HYMNS, &c.

HYMN I.

Great GOD, who ready to forgive
in wrath remembrest mercy still,
By whose preserving love we live,
Though doom'd the second death to feel;
We magnify thy patent grace,
And tremble, while we sing thy praise.

II.

Had not thy mercy interpos'd,
When sleeping in our sins we lay,
The staggering earth had yawn'd, and clos'd
Its mouth on its devoted prey,
We now had with our city fell,
And quick descended into hell.

III.

But O! the Saviour of mankind
Hath gain'd for us a longer space,
Jesus his Father's heart inclin'd
To spare a vile rebellious race,
To snatch from Corah's fearful doom,
And save us from the wrath to come.

IV. The
IV.
Then let us to our Saviour turn,
Answer his mercy's whole design,
With reverent fear rejoice and mourn,
And praises with confessions join,
Till all these lowing clouds remove,
And GOD appears the GOD of love.

HYMN II.

GOD of glorious majesty,
Whose judgments are abroad,
Pierce and turn our hearts to thee
With sacred horror aw'd;
All this drowsy land awake,
And by the thunder of thy power
Shake, our inmost spirits shake,
And let us sleep no more.

II.
Rising in thy dreadful might
The wicked to rebuke,
Thou hast with unwonted fright
Our sleeping bodies shook;
Earth did to her center quake,
Convulsive pangs her bowels tore;
Shake, our inmost spirits shake,
And let us sleep no more.

III.
E'er the threatened ruin come,
A general terror dart,
Send the keen conviction home
To every thoughtless heart;

Shake
Shake us out of Satan's hands,
Burst open every prison door,
Rouse and loose us from our hands,
And bid us sin no more.

IV.
Jesus, Lord, to whom we cry,
The true repentance give,
Give us at thy feet to lie,
And tremble and believe;
On the Rock of ages place
Our souls till all the wrath is o'er,
Ground and establish us in grace,
And bid us sin no more.

HYMN III.

Terrible Lord of earth, and skies,
Most holy, high, and just,
We fall before thy glorious eyes,
And hide us in the dust:
Thine anger's long suspended stroke
With deepest awe we feel,
And tremble on, so lately shook
Over the mouth of hell.

II.
Appall'd, o'erwhelm'd with conscious fear
Beneath thy frown we mourn,
And shudder at the judgment near,
And dread its swift return.
So oft and terribly reprov'd,
Our land is warn'd in vain,
For O! the cause is unremov'd,
The sin doth still remain.

III. The
The crowd, the poor unthinking crowd,
Refuse thy hand to see,
They will not hear thy loudest rod,
They will not turn to thee.
As with judicial blindness struck,
They all thy signs despise,
Harden their hearts, and madly mock
The anger of the skies.

But blinder still, the rich and great
In wickedness excel,
And revel on the brink of fate,
And sport and dance to hell.
Regardless of thy smile or frown,
Their portion they require,
And calmly sink together down
To everlasting fire.

But O! thou dreadful righteous Lord,
The praying remnant spare,
The men that tremble at thy word,
And see the coming snare:
Our land if yet again thou shake,
Or utterly break down,
A merciful distinction make,
And strangely save thine own.

If earth its mouth thou’d open wide,
To swallow up its prey,
Jehu, thy faithful people hide
In that vindictive day:
Firm in the universal shock
We shall not then remove,
Safe in the cliffs of Israel’s rock,
Our Lord’s eternal love.

H Y M N I V.

G O D of awful majesty,
    Thy glorious name we praise!
Known are all thy works to thee
    Of judgment, and of grace:
In thine only breast it lies
    To raise or sink, revive or slay:
Wilt thou yet again chastise,
    Or turn thy wrath away?

II.
Vengeance on thy foes to take
    Hast thou in anger sworn?
Sworn again our earth to shake,
    And from its base o'erturn?
Surely then to Abraham's seed
    Thou shalt reveal the wrath to come;
Speak the punishment decreed,
    And warn us of our doom.

III.
But if so thy will ordain
    Its close design to hide,
Let us in thy work remain,
    And in thy love abide;
Stand for all events prepar'd,
    With reverence and godly fear;
Stand for ever on our guard,
    Till thy great arm appear.

IV.
Blessed are the servants, Lord,
    Whom thou shalt watching find,
Hanging on thy faithful word,
    And to thy will resign'd;
Safe
Safe amidst the darts of death,
   Secure they rest in all alarms,
Sure their Lord hath spread beneath
   His everlasting arms.

V.

Should the earth this moment cleave,
   And swallow up the just,
Jesus would their souls receive,
   And guard their sleeping dust:
Tho' their dust the whirlwind sweep
   To earth's profoundest center driven,
Soon, emerging from the deep,
   They rise, they mount to heaven!

H Y M N V.

From whence these dire portents around,
   That strike us with unwonted fear!
Why do these earthquakes rock the ground,
   And threaten our destruction near?
Ye prophets smooth the cause explain,
   And lull us to repose again.

II.

Or water swelling for a vent,
   Or air impatient to get free,
Or fire within earth's intrails pent;
   Yet all are order'd, Lord, by thee;
The elements obey thy nod,
   And nature vindicates her GOD.

III.

The pillars of the earth are thine,
   And thou hast set the world thereon;
They at thy sovereign word incline,
   The center trembles at thy frown,
The everlasting mountains bow,
   And GOD is in the earthquake now!

Now,
IV.

Now, Lord, to shake our guilty land,
   Thou dost in indignation rise,
We see, we see thy lifted hand,
   Made bare a nation to chastise,
Whom neither plagues nor mercies move
To fear thy wrath or court thy love.

V.

Therefore the earth beneath us reels,
   And staggers like our drunken men,
The earth the mournful cause reveals,
   And groans our burthen to sustain;
Ordain'd our evils to deplore,
And fall with us to rise no more.

PSALM XLVI.

GOD, the omnipresent GOD,
    Our strength and refuge stands
Ready to support our load,
    And bear us in his hands:
Readiest when we need him most,
    When to him distress'd we cry,
All who on his mercy trust
    Shall find deliverance nigh.

II.

Kept by him we scorn to fear
    In danger's blackest day,
Starting at destruction near,
    Tho' nature faint away,
Tho' the stormy ocean roar,
    Tho' the madding billows rise,
Rage, and foam, and lash the shore,
    And mingle earth and skies.

Let
III.
Let earth's inmost center quake,
    And shatter'd nature mourn,
Let the unwieldy mountains shake,
    And fall by storms up torn,
Fall with all their trembling load
    Far into the ocean hurl'd,
Lo! we stand secure in GOD,
    Amidst a ruin'd world.

IV.
From the throne of GOD there springs
    A pure and crystal stream,
Life, and peace, and joy it brings
    To his Jerusalem:
Rivers of refreshing grace
    Thro' the sacred city flow,
Watering all the hallow'd place
    Where GOD abides below.

V.
GOD most merciful, most high,
    Doth in his Sion dwell,
Kept by him their towers defy
    The strength of earth and hell;
Built on her o'ershadowing rock,
    Who shall her foundations move,
Who her great defender shock,
    The almighty GOD of love.

VI.
All that on this rock are stay'd
    The world assaults in vain,
Ever present with his aid
    He shall his own sustain:
Guardian of the chosen race,
    Jesus doth his church defend,
Save them by his timely grace,
    And save them to the end.
VII.

Furiously the heathen rag'd
Against his church below,
Kingdoms all their power engag'd
Jerusalem t'o'erthrow;
Earth from her foundation flirr'd,
Yawn'd to swallow up her prey,
Jesus spoke, she own'd his word,
And quak'd, and fled away.

VIII.

For his people in distress
The GOD of Jacob stands,
Keeps us, 'till our troubles end,
In his almighty hands:
He for us his power hath shewn,
He doth still our refuge prove;
Loves the Lord of hosts his own,
And shall for ever love.

IX.

Come, behold the almighty Lord
In robes of vengeance clad;
By the desolating sword
What havock hath he made!
He hath sent his armies forth,
States and kingdoms to o'erthrow,
March'd in anger thro' the earth,
And ravag'd all below.

Lo! again in tender love
He bids their discords cease,
Calms their spirit from above,
And melts them into peace;
Breaks the bow and burns the car,
Instruments of fatal ill,
Quells the horrid din of war,
And bids the world be still.
XI.
Sons of men be still, and know
That I am GOD alone,
I my saving power will show,
And make my goodness known;
All shall with my will comply,
Fear the name to sinners given,
Bow before the Lord most high,
The Lord of earth and heaven.

XII.
For his people in distress
The GOD of Jacob stands,
Bears us 'till our troubles cease,
In his almighty hands:
He for us his power hath shown,
He doth still our refuge prove,
Loves the Lord of hosts his own,
And shall for ever love.
