A WORD TO A PROTESTANT.

By JOHN WESLEY, M. A.
Fellow of Lincoln College, Oxford.

The Eighth Edition.

LONDON:
Printed by W. STRAHAN, and sold by T. TRYB, near Gray's-Inn-Gate, Holbourn; H. BUTLER, in Bow-Church-Yard; and at the Foundery near Upper-Moorfields. 1745.
[Price One Penny.]
A WORD TO A PROTESTANT.

1. DON'T you call yourself a Protestant? Why so? Do you know what the Word means? What is a Protestant? I suppose you mean, one that is not a Papist? But what is a Papist? If you don't know, say so. Acknowledge you cannot tell. Is not this the Case? You call yourself a Protestant: But you don't know what a Protestant is. You talk against Papists: And yet neither do you know what a Papist is. Why do you pretend then to the Knowledge which you have not? Why do you use Words which you don't understand?

2. Are you desirous to know what these Words, Papist and Protestant mean? A Papist is one who holds the Pope, or Bishop of Rome (the Name Papa, that is Father, was formerly given to all Bishops) to be Head of the whole Christian Church: And the Church of Rome, or that which owns the Pope as their Head, to be the only Christian Church.

3. In a Course of Years, many Errors crept into this Church, of which good Men complain'd from Time to Time. At last, about two hundred Years ago, the Pope appointed many Bishops and others to meet at a Town in Germany, called Trent. But these, instead of amending those Errors, establish'd them all by a Law, and so delivered them down, to all succeeding Generations.

4. Among these Errors may be number'd, their Doctrine of Seven Sacraments; of Transubstantiation; of Communion in one Kind only; of Purgatory, and praying for the Dead therein; of Veneration of Relicks, and of Indulgences, or Pardons granted by the Pope, and to be bought for Money.

It
It is thought by some, that these Errors, great as they are, do only defile the Purity of Chriftianity: But it is sure, the following strike at its very Root, and tend to banish True Religion out of the World.

5. First, The Doctrine of Merit. The very Foundation of Chriftianity is, that a Man can merit nothing of God: That we are justified freely by his Grace, through the Redemption that is in Jesus Chrift: Not for any of our Works, or of our Deservings; but by Faith in the Blood of the Covenant.

But the Papifts hold, That a Man may by his Works merit or deserve Eternal Life; and that we are justified, not by Faith in Chrift alone, but by Faith and Works together.

This Doctrine strikes at the Root of Chriftian Faith, the only Foundation of True Religion.

6. Secondly, The Doctrine of Praying to Saints and Worshipping of Images. To the Virgin Mary they pray in thole Words; “O Mother of God, O Queen of Heaven, command thy Son to have Mercy upon us.” And, “The Right Use of Images, says the Council of Trent, “is to honour them, by bowing down before them.” Seff. 25. Par. 2.

This Doctrine strikes at the Root of that great Commandment, (which the Papifts call the First) Thou shalt not bow down to them, nor worship them, i.e. not any Image whatsoever. It is gross, open, palpable Idolatry, such as can neither be denied, nor excused; and tends directly to destroy the Love of God, which is indeed the First and Great Commandment.

7. Thirdly, The Doctrine of Persecution. This has been for many Ages a favourite Doctrine of the Church of Rome. And the Papifts in general still maintain, That “all Hereticks (that is, all who differ from them) ought to be compelled to receive what they call the True Faith; to be forced into the Church, or out of the World.”

Now this strikes at the Root of, and utterly tears up, the Second Great Commandment. It directly tends to bring in blind, bitter Zeal; Anger, Hatred, Malice, Variance; every Temper, Word and Work that is just contrary to the loving our Neighbour as our selves.
So plain it is, that these Grand Popish Doctrines of Merit, Idolatry and Persecution, by destroying both Faith and the Love of God and of our Neighbour, tend to burnish True Christianity out of the World.

8. Well might our Forefathers protest against these:
And hence it was that they were called Protestants:
Even because they publicly protested, as against all the Errors of the Papists, so against these Three in particular: The making void Christian Faith, by holding that Man may merit Heaven by his own Works; the overthrowing the Love of God by Idolatry, and the Love of our Neighbour by Persecution.

Are you then a Protestant, truly so called? Do you protest, as against all the rest, so in particular, against these three grand, fundamental Errors of Popery? Do you publicly protest against all Merit in Man? All Salvation by our own Works? Against all Idolatry of every Sort? And against every Kind and Degree of Perseccution.

I question not but you do. You publicly protest against all these horrible Errors of Popery. But does your Heart agree with your Lips? Do you not inwardly cherish what you outwardly renounce? 'Tis well, if you, who cry out so much against Papists, are not one yourself. 'Tis well if you are not yourself (as little as you may think it) a rank Papist at the Heart.

9. For, first, How do you hope to be saved? By "doing thus and thus? By doing no Harm, and paying every Man his own, and saying your Prayers,
"and going to Church and Sacrament?" Alas! alas!
Now you have thrown off the Mask. This is Popery barefaced. You may just as well speak plain, and say,
"I trust to be saved by the Merit of my own Works."

But where is CHRIST all this time? Why, he is not to come in, till you get to the End of your Prayers,
And then you will say, for JESUS CHRIST's Sake,— because so it stands in your Book. O my Friend, your very Foundation is Papist. You seek Salvation by your own Works. You trample upon the Blood of the Convent. And what can a poor Papist do more?

10. But let us go on. Are you clear of Idolatry any more than the Papists are? It may be indeed your yours is in a different Way. But how little does that signify? They set up their Idols in their Churches: You set up yours in your Heart. Their Idols are only covered with Gold or Silver: But yours is solid Gold. They worship the Picture of the Queen of Heaven; you, the Picture of the Queen or King of England. In another Way, they idolize a dead Man or Woman; whereas your Idol is yet alive. O how little is the Difference before GOD? How small Preheminence has the Money-Worshipper at London, over the Image-Worshipper at Rome? Or the Idolizer of a living Sinner over him that prays to a dead Saint?

11. Take one Step further, Does the Papist abroad persecute? Does he force another Man's Conscience? So does the Papist at home, as far as he can; for all he calls himself a Protestant? Will the Man in Italy tolerate no Opinion but his own? No more, if he could help it, would the Man in England. Would you? Don't you think the Government much over-seen, in bearing any but those of the Church? Don't you wish, they would put down such and such People? You know what you would do, if you was in their Place.—And by the very same Spirit, you would continue the Inquisition at Rome, and rekindle the Fires in Smithfield.

12. It is because our Nation is over-run with such Protestants, who are full of their own Good Deservings; as well as of abominable Idolatry, and of blind, fiery Zeal, of the whole Spirit of Persecution; that the Sword of GOD, the great, the just, the jealous GOD is even now drawn in our Land: That the Armies of the Aliens are hovering over it, as a Vulture over his Prey; and that the open Papists are on the very Point of swallowing up the pretended Protestants.

13. Do you desire to escape the Scourge of GOD? Then I intreat you, first, Be a Real Protestant. By the Spirit of GOD affixing you (for without him you know you can do nothing) cast away all that Trust in your own Righteousness, all Hope of being saved by your own Works. Own, your Merit is everlasting Damnation;
tion; that you deserve the Damnation of Hell. Humble yourself under the mighty Hand of GOD. Lie in the Dust. Let your Mouth be slopt. And let all your Confidence be in the Blood of Sprinkling; all your Hope in JESUS CHRIST the Righteous; all your Faith in him that justifieth the Ungodly, through the Redemption that is in JESUS.

O put away your Idols out of your Heart. Love not the World, neither the Things of the World. Having Food to eat and Raiment to put on, be content: Desire nothing more but GOD. To-day, hear his Voice, who continually cries, My Son, give me thy Heart. Give yourself to him, who gave himself for you. May you love GOD, as he has loved us! Let him be your Desire, your Delight, your Joy, your Portion, in Time and in Eternity.

And if you love GOD, you will love your Brother also: You will be ready to lay down your Life for his Sake: So far from any Desire to take away his Life, or to hurt a Hair of his Head. You will then leave his Conscience uncontroled; you will no more think of forcing him into your own Opinions, as neither can he force you, to judge by his Conscience. But each shall give an Account of himself to GOD.

14. It is true, if his Conscience be misinformed, you should endeavour to inform him better. But whatever you do, let it be done in Charity, in Love and Meekness of Wisdom. Be zealous for GOD: But remember, that the Wrath of Man worketh not the Righteousness of GOD: That angry Zeal, tho' opposing Sin, is the Servant of Sin; that true Zeal is only the Flame of Love. Let this be your truly Protestant Zeal: While you abhor every Kind and Degree of Persecution, let your Heart burn with Love to all Mankind, to Friends and Enemies, Neighbours and Strangers; to Christians, Heathens, Jews, Turks, Papists, Heretics; to every Soul which GOD hath made. Let this your Light shine before Men, that they may glorify your Father which is in Heaven.

FINIS.
HYMN I.

I.

WHERE have I been so long
Last bound in Sin and Night?
Mix'd with the blind self-righteous Throng,
Who hate the Sons of Light?

II.

O how shall I presume,
Jesus, to call on thee,
Sunk in the lowest Dregs of Rome,
The worst Idolatry.

III.

A Stranger to thy Grace
Long have I labour'd, Lord.
To establish my own Righteousness,
And been what I abhor'd.

IV.

Foe to the Popish Boast,
No Merit was in me,
Yet in my Works I put my Trust,
And not alone in Thee.

V.

For Works that I had wrought
I look'd to be forgiven,
Aud by my virtuous Tempers thought
At last to purchase Heaven.
Or if I needed still
The Help of Grace divine,
Thy Merit should come in to fill
The small Defects of mine.

VII.
Alas! I knew not then
Thou only didst atone
For all the sinful Sons of Men,
And purge our Guilt alone:

VIII.
Didst shed thy Blood to pay
The all-sufficient Price,
And bear the World's Offence away
By thy great Sacrifice.

IX.
But, O! my dying God,
By Thee convinc'd at last,
My Soul on that atoning Blood,
On that alone I cast.

X.
I dare no longer trust
In ought I do or feel,
But own, while humbled in the Dust,
My whole Desert is Hell.

XI.
My Works and Righteousness,
I cast them all away;
Me, Lord, Thou frankly must release,
For I have ought to pay.

XII.
Not one good Word or Thought
I to thy Merits join,
But humbly take the Gift unbought,
The Righteousness Divine.

XIII.
[9]

XIII.
My Faith is all in Thee,
My only Hope thou art,
The Pardon thou hast bought for me,
Engrave it on my Heart.

XIV.
The Blood by Faith apply'd,
O let it now take place,
And speak me freely justify'd,
And fully fav'd thro' Grace.

HYMN II.

I.
Forgive me, O thou jealous God,
A Wretch who on thy Laws have trod,
And robb'd Thee of thy Right,
A Sinner to myself unknown,
'Gainst Thee I have transgress'd and done
This Evil in thy Sight.

II.
My Body I disdain'd to incline,
Or worship at an Idol's Shrine
With gross Idolatry:
But O! my Soul hath baser prov'd,
Honour'd, and fear'd, and serv'd, and lov'd,
The Creature more than Thee.

III.
Let the blind Sons of Rome bow down
To Images of Wood and Stone;
But I with subtler Art,
Safe from the Letter of thy Word,
My Idols secretly ador'd,
Set up within my Heart.

IV.
But O! suffice the Sectarian p'r'n.
My Idols now away I cast,
Pleasure, and Wealth, and Fame,
The World and all its Goods I leave,
To Thee alone resolv'd to give
Whate'er I have, or am.
V.

Lo! in a thankful loving Heart
I render Thee whate'er Thou art,
    I give Thyself to Thee;
And Thee my whole Delight I own,
My Joy, my Glory, and my Crown,
    To all Eternity.

HYMN III.

I.

O Thou who seest what is in Man,
    And shew'st myself to me,
Suffer a Sinner to complain,
    And groan his Grievs to Thee.

II.

A Sinner that has cloak'd his Shame
    With self-deceiving Art,
Thy Worshipper reform'd in Name,
    But unrenew'd in Heart.

III.

The Servants most unlike their Lord
    How oft did I condemn,
The Persecuting Church abhor'd,
    Nor saw myself in them?

IV.

The Spirit of my Foes I caught,
    The angry bitter Zeal,
And fierce for my own Party fought,
    And breath'd the Fire of Hell.

V.

Threatenings I did and Slaughter breathe,
    (The Flail of Hereby)
And doom the Sects to Bonds or Death
    Who did not think with me.

VI.

To propagate the Truth I fought
    With Fury and Despight,
And in my Zeal for Israel fought,
    To slay the Gibconite.

VII.
VII.
"The Temple of the Lord are we,
And all that dare deny,
I would not leave their Conscience free,
But force them to comply.

VIII.
With wholesome Discipline severe
To conquer them I strove,
And drive into the Pale thro' Fear
Who would not come thro' Love.

IX.
How vainly then the Zealots blind
Of Rome I did disclaim,
Still to the Church of Satan join'd,
And differ'ring but in Name!

X.
How could I, Lord, myself deceive,
While unrepent'd within,
Protest against their Creed, and cleave
Thee closer to their Sin?

XI.
Their fourest Sin my own I made,
(And humbly now confess)
While by my Anger I essay'd
To work thy Righteousness.

XII.
A Murderer convict I come,
My Vileness to bewail,
By Nature born a Son of Rome,
A Child of Wrath and Hell.

XIII.
Lord, I at last recant, reject,
(Thro' Jesus Strength alone)
The Madness of the Romish Sect,
The Madness of my own.

XIV.
Lord, I abhor, renounce, abjure
The fiery Spirit unclean,
The persecuting Zeal impure,
The Sin-opposing Sin.

XV.
Let others draw with fierce Despite
  The persecuting Sword,
And with the Devil's Weapons fight,
  The Battles of the Lord;

But O! my gracious God, to me
  A better Mind impart,
The gentle Mind that was in Thee,
  The meekly loving Heart.

The Heart whose Charity o'erflows
  To all far off and near,
True Charity to Friends and Foes,
  Impartially sincere.

Heathens, and Jews, and Turks, may I
  And Hereticks embrace;
Nor ev'n to Rome the Love deny
  I owe to all the Race.