waves roll o'er my head.

3 Yet will the Lord command his love
When I address his throne by day,
Nor in the night his grace remove;
The night shall hear me sing and pray.

4 I'll cast myself before his feet,
And say, "My God, my heavenly rock,
"Why doth thy love so long forget
"The soul that groans beneath thy stroke?"

5 I'll
5 I'll chide my Heart that sinks so low,
Why should my Soul indulge her Grief?
Hope in the Lord, and praise him too;
He is my Rest, my sure Relief.

6 Thy Light and Truth shall guide me still,
Thy Word shall my best Thoughts employ,
And lead me to thine heavenly Hill,
My God, my most exceeding Joy.

Psalm XLIV. 1, 2, 3, 8, 15—26.
The Church's Complaint in Persecution.

1 LORD, we have heard thy Works of old,
Thy Works of Pow'r and Grace,
When to our Ears our Fathers told
The Wonders of their Days.

2 How thou didn't build thy Churches here,
And make thy Gospel known;
Amongst them did thine Arm appear,
Thy Light and Glory shone.

3 In God they boasted all the Day,
And in a cheerful Throng
Did Thousands meet to praise and pray,
And Grace was all their Song.

4 But now our Souls are seiz'd with Shame,
Confusion fills our Face,
To hear the Enemy blaspheme,
And Fools reproach thy Grace.

5 Yet have we not forgot our God,
Nor falsely dealt with Heav'n,
Nor have our Steps declin'd the Road
Of Duty thou hast giv'n.

6 'Th' Dragons all around us roar
With their destructive Breath,
Psalm XLV.

And thine own Hand has bruised us sore
Hard by the Gates of Death.

We are expos’d all Day to die
As Martyrs for thy Cause,
As Sheep for Slaughter bound we lie
By sharp and bloody Laws.

Awake, arise, Almighty Lord,
Why sleeps thy wonted Grace?
Why should we look like Men abhor’d,
Or banish’d from thy Face?

Wilt thou for ever cast us off,
And still neglect our Cries?
For ever hide thine heavenly Love
From our afflicted Eyes?

Down to the Dust our Soul is bow’d,
And dies upon the Ground;
Rise for our Help, rebuke the Proud,
And all their Pow’rs confound.

Redeem us from perpetual Shame,
Our Saviour and our God;
We plead the Honours of thy Name,
The Merits of thy Blood.

Psalm XLV. Short Metre.

Glory of Christ; The Success of the Gospel; and
The Gentile Church.

My Saviour and my King,
Thy Beauties are Divine;
 Thy Lips with Blessings overflow,
And every Grace is thine.

Now make thy Glory known,
Gird on thy dreadful Sword,
And ride in Majesty to spread
The Conquests of thy Word.

3 Strike thro' thy stubborn Foes,
Or melt their Hearts t' obey,
While Justice, Meekness, Grace and Truth
Attend thy glorious Way.

4 Thy Laws, O God, are right;
Thy Throne shall ever stand;
And thy victorious Gospel proves
A Scepter in thy Hand.

5 [Thy Father and thy God
Hath without Measure shed
His Spirit like a joyful Oil
T' anoint thy sacred Head.

6 [Behold, at thy Right-hand
The Gentile Church is seen,
Like a fair Bride in rich Attire,
And Princes guard the Queen.]

7 Fair Bride, receive his Love,
Forget thy Father's House;
Forfake thy Gods, thy Idol-Gods,
And pay thy Lord thy Vows.

8 O let thy God and King
Thy sweetest Thoughts employ;
Thy Children shall his Honour sing
In Palaces of Joy.

Psalm XLV. Common Metre.
The Personal Glories and Government of Christ.

1 I'll speak the Honours of my King;
His Form divinely fair;
None of the Sons of mortal Race
May with the Lord compare.
2 Sweet is thy Speech, and heavenly Grace
   Upon thy Lips is shed;
    Thy God with Blessings infinite
   Hath crown’d thy sacred Head.
3 Gird on thy Sword, victorious Prince;
    Ride with Majestick Sway;
    Thy Terrors shall strike thro’ thy Foes,
    And make the World obey.
4 Thy Throne, O God, for ever stands;
    Thy Word of Grace shall prove
    A peaceful Scepter in thy Hands,
    To rule the Saints by Love.
5 Justice and Truth attend thee still,
    But Mercy is thy Choice;
    And God, thy God, thy Soul shall fill
    With most peculiar Joys.

Psalm XLV. First Part. Long Metre.

NOW be my Heart inspir’d to sing
   The Glories of my Saviour-King,
Jesus the Lord; how heavenly fair
   His Form! how bright his Beauties are!

2 O’er all the Sons of human Race
He shines with a superior Grace,
Love from his Lips divinely flows,
   And Blessings all his State compose.
3 Dres thee in Arms, most mighty Lord,
Gird on the Terror of thy Sword,
   In Majesty and Glory ride
   With Truth and Meekness at thy Side.
4 Thine Anger like a pointed Dart
   Shall pierce the Foes of stubborn Heart;

E 3

Or
Psalm XLV.

Or Words of Mercy kind and sweet
Shall melt the Rebels at thy Feet.

5 Thy Throne, O God, for ever stands,
Grace is the Scepter in thy Hands;
Thy Laws and Works are just and right,
Justice and Grace are thy Delight.

6 God, thine own God, has richly shed
His Oil of Gladness on thy Head,
And with his sacred Spirit blest
His first-born Son above the rest.

Psalm XLV. Second Part. - Long Metre.

Christ and his Church; or, The Mystical Marriage.

1 The King of Saints, how fair his Face,
Adorn'd with Majesty and Grace!
He comes with Blessings from above,
And wins the Nations to his Love.

2 At his Right-hand our Eyes behold
The Queen array'd in purest Gold;
The World admires her heavenly Dress;
Her Robe of Joy and Righteousness.

3 He forms her Beauties like his own,
He calls and seats her near his Throne:
Fair Stranger, let thine Heart forget
The Idols of thy native State.

4 So shall the King the more rejoice
In thee the Favourite of his Choice;
Let him be lov'd, and yet ador'd,
For He's thy Maker and thy Lord.

5 O happy Hour, when thou shalt rise
To his fair Palace in the Skies,
And all thy Sons (a numerous Train)
Each like a Prince in Glory reign!
Psalm XLVI.

Let endless Honours crown his Head:
Let ev'ry Age his Prais'les spread;
While we with cheerfull Songs approve
The Condescensions of his Love.

Psalm XLVI. First Part.

The Church's Safety and Triumph among National Desolations.

1. God is the Refuge of his Saints,
When Storms of sharp Distress invade;
Ere we can offer our Complaints
Behold him present with his Aid.

2. Let Mountains from their Seats be hurl'd
Down to the Deep, and buried there;
Convulsions shake the solid World,
Our Faith shall never yield to Fear.

3. Loud may the troubled Ocean roar,
In sacred Peace our Souls abide,
While ev'ry Nation, ev'ry Shore
Trembles and dreads the dwelling Tide.

4. There is a Stream whose gentle Flow
Supplies the City of our God;
Life, Love, and Joy still gliding thro',
And wat'ring our divine Abode.

5. That sacred Stream, thine holy Word,
That all our raging Fear controuls:
Sweet Peace thy Promises afford,
And give new Strength to fainting Souls.

6. Zion enjoys her Monarch's Love,
Secure against a threat'ning Hour;
Nor can her firm Foundations move,
Built on his Truth, and arm'd with Pow'r.
PSALM XLVI.

PSALM XLVI. Second Part.
GOD fights for his Church.

1 Let Sion in her King rejoice,
Tho' Tyrants rage, and Kingdoms rise;
He utters his Almighty Voice,
The Nations melt, the Tumult dies.

2 The Lord of old for Jacob fought,
And Jacob's God is still our Aid;
Behold the Works his Hand has wrought,
What Desolations he has made.

3 From Sea to Sea thro' all the Shores
He makes the Noife of Battle cease;
When from on high his Thunder roars,
He awes the trembling World to Peace.

4 He breaks the Bow, he cuts the Spear,
Chariots he burns with heavenly Flame;
Keep Silence all the Earth, and hear
The Sound and Glory of his Name.

5 " Be still, and learn that I am God,
" I'll be exalted o'er the Lands,
" I will be known and fear'd abroad,
" But still my Throne in Sion stands.

6 O Lord of Hosts, Almighty King,
While we so near thy Presence dwell,
Our Faith shall sit secure, and sing
Defiance to the Gates of Hell.

PSALM XLVII.

Christ Ascending and Reigning.

1 For a Shout of sacred Joy
To God the sovereign King!
Let ev'ry Land their Tongues employ,
And Hymnus of Triumph sing.

2 Jesu
Psalm XLVIII.

2 Jesus our God ascends on high;
   His heavenly Guards around
Attend him rising thro' the Sky,
   With Trumpets joyful Sound.

3 While Angels shout and praise their King,
   Let Mortals learn their Strains:
Let all the Earth his Honours sing;
   O'er all the Earth he reigns.

4 Rehearse his Praise with Awe profound,
   Let Knowledge lead the Song,
Nor mock him with a solemn Sound
   Upon a thoughtless Tongue.

5 In Israel stood his ancient Throne,
   He lov'd that chosen Race;
But now he calls the World his own,
   And Heathens taste his Grace.

6 The British Islands are the Lord's,
   There Abraham's God is known,
While Powers and Princes, Shields and Swords
   Submit before his Throne.

Psalm XLVIII. 1—8. First Part.

The Church is the Honour and Safety of a Nation.

1 Great is the Lord our God,
   And let his Praise be great;
He makes his Churches his Abode,
   His most delightful Seat.

2 These Temples of his Grace,
   How beautiful they stand?
The Honours of our Native Place,
   And Bulwarks of our Land.

3 In Sion God is known
   A Refuge in Distress;
   How
How bright has his Salvation shone
Thro' all her Palaces!

4 When Kings against her join'd,
And saw the Lord was there,
In wild Confusion of the Mind
They fled with hasty Fear.

5 When Navies tall and proud
Attempt to spoil our Peace,
He sends his Tempest roaring loud,
And sinks them in the Seas.

6 Oft have our Fathers told,
Our Eyes have often seen,
How well our God secures the Fold
Where his own Sheep have been.

7 In every new Distress
We'll to his House repair,
We'll think upon his wond'rous Grace,
And seek Deliverance there.

The Beauty of the Church; or, Gospel Worship and Order.

1 Far as thy Name is known
The World declares thy Praise;
Thy Saints, O Lord, before thy Throne
Their Songs of Honour raise.

2 With Joy let Judah stand
On Sion's chosen Hill,
Proclaim the Wonders of thy Hand,
And Counsels of thy Will.

4 Let Strangers walk around
The City where we dwell,
Compass and view thine holy Ground,
And mark the Building well:

4 The Orders of thy House,
The Worship of thy Court,
The cheerful Songs, the solemn Vows,
And make a fair Report.

5 How decent and how wise!
How glorious to behold!
Beyond the Pomp that charms the Eyes,
And Rites adorn'd with Gold.

6 The God we worship now
Will guide us till we die,
Will be our God while here below,
And ours above the Sky.

Pride and Death; or, The Vanity of Life and Riches.

1 Why doth the Man of Riches grow
To Insolence and Pride,
To see his Wealth and Honours flow
With ev'ry rising Tide?

2 [Why doth he treat the Poor with Scorn,
Made of the self-same Clay,
And boast as tho' his Flesh were born
Of better Dust than they?]

3 Not all his Treasures can procure
His Soul a short Reprieve,
Redeem from Death one guilty Hour,
Or make his Brother live.

4 [Life is a Blessing can't be sold,
The Ransom is too high;
Justice will ne'er be brib'd with Gold,
That Man may never die.

5 He
Psalm LIX.

5 He sees the Brutish and the Wife,
The Timorous and the Brave
Quit their Possessions, close their Eyes,
And hasten to the Grave.

6 Yet 'tis his inward Thought and Pride,
   " My House shall ever stand;"
   " And that my Name may long abide"
   " I'll give it to my Land."

7 Vain are his Thoughts, his Hopes are lost,
   How soon his Memory dies!
   His Name is written in the Dust
   Where his own Carcass lies.]

Pause.

8 This is the Folly of their Way;
   And yet their Sons as vain
Approve the Words their Fathers say,
   And act their Works again.

9 Men void of Wisdom and of Grace,
   If Honour raise them high,
Live like the Beast, a thoughtless Race,
   And like the Beast they die.

10 [Laid in the Grave like silly Sheep,
   Death feeds upon them there,
Till the last Trumpet break their Sleep
   In Terror and Despair.]

Psalm LIX. Ver. 14, 15. Second Part.
Common Metre.

Death, and the Resurrection.

Ye Sons of Pride, that hate the Just,
   And trample on the Poor,
When Death has brought you down to Dust
   Your Pomp shall rise no more.

2 The
Psalm XLIX. Long Metre.

The rich Sinner's Death, and the Saint's Resurrection.

1 Why do the Proud insult the Poor,
And boast the large Estates they have!
How vain are Riches to secure
Their haughty Owners from the Grave!

2 They can't redeem one Hour from Death
With all the Wealth in which they trust;
Nor give a dying Brother Breath,
When God commands him down to Dust.

3 There the dark Earth and dismal Shade
Shall clasp their naked Bodies round;
That Flesh so delicately fed
Lies cold, and moulders in the Ground.

4 Like thoughtless Sheep the Sinner dies,
Laid in the Grave for Worms to eat:
The Saints shall in the Morning rise,
And find th' Oppressor at their Feet.

5 His Honours perish in the Dust,
And Pomp, and Beauty, Birth, and Blood;
That
That glorious Day exalts the Just
To full Dominion o'er the Proud.

6 My Saviour shall my Life restore,
And raise me from my dark Abode:
My Flesh and Soul shall part no more;
But dwell for ever near my God.

The last Judgment; or, The Saints rewarded.

1 The Lord, the Judge before his Throne
Bids the whole Earth draw nigh,
The Nations near the rising Sun,
And near the Western Sky.

2 No more shall bold Blasphemerst say,
"Judgment will ne'er begin;
No more abuse his long Delay
To Impudence and Sin.

3 Thron'd on a Cloud our God shall come,
Bright Flames prepare his Way,
Thunder and Darkness, Fire and Storm
Lead on the dreadful Day.

4 Heav'n from above his Call shall hear,
Attending Angels come,
And Earth and Hell shall know, and fear
His Justice, and their Doom.

5 "But gather all my Saints (he cries)
"That made their Peace with God
"By the Redeemer's Sacrifice,
"And seal'd it with his Blood.

6 "Their Faith and Works brought forth to Light
"Shall make the World confess
"My Sentence of Reward is right,
"And Heaven adore my Grace.
Psalm L. Ver. 10, 11, 14, 15, 23. 2d Part.
Common Metre.

Obedience is better than Sacrifice.

1 Thus faith the Lord, “The spacious Fields,
   “And Flocks and Herds are mine,
   “O’er all the Cattle of the Hills
   “I claim a Right divine.

2 “I ask no Sheep for Sacrifice,
   “Nor Bullocks burnt with Fire;
   “To hope and love, to pray and praise,
   “Is all that I require.

3 “Call upon me when Trouble’s near,
   “My Hand shall set thee free;
   “Then shall thy thankful Lips declare
   “The Honour due to Me.

4 “The Man that offers humble Praise,
   “He glorifies Me best;
   “And those that tread my holy Ways
   “Shall my Salvation taste.

Psalm L. Ver. 1, 5, 8, 16, 21, 22. Third Part.
Common Metre.

The Judgment of Hypocrites.

1 When Christ to Judgment shall descend,
   And Saints surround their Lord,
He calls the Nations to attend,
   And hear his awful Word.

2 “Not for the Want of Bullocks slain
   “Will I the World reprove;
   “Altars and Rites, and Forms are vain
   “Without the Fire of Love.

3 “And
Psalm L.

3 "And what have Hypocrites to do
   "To bring their Sacrifice?
   "They call my Statutes just and true,
   "But deal in Theft and Lies.

4 "Could you expect to 'scape my Sight,
   "And sin without Controil?
   "But I shall bring your Crimes to Light
   "With Anguish in your Soul.

5 Consider, ye that fly the Lord,
   Before his Wrath appear;
   If once you fall beneath his Sword,
   There's no Deliverer there.

Psalm L. Third Part. Long Metre.

Hypocrisy expos'd.

1 The Lord the Judge his Churches warns,
   Let Hypocrites attend and fear,
   Who place their Hope in Rites and Forms,
   But make not Faith nor Love their Care.

2 Vile Wretches dare rehearse his Name
   With Lips of Falshood and Deceit;
   A Friend or Brother they defame,
   And sooth and flatter those they hate.

3 They watch to do their Neighbours wrong,
   Yet dare to seek their Maker's Face;
   They take his Covenant on their Tongue,
   But break his Laws, abuse his Grace.

4 To Heav'n they lift their Hands unclean,
   Defil'd with Luit, defil'd with Blood;
   By Night they practise every Sin,
   By Day their Mouths draw near to God.

5 And while his Judgments long delay,
   They grow secure and sin the more;

They
They think he sleeps as well as they,
And put far off the dreadful Hour.

6 O dreadful Hour! when God draws near,
And sets their Crimes before their Eyes!
His Wrath their guilty Souls shall tear,
And no Deliverer dare to rise.

Psalm L. To a New Tune.

The last Judgment.

1 THE Lord, the Sovereign, sends his Summons
Calls the South Nations, and awakes the North;
From East to West the sounding Order’s spread
Thro' distant Worlds and Regions of the Dead:
No more shall Atheists mock his long Delay;
His Vengeance sleeps no more: behold the Day.

Tempest and Fire attend him down the Sky:

Sinners, awake betimes; ye Fools, be wise; Awake before this dreadful Morning rise: [amend, Change your vain Thoughts, your crooked Works Fly to the Saviour, make the Judge your Friend:

Then join the Saints: Wake every cheerful Passion; When Christ returns, he comes for your Salvation.

Psalm LI. First Part. Long Metre.

A Penitent pleading for Pardon.

1 SHEW Pity, Lord, O Lord, forgive, Let a repenting Rebel live; Are not thy Mercies large and free; May not a Sinner trust in Thee?

2 My Crimes are great, but not surpass The Power and Glory of thy Grace: Great God, thy Nature hath no Bound, So let thy pardoning Love be found.

3 O wash my Soul from every Sin, And make my guilty Conscience clean; Here on my Heart the Burden lies, And past Offences pain mine Eyes.

4 My Lips with Shame my Sins confess Against thy Law, against thy Grace: Lord, should thy Judgment grow severe, I am condemn'd, but thou art clear.

5 Should sudden Vengeance seize my Breath, I must pronounce Thee just in Death:

And
And if my Soul were sent to Hell,
Thy righteous Law approves it well.

6 Yet save a trembling Sinner, Lord,
Whose Hope still hovering round thy Word,
Would light on some sweet Promise there,
Some sure Support against Despair.

Psalm LI. Second Part. Long Metre:
Original and actual Sin confessed.

1 LORD, I am vile, conceived in Sin;
And born unholy and unclean;
Sprung from the Man whose guilty Fall
Corrupts the Race, and taints us All.

2 Soon as we draw our Infant-Breath,
The Seeds of Sin grow up for Death;
Thy Law demands a perfect Heart;
But we're defil'd in every Part.

[Great God, create my Heart a-new,
And form my Spirit pure and true:
O make me wise betimes, to spy
My Danger and my Remedy.]

4 Behold I fall before thy Face;
My only Refuge is thy Grace:
No outward Forms can make me clean;
The Leprosy lies deep within.

5 No bleeding Bird, nor bleeding Beast,
Nor Hyslop-branch, nor sprinkling Priest,
Nor running Brook, nor Flood, nor Sea,
Can wash the dismal Stain away.

6 Jesh, my God, thy Blood alone
With Power sufficient to atone;
Thy Blood can make me white as Snow;
No Jewish Types could cleanse me so.

7 While
While Guilt disturbs and breaks my Peace,
Nor Flesh nor Soul hath Rest or Ease;
Lord, let me hear thy pardoning Voice,
And make my broken Bones rejoice.

Psalm LI. Third Part. Long Metre.
The Backslider restor'd; or, Repentance and Faith in the Blood of Christ.

O Thou that hearest when Sinners cry,
Tho' all my Crimes before thee lie,
Behold them not with angry Look,
But blot their Memory from thy Book.

Create my Nature pure within,
And form my Soul averse to Sin:
Let thy good Spirit ne'er depart,
Nor hide thy Presence from my Heart.

I cannot live without thy Light,
Cast out and banish'd from thy Sight:
Thine holy Joys, my God, restore,
And guard me that I fall no more.

Tho' I have griev'd thy Spirit, Lord,
His Help and Comfort still afford:
And let a Wretch come near thy Throne
To plead the Merits of thy Son.

A broken Heart, my God, my King,
Is all the Sacrifice I bring;
The God of Grace will ne'er despise
A broken Heart for Sacrifice.

My Soul lies humbled in the Dust,
And owns thy dreadful Sentence just;
Look down, O Lord, with pitying Eye,
And save the Soul condemn'd to die.
Psalm LI. 113

7 Then will I teach the World thy Ways;
Sinners shall learn thy sovereign Grace;
I'll lead them to my Saviour's Blood,
And they shall praise a pardoning God.

8 O may thy Love inspire my Tongue!
Salvation shall be all my Song;
And all my Powers shall join to bless
The Lord my Strength and Righteousness.

Original and Actual Sin confessed and pardoned.

1 LORD, I would spread my sore Distress
And Guilt before thine Eyes;
Against thy Laws, against thy Grace
How high my Crimes arise!

2 Shouldst thou condemn my Soul to Hell,
And crush my Flesh to Dust,
Heav'n would approve thy Vengeance well,
And Earth must own it just.

3 I from the Stock of Adam came,
Unholy and unclean;
All my Original is Shame,
And all my Nature Sin.

4 Born in a World of Guilt, I drew
Contagion with my Breath;
And as my Days advanc'd I grew
A safer Prey for Death.

5 Cleanse me, O Lord, and cheer my Soul
With thy forgiving Love;
O make my broken Spirit whole,
And bid my Pains remove.

6 Let not thy Spirit quite depart,
Nor drive me from thy Face;
Create anew my vicious Heart,
And fill it with thy Grace.

7 Then will I make thy Mercy known
Before the Sons of Men;
Backsliders shall address thy Throne,
And turn to God again.

Repentance and Faith in the Blood of Christ.

1 O God of Mercy, hear my Call,
My Loads of Guilt remove,
Break down this separating Wall
That bars me from thy Love.

2 Give me the Presence of thy Grace,
Then my rejoicing Tongue
Shall speak aloud thy Righteousness,
And make thy Praise my Song.

3 No Blood of Goats, nor Heifer slain
For Sin cou'd e'er atone;
The Death of Christ shall still remain
Sufficient and alone.

4 A Soul opprest with Sin's Desert
My God will ne'er despise;
A humble Groan, a broken Heart
Is our best Sacrifice.

Psalm LIII. 4—6.
Victory and Deliverance from Persecution.

Psalm LV. 1—8, 16, 17, 18, 22. Com. Metre.

Support for the afflicted and tempted Soul.

1 O God, my Refuge, hear my Cries,
    Behold my flowing Tears,
For Earth and Hell my Hurt devise,
    And triumph in my Fears.

2 Their Rage is levell'd at my Life,
    My Soul with Guilt they load,
And fill my Thoughts with inward Strife,
    To shake my Hope in God.

3 With inward Pain my Heart-strings found,
    I groan with every Breath;
Horror and Fear beiset me round
    Amongst the Shades of Death.

4 O were I like a feather'd Dove,
    And Innocence had Wings;
I'd fly, and make a long Remove
    From all these restless Things.

5 Let me to some wild Desart go,
    And find a peaceful Home,
Where Storms of Malice never blow,
    Temptations never come.
6 Vain Hopes, and vain Inventions all
   To 'scape the Rage of Hell!
The mighty God on whom I call
   Can save me here as well.

   At Noon repeat my Cry,
   The Night shall hear me ask his Grace,

   Or shield me when afraid;
   Ten thousand Angels must appear
   If he command their Aid.

9 I cast my Burdens on the Lord,
   The Lord sustains them all;
   My Courage rests upon his Word
   That Saints shall never fail.

10 My highest Hopes shall not be vain,
   My Lips shall spread his Praise;

PSALM LV. Ver. 15, 16, 17, 19, 22. Short Me
Dangerous Prosperity; or, Daily Devotions encourag'd.

1 Let Sinners take their Course,
   And choose the Road to Death;
But in the Worship of my God
   I'll spend my daily Breath.

   When Morning brings the Light;
I seek his Blessing every Noon,
   And pay my Vows at Night.
Psalm LVI.

3 Thou wilt regard my Cries,
O my eternal God,
While Sinners perish in Surprize
Beneath thine angry Rod.

4 Because they dwell at Ease,
And no sad Changes feel,
They neither fear nor trust thy Name
Nor learn to do thy Will.

5 But I with all my Cares,
Will lean upon the Lord,
I’ll cast my Burdens on his Arm,
And rest upon his Word.

The Children of his Love;
The Ground on which their Safety stands
No earthly Power can move.

Psalm LVI.

Deliverance from Oppression and Falsehood; or, GOD’s Care of his People in Answer to Faith and Prayer.

1 O Thou whose Justice reigns on high,
And makes th’ Oppressor cease,
Behold how envious Sinners try
To vex and break my Peace!

2 The Sons of Violence and Lies
Join to devour me, Lord;
But as my hourly Dangers rise,
My Refuge is thy Word.

3 In God most holy, just, and true,
I have repos’d my Trust;
Nor will I fear what Flesh can do,
The Offspring of the Dull.
4 They wrest my Words to Mischief still,
  Charge me with unknown Faults;
  Mischief doth all their Counsels fill,
  And Malice all their Thoughts.

5 Shall they escape without thy Frown?
 Must their Devices stand?
O call the haughty Sinner down,
And let him know thy Hand!

PAUSE.

6 God counts the Sorrows of his Saints,
Their Groans affect his Ears;
Thou hast a Book for my Complaints,
A Bottle for my Tears.

7 When to thy Throne I raise my Cry,
The Wicked fear and flee;
So swift is Prayer to reach the Sky,
So near is God to me.

8 In Thee, most holy, just, and true,
I have repos'd my Trust;
Nor will I fear what Man can do,
The Offspring of the Dust.

9 Thy solemn Vows are on me, Lord,
Thou shalt receive my Praise;
I'll sing, How faithful is thy Word;
How righteous all thy Ways!

10 Thou hast secur'd my Soul from Death,
O set thy Pris'ner free,
That Heart and Hand, and Life and Breath
May be employ'd for Thee.
Psalm LVII.

Praise for Protection, Grace and Truth.

1 My God, in whom are all the Springs
   Of boundless Love and Grace unknown,
   Hide me beneath thy spreading Wings
   Till the dark Cloud is overblown.

2 Up to the Heavens I send my Cry,
   The Lord will my Desires perform;
   He sends his Angel from the Sky,
   And saves me from the threatening Storm.

3 Be thou exalted, O my God,
   Above the Heav'ns where Angels dwell;
   Thy Power on Earth be known abroad,
   And Land to Land thy Wonders tell.

4 My Heart is fix'd; my Song shall raise
   Immortal Honours to thy Name;
   Awake, my Tongue, to found his Praise,
   My Tongue, the Glory of my Frame.

5 High o'er the Earth his Mercy reigns,
   And reaches to the utmost Sky;
   His Truth to endless Years remains,
   When lower Worlds dissolve and die.

6 Be thou exalted, O my God,
   Above the Heav'ns where Angels dwell;
   Thy Power on Earth be known abroad,
   And Land to Land thy Wonders tell.

Psalm LVIII. As the 113th Psalm.

Warning to Magistrates.

1 Judges, who rule the World by Laws,
   Will ye despise the righteous Cause,
   When th' injur'd Poor before you stands?
   Dare
Psalm LⅧ

Dare ye condemn the righteous Poor,
And let rich Sinners scape secure,
While Gold and Greatness bribe your Hands!

2 Have ye forgot, or never knew
That God will judge the Judges too?
High in the Heavens his Justice reigns;
Yet you invade the Rights of God,
And send your bold Decrees abroad
To bind the Conscience in your Chains.

3 A poison'd Arrow is your Tongue,
The Arrow sharp, the Poison strong,
And Death attends where-e'er it wounds:
You hear no Counsels, Cries or Tears;
So the deaf Adder stops her Ears
Against the Pow'r of charming Sounds.

4 Break out their Teeth, eternal God,
Those Teeth of Lions dy'd in Blood;
And crush the Serpents in the Dust:
As empty Chaff, when Whirlwinds rise,
Before the sweeping Tempest flies,
So let their Hopes and Names be lost.

5 'Th' Almighty thunders from the Sky,
Their Grandeur melts, their Titles die,
As Hills of Snow dissolve and run,
Or Snakes that perish in their Slime,
Or Births that come before their Time,
Vain Births that never see the Sun.

6 Thus shall the Vengeance of the Lord
Safety and Joy to Saints afford;
And all that hear shall join and say,
"Sure there's a God that rules on high,
A God that hears his Children cry,
And will their Sufferings well repay."
Psalm LX.

Psalm LX. 1—5, 10—12.

On a Day of Humiliation for Disappointments in War.

1 LORD, hast thou cast the Nation off; Must we for ever mourn; Wilt thou indulge immortal Wrath; Shall Mercy ne'er return;

2 The Terror of one Frown of thine Melts all our Strength away; Like Men that totter drunk with Wine, We tremble in Dismay.

3 Great Britain shakes beneath thy Stroke, And dreads thy threatening Hand; O heal the Island Thou hast broke, Confirm the wav'ring Land.

4 Lift up a Banner in the Field For those that fear thy Name; Save thy Beloved with thy Shield, And put our Foes to shame.

5 Go with our Armies to the Fight Like a confed'rate God; In vain confed'rate Pow'rs unite Against thy lifted Rod.

6 Our Troops shall gain a wide Renown By thine afflicting Hand; 'Tis God that treads the Mighty down, And makes the Feeble stand.

Psalm LXI. 1—6.

Safety in GOD.

1 When overwhelm'd with Grief, My Heart within me dies, Helpless and far from all Relief To Heaven I lift mine Eyes.
Psalm LXII.

2 O lead me to the Rock
   That's high above my Head,
And make the Covert of thy Wings
   My Shelter and my Shade.

3 Within thy Presence, Lord,
   For ever I'll abide;
Thou art the Tower of my Defence,
   The Refuge where I hide.

4 Thou givest me the Lot
   Of those that fear thy Name;
If endless Life be their Reward,
   I shall possess the same.

Psalm LXII. 5 — 12.
No Trust in the Creatures; or, Faith in Divine
Grace and Power.

1 My Spirit looks to God alone;
   My Rock and Refuge is his Throne;
In all my Fears, in all my Straits
   My Soul on his Salvation waits.

2 Trust him, ye Saints, in all your Ways,
   Pour out your Hearts before his Face:
When Helpers fail, and Foes invade,
   God is our all-sufficient Aid.

3 False are the Men of high Degree,
   The baser Sort are Vanity;
Laid in the Balance both appear
   Light as a Puff of empty Air.

4 Make not increasing Gold your Trust,
   Nor set your Heart on glittering Dust;
Why will you grasp the fleeting Smoke,
   And not believe what God has spoke?

5 Once has his awful Voice declar'd,
   Once and again my Ears have heard,
All Power is his eternal Due;
He must be fear'd and trusted too.

For Sovereign Power reigns not alone,
Grace is a Partner of the Throne:
Thy Grace and Justice, mighty Lord,
Shall well divide our last Reward.

Psalm LXIII. 1, 2, 5, 3, 4: First Part.
Common Metre.

The Morning of a Lord's-Day.

EARLY, my God, without Delay,
I haste to seek thy Face;
My thirsty Spirit faints away
Without thy cheering Grace.

So Pilgrims on the scorching Sand
Beneath a burning Sky
Long for a cooling Stream at hand,
And they must drink or die.

I've seen thy Glory and thy Pow'r
Thro' all thy Temple shine;
My God, repeat that heavenly Hour,
That Vision so divine.

Not all the Blessings of a Feast
Can please my Soul so well,
As when thy richer Grace I taste,
And in thy Presence dwell.

Not Life itself, with all her Joys,
Can my best Passions move,
Or raise so high my cheerful Voice,
As thy forgiving Love.

Thus till my last expiring Day
I'll bless my God and King;

Thus
Thus will I lift my Hands to pray,
And tune my Lips to sing.

Psalm LXIII. 6 — 10. Second Part.

Common Metre.

Midnight Thoughts recollected.

1. Twas in the Watches of the Night
   I thought upon thy Pow'r,
   I kept thy lovely Face in sight
   Amidst the darkest Hour.

2. My Flesh lay resting on my Bed,
   My Soul arose on high;
   "My G O D, my Life, my Hope, I said,
   "Bring thy Salvation nigh.

3. My Spirit labours up thine Hill,
   And climbs the heavenly Road;
   But thy Right-hand upholds me still,
   While I pursue my G o d.

4. Thy Mercy stretches o'er my Head
   The Shadow of thy Wings;
   My Heart rejoices in thine Aid,
   My Tongue awakes and sings.

5. But the Destroyers of my Peace
   Shall fret and rage in vain;
   The Tempter shall for ever cease,
   And all my Sins be slain.

6. Thy Sword shall give my Foes to Death,
   And send them down to dwell
   In the dark Caverns of the Earth,
   Or to the Deeps of He!!.
Psalm LXIII. Long Metre.

Longing after God; or, The Love of God better than Life.

1 Great God, indulge my humble claim,
   Thou art my Hope, my Joy, my Rest;
The Glories that compose thy Name
   Stand all engag'd to make me blest.

2 Thou Great and Good, thou Just and Wife,
   Thou art my Father and my God;
   And I am thine by sacred Ties;
   Thy Son, thy Servant bought with Blood.

3 With Heart and Eyes and lifted Hands
   For Thee I long, to Thee I look,
   As Travellers in thirsty Lands
   Pant for the cooling Water-brook.

4 With early Feet I love t'appear
   Among thy Saints, and seek thy Face,
   Oft have I seen thy Glory there,
   And felt the Power of Sovereign Grace.

5 Not Fruits nor Wines that tempt our Taste,
   Nor all the Joys our Senses know,
   Could make me so divinely blest,
   Or raise my cheerful Passion so.

6 My Life it self without thy Love
   No Taste of Pleasure could afford;
   'Twould but a tiresome Burden prove,
   If I were banish'd from the Lord.

7 Amidst the wakeful Hours of Night,
   When busy Cares affliet my Head,
   One Thought of Thee gives new Delight,
   And adds Refreshment to my Bed.
Psalm LXIII.

Psalm LXIII. Short Metre.

Seeking GOD.

1 My God, permit my Tongue
This Joy, to call Thee mine:
And let my early Cries prevail
To taste thy Love divine.

2 My thirsty fainting Soul
Thy Mercy does implore;
Not Travellers in Desart Lands
Can pant for Water more.

3 Within thy Churches, Lord,
I long to find my Place,
Thy Power and Glory to behold,
And feel thy quick'ning Grace.

4 For Life without thy Love
No Relish can afford;
No Joy can be compar'd with this,
'To serve and please the Lord.

5 To Thee I'll lift my Hands,
And praise Thee while I live;
Not the rich Dainties of a Feast
Such Food or Pleasure give.

6 In wakeful Hours at Night,
I call my God to mind;
I think how wise thy Counsels are,
And all thy Dealings kind.

7 Since Thou hast been my Help,
To Thee my Spirit flies,
Psalm LXV.

And on thy watchful Providence
My cheerfal Hope relies.

3 The Shadow of thy Wings
My Soul in Safety keeps!
I follow where my Father leads,
And he supports my Steps.

Psalm LXV. 1—5. First Part. Long Metre.
Publick Prayer and Praise.

1 The Praise of Zion waits for Thee,
My God: and Praise becomes thy House;
There shall thy Saints thy Glory see,
And there perform their publick Vows.

2 O Thou, whose Mercy bends the Skies
To save, when humble Sinners pray;
All Lands to Thee shall lift their Eyes,
And Islands of the Northern Sea.

3 Against my Will my Sins prevail,
But Grace shall purge away their Stain;
The Blood of Christ will never fail
To wash my Garments white again.

4 Blest is the Man whom thou shalt chuse,
And give him kind Access to Thee;
Give him a Place within thy House,
To taste thy Love divinely free.

Pause.

5 Let Babel fear when Zion prays;
Babel, prepare for long Distresses,
When Zion's God himself arrays
In Terror and in Righteousness.

6 With dreadful Glory God fulfils
What his afflicted Saints request;
And
And with Almighty Wrath reveals
His Love to give his Churches Rest.

8 Then shall the flocking Nations run
To Sion's Hill and own their Lord;
The rising and the setting Sun
Shall see the Saviour's Name ador'd.

Divine Providence in Air, Earth, and Sea; or,
The GOD of Nature and Grace.

1 The God of our Salvation hears
The Groans of Sion mix'd with Tears;
Yet when he comes with kind Designs,
Thro' all the Way his Terror shines.

2 On him the Race of Man depends,
Far as the Earth's remotest Ends,
Where the Creator's Name is known,
By Nature's feeble Light alone.

3 Sailors that travel o'er the Flood,
Address their frightened Souls to God,
When Tempests rage, and Billows roar
At dreadful Distance from the Shore.

4 He bids the noisy Tempests cease;
He calms the raging Crowd to Peace,
When a tumultuous Nation raves
Wild as the Winds, and loud as Waves.

5 Whole Kingdoms shaken by the Storm
He settles in a peaceful Form;
Mountains establish'd by his Hand
Firm on their old Foundations stand.

6 Behold his Ensigns sweep the Sky,
New Comets blaze, and Lightnings fly;
Psalm LXV.

The Heathen Lands with swift Surprize,
From the bright Horrors turn their Eyes.

7 At his Command the Morning-Ray
Smiles in the East, and leads the Day,
He guides the Sun's declining Wheels
Over the Tops of Western Hills.

8 Seasons and Times obey his Voice;
The Evening and the Morn rejoice
To see the Earth made soft with Showers,
Laden with Fruit and drest in Flowers.

9 'Tis from his watry Stores on high,
He gives the thirsty Ground supply;
He walks upon the Clouds, and thence
Doth his enriching Drops dispense.

10 The Desert grows a fruitful Field,
Abundant Fruit the Valleys yield;
The Valleys shout with cheerful Voice,
And neighbouring Hills repeat their Joys.

11 The Pastures smile in green Array,
Their Lambs and larger Cattle play;
The larger Cattle and the Lamb,
Each in his Language speaks thy Name.

12 Thy Works pronounce thy Power divine;
O'er every Field thy Glories shine;
Thro' every Month thy Gifts appear;
Great God, thy Goodness crowns the Year.

Psalm LXV. First Part. Common Metre.

A Prayer-bearing GOD, and the Gentiles called.

Praise waits in Sion, Lord, for Thee;
There shall our Vows be paid;
Thou hast an Ear when Sinners pray,
All Flesh shall seek thine Aid.

Lord,
Psalm LXV. Second Part. Common Metre.

The Providence of GOD in Air, Earth, and Sea; or, The Blessing of Rain.

1 By thy Strength the Mountains stand, God of eternal Power; The Sea grows calm at thy Command, And Tempests cease to roar.

2 Thy Morning Light and Evening Shade Successive Comforts bring: Thy plenteous Fruits make Harvest glad, Thy Flow'rs adorn the Spring.
3 Seasons and Times, and Moons and Hours,
  Heaven, Earth, and Air are thine;
When Clouds distil in fruitful Show'rs,
  The Author is divine.

4 Those wand'ring Cisterns in the Sky
  Borne by the Winds around,
Whose watry Treasures well supply
  The Furrows of the Ground.

5 The thirsty Ridges drink their Fill,
  And Ranks of Corn appear;
Thy Ways abound with Blessings still,
  Thy Goodness crowns the Year.

The Blessings of the Spring; or, G O D gives Rain.
  A Psalm for the Husbandman.

1 G O O D is the Lord, the Heavenly King,
  Who makes the Earth his Care;
Visits the Pastures every Spring,
  And bids the Grass appear.

2 The Clouds, like Rivers rais'd on high,
  Pour out at thy Command
Their watry Blessings from the Sky,
  To cheer the thirsty Land.

3 The soften'd Ridges of the Field
  Permit the Corn to spring:
The Valleys rich Provision yield,
  And the poor Labourers sing.

4 The little Hills on ev'ry Side
  Rejoice at falling Show'rs:
The Meadows dress'd in all their Pride
  Perfume the Air with Flow'rs.

5 The
The barren Clods refresh'd with Rain
Promise a joyful Crop;
The parching Grounds look green again,
And raise the Reaper's Hope.

The various Months thy Goodness crowns;
How bounteous are thy Ways?
The bleating Flocks spread o'er the Downs,
And Shepherds shout thy Praise.

Psalm LXVI. First Part.

Governing Power and Goodness; or, Our Grace tried by Afflictions.

1 Sing, all ye Nations, to the Lord,
Sing with a joyful Noise;
With Melody of Sound record
His Honours and your Joys.

2 Say to the Power that shakes the Sky,
"How terrible art Thou!
"Sinners before thy Presence fly,
"Or at thy Feet they bow.

3 [Come, see the Wonders of our God,
How glorious are his Ways!
In Moses' Hand he puts his Rod,
And cleaves the frightened Seas.

4 He made the ebbing Channel dry,
While Israel pass'd the Flood;
There did the Church begin their Joy,
And triumph in their God.

5 He rules by his resolute Might:
Will Rebel Mortals dare
Provoke th' Eternal to the Fight,
And tempt that dreadful War?
Psalm LXVI.

6 O bless our God, and never cease;
   Ye Saints, fulfil his Praise;
He keeps our Life, maintains our Peace,
   And guides our doubtful Ways.

7 Lord, thou hast prov’d our suffering Souls,
   To make our Graces shine;
So Silver bears the burning Coals,
   The Metal to refine.

8 Thro’ watry Deeps and fiery Ways
   We march at thy Command,
Led to possess the promis’d Place
   By thine unerring Hand.

Praise to God for hearing Prayer.

NOW shall my solemn Vows be paid
   To that Almighty Power
That heard the long Requests I made
   In my distressful Hour.

2 My Lips and cheerful Heart prepare
   To make his Mercies known;
Come ye that fear my God, and hear
   The Wonders he has done.

3 When on my Head huge Sorrows fell,
   I sought his heavenly Aid;
He fav’d my sinking Soul from Hell,
   And Death’s eternal Shade.

4 If Sin lay cover’d in my Heart
   While Pray’r employ’d my Tongue,
The Lord had shewn me no Regard,
   Nor I his Prais’es sung.

5 But God (his Name be ever blest)
   Has set my Spirit free;
Psalm LXVII.

Nor turn'd from him my poor Request,
Nor turn'd his Heart from me.

Psalm LXVII.

The Nation's Prosperity, and the Church's Increase.

1 Shine, mighty God, on Britain shine
   With Beams of heavenly Grace;
   Reveal thy Power thro’ all our Coasts,
   And shew thy smiling Face.

2 [Amidst our Isle exalted high
   Do thou our Glory stand,
   And like a Wall of Guardian Fire
   Surround the Favourite Land.]

3 When shall thy Name from Shore to Shore
   Sound all the Earth abroad,
   And distant Nations know and love
   Their Saviour and their God?

4 Sing to the Lord, ye distant Lands,
   Sing loud with solemn Voice;
   While Britisb Tongues exalt his Praise,
   And Britisb Hearts rejoice.

5 He the great Lord, the sovereign Judge,
   That sits enthron’d above,
   Wisely commands the Worlds he made,
   In Justice and in Love.

6 Earth shall obey her Maker’s Will,
   And yield a full Increase:
   Our God will crown his chosen Isle
   With Fruitfulness and Peace.

7 God the Redeemer scatters round
   His choicest Favours here,
   While the Creation’s utmost Bound
   Shall see, adore, and fear.
Psalm LXVIII. First Part. Ver. 1—6, 32—35.

The Vengeance and Compassion of God.

1 Let God arise in all his Might,
And put the Troops of Hell to Flight;
As Smoke that sought to cloud the Skies
Before the rising Tempest flies.

2 [He comes array'd in burning Flames;
Justice and Vengeance are his Names:
Behold his fainting Foes expire
Like melting Wax before the Fire.]

3 He rides and thunders thro' the Sky;
His Name Jehovah sounds on high:
Sing to his Name, ye Sons of Grace;
Ye Saints, rejoice before his Face.

4 The Widow and the Fatherless
Fly to his Aid in sharp Distress:
In him the Poor and Helpless find
A Judge that's just, a Father kind.

5 He breaks the Captive's heavy Chain,
And Pris'ners see the Light again;
But Rebels that dispute his Will,
Shall dwell in Chains and Darkness still.

Pause.

6 Kingdoms and Thrones to God belong;
Crown him, ye Nations, in your Song:
His wond'rous Names and Pow'rs rehearse;
His Honours shall enrich your Verse.

7 He shakes the Heavens with loud Alarms;
How terrible is God in Arms!
In Israel are his Mercies known,
Israel is his peculiar Throne.
PSALM LXVIII. Second Part. Ver. 17, 18.
Christ's Ascension, and the Gift of the Spirit.

1 LORD, when thou didst ascend on high,
Ten Thousand Angels fill'd the Sky;
Those heavenly Guards around Thee wait,
Like Chariots that attend thy State.

2 Not Sinai's Mountain could appear
More glorious when the Lord was there;
While he pronounc'd his dreadful Law,
And strook the chosen Tribes with Awe.

3 How bright the Triumph none can tell,
When the rebellious Powers of Hell,
That Thousand Souls had Captive made,
Were all in Chains like Captives led.

4 Rais'd by his Father to the Throne,
He sent his promis'd Spirit down,
With Gifts and Grace for Rebel-Men,
That God might dwell on Earth again.

PSALM LXVIII. 3d Part. Ver. 19, 9, 20, 21, 22.
Praise for Temporal Blessings; or, common and special Mercies.

1 WE bless the Lord, the Just, the Good,
Who fills our Hearts with Joy and Food;
Who pours his Blessings from the Skies,
And loads our Days with rich Supplies.

2 He sends the Sun his Circuit round,
To cheer the Fruits, to warm the Ground;
Psalm LXIX.

He bids the Clouds with plenteous Rain
Refresh the thirsty Earth again.

'Tis to his Care we owe our Breath,
And all our near Escapes from Death;
Safety and Health to God belong;
He heals the Weak, and guards the Strong.

He makes the Saint and Sinner prove
The common Blessings of his Love;
But the wide Difference that remains
Is endless Joy or endless Pains.

The Lord that bruis'd the Serpent's Head,
On all the Serpent's Seed shall tread,
The stubborn Sinner's Hope confound,
And smite him with a lasting Wound.

But his Right-hand his Saints shall raise
From the deep Earth, or deeper Seas;
And bring them to his Courts above,
There shall they taste his special Love.

The Sufferings of Christ for our Salvation.

"Save me, O God, the swelling Floods
Break in upon my Soul:
I sink; and Sorrows o'er my Head
Like mighty Waters roll.

I cry till all my Voice be gone,
In Tears I waste the Day;
My God, behold my longing Eyes,
And shorten thy Delay.

They hate my Soul without a Cause,
And still their Number grows,
More than the Hairs around my Head,
And mighty are my Foes.

G
4 "Twas then I paid that dreadful Debt
" That Men could never pay,
" And gave those Honours to thy Law
" Which Sinners took away.

5 Thus in the great Messiah's Name
The royal Prophet mourns;
Thus he awakes our Hearts to Grief,
And gives us Joy by turns.

6 "Now shall the Saints rejoice, and find
" Salvation in my Name,
" For I have born their heavy Load
" Of Sorrow, Pain and Shame.

7 "Grief like a Garment cloathed me round,
" And Sackcloth was my Dress,
" While I procur'd for naked Souls
" A Robe of Righteousness.

8 "Amongst my Brethren and the Jesus
" I like a Stranger stood,
" And bore their vile Reproach, to bring
" The Gentiles near to God.

9 "I came in sinful Mortals Head
" To do my Father's Will
" Yet when I cleans'd my Father's House,
" They scandaliz'd my Zeal.

10 "My Fallings and my holy Groans
" Were made the Drunkard's Song;
" But God from his celestial Throne
" Heard my complaining Tongue.

11 "He sav'd me from the dreadful Deep,
" Nor let my Soul be drown'd;
" He rais'd and fix'd my sinking Feet.
" On well-establish'd Ground.
PSALM LXIX.

12 " 'Twas in a most accepted Hour
    " My Pray'r arose on high,

Common Metre.

The Passion and Exaltation of Christ.

NOW let our Lips with holy Fear
And mournful Pleasure sing
The Sufferings of our great High-Priest,
The Sorrows of our King.

2 He sinks in Floods of deep Distress;
    How high the Waters rise!
While to his heavenly Father's Ear
He sends perpetual Cries.

3 "Hear me, O Lord, and save thy Son,
    " Nor hide thy shining Face;
    " Why should thy Favourite look like one
    " Forsaken of thy Grace?

4 "With Rage they persecute the Man
    " That groans beneath thy Wound,
    " While for a Sacrifice I pour
    " My Life upon the Ground.

5 "They tread my Honour to the Dust,
    " And laugh when I complain;
    " Their sharp insulting Slanders add
    " Fresh Anguish to my Pain.

6 "All my Reproach is known to Thee,
    " The Scandal and the Shame;
    " Reproach has broke my bleeding Heart,
    " And Lies desil'd my Name.
Psalm LXIX. Third Part. Common Metre.

Christ's Obedience and Death; or, GOD glorified and Sinners saved.

1 A father, I sing thy wondrous Grace,
I bless my Saviour's Name,
He bought Salvation for the Poor,
And bore the Sinners Shame.

2 His deep Distress has rais'd us high,
His Duty and his Zeal
Fulfill'd the Law which Mortals broke,
And finished all thy Will.

3 His dying Groans, his living Songs
Shall better please my God
Than Harp or Trumpet's solemn Sound,
Than Goats or Bullocks Blood.
Psalm LXIX.

1. This shall his humble Followers see,
   And set their Hearts at rest;
   They by his Death draw near to Thee,
   And live for ever blest.

2. Let Heaven and all that dwell on high
   To God their Voices raise,
   While Lands and Seas assist the Sky,
   And join t' advance the Praise.

3. Zion is thine, Most holy God,
   Thy Son shall bless her Gates;
   And Glory purchas'd by his Blood
   For thy own Israel waits.

Psalm LXIX. First Part. Long Metre.

Christ's Passion, and Sinners Salvation.

1. Deep in our Hearts let us record
   The deeper Sorrows of our Lord;
   Behold the rising Billows roll
   To overwhelm his holy Soul.

2. In long Complaints he spends his Breath,
   While Heavens of Hell, and Powers of Death,
   And all the Sons of Malice join
   To execute their cruel Design.

3. Yet, gracious God, thy Power and Love
   Has made the Curse a Blessing prove;
   Those dreadful Sufferings of thy Son
   Aton'd for Sins which we had done.

4. The Pangs of our expiring Lord
   The Honours of thy Law restor'd:
   His Sorrows made thy Justice known,
   And paid for Follies not his own.

5. O for his Sake our Guilt forgive,
   And let the mourning Sinner live:

G 3
The Lord will hear us in his Name,
Nor shall our Hope be turn'd to Shame.

PSALM LXIX. Ver. 7, &c. 2d Part. Long Met.
Christ's Sufferings and Zeal.

1 'Twas for thy Sake, eternal God,
Thy Son sustaine'd that heavy Load
Of base Reproach and sore Disgrace,
And Shame defil'd his sacred Face.

2 The Jews, his Brethren and his Kin,
Abus'd the Man that check'd their Sin:
While he fulfil'd thy holy Laws,
They hate him, but without a Cause.

3 [My Father's House, said he, was made
A Place for Worship, not for Trade;
Then scattering all their Gold and Brass,
He scourg'd the Merchants from the Place.]

4 [Zeal for the Temple of his God
Consum'd his Life, expos'd his Blood:
Reprouces at thy Glory thrown
He felt, and mearn'd them as his own.]

5 [His Friends forsook, his Followers fled,
While Foes and Arms surround his Head;
They curse him with a floudrous Tongue,
And the false Judge maintains the Wrong.]

6 His Life they load with hateful Lies,
And charge his Lips with Blasphemies;
They nail him to the shameful Tree;
There hang the Man that dy'd for me.

7 [Wretches with Hearts as hard as Stones
Insult his Piety and Grace;
Gall was the Food they gave him there,
And mock'd his Thirst with Vinegar.]
Psalm LXXI.

8 But God beheld; and from his Throne
Marks out the Men that hate his Son;
The Hand that rais'd him from the Dead,
Shall pour the Vengeance on their Head.

The aged Saint's Reflection and Hope.

1 My God, my everlasting Hope,
   I live upon thy Truth;
Thine Hands have held my Childhood up,
   And strengthen'd all my Youth.

2 My Flesh was fashion'd by thy Power,
   With all these Limbs of mine;
And from my Mother's painful Hour
   I've been entirely thine.

3 Still has my Life new Wonders seen
   Repeated ev'ry Year;
Behold my Days that yet remain,
   I trust them to thy Care.

4 Call me not off when Strength declines,
   When hoary Hairs arise;
And round me let thy Glory shine,
   When e'er thy Servant dies.

5 Then in the History of my Age,
   When Men review my Days,
They'll read thy Love in ev'ry Page,
   In ev'ry Line thy Praise.

Psalm LXXI. 15, 14, 16, 23, 22, 24. 2d Part.

Christ our Strength and Righteousness.

1 My Saviour, my Almighty Friend,
   When I begin thy Praise,
Where will the growing Numbers end,
The Numbers of thy Grace?

2 Thou
Psalm LXXI.

2 Thou art my everlasting Trust,
   Thy Goodness I adore!
And since I knew thy Graces first
   I speak thy Glories more.

3 My Feet shall travel all the Length
   Of the celestial Road,
And march with Courage in thy Strength
   To see my Father-God.

4 When I am fill'd with sore Distress
   For some surprizing Sin,
I'll plead thy perfect Righteousness,
   And mention none but Thine.

5 How will my Lips rejoice to tell
   'The Victories of my King!'
My Soul redeem'd from Sin and Hell
   Shall thy Salvation sing.

6 [My Tongue shall all the Day proclaim
   My Saviour and my God;
His Death has brought my Foes to Shame,
   And drown'd them in his Blood.

7 Awake, awake, my tuneful Powers;
   With this delightful Song
I'll entertain the darkest Hours,
   Nor think the Season long]

Psalm LXXI. 17—21. Third Part.

The aged Christian's Prayer and Song; or, Old Age,
Death, and the Resurrection.

1 God of my Childhood and my Youth,
   The Guide of all my Days,
I have declar'd thy heavenly Truth,
   And told thy wondrous Ways.

2 Wilt
Psalm LXXI.

2 Wilt thou forfake my hoary Hairs,
   And leave my fainting Heart?
Who shall sustaine my sinking Years
   If God my Strength depart?

3 Let me thy Power and Truth proclaim
   To the surviving Age,
And leave a Savour of thy Name
   When I shall quit the Stage.

4 The Land of Silence, and of Death
   Attends my next Remove;
O may these poor Remains of Breath
   Teach the wide World thy Love!

PAUSE.

5 Thy Righteousness is deep and high,
   Unsearchable thy Deeds;
Thy Glory spreads beyond the Sky,
   And all my Praise exceeds.

6 Oft have I heard thy Threat'nings roar,
   And oft endur'd the Grief;
But when thy Hand has prest me sore,
   Thy Grace was my Relief.

7 By long Experience have I known
   Thy sovereign Power to save;
At thy Command I venture down
   Securely to the Grave.

8 When I lie buried deep in Dust,
   My Flesh shall be thy Care;
These withering Limbs with Thee I trust
   To raise them strong and fair.

Psalm LXXII.

Psalm LXXII. First Part.

The Kingdom of Christ.

1 Great God, whose universal Sway
   The known and unknown Worlds obey,
Now give the Kingdom to thy Son,
   Extend his Power, exalt his Throne.

2 Thy Scepter well becomes his Hands,
   All Heaven submits to his Commands;
His Justice shall avenge the Poor,
   And Pride and Rage prevail no more.

3 With Power he vindicates the Just,
   And treads th' Oppressor in the Dust;
His Worship and his Fear shall last,
   Till Hours, and Years, and Time be past.

4 As Rain on Meadows newly mown,
   So shall he send his Influence down:
His Grace on fainting Souls distils,
   Like heavenly Dew on thirsty Hills.

5 The Heathen Lands that lie beneath
   The Shades of overspreading Death
Revive at his first dawning Light,
   And Dearts blossom at the Sight.

6 The Saints shall flourish in his Days,
   Dreft in the Robes of Joy and Praise;
Peace like a River from his Throne
   Shall flow to Nations yet unknown.

Psalm LXXII. Second Part.

Christ's Kingdom among the Gentiles.

1 Jesus shall reign where-e'er the Sun
   Does his successive Journeys run;
His Kingdom stretch from Shore to Shore,
   Till Moons shall wax and wane no more.

2 Behold
Psalm LXXIII.

[Behold the Islands with their Kings,
And Europe her best Tribute brings;
From North to South the Princes meet
To pay their Homage at his Foot.

There Persia, glorious to behold,
There India shines in Eastern Gold;
And barbarous Nations at his Word
Submit, and bow, and own their Lord.

For him shall endless Prayer be made,
And Praises strong to crown his Head;
His Name like sweet Perfume shall rise
With every Morning Sacrifice.

People and Realms of every Tongue
Dwell on his Love with sweetest Song;
And Infant-Voices shall proclaim
Their early Blessings on his Name.

Blessings abound where-e’er he reigns,
The Prisoner leaps to lose his Chains;
The Weary find eternal Rest,
And all the Sons of Want are blest.

[Where he displays his healing Power,
Death and the Curse are known no more;
In him the Tribes of Adam boast
More Blessings than their Father lost.

Let every Creature rise and bring
Peculiar Honours to our King:
Angels descend with Songs again,
And Earth repeat the long Amen.]

Psalm LXXIII. First Part. Common Met.

HO! W I am convinc’d, the Lord is kind
To Men of Heart sincere,

Yet
Yet once my foolish Thoughts repin’d,
And border’d on Despair.

2 I griev’d to see the Wicked thrive,
And spoke with angry Breath,
“ How pleasant and profane they live!
“ How peaceful is their Death!

3 “ With well-fed Flesh and haughty Eyes
“ They lay their Fears to sleep;
“ Against the Heavens their Slanders rise,
“ While Saints in Silence weep.

4 “ In vain I lift my Hands to pray,
“ And cleanse my Heart in vain,
“ For I am chasten’d all the Day,
“ The Night renews my Pain.

5 Yet while my Tongue indulg’d Complaints,
I felt my Heart reprove;
“ Sure I shall thus offend thy Saints,
“ And grieve the Men I love.

6 But still I found my Doubts too hard,
The Conflict too severe,
Till I retir’d to search thy Word,
And learn thy Secrets there.

7 There, as in some prophetic Glass,
I saw the Sinner’s Feet
High mounted on a slippery Place
Beside a fiery Pit.

8 I heard the Wretch profanely boast,
’Till at thy Frown he fell;
His Honours in a Dream were lost,
And he awakes in Hell.

9 Lord, what an envious Fool I was!
How like a thoughtless Beast!

Thus
Thus to suspect thy promis'd Grace,
And think the Wicked blest.

Yet I was kept from full Despair,
Upheld by Power unknown:
That blessed Hand that broke the Snare
Shall guide me to thy Throne.

Psalm LXXXIII. 23—28. Second Part.
Common Metre.

G O D our Portion here and hereafter.

1 GOD, my Supporter and my Hope,
   My Help for ever near,
   Thine Arm of Mercy held me up
   When sinking in Despair.

2 Thy Counsels, Lord, shall guide my Feet
   Thro' this dark Wilderness;
   Thine Hand conduct me near thy Seat,
   To dwell before thy Face.

3 Were I in Heaven without my GOD,
   'Twould be no Joy to me;
   And whist this Earth is my Abode,
   I long for none but Thee.

4 What if the Springs of Life were broke,
   And Flesh and Heart should faint,
   GOD is my Soul's eternal Rock,
   The Strength of ev'ry Saint.

5 Behold, the Sinners that remove
   Far from thy Presence die;
   Not all the Idol-Gods they love
   Can save them when they cry.

6 But to draw near to Thee, my GOD,
   Shall be my sweet Employ;
Psalm LXXIII.

My Tongue shall sound thy Works abroad,
And tell the World my Joy.

Psalm LXXIII. 22, 3, 6, 17—20. Long Metre.

The Prosperity of Sinners cursed.

1 LORD, what a thoughtless Wretch was I,
To mourn, and murmur, and repine
To see the Wicked plac’d on high,
In Pride and Robes of Honour shine!

2 But, O their End, their dreadful End!
Thy Sanctuary taught me so:
On slippery Rocks I see them stand,
And fiery Billows roll below.

3 Now let them boast how tall they rise,
I’ll never envy them again;
There they may stand with haughty Eyes,
Till they plunge deep in endless Pain.

4 Their fancy’d Joys, how fast they flee!
Just like a Dream when Man awakes;
Their Songs of softest Harmony
Are but a Preface to their Plagues.

5 Now I esteem their Mirth and Wine,
Too dear to purchase with my Blood;
Lord, ’tis enough that thou art mine,
My Life, my Portion, and my God.

Psalm LXXIII. Short Metre.

The Mystery of Providence unfolded.

1 Sure there’s a righteous God,
Nor is Religion vain;
Theo’ Men of Vice may boast aloud,
And Men of Grace complain.

2 I saw the Wicked rise,
And felt my Heart repine,
While haughty Fools with scornful Eyes,
In Robes of Honour shine.

3 [Pampered with wanton Ease,
Their Flesh looks full and fair,
Their Wealth rolls in like flowing Seas,
And grows without their Care.

4 Free from the Plagues and Pains
That pious Souls endure,
Thro' all their Life Oppression reigns,
And racks the humble Poor.

5 Their impious Tongues blaspheme
The everlasting God:
Their Malice blots the good Man's Name,
And spreads their Lies abroad.

6 But I with flowing Tears
Indulged my Doubts to rise;
"Is there a God that sees or hears
"The Things below the Skies?"

7 The Tumults of my Thought
Held me in hard suspense,
Till to thy House my Feet were brought
To learn thy Justice thence.

8 Thy Word with Light and Power
Did my Mistakes amend;
I viewed the Sinners Life before,
But here I learnt their End.

9 On what a slippery Steep
The thoughtless Wretches go;
And O that dreadful fiery Deep
That waits their Fall below!

10 Lord,
Psalm LXXIV.

WILL God for ever call us off?
His Wrath for ever smoak
Against the People of his Love,
His little cho’en Flock?

Think of the Tribes so dearly bought
With their Redeemer’s Blood;
Nor let thy Zion be forgot,
Where once thy Glory stood.

Lift up thy Feet, and march in haste,
Aloud our Ruin calls;
See what a wide and fearful Wafe
Is made within thy Walls.

Where once thy Churches pray’d and sang
Thy Foes profanely roar;
Over thy Gates their Ensigns hang,
Sad Tokens of their Power.

How are the Seats of Worship broke?
They tear the Buildings down,
And he that deals the heaviest Stroke
Procures the chief Renown.

With Flames they threaten to destroy
Thy Children in their Nest;
Come let us burn at once, they cry,
The Temple and the Priest.

And still to heighten our Distrefs,
Thy Presence is withdrawn;
Thy
Thy wanted Signs of Power and Grace,
Thy Power and Grace are gone.

8 No Prophet speaks to calm our Woes,
But all the Seers mourn;
There's not a Soul amongst us knows
The Time of thy Return.

PAUSE.

9 How long, eternal God, how long,
Shall Men of Pride blaspheme?
Shall Saints be made their endless Song,
And bear immortal Shame?

10 Canst thou for ever sit and hear
Thine holy Name profan'd?
And still thy Jealousy forbear,
And still with-hold thine Hand?

11 What strange Deliverance hast thou shown
In Ages long before;
And now no other God we own,
No other God adore.

12 Thou didst divide the raging Sea
By thy resitless Might,
To make thy Tribes a wondrous Way,
And then secure their Flight.

13 Is not the World of Nature thine,
The Darkness and the Day?
Didst not thou bid the Morning shine,
And mark the Sun his Way?

14 Hath not thy Power form'd every Coast,
And set the Earth its Bounds,
With Summer's Heat, and Winter's Frost,
In their perpetual Rounds.

15 And
And shall the Sons of Earth and Dust
That sacred Power blaspheme?
Will not thy Hand that form'd them first
Avenge thine injur'd Name?

Think on the Covenant thou hast made,
And all thy Words of Love;
Nor let the Birds of Prey invade
And vex thy Mourning Dove.

Our Foes would triumph in our Blood,
And make our Hope their Jest;
Plead thine own Cause, Almighty God,
And give thy Children Rest.

PSALM LXXV.

Power and Government from GOD alone.

Apply'd to the glorious Revolution by King William, or the happy Accession of King George to the Throne.

TO Thee, most Holy, and most High.
To Thee we bring our thankful Praise;
Thy Works declare thy Name is nigh,
Thy Works of Wonder and of Grace.

Britain was doom'd to be a Slave,
Her Frame dissolv'd; her Fears were great;
When God a new Supporter gave,
To bear the Pillars of the State.

He from thy Hand receiv'd his Crown,
And swear to rule by wholesome Laws;
His Foot shall tread th' Oppressor down,
His Arm defend the righteous Cause.

Let haughty Sinners sink their Pride,
Nor lift to high their scornful Head;
Psalm LXXVI.

But lay their foolish Thoughts aside,
And own the King that God hath made.

5 Such Honours never come by Chance,
Nor do the Winds Promotion blow;
'Tis God the Judge doth one advance,
'Tis God that lays another low.

6 No v: in Pretence to royal Birth
Shall fix a Tyrant on the Throne,
God, the great Sovereign of the Earth,
Will rise, and make his Justice known.

7 His Hand holds out the dreadful Cup,
Of Vengeance mix'd with various Plagues,
To make the Wicked drink them up,

And while he tramples on the Proud,
And lays their Glory in the Dust,

Psalm LXXVI.

Israel saved, and the Assyrians destroy'd; or, God's Vengeance against his Enemies proceeds from his Church.

1 In Judah God of Old was known
His Name in Israel great;
In Salem stood his holy Throne,
And Zion was his Seat.

2 Among the Praises of his Saints,
His Dwelling there he chose;
There he received their just Complaints,
Against their haughty Foes.

3 From
3 From Zion went his dreadful Word,
   And broke the threatening Spear;
   The Bow, the Arrows, and the Sword,
   And crush'd th' Assyrian War.

4 What are the Earth's wide Kingdoms else
   But mighty Hills of Prey?
The Hill on which Jehovah dwells
   Is glorious more than they.

5 'Twas Zion's King that stopp'd the Breath
   Of Captains and their Bands:
The Men of Might slept fast in Death,
   And never found their Hands.

6 At thy Rebuке, O Jacob's God,
   Both Horse and Chariot fell:
Who knows the Terrors of thy Rod?
   Thy Vengeance who can tell?

7 What Power can stand before thy Sight
   When once thy Wrath appears?
   When Heaven shines round with dreadful Light,
   The Earth lies still and fears.

8 When God in his own sovereign Ways
   Comes down to save th' Opprest,
The Wrath of Man shall work his Praise,
   And he'll restrain the rest.

9 [Vow to the Lord, and Tribute bring,
   Ye Princes fear his Frown:
   His Terror shakes the proudest King,
   And cuts an Army down.

10 The Thunder of his sharp Rebuke
   Our haughty Foes shall feel;
   For Jacob's God hath not forsook,
   But dwells in Zion still.]
Psalm LXXVII. First Part.

Melancholy assailing, and Hope prevailing.

1 To God I cry'd with mournful Voice,
I sought his gracious Ear,
In the sad Day, when Troubles rose,
And fill'd the Night with Fear.

2 Sad were my Days, and dark my Nights,
My Soul refus'd Relief;
I thought on God the Just and Wife,
But Thoughts increas'd my Grief.

3 Still I complain'd, and still oppress'd,
My Heart began to break;
My God, thy Wrath forbid my Rest,
And kept my Eyes awake.

4 My overwhelming Sorrows grew,
'Till I could speak no more;
Then I within my self withdrew,
And call'd thy Judgments o'er.

5 I call'd back Years and ancient Times
When I beheld thy Face;
My Spirit search'd for secret Crimes
That might with-hold thy Grace.

6 I call'd thy Mercies to my Mind
Which I enjoy'd before;
And will the Lord no more be kind;
His Face appear no more?

7 Will he for ever cast me off?
His Promise ever fail?
Has he forgot his tender Love?
Shall Anger still prevail?

8 But I forbid this hopeless Thought,
This dark, despairing Frame,
Remem-
Rememnbering what thy Hand hath wrought;
Thy Hand is still the same.

9 I'll think again of all thy Ways,
And talk thy Wonders o'er;
Thy Wonders of recovering Grace,
When Flesh could hope no more.

10 Grace dwelt with Justice on the Throne;
And Men that love thy Word
Have in thy Sanctuary known
The Counsels of the Lord.

Comfort deriv'd from ancient Providence; or, Israel deliver'd from Egypt, and brought to Canaan.

1 "HOW awful is thy chast'ning Rod?
" (May thy own Children say)
" The Great, the Wise, the dreadful God!
" How holy is his Way!

The King that reigns above;
I'll hear his ancient Wonders told,
And learn to trust his Love.

3 Long did the House of Joseph lie
With Egypt's Yoke opprest;
Long he delay'd to hear their Cry,
Nor gave his People Rest.

4 The Sons of good old Jacob seem'd
Abandon'd to their Foes;
But his Almighty Arm redeem'd
The Nation that he chose.

Must follow where he calls;
Psalm LXXVIII.

He bid them venture thro' the Deep,
And made the Waves their Walls.

6 The Waters saw Thee, mighty God,
The Waters saw Thee come;
Backward they fled, and frightened stood,
To make thine Armies room.

7 Strange was thy Journey thro' the Sea,
Thy Footsteps, Lord, unknown:
Terrors attend the wondrous Way
That brings thy Mercies down.

8 [Thy Voice with Terror in the Sound
Thro' Clouds and Darkness broke;
All Heav'n in Lightning shone around,
And Earth with Thunder shook.

9 Thine Arrows thro' the Skies were hurl'd,
How glorious is the Lord!
Surprise and Trembling seiz'd the World,
And his own Saints ador'd.

10 He gave them Water from the Rock;
And faie by Moses' Hand
'Thro' a dry Desart led his Flock

Psalm LXXVIII. First Part.

Providences of GOD recorded; or, pious Education and Instruction of Children.

1 Let Children hear the mighty Deeds
Which God perform'd of old;
Which in our younger Years we saw,
And which our Fathers told.

2 He bids us make his Glories known;
His Works of Power and Grace;
And
And we'll convey his Wonders down
'Thro' every rising Race.

Our Lips shall tell them to our Sons,
And they again to theirs,
That Generations yet unborn
May teach them to their Heirs.

Thus shall they learn, in God alone
Their Hope securely stands,
That they may ne'er forget his Works,
But practise his Commands.

Psalm LXXVIII. Second Part.

Israel's Rebellion and Punishment; or, The Sins and Chastisements of God's People.

1 Oh what a stiff rebellious House
Was Jacob's ancient Race!
False to their own most solemn Vows,
And to their Maker's Grace.

2 They broke the Cov'nant of his Love,
And did his Laws despise,
Forgot the Works he wrought to prove
His Pow'r before their Eyes.

3 They saw the Plagues on Egypt light
From his revenging Hand:
What dreadful Tokens of his Might
Spread o'er the stubborn Land.

4 They saw him cleft the mighty Sea,
And march'd in Safety thro',
With watry Walls to guard their Way,
'Till they had 'scap'd the Foe.

5 A wondrous Pillar mark'd the Road,
Compos'd of Shade and Light;
By Day it prov'd a sheltering Cloud,
A leading Fire by Night.

6 He from the Rock their Thirst supply'd;
The gushing Waters fell,
And ran in Rivers by their Side,
A constant Miracle.

7 Yet they provok'd the Lord most High,
And dar'd distrust his Hand:
"Can he with Bread our Host supply
"Amidst this Desart Land?"

8 The Lord with Indignation heard,
And caus'd his Wrath to flame;
His Terrors ever stand prepar'd
To vindicate his Name.

Psalm LXXVIII. Third Part.
The Punishment of Luxury and Intemperance; or,
Chastisement and Salvation.

1 WHEN Israel sins, the Lord reproves,
And fills their Hearts with Dread;
Yet he forgives the Men he loves,
And sends them heavenly Bread.

2 He fed them with a liberal Hand,
And made his Treasures known;
He gave the Midnight-Clouds Command
To pour Provision down.

We loath this light, this airy Bread;
We must have Flesh to taste.

Ye shall have Flesh to please your Lust,
The Lord in Wrath reply’d,
And sent them Quails like Sand or Dust,
Heap’d up from Side to Side.

He gave them all their own Desire;
And greedy as they fed,
His Vengeance burnt with secret Fire,
And smote the Rebels dead.

When some were slain the rest return’d,
And fought the Lord with Tears;
Under the Rod they fear’d and mourn’d,
But soon forgot their Fears.

Oft he chastis’d and still forgave,

Psalm LXXVIII. Ver 32, &c. Fourth Part.

Backsliding and Forgiveness; or, Sin punish’d, and Saints saved.

Great God, how oft did Israel prove
By turns thine Anger and thy Love?
There in a Glass our Hearts may see
Howickle and how false they be.

How soon the faithless Jews forgot
The dreadful Wonders God had wrought!
Then they provoke him to his Face,
Nor fear his Power, nor trust his Grace.

The Lord consum’d their Years in Pain,
And made their Travels long and vain;
Psalm LXXX.

A tedious March thro' unknown Ways
Wore out their Strength, and spent their Days.

4 Oft when they saw their Brethren slain,
They mourn'd, and fought the Lord again:
Call'd him the Rock of their Abode,
Their high Redeemer and their God.

5 Their Pray'rs and Vows before him rise
As flattering Words or solemn Lies,
While their rebellious Tempers prove
False to his Cov'nant and his Love.

6 Yet did his Sovereign Grace forgive
The Men who not deserv'd to live;
His Anger oft away he turn'd,
Or else with gentle Flame it burn'd.

7 He saw their Flesh was weak and frail,
He saw Temptations still prevail:
The God of Abraham lov'd them still,
And led them to his holy Hill.

Psalm LXXX.

The Church's Prayer under Affliction; or, The Vineyard of God wasted.

Great Shepherd of thine Israel,
Who didst between the Cherubs dwell.
And lead the Tribes, thy chosen Sheep,
Safe thro' the Desart and the Deep:

Thy Church is in the Desart now,
Shine from on high, and guide us thro');
Turn us to Thee, thy Love restore,
We shall be sav'd, and sigh no more.

Great God, whom heavenly Hosts obey,
How long shall we lament and pray?
And wait in vain thy kind Return?
How long shall thy fierce Anger burn?

4 Instead of Wine and cheerful Bread
Thy Saints with their own Tears are fed;
Turn us to Thee, thy Love restore,
We shall be fav'd, and sigh no more.

PAUSE I.

5 Haft thou not planted with thy Hands
A lovely Vine in Heathen Lands?
Did not thy Power defend it round,
And heavenly Dews enrich the Ground?

6 How did the spreading Branches shoot,
And bless the Nations with the Fruit?
But now, dear Lord, look down and see
Thy mourning Vine, that lovely Tree.

7 Why is its Beauty thus defac'd?
Why hast thou laid her Fences waste?
Strangers and Foes against her join,
And every Beast devours the Vine.

8 Return, Almighty God, return;
Nor let thy bleeding Vineyard mourn:
Turn us to Thee, thy Love restore,
We shall be fav'd, and sigh no more.

PAUSE II.

9 Lord, when this Vine in Canaan grew
Thou wait its Strength and Glory too!
Attack'd in vain by all its Foes
Till the fair Branch of Promise rose.

10 Fair Branch, ordain'd of old to shoot
From David's Stock, from Jacob's Root;
Himself a noble Vine, and we
The lesser Branches of the Tree.
Psalm LXXXI.

11 'Tis thy own Son; and he shall stand
Girt with thy Strength at thy Right-hand;
Thy first-born Son, adorn'd and blest
With Power and Grace above the rest.

12 O! for his sake attend our Cry,
Shine on thy Churches left they die;
Turn us to Thee, thy Love restore,
We shall be sav'd, and sigh no more.

Psalm LXXXI. 1, 8—16.

The Warning of God to his People; or, Spiritual Blessings and Punishments.

Sing to the Lord aloud,
And make a joyful Noise;
God is our Strength, our Saviour God;
Let Israel hear his Voice.

2 " From vile Idolatry
" Preserve my Worship clean;
" I am the Lord who set thee free
" From Slavery and Sin.

3 " Stretch thy Desires abroad,
" And I'll supply them well;
" But if ye will refuse your God,
" If Israel will rebel;

4 " I'll leave them, faith the Lord,
" To their own Lufts a Prey,
" And let them run the dangerous Road;

Psalm LXXXII.

God the supreme Governor; or, Magistrates warned,

A mong th’ Assemblies of the Great
A greater Ruler takes his Seat;
The God of Heaven as Judge surveys
Those Gods on Earth and all their Ways.

Why will ye then frame wicked Laws?
Or why support th’ unrighteous Cause?
When will ye once defend the Poor,
That Sinners vex the Saints no more?

They know not, Lord, nor will they know:
Dark are the Ways in which they go;
Their Name of earthly Gods is vain,
For they shall fall and die like Men.

Arise, O Lord, and let thy Son
Possess his universal Throne,
And rule the Nations with his Rod;
He is our Judge, and he our God.

Psalm LXXXIII.

A Complaint against Persecutors.

And will the God of Grace
Perpetual Silence keep?
The God of Justice hold his Peace,
And let his Vengeance sleep?

Behold, what cursed Snares
The Men of Mischief spread:
The Men that hate thy Saints and Thee
Lift up their threatening Head.
Psalm LXXXIV.

Against thy hidden Ones
Their Counsels they employ,
And Malice with her watchful Eye
Pursues them to destroy.

The Noble and the Base
Into thy Pastures leap;
The Lion and the stupid Ass
Conspire to vex thy Sheep.

"Come, let us join, they cry,
"To root them from the Ground,
"Till not the Name of Saints remain;
"Nor Mem'ry shall be found.

Awake, Almighty God,
And call thy Wrath to mind;
Give them like Forests to the Fire,
Or Stubble to the Wind.

Convince their Madness, Lord,
And make them seek thy Name:
Or else their stubborn Rage confound,
That they may die in Shame.

Then shall the Nations know
That glorious dreadful Word
Jehovah is thy Name alone,
And thou the Sovereign Lord.

Psalm LXXXIV. First Part. Long Metre.

The Pleasure of Publick Worship.

How pleasant, how divinely fair,
O Lord of Holts, thy Dwellings are!
With long Desire my Spirit faints
To meet th' Assemblies of thy Saints.

My Flesh would rest in thine Abode,
My panting Heart cries out for God;

My
Psalm LXXXIV.

My God! my King! why should I be
So far from all my Joys and Thee?

3 The Sparrow chuses where to rest,
And for her Young provides her Nest;
But will my God to Sparrows grant
That Pleasure which his Children want?

Blest are the Saints who sit on high
Around thy Throne of Majesty;
Thy brightest Glories shine above,
And all their Work is Praise and Love.

5 Blest are the Souls that find a Place
Within the Temple of thy Grace;
There they behold thy gentler Rays,
And seek thy Face, and learn thy Praise.

6 Blest are the Men whose Hearts are set
To find the Way to Zion's Gate;
God is their Strength; and thro' the Road
They lean upon their Helper God.

7 Cheerful they walk with growing Strength,
'Til all shall meet in Heaven at length,
'Til all before thy Face appear,
And join in nobler Worship there.

Psalm LXXXIV. Second Part. Long Metre.

G O D and his Church; or, Grace and Glory.

Great God, attend while Zion sings
The Joy that from thy Presence springs;
To spend one Day with Thee on Earth
Exceeds a thousand Days of Mirth.

Might I enjoy the meanest Place
Within thy House, O God of Grace,
Psalm LXXXIV.

Not Tents of Ease, nor Thrones of Power
Should tempt my Feet to leave thy Door.

3 God is our Sun, he makes our Day;
God is our Shield, he guards our Way
From all th' Assaulsts of Hell and Sin,
From Foes without and Foes within.

All needful Grace will God bestow,
And crown that Grace with Glory too;
He gives us all Things, and with-holds
No real Good from upright Souls.

5 O God, our King, whose sovereign Sway
The glorious Hosts of Heaven obey,
And Devils at thy Presence flee,
Blest is the Man that trusts in Thee.

Psalm LXXXIV. Ver. 1, 4, 2, 3, 10.
Paraphras'd in Common Metre.

Delight in Ordinances of Worship; or, GOD present in his Churches.

1 My Soul, how lovely is the Place
To which thy God resorts!
'Tis Heaven to see his smiling Face,
'Tho' in his earthly Courts.

2 There the great Monarch of the Skies
His saving Pow'rs displays,
And Light breaks in upon our Eyes,
With kind and quickning Rays.

3 With his rich Gifts the heavenly Dove,
Descends and fills the Place,
While Christ reveals his wondrous Love,
And sheds abroad his Grace.

Psalm LXXXIV. Ver. 1, 4, 2, 3, 10.
Paraphras'd in Common Metre.

Delight in Ordinances of Worship; or, GOD present in his Churches.

1 My Soul, how lovely is the Place
To which thy God resorts!
'Tis Heaven to see his smiling Face,
'Tho' in his earthly Courts.

2 There the great Monarch of the Skies
His saving Pow'r displays,
And Light breaks in upon our Eyes,
With kind and quickning Rays.

3 With his rich Gifts the heavenly Dove,
Descends and fills the Place,
While Christ reveals his wondrous Love,
And sheds abroad his Grace.

Ps. 5.

There,
4 There, mighty God, thy Words declare
The Secrets of thy Will;
And still we seek thy Mercy there,
And sing thy Praises still.

PAUSE.

5 My Heart and Flesh cry out for Thee,
While far from thine Abode;
When shall I tread thy Courts, and see
My Saviour and my God?

6 The Sparrow builds herself a Nest,
And suffers no Remove;
O make me, like the Sparrows, blest,
To dwell but where I love.

7 To sit one Day beneath thine Eye,
And hear thy gracious Voice,
Exceeds a whole Eternity
Employ'd in carnal Joys.

8 Lord, at thy Threshold I would wait
While Jesus is within,
Rather than fill a Throne of State,
Or live in Tents of Sin.

9 Could I command the spacious Land,
And the more boundless Sea,
For one blest Hour at thy Right-hand
I'd give them both away.

PSALM LXXXIV. As the 148th Psalm.

Longing for the House of GOD.

1 LORD of the Worlds above,
How pleasant and how fair
The Dwellings of thy Love,
Thy earthly Temples are!
Psalm LXXXIV. 171

To thine Abode
My Heart aspires,
With warm Desires
To see my God.

2 The Sparrow for her Young
With Pleasure seeks a Nest,
And wandering Swallows long
To find their wonted Rest;
My Spirit saints
With equal Zeal
To rise and dwell
Among thy Saints.

3 O happy Souls that pray,
Where God appoints to hear!
O happy Men that pay
Their constant Service there!
They praise Thee still;
And happy they
That love the Way
To Zion's Hill.

1 They go from Strength to Strength,
Thro' this dark Vale of Tears,
Till each arrives at length,
Till each in Heav'n appears:
O glorious Seat,
When God our King
Shall thither bring
Our willing Feet!

Pause.

To spend one sacred Day
Where God and Saints abide Affords diviner Joy
Than thousand Days beside.
Psalm LXXXV.

Where God resists
I love it more
To keep the Door
Than shine in Courts.

6 God is our Sun and Shield,
Our Light and our Defence;
With Gifts his Hands are fill'd,
We draw our Blessings thence;
He shall bestow
On Jacob's Race
Peculiar Grace
And Glory too.

7 The Lord his People loves;
His Hand no Good with-holds
From those his Heart approves,
From pure and pious Souls:
Thrice happy he,
O God of Hosts,
Whole Spirit triumphs
Alone in Thee.

Psalm LXXXV. Ver. 1-8. First Part.

Waiting for an Answer to Prayer; or, Deliverance begun and compleated.

1 LORD, thou hast call'd thy Grace to mind,
Thou hast revers'd our heavy Doom:
So God forgave when Israel sinn'd,
And brought his wandering Captives home.

2 Thou hast begun to set us free,
And made thy fiercest Wrath abate:
Now let our Hearts be turn'd to Thee,
And thy Salvation be compleat.

3 Revive our dying Graces, Lord,
And let thy Saints in Thee rejoice;
Make known thy Truth, fulfil thy Word;
We wait for Praise to tune our Voice.

4 We wait to hear what God will say;
He'll speak, and give his People peace:
But let them run no more astray,
Left his returning Wrath increase.

Psalm LXXXVI. Ver. 9, &c. Second Part.

Salvation by Christ.

1 Salvation is for ever nigh
The Souls that fear and trust the Lord;
And Grace descending from on high
Fresh Hopes of Glory shall afford.

2 Mercy and Truth on Earth are met,
Since Christ the Lord came down from Heaven!
By his Obedience so compleat
Justice is pleas'd, and Peace is given.

3 Now Truth and Honour shall abound,
Religion dwell on Earth again,
And heavenly Influence blest the Ground
In our Redeemer's gentle Reign.

4 His Righteousness is gone before,
To give us free Accents to God;
Our wandring Feet shall stray no more,
But mark his Steps, and keep the Road.

Psalm LXXXVI. Ver. 8—13.

A general Song of Praise to God.

1 Among the Princes, earthly Gods,
There's none hath Power divine;
Nor is their Nature, mighty Lord,
Nor are their Works like thine.

2 The Nations thou hast made shall bring
Their Offerings round thy Throne:
Psalm LXXXVII.

For thou alone dost wondrous Things,
For thou art God alone.

3 Lord, I would walk with holy Feet;
Teach me thine heavenly Ways,
And my poor scatter'd Thoughts unite
In God my Father's Praise.

4 Great is thy Mercy, and my Tongue
Shall those sweet Wonders tell,
How by thy Grace my sinking Soul
Rose from the Deeps of Hell.

Psalm LXXXVII.

The Church the Birth-Place of the Saints; or, Jews and Gentiles united in the Christian Church.

1 God in his earthly Temple lays
Foundations for his heavenly Praise:
He likes the Tents of Jacob well,
But still in Zion loves to dwell.

2 His Mercy visits every House
That pay their Night and Morning Vows,
But makes a more delightful Stay
Where Churches meet to praise and pray.

3 What Glories were describ'd of old?
What Wonders are of Zion told?
Thou City of our God below,
Thy Fame shall Tyre and Egypt know

4 Egypt and Tyre, and Greek and Jew,
Shall there begin their Lives anew:
Angels and Men shall join to sing
The Hill where living Waters spring

5 When God makes up his last Account
Of Natives in his holy Mount,

'Twill
'Twill be an Honour to appear
As one new born or nourish'd there!

Psalm LXXXIX. First Part. Long Metre.
The Covenant made with Christ; or, The true David.

For ever shall my Song record
The Truth and Mercy of the Lord:
Mercy and Truth for ever stand
Like Heaven establisht by his Hand.

Thus to his Son he sware, and said,
"With thee my Cov'nant first is made?
"In thee shall dying Sinners live,
"Glory and Grace are thine to give.

"Be thou my Prophet, thou my Priest;
"Thy Children shall be ever blest;
"Thou art my chosen King: Thy Throne
"Shall stand eternal like my own.

There's none of all my Sons above
"So much my Image or my Love;
"Celestial Powers thy Subjects are,
"Then what can Earth to thee compare?

"David, my Servant, whom I chose,
"To guard my Flock, to crush my Foes,
"And rais'd him to the Soverign Throne,
"Was but a Shadow of my Son.

Now let the Church rejoice and sing,
Jesus her Saviour and her King;
Angels his heavenly Wonders show,
And Saints declare his Works below.
Psalm LXXXIX. First Part. Com. Metre.

The Faithfulness of God.

1 My never-ceasing Songs shall show
   The Mercies of the Lord;
   And make succeeding Ages know
   How faithful is his Word.

2 The sacred Truths his Lips pronounce
   Shall firm as Heaven endure;
   And if he speak a Promise once,
   Th' eternal Grace is sure.

3 How long the Race of David held
   The promis'd Jehovah Throne!
   But there's a nobler Covenant seal'd
   To David's greater Son.

4 His Seed for ever shall possess
   A Throne above the Skies;
   The meanest Subject of his Grace
   Shall to that Glory rise.

5 Lord God of Hosts, thy wondrous Way!
   Are sung by Saints above;
   And Saints on Earth their Honours raise
   To thy unchanging Love.

Psalm LXXXIX. 7, &c. Second Part.

The Power and Majesty of God; or, Reverential Worship.

1 With Reverence let the Saints appear,
   And bow before the Lord,
   His high Commands with Reverence hear,
   And tremble at his Word.

2 How terrible thy Glories be!
   How bright thine Armies shine!
Where is the Power that vies with Thee?
Or Truth compar'd with thine?

3 The Northern Pole and Southern rest
On thy supporting Hand;
Darkness and Day from East to West
Move round at thy Command.

4 Thy Words the raging Wind controul,
And rule the boisterous Deep;
Thou mak'lt the sleeping Billows roll,
The rolling Billows sleep.

5 Heaven, Earth, and Air, and Sea are thine,
And the dark World of Hell;
How did thine Arm in Vengeance shine
When Egypt durst rebel!

6 Justice and Judgment are thy Throne,
Yet wondrous is thy Grace:
While Truth and Mercy join’d in one
Invite us near thy Face.

Psalm LXXXIX. 15, &c. Third Part.
A Blessed Gospel.

1 Be left are the Souls that hear and know
The Gospel's joyful Sound;
Peace shall attend the Path they go,
And Light their Steps surround.

2 Their Joy shall bear their Spirits up
Thro' their Redeemer's Name;
His Righteousness exalts their Hope,
Nor Satan dares condemn.

3 The Lord our Glory and Defence
Strength and Salvation gives:
Israel, thy King for ever reigns,
Thy God for ever lives.
Psalm LXXXIX. 19, &c. Fourth Part.

Christ's Mediatorial Kingdom; or, His divine and human Nature.

1 Heark what the Lord in Vision said,
   And made his Mercy known:
   "Sinners, behold, your Help is laid
   On my Almighty Son.

2 Behold the Man my Wisdom chose
   Among your mortal Race;
   His Head my holy Oil o'erflows,
   'The Spirit of my Grace.

3 High shall he reign on David's Throne,
   My People's better King;
   My Arm shall beat his Rivals down,
   And still new Subjects bring.

4 My Truth shall guard him in his Way
   With Mercy by his Side,
   While in my Name thro' Earth and Sea
   He shall in Triumph ride.

5 Me for his Father and his God
   He shall for ever own,
   Call me his Rock, his high Abode,
   And I'll support my Son.

6 My first-born Son array'd in Grace
   At my Right-hand shall sit;
   Beneath him Angels know their Place,
   And Monarchs at his Feet.

7 My Covenant stands for ever fast,
   My Promises are strong;
   Firm as the Heavens his Throne shall last,
   His Seed endure as long.
Psalm LXXXIX. 30, &c. Fifth Part.

The Covenant of Grace unchangeable; or, Affliction without Rejection.

1 Yet (faith the Lord) if David's Race,
   The Children of my Son,
   Should break my Laws, abuse my Grace,
   And tempt mine Anger down;

2 Their Sins I'll visit with the Rod,
   And make their Folly smart;
   But I'll not cease to be their God,
   Nor from my Truth depart.

3 My Cov'nant I will ne'er revoke,
   But keep my Grace in mind;
   And what eternal Love hath spoke,
   Eternal Truth shall bind.

4 Once have I sworn, (I need no more)
   And pledg'd my Holiness
   To seal the sacred Promise sure
   To David and his Race.

5 The Sun shall see his Offspring rise
   And spread from Sea to Sea,
   Long as he travels round the Skies
   To give the Nations Day.

6 Sure as the Moon that rules the Night
   His Kingdom shall endure,
   'Till the fix'd Laws of Shade and Light
   Shall be obser'ved no more.
Psalm LXXXIX. 47, &c. Sixth Part.
Long Metre.
Mortality and Hope.
A Funeral Psalm.

1 Remember, Lord, our mortal State,
How frail our Life! how short the Date!
Where is the Man that draws his Breath
Safe from Disease, secure from Death?

2 Lord, while we see whole Nations die,
Our Flesh and Sense repine and cry,
"Must Death for ever rage and reign?"
"Or hast thou made Mankind in vain.

3 Where is thy Promise to the Just?
Are not thy Servants turn'd to Dust?
But Faith forbids these mournful Sighs,
And sees the sleeping Dust arise.

4 That glorious Hour, that dreadful Day
Wipes the Reproach of Saints away,
And clears the Honour of thy Word:
Awake our Souls, and bless the Lord.

Psalm LXXXIX. 47, &c. Last Part. As the 113th Psalm.

Life, Death, and the Resurrection.

1 Think, mighty God, on feeble Man;
How few his Hours! how short his Span!
Short from the Cradle to the Grave:
Who can secure his vital Breath
Against the bold Demands of Death
With Skill to fly, or Power to save?

2 Lord, shall it be for ever said,
"The Race of Man was only made
PSALM XC.

"For Sickness, Sorrow, and the Dust!
Are not thy Servants Day by Day
Sent to their Graves, and turn’d to Clay?
Lord, where’s thy Kindness to the Just?

3 Hast thou not promis’d to thy Son,
And all his Seed a heavenly Crown?
But Flesh and Sense indulge Despair;
For ever blessed be the Lord,
That Faith can read his holy Word,
And find a Resurrection there.

4 For ever blessed be the Lord
Who gives his Saints a long Reward,
For all their Toil, Reproach and Pain;
Let all below, and all above,
Join to proclaim thy wondrous Love
And each repeat their loud Amen.

PSALM XC. Long Metre.

Man Mortal, and GOD Eternal.

A mournful Song at a Funeral.

1 Thro’ every Age, eternal God,
Thou art our Rest, our safe Abode:
High was thy Throne e’re Heaven was made,
Or Earth thy humble Foot-stool laid.

2 Long hadst thou reign’d ’ere Time began,
Or Dust was fashion’d to a Man;
And long thy Kingdom shall endure
When Earth and Time shall be no more.

3 But Man, weak Man, is born to die,
Made up of Guilt and Vanity:
Thy dreadful Sentence, Lord, was just,
"Return, ye Sinners, to your Dust."
4 [A thousand of our Years amount
Scarce to a Day in thine Account,
Like Yesterday’s departed Light,
Or the last Watch of ending Night.

Pause.

5 Death, like an overflowing Stream,
Sweeps us away; our Life’s a Dream;
An empty Tale; a Morning Flow’r
Cut down and wither’d in an Hour.]

6 [Our Age to seventy Years is set;
How short the Term! how frail the State!
And if to Eighty we arrive,
We rather sigh and groan, than live,

7 But O how oft thy Wrath appears,
And cuts off our expected Years!
Thy Wrath awakes our humble Dread:
We fear that Power that strikes us dead.]

8 Teach us, O Lord, how frail is Man;
And kindly lengthen out our Span,
’Till a wife Care of Piety
Fit us to die, and dwell with Thee.

Man frail, and GOD eternal.

1 Our God, our Help in Ages past,
Our Hope for Years to come,
Our Shelter from the stormy Blast,
And our eternal Home.

2 Under the Shadow of thy Throne
Thy Saints have dwelt secure;
Sufficient is thine Arm alone,
And our Defence is sure.
Psalm XC.

3 Before the Hills in order stood,
    Or Earth receiv'd her Frame,
From Everlasting Thou art God,
    To endless Years the same.

4 Thy Word commands our Flesh to Dust,
    Return ye Sons of Men:
All Nations rose from Earth at first,
    And turn to Earth again.

6 A thousand Ages in thy Sight
    Are like an Evening gone;
Short as the Watch that ends the Night
    Before the rising Sun.

6 [The busy Tribes of Flesh and Blood
    With all their Lives and Cares
Are carried downwards by thy Flood,
    And lost in following Years.

8 Like flow'ry Fields the Nations stand
    Pleas'd with the Morning Light;
The Flowers beneath the Mower's Hand
    Lie withering 'ere 'tis Night.]

9 Our God, our Help in Ages past,
    Our Hope for Years to come,
Be Thou our Guard while Troubles last,
    And our eternal Home.
Psalm XC. 8, 11, 9, 10, 12. Second Part.

Common Metre.

Infirmities and Mortality the Effect of Sin; or, Life, old Age, and Preparation for Death.

1 LORD, if thine Eyes survey our Faults,
And Justice grow severe,
Thy dreadful Wrath exceeds our Thoughts
And burns beyond our Fear.

2 Thine Anger turns our Frame to Dust;
By one Offence to Thee,
Adam, with all his Sons, have lost
Their Immortality.

3 Life, like a vain Amusement flies,
A Fable or a Song;
By swift Degrees our Nature dies,
Nor can our Joys be long.

4 'Tis but a few whose Days amount
To threescore Years and ten;
And all beyond that short Account
Is Sorrow, Toil, and Pain.

5 [Our Vitals with laborious Strife
Bear up the crazy Load,
And drag those poor Remains of Life
Along the tiresome Road.]

6 Almighty God, reveal thy Love,
And not thy Wrath alone;
O let our sweet Experience prove
The Mercies of thy Throne.

7 Our Souls would learn the heavenly Art
T' improve the Hours we have,
That we may act the wiser Part,
And live beyond the Grave.

Breathing after Heaven.

1 Return, O God of Love return; Earth is a tiresome Place:
   How long shall we thy Children mourn
   Our Absence from thy Face?

2 Let Heaven succeed our painful Years,
   Let Sin and Sorrow cease,
   And in Proportion to our Tears
   So make our Joys increase.

3 Thy Wonders to thy Servants show,
   Make thy own Work compleat,
   Then shall our Souls thy Glory know,
   And own thy Love was great.

4 Then shall we shine before thy Throne
   In all thy Beauty, Lord;
   And the poor Service we have done
   Meet a divine Reward.

Psalm XC. Ver. 5, 10, 12. Short Metre.

The Fruity and Shortness of Life.

1 LORD, what a feeble Piece
   Is this our mortal Frame?
   Our Life how poor a Trifle 'tis,
   That scarce deserves the Name!

2 Alas, the brittle Clay
   That built our Body first!
   And every Month and every Day
   'Tis mouldring back to Dust.

3 Our Moments fly apace,
   Nor will our Minutes stay:
   Just like a Flood our hasty Days
   Are sweeping us away.

4 Well,
Psalm XCI.

4 Well, if our Days must fly,
   We'll keep their End in sight,
We'll spend them all in Wisdom's Way,
   And let them speed their Flight.

5 They'll waft us sooner o'er
   This Life's tempestuous Sea;
Soon we shall reach the peaceful Shore
   Of blest Eternity.

Psalm XCI. 1—7. First Part.

Safety in publick Dangers.

1 He that hath made his Refuge God,
   Shall find a most secure Abode;
Shall walk all Day beneath his Shade,
   And there at Night shall rest his Head.

2 Then will I say, "My God, thy Power
   " Shall be my Fortres and my Tow'r:
" I that am form'd of feeble Dust
   " Make thine Almighty Arm my Trust.

3 Thrice happy Man! Thy Maker's Care
   Shall keep thee from the Fowler's Snare,
Satan the Fowler, who betrays
   Unguarded Souls a thousand Ways.

4 Just as a Hen protects her Brood,
   From Birds of Prey that seek their Blood,
Under her Feathers, so the Lord
   Makes his own Arm his People's Guard.

5 If burning Beams of Noon conspire
   To dart a pestilential Fire,
God is their Life, his Wings are spread
   To shield them with an healthful Shade.

6 If Vapours with malignant Breath
   Rise thick, and scatter Midnight death,
Psalm XCI.

Israel is safe: The poisoned Air
Grows pure, if Israel's God be there.

Pause.

7 What tho' a thousand at thy Side,
   At thy Right-hand ten Thousand dy'd,
   Thy God his chosen People saves
   Amongst the Dead, amidst the Graves.

8 So when he sent his Angel down
   To make his Wrath in Egypt known;
   And slew their Sons, his careful Eye
   Past all the Doors of Jacob by.

6 But if the Fire or Plague or Sword
   Receive Commission from the Lord
   To strike his Saints among the rest,
   Their very Pains and Deaths are blest.

10 The Sword, the Pestilence or Fire
   Shall but fulfil their best Desire;
   From Sins and Sorrows set them free,
   And bring thy Children, Lord, to Thee.

Protection from Death, Guard of Angels, Victory and Deliverance.

1 Ye Sons of Men, a feeble Race,
   Expos'd to ev'ry Snare,
   Come, make the Lord your Dwelling-place,
   And try, and trust his Care.

2 No Ill shall enter where you dwell;
   Or if the Plague come nigh,
   And sweep the Wicked down to Hell,
   'Twill raise his Saints on high.

3 He'll give his Angels charge to keep
   Your Feet in all their Ways;
To watch your Pillow while you sleep,
And guard your happy Days.

4 Their Hands shall bear you, lest you fall
And dash against the Stones:
Are they not Servants at his Call,
And sent t' attend his Sons?

5 Adders and Lions ye shall tread;
The Tempter's Wiles defeat;
He that hath broke the Serpent's Head
Puts him beneath your Feet.

6 "Because on me they set their Love,
"I'll save them, (faith the Lord)
"I'll bear their joyful Souls above
"Destruction, and the Sword.

7 "My Grace shall answer when they call;
"In Trouble I'll be nigh:
"My Power shall help them when they fall,
"And raise them when they die.

8 "Those that on Earth my Name have known,
"I'll honour them in Heaven;
"There my Salvation shall be shown,
"And endless Life be given.

Psalm XCII. First Part.
A Psalm for the Lord's Day.

1 Sweet is the Work, my God, my King,
To praise thy Name, give Thanks and sing;
To shew thy Love by Morning-light,
And talk of all thy Truth at Night.

2 Sweet is the Day of sacred Rest,
No mortal Cares shall seize my Breast,
O may my Heart in Tune be found
Like David's Harp of solemn Sound!
Psalm XCII.

3 My Heart shall triumph in my Lord,
And bless his Works, and bless his Word;
Thy Works of Grace how bright they shine!
How deep thy Counsels! how divine!

4 Fools never raise their Thoughts so high;
Like Brutes they live, like Brutes they die;
Like Grass they flourish, 'till thy Breath
Blast them in everlasting Death.

5 But I shall share a glorious Part
When Grace hath well refin'd my Heart
And fresh Supplies of Joy are shed
Like holy Oil to cheer my Head.

6 Sin (my worst Enemy before)
Shall vex my Eyes and Ears no more:
My inward Foes shall all be slain,
Nor Satan break my Peace again.

7 Then shall I see and hear and know
All I desir'd or wish'd below;
And every Power find sweet Employ
In that eternal World of Joy.

Psalm XCII. Ver 12, &c. Second Part.

The Church is the Garden of GOD.

1 Lord, 'tis a pleasant thing to stand
In Gardens planted by thine Hand;
Let me within thy Courts be seen
Like a young Cedar fresh and green.

2 There grow thy Saints in Faith and Love,
Blest with thine Influence from above;
Not Lebanon with all its Trees
Yields such a comely Sight as these.

3 The Plants of Grace shall ever live;
(Nature decays, but Grace must thrive)
Psalm XCIII.

Time, that doth all Things else impair,
Still makes them flourish strong and fair.

4 Laden with Fruits of Age they shew,
The Lord is holy, just and true;
None that attend his Gates shall find
A God unfaithful or unkind.

Psalm XCIII. 1st Metre, as the 100th Psalm.

The Eternal and Sovereign God.

1 Jehovah reigns: He dwells in Light,
Girded with Majesty and Might:
The World created by his Hands
Still on its first Foundation stands.

2 But e'er this spacious World was made,
Or had its first Foundations laid,
Thy Throne eternal Ages stood,
Thy self the everliving God.

3 Like Floods the angry Nations rife,
And aim their Rage against the Skies;
Vain Floods, that aim their Rage so high!
At thy Rebuuke the Billows die.

4 For ever shall thy Throne endure;
Thy Promise stands for ever sure;
And everlasting Holiness
Becomes the Dwellings of thy Grace.

Psalm XCIII. 2d Metre, as the old 50th Psalm.

1 The Lord of Glory reigns; he reigns on high:
His Robes of State are Strength and Majesty:
This wide Creation rose at his Command,
Built by his Word, and establish'd by his Hand:
Long stood his Throne e'er he began Creation,
And his own Godhead is the firm Foundation.
God is th' eternal King. Thy Foes in vain
Raise their Rebellions to confound thy Reign:
In vain the Storms; in vain the Floods arise,
And roar, and toss their Waves against the Skies;
Foaming at Heaven they rage with wild Commotion,
But Heaven's high Arches scorn the dwelling

Ye Tempests rage no more; Ye Floods be still
And the mad World submissive to his Will:
Built on his Truth his Church must ever stand;
Firm are his Promises, and strong his Hand:
See his own Sons, when they appear before him,
Bow at his Foot-stool, and with Fear adore him.

Psalm XCIII. 3d Metre, as the Old 122d Psalm.

The Lord Jehovah reigns,
And royal State maintains,
His Head with awful Glories crown'd;
Array'd in Robes of Light,
Begirt with soveraign Might,
And Rays of Majesty around.

Upheld by thy Commands
The World securely stands;
And Skies and Stars obey thy Word:
Thy Throne was fix'd on high
Before the starry Sky?
Eternal is thy Kingdom, Lord.

In vain the noisy Croud,
Like Billows fierce and loud,
Against thine Empire rage and roar;
In vain with angry Spite
The sturdy Nations fight,
And dash like Waves against the Shore.
Psalm XCIV.

4 Let Floods and Nations rage,
     And all their Powers engage,
Let swelling Tides assault the Sky,
     The Terrors of thy Frown
Shall beat their Madnes down;
Thy Throne for ever stands on high.

5 Thy Promises are true,
     Thy Grace is ever new;
There fix'd thy Church shall ne'r remove;
     Thy Saints with holy Fear
Shall in thy Courts appear,
And sing thine everlasting Love.

Repeat the fourth Stanza to compleat the Tune.

Psalm XCIV. 1, 2, 7—14. First Part.
Saints chastis'd, and Sinners destroyed; or, Instructive Afflictions.

1 O God to whom Revenge belongs,
     Proclaim thy Wrath aloud;
Let sovereign Power redress our Wrongs,
     Let Justice smite the Proud.

2 They say, "The Lord nor sees nor hears;
     When will the Fools be wise?
Can he be deaf, who form'd their Ears?
     Or blind, who made their Eyes?

3 He knows their impious Thoughts are vain,
     And they shall feel his Power;
His Wrath shall pierce their Souls with Pain
     In some surprizing Hour.

4 But if thy Saints deserve Rebuke,
     Thou hast a gentler Rod:
Thy Providences and thy Book
     Shall make them know their God.

5 Blest
Blest is the Man thy Hands chastife,
And to his Duty draw:
Thy Scourges make thy Children wise
When they forget thy Law.

But God will ne'er cast off his Saints,
Nor his own Promise break;
He pardons his Inheritance
For their Redeemer's sake.

God our Support and Comfort; or, Deliverance from Temptation and Persecution.

Who will arise and plead my Right
Against my numerous Foes,
While Earth and Hell their Force unite,
And all my Hopes oppose?

Had not the Lord, my Rock, my Help,
Sustain'd my fainting Head,
My Life had now in Silence dwelt,
My Soul amongst the Dead.

Alas! my sliding Feet! I cry'd,
Thy Promise was my Prop;
Thy Grace stood constant by my Side,
Thy Spirit bore me up.

While Multitudes of mournful Thoughts
Within my Bosom roll,
Thy boundless Love forgives my Faults,
Thy Comforts cheer my Soul.

Pow'r of Iniquity may rise,
And frame pernicious Laws;
But God my Refuge rules the Skies,
He will defend my Cause.
Psalm XCV.

Let Malice vent her Rage aloud,
Let bold Blasphemers scoff;
The Lord our God shall judge the Proud,
And cut the Sinners off.

Psalm XCV. Common Metre.

A Psalm before Prayer.

1 Sing to the Lord Jehovah's Name,
   And in his Strength rejoice?
When his Salvation is our Theme,
   Exalted be our Voice.

2 With Thanks approach his awful Sight,
   And Psalms of Honour sing:
The Lord's a God of boundless Might,
   The whole Creation's King.

3 Let Princes hear, let Angels know,
   How mean their Natures seem,
Those Gods on high, and Gods below,
   When once compar'd with Him.

4 Earth with its Caverns dark and deep
   Lies in his Spacious Hand;
He fix'd the Seas what Bounds to keep,
   And where the Hills must stand,

5 Come and with humble Souls adore,
   Come, kneel before his Face;
O may the Creatures of his Power
   Be Children of his Grace!

6 Now is the Time, he bends his Ear,
   And waits for your Request;
Come, lest he rouze his Wrath, and swear,
   " Ye shall not see my Rest."
Psalm XCV. Short Metre.

A Psalm before Sermon.

1 COME, sound his Praise abroad,
   And Hymns of Glory sing:
   Jehovah is the sovereign God,
   The universal King.

2 He form'd the Deeps unknown;
   He gave the Seas their Bound;
   The watry Worlds are all his own,
   And all the solid Ground.

3 Come, worship at his Throne,
   Come, bow before the Lord:
   We are his Works, and not our own,
   He form'd us by his Word.

4 To-day attend his Voice,
   Nor dare provoke his Rod;
   Come, like the People of his Choice,
   And own your gracious God.

5 But if your Ears refuse
   The Language of his Grace,
   And Hearts grow hard like stubborn Jews,
   That unbelieving Race;

6 The Lord in Vengeance dreft
   Will lift his Hand, and swear,
   "You that despise my promis'd Rest,
   "Shall have no Portion there.

Psalm XCV. 1, 2, 3, 6—11. Long Metre.

Canaan left thro' Unbelief; or, a Warning to delaying Sinners.

1 COME, let our Voices join to raise
   A sacred Song of solemn Praise:
   God
God is a sovereign King; rehearse
His Honour in exalted Verse.

2 Come, let our Souls address the Lord,
Who fram'd our Natures with his Word:
He is our Shepherd; we the Sheep
His Mercy chose, his Pastures keep.

3 Come, let us hear his Voice to-day,
The Counsels of his Love obey;
Nor let our hardned Hearts renew
The Sins and Plagues that Israel knew.

4 Israel, that saw his Works of Grace
Yet tempt their Maker to his Face;
A faithlesfs unbelieving Brood,
That tir'd the Patience of their God.

5 Thus faith the Lord, "How false they prove!
"Forget my Power; abuse my Love;
"Since they despise my Rest, I swear,
"Their Feet shall never enter there.

6 [Look back, my Soul, with holy Dread,
And view those ancient Rebels dead;
Attend the offer'd Grace to-day,
Nor lose the Blessings by Delay.

7 Seize the kind Promise while it waits,
And march to Zion's heavenly Gates;
Believe, and take the promis'd Rest;
Obey, and be for ever blest.]

Psalm XCVI. 1, 10, &c. Com. Metre.
Christ's first and second Coming.

Sing to the Lord, ye distant Lands,
Ye Tribes of every Tongue;
His new-discover'd Grace demands
A new and nobler Song.
2 Say to the Nations, Jeſus reigns,
    God's own Almighty Son;
His Power the sinking World sustains,
    And Grace surrounds his Throne.

3 Let Heaven proclaim the joyful Day,
    Joy thro' the Earth be seen;
Let Cities shine in bright Array,
    And Fields in cheerful Green.

4 Let an unusual Joy surprize
    The Islands of the Sea:
Ye Mountains sink, ye Valleys rise,
    Prepare the Lord his Way.

5 Behold he comes, he comes to bleſs
    The Nations as their God;
To shew the World his Righteousness,
    And send his Truth abroad.

6 But when his Voice shall raise the Dead,
    And bid the World draw near,
How will the guilty Nations dread,
    To see their Judge appear?

Psalm XCVI. As the 113th Psalm.

The GOD of the Gentiles.

1 LET all the Earth their Voices raise
    To sing the choicest Psalm of Praise,
    To sing and bleſs Jebovaht's Name:
His Glory let the Heathens know,
    His Wonders to the Nations show,
And all his saving Works proclaim.

2 The Heathens know thy Glory, Lord;
    The wond'ring Nations read thy Word,
In Britain is Jebovaht known:
Psalm XCVII.

1. He reigns; the Lord, the Saviour reigns;
Praise him in evangelick Strains:
Let the whole Earth in Songs rejoice,
And distant Islands join their Voice.

2. Deep are his Counsels and unknown;
But Grace and Truth support his Throne:
Tho' gloomy Clouds his Ways surround,
Justice is their eternal Ground.

3. In Robes of Judgment, lo, he comes,
Shakes the wide Earth, and cleaves the Tombs;
Before him burns devouring Fire,
The Mountains melt, the Seas retire.

4. His Enemies with fore Dismay
Fly from the Sight, and shun the Day;

Psalm XCVII. 1—5. First Part.

Christ reigning in Heaven, and coming to Judgment.
Then lift your Heads, ye Saints, on high,
And sing, for your Redemption's nigh.

Christ's Incarnation.

1 The Lord is come; the Heavens proclaim
    His Birth; the Nations learn his Name;
An unknown Star directs the Road
Of Eastern Sages to their God.

2 All ye bright Armies of the Skies,
    Go, worship where the Saviour lies:
Angels and Kings, before him bow,
Those Gods on high, and Gods below.

3 Let Idols totter to the Ground,
    And their own Worshippers confound:
But Judah shout, but Zion sing,
And Earth confess her sovereign King.

Psalm XCVII. Third Part.

Grace and Glory.

1 T' Almighty reigns exalted high
    O'er all the Earth, o'er all the Sky;
Tho' Clouds and Darkness vale his Feet,
His Dwelling is the Mercy-feat.

2 O ye that love his holy Name,
    Hate every Work of Sin and Shame:
He guards the Souls of all his Friends,
And from the Snares of Hell defends.

3 Immortal Light, and Joys unknown,
    Are for the Saints in Darkness fown;
Those glorious Seeds shall spring and rise,
And the bright Harvest blest our Eyes.

4 Rejoice ye Righteous, and record
    The sacred Honours of the Lord;
None but the Soul that feels his Grace
Can triumph in his Holiness.

Psalm XCVII. 1, 3, 5—7, 11. Com Metre.
Christ's Incarnation, and the last Judgment.

1 Ye Islands of the Northern Sea
   Rejoice, the Saviour reigns:
   His Word like Fire prepares his Way,
   And Mountains melt to Plains.

2 His Presence sinks the proudest Hills,
   And makes the Valleys rise;
   The humble Soul enjoys his Smiles,
   The haughty Sinner dies.

3 The Heav'n's his rightful Pow'r proclaim;
   The Idol-Gods around
   Fill their own Worshippers with Shame,
   And totter to the Ground.

4 Adoring Angels at his Birth
   Make the Redeemer known;
   Thus shall he come to judge the Earth,
   And Angels guard his Throne.

5 His Foes shall tremble at his Sight,
   And Hills and Seas retire:
   His Children take their unknown Flight,
   And leave the World in Fire.

6 The Seeds of Joy and Glory fown
   For Saints in Darkness here,
   Shall rise and spring in Worlds unknown,
   And a rich Harvest bear.

Psalm XCVIII. First Part.
Praise for the Gospel.

1 To our Almighty Maker, God,
   New Honours be addrest;
Psalm XC VIII. Second Part.

The Messiah's Coming and Kingdom.

1 Joy to the World; the Lord is come;
   Let Earth receive her King:
   Let every Heart prepare him Room,
   And Heaven and Nature sing.

2 Joy to the Earth, the Saviour reigns;
   Let Men their Songs employ;
   While Fields and Floods, Rocks, Hills and Plains,
   Repeat the founding Joy.

3 No more let Sins and Sorrows grow,
   Nor Thorns infest the Ground;
   He comes to make his Blessings flow
   Far as the Curse is found.

4 He rules the World with Truth and Grace,
   And makes the Nations prove
   The Glories of his Righteousness,
   And Wonders of his Love.

Psalm XC IX. First Part.

Christ's Kingdom and Majesty.

1 The God Jehovah reigns,
   Let all the Nations fear;
Let Sinners tremble at his Throne,
And Saints be humble there.

2 Jesus the Saviour reigns,
Let Earth adore its Lord;
Bright Cherubs his Attendants stand,
Swift to fulfil his Word.

3 In Zion is his Throne,
His Honours are divine;
His Church shall make his Wonders known,
For there his Glories shine.

4 How holy is his Name!
How terrible his Praise!
Justice and Truth, and Judgment join
In all his Works of Grace.

Psalm XCIX. Second Part.

A Holy God worshipped with Reverence.

1 Exalt the Lord our God,
And worship at his Feet;
His Nature is all Holiness,
And Mercy is his Seat.

2 When Israel was his Church,
When Aaron was his Priest,
When Moses cry’d, when Samuel pray’d,
He gave his People Rest.

3 Oft he forgave their Sins,
Nor would destroy their Race;
And oft he made his Vengeance known
When they abus’d his Grace.

4 Exalt the Lord our God,
Whose Grace is still the same;
Still he’s a God of Holiness,
And jealous for his Name.

Psalm
Psalm C. First Metre. A Plain Translation.
Praise to our Creator.

1 Ye Nations round the Earth, rejoice
   Before the Lord, your sovereign King:
   Serve him with cheerful Heart and Voice,
   With all your Tongues his Glory sing.

2 The Lord is God: 'Tis he alone
   Doth Life and Breath, and Being give:
   We are his Work, and not our own;
   The Sheep that on his Pastures live.

3 Enter his Gates with Songs of Joy,
   With Praises to his Courts repair;
   And make it your Divine Employ
   To pay your Thanks and Honours there.

4 The Lord is good, the Lord is kind;
   Great is his Grace, his Mercy sure:
   And the whole Race of Man shall find
   His Truth from Age to Age endure.

1 Sing to the Lord with joyful Voice;
   Let ev'ry Land his Name adore;
   The British Isles shall send the Noise
   A-cross the Ocean to the Shore.

2 Nations attend before his Throne
   With solemn Fear, with sacred Joy:
   Know that the Lord is God alone;
   He can create, and he destroy.

3 His sovereign Power without our Aid
   Made us of Clay, and form'd us Men:
   And when like wandring Sheep we stray'd,
   He brought us to his Fold again.

4 We
4 We are his People, we his Care,
   Our Souls, and all our mortal Frame:
What lasting Honours shall we rear,
   Almighty Maker, to thy Name?

5 We'll crowd thy Gates with thankful Songs,
   High as the Heavens our Voices raise;
And Earth with her ten thousand Tongues
   Shall fill thy Courts with sounding Praise.

6 Wide as the World is thy Command,
   Vaast as Eternity thy Love;
Firm as a Rock thy Truth must stand,
   When rolling Years shall cease to move.

Psalm C1. Long Metre.

The Magistrate's Psalm.

1 Mercy and Judgment are my Song;
   And since they both to Thee belong,
My gracious God, my righteous King,
   To Thee my Songs and Vows I bring.

2 If I am rais’d to bear the Sword,
   I’ll take my Counsels from thy Word,
Thy Justice and thy heavenly Grace
   Shall be the Pattern of my Ways.

3 Let Wisdom all my Actions guide,
   And let my God with me reside;
No wicked Thing shall dwell with me,
   Which may provoke thy Jealousy.

4 No Sons of Slander, Rage and Strife
   Shall be Companions of my Life;
The haughty Look, the Heart of Pride
   Within my Doors shall ne’er abide.

5 [I’ll search the Land, and raise the Just
   To Posts of Honour, Wealth and Trust:}

   The
Psalm C

The Men that work thy holy Will
Shall be my Friends and Favourites still.

6. In vain shall Sinners hope to rise
   By flattering or malicious Lies:
   And while the Innocent I guard,
   The bold Offender shan't be spar'd.

7. The impious Crew (that factious Band)
   Shall hide their Heads, or quit the Land;
   And all that break the publick Rest,
   Where I have Power, shall be suppreft.

Psalm C. Common Metre.

A Psalm for a Master of a Family.

1. Of Justice and of Grace I sing,
   And pay my God my Vows,
   Thy Grace and Justice, heavenly King,
   Teach me to rule my House.

2. Now to my Tent, O God, repair,
   And make thy Servant wise;
   I'll suffer nothing near me there
   That shall offend thine Eyes.

3. The Man that doth his Neighbour wrong
   By Falshood or by Force,
   The scornful Eye, the slanderous Tongue,
   I'll thrust them from my Doors.

4. I'll seek the Faithful and the Just,
   And will their Help enjoy;
   These are the Friends that I shall trust,
   The Servants I'll employ.

5. The Wretch that deals in fly Deceit
   I'll not endure a Night!
   The Liar's Tongue I ever hate,
   And banish from my Sight.

6. I'll
Psalm CII.

1. Hear me, O God, nor hide thy Face,
   But answer, lest I die:
   Hast thou not built a Throne of Grace
   To hear when Sinners cry?

2. My Days are wasted like the Smoke
   Dissolving in the Air:
   My Strength is dry'd, my Heart is broke,
   And sinking in Despair.

3. My Spirits flag like withering Grass
   Burnt with excessive Heat:
   In secret Groans my Minutes pass,
   And I forget to eat.

4. As on some lonely Buildings Top
   The Sparrow tells her Moan,
   Far from the Tents of Joy and Hope
   I fit and grieve alone.

5. My Soul is like a Wilderness,
   Where Beasts of Midnight howl;
   There the sad Raven finds her Place,
   And there the screaming Owl.

6. Dark dismal Thoughts and boding Fears
   Dwell in my troubled Breast;
   While sharp Reproaches wound my Ears,
   Nor give my Spirit Rest.

7. My Cup is mingled with my Woes,
   And 7 tears are my Repast;
Psalm CII.

My daily Bread like Ashes grows
Unpleasant to my Taste.

8 Sense can afford no real Joy
To Souls that feel thy Frown;
Lord, 'twas thy Hand advance'd me high,
Thy Hand hath cast me down.

9 My Looks like wither'd Leaves appear;
And Life's declining Light
Grows faint as Evening Shadows are,
That vanish into Night,

10 But thou for ever art the same,
O my eternal God;
Ages to come shall know thy Name,
And spread thy Works abroad.

11 Thou wilt arise, and shew thy Face,
Nor will my Lord delay
Beyond th' appointed Hour of Grace,
That long-expected Day.

12 He hears his Saints, he knows their Cry,
And by mysterious Ways
Redeems the Prisoners doom'd to die,
And fills their Tongues with Praise.

Prayer heard, and Zion restor'd.

Let Zion and her Sons rejoice,
Behold the promis'd Hour:
Her God hath heard her mourning Voice,
And comes t' exalt his Power.

2 Her Dust and Ruins that remain
Are precious in our Eyes;
Those Ruins shall be built again,
And all that Dust shall rise.
Psalm CII.

3 The Lord will raise Jerusalem,
And stand in Glory there;
Nations shall bow before his Name,
And Kings attend with Fear.

4 He sits a Sovereign on his Throne,
With Pity in his Eyes:
He hears the dying Prisoners groan,
And sees their Sighs arise.

5 He frees the Souls condemn'd to Death,
And when his Saints complain,
It shan't be said, "That praying Breath
"Was ever spent in vain.

6 This shall be known when we are dead,
And left on long Record,
That Ages yet unborn may read,
And trust, and praise the Lord.

Psalm CII. 23—28. Third Part.

Man's Mortality, and Christ's Eternity; or, Saints die, but Christ and the Church live.

1 It is the Lord our Saviour's Hand
Weakening our Strength amidst the Race;
Disease and Death at his Command
 Arrest us, and cut short our Days.

2 Spare us, O Lord, aloud we pray,
Nor let our Sun go down at Noon;
Thy Years are one eternal Day,
And must thy Children die so soon?

3 Yet in the midst of Death and Grief
This Thought our Sorrow shall assuage;
"Our Father and our Saviour live;
"Christ is the same thro' every Age."
4 'Twas he this Earth's Foundations laid;
    Heaven is the Building of his Hand;
This Earth grows old, their Heav'ns shall fade,
    And all be chang'd at his Command.

5 The starry Curtains of the Sky
    Like Garments shall be laid aside:
But still thy Throne stands firm and high;
    Thy Church for ever must abide.

6 Before thy Face thy Church shall live,
    And on thy Throne thy Children reign;
This dying World shall they survive,
    And the dead Saints be rais'd again.

Psalm CIII. 1—7. First Part. Long Metre.

Blessing GOD for his Goodness to Soul and Body.

1 Bless, O my Soul, the living God,
    Call home thy Thoughts that rove abroad,
Let all the Powers within me join
    In Work and Worship so divine.

2 Bless, O my Soul, the God of Grace;
    His Favours claim thy highest Praise:
Why should the Wonders he hath wrought
    Be lost in Silence, and forgot?

3 'Tis He, my Soul, that sent his Son
    To die for Crimes which thou hast done?
He owns the Ransom, and forgives
    The hourly Follies of our Lives.

5 The Vices of the Mind he heals,
    And cures the Pains that Nature feels,
Redeems the Soul from Hell, and saves
    Our waiting Life from threatening Graves.

5 Our Youth decay'd his Pow'r repairs;
    His Mercy crowns our growing Years.

He
He satisfies our Mouth with Good,
And fills our Hopes with heavenly Food.

6. He sees th' Oppressor and th' Oppress,
And often gives the Sufferers Reft:
But will his Justice more display
In the last great rewarding Day.

7. [His Power he shew'd by Moses' Hands,
And gave to Israel his Commands;
But sent his Truth and Mercy down
To all the Nations by his Son.

8. Let the whole Earth his Power confess,
Let the whole Earth adore his Grace;
The Gentile with the Jew shall join
In Work and Worship so divine.]

G O D's gentle Chastisement; or, His tender Mercy to his People.

1. The Lord, how wondrous are his Ways!
How firm his Truth! how large his Grace!
He taketh his Mercy for his Throne,
And thence he makes his Glories known.

2. Not half so high his Power hath spread
The starry Heavens above our Head,
As his rich Love exceeds our Praise,
Exceeds the highest Hopes we raise.

3. Not half so far hath Nature placed
The rising Morning from the West,
As his forgiving Grace removes
The daily Guilt of those he loves.

4. How slowly doth his Wrath arise!
On swifter Wings Salvation flies:
Psalm CIII.

And if he lets his Anger burn,
How soon his Frowns to Pity turn!

5 Amidst his Wrath Compassion shines;
His Strokes are lighter than our Sins:
And while his Rod corrects his Saints,
His Ear indulges their Complaints.

6 So Fathers their young Sons chastise
With gentle Hands and melting Eyes:
The Children weep beneath the Smart,
And move the Pity of their Heart.

Pause.

7 The Mighty God, the Wise and Just,
Knows that our Frame is feeble Dust;
And will no heavy Loads impose
Beyond the Strength that he bestows.

8 He knows how soon our Nature dies,
Blasted by every Wind that flies;
Like Grassthe spring, and die as soon,
Or Morning Flow'res that fade at Noon.

But his eternal Love is sure
To all the Saints, and shall endure:
From Age to Age his Truth shall reign,
Nor Children's Children hope in vain.

Psalm CIII. 1—7. First Part. Short Met.

Praise for Spiritual and Temporal Mercies.

O Bless the Lord, my Soul!
Let all within me join,
And aid my Tongue to bless his Name,
Whose Favours are divine.

O bless the Lord, my Soul;
Nor let his Mercies lie
For
Forgotten in Unthankfulness;
And without Praisēs die.

3 'Tis he forgives thy Sins,
'Tis he relieves thy Pain,
'Tis he that heals thy Sicknesses,
And makes thee young again.

4 He crowns thy Life with Love,
When ransom'd from the Grave;
He that redeem'd my Soul from Hell
Hath sovereign Power to save.

5 He fills the Poor with Good;
He gives the Sufferers Rest;
The Lord hath Judgments for the Proud,
And Justice for th' Opprest.

6 His wondrous Works and Ways
He made by Moses known;
But sent the World his Truth and Grace,
By his beloved Son.

P s a l m CIII. 8—18. Second Part. Short Met.

Abounding Compassion of G O D; or, Mercy in the midst of Judgment.

MY Soul, repeat his Praise
Whose Mercies are so great;
Whose Anger is so slow to rise,
So ready to abate.

2 God will not always chide;
And when his Strokes are felt,
His Strokes are fewer than our Crimes,
And lighter than our Guilt.

3 High as the Heavens are rais'd
Above the Ground we tread,
Psalm CIII.

So far the Riches of his Grace
Our highest Thoughts exceed.

4 His Power subdues our Sins,
And his forgiving Love
Far as the East is from the West
Doth all our Guilt remove.

5 The Pity of the Lord
To those that fear his Name
Is such as tender Parents feel;
He knows our seeble Frame.

6 He knows we are but Dust,
Scatter'd with ev'ry Breath;
His Anger like a rising Wind
Can lend us swift to Death.

7 Our Days are as the Grass,
Or like the Morning-flower;
If one sharp Blast sweep o'er the Field,
It withers in an Hour.

8 But thy Compassions, Lord,
To endless Years endure;
And Childrens Children ever find
Thy Words of Promis'e sure.

Psalm CIII. 19—22. Third Part. Short Met.

God's universal Dominion; or, Angels, praise the Lord.

1 The Lord, the sovereign King,
Hath fix'd his Throne on high;
O'er all the heavenly World he rules,
And all beneath the Sky.

2 Ye Angels, great in Might,
And swift to do his Will,
Bless ye the Lord, whose Voice ye hear,
Whose Pleasure ye fulfil.
Psalm CIV.

Let the bright Hosts who wait
The Orders of their King,
And guard his Churches when they pray,
Join in the Praise they sing.

While all his wondrous Works
Thro' his vast Kingdoms shew
Their Maker's Glory, thou, my Soul,
Shalt sing his Graces too.

Psalm CIV.

The Glory of God in Creation and Providence.

My Soul, thy great Creator praise;
When cloth'd in his celestial Rays
He in full Majesty appears,
And like a Robe his Glory wears.

Note, This Psalm may be sung to the Tune of the old 112th or 127th Psalm, by adding these two Lines to every Stanza, (viz.)

Great is the Lord; what Tongue can frame
An equal Honour to his Name?

Otherwise it must be sung as the 100th Psalm.

The Heavens are for his Curtains spread;
Th' unfathom'd Deep he makes his Bed:
Clouds are his Chariot when he flies
On winged Storms acros the Skies.

Angels, whom his own Breath inspires,
His Ministers are flaming Fires;
And swift as Thought their Armies move
To bear his Vengeance or his Love.

The World's Foundations by his Hand
Are pois'd, and shall for ever stand:
He binds the Ocean in his Chain,
Lev it should drown the Earth again.
5 When Earth was cover'd with the Flood,
Which high above the Mountains stood,
He thunder'd; and the Ocean fled,
Confined to its appointed Bed.

6 The swelling Billows know their Bound,
And in their Channels walk their Round;
Yet thence convey'd by secret Veins,
They spring on Hills, and drench the Plains.

7 He bids the Crystal Fountains flow,
And cheer the Valleys as they go,
'Tame Heifers there their Thirst allay,
And for the Stream wild Asses bray.

8 From pleasant Trees which shade the Brink,
The Lark and Linnet light to drink;
Their Songs the Lark and Linnet raise,
And chide our Silence in his Praise.

PAUSE I.

9 God from his cloudy Cistern pours
On the parch'd Earth enriching Show'r's;
The Grove the Garden, and the Field,
A thousand joyful Blessings yield.

10 He makes the grassy Food arise,
And gives the Cattle large Supplies;
With Herbs for Man of various Power,
To nourish Nature, or to cure.

11 What noble Fruit the Vines produce!
The Olive yields a shining Juice;
Our Hearts are cheer'd with generous Wine,
With inward Joy our Faces shine.

12 O bless your Name, ye Britons, fed
With Nature's chief Supporter, Bread:
While Bread your vital Strength imparts,
Serve him with Vigour in your Hearts.

Pause II.

13 Behold the stately Cedar stands
   Rais'd in the Forest by his Hands;
   Birds to the Boughs for Shelter fly,
   And build their Nests secure on high.

14 To craggy Hills ascends the Goat;
   And at the airy Mountain's Foot
   The feeblest Creatures make their Cell;
   He gives them Wisdom where to dwell.

15 He sets the Sun his circling Race,
   Appoints the Moon to change her Face;
   And when thick Darkness veils the Day,
   Calls out wild Beasts to hunt their Prey.

16 Fierce Lions lead their Young abroad,
   And roaring ask their Meat from God;
   But when the Morning-Beams arise,
   The savage Beast to Covert flies.

17 Then Man to daily Labour goes;
   The Night was made for his Repose:
   Sleep is thy Gift, that sweet Relief
   From tiresome Toil and waiting Grief.

18 How strange thy Works! how great thy Skill!
   And every Land thy Riches fill:
   Thy Wisdom round the World we see,
   This spacious Earth is full of Thee.

19 Nor less thy Glories in the Deep,
   Where Fish in Millions swim and creep,
   With wondrous Motions, swift or slow,
   Still wandering in the Paths below.
There Ships divide their watry Way,
    And Flocks of scaly Monsters play;
There dwells the huge Leviathan,
    And foams and sports in spite of Man.

Pause III.

Vast are thy Works, Almighty Lord,
All Nature rests upon thy Word,
And the whole Race of Creatures stands,
Waiting their Portion from thy Hands.

While each receives his different Food,
Their cheerful Looks pronounce it good;
Eagles and Bears, and Whales and Worms
Rejoice and praise in different Forms.

But when thy Face is hid, they mourn,
And dying to their Dust return;
Both Man and Beast their Souls resign;
Life, Breath and Spirit, all is Thine.

Yet thou canst breathe on Dust again,
And fill the World with Beasts and Men;
A Word of thy creating Breath
Repairs the Wastes of Time and Death.

His Works, the Wonders of his Might
Are honour'd with his own Delight:
How awful are his glorious Ways!
The Lord is dreadful in his Praise.

The Earth stands trembling at thy Stroke,
    And at thy Touch the Mountains smoke;
Yet humble Souls may see thy Face,
    And tell their Wants to sovereign Grace.

In Thee my Hopes and Wishes meet,
    And make my Meditations sweet.
Thy Praises shall my Breath imploy,
Till it expire in endless Joy.

28 While haughty Sinners die accurst,
Their Glory bury'd with their Dust,
I to my God my heavenly King
Immortal Hallelujahs sing.

PSALM CV. Abridg'd.

GOD's Conduct of Israel, and the Plagues of Egypt.

1 Give Thanks to God, invoke his Name,
And tell the World his Grace:
Sound thro' the Earth his Deeds of Fame,
That all may seek his Face.

2 His Covenant, which he kept in Mind
For numerous Ages past,
To numerous Ages yet behind
In equal Force shall last.

3 He swore to Abraham and his Seed,
And made the Blessings sure:
Gentiles the antient Promise read,
And find his Truth endure.

"Thy Seed shall make all Nations blest,
(Said the Almighty Voice)
"And Canaan's Land shall be their Rest,
"The Type of heavenly Joys.

4 [How large the Grant! how rich the Grace,
To give them Canaan's Land,
When they were Strangers in the Place,
A little feeble Band!}

5 Like Pilgrims thro' the Countries round
Securely they remov'd:
And haughty Kings that on them frown'd
Severely he reprov'd.

7 " Touch
``''Touch mine Anointed, and my Arm
``''Shall soon revenge the Wrong:
``''The Man that does my Prophets harm
``''Shall know their God is strong.

8 Then let the World forbear its Rage,
   Nor put the Church in Fear:
   Israel must live thro' every Age,
   And be 'th Almighty's Care.]

Pause I.

9 When Pharaoh dar'd to vex the Saints,
   And thus provok'd their God,
   Moses was sent at their Complaints,
   Arm'd with his dreadful Rod.

10 He call'd for Darkness: Darkness came
     Like an o'erwhelming Flood;
     He turn'd each Lake and every Stream
     To Lakes and Streams of Blood,

11 He gave the Sign, and noisome Flies
    Thro' the whole Country spread;
    And Frogs in croaking Armies rise
    About the Monarch's Bed,

12 Thro' Fields and Towns and Palaces
    The tenfold Vengeance flew;
    Locusts in Swarms devour'd their Trees
    And Hail their Cattle slew:

13 Then by an Angel's Midnight Stroke
    The Flower of Egypt dy'd;
    The Strength of every House was broke,
    Their Glory and their Pride.

14 Now let the World forbear its Rage,
   Nor put the Church in Fear;
Israel must live thro' every Age,
And be th' Almighty's Care.

Pause II.

15 Thus were the Tribes from Bondage brought,
And left the hated Ground;
Each some Egyptian Spoils had got,
And not one feeble found.
16 The Lord himself chose out their Way,
And mark'd their Journeys right,
Gave them a leading Cloud by Day,
A fiery Guide by Night.
17 They thirst; and Waters from the Rock
In rich Abundance flow,
And following still the Course they took
Ran all the Desert thro'.
18 O wondrous Stream! O blessed Type
Of ever-flowing Grace!
So Christ our Rock maintains our Life
Thro' all this Wilderness.
19 Thus guarded by th' Almighty Hand,
The chosen Tribes possess
Canaan the rich, the promis'd Land,
And there enjoy'd their Rest.
20 Then let the World forbear its Rage,
The Church renounce her Fear;
Israel must live thro' every Age,
And be th' Almighty's Care.

Psalm CVI. 1-5. First Part.

Praise to GOD, or, Communion with Saints.

To God the great, the Ever blest,
Let Songs of Honour be address'd;
His Mercy firm for ever stands;
Give him the Thanks his Love demands.

2 Who knows the Wonders of thy Ways?
Who shall fulfil thy boundless Praise?
Blest are the Souls that fear Thee still,
And pay their Duty to thy Will.

3 Remember what thy Mercy did
For Jacob’s Race, thy chosen Seed;
And with the same Salvation bless
The meanest Suppliant of thy Grace.

4 O may I see thy Tribes rejoice,
And aid their Triumphs with my Voice!
This is my Glory, Lord, to be
Join’d to thy Saints, and near to Thee.

Psalm CVI. Second Part. Ver. 7, 8, 12—14, 43—48.

Israel punis’d and pardon’d; or, GOD’s unchangeable Love.

1 GOD of eternal Love,
How sickle are our Ways!
And yet how oft did Israel prove
Thy Constancy of Grace!

2 They saw thy Wonders wrought,
And then thy Praise they sung;
But soon thy Works of Power forgot,
And murmur’d with their Tongue.

3 Now they believe his Word,
While Rocks with Rivers flow;
Now with their Lufts provoke the Lord,
And he reduc’d them low.

4 Yet when they mourn’d their Faults,
He hearken’d to their Groans,
Psalm CVII.

Brought his own Cov'nant to his Thoughts,
And call'd them still his Sons.

5 Their Names were in his Book,
He fav'd them from their Foes;
Oft he chastis'd, but ne'er forsook
The People that he chose.

6 Let Israel bless the Lord,
Who lov'd their ancient Race:
And Christians join the solemn Word
Amen to all the Praise.

Psalm CVII. First Part.

Israel led to Canaan, and Christians to Heaven.

1 Give Thanks to God: He reigns above,
Kind are his Thoughts, his Name is Love:
His Mercy Ages past have known,
And Ages long to come shall own.

2 Let the Redeemed of the Lord
The Wonders of his Grace record;
Israel, the Nation whom he chose,
And rescu'd from their mighty Foes.

3 [When God's Almighty Arm had broke
Their Fetters and th' Egyptian Yoke,
They trac'd the Desart wandring round;
A wild and solitary Ground!

4 There they could find no leading Road,
Nor City for a fix'd Abode;
Nor Food, nor Fountain to assuage
Their burning Thirst, or Hunger's Rage.]

5 In their Distress to God they cry'd,
God was their Saviour and their Guide;
He led their March far wandring round;
'Twas the right Path to Canaan's Ground.

6 Thus
6 Thus when our first Release we gain
From Sin's old Yoke and Satan's Chain,
We have this desart World to pass,
A dangerous and a tiresome Place.

7 He feeds and clothes us all the Way,
He guides our Footsteps left we stray,
He guards us with a powerful Hand,
And brings us to the heavenly Land.

8 O let the Saints with Joy record
The Truth and Goodness of the Lord!
How great his Works! how kind his Ways!
Let every Tongue pronounce his Praise.

Psalm CVII. Second Part.
Correction for Sin, and Release by Prayer.

1 From Age to Age exalt his Name,
God and his Grace are still the same:
He fills the hungry Soul with Food,
And feeds the Poor with every Good.

2 But if their Hearts rebel and rise
Against the God that rules the Skies,
If they reject his heavenly Word,
And slight the Counsels of the Lord;

3 He'll bring their Spirits to the Ground,
And no Deliv'rer shall be found;
Laden with Grief they waste their Breath
In Darkness and the Shades of Death.

4 Then to the Lord they raise their Cries,
He makes the dawning Light arise,
And scatters all that dismal Shade
That hung so heavy round their Head.

5 He cuts the Bars of Bras in two,
And lets the smiling Prisoners thro'.
Takes off the Load of Guilt and Grief,
And gives the labouring Soul Relief.

6 O may the Sons of Men record
The wondrous Goodness of the Lord!
How great his Works! how kind his Ways!
Let every Tongue pronounce his Praise.

Psalm CVII. Third Part.

Intemperance punisb'd and pardon'd; or, A Psalm for the Glutton and the Drunkard.

1 A I N Man on foolish Pleasures bent
Prepares for his own Punishment,
What Pains, what loathsome Maladies
From Luxury and Lust arise!

2 The Drunkard sells his Vitals wafle;
Yet drowns his Health to please his Taste;
Till all his active Powers are lost,
And fainting Life draws near the Dust.

3 The Glutton groans, and loaths to eat,
His Soul abhors delicious Meat:
Nature with heavy Loads opprest
Would yield to Death to be releas'd.

4 Then how the frightened Sinners fly
To God for Help with earnest Cry!
He hears their Groans, prolongs their Breath,
And saves them from approaching Death.

5 No Medicines could effect the Cure
So quick, so easy, or so sure:
The deadly Sentence God repeals,
He sends his sovereign Word and heals.

6 O may the Sons of Men record
The wondrous Goodness of the Lord!
Psalm CVII.

And let their thankful Offering prove
How they adore their Maker's Love.

Psalm CVII. Fourth Part. Long Metre.

Deliverance from Storms and Shipwreck; or, The Seaman's Song.

Would you behold the Works of God,
His Wonders in the World abroad,
Go with the Mariners, and trace
The unknown Regions of the Seas.

They leave their native Shores behind,
And seize the Favour of the Wind;
Till God command, and Tempests rise
That heave the Ocean to the Skies.

Now to the Heavens they mount amain,
Now sink to dreadful Deeps again;
What strange Affrights young Sailors feel,
And like a flagging Drunkard reel!

When Land is far, and Death is nigh,
Loft to all Hope, to God they cry:
His Mercy hears the loud Address,
And sends Salvation in Distress.

He bids the Winds their Wrath assuage,
The furious Waves forget their Rage;
'Tis calm; and Sailors smile to see
The Haven where they wish'd to be.

O may the Sons of Men record
The wondrous Goodness of the Lord!
Let them their private Offerings bring,
And in the Church his Glory sing.
The Mariners Psalm.

1 The Works of Glory, mighty Lord,
   Thy Wonders in the Deep,
The Sons of Courage shall record
   Who trade in floating Ships.

2 At thy Command the Winds arise,
   And swell the tow'ring Waves;
The Men astonished mount the Skies
   And sink in gaping Graves.

3 [Again they climb the watry Hills,
   And plunge in Deeps again;
Each like a tottering Drunkard reels,
   And finds his Courage vain.

4 Frighted to hear the Tempest roar
   They pant with fluttering Breath;
And hopeless of the distant Shore
   Expect immediate Death.]

5 Then to the Lord they raise their Cries;
   He hears the loud Request,
And orders Silence thro' the Skies,
   And lays the Floods to rest.

8 Sailors rejoice to lose their Fears,
   And see the Storm allayed:
Now to their Eyes the Port appears;
   There let their Vows be paid.

7 'Tis God that brings them safe to Land;
   Let stupid Mortals know
That Waves are under his Command,
   And all the Winds that blow.

8 O that the Sons of Men would praise
   The Goodness of the Lord!
And those that see thy wondrous Ways
Thy wondrous Love record.

Psalm CVII. Last Part.
Colonies planted; or, Nations blest and punished.

1 When God provok'd with daring Crimes,
Scourges the Madness of the Times,
He turns their Fields to barren Sand,
And dries the Rivers from the Land.

2 His Word can raise the Springs again,
And make the wither'd Mountains green,
Send show'ry Blessings from the Skies;
And Harvests in the Desarts rise.

3 [Where nothing dwelt but Beasts of Prey,
Or Men as fierce and wild as they,
He bids th' Oppreßt and Poor repair,
And builds them Towns and Cities there.

4 They sow the Fields, and Trees they plant,
Whose yearly Fruit supplies their Want:
Their Race grows up from fruitful Stocks,
Their Wealth increases with their Flocks.

5 Thus they are blest; but if they sin,
He lets the Heathen Nations in,
A savage Crew invades their Lands,
Their Princes die by barbarous Hands.

6 Their captive Sons expos'd to Scorn
Wander unpity'd and forlorn:
The Country lies unfenced, until'd,
And Desolation spreads the Field.

7 Yet if the humbled Nation mourns,
Again his dreadful Hand he turns:

Again
Psalm CIX.

Again he makes their Cities thrive,
And bids the dying Churches live.

8 The Righteous with a joyful Sense
Admire the Works of Providence;
And Tongues of Atheists shall no more
Blaspheme the God that Saints adore.

9 How few with pious Care record
These wondrous Dealings of the Lord!
But wise Observers still shall find
The Lord is holy, just and kind.

Psalm CIX. Ver. 1—5, 31.

Love to Enemies from the Example of Christ.

1 God of my Mercy and my Praise,
Thy Glory is my Song;
Tho' Sinners speak against thy Grace
With a blaspheming Tongue.

2 When in the Form of mortal Man
Thy Son on Earth was found,
With cruel Slanders false and vain
They compass'd him around.

3 Their Miseries his Compassion move,
Their Peace he still pursu'd;
They render Hatred for his Love,
And Evil for his Good.

4 Their Malice rag'd without a Cause,
Yet with his dying Breath
He pray'd for Murderers on his Cross,
And blest his Foes in Death.

5 Lord, shall thy bright Example shine
In vain before my Eyes?
Give me a Soul a-kin to thine,
To love mine Enemies.
Psalm CX.

First Part. Long Metre.

Christ exalted, and Multitudes converted; or, The Success of the Gospel.

Thus the eternal Father spake
To Christ the Son; "Aicend and sit
"At my Right-hand, till I shall make
"Thy Foes submissive at thy Feet.

From Zion shall thy Word proceed,
"Thy Word, the Scepter in thy Hand,
"Shall make the Hearts of Rebels bleed
"And bow their Wills to thy Command.

That Day shall shew thy Power is great,
"When Saints shall flock with willing Minds,
"And Sinners croud thy Temple-Gate,
"Where Holiness in Beauty shines.

O blessed Power! O glorious Day!
What a large Victory shall ensue!
And Converts, who thy Grace obey,
Exceed the Drops of Morning-Dew.

Psalm CX. Second Part. Long Metre.

The Kingdom and Priesthood of Christ.

Thus the great Lord of Earth and Sea
Spake to his Son, and thus he swore;
"Eternal shall thy Priesthood be,
"And change from Hand to Hand no more.

"Aaron and all his Sons must die:
"But everlasting Life is thine,
Psalm CX.

Christ's Kingdom and Priesthood.

1 Jesus, our Lord, ascend thy Throne,
   And near thy Father sit;
In Zion shall thy Power be known,
   And make thy Foes submit.

2 What Wonders shall thy Gospel do!
   Thy Converts shall surpafs
The numerous Drops of Morning-Dew,
   And own thy sovereign Grace.

3 God hath pronouc'd a firm Decree,
   Nor changes what he swore;
"Eternal shall thy Priesthood be,
   "When Aaron is no more.

To save for ever those that fly
For Refuge from the Wrath divine.

By me Melchisedec was made
On Earth a King and Priest at once;
And Thou my heavenly Priest shalt plead;
And Thou, my King, shalt rule my Sons.

Jesus the Priest ascends his Throne,
While Counsels of eternal Peace,
Between the Father and the Son,
Proceed with Honour and Success.

Thro' the whole Earth his Reign shall spread,
And crush the Powers that dare rebel:
Then shall he judge the rising Dead,
And send the guilty World to Hell.

Tho' while he treads his glorious Way,
He drinks the Cup of Tears and Blood,
The Sufferings of that dreadful Day
Shall but advance him near to God.
Psalm CXI.

4 "Melchisedec, that wondrous Priest,
   "That King of high Degree,
   "That holy Man who Abraham blest
   "Was but a Type of Thee.

Jesus our Priest for ever lives
To plead for us above;
Jesus our King for ever gives
The Blessings of his Love.

6 God shall exalt his glorious Head,
And his high Throne maintain,
Shall strike the Powers and Princes dead
Who dare oppose his Reign.

Psalm CXI. First Part.

The Wisdom of God in his Works.

1 Songs of immortal Praise belong
To my Almighty God;
He has my Heart, and he my Tongue
To spread his Name abroad.

2 How great the Works his Hand has wrought!
   How glorious in our Sight!
   And Men in every Age have sought
   His Wonders with Delight.

3 How most exact is Nature's Frame!
   How wise th' Eternal Mind!
   His Counsels never change the Scheme
   That his first Thoughts design'd.

4 When he redeem'd his chosen Sons,
   He fix'd his Cov'nant sure:
   The Orders that his Lips pronounce
   To endless Years endure.

5 Nature and Time, and Earth and Skies
   Thy heavenly Skill proclaim:
Psalm CXI.

What shall we do to make us wise,
But learn to read thy Name?

6 To fear thy Power, to trust thy Grace
Is our divinest Skill;
And he's the wisest of our Race
That best obeys thy Will.

Psalm CXI. Second Part.

The Perfections of God.

1 Great is the Lord; his Works of Might Demand our noblest Songs;
   Let his assembled Saints unite
   Their Harmony of Tongues.

2 Great is the Mercy of the Lord,
   He gives his Children Food;
   And ever mindful of his Word,
   He makes his Promise good.

3 His Son, the great Redeemer, came
   To seal his Covenant sure:
   Holy and Reverend is his Name,
   His Ways are just and pure.

4 They that would grow divinely wise
   Must with his Fear begin;
   Our fairest Proof of Knowledge lies
   In hating every Sin.

Psalm CXII. As the 113th Psalm.

The Blessings of the liberal Man.

1 That Man is blest who stands in Awe
   Of God, and loves his sacred Law:
   His Seed on Earth shall be renown'd;
   His House the Seat of Wealth shall be,
   An inexhausted Treasury,
   And with successive Honours crown'd.
   His
Psalm CXII.

2 His liberal Favours he extends,
   To some he gives, to others lends:
       A generous Pity fills his Mind:
       Yet what his Charity impairs,
       He saves by Prudence in Affairs,
       And thus he's just to all Mankind.

3 His Hands, while they his Alms bestow'd,
       His Glory's future Harvest sow'd;
       The sweet Remembrance of the Just
       Like a green Root revives, and bears
       A Train of Blessings for his Heirs,
       When dying Nature sleeps in Dust.

4 Beset with threatening Dangers round,
       Unmov'd shall he maintain his Ground;
       His Conscience holds his Courage up:
       The Soul that's fill'd with Vertue's Light,
       Shines brightest in Affliction's Night:
       And sees in Darkness Beams of Hope.

Pause.

5 [Ill Tidings never can surprize
His Heart, that fix'd on God relies,
      Tho' Waves and Tempests roar around:
Safe on the Rock he sits, and sees
The Shipwreck of his Enemies,
      And all their Hope and Glory drown'd.

6 The Wicked shall his Triumph see,
And gnash their Teeth in Agony,
To find their Expectations crost;
They and their Envy, Pride and Spite,
Sink down to everlasting Night,
      And all their Names in Darkness lost.]
Psalm CXII. Long Metre.

The Blessings of the Pious and Charitable.

1. This happy Man who fears the Lord,
   Loves his Commands, and trusts his Word;
   Honour and Peace his Days attend,
   And Blessings to his Seed descend.

2. Compassion dwells upon his Mind,
   To works of Mercy still inclin'd:
   He lends the Poor some present Aid,
   Or gives them, not to be repaid:

3. When Times grow dark, and Tidings spread
   That fill his Neighbours round with Dread,
   His Heart is arm'd against the Fear,
   For God with all his Pow'r is there.

4. His Soul well fix'd upon the Lord
   Draws heavenly Courage from his Word;
   Amidst the Darkness Light shall rise,
   To cheer his Heart and bless his Eyes.

5. He hath dispersed his Alms abroad,
   His Works are still before his God;
   His Name on Earth shall long remain,
   While envious Sinners fret in vain.

Psalm CXII. Common Metre.

Liberality rewarded.

1. Happiest he that fears the Lord,
   And follows his Commands,
   Who lends the Poor without Reward,
   Or gives with liberal Hands.

2. As Pity dwells within his Breast
   To all the Sons of Need;
   So God shall answer his Request
   With Blessings on his Seed.
Psalm CXIII.

No evil Tidings shall surprize
His well-establish'd Mind;
His Soul to God, his Refuge, flies,
And leaves his Fears behind.

In Times of general Distress
Some Beams of Light shall shine,
To shew the World his Righteousness,
And give him Peace divine.

His Works of Piety and Love
Remain before the Lord;
Honour on Earth and Joys above
Shall be his sure Reward.

Psalm CXIII. Proper Tune.
The Majesty and Condescension of God.

1 Ye that delight to serve the Lord,
The Honours of his Name record,
His sacred Name for ever bless;
Where-e'er the circling Sun displays
His rising Beams, or setting Rays,
Let Lands and Seas his Power confess.

2 Not Time, nor Nature's narrow Rounds,
Can give his vast Dominion Bounds;
The Heavens are far below his Height:
Let no created Greatness dare
With our eternal God compare,
Arm'd with his uncreated Might.

3 He bows his glorious Head to view
What the bright Hosts of Angels do,
And bends his Care to mortal Things;
His sovereign Hand exalts the Poor,
He takes the Needy from the Door,
And makes them Company for Kings.
PSALM CXIII.

When childless Families despair,
He sends the Blessings of an Heir,
To rescue their expiring Name;
The Mother with a thankful Voice
Proclaims his Praises and her Joys:
Let every Age advance his Fame.

PSALM CXIII. Long Metre.

GOD Sovereign and Gracious.

1 Ye Servants of th' Almighty King,
   In every Age his Praises sing;
Where-e'er the Sun shall rise or set,
The Nations shall his Praise repeat.

2 Above the Earth, beyond the Sky
   Stands his high Throne of Majesty;
Nor Time nor Place his Power restrain,
Nor bound his universal Reign.

3 Which of the Sons of Adam dare,
   Or Angels with their God compare?
His Glories how divinely bright,
Who dwells in uncreated Light!

4 Behold his Love: He stoops to view
   What Saints above and Angels do;
And condescends yet more to know
The mean Affairs of Men below.

5 From Dust and Cottages obscure
   His Grace exaltsthe humble Poor;
Gives them the Honour of his Sons,
And fits them for their heavenly Thrones.

6 [A Word of his creating Voice
   Can make the barren House rejoice:
Tho' Sarah's ninety Years were past,
The promis'd Seed is born at last.

PSALM CXIV.

7 With Joy the Mother views her Son,
    And tells the Wonders God has done:
    Faith may grow strong when Sense despairs;
    If Nature fails, the Promise bears.

PSALM CXIV.
Miracles attending Israel's Journey.

1 WHEN Israel, freed from Pharaoh's Hand,
    Left the proud Tyrant and his Land,
    The Tribes with cheerful Homage own
    Their King, and Judah was his Throne.

2 Across the Deep their Journey lay;
    The Deep divides to make them way;
    Jordan beheld their March, and fled
    With backward Current to his Head.

3 The Mountains shook like frightened Sheep,
    Like Lambs the little Hillecks leap!
    Not Sinai on her Base could stand,
    Conscious of sovereign Power at Hand.

4 What Power could make the Deep divide?
    Make Jordan backward roll his Tide?
    Why did ye leap, ye little Hills?
    And whence the Fright that Sinai feels?

5 Let every Mountain, every Flood
    Retire and know th' approaching God,
    The King of Israel: See him here;
    'Tremble thou Earth, adore and fear.

6 He thunders, and all Nature mourns
    The Rock to standing Pools he turns,
    Flints spring with Fountains at his Word,
    And Fires and Seas confess the Lord.

L 3 PSALM
Psalm CXV. First Metre.

The true GOD our Refuge; or, Idolatry reproved.

1 Not to our selves, who are but Dust,
   Not to our selves is Glory due,
   Eternal God, Thou only Just,
   Thou only Gracious, Wise and True.

2 Shine forth in all thy dreadful Name;
   Why should a Heathen’s haughty Tongue
   Insult us, and to raise our Shame,
   Say, “Where’s the GOD you’ve serv’d so long?”

3 The God we serve maintains his Throne
   Above the Clouds, beyond the Skies,
   Thro’ all the Earth his Will is done,
   He knows our Groans, he hears our Cries.

4 But the vain Idols they adore
   Are senseless Shapes of Stone and Wood;
   At best a Mafs of glittering Ore,
   A silver Saint, or golden God.

5 [With Eyes and Ears, they carve their Head;
   Deaf are their Ears, their Eyes are blind;
   In vain are costly Offerings made,
   And Vows are scatter’d in the Wind.

6 Their Feet were never made to move,
   Nor Hands to save when Mortals pray;
   Mortals that pay them Fear or Love,
   Seem to be blind and deaf as they.]

7 O Israel, make the Lord thy Hope,
   Thy Help, thy Refuge, and thy Rest;
   The Lord shall build thy Ruins up,
   And bless the People and the Priest.

8 The Dead no more can speak thy Praise,
   They dwell in Silence and the Grave;
Psalm CXV.

But we shall live to sing thy Grace,
And tell the World thy Pow'r to save.

Psalm CXV. Second Metre. As the New Tune of the 50th Psalm.

Popish Idolatry reprov'd.
A Psalm for the 5th of November.

1 Not to our Names, Thou only Just and True,
   Not to our worthless Names is Glory due:
   Thy Power and Grace, thy Truth and Justice claim
   Immortal Honours to thy sovereign Name.
   Shine thro' the Earth from Heaven, thy blest Abode,
   Nor let the Heathens say; "And where's your God?"

   (Throne,

2 Heaven is thine higher Court: There stands thy
   And thro' the lower Worlds thy Will is done:
   Our God fram'd all this Earth, these Heavens he
   But Fools adore the Gods their Hands have made:
   The kneeling Croud with Looks devout behold
   Their Silver Saviours, and their Saints of Gold.

3 Vain are those artful Shapes of Eyes and Ears;
   The molten Image neither sees nor hears:
   Their Hands are helpless, nor their Feet can move,
   They have no Speech, nor Thought, nor Power,
   (nor Love:
   Yet sottish Mortals make their long Complaints
   To their deaf Idols, and their moveless Saints.

4 The Rich have Statues well adorn'd with Gold;
   The Poor content with Gods of coarser Mould,
   With Tools of Iron carve the senseless Stock
   Lopt from a Tree, or broken from a Rock:
   People and Priest drive on the solemn Trade,
   And trust the Gods that Saws and Hammers made.]
5 Be Heaven and Earth amaz'd! 'Tis hard to say
Which is more stupid, or their Gods, or they.
O Israel, trust the Lord: He hears and sees,
He knows thy Sorrows, and restores thy Peace:
His Worship does a thousand Comforts yield,
He is thy Help, and he thine heavenly Shield.

6 O Britain trust the Lord: Thy Foes in vain
Attempt thy Ruin, and oppose his Reign;
Had they prevail'd Darkness had clos'd our Days,
And Death and Silence had forbid his Praise:
But we are fav'd, and live: Let Songs arise,
And Britain bless the God that built the Skies.

Psalm CXVI. First Part.

Recovery from Sickness.

1 I Love the Lord: He heard my Cries,
   And pity'd every Groan,
   Long as I live, when Troubles rise,
   I'll haften to his Throne.

2 I love the Lord: He bow'd his Ear,
   And chas'd my Griefs away:
   O let my Heart no more despair,
   While I have Breath to pray!

3 My Flesh declin'd, my Spirits fell,
   And I drew near the Dead,
   While inward Pangs and Fears of Hell
   Perplex'd my wakeful Head.

4 " My God, I cry'd, thy Servant save,
   " Thou ever good and just;
   " Thy Power can rescue from the Grave,
   " Thy Power is all my Trust.

5 The Lord beheld me fore distreft,
   He bid my Pains remove:

Return,
Return, my Soul, to God thy Rest,
For thou hast known his Love.

My God hath sav’d my Soul from Death,
And dry’d my falling Tears:
Now to his Praise I’ll spend my Breath,
And my remaining Years.

WHAT shall I render to my God
For all his Kindness shown?
My Feet shall visit thine Abode,
My Songs address thy Throne.

Among the Saints that fill thine House
My Offerings shall be paid;
There shall my Zeal perform the Vows
My Soul in Anguish made.

How much is Mercy thy Delight,
Thou ever-blessed God!
How dear thy Servants in thy Sight?
How precious is their Blood!

How happy all thy Servants are!
How great thy Grace to me!
My Life which thou hast made thy Care,
Lord, I devote to thee.

Now I am thine, for ever thine,
Nor shall my Purpose move;
Thy Hand has loosed my Bonds of Pain,
And bound me with thy Love.

Here in thy Courts I leave my Vow,
And thy rich Grace record;

Witness,
PSALM CXVII.

Witness, ye Saints, who hear me now.
If I forsake the Lord.

PSALM CXVII. Common Metre.
Praise to GOD from all Nations.

1. All ye Nations, praise the Lord
   Each with a different Tongue
   In every Language learn his Word,
   And let his Name be sung.

2. His Mercy reigns thro’ every Land;
   Proclaim his Grace abroad;
   For ever firm his Truth shall stand;
   Praise ye the faithful GOD.

PSALM CXVII. Long Metre.

1. From all that dwell below the Skies
   Let the Creator’s Praise arise:
   Let the Redeemer’s Name be sung
   Thro’ every Land, by every Tongue.

2. Eternal are thy Mercies, Lord:
   Eternal Truth attends thy Word;
   Thy Praise shall found from Shore to Shore,
   Till Suns shall rise and set no more.

PSALM CXVII. Short Metre.

1. Thy Name, Almighty Lord,
   Shall found thro’ distant Lands;
   Great is thy Grace, and sure thy Word:
   Thy Truth for ever stands.

2. Far be thine Honour spread,
   And long thy Praise endure,
   Till Morning Light and Evening Shade
   Shall be exchanged no more.
Psalm CXVIII. First Part. Ver. 6—15.

Deliverance from a Tumult.

1 The Lord appears my Helper now,
Nor is my Faith afraid
What all the Sons on Earth can do,
Since Heaven affords its Aid.

2 'Tis safer, Lord, to hope in Thee,
And have my God my Friend,
Than trust in Men of high Degree,
And on their Truth depend.

3 Like Bees my Foes be set me round,
A large and angry Swarm;
But I shall all their Rage confound
By thine Almighty Arm.

4 'Tis thro' the Lord my Heart is strong,
In him my Lips rejoice;
While his Salvation is my Song,
How cheerful is my Voice!

5 Like angry Bees they girt me round;
When God appears they fly:
So burning Thorns with crackling Sound
Make a fierce Blaze, and die.

6 Joy to the Saints and Peace belongs;
The Lord protects their Days:
Let Israel tune immortal Songs
To his Almighty Grace.

Publick Praise for Deliverance from Death.

1 LORD, thou hast heard thy Servant cry,
And resc'd from the Grave;
Now shall he live: (and none can die,
If God resolve to save.)

2 Thy
2 Thy Praise more constant than before,
   Shall fill his daily Breath;
   Thy Hand that hath chastis'd him fore
   Defends him still from Death.

3 Open the Gates of Zion now,
   For we shall worship there,
   The House where all the Righteous go
   'Thy Mercy to declare.

4 Among th' Assemblies of thy Saints
   Our thankful Voice we raise;
   There we have told Thee our Complaints,
   And there we speak thy Praise.

Psalm CXVIII. Third Part. Ver. 22, 23.

Christ the Foundation of his Church.

1 Behold the sure Foundation-Stone
   Which God in Zion lays,
   To build our heavenly Hopes upon,
   And his eternal Praise.

2 Chosen of God, to Sinners dear,
   And Saints adore the Name,
   They trust their whole Salvation here,
   Nor shall they suffer Shame.

3 The foolish Builders, Scribe and Priest,
   Reject it with Disdaine;
   Yet on this Rock the Church shall rest,
   And Envy rage in vain.

4 What tho' the Gates of Hell withstand?
   Yet must this Building rise:
   'Tis thy own Work, Almighty God,
   And wondrous in our Eyes.

Hosanna; the Lord's-Day; or, Christ's Resurrection, and our Salvation.

1 This is the Day the Lord hath made,
   He calls the Hours his own;
   Let Heaven rejoice, let Earth be glad,
   And Praise surround thy Throne.

2 To-day he rose and left the Dead;
   And Satan's Empire fell;
   To-day the Saints his Triumph spread,
   And all his Wonders tell.

3 Hosanna to th' anointed King,
   To David's holy Son:
   Help us, O Lord; descend and bring
   Salvation from thy Throne.

4 Blest be the Lord who comes to Men
   With Messages of Grace;
   Who comes in God his Father's Name
   To save our sinful Race.

5 Hosanna in the highest Strains
   The Church on Earth can raise;
   The highest Heavens, in which he reigns,
   Shall give him nobler Praise.

Psalm CXVIII. Ver. 22–27. Short Met.

As Hosanna for the Lord's-Day; or, A new Song of Salvation by Christ.

1 See what a living Stone
   The Builders did refuse;
   Yet God hath built his Church thereon
   In Spite of envious Jews.

Psalm CXVIII

2 The Scribe and angry Priest
   Reject thine only Son;
Yet on this Rock shall Zion rest,
   As the chief Corner-stone.

3 The Work, O Lord, is Thine,
   And wondrous in our Eyes;
This Day declares it all Divine,
   This Day did Jesus rise.

4 This is the glorious Day
   That our Redeemer made;
Let us rejoice, and sing, and pray,
   Let all the Church be glad.

5 Hosanna to the King
   Of David's royal Blood;
Bless Him, ye Saints: He comes to bring Salvation from your God.

6 We bless thine holy Word
   Which all this Grace displays;
And offer on thine Altar, Lord,
   Our Sacrifice of Praise.

Psalm CXVIII 22—27. Long Metre.

An Hosannah for the Lord's-Day; or, A New Song of Salvation by Christ.

1 O, what a glorious Corner-stone
   The Jews Builders did refuse;
But God hath built his Church thereon
   In spight of Envy, and the Jews.

2 Great God, the Work is all divine,
   The Joy and Wonder of our Eyes;
This is the Day that proves it thine,
   The Day that saw our Saviour rise.
Psalm CXIX.

3 Sinners rejoice, and Saints be glad:
   Hosanna, let his Name be blest;
   A thousand Honours on his Head
   With Peace and Light and Glory rest!

4 In God's own Name he comes to bring
   Salvation to our dying Race;
   Let the whole Church address their King
   With Hearts of Joy, and Songs of Praise.

Psalm CXIX.

I have collected and disposed the most useful Verses of this Psalm under eighteen different Heads, and form'd a Divine Song upon each of them. But the Verses are much transpos'd, to attain some Degree of Connection.

In some Places, among the Words Law, Commands, Judgments, Testimonies, I have used Gospel, Word, Grace, Truth, Promises, &c. as more agreeable to the New Testament, and the common Language of Christians, and it equally answers the Design of the Psalms, which was to recommend the Holy Scripture.

Psalm CXIX. First Part.
The Blessedness of Saints, and Misery of Sinners.

Ver. 1, 2, 3.

1 Blessed are the undefil'd in Heart,
   Whose Ways are right and clean;
   Who never from thy Law depart,
   But fly from every Sin.

2 Blest are the Men that keep thy Word,
   And practise thy Commands;
   With their whole Heart they seek the Lord,
   And serve Thee with their Hands.

Ver.
Ver. 165.

3 Great is their Peace who love thy Law;
   How firm their Souls abide!
Nor can a bold Temptation draw
   Their steady Feet aside.

   Ver. 6.

4 Then shall my Heart have inward Joy,
   And keep my Face from Shame,
When all thy Statutes I obey,
   And honour all thy Name.

   Ver. 21, 118.

5 But haughty Sinners God will hate,
   The Proud shall die accurst;
The Sons of Falshood and Deceit
   Are trodden to the Dust.

   Ver. 119, 155.

6 Vile as the Dross the Wicked are:
   And those that leave thy Ways
Shall see Salvation from afar,

Secret Devotion and Spiritual-Mindedness; or, Constant Converse with God.

   And pay my Thanks to Thee:

My Thoughts in warm Devotion rise,
And sweet Acceptance find.

Profession of Sincerity, Repentance, and Obedience.

Soon as I know thy Way,
My Heart makes haste t'obey thy Word,
And suffers no Delay.
Ver. 30, 14.

2 I choose the Path of Heavenly Truth,
And glory in my Choice:
Not all the Riches of the Earth
Could make me so rejoice.

3 The Testimonies of thy Grace
I set before my Eyes;
Thence I derive my daily Strength,
And there my Comfort lies.
Ver. 59.

4 If once I wander from thy Path,
I think upon my Ways,
Then turn my Feet to thy Commands,
And trust thy pardoning Grace.

O Saviour thy Servant, Lord;
Thou art my Shield, my Hiding-place;

Would I perform thy Will.

   And guard their Lives from Sin;
Thy Word the choicest Rules imparts
To keep the Conscience clean.

2 When once it enters to the Mind,
   It spreads such Light abroad,
The meanest Souls Instruction find,
   And raise their Thoughts to God.
   Ver. 105.

3 'Tis like the Sun, a heavenly Light,
   That guides us all the Day;
And thro' the Dangers of the Night,
   A Lamp to lead our Way.

   I hate the Sinner's Road:
I hate my own vain Thoughts that rise,
   But love thy Law, my God.
   Ver. 89, 90, 91.

6 [The starry Heavens thy Rule obey,
   The Earth maintains her Place;
And thee thy Servants Night and Day
   Thy Skill and Power express.
7 But still thy Law and Gospel, Lord,
    Have Lessons more divine:
Not Earth stands firmer than thy Word,
    Nor Stars so nobly shine.]
Ver. 160, 140, 9, 116.
8 Thy Word is everlasting Truth;
    How pure is every Page!
That holy Book shall guide our Youth,
    And well support our Age.

Psalm CXIX. Fifth Part.

Delight in Scripture; or, The Word of GOD dwelling in us.

Ver. 97.

1 O How I love thy holy Law!
   'Tis daily my Delight;
And thence my Meditations draw
    Divine Advice by Night.
Ver. 148.

My Soul with Longing melts away
   To hear thy Gospel, Lord.
Ver. 3, 13, 54.

3 How doth thy Word my Heart engage?
   How well employ my Tongue?
And in my tiresome Pilgrimage
    Yields me a heavenly Song.
Ver. 19, 103.

4 Am I a Stranger, or at Home,
   'Tis my perpetual Feast;
Not Honey dropping from the Comb
   So much allures the Taste.
Ver. 72, 127.

    Nor shall thy Word be sold

Psalm CXIX.

For Loads of Silver well refin'd,

Are Pillars to support my Hope,

Thro' all the Business of the Day,

My Thoughts in holy Wonder rise,

At some good Word of thine,
Not mighty Men that share the Spoil
Have Joys compar'd to mine.

Psalm CXIX. Seventh Part.

Ver. 96. paraphras'd.

1 LET all the Heathen Writers join
To form one perfect Book,
Great God, if once compar'd with Thine,
How mean their Writings look!
Psalm CXIX.

2 Not the most perfect Rules they gave
Could shew one Sin forgiven;
Nor lead a Step beyond the Grave,
But thine conduct to Heaven.

3 I've seen an End of what we call
Perfection here below:
How short the Powers of Nature fall,
And can no farther go.

4 Yet Men would fain be just with God
By Works their Hands have wrought:
But thy Commands, exceeding broad,
Extend to every Thought.

5 In vain we boast Perfection here,
While Sin desiles our Frame;
And sinks our Virtues down so far,
They scarce deserve the Name.

6 Our Faith, and Love, and every Grace
Fall far below thy Word;
But perfect Truth and Righteousness
Dwell only with the Lord.

Psalm CXIX. Eighth Part.

The Word of GOD is the Saint's Portion; or, The Excellency and Variety of Scripture.

Ver. 111. paraphras'd.

ORD, I have made thy Word my Choice;
My lafting Heritage;
There shall my noblest Powers rejoice,
My warmest Thoughts engage.
I'll read the Histories of thy Love,
And keep thy Laws inight,
While thro' the Promises I rove,
With ever-fresh Delight.

'Tis
Tis a broad Land of Wealth unknown,
Where Springs of Life arise,
Seeds of immortal Bliss are sown,
And hidden Glory lies.

The best Relief that Mourners have,
It makes our Sorrows blest;
Our fairest Hope beyond the Grave,
And our eternal Rest.

Psalm CXIX. Ninth Part.

Desire of Knowledge; or, The Teaching of the Spirit with the Word.

Ver. 64, 68, 18.

1 THY Mercies fill the Earth, O Lord,
How good thy Works appear!
Open mine Eyes to read thy Word,
And see thy Wonders there.

Ver. 73, 125.

2 My Heart was fashion’d by thy Hand,
My Service is thy Due,
O make thy Servant understand
The Duties he must do.

Ver. 19.

3 Since I’m a Stranger here below,
Let not thy Path be hid,
But mark the Road my Feet should go,
And be my constant Guide.

Ver. 26.

4 When I confess’d my wandring Ways,
Thou heard’st my Soul complain;
Grant me the Teachings of thy Grace,
Or I shall stray again.

Ver. 33, 34.

5 If God to me his Statutes shew,
And heav’nly Truth impart,
Psalm CXIX.

His Work for ever I'll pursue,
His Law shall rule my Heart.
Ver. 50, 71.

6 This was my Comfort when I bore
 Variety of Grief;
 It made me learn thy Word the more,
 And fly to that Relief.
 Ver. 51.

7 [In vain the Proud deride me now;
 I'll ne'er forget thy Law,
 Nor let that blessed Gospel go
 Whence all my Hopes I draw.
 Ver. 27, 171.

8 When I have learn'd my Father's Will,
 I'll teach the World his Ways;
 My thankful Lips inspir'd with Zeal
 Shall loud pronounce his Praise.]

Psalm CXIX. Tenth Part.
Pleading the Promises.

Ver. 38, 49.

Behold thy waiting Servant, Lord,
 Devoted to thy Fear;
 Remember and confirm thy Word,
 For all my Hopes are there.
 Ver. 41, 58, 107.

2 Hast thou not writ Salvation down,
 And promis'd quickning Grace?
 Doth not my Heart address thy Throne?
 And yet thy Love delays.
 Ver. 123, 42.

Mine Eyes for thy Salvation fail;
 O bear thy Servant up;
 Nor let the scoffing Lips prevail,
 Who dare reproach my Hope.

And make my Heart sincere;
Let Sin have no Dominion, Lord,
But keep my Conscience clear.

Ver. 176.
5 My Soul hath gone too far astray,
My Feet too often slip;
Yet since I’ve not forgot thy Way,
Restore thy wand’ring Sheep.

Ver. 35.
6 Make me to walk in thy Commands:
’Tis a delightful Road;
Nor let my Head, or Heart, or Hands,
Offend against my God.
Psalm CXIX.

Psalm CXIX. Twelfth Part.
Breathing after Comfort and Deliverance.

Ver. 153.

1 My God, consider my Distress,
   Let Mercy plead my Cause;
   Tho' I have sinn'd against thy Grace,
   I can't forget thy Laws.
   Ver. 39, 116.

2 Forbid, forbid the sharp Reproach,
   Which I so justly fear;
   Uphold my Life, uphold my Hopes,
   Nor let my Shame appear.
   Ver. 122, 135.

3 Be thou a Surety, Lord, for me,
   Nor let the Proud oppress;
   But make thy waiting Servant see
   The Shinings of thy Face.
   Ver. 82.

4 My Eyes with Expectation fail,
   My Heart within me cries,
   "When will the Lord his Truth fulfil,
   And make my Comforts rise?"
   Ver. 132.

   My Spirit stands in awe?
My Soul abhors a lying Tongue,
   But loves thy righteous Law.
   Ver. 161, 120.

   To bear my Father's Rod;

   Without enlivening Grace!

Ver. 93.
6 Then shall I love thy Gospel more,
   And ne'er forget thy Word,
When I have felt its quickening Power
   To draw me near the Lord.

Psalm CXIX. Seventeenth Part.

Courage and Perseverance under Persecution; or,
Grace shining in Difficulties and Trials.

Ver. 143, 28.
1 When Pain and Anguish seize me, Lord,
   All my Support is from thy Word:
My Soul dissolves for Heaviness,
   Uphold me with thy strengthening Grace.

Ver. 51, 69, 110.
2 The Proud have fram'd their Scoffs and Lyes,
   They watch my Feet with envious Eyes,
And tempt my Soul to Snares and Sin,
   Yet thy Commands I ne'er decline.

Ver. 161, 78.
3 They hate me, Lord, without a Cause,
   They hate to see me love thy Laws;
But I will trust and fear thy Name,
   Till Pride and Malice die with shame.

PSALM CXX.

P S A L M C X X .  Last Part.
Sanctified Afflictions; or, Delight in the Word of God.

Ver. 67, 59.

1. Father, I bless thy gentle Hand;
How kind was thy chastising Rod,
That forc'd my Conscience to a Stand,
And brought my wand'ring Soul to God!

2. Foolish and vain I went astray
E'er I had felt thy scourges, Lord,
I left my Guide, and lost my Way;
But now I love and keep thy Word.

Ver. 71.

3. 'Tis good for me to wear the Yoke,
For Pride is apt to rise and swell;
'Tis good to bear my Father's Stroke,
That I might learn his Statutes well.

Ver. 72.

4. The Law that issues from thy Mouth
Shall raise my cheerful Passions more
Than all the Treasures of the South,
Or Western Hills of golden Ore.

Ver. 73.

5. Thy Hands have made my mortal Frame,
Thy Spirit form'd my Soul within;
Teach me to know thy wondrous Name,
And guard me safe from Death and Sin.

6. Then all that love and fear the Lord
At my Salvation shall rejoice;
For I have hoped in thy Word,
And made thy Grace my only Choice.

PSALM CXX.

Complaint of quarrelsome Neighbours; or, A desir'd Wish for Peace.

1. Thou God of Love, thou Ever-blessed
Pity my sufferings State;
Psalm CXXI.

When wilt thou set my Soul at Rest
From Lips that love Deceit?

2 Hard Lot of mine! my Days are cast
Among the Sons of Strife,
Whose never-ceasing Brawlings waste
My golden Hours of Life.

3 O might I fly to change my Place,
How would I chuse to dwell
In some wide lonesome Wilderness,
And leave these Gates of Hell!

4 Peace is the Blessing that I seek,
How lovely are its Charms!
I am for Peace; but when I speak,
They all declare for Arms.

5 New Passions still their Souls engage,
And keep their Malice strong:
What shall be done to curb thy Rage,
O thou devouring Tongue!

6 Should burning Arrows smite thee thro’,
Strict Justice would approve;
But I had rather spare my Foe,
And melt his Heart with Love.

Psalm CXXI. Long Metre.

Divine Protection.

Up to the Hills I lift mine Eyes,
Th’ eternal Hills beyond the Skies;
Thence all her Help my Soul derives;
There my Almighty Refuge lives.

2 He lives; the everlasting God,
That built the World, that spread the Flood;
The Heav’ns, with all their Hoots he made,
And the dark Regions of the Dead.

M 4 He
He guides our Feet, he guards our Way;
His Morning Smiles blest all the Day;
He spreads the Evening Veil, and keeps
The silent Hours, while Israel sleeps.

Israel, a Name divinely blest,
May rise secure, securely rest;
Thy holy Guardian's wakeful Eyes
Admit no Slumber nor Surprize.

No Sun shall smite thy Head by Day,
Nor the pale Moon with sickly Ray
Shall blast thy Couch; no baleful Star
Dart his malignant Fire so far.

Should Earth and Hell with Malice burn,
Still thou shalt go, and still return
Safe in the Lord; his heavenly Care
Defends thy Life from every Snare.

On thee foul Spirits have no Power;
And in thy last departing Hour
Angels that trace the airy Road,
Shall bear thee homeward to thy God.

Psalm CXXI. Common Metre.

Preservation by Day and Night.

To Heaven I lift my waiting Eyes,
There all my Hopes are laid:
The Lord that built the Earth and Skies
Is my perpetual Aid.

Their Feet shall never slide to fall,
Whom he designs to keep;
His Ear attends the softest Call;
His Eyes can never sleep.

He will sustain our weakest Powers
With his Almighty Arm,
Psalm CXXI.

And watch our most unguarded Hours
Against surprising Harm.

4 Israel rejoice, and rest secure,
    Thy Keeper is the Lord;
His wakeful Eyes employ his Power
For thine eternal Guard.

5 Nor scorching Sun, nor sickly Moon
    Shall have his Leave to smite;
He shields thy Head from burning Noon,
From blasting Damps at Night.

6 He guards thy Soul, he keeps thy Breath,
    Where thickest Dangers come;
Go and return, secure from Death,
Till God commands thee home.

Psalm CXXI. As the 148th Psalm.

God our Preserver.

Upward I lift mine Eyes,
    From God is all my Aid;
The God that built the Skies,
And Earth and Nature made:
    God is the Tow'r
To which I fly;
His Grace is nigh
In ev'ry Hour.

My Feet shall never slide,
    And fall in fatal Snares,
Since God my Guard and Guide
Defends me from my Fears.
    Those wakeful Eyes
That never sleep
Shall Israel keep
When Dangers rise.
3 No burning Heats by Day,
Nor Blasts of Evening Air
Shall take my Health away,
If God be with me there:
   Thou art my Sun,
   And thou my Shade,
   To guard my Head
   By Night or Noon.

4 Hath thou not giv'n thy Word
To save my Soul from Death?
And I can trust my Lord
To keep my mortal Breath;
   I'll go and come,
   Nor fear to die,
   Till from on high
   Thou call me Home.

Psalm CXXII. Common Metre.

Going to Church.

1 How did my Heart rejoice to hear
   My Friends devoutly say,
   "In Zion let us all appear,
   "And keep the solemn Day?"

2 I love her Gates, I love the Road;
   The Church adorn'd with Grace
   Stands like a Palace built for God
   To shew his milder Face.

3 Up to her Courts with Joys unknown
   The holy Tribes repair;
   The Son of David holds his Throne,
   And sits in Judgment there.

4 He hears our Praises and Complaints!
   And while his awful Voice
Divides the Sinners from the Saints,
We tremble and rejoice.

5 Peace be within this sacred Place,
And Joy a constant Guest!
With holy Gifts and heavenly Grace
Be her Attendants blest!

6 My Soul shall pray for Zion still,
While Life, or Breath remains;
There my best Friends, my Kindred dwell,
There God my Saviour reigns.

Psalm CXII. Proper Tune.

Going to Church.

1 HOW pleas'd and blest was I
To hear the People cry,
Come, let us seek our GOD to-day;
Yes, with a cheerful Zeal
We haste to Zion's Hill,
And there our Vows and Honours pay.

2 Zion, thrice happy Place,
Adorn'd with wondrous Grace,
And Walls of Strength embrace thee round;
In thee our Tribes appear
To pray, and praise, and hear
The sacred Gospel's joyful Sound.

3 There David's greater Son
Has fix'd his royal Throne,
He sits for Grace and Judgment there;
He bids the Saints be glad,
He makes the Sinner sad,
And humble Souls rejoice with Fear.

4 May Peace attend thy Gate,
And Joy within thee wait

To
To bless the Soul of every Guest;
The Man that seeks thy Peace,
And wishes thine Increase,
A thousand Blessings on him rest!

5 My Tongue repeats her Vows,
   "Peace to this sacred House!"
For there my Friends and Kindred dwell;
And since my glorious God
Makes thee his blest Abode,
My Soul shall ever love thee well.
Repeat the 9th Stanza, to compleat the Tune.

Psalm CXXIII.
Pleading with Submission.

1 O Thou whose Grace and Justice reign
   Lothrond above the Skies,
   To thee our Hearts would tell their Pain,
   To thee we lift our Eyes.

2 As Servants watch their Master's Hand,
   And fear the angry Stroke!
Or Maids before their Mistress stand,
   And wait a peaceful Look :

3 So for our Sins we justly feel
   Thy Discipline, O God ;
Yet wait the gracious Moment still,
   Till thou remove thy Rod.

4 Those that in Wealth and Pleasure live
   Our daily Grots deride,
And thy Delays of Mercy give
   Fresh Courage to their Pride.

5 Our Foes infract us, but our Hope
   In thy Compassion lies ;
This Thought shall bear our Spirits up,
   That God will not despise.

Psalm
Psalm CXXV

Psalm CXXIV.

A Song for the 5th of November.

1. Had not the Lord maintain'd our Side,
   When Men, to make our Lives a Prey,
   Rose like the Swellong of the Tide;

2. The swollang Tide had stopt our Breath,
   So fiercely did the Waters roll,
   We had been swallow'd deep in Death;
   Proud Waters had o'erwhelm'd our Soul.

3. We leap for Joy, we shout and sing,
   Who just escap'd the fatal Stroke;
   So flies the Bird with cheerful Wing,
   When once the Fowler's Snare is broke.

4. For ever bless'd be the Lord,
   Who broke the Fowler's cursed Snare,
   Who fav'd us from the murdering Sword,
   And made our Lives and Souls his Care.

5. Our Help is in Jehovah's Name,
   Who form'd the Earth, and built the Skies;
   He that upholds that wondrous Frame,
   Guards his own Church with watchful Eyes.

Psalm CXXV. Common Metre.

The Saints Trial and Safety.

1. Unshaken as the sacred Hill,
   And firm as Mountains be,
   Him a. a Rock the Soul shall rest
   That leans, O Lord, on Thee.

2. Not Wall nor Hills could guard so well
   Old Salem's happy Ground,
   As those eternal Arms of Love
   That every Saint surround.

3. While
While Tyrants are a smarting Scourge
To drive them near to God,
Divine Compassion does allay
The Fury of the Rod.

Deal gently, Lord, with Souls sincere,
And lead them safely on
To the bright Gates of Paradise
Where Christ their Lord is gone.

But if we trace those crooked Ways
That the old Serpent drew.
The Wrath that drove him first to Hell
Shall smite his Followers too.

Psalm CXXV. Short Metre.

The Saints Trial and Safety; or, Moderated Afflictions.

I Firm and unmov'd are they
That rest their Souls on God;
Firm as the Mount where David dwelt,
Or where the Ark abode.

As Mountains fixed to guard
The City's sacred Ground,
So God and his Almighty Love
Embrace his Saints around.

What tho' the Father's Rod
Drop a chastising Stroke,
Yet left it wound their Souls too deep,
Its Fury shall be broke.

Deal gently, Lord, with those
Whole Faith and pious Fear,
Whose Hope, and Love, and every Grace
Proclaim their Hearts sincere.
Psalm CXXVI.

When God restor'd our captive State,
Joy was our Song, and Grace our Theme;
The Grace beyond our Hopes so great,
That Joy appear'd a painted Dream.

2 The Scoffer owns thy Hand, and pays
Unwilling Honours to thy Name;
While we with Pleasure shout thy Praise,
With cheerful Notes thy Love proclaim.

3 When we review our dismal Fears,
'Twas hard to think they'd vanish so;
With God we left our flowing Tears,
He makes our Joys like Rivers flow.

4 The Man that in his furrow'd Field,
His scatter'd Seed with Sadness leaves,
Will shout to see the Harvest yield
A welcome Load of joyful Sheaves.

Psalm CXXVI. Common Metre.
The Joy of a remarkable Conversion; or, Melancholy removed.

When God reveal'd his gracious Name,
And chang'd my mournful State,
My Rapture seem'd a pleasing Dream,
The Grace appear'd so great.
Psalm CXXVII.

2 The World beheld the glorious Change,
   And did thy Hand confess:
   My Tongue broke out in unknown Strains,
   And sung surprising Grace.

3 "Great is the Work, my Neighbours cry'd,
   And own'd the Power divine;
   "Great is the Work, my Heart reply'd,
   "And be the Glory thine.

4 The Lord can clear the darkest Skies,
   Can give us Day for Night;
   Make Drops of sacred Sorrow rise
   To Rivers of Delight.

5 Let those that sow in Sadness wait
   Till the fair Harvest come,
   They shall confess their Sheaves are great,
   And shout the Blessings home.

6 Tho' Seed lie buried long in Dust,
   It shan't deceive their Hope!
   The precious Grain can ne'er be lost,
   For Grace insures the Crop.

Psalm CXXVII. Long Metre.
The Blessing of GOD on the Business and Comfort of Life.

1 If GOD succeed not, all the Cost
   And Pains to build the House are lost.
   If GOD the City will not keep,
   The watchful Guards as well may sleep.

2 What if you rise before the Sun,
   And work and toil when Day is done,
   Careful and sparing eat your Bread,
   To shun that Poverty you dread.
Psalm CXXVIII.

'Tis all in vain, 'till God hath blest;
He can make rich, yet give us Rest:
Children and Friends are Blessings too,
If God our Sovereign make them so.

Happy the Man to whom he sends Obedient Children, faithful Friends!
How sweet our daily Comforts prove
When they are seal'd with his Love!

Psalm CXXVII. Common Metre.

GOD all in all.

If God to build the House deny,
The Builders work in vain;
And Towns without his wakeful Eye
An useless Watch maintain.

Before the Morning-Beams arise,
Your painful Work renew,
And till the Stars ascend the Skies
Your tiresome Toil pursue.

Short be your Sleep, and coarse your Fare;
In vain, 'till God has blest;
But if his Smiles attend your Care,
You shall have Food and Rest.

Nor Children, Relatives, nor Friends,
Shall real Blessings prove,
Nor all the earthy Joys he sends,
If sent without his Love.

Psalm CXXVIII.

Family Blessings.

O Happy Man, whose Soul is fill'd
With Zeal and reverend Awe!
His Lips to God their Honours yield,
His Life adorns the Law.
2 A careful Providence shall stand
   And ever guard thy Head,
Shall on the Labours of thy Hand
   Its kindly Blessings shed.

3 Thy Wife shall be a fruitful Vine;
   Thy Children round thy Board,
Each like a Plant of Honour shine,
   And learn to fear the Lord.

4 The Lord shall thy best Hopes fulfil
   For Months and Years to come;
The Lord who dwells on Zion's Hill
   Shall send thee Blessings home.

5 This is the Man whose happy Eyes
   Shall see his House increase,
Shall see the sinking Church arise,
   Then leave the World in Peace.

Psalm CXXIX.

Persecutors punish'd.

1 Up from my Youth, may Israel say,
   Have I been nurs'd in Tears;
My Griefs were constant as the Day,
   And tedious as the Years.

2 Up from my Youth I bore the Rage
   Of all the Sons of Strife;
Oft they affai'd my ripen Age,
   But not destroy'd my Life.

3 Their cruel Plow had torn my Flesh
   With Furrows long and deep,
Hourly they vex'd my Wounds afresh,
   Nor let my Sorrows sleep.

4 The Lord grew angry on his Throne,
   And with impartial Eye,
Psalm CXXX.

Measur’d the Mischies they had done,
Then let his Arrows fly.

3 How was their Insolence surpriz’d
To hear his Thunders roll!
And all the Foes of Sion seiz’d
With Horror to the Soul.

6 Thus shall the Men that hate the Saints
Be blasted from the Sky;
Their Glory fades, their Courage faints,
And all their Projects die.

7 [What tho’ they flourish tall and fair,
They have no Root beneath;
Their Growth shall perish in Despair,
And lie despis’d in Death.]

8 [So Corn that on the House-top stands,
No Hope of Harvest gives;
The Reaper ne’er shall fill his Hands,
Nor Binder fold the Sheaves.

9 It springs and withers on the Place;
No Traveller bestows
A Word of Blessing on the Grass,
Nor minds it as he goes.]

Psalm CXXX. Common Metre.

Pardoning Grace.

1 Out of the Deeps of long Dillrups,
The Borders of Despair,
I sent my Cries to seek thy Grace,
My Groans to move thine Ear.

2 Great God, should thy severer Eye,
And thine impartial Hand,
Mark and revenge Iniquity,
No mortal Flesh could stand.
3 But there are Pardons with my God
   For Crimes of high Degree;
   Thy Son has bought them with his Blood
   To draw us near to Thee.

4 I wait for thy Salvation, Lord,
   With strong Desires I wait;
   My Soul invited by thy Word
   Stands watching at thy Gate.

5 Just as the Guards that keep the Night
   Long for the Morning-Skies,
   Watch the first Beams of breaking Light,
   And meet them with their Eyes?

6 So waits my Soul to see thy Grace,
   And more intent than they,
   Meets the first Openings of thy Face,
   And finds a brighter Day.

7 Then in the Lord let Israel trust,
   Let Israel seek his Face;
   The Lord is good as well as just,
   And plenteous is his Grace.

8 There's full Redemption at his Throne
   For Sinners long enslav'd;
   The great Redeemer is his Son:
   And Israel shall be fav'd.

Psalm CXXX. Long Metre.

Pardoning Grace.

1 From deep Distress and troubl'd Thoughts,
   To Thee, my God, I rais'd my Cries:
   If Thou severely mark our Faults,
   No Flesh can stand before thine Eyes.

2 But Thou hast built thy Throne of Grace,
   Free to dispense thy Pardons there,
PSALM CXXXI.

That Sinners may approach thy Face,
And hope, and love, as well as fear.

3 As the benighted Pilgrims wait,
And long and wish for breaking Day,
So waits my Soul before thy Gate;
When will my God his Face display?

4 My Trust is fix’d upon thy Word,
Nor shall I trust thy Word in vain:
Let mourning Souls address the Lord,
And find Relief from all their Pain.

5 Great is his Love, and large his Grace,
Thro’ the Redemption of his Son:
He turns our Feet from sinful Ways,
And pardons what our Hands have done.

PSALM CXXXI.

Humility and Submission.

Is there Ambition in my Heart?
Search, gracious God, and see;
Or do I act a haughty Part?
Lord, I appeal to Thee.

1 I charge my Thoughts, be humble still,
And all my Carriage mild,
Content, my Father, with thy Will,
And quiet as a Child.

3 The patient Soul, the lowly Mind
Shall have a large Reward:
Let Saints in Sorrow lie resign’d,
And trust a faithful Lord.

At the Settlement of a Church; or, The Ordination of a Minister.

1 Where shall we go to seek and find
An Habitation for our God,
A Dwelling for th' eternal Mind
Amongst the Sons of Flesh and Blood?

2 The God of Jacob chose the Hill
Of Zion for his ancient Rest;
And Zion is his Dwelling still,
His Church is with his Presence blest.

3 Here I will fix my gracious Throne,
And reign for ever, faith the Lord;
Here shall my Power and Love be known,
And Blessings shall attend my Word.

4 Here will I meet the hungry Poor,
And fill their Souls with living Bread;
Sinners that wait before my Door
With sweet Provisions shall be fed.

5 Girded with Truth, and cloath'd with Grace,
My Priests, my Ministers shall shine;
Not Aaron in his costly Dress
Made an Appearance so divine.

6 The Saints unable to contain
Their inward Joys, shall shout and sing,
The Son of David here shall reign,
And Zion triumph in her King.

7 [Jews shall see a numerous Seed
Born here, t' uphold his glorious Name;
His Crown shall flourish on his Head
While all his Foes are cloath'd with Shame.]
Psalm CXXXII.

A Church established.

1 [No Sleep nor Slumber to his Eyes
   Good David would afford,
   Till he had found below the Skies
   A Dwelling for the Lord.

2 The Lord in Zion plac’d his Name,
   His Ark was settled there;
   To Zion the whole Nations came,
   To worship thrice a Year.

3 But we have no such Lengths to go,
   Nor wander far abroad;
   Where-e’er thy Saints assemble now
   There is a House for God.]

Pause.

4 Arise, O King of Grace, arise,
   And enter to thy Rest,
   Lo! thy Church waits with longing Eyes
   Thus to be own’d and blest.

5 Enter with all thy glorious Train,
   Thy Spirit and thy Word;
   All that the Ark did once contain
   Could no such Grace afford.

6 Here, mighty God, accept our Vows,
   Here let thy Praise be spread;
   Blest the Provisions of thy House,
   And fill thy Poor with Bread.

7 Here let the Son of David reign,
   Let God’s Anointed shine;
   J ustice and Truth his Court maintain,
   With Love and Pow’r divine.

8 Here
Psalm CXXXIII.

8 Here let him hold a lasting Throne!
And as his Kingdom grows,
Fresh Honours shall adorn his Crown,
And Shame confound his Foes.

Psalm CXXXIII. Common Metre.

Brotherly Love.

1 O, what an entertaining Sight
Are Brethren that agree,
Brethren, whose cheerful Hearts unite
In Bands of Piety!

2 When Streams of Love from Christ the Spring
Descend to every Soul,
And heavenly Peace with balmy Wing
Shades and bedews the whole:

3 'Tis like the Oil divinely sweet
On Aaron's reverend Head,
The trickling Drops perfum'd his Feet,
And o'er his Garments spread.

4 'Tis pleasant as the Morning Dews
That fall on Zion's Hill,
Where God his mildest Glory shews,
And makes his Grace distil.

Psalm CXXXIII. Short Metre.

Communion of Saints; or, Love and Worship in a Family.

1 Blest are the Sons of Peace,
Whose Hearts and Hopes are one,
Whose kind Designs to serve and please
Thro' all their Actions run.

2 Blest is the pious House
Where Zeal and Friendship meet,
Their Songs of Praise, their mingled Vows
Make their Communion sweet.
3 Thus when on Aaron's Head
   They pour'd the rich Perfume,
   The Oil thro' all his Raiment spread,
   And PLEASURE fill'd the Room.

4 Thus on the heavenly Hills
   The Saints are blest above,
   Where Joy like Morning Dew distils,
   And all the Air is Love.

Psalm CXXXIII. As the 122d Psalm.

The Blessings of Friendship.

1 HOW pleasant 'tis to see
   Kindred and Friends agree,
   Each in their proper Station move,
   And each fulfil their Part
   With sympathizing Heart,
   In all the Cares of Life and Love!

2 'Tis like the Ointment shed
   On Aaron's sacred Head,
   Divinely rich, divinely sweet;
   The Oil thro' all the Room
   Diffus'd a choice Perfume,
   Ran thro' his Robes, and blest his Feet.

3 Like fruitful Show'rs of Rain
   That water all the Plain,
   Descending from the neighbouring Hills;
   Such Streams of PLEASURE roll
   Thro' every friendly Soul,
   Where Love like heavenly Dew distils.

Repeat the first Stanza to complete the Tune.

Psalm CXXXIV.

Daily and Nightly Devotion.

Ye that obey th' Immortal King,
   Attend his holy Place.

N Bow
Bow to the Glories of his Power,
And bless his wondrous Grace.

2 Lift up your Hands by Morning-light,
And send your Souls on high;
Raise your admiring Thoughts by Night
Above the starry Sky.

3 The God of Zion cheers our Hearts
With Rays of quickning Grace;
The God that spreads the Heavens abroad,
And rules the swelling Seas.

Psalm CXXXV. 1—4, 14, 19—21. First Part.
Long Metre.

The Church is God's House and Care.

1 Praise ye the Lord; exalt his Name,
While in his holy Courts ye wait,
Ye Saints, that to his House belong,
Or stand attending at his Gate.

2 Praise ye the Lord; the Lord is good;
To praise his Name is sweet Employ:
Israel he chose of old, and still
His Church is his peculiar Joy.

3 The Lord himself will judge his Saints;
He treats his Servants as his Friends;
And when he hears their fore Complaints,
Repents the Sorrows that he sends.

4 Thro' every Age the Lord declares
His Name, and breaks th' Oppressor's Rod;
He gives his suffering Servants Rest,
And will be known Th' Almighty God.

5 Bless ye the Lord, who taste his Love,
People and Priests exalt his Name:

Psalm CXXXV. Ver. 5—12. Second Part.

The Works of Creation, Providence, Redemption of Israel, and Destruction of Enemies.

Great is the Lord, exalted high Above all Powers, and every Throne; What'er he please in Earth or Sea, Or Heaven, or Hell, his Hand hath done.

At his Command the Vapours rise, The Lightnings flash, the Thunders roar; He pours the Rain, he brings the Wind And Temp'rt from his airy Store.

'Twas he those dreadful Tokens sent, O Egypt, thro' thy stubborn Land; When all thy first-born, Beasts and Men, Fell dead by his avenging Hand.

What mighty Nations, mighty Kings He slew, and their whole Country gave To Israel, whom his Hand redeem'd, No more to be proud Pharaoh's Slave!

His Power the same, the same his Grace, That saves us from the Hosts of Hell; And Heaven he gives us to possefs, Whence those apostate Angels fell.

Psalm CXXXV. Common Metre.

Praise due to God, not to Idols.

Wake, ye Saints: To praise your King Your sweetest Passions raise, Your pious Pleasure, while you sing, Increasing with the Praise.
Great is the Lord; and Works unknown
Are his divine Employ:
But still his Saints are near his Throne,
His Treasure and his Joy.

Heaven, Earth, and Sea confess his Hand;
He bids the Vapours rise;
Lightning and Storm at his Command.
Sweep thro' the sounding Skies.

All Power that Gods or Kings have claim'd
Is found with him alone;
But Heathen Gods should ne'er be nam'd
Where our Jehovah's known.

Which of the Stocks and Stones they trust
Can give them Show'rs of Rain?
In vain they worship glittering Dust,
And pray to Gold in vain.

[Their Gods have Tongues that cannot talk,
Such as their Makers gave:
Their Feet were ne'er design'd to walk;
Nor Hands have Power to save.

Blind are their Eyes, their Ears are deaf,
Nor hear when Mortals pray;
Mortals that wait for their Relief,
Are blind and deaf as they.]

O Britain know thy living God,
Serve him with Faith and Fear;
He makes thy Churches his Abode,
And claims thine Honours there.

Psalm CXXXVI. Common Metre.
God's Wonders of Creation, Providence, Redemption of Israel, and Salvation of his People.

Give Thanks to God the sovereign Lord;
His Mercies still endure.
And be the King of Kings ador'd:
His Truth is ever sure.

2 What Wonders hath his Wisdom done!
How mighty is his Hand!
Heavn', Earth and Sea, he fram'd alone:
How wide is his Command!

3 The Sun supp'lies the Day with Light;
How bright his Counsels shone!
The Moon and Stars adorn the Night:
His Works are all divine.

4 [He struck the Sons of Egypt dead:
How dreadful is his Rod?
And thence with Joy his People led:
How gracious is our GOD?

5 He cleft the swelling Sea in two;
His Arm is great in Might,
And gave the Tribes a Passage thro;
His Power and Grace unite.

6 But Pharaoh's Army there he drown'd;
How glorious are his Ways!
And brought his Saints thro' defart Ground:
Eternal be his Praiye!

7 Great Monarchs fell beneath his Hand;
Victorious is his Sword;
While Israel took the promis'd Land:
And faithful is his Word.]

8 He saw the Nations dead in Sin;
He felt his Pity move,
How sad the State the World was in!
How boundless was his Love!

1 He sent to save us from our Woe;
His Goodness never fails;

From Death and Hell, and every Foe;
   And still his Grace prevails.

10 Give Thanks to God the heavenly King;
   His Mercies still endure.
Let the whole Earth his Praises sing;
   His Truth is ever sure.

Psalm CXXXVII. As the 148th Psalm.

1 I V E Thanks to God most High,
   The universal Lord;
The sovereign King of Kings;
And be his Grace ador'd.
   His Power and Grace
   Are still the same;
   And let his Name
   Have endless Praise.

2 How mighty is his Hand!
What Wonders hath he done!
He form'd the Earth and Seas,
And spread the Heavens alone.
   Thy Mercy, Lord,
   Shall still endure;
   And ever sure
   Abides thy Word.

3 His Wisdom fram'd the Sun
To crown the Day with Light;
The Moon and twinkling Stars
To cheer the darksome Night.
   His Power and Grace
   Are still the same;
   And let his Name
   Have endless Praise.
4 [He smote the first-born Sons,
The Flower of Egypt, dead:
And thence his chosen Tribes
With Joy and Glory led.
Thy Mercy, Lord,
Shall still endure;
And ever sure
Abides thy Word.

5 His Power and lifted Rod
Cleft the Red-Sea in two;
And for his People made
A wondrous Passage thro’.
His Power and Grace
Are still the same;
And let his Name
Have endless Praise.

6 But cruel Pharaoh there
With all his Host he drown’d;
And brought his Israel safe
Thro’ a long desert Ground.
Thy Mercy, Lord,
Shall still endure;
And ever sure
Abides thy Word.

PAUSE.

7 The Kings of Canaan fell
Beneath his dreadful Hand;
While his own Servants took Possession of their Land.
His Power and Grace
Are still the same;
And let his Name
Have endless Praise.]
Psalm CXXXVI. Abridg'd. Long Metre.

1 Give to our God immortal Praise!
   Mercy and Truth are all his Ways:
   Wonders of Grace to God belong.
   Repeat his Mercies in your Song.

2 Give to the Lord of Lords Renown,
The King of Kings with Glory crown;
   His Mercies ever shall endure
   When Lords and Kings are known no more.

3 He saw the Nations lie
   All perishing in Sin,
   And pity’d the sad State
   The ruin’d World was in,
   Thy Mercy, Lord,
   Shall still endure;
   And ever sure
   Abides thy Word.

9 He sent his only Son
   To save us from our Woe,
   From Satan, Sin and Death,
   And every hurtful Foe.
   His Power and Grace
   Are still the same;
   And let his Name
   Have endless Praise.

10 Give Thanks aloud to God,
   To God the heavenly King:
   And let the Spacious Earth
   His Works and Glories sing.
   Thy Mercy, Lord,
   Shall still endure;
   And ever sure
   Abides thy Word.
Psalm CXXXVIII.

3 He built the Earth, he spread the Sky,
And fix'd the starry Lights on high:
Wonders of Grace to GOD belong,
Repeat his Mercies in your Song.

4 He fills the Sun with Morning-Light,
He bids the Moon direct the Night:
His Mercies ever shall endure,
When Suns and Moons shall shine no more.

5 The Jews he freed from Pharaoh's Hand,
And brought them to the promis'd Land:
Wonders of Grace to GOD belong,
Repeat his Mercies in your Song.

6 He saw the Gentiles dead in Sin,
And felt his Pity work within:
His Mercies ever shall endure,
When Death and Sin shall reign no more.

7 He sent his Son with Power to save
From Guilt and Darkness, and the Grave:
Wonders of Grace to GOD belong,
Repeat his Mercies in your Song.

8 Thro' this vain World he guides our Feet,
And leads us to his heavenly Seat:
His Mercies ever shall endure,
When this vain World shall be no more.

Psalm CXXXVIII.

Restoring and Preserving Grace.

[Thy] all my Powers of Heart and Tongue
I'll praise my Maker in my Song:
Angels shall hear the Notes I raise,
 Approve the Song, and join the Praise.

Angels that make thy Church their Care
Shall witness my Devotions there,

While
While holy Zeal directs my Eyes
To thy fair Temple in the Skies.]

3 I'll sing thy Truth and Mercy, Lord,
I'll sing the Wonders of thy Word;
Not all thy Works and Names below
So much thy Power and Glory show.

4 To God I cry'd when Troubles rose;
He heard me, and subdu'd my Foes:
He did my rising Fears controul,
And Strength diffus'd thro' all my Soul.

5 The God of Heav'n maintains his State,
Frowns on the Proud, and scorns the Great,
But from this Throne descends to see
The Sons of humble Poverty.

6 Amidst a thousand Snares I stand
Upheld and guarded by thy Hand;
Thy Words my fainting Soul revive,
And keep my dying Faith alive.

7 Grace will compleat what Grace begins,
To save from Sorrows, or from Sins:
The Work that Wisdom undertakes
Eternal Mercy ne'er forsakes.

Psalm CXXXIX. First Part. Long Metre.

The All-seeing GOD.

1 LORD thou hast search'd, and seen me thro';
Thine Eye commands with piercing View
My rising and my resting Hours,
My Heart and Flesh with all their Powers.

2 My Thoughts, before they are my own,
Are to my God distinctly known;
He knows the Words I mean to speak
E'er from my opening Lips they break.
Psalm CXXXIX.

3 Within thy circling Power I stand
   On every Side I find thy Hand:
Awake, asleep, at home, abroad,
I am surrounded still with God.

4 Amazing Knowledge, vast and great!
What large Extent! What lofty Height!
My Soul with all the Pow'rs I boast
Is in the boundless Prospect lost.

5 O may these Thoughts possess my Breast,
   Where'er I rove, where'er I rest!
Nor let my sneaker Passions dare
Consent to Sin, for GOD is there.

PAUSE I.

6 Could I so false, so faithless prove,
   To quit thy Service and thy Love,
Where, Lord, could I thy Presence shun,
Or from thy dreadful Glory run?

7 If up to Heaven I take my Flight,
   'Tis there thou dwell'st enthron'd in Light;
Or dive to Hell, there Vengeance reigns,
And Satan groans beneath thy Chains.

8 If mounted on a Morning-Ray
   I fly beyond the Western Sea,
Thy swifter Hand would first arrive,
And there arrest thy Fugitive.

9 Or should I try to shun thy Sight
   Beneath the spreading Veil of Night,
One Glance of thine, one piercing Ray
Would kindle Darkness into Day.

10 O may these Thoughts possess my Breast,
   Where'er I rove, where'er I rest!
Psalm CXXXIX.

Nor let my weaker Passions dare
Consent to Sin, for GOD is there.

Pause II.

11 The Veil of Night is no Disguise,
No Screen from thy All-searching Eyes;
Thy Hand can seize thy Foes as soon
Thro' Midnight-shades as blazing Noon.

12 Midnight and Noon in this agree,
Great GOD, they're both alike to Thee.
Not Death can hide what GOD will spy,
And Hell lies naked to his Eye.

13 O may these Thoughts possess my Breast,
Where'er I rove, where'er I rest!
Nor let my weaker Passions dare
Consent to Sin, for GOD is there.

Psalm CXXXIX. Second Part. Long Metre.

The wonderful Formation of Man.

1 W AS from thy Hand, my GOD, I came,
A Work of such a curious Frame;
In me thy fearful Wonders shine,
And each proclaim thy Skill divine.

2 Thine Eyes did all my Limbs survey,
Which yet in dark Confusion lay;
Thou saw'lt the daily Growth they took,
Form'd by the Model of thy Book.

3 By Thee my growing Parts were nam'd,
And what thy sovereign Counsels fram'd,
(The breathing Lungs, the beating Heart)
Was copy'd with unerring Art.

4 At last to shew my Maker's Name,
GOD stamp'd his Image on my Frame,
Psalm CXXXIX.

And in some unknown Moment join'd
The finish'd Members to the Mind.

5 There the young Seeds of Thoughts began,
And all the Passions of the Man.
Great God, our Infant-Nature pays
Immortal Tribute to thy Praise.

PAUSE.

6 Lord, since in my advancing Age
I've acted on Life's busy Stage,
Thy Thoughts of Love to me surmount
The Power of Numbers to recount.

7 I could survey the Ocean o'er,
And count each Sand that makes the Shore,
Before my swiftest Thoughts could trace
The numerous Wonders of thy Grace.

8 These on my Heart are still imprest,
With these I give my Eyes to rest;
And at my waking Hour I find
GOD and his Love possess my Mind.

Psalm CXXXIX. Third Part. Long Metre.

Sincerity professed, and Grace try'd; or, The Heart-searching GOD.

1 My GOD, what inward Grief I feel
When impious Men transgresst thy Will!
I mourn to hear their Lips profane,
Take thy tremendous Name in vain.

2 Does not my Soul detest and hate
The Soil of Malice and Deceit?
Those that oppose thy Laws and Thee,
I count them Enemies to me.

3 Lord, search my Soul, try every Thought;
Tho' my own Heart accuse me not
Of walking in a false Disguise,
I beg the Trial of thine Eyes.

4 Doth secret Mischief lurk within?
Do I indulge some unknown Sin?
O turn my Feet when-e'er I stray,
And lead me in thy perfect Way.

Psalm CXXXIX. First Part. Common Met.

GOD is every where.

1 In all my vast Concerns with Thee
   In vain my Soul wou'd try
   To shun thy Presence, Lord, or flee
   The Notice of thine Eye.

2 Thy all-surveying Sight surveys
   My Rising and my Rest,
   My publick Walks, my private Ways,
   And Secrets of my Breast.

3 My Thoughts lie open to the Lord
   Before they're form'd within;
   And e're my Lips pronounce the Word,
   He knows the Sense I mean.

4 O wondrous Knowledge, deep and high!
   Where can a Creature hide?
   Within thy circling Arms I lie,
   Beset on every Side.

5 So let thy Grace surround me still,
   And like a Bulwark prove,
   To guard my Soul from every Ill,
   Secur'd by sovereign Love.

Pause.

6 Lord, where shall guilty Souls retire,
   Forgotten and unknown?
Psalm CXXXIX.

In Hell they meet thy dreadful Fire,
In Heaven thy glorious Throne.

Should I suppress my vital Breath,
To 'scape the Wrath divine,
Thy Voice would break the Bars of Death,
And make the Grave resign.

If wing'd with Beams of Morning Light,
I fly beyond the West,
Thy Hand which must support my Flight,
Would soon betray my Rest.

If o'er my Sins I think to draw
The Curtains of the Night,
Those flaming Eyes that guard thy Law
Would turn the Shades to Light.

The Beams of Noon, the Midnight-Hour
Are both alike to Thee:
Oh may I ne'er provoke that Power
From which I cannot flee.

Psalm CXXXIX. 2d Part. Common Met.

The Wisdom of GOD in the Formation of Man.

When I with pleasing Wonder stand,
And all my Frame survey,
Lord, 'tis thy Work; I own thy Hand
Thus built my humble Clay.

Thy Hand my Heart and Reins possest.
Where unborn Nature grew;
Thy Wisdom all my Features trac'd,
And all my Members drew.

Thine Eye with nicest Care survey'd
The Growth of every Part;
Till the whole Scheme thy Thoughts had laid
Was copy'd by thy Art.
Psalm CXXXIX.

4 Heaven, Earth, and Sea, and Fire and Wind
Shew me thy wondrous Skill;
But I review my self, and find
Diviner Wonders still.

5 Thy awful Glories round me shine,
My Flesh proclaims thy Praise;
Lord, to thy Works of Nature join
Thy Miracles of Grace.

Psalm CXXXIX. 14, 17, 18. Third Part.
Common Metre.
The Mercies of GOD innumerable.
An Evening Psalm.

1 LORD, when I count thy Mercies o'er,
They strike me with Surprize;
Nor all the Sands that spread the Shore
To equal Numbers rise.

2 My Flesh with Fear and Wonder stands,
The Product of thy Skill,
And hourly Blessings from thy Hands
Thy Thoughts of Love reveal.

3 These on my Heart by Night I keep;
How kind, how dear to me!
O may the Hour that ends my Sleep
Still find my Thoughts with Thee.

Psalm CXL I Ver. 2, 3, 4, 5.
Watchfulness and Brotherly Reproof.
A Morning or Evening Psalm.

My God, accept my Early Vows,
Like Morning Incense in thine House,
And let my nightly Worship rise
Sweet as the Evening Sacrifice.
2 Watch o'er my Lips, and guard them, Lord,
   From every rash and heedless Word;
   Nor let my Feet incline to tread
   The guilty Path where Sinners lead.

3 O may the Righteous, when I stray,
   Smite and reprove my wand'ring Way!
   Their gentle Words, like Ointment shed,
   Shall never bruise, but cheer my Head.

4 When I behold them prest with Grief,
   I'll cry to Heaven for their Relief;
   And by my warm Petitions prove
   How much I prize their faithful Love.

Psalm CXLII.

God is the Hope of the Helpless.

1 To God I made my Sorrows known,
   From God I sought Relief;
   In long Complaints before his Throne
   I pour'd out all my Grief.

2 My Soul was overwhelm'd with Woes,
   My Heart began to break;
   My God, who all my Burdens knows,
   He knows the Way I take.

3 On every Side I cast mine Eye,
   And found my Helpers gone,
   While Friends and Strangers past me by
   Neglected or unknown.

4 Then did I raise a louder Cry,
   And call'd thy Mercy near,
   “Thou art my Portion when I die,
   “Be thou my Refuge here.

5 Lord, I am brought exceeding low,
   Now let thine Ear attend,
Psalm CXLIII.

And make my foes who vex me know
I've an Almighty Friend.

6 From my sad prison set me free,
Then shall I praise thy Name,
And holy men shall join with me
Thy kindness to proclaim.

Psalm CXLIII.

Complaint of heavy Afflictions in Mind and Body.

1 My righteous Judge, my gracious God,
Hear when I spread my hands abroad,
And cry for succour from thy throne,
O make thy truth and mercy known.

2 Let judgment not against me pass;
Behold thy servant pleads thy grace;
Should justice call us to thy bar,
No man alive is guiltless there.

3 Look down in pity, Lord, and see
The mighty woes that burden me;
Down to the dust my life is brought,
Like one long bury'd and forgot.

4 I dwell in darkness and unseen,
My heart is desolate within;
My thoughts in musing silence trace
The ancient wonders of thy grace.

5 Thence I derive a glimpse of hope
To bear my linking spirits up;
I stretch my hands to God again,
And thirst like parched lands for rain.

6 For thee I thirst, I pray, I mourn;
When will thy smiling face return?
Shall all my joys on earth remove?
And God for ever hide his love?

7 My
Psalm CXLIV.

7 My God, thy long Delay to save
    Will sink thy Prisoner to the Grave;
My Heart grows faint, and dim mine Eye;
    Make haste to help before I die.

8 The Night is Witness to my Tears,
    Distressing Pains, distressing Fears;
O might I hear thy Morning Voice,
    How would my wearied Powers rejoice!

9 In Thee I trust, to Thee I sigh,
    And lift my heavy Soul on high;
For Thee sit waiting all the Day,
    And wear the tiresome Hours away.

10 Break off my Fetters, Lord, and show
    Which is the Path my Feet should go;
If Snares and Foes beset the Road,
    I flee to hide me near my God.

11 Teach me to do thy holy Will,
    And lead me to thy heavenly Hill;
Let the good Spirit of thy Love
    Conduct me to thy Courts above.

12 Then shall my Soul no more complain,
    The Tempter then shall rage in vain;
And Flesh, that was my Foe before,
    Shall never vex my Spirit more.

Psalm CXLIV. First Part. Ver. 1, 2.

distance and Victory in the Spiritual Warfare.

1 For ever blessed be the Lord,
    My Saviour and my Shield;
He sends his Spirit with his Word,
    To arm me for the Field.

2 When Sin and Hell their Force unite,
    He makes my Soul his Care,
Psalm CXLIV.

Instructs me to the heavenly Fight,
And guards me thro' the War.

3 A Friend and Helper so divine
Does my weak Courage raise;
He makes the glorious Victory mine,
And his shall be the Praise.

Psalm CXLIV. Second Part. Ver. 3, 4, 5, 6.

The Vanity of Man, and Condescension of God.

1 Lord, what is Man, poor feeble Man,
Born of the Earth at first?
His Life a Shadow, light and vain,
Still halting to the Dust.

2 O what is feeble dying Man,
Or any of his Race,
That God should make it his Concern
To visit him with Grace?

3 That God who darts his Lightnings down,
Who shales the Worlds above,
And Mountains tremble at his Frown,
How wondrous is his Love!

Psalm CXLIV. Third Part. Ver. 12—15.

Grace above Riches; or, The happy Nation.

1 Happy the City, where their Sons
Like Pillars round a Palace set,
And Daughters bright; a polish'd Stones
Give Strength and Beauty to the State.

2 Happy the Country, where the Sheep,
Cattle, and Corn have large Increase;
Where Men securely work or sleep,
Nor Sons of Plunder break the Peace.

3 Happy the Nation thus endow'd.
But more divinely blest are those
Psalm CXLV.

ON WHOM THE ALL-SUFFICIENT GOD
Himself with all his grace bestows.

Psalm CXLV. Long Metre.

The Greatness of GOD.

1 My God, my King, thy various praise
Shall fill the remnant of my days:
Thy grace employ my humble tongue
Till death and glory raise the song.

2 The wings of every hour shall bear
Some thankful tribute to thine ear;
And every setting sun shall see
New works of duty done for thee.

3 Thy truth and justice I'll proclaim;
Thy bounty flows, an endless stream;
Thy mercy swift; thine anger slow,
But dreadful to the stubborn foe.

4 Thy works with sovereign glory shine;
And speak thy majesty divine;
Let Britain round her shores proclaim
The sound and honour of thy name.

5 Let distant times and nations raise
The long succession of thy praise:
And unborn ages make my song
The joy and labour of their tongue.

6 But who can speak thy wondrous deeds?
Thy greatness all our thoughts exceeds;
Vast and unsearchable thy ways,
Vast and immortal be thy praise.

Psalm CXLV. 1-7, 11-13. First Part.

The Greatness of GOD.

Long as I live I'll bless thy name,
My king, my God of love;
Psalm CXLV

My Work and Joy shall be the same
In the bright World above.

2 Great is the Lord, his Power unknown,
And let his Praise be great:
I'll sing the Honours of thy Throne,
Thy Works of Grace repeat.

3 Thy Grace shall dwell upon my Tongue;
And while my Lips rejoice,
The Men that hear my sacred Song
Shall join their cheerful Voice.

4 Fathers to Sons shall teach thy Name,
And Children learn thy Ways;
Ages to come thy Truth proclaim,
And Nations found thy Praise.

5 Thy glorious Deeds of ancient Date
Shall thro' the World be known;
Thine Arm of Power, thy heavenly State
With publick Splendor shown.

6 The World is manag'd by thy Hands,
Thy Saints are rul'd by Love;
And thine eternal Kingdom stands
Tho' Rocks and Hills remove.

Psalm CXLV. Second Part. Ver. 7, &c.
The Goodness of GOD.

1 Sweet is the Memory of thy Grace,
My God, my heavenly King;
Let Age to Age thy Righteousness
In Sounds of Glory sing.

2 God reigns on high, but not confines
His Goodness to the Skies;
Thro' the whole Earth his Bounty shines,
And every Want supplies.
Psalm CXLV.

With longing Eyes thy Creatures wait
On Thee for daily Food,
Thy liberal Hand provides their Meat,
And fills their Mouths with Good.

How kind are thy Compassions, Lord!
How slow thine Anger moves!
But soon he sends his pardoning Word
To cheer the Souls he loves.

Creatures with all their endless Race
Thy Power and Praie proclaim;
But Saints that taste thy richer Grace
Delight to bless thy Name.

Psalm CXLV. 14, 17, &c. Third Part.
Mercy to Sufferers; or, GOD hearing Prayer.

Let every Tongue thy Goodness speak,
Thou sovereign Lord of all;
Thy strengthening Hands uphold the Weak,
And raise the Poor that fall.

When Sorrow bows the Spirit down,
Or Virtue lies distress
Beneath some proud Oppressor’s Frown,
Thou giv’st the Mourner’s Rest.

The Lord supports our tottering Days,
And guides our giddy Youth:
Holy and just are all his Ways,
And all his Words are Truth.

He knows the Pain his Servants feel,
He hears his Children cry,
And their best Wishes to fulfil
His Grace is ever nigh.

His Mercy never shall remove
From Men of Heart sincere;
He saves the Souls, whose humble Love
Is join'd with holy Fear.

6 [His stubborn Foes his Sword shall slay,
And pierce their Hearts with Pain;
But none that serve the Lord shall say,
"They sought his Aid in vain."

7 [My Lips shall dwell upon his Praife,
And spread his Fame abroad;
Let all the Sons of Adam raife
The Honours of their God.]

Psalm CXLVI. Long Metre.

Praise to GOD for his Goodness and Truth.

1 Praise ye the Lord. My Heart shall join
In Works so pleasant, so divine;
Now while the Flesh is mine Abode,
And when my Soul ascends to God.

2 Praise shall employ my noblest Powers,
While Immortality endures;
My Days of Praise shall never be past,
While Life and Thought and Being last.

3 Why should I make a Man my Trust?
Princes must die and turn to Dust;
Their Breath departs, their Pomp and Power,
And Thoughts all vanish in an Hour.

4 Happy the Man, whose Hopes rely
On Israel's God: He made the Sky,
And Earth and Seas with all their Train,
And none shall find his Promise vain.

5 His Truth for ever stands secure:
He saves th' Oppreft, he feeds the Poor;
He sends the labouring Confcience Peace,
And grants the Prisoner sweet Releafe.
Psalm CXLVI.

The Lord hath Eyes to give the Blind;
The Lord supports the sinking Mind;
He helps the Stranger in Distresses,
The Widow and the Fatherless.

He loves his Saints, he knows them well,
But turns the Wicked down to Hell:
Thy God, O Zion, ever reigns;
Praise him in everlasting Strains.

Psalm CXLVI. As the 113th Psalm.
Praise to GOD for his Goodness and Truth.

I'll praise my Maker with my Breath;
And when my Voice is lost in Death
Praise shall employ my nobler Powers:
My Days of Praise shall ne'er be past
While Life and Thought and Being last,
Or Immortality endures.

Why should I make a Man my Trust?
Princes must die and turn to Dust;
Vain is the Help of Flesh and Blood;
Their Breath departs, their Pomp and Power
And Thoughts all vanish in an Hour,
Nor can they make their Promise good.

Happy the Man whose Hopes rely
On Israel's God: He made the Sky,
And Earth and Seas with all their Train;
His Truth for ever stands secure;
He saves th' Opprest, he feeds the Poor,
And none shall find his Promise vain.

The Lord hath Eyes to give the Blind;
The Lord supports the sinking Mind;
He sends the labouring Conscience Peace,
He helps the Stranger in Distress,
The Widow and the Fatherless,
And grants the Prisoner sweet Release.

5 He loves his Saints; he knows them well,
But turns the Wicked down to Hell:

Thy God, O Zion, ever reigns;
Let every Tongue, let every Age
In this exalted Work engage:
Praise him in everlasting Strains.

6 I'll praise him while he lends me Breath,
And when my Voice is lost in Death

Praise shall employ my nobler Powers:
My Days of Praise shall ne'er be past.
While Life and Thought and Being last,
Or Immortality endures.

Psalm CXLVII. First Part.
The Divine Nature, Providence and Grace.

1 Pray ye the Lord: 'Tis good to raise
Our Hearts and Voices in his Praise:
His Nature and his Works invite
To make this Duty our Delight.

2 The Lord builds up Jerusalem,
And gathers Nations to his Name:
His Mercy melts the stubborn Soul,
And makes the broken Spirit whole.

3 He form'd the Stars, those heavenly Flames,
He counts their Numbers, calls their Names:
His Wisdom vast, and knows no Bound.
A Deep where all our Thoughts are drown'd.

4 Great is our Lord, and great his Might;
And all his Glories infinite:
He crowns the Meek, rewards the Just,
And treads the Wicked to the Dust.

PAUSE.

5 Sing to the Lord, exalt him high,
Who spreads his Cloud all round the Sky;
There he prepares the fruitful Rain,
Nor lets the Drops descend in vain.

6 He makes the Grassthe Hills adorn,
And clothes the smiling Fields with Corn;
The Beasts with Food his Hands supply,
And the young Ravens when they cry.

7 What is the Creatures Skill or Force,
The sprightly Man, the warlike Horse,
The nimble Wit, the active Limb?
All are too mean Delights for Him.

8 But Saints are lovely in his Sight;
He views his Children with Delight:
He sees their Hope, he knows their Fear;
And looks and loves his Image there.

PSALM CXLVII. Second Part.

Summer and Winter.

A Song for Great-Britain.

1 O Britain, praise thy mighty God,
And make his Honours known abroad;
He bid the Ocean round thee flow:
Not Bars of Brass could guard thee so.

2 Thy Children are secure and blest;
Thy Shores have Peace, thy Cities Rest;
He feeds thy Sons with finest Wheat,
And adds his Blessing to their Meat.
3 Thy changing Seasons he ordains,
Thine early and thy later Rains;
His Flakes of Snow like Wool he sends,
And thus the springing Corn defends.

4 With hoary Frost he strows the Ground;
His Hail descends with clattering Sound:
Where is the Man so vainly bold
That dares defy his dreadful Cold?

5 He bids the Southern Breezes blow;
The Ice dissolves, the Waters flow:
But he hath nobler Works and Ways
To call the Britons to his Praise.

6 To all the Isle his Laws are shown;
His Gospel thro' the Nation known;
He hath not thus reveal'd his Word
To every Land: Praise ye the Lord.

The Seasons of the Year.

1 With Songs and Honours sounding loud
Address the Lord on high;
Over the Heav'ns he spreads his Cloud,
And Waters vail the Sky.

2 He sends his Show'rs of Blessing down
To cheer the Plains below;
He makes the Grass the Mountains crown,
And Corn in Valleys grow.

3 He gives the grazing Ox his Meat,
He hears the Ravens cry;
But Man who tastes his finest Wheat
Should raise his Honours high.
Psalm CXLVIII. 309

1 His steady Counsels change the Face
Of the declining Year;
He bids the Sun cut short his Race,
And wint'ry Days appear.

2 His hoary Frost, his fleecy Snow,
Descend and clothe the Ground;
The liquid Streams forbear to flow,
In Icy Fetters bound.

3 When from his dreadful Stores on high
He pours the rattling Hail,
The Wretch that dares this God defy
Shall find his Courage fail.

4 He sends his Word and melts the Snow,
The Fields no longer mourn;
He calls the warmer Gales to blow,
And bids the Spring return.

5 The changing Wind, the flying Cloud
Obey his mighty Word:
With Songs and Honours founding loud,
Praise ye the sovereign Lord.

Psalm CXLVIII. Proper Metre.

Praise to GOD from all Creatures.

1 Ye Tribes of Adam, join
With Heaven and Earth and Seas,
And offer Notes divine
To your Creator's Praise.

Ye holy Throng
Of Angels bright
In Worlds of Light
Begin the Song.
Thou Sun with dazling Rays,
And Moon that rules the Night,
Shine to your Maker's Praife,
With Stars of twinkling Light.
His Power declare,
Ye Floods on high,
And Clouds that fly
In empty Air.

The shining Worlds above
In glorious Order stand,
Or in swift Courses move
By his supreme Command.
He spake the Word,
And all their Frame
From nothing came
To praise the Lord.

He mov'd their mighty Wheels
In unknown Ages past,
And each his Word fulsils
While Time and Nature laft.
In different Ways
His Works proclaim
His wondrous Name,
And speak his Praife.

Let all the Earth-born Race,
And Monsters of the Deep,
The Fish that cleave the Seas,
Or in their Bosom sleep,
From Sea and Shore
Their Tribute pay,
And still display
Their Maker's Power.
Psalm CXLVIII.

6 Ye Vapours, Hail and Snow,
Praise ye th' Almighty Lord,
And Stormy Winds that blow
To execute his Word.
When Lightnings shine,
Or Thunders roar,
Let Earth adore
His Hand divine.

7 Ye Mountains near the Skies,
With lofty Cedars there,
And Trees of humbler Size,
That Fruit in Plenty bear;
Beasts wild and tame,
Birds, Flies and Worms,
In various Forms
Exalt his Name.

8 Ye Kings and Judges fear
The Lord, the sovereign King;
And while you rule us here,
His heavenly Honours sing:
Nor let the Dream
Of Power and State
Make you forget
His Power supreme.

9 Virgins and Youths, engage
To found his Praise divine,
While Infancy and Age
Their feeble Voices join:
Wide as he reigns
His Name be sung
By every Tongue
In endless Strains.
Psalm CXLVIII. Paraphras'd in Long Metre.

Universal Praise to GOD.

1.
Loud Hallelujahs to the Lord
From distant Worlds where Creatures dwell;
Let Heaven begin the solemn Word,
And found it dreadful down to Hell.

Note, This Psalm may be sung to the Tune of the old 112th or 127th Psalm, if these two Lines be added to every Stanza (viz.)

Each of his Works his Name displays,
But they can ne'er fulfil the Praise.

Otherwise it must be sung to the usual Tunes of the Long Metre.

2. The Lord! how absolute he reigns!
Let every Angel bend the Knee;
Sing of his Love in heavenly Strains,
And speak how fierce his 'Terrors be.

3. High on a Throne his Glories dwell,
An awful Throne of shining Bliss:
Fly thro' the World, O Sun, and tell
How dark thy Beams compar'd to his.

4. Awake
Psalm CXLVII.

4 Awake ye Tempefts, and his Fame
   In Sounds of dreadful Praise declare;
   And the sweet Whisper of his Name
   Fill every gentler Breeze of Air.

5 Let Clouds, and Winds, and Waves agree
   To join their Praise with blazing Fire;
   Let the firm Earth and rolling Sea
   In this eternal Song conspire.

6 Ye flow'ry Plains, proclaim his Skill;
   Valleys lie low before his Eye;
   And let his Praise from ev'ry Hill
   Rife tuneful to the neighbouring Sky.

7 Ye stubborn Oaks, and stately Pines,
   Bend your high Branches and adore:
   Praise him, ye Beasts, in different Strains;
   The Lamb must bleat, the Lion roar.

8 Birds, ye must make his Praise your Theme;
   Nature demands a Song from you:
   While the dumb Fish that cut the Stream
   Leap up and mean his Praises too.

9 Mortals, can you refrain your Tongue,
   When Nature all around you sings?
   O for a Shout from Old and Young,
   From humble Swains, and lofty Kings!

10 Wide as his vast Dominion lies
   Make the Creator's Name be known;
   Loud as his Thunder shout his Praise,
   And found it lofty as his Throne.

11 Jehovah! 'tis a glorious Word;
   O may it dwell on every Tongue!
Psalm CXLVIII.

But Saints who best have known the Lord
Are bound to raise the noblest Song.

12 Speak of the Wonders of that Love
Which Gabriel plays on every Chord:
From all below and all above,
Loud Hallelujahs to the Lord.

Psalm CXLVIII. Short Metre.

Universal Praise.

1 Let every Creature join
To praise th' eternal God;
Ye heavenly Hosts, the Song begin,
And sound his Name abroad.

2 Thou Sun with golden Beams,
And Moon with paler Rays,
Ye starry Lights, ye twinkling Flames,
Shine to your Maker's Praise.

3 He built those Worlds above,
And fix'd their wondrous Frame;
By his Command they stand or move,
And ever speak his Name.

4 Ye Vapours, when ye rise,
Or fall in Show'rs or Snow,
Ye Thunders murmuring round the Skies,
His Power and Glory show.

5 Wind, Hail and flashing Fire,
Agree to praise the Lord,
When ye in dreadful Storms conspire
To execute his Word.
Psalm CXLVIII.

6 By all his Works above
   His Honours be expressed;
But Saints that taste his saving Love
   Should sing his Praises best.

Pause I.

7 Let Earth and Ocean know
   They owe their Maker Praise;
Praise him, ye watry Worlds below,
   And Monsters of the Seas.

8 From Mountains near the Sky
   Let his high Praise resound,
From humble Shrubs and Cedars high,
   And Vales and Fields around.

9 Ye Lions of the Wood,
   And tamer Beasts that graze,
Ye live upon his daily Food,
   And he expects your Praise.

10 Ye Birds of lofty Wing,
    On high his Praises bear;
Or sit on flow'ry Boughs and sing
    Your Maker's Glory there.

11 Ye creeping Ants and Worms,
    His various Wisdom show,
And Flies in all your shining Swarms,
    Praise him that dreft you so.

12 By all the Earth-born Race
    His Honours be expressed,
But Saints that know his heavenly Grace,
    Should learn to praise him best.
13 Monarchs of wide Command,
    Praise ye th' eternal King;
Judges, adore that sovereign Hand,
    Whence all your Honours spring.

14 Let vigorous Youth engage
    To sound his Praises high;
While growing Babes and withering Age
    Their feebler Voices try.

15 United Zeal be shown
    His wondrous Fame to raise;
God is the Lord: His Name alone
    Deserves our endless Praise.

16 Let Nature join with Art,
    And all pronounce him blest,
But Saints that dwell so near his Heart
    Should sing his Praises best.

Psalm CXLIX.

Praise GOD, all his Saints: or, The Saints judging the World.

1 All ye that love the Lord rejoice
    And let your Songs be new;
Amidst the Church with cheerful Voice
    His later Wonders shew.

2 The Jews, the People of his Grace,
    Shall their Redeemer sing;
And Gentile Nations join the Praise
    While Zion owns her King.
Psalm CL.

3 The Lord takes Pleasure in the Just,
    Whom Sinners treat with Scorn:
The Meek that lie despis'd in Dust
    Salvation shall adorn.

4 Saints should be joyful in their King
    E'en on a dying Bed:
And like the Souls in Glory sing,
    For God shall raise the Dead.

5 Then his high Praise shall fill their Tongues,
    Their Hands shall weild the Sword:
And Vengeance shall attend their Songs,
    The Vengeance of the Lord.

6 When Christ his Judgment-seat ascends,
    And bids the World appear,
Thrones are prepar'd for all his Friends
    Who humbly lov'd him here.

7 Then shall they rule with Iron-Rod
    Nations that dar'd rebel:
And join the Sentence of their God,
    On Tyrants doom'd to Hell.

8 The Royal Sinners bound in Chains
    New Triumphs shall afford;
Such Honour for the Saints remains:
    Praise ye, and love the Lord.

Psalm CL. 1, 2, 6.

A Song of Praise.

1 In God's own House pronounce his Praise,
    His Grace he there reveals;
'To Heaven your Joy and Wonder raise,
    For there his Glory dwells.

2 Let
2 Let all your sacred Passions move,
    While you rehearse his Deeds;
But the great Work of saving Love
    Your highest Praise exceeds.

3 All that have Motion, Life and Breath,
    Proclaim your Maker blest;
Yet when my Voice expires in Death,
    My Soul shall praise him best.

The Christian Doxology.

Long Metre.

TO GOD the Father, GOD the Son,
    And GOD the Spirit, Three in One,
Be Honour, Praise, and Glory given
By all on Earth, and all in Heaven.

Common Metre.

LET GOD the Father, and the Son,
    And Spirit be ador’d,
Where there are Works to make him known,
Or Saints to love the Lord.

Com. Met. Where the Tune includes two Stanza.

I.

THE GOD of Mercy be ador’d,
    Who calls our Souls from Death,
Who saves by his redeeming Word,
    And New-creating Breath.

II.

To praise the Father, and the Son,
    And Spirit all Divine,
The One in Three, and Three in One,
    Let Saints and Angels join.

Short
Doxologies.

Short Metre.

Ye Angels round the Throne,
And Saints that dwell below,
Worship the Father, praise the Son,
And bless the Spirit too.

As the 113th Psalm.

Now to the great and sacred Three,
The Father, Son and Spirit, be
Eternal Praise and Glory given,
Thro' all the Worlds where God is known,
By all the Angels near the Throne,
And all the Saints in Earth and Heaven,

As the 148th Psalm.

To God the Father's Throne
Perpetual Honours raise;
Glory to God the Son,
To God the Spirit Praise:
With all our Powers,
Eternal King,
Thy Name we sing,
While Faith adores.

Up to the Hills I lift mine Eyes

We bless the Lord, the Just, the Good
We love thee, Lord, and we adore
What shall I render to my God
When Christ to Judgment shall descend
When God is nigh, my Faith is strong
When God provok'd with daring Crimes
When God restore'd our captive State
When God revealed his gracious Name
When Israel freed from Pharaoh's Hand
When Israel sees the Lord reproves
When I with pleasing Wonder stand
When Man grows bold in Sin
When overwhelm'd with Grief
When Pain and Anguish seize me, Lord
When the great Judge supreme and just
Where shall the Man be found
Where shall we go to seek and find
While I keep Silence and conceal
While Men grow bold in wicked Ways

Who shall ascend thy heavenly Place
Who shall inhabit thy Hill
Who will arise and plead my Right
Why did the Jews proclaim their Rage
Why did the Nations join to slay
Why do the proud insult the poor
Why do the wealthy wicked boast
Why do the Lord stand off so far
Why do the Man of Riches grow
Why has my God my Soul forsook
Why should I vex my Soul and fret
Will God for ever cast us off
With all my Powers of Heart and Tongue
With earnest Longings of the Mind
With my whole Heart I'll raise my Song
With my whole Heart I've sought thy Face
With Reverence let the Saints appear
With Songs and Honours sounding loud
Would you behold the Works of God

YE holy Souls in God rejoice
YE Islands of the Northern Sea
YE Nations round the Earth rejoice
YE Servants of thy Almighty King
YE Sons of Men, a feeble Race
YE Sons of Pride, that hate the Just
YE that delight to serve the Lord
YE that obey th' immortal King
