CHURCH MISSIONARY SOCIETY,
SALISBURY SQUARE, E.C.
PREFACE.

Many inquiries about Hymns to be used in connexion with the Commemoration of the Church Missionary Society's Centenary, as well as for more general missionary purposes, have led those, on whom has fallen the responsibility of preparing for the Centenary, to believe that a small Collection of Hymns, mainly of a missionary and devotional character, was much needed to serve both objects. Early in 1898 a Sub-Committee was appointed to prepare such a Collection: the following pages are the result.

It does not profess to be a Book for general Public Worship; but the Compilers believe that it will be widely welcomed by missionary Choirs, Gleaners', and other Unions, Bands, and workers of many kinds, for Special Services or regular Meetings, as well as find a place in home circles, where Christ's command to evangelize the World is loved and honoured.

Together with a number of old and popular Hymns, it contains many which are little known. Of these, some have been written specially for the Society, and others not hitherto published.

A pathetic interest is attached to the Book from the fact that it is the last literary work in which Miss S. G. Stock was engaged before her summons to a higher service. This gentle and gifted lady, who will ever be remembered as the missionary poetess of our age, took the liveliest interest in the preparation of this Hymnal. Her colleagues gratefully acknowledge how much, under God, they owe to her refined taste, her quick perception of beauty, and her spirit so deeply taught in Divine truth.

The Sub-Committee are also deeply indebted to E. J. Bellerby, Esq., Mus. Doc., for the zeal and judgment which he has devoted to the musical portion of the Book. They feel, however, that it is due to him to state that the Sub-Committee retained the selection of the Tunes in their own hands; and also that, while a large number of the Tunes have received his much valued revision, and a larger number his approval, he is not to be held responsible for others, the insertion of which the Committee desired, not so much for their artistic merit as for the recognized popularity which they have attained.

Earnestly desiring that it may please Him who inhabiteth the praises of His people to accept this humble offering, and to use it for His glory in the Church, the Compilers commend it to the kindness of their many friends and fellow-workers in the service of the Lord Christ.

H. E. Fox,
Hon. Secretary, C.M.S.

Every care has been taken to discover and obtain permission from the owners of copyright Hymns and Tunes; in the case of any accidental omission the Committee would desire to sincerely apologize for such mistake, which they will gladly correct in any future edition of the Book.

The weakest part of many Hymn Books is to be found in the Texts prefixed to the Hymns. Every care has been taken in this Book to choose appropriate and helpful Texts for this purpose, and it is hoped that it may be found possible, in giving out a Hymn, to read its Text as well, thus giving due prominence to the Word of God.

Where new Tunes have been used, a reference has also been given, wherever possible, to some well-known Tune elsewhere in the Book, which may be substituted when it is deemed inadvisable to use a new and unknown Tune.

Expression-marks have been carefully inserted throughout the Book, which it is earnestly hoped will be observed in the rendering of the Hymns. It should be particularly noticed that each mark is intended to continue in force till another one occurs.

MISSIONARY CHOIRS.

Missionary Choirs need multiplication. Large ones are only possible in large centres, but small ones are possible anywhere. Even a Choir of six or eight at an ordinary parochial missionary meeting would avail to lift the singing from the frequent low-level of feeble dulness towards the high-level of melodious brightness. A missionary Choir is quite within the range of practical parochial possibilities. It need not be relegated to the over-worked Incumbent to organize; a layman or a lady can do it quite as well, possibly better.
But the formation of a Missionary Choir has some essential conditions of success. The Members must possess certain qualifications.

Primarily (because most likely to be overlooked) they should be not only spiritually-minded, but missionary-minded. Possession of ear and voice cannot compensate for the lack of heart. From the heart comes the greatest, though rarest, ingredient of success,—the music which is full of "feeling," the singing which is "unto the Lord." On the other hand, a real interest in Missions does not necessarily imply either ability to sing or power to sing in time and tune. And these cannot be dispensed with. "Make a joyful noise" is an exhortation both Scriptural and missionary, obedience to which is within the reach of everyone; but it is not the standard for attainment by a Missionary Choir.

Combined practice is a necessity. "Trying the Hymns over" alone, at home, can never be a satisfactory substitute. The Choir must sing as one body, and not as a number of units possessed of varying ideas. The product of practice should be threefold. (a) First, distinctness of enunciation. Let this, too, be of primary importance. In the union of music and words it is the former, not the latter, which must take the subordinate place. And this, because only the words will carry a Divine message and prove a means of grace. It is more difficult to understand the words of many singers than of one. Yet it is possible to so render Hymns as to be intelligible to others than the fortunate possessors of Hymn Books. But it is a possibility of rare realization. To how many Choirs the Apostolic rebuke may be still applied: "How shall he that occupieth the room of the unlearned say, Amen, at thy giving of thanks, seeing he understandeth not what thou sayest? For thou verily giveth thanks well, but the other is not edified." Let no such reproach be ever levelled at a Missionary Choir. (b) Next, a mastery of the art of singing with expression. The average Choir apparently looks on expression-marks as printer's errors. Those who have heard such Hymns as "Peace, perfect peace," sung with and without expression will have learnt differently. It is not hard to train a Choir to sing forte and piano; a little care will ensure this; but to produce a really effective crescendo or diminuendo by a body of voices means time, trouble, and long patience. But it is worth it. (c) And then, a knowledge of every Hymn and Tune in the Book, so as to be ready to sing any of them at a moment's notice. "I am afraid we don't know this," is a sentence to be expunged from the vocabulary of a Missionary Choir.

At the Meeting if there is no platform, or no room on it, place the Choir facing at right angles to the audience, and of course in front. Let them sing for half-an-hour beforehand, the audience remaining seated, and joining in if they wish. But for this purpose someone must give out the Hymns. This is the time to render new Tunes. In the Meeting itself let old Tunes prevail, though not necessarily old Hymns also. Let the Chairman be asked to give out the Text at the head of the Hymn as well as its first line. And let all the Members of the Choir take the wise advice to a preacher, altered to suit their case, "Pray before singing, while singing, and after singing."

It is not always possible to realize an ideal. It is possible to try.

W. J. L. SHEPPARD,
Secretary of the Hymn-Book Sub-Committee.

I am debtor.—Rom. i. 14.

1. A DEBTOR! (mf) For the love of God unbounded,
   Embracing all, hath taken thought for me,
   Providing pardon, peace securely founded,
   cr And life and joy to last eternally.

2. A debtor! (f) For mine eyes have seen His glory
   And in mine ears the gospel music rings;
   Familiar is the old, the blessed story dim Of how He died, (f) Who is the King of Kings.

3. A debtor! And can one so favoured render Aught unto Him Whose love hath given me all?
   cr I hear His royal word, so sweet and tender,
   "Come unto Me!" (f) I must repeat the call.

4. A debtor! (mf) For He trusts me with His treasure.
   That I may share His blessed work,—to give;
   And life has come to me at His good pleasure,
   cr That others too may hear the word and live.

5. A debtor! For in shadows darkly lying
   Are thousand souls for whom my Saviour bled,
   And distant lands, in sin and sorrow sighing,
   cr Wait for His message to be comforted.

6. A debtor! (mf) Loyal messengers have started, cr God sends them, helps them, speeds them on their way.
   Accepts the service of the faithful-hearted,—
   p What am I doing my great debts to pay?

1 \textit{f} ALL-MERCIFUL, Almighty Lord,
We bless the love, its depth and height,
Which made, by Thy transforming word,

THE MISSIONARY CALL AND CLAIM.

The earth shall be filled with the knowledge of the glory of the Lord, as the waters cover the sea.—Hab. ii. 14.

1 mf GOD is working His purpose out, as year succeeds to year:
   God is working His purpose out, and the time is drawing near,— cr Nearer and nearer draws the time, the time that shall surely be,
   f When the earth shall be filled with the glory of God, as the waters cover the sea.

2 mf From utmost East to utmost West, where'er man's foot hath trod, cr By the mouth of many messengers goes forth the voice of God;
   Give ear to Me, ye continents,—ye isles, give ear to Me,
   That the earth may be filled with the glory of God, as the waters cover the sea.

3 mf What can we do to work God's work, to prosper and increase
   The brotherhood of all mankind,—the reign of the Prince of Peace?
   What can we do to hasten the time,—(cr) the time that shall surely be,
   f When the earth shall be filled with the glory of God, as the waters cover the sea.

4 f March we forth in the strength of God with the banner of Christ unfurled, cr That the light of the glorious Gospel of truth may shine throughout the world:
   Fight we the fight with sorrow and sin, to set their captives free, ff That the earth may be filled with the glory of God, as the waters cover the sea.

5 mp All we can do is nothing worth, (cr) unless God blesses the deed, mp Vainly we hope for the harvest, (cr) till God gives life to the seed;
   Yet nearer and nearer draws the time,—(f) the time that shall surely be, ff When the earth shall be filled with the glory of God, as the waters cover the sea.
   A. C. AINGER. Amen.

This gospel of the kingdom shall be preached in all the world for a witness unto all nations; and then shall the end come. —St. Matt. xxiv. 14.

1 mf "GO forth," the Lord has said, "And preach the word to all;"
cr May all the world Thy Name adore, And Thee their Saviour call!
f The earth from east to west, The earth from sea to sea, As with a zone of holy love Shall soon encircled be.

2 mf And when that work is preached, And when that work is done, When Christ is known, (cr) and Christ is praised From risen to setting sun; f Then Christ Himself will come, And call us from the tomb; dim And all will see the Judge appear, p And all will hear their doom.

3 mf O everlasting Lord, How shall we see Thy face, If we have failed to spread abroad The Gospel of Thy grace?
pp O endless, endless shame, O endless misery!
mp For none, who have not fought the fight, Will share the victory.

4 mf But O what joys await Thy valiant soldiers, Lord, cr Who have with faith and zeal advanced The kingdom of Thy word!
[f] Then they will in glory stand, They will in glory shine, Bright as the starry firmament; They will be ever Thine.

5 mf O therefore bless the Lord, With praise and offerings; cr With heart and hand glad homage pay To the great King of Kings. f To Father, and to Son, And, Holy Ghost, to Thee May all the world Hosannas sing, One God and Persons Three. Amen.

Strangers from the covenants of promise, having no hope, and without God in the world.
Ephes. ii. 12.

1 mp HARK! hark, the voice of numbers,
Whose number no man knows,
cr Awakes the Church's slumbers,
And stirs her long repose:
mp The wail of men and mothers,
dim The children's piteous cry,
cr "Come, help us, we are brothers;"
dim Come, help us, ere we die."

2 mp Ah, woe for human nature,
Woe for its deeds of shame,
When man, the ruined creature,
Knows not the Maker's Name;
When no true balm assuages
Time's daily load of care,
p And o'er the coming ages
Broods infinite despair!

2 mp There no baptismal blessing
Rests on the infant brow;
No lips, our God confessing,
Pledge there the holy vow;

No ear enraptured listens
To Jesus' words of grace;
No eye with longing glistens
To see Him face to face.

4 p Still onward to the river,
Which all must cross, they move.

pp And meet the dread For-ever,
Unweaving "God is love."

cr And yet the Sun has risen
Of everlasting day;

f The bars of death's dark prison
Our Life has borne away.

5 mf Oh, tell them of the story
Which leads to perfect bliss,

cr Until that world of glory
Spans all the gloom of this;

f And in the dawning splendour
The one Name only given
Claims every heart's surrender,
And knits our earth to heaven.

Also I heard the voice of the Lord, saying, Whom shall I send, and who will go for us? Then said I, Here am I; send me.—Isaiah vi. 8.

1 mf HARK the voice of Jesus crying,—
   “Who will go and work to-day?
   Fields are white, and harvest waiting;
   [away?]
   Who will bear the sheaves
   Loud and strong the Master calleth,
   Rich reward He offers thee;
   Who will answer,—gladly saying,—
   “Here am I; send me, send me?”

2 mf If you cannot cross the ocean,
   And the heathen lands explore,
   You can find the heathen nearer,
   You can help them at your door.
   If you cannot give your thousands,
   You can give the widow’s mite;
   And the least you do for Jesus
   Will be precious in His sight.

3 mf If you cannot be the watchman,
   Standing high on Zion’s wall,
   Pointing out the path to heaven,
   Offering life and peace to all;
   With your prayers and with your bounties
   You can do what heaven demands;
   You can be like faithful Aaron,
   Holding up the prophet’s hands.

4 mf Let none hear you idly saying,
   “There is nothing I can do,”
   While the souls of men are dying,
   And the Master calls for you.
   Take the task He gives you gladly,
   Let His work your pleasure be;
   Answer quickly when He calleth,
   “Here am I; send me, send me!”

They grope in the dark without light.—Job xii. 25.

1  \( p \) SOULS in heathen darkness lying,
   Where no light has broken through;
   Souls that Jesus bought by dying,
   Whom His soul in travail knew;—
   \( cr \) Thousand voices
   Call us, o'er the waters blue.

2  \( mf \) Christians, hearken! \( p \) none has taught them
   Of His love, so deep and dear,
   Of the precious price that bought them,
   Of the nail, the thorn, the spear;
   \( mf \) Ye who know Him,
   Guide them from their darkness drear.

3  \( mf \) Haste, oh, haste, and spread the tidings
   \( cr \) Wide to earth's remotest strand;
   \( dim \) Let no brother's bitter chidings
   Rise against us,—when we stand
   \( p \) In the judgment,—
   From some far, forgotten land.

4  \( mf \) Lo! the hills for harvest whiten
   All along each distant shore;
   \( cr \) Seawards far the islands brighten,—
   \( f \) Light of nations! lead us o'er;
   When we seek them,

The Master is come, and calleth for thee.—St. John xi. 28.

1mf THE Master comes! He calls for thee,—
Go forth at His Almighty word,
Obedient to His last command,
And tell to those who never heard,
Who sit in deepest shades of night,
That Christ has come to give them light!

2mf The Master calls! Arise and go;
How blest His messenger to be!
He, Who hath given thee liberty,
Now bids thee set the captives free!

3mf The Master calls! Shall not thy heart
In warm responsive love reply,
Lord, here am I; send me, send me,—
Thy willing slave,—to live or die;
An instrument unfit indeed,
Yet Thou wilt give me what I need!”

4mf And if thou canst not go, yet bring
An offering of a willing heart;
Then, though thou tarriest at home,
Thy God shall give thee too thy part;

5 mf Short is the time for service true,
For soon shall dawn that glorious Day,
When, all the harvest gathered in,
Each faithful heart shall hear Him say,—
“My child, well done! your toil is o’er—
Enter My joy for evermore!” Amen.

God ... gave unto Him the Name which is above every name; that in the Name of Jesus every knee should bow.—Phil. ii. 9, 10. (A.V.)

1 mf At the Name of Jesus
   Every knee shall bow,
   Every tongue confess Him
   King of glory now;
'Tis the Father's pleasure
   We should call Him Lord
Who from the beginning
   Was the Mighty Word.

2 mf At His voice creation
   Sprang at once to sight,
   All the angel faces,
   All the hosts of light,
Thrones and dominations,
   Stars upon their way,
   All the heavenly orders,
   In their great array.

3 p Humbled for a season,
   To receive a Name
   From the lips of sinners,
   Unto whom He came,
Faithfully He bore it
   Spotless to the last,
   Brought it back victorious,
   When from death He passed;

4 mf Bore it up triumphant,
   With its human light,
   Through all ranks of creatures,
   To the central height;
   To the throne of Godhead,
   To the Father's breast,
   Filled it with the glory
   Of that perfect rest.

5 f Name Him, brothers, name Him,
   With love as strong as death,
   But with awe and wonder,
   And with 'bated breath;
   He is God the Saviour,
   He is Christ the Lord,
   Ever to be worshipped,
   Trusted, and adored.

6 mf In your hearts enthrone Him;
   There let Him subdue
   All that is not holy,
   All that is not true;
   Crown Him as your Captain
   In temptation's hour;
   Let His will enfold you
   In its light and power.

7 f Brothers, this Lord Jesus
   Shall return again,
   With His Father's glory,
   With His angel train;
   For all wreaths of empire
   Meet upon His brow,
   And our hearts confess Him
   King of glory now. Amen.

1 mf CHIEF Shepherd of Thy people,

Swift as the solar radiance.

2 mf When o'er Pacific billows
The Sabbath wakes in glory,
Their praises due Thy scattered few
In China sing before Thee;
They sing, (f) and westward ever
The sunlight speeds the chorus
From Burmah's shore to far Lahore,
From Araby to Taurus.

3 mf Anon awakening Europe
 Begins her loud devotion,
Her song that flies from Lapland's ice
To Moorish gates of ocean;
And hymns from Britain mingle
With voices gathering ever
Where rises bright Leonò's height
Where Niger pours his river.

4 mf Soon as the arch of morning
Atlantic waves embraces,
From zone to zone before the throne
Ascend Columbia's praises;
And onward swells the echo,
On Southern waters flying,
To blend with songs of island tongues
From rock to rock replying.

5 mf All, all as one we praise Thee,
Great Giver of salvation,
Whose equal grace nor time, nor place,
Nor language knows, nor nation;
We praise, (p) and wait imploring
Thy hour of final favour;
Call in Thine own, reveal Thy Throne,
And o'er us reign for ever. Amen.

3 \( mf \) Jesus is worthy to receive Honour and power Divine:
   \( cr \) And blessings more than we can give
   Be, Lord, for ever Thine.

4 \( f \) Let all that dwell above the sky,
   And air, and earth, and seas,
   \( cr \) Conspire to lift Thy glories high,
   And speak Thine endless praise.

5 \( f \) The whole creation join in one,
   To bless the sacred Name
   Of Him that sits upon the throne,
   \( dim \) And to adore the Lamb. Amen.

Our Father, which art in heaven, Hallowed be Thy Name.—St. Matt. vi. 9.

1 mf FATHER, to Whom the tribes of earth belong,
   With all the legions of the heavenly throng,
   cr Bought by Thy love we raise redemption's song,
   ff The strain of Hallelujah.

2 p Thou, Whose dear Son from highest heaven came,
   cr That every knee might bend before Thy Name,
   f Tune every tongue to swell the loud acclaim
   ff Of perfect Hallelujah.

3 p Grant that Thy Spirit from the throne above
   cr May fill the ransomed with their Saviour's love,
   f Till to Thy service all Thy servants move,
   ff To teach the Hallelujah.

4 mf Their lips, their footsteps with Thy counsel guide,

   f Creation gathers to the Crucified
   ff With songs of Hallelujah.

5 f For light celestial, for earth's darkness riven,
   For Satan vanquished, and for sins forgiven,

The voice of a great multitude, ... saying, Alleluia.—Rev. xix. 6.

1 mf HARK, creation's Alleluia,
Rising from a thousand shores,
Vibrates sweet as angel voices,
cr Loud as many waters roars,—

f "Blessing, glory, power, salvation—
To our God upon the throne,
Father, Son, and Holy Spirit,
Infinite, supreme, alone."

2 mf On and on, from dawn to sunset,
Borne on every changeful wind,
From the myriad-minded peoples
Of the hoary climes of Ind,
From the ransomed sons of Afric,
From old Sinim's crowded lands,
From the freeborn wanderers roaming
Araby's unconquered sands.

3 mf From the coasts of ice to regions
Where perpetual summer smiles,
From the sunny hearted children
Of the far Pacific isles, cr From the numbers without number
f Of rejoicing Christendom,
From the watchers for His advent
Who will soon to Zion come;

4 mf Gathering strength from every nation,
cr Every kindred, tribe, and tongue,
f Hark, that everlasting anthem,
Hark, that glorious tide of song,
cr Floods the valleys with its music,
Echoes from the lasting hills,
f Onward, upward, till the temple
Of the living God it fills.

5 p Hark, it mingles with the raptures
Of the armies of the sky,
Who have passed through tribulation
Into perfect rest on high,
cr Clothed in robes of spotless beauty,
Palms of triumph in their hand,
f Harping on their harps Hosannas,
As before His face they stand:

6 f "Glory unto Him Who loved us,
Him Who washed us with His blood,
Kings and priests henceforth for ever
To our Father and our God.

ff Alleluia! saints and angels,
Raise your loudest, loftiest strains;
Alleluia! hell is vanquished;
God the Lord Almighty reigns."

   Our captives, ransomed souls.

3 p Not unto us,—(f) Lord Jesus,
   To Thee all praise be due;
   Whose blood-bought mercy frees us,
   Has freed our brethren too.
   Not unto us,—(f) in glory
   The angels catch the strain,
   And cast their crowns before Thee
   Exultingly again.

4 f Great God of our salvation,

   Thee crowning Lord of all. Amen.

_I press toward the mark, for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus._—Phil. iii. 14.

1 _mf_ SAVIOUR, blessed Saviour,
   Listen while we sing;
   _cr_ Hearts and voices raising
   _f_ Praises to our King.
   _mf_ All we have to offer,
   All we hope to be,
   _cr_ Body, soul, and spirit,
   All we yield to Thee.

2 _p_ Farther, _dim_ ever farther
   From Thy wounded side, _pp_ Wandered far and wide;
   _cr_ Till Thou cam'st in mercy,
   Seeking young and old,
   _mf_ Lovingly to bear them,

PRAISE.

8 mf Nearer, (cr) ever nearer,
    Christ, we draw to Thee, dim Deep in adoration

   Bending low the knee.
   Thou, for our redemption,
   Cam'st on earth to die;
   Thou, that we might follow,
   Hast gone up on high.

4 mf Great, (cr) and ever greater,
    Are Thy mercies here;
   True and everlasting
    Are the glories there;
   Where no pain nor sorrow,
    Toil nor care, is known;
   Where the angel-legions
    Circle round Thy throne.

5 mf Brighter still, (cr) and brighter,
    Glows the western sun,
   Shedding all its gladness
    O'er our work that's done;

mf Time will soon be over,
dim Toil and sorrow past,
p May we, bless'd Saviour,
    Find a rest at last.

6 mf Onward, (cr) ever onward,
   Journeying o'er the road
   Worn by saints before us,
   Journeying on to God;
   Leaving all behind us,
   May we hasten on,
   Backward never looking
   Till the prize is won.

7 f Higher then, (cr) and higher,
   Bear the ransomed soul,
   Earthly toils forgotten,
   Saviour, to its goal;
   Where, in joys unthought of,
   Saints with angels sing,
   Never weary, raising
   Praises to their King. Amen.

SIR G. J. ELVEY.

A Jubilee shall that fiftieth year be unto you.—Lev. xxv. 11.

1 f SING we to God in joyful strains
   Our hymn of Jubilee!
   And tell to earth that Jesus reigns,
   Who set the captive free.

2 f Proclaim His love, Whose blood hath bought,
   Whose power released the slave;
   Who with the hosts of darkness fought,
   And triumphed o'er the grave.

3 f Sing we, (dim) who once in heathen
   And Satan’s thralldom lay;
   Nor freedom knew, nor hope, nor might,
   Till dawned our Gospel-day.

4 f Now, called to light and liberty,
   The Lord's behest fulfil;

   And shout the song of Jubilee
   To lands in darkness still.

5 mf The Lord, Whose banner we unfurled,
   Our feeble work doth bless;
   And thousands, through the awakening world,
   His conquering powers confess.

6 cr From land to land the tidings tell,
   Till all mankind are free;
   Till every voice in triumph swell
   The song of Jubilee.

7 f O Thou, to Whom all power is given!
   Soon be Thy victory won:
   Return and reign, till, as in heaven,
   On earth Thy will be done.

Amen.

3. \(mf\) O for the living flame,
   From His own altar brought,
   \(cr\) To touch our lips, our minds inspire,

4. \(f\) God is our strength and song,

Now is salvation nearer to us than when we first believed. The night is far spent, and the day is at hand.—Rom. xiii. 11, 12 (R.V.)

1 mf YES, we trust the day is breaking, cr Joyful times are near at hand;
   God, the mighty God, is speaking
   By His word in every land;
   When He comes, His lost ones seeking,
cr Darkness flees at His command.

2 f Let us hail the joyful season,
   Let us hail the rising ray;
   When the Lord appears, there's reason
   To expect a glorious day,
   At the brightness of His coming
   Gloom and darkness flee away.

3 p While the foe becomes more daring,
   While he enters like a flood,
   God the Saviour is preparing
   Means to spread His truth abroad;
   Every tongue and every language
   Soon shall tell the love of God.

4 f Oh how pleasant, how reviving
   To our hearts, to hear each day
   Joyful news, from far arriving,
   That the Gospel wins its way;
   Those enlightening and enlivening
   Who in death and darkness lay.

5 f God of Israel, high and glorious,
   Let Thy people see Thy hand;
   Let the Gospel be victorious
   Through the world in every land;
   Come, Lord Jesus, O come quickly;
   Lord, Thy blessing now command. Amen.

Intercession.

Pray one for another, that ye may be healed.—James v. 16.

1     mf ALMIGHTY God, Whose only Son
  cr O'er sin and death the triumph won,
    And ever lives to intercede
  dim For souls who Thy sweet mercy need;

2     mp In His dear Name to Thee we pray
  mp For all who err and go astray,
    For sinners, wheresoe'er they be,
  mp Who do not serve and honour Thee.

3     mp There are who never yet have heard mp The tidings of Thy blessed word,
    dim But still in heathen darkness dwell,
  mp Without one thought of heaven or hell;

4     mp And some, within Thy sacred fold,
  mp To holy things are dead and cold,
    mp And waste the precious hours of life
  mp In selfish ease, or toil, or strife;

5     mp And many a quickened soul within mp There lurks the secret love of sin,
    p A wayward will, or anxious fears,
  mp Or lingering taint of bygone years.

6     mf O give repentance true and deep
  cr To all Thy lost and wandering sheep,
    cr And kindle in their hearts the fire
  cr Of holy love and pure desire.

7     f That so from angel-hosts above
  f May rise a sweeter song of love,
    cr And we, with all the blest, adore
  f Thy Name, O God, for evermore. Amen.

A HYMN OF INTERCESSION FOR THE CLERGY,
In view of their opportunities of rousing and sustaining Missionary interest throughout the Church.

We persuade men.—2 Cor. v. 11.

1 mf AWAKE, O Lord, the zeal of those who stand,—

As stood the Seraphim about Thy Throne,—

In worship and in work to lead Thine own:

Awake their zeal of love (dim) for those who lie,

Not yet Thine own, (p) beneath the alien sky;

2 cr Of love, in Him Who in His Love gave all,

Himself and Home and Life-Blood of His Cross,

That they might come all willing at His call,

And count all other loveliest things as loss,

Their joy of love and its most sweet employ.

3 mf From glowing hearts, Lord, give them tongues of fire

To burn away the bonds of earthly things

From those high spirits who would fain aspire,

That they, unbound, may as on angel wings

Spread over wave and wild, through frost and flame,

Th’immortal music of Emmanuel’s Name.

4 p Be, too, their message to Thy lowliest:

Who, giving not themselves, their own may lend:

For whom are not the exile and the quest,

Yet, going not, can intercede and send

By alms love-hallowed, and the fostering care

Of holiest sympathies and ceaseless prayer.

5 f Yea, grant, O Lord, that as Thy sons behold

Those fields afar that wait the reaper’s hand,

Or hear across the mighty waters rolled

Some new soul-pleading from the Morians’ land,

They may in strong persuading instant be

To win that alien world to Love and Thee. Amen.

May also be sung to “Pro Mundi Vita,” No. 211.
The Lord gave the word; great was the company of those that published it.—Ps. lxviii. 11.

1 \(f\) Give the word, eternal King,
    Swift and fair from hill to hill,
  \(cr\) Speed the angel-feet that bring News of glory and good-will,
  News of freedom's open door,

  Priceless treasure to the poor,
    To the weary perfect peace.

2 \(f\) Give the word, ascended Son,
  \(p\) By the travail of Thy soul,
  \(cr\) By the triumph it hath won,
    Let the tidings onward roll;
  \(f\) In the depth and o'er the height
    Thy love's banner be unfurled;
  \(ff\) Make Thine own, in hell's despite,
    All the kingdoms of the world.

3 \(f\) Give the word, O Holy Ghost,
    West, and East, and South, and North,
  \(cr\) Make a second Pentecost;
    Bid Thy companies go forth,
  \(mf\) Bearing all the gifts of grace
    On Thy wings, O mystic Dove,
  Visions of the Saviour's face,
    Music of the Father's love.

4 \(f\) Father, Son, and Spirit, God!
  \(mp\) By the sum of human ill,
  \(pp\) By Thy dread avenging rod,
  \(cr\) By Thine all-absolving will,
  \(p\) Lo, before Thy feet we fall,
  \(cr\) Holy, holy, holy, Lord!
  \(f\) Three in One, and All in All,
  \(rall\) Hear our cry, \((ff)\) and give the word!

O Lord, hearken and do; defer not, for Thine own sake, O my God.—Dan. ix. 19.

1 mf
DEFER not, O our God,
Make bare Thine arm of might,

Spread Thou Thy Gospel-light.

4 mf

Of Gospel truth must shine,

Shall come as King Divine,—

2 mf
O call Thy remnant forth
From men of every race,
In East and West, in South and North,
By Thy prevailing grace.

5 pf
Then, hear, O Lord, our prayer,
Restrain not Thou Thy power,
Pour down on those, Who Christ declare,
A heart-refreshing shower.

3 mf
Thy powers, e'en now, each land
O'er spreads with wonders, Lord;
In all the earth Thy mighty hand
Hath magnified Thy word.

6 pf

Whom every eye shall see,
And all shall bow before the Lord
Of endless majesty. Amen.

Waiting for the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ.—1 Cor. i. 7.

1 mf GREAT King of kings, why dost Thou stay?
   Why tarriest Thou upon Thy way?
   Why lingers the expected Day?
   Thy kingdom come!

2 p Sin has prevailed on earth too long;

   Of things above and things below?
   Thy kingdom come!

5 p Earth is still waiting for the Day
   When old things shall have passed away,
   And all be clad in new array:
   Thy kingdom come!

6 f O King of glory, King of peace,

The harvest truly is plenteous, but the labourers are few; pray ye therefore the Lord of the harvest, that He will send forth labourers into His harvest.—St. Matt. ix. 37, 38.

4 f Awake Thy Church, (dim) ere yet the day departs, ff And heaven and earth make one full harmony.

Lord, send the labourers forth! Amen.

Call upon Me in the day of trouble: I will deliver thee, and thou shalt glorify Me.—Ps. 1.15.

3 p A frail one, thrice denying Thee,

   But suddenly, with joyful cheer,
   They see their Master come.
   Lord, come to us, unloose our bands,
   Lift over us Thy blessed hands,
   Speak, holy Jesus, peace!

5 mp In days when faith will scarce be found,

   When sin and sorrow will abound,
   And charity wax cold;
   Then hear Thy saints, who to Thee pray
   To bring them to their home;

Pray ye therefore the Lord of the harvest, that He would send forth labourers into His harvest.—St. Luke x. 2.

1 mf WHEN the messengers of grace

3 p All our efforts are in vain,

   To Thy glory, Lord.
   Let all the earth her treasures yield,
   O send more labourers to the field.

4 mf Soon, O Lord, may every land
   Own Thee as its King,

It is not for you to know the times or the seasons, which the Father hath put in His own power.—Acts i. 7.

1 mf GOD holds the key of all unknown,
   f And I am glad;
mf If other hands should hold the key,
   Or if He trusted it to me,
   dim I might be sad.

2 mf What if to-morrow's cares were here Without its rest?
   cr I'd rather He unlocked the day,
   And, as the hours swing open, say,
   "My will is best."

3 p The very dimness of my sight
   cr Makes me secure;

   cr I feel His hand,—I hear Him say,
   f "My help is sure."

4 mp I cannot read His future plans,

   I have the smiling of His face,
   And all the refuge of His grace,
   While here below.

5 mf Enough! this covers all my wants,
   p And so I rest;

I, if I be lifted up from the earth, will draw all men unto Me.—St. John xii. 32.

1 mf I AM Thine, O Lord, I have heard Thy voice,

And be closer drawn to Thee.
mf Draw me nearer, nearer, bless'd Lord,
dim To the Cross where Thou hast died;
cr Draw me nearer, nearer, nearer, bless'd Lord,

2 mf Consecrate me now to Thy service, Lord,

cr Let my soul look up with a steadfast hope,
dim And my will be lost in Thine.
mf Draw me nearer, &c.

3 mf Oh, the pure delight of a single hour
That before Thy throne I spend,
When I kneel in prayer, (cr) and with Thee, my God,
I commune as friend with friend.
mf Draw me nearer, &c.

4 mf There are depths of love that I cannot know

Him that cometh to Me, I will in no wise cast out.—St. John vi. 37.

1 mp I HEARD the voice of Jesus say,
   “Come unto Me and rest;
   Lay down, thou weary one, lay down
   Thy head upon My breast:”

2 mp I heard the voice of Jesus say, “Behold, I freely give
   The living water; thirsty one,
   Stoop down, and drink, and live:
   * p I came to Jesus, and I drank
   Of that life-giving stream;
   My thirst was quenched, my soul
   f And now I live in Him. [revived,

3 mp I heard the voice of Jesus say,
   “I am this dark world’s Light;
   Look unto Me, thy morn shall rise,
   And all thy day be bright:”

* mf I looked to Jesus, and I found
   In Him my Star, my Sun;
   And in that Light of life I’ll walk
   Till travelling days are done. Amen.

* In verses 2 and 3, for music of lines 5 and 6, substitute the following:
Not knowing the things that shall befall me.—Acts xx. 23.

1 mp I KNOW not what may befall me;
    God tenderly shades my eyes;
    And so each step in my onward path
    He makes new scenes arise;
    And every joy He sends me comes
    As a sweet and strange surprise.

2 mp I see not a step before me,
    Yet I journey without a fear;
    The past is still in God's keeping,
    The future His mercy will clear;
    And what looks dark in the distance
    May brighten as I draw near.

3 mp For perhaps the dreaded future
    Has less bitter than I think;
    The Lord may sweeten the waters
    Before I stoop to drink;
    Or, if Marah must still be Marah,
    He will stand beside the brink.

4 mf Then it may be He has, waiting
    For the coming of my feet,
    Some gift of such rare blessedness,
    Some joy so passing sweet,
    That my lips shall only tremble
    With the thanks they cannot repeat.

5 mf I journey on, not knowing;
    I would not, if I might;
    I would rather walk in the dark with God,
    Than walk alone in the light;
    I would rather walk with Him by faith,
    Than walk alone by sight. Amen.

A living sacrifice.—Rom. xii. 1. A new song.—Ps. xl. 3.

1 mf IN the cleansèd temple,
   On the festal day,
   When the whole burnt-offering
   On the altar lay,—
   Then the priestly trumpets
   Echoed loud and long,
   Then ten thousand voices
   Sang the Lord's own song.

2 mf When this lost world's Saviour
   Left His Father's home,
   Offered His burnt-offering,
   Saying, "Lo, I come,"—
   Then the wondering shepherds
   Heard the angel-throng
   Give God highest glory
   In their glad new song.

3 mf When the body, purchased
   With Christ's ransom-price,
   Is to God presented,
   Living sacrifice,—
   Then the tide of gladness
   Rises high and strong;
   Then the heart rejoicing
   Sings the glad new song.

4 mf When from dawn to sunset
   Christ shall worshipped be,
   And the same pure offering
   Every place shall see,
   When again He cometh
   Who has tarried long,—
   Then shall peal the welcome
   Of the glad new song.

5 p Grant us, blessed Master,
   So to yield to Thee
   Body, soul, and spirit,

111 Watchword 11.10.11.10, with Refrain. F. R. HAVERGAL.
He ... exhorted them all, that with purpose of heart they would cleave unto the Lord.—Acts xli. 23.

1 \(f\) TRUE-HEARTED, whole-hearted! faithful and loyal,
   King of our lives, by Thy grace we will be!
   \(cr\) Under Thy standard, exalted and royal,
   Strong in Thy strength we will battle for Thee!
   \(f\) Peal out the watchword, and silence it never,
   Song of our spirits, rejoicing and free!
   \(ff\) "True-hearted, whole-hearted, now and for ever,
   King of our lives, by Thy grace we will be!"

2 \(f\) True-hearted, whole-hearted! fullest allegiance
   Yielding henceforth to our glorious King!
   Valiant endeavour and loving obedience
   \(cr\) Freely and joyously now would we bring.
   \(f\) Peal out the watchword, &c.

3 \(f\) True-hearted! (dim) Saviour, Thou knowest our story,
   \(p\) Weak are the hearts that we lay at Thy feet,
   Sinful and treacherous! (\(cr\) yet, for Thy glory,
   Heal them and cleanse them from sin and deceit.
   \(f\) Peal out the watchword, &c.

4 \(f\) Whole-hearted! Saviour beloved and glorious,
   \(cr\) Take Thy great power, and reign Thou alone,
   Over our wills and affections victorious,—
   Freely surrendered, and wholly Thine own.
   \(f\) Peal out the watchword, &c.

5 \(p\) Half-hearted, false-hearted! Heed we the warning!
   Only the whole can be perfectly true;
   \(cr\) Bring the whole offering, all timid thought scorning,
   \(f\) True-hearted only if whole-hearted too.
   Peal out the watchword, &c.

6 \(p\) Half-hearted! Master, shall any who know Thee
   Grudge Thee their lives, Who hast laid down Thine own?
   \(cr\) Nay! we would offer the hearts that we owe Thee,
   \(f\) Live for Thy love and Thy glory alone.
   Peal out the watchword, &c.

7 \(f\) Jesus is with us, His rest is before us,
   Brightly His standard is waving above
   \(ff\) "Peal out our watchword, dear brethren, in gathering chorus, Peal out the watchword, &c. Amen!"

FAREWELL.

Response from all (at close of last verse).

The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Ghost, be with you evermore! evermore! Amen.

Brethren, pray for us.—1 Thess. v. 25.

1 p BROTHERS, sisters, pray for us:
From afar resounds our call,
Leagued 'gainst sin and Satan's thrall,—
Christ Himself our All in all:
Brethren, pray for us!

2 mp Morning, evening, pray for us!
When the angry storms-clouds lower,
Fierce uprising heathen power,—
Strength is pledged for darkest hour:
Brethren, pray for us!

3 mf When ye meet, remember us!
At the holy Sabbath-tide
Plead for those, o'er oceans wide,
Who with you in Christ abide:
Brethren, pray for us!

4 mf For each kinsman at his post
Claim the dower of Pentecost,— Comfort of the Holy Ghost:
Brethren, pray for us!

5 mf God be with you,—God with us!
For a witness steadfast, true,
For communion ever new,— Fellowship with Christ, with you:
Brethren, pray for us!

6 f Brothers, sisters, praise for us!
We are weak; the foe is strong;
Dark the heathen night, and long,—
Yet of victory our song:
Brethren, praise for us!

7 f "God is faithful!" praise with us!
Not uncertainly we fight,
Ours the weakness,—(f) His the might;
Morning cometh after night:
Brethren, praise for us!

8 p Brothers, sisters, fare ye well!
Sound with us the glad refrain,
"Glory to the Lamb once slain!"
Christ is coming; Christ shall reign:"
Brethren, fare ye well!
The grace, &c. Amen.

1 \( m_f \) FATHER, we are gathered here,
\( m_f \) For your keeping in that hour
Our good-bye to say

God be with you, God be with you,

We must work the works of Him that sent Me, while it is day: the night cometh, when no man can work.—St. John ix. 4. (R.V.)

1 mf Go, labour on; spend, and be spent,— 4 mf Go, labour on while it is day, Thy joy to do the Father's will; p The world's dark night is hastening on;
should not the servant tread it still? cr Speed, speed thy work, cast sloth away,
It is not thus that souls are won.

2 mf Go, labour on; 'tis not for nought;
Thy earthly loss is heavenly gain; 5 p Men die in darkness at your side,
Men heed thee, love thee, praise thee not; Without a hope to cheer the tomb;

The torch that lights time's thickest gloom.

3 mf Go, labour on; (p) your hands are weak,
Your knees are faint, your souls cast down;
cr Yet falter not; the prize you seek
Is near, (f) a kingdom and a crown. cr Compel the wanderer to come in.

2 mf With willing heart and longing eyes
To watch before Thy gate,
Ready to run the weary race,
To bear the heavy weight;
No voice of thunder to expect,
But follow calm and still;
For love can easily divine
The One Belov'd's will.

3 mf Thus may I serve Thee, gracious Lord!
Thus ever Thine alone,
My soul and body given to Thee,
The purchase Thou hast won.
Through evil or through good report
Still keeping by Thy side,
By life or death, in this poor flesh,
Let Christ be magnified.

4 f How happily the working days
In this dear service fly,
How rapidly the closing hour,
The time of rest, draws nigh,—
When all the faithful gather home,
A joyful company,
And ever where the Master is,
Shall His blest servant be. Amen.

She hath done what she could.—St. Mark xiv. 8.

1 p I COULD not do the work the reapers did,
Or bind the golden sheaves that thickly fell;
cr But I could follow by the Master's side,
dim Watching the marrèd face I loved so well.
mf Right in my path lay many a ripened ear
Which I would stoop and gather joyfully,
cr I did not know the Master placed them there,—
f "Handfuls of purpose" that He left for me.

2 p I could not cast the heavy fisher-net,
I had not strength or wisdom for the task;
So on the sun-lit sands, with spray-drops wet,
cr I sat, while earnest prayers rose thick and fast.
I pleaded for the Master's blessing, where My brethren toiled upon the world-wide sea;
f Or ever that I knew, His smile so fair
Shone, beaming sweet encouragement on me.

3 p I could not join the glorious soldier-band,
I never heard their thrilling battle-cry;
The work allotted by the Master's hand
Kept me at home, while others went to die.
cr And yet, when victory crowned the struggle long,
And spoils were homeward brought, both rich and rare,
f He let me help to chant the triumph song,
And bade me in the gold and jewels share.

4 mf O Master dear! the tiniest work for Thee
cr Finds recompense beyond our highest thought,
p And feeble hands that worked but tremblingly,
cr The richest colours in Thy Fabric wrought.
mf We are content to take what Thou shalt give,
To do, or suffer, as Thy choice shall be:
cr Forsaking all Thy wisdom bids us leave,

I will go in the strength of the Lord God.—Ps. lxxi. 16.

1 f I WILL go in the strength of the Lord,
    In the path He hath marked for my feet;
    I will follow the light of His word,
    Nor shrink from the dangers I meet.

    cr His presence my steps shall attend;
    His fulness my wants shall supply;
    ff On Him, till my journey shall end,
    My hope shall securely rely.

2 f I will go in the strength of the Lord
    To the work He appoints me to do;
    cr In the joy which His smile shall afford
    My soul shall her vigour renew.

    mf His wisdom shall guard me from harm,
    cr His power my sufficiency prove;
    f I trust His omnipotent arm;
    p I rest in His covenant love.

3 f I will go in the strength of the Lord
    To each conflict which faith may require;
    cr His grace, as my shield and reward,
    My courage and zeal shall inspire.

    mf If He give the word of command
    To meet and encounter the foe,
    cr With sling and with stone in my hand,
    ff In the strength of the Lord I will go.  Amen.

Who is the King of Glory? The Lord strong and mighty, the Lord mighty in battle. -Ps. xxiv. 8. (R.V.)

Take your appointed post.

5 p Though few, and small, and weak your bands,

Lord, it is nothing with Thee to help, whether with many, or with them that have no power to help us, O Lord our God; for we rest on Thee, and in Thy Name we go against this multitude.—2 Chron. xiv. 11.

1 mf O LORD, with Thee 'tis but a little matter
   Those that are feeble for the fight to gird.
   cr Help us, O Lord, and gird us for the battle,
   f Kept and encircled by Thy mighty word.

2 mf 'We rest on Thee,' for sore we need a haven
   Where we may safe abide, serene and still,
   We rest on Thee, for whither shall we seek it,
   cr Save in Thyself, safe anchored in Thy will?

3 mf We rest on Thee, but not with idle dreaming,— Souls that have such a Refuge sought and found, cr How should they rest, except in mighty leaning?
   f We rest on Thee and go to loose the bound.

4 mf Yea, 'in Thy Name' we will arise and free them,
   Jesus, Thou Son of God, Who givest Rest;
   cr Thy Name the charm that breaks their souls' long bondage, dim Thy Name the answer to their hearts' long quest.

5 f Thy Name, O Lord, our Safety and our Challenge,
   By Thee our souls defy the hosts of wrong;
   Thy Name our Plea, our Surety, and our Answer,
   ff Thy Name the Glory of our triumph-song.

6 mf Lord, Thou art God, and we are but Thy servants,
   Let not the wrong prevail against the right,
   cr Come down Thyself to help us, O our Saviour,

He saw them toiling in rowing ... He cometh unto them walking upon the sea ... He went up unto them into the ship.—St. Mark vi. 48, 51.

1 mp ONCE Thy servants toiled in rowing
On the Galilean Sea;
Waves rose high, rough winds were blowing;
cr How they longed, O Lord, for Thee!

2 mf From the mountain-top beholding
With the sleepless eye of love,
cr Even then, their strength upholding,
Thou didst watch them from above.

3 mf O'er the waters wildly raging cr Thou to save Thine own didst come,
Every doubt and fear assuaging,
f Quickly didst Thou bear them home.

4 mp Lord, still toil Thy sons and daughters
On the world's dark, troubled sea,
And, 'mid roar of winds and waters,
cr Still they look and long for Thee.

5 f Far on high in glory seated,
Watching from Thy Father's throne,
Till Thy purpose be completed
Still uphold and bless Thine own!

6 mf Let not darkest waters harm them,
Let not rough winds work them ill,
Let not tempest fierce alarm them,
Subject to Thy sovereign will.

7 mf When the night of toil is ended, cr Then we look for Thee to come,
f And, by angel-hosts attended,
Bear Thy people safely home. Amen.

157 Martyrdom

They overcame him by the blood of the Lamb.—Rev. xii. 11.

1 mf GIVE me the wings of faith to rise
Within the veil, and see cr The saints above, how great their joys,
  f How bright their glories be.

2 p Once they were mourning here below,
  And wet their couch with tears;
  They wrestled hard, as we do now,
  With sins, and doubts, and fears.

3 mf I ask them whence their victory came;
  f They, with united breath,
   Ascribe their conquest to the Lamb,
   Their triumph to His death.

   cr They marked the footsteps that Herod,
   His zeal inspired their breast,
   And, following their Incarnate God,
   Possess the promised rest.

   f Our glorious Leader claims our praise
   For His own pattern given,
   While the long cloud of witnesses
   Show the same path to heaven.

   ISAAC WATTS. Amen.
Lo, a great multitude, which no man could number, ... stood before the throne, and before the Lamb, clothed with white robes, and palms in their hands.—Rev. vii. 9.

1 f HARK! the sound of holy voices,
   Chanting at the crystal sea,
   Hallelujah, hallelujah, Hallelujah! Lord, to Thee;
nf Multitudes, which none can number, dim Gladly, Lord, with Thee they suffered;
   Like the stars in glory stand,
   Clothed in white apparel, holding
   Palms of victory in their hand.

2 mf Patriarch, and holy prophet,
   Who prepared the way of Christ,
   King, apostle, saint, confessor,
   Martyr, and evangelist,
   Saintly maiden, godly matron,
   Widows who have watched to prayer,
   Joined in holy concert, singing
   To the Lord of all, are there.

3 p They have come from tribulation,
   And have washed their robes in blood,
   Washed them in the blood of Jesus;
   Tried they were, and firm they stood;
   Mocked, imprisoned, stoned, tormented,
   Sawn asunder, slain with sword,
   They have conquered death and Satan
   By the might of Christ the Lord.

4 ff Marching with Thy cross their banner,
   They have triumphed, following
   Thee, the Captain of Salvation;
   Thee, their Saviour and their King;
   Gladly, Lord, with Thee they died;
   And by death to life immortal
   They were born and glorified.

5 ff Now they reign in heavenly glory,
   Now they walk in golden light;
   Holy bliss and infinite;
   Love and peace they taste for ever,
   In the beatific vision
   Of the Blessed Trinity.

6 f God of God, the One-begotten,
   Light of Light, Emmanuel,
   In Whose Body joined together
   All the saints for ever dwell,
   That we may for evermore
   God the Father, God the Son, and
   God the Holy Ghost adore. Amen.

1 HAIL to the Lord's Anointed, Great David's greater Son!
   Hail, in the time appointed,
   His reign on earth begun!

   He comes to break oppression,
   To set the captive free;
   To take away transgression,
   And rule in-equity.

2 He shall come down like showers
   Upon the fruitful earth;
   And love, joy, hope, like flowers,
   Spring in His path to birth:

   Shall peace, the herald, go;
   And righteousness, in fountains,
   From hill to valley flow.

3 Arabia's desert-ranger
   To Him shall bow the knee:
   The Ethiopian stranger
   His glory come to see:

   With offerings of devotion,
   Ships from the isles shall meet
   To pour the wealth of ocean
   In tribute at His feet.

4 Kings shall fall down before Him,
   And gold and incense bring;
   All nations shall adore Him,
   His praise all people sing;

   For He shall have dominion
   O'er river, sea, and shore,
   Far as the eagle's pinion,
   Or dove's light wing can soar.

5 To Him shall prayer unceasing
   And daily vows ascend;
   His kingdom still increasing,
   A kingdom without end.

   The mountain dews shall nourish
   A seed in weakness sown,
   Whose fruit shall spread and flourish,
   And shake like Lebanon.

6 O'er every foe victorious,
   He on His throne shall rest,
   From age to age more glorious,
   All-blessing and all-blest.

   The tide of time shall never
   His covenant remove;
   His Name shall stand for ever,
   His changeless Name of Love. Amen.

They shall see the Son of man coming in the clouds of heaven with power and great glory.—St. Matt. xxiv. 30.

1 p OUR Lord is now rejected,
And by the world disowned;
By the many still neglected,
And by the few enthroned;
cr But soon He'll come in glory,
The hour is drawing nigh,
_f For the crowning Day is coming
By and by!
_f Oh! the crowning Day is coming,

By and by!

2 f The heavens shall glow with splendour;
_cr But, brighter far than they,

_ff In the crowning Day that's coming
By and by!
_f Oh! the crowning Day, &c.

3 mf Our pain shall then be over;
We'll sin and sigh no more;
_p Behind us all of sorrow,
cr And nought but joy before,—
A joy in our Redeemer,
As we to Him are nigh,
_f In the crowning Day that's coming
By and by!
_f Oh! the crowning Day, &c.

4 mf Let all that look for, hasten

179 When the King comes  P.M., with Refrain.

Refrain. a tempo.

What will it be when the King comes! What will it be when the King comes!

accel when He comes!  .  .  .  Slower

What will it be when He comes, when He comes! What will it be when the King comes!

When He comes,

* The Words must be sung to the Tune in their natural rhythm, the notes being repeated or not, as required.
And He that sitteth on the throne said, Behold, I make all things new.—Rev. xxii. 5. (R. V.)

1 Threaten they come and go, the seasons fair,
   And bring their spoil to vale and hills;
   But oh! there is waiting in the air,
   And a passionate hope the spirit fills.
   Why doth He tarry, the absent Lord?
   When shall the Kingdom be restored,
   And earth and heaven, with one accord,
   Ring out the cry that the King comes?
   What will it be when the King comes!
   What will it be when the King comes!
   What will it be when the King comes!

2 The floods have lifted up their voice:
   The King hath come to His own,—His own!
   The little hills and vales rejoice,
   His right it is to take the crown.
   Sleepers awake, and meet Him first!
   Now let the marriage hymn outburst!
   And powers of darkness flee, disperst;
   What will it be when the King comes!
   What will it be, &c.

3 A ransomed earth breaks forth in song,
   Her sin-stained ages overpast;
   Her yearning, "Lord, how long,—how long?"
   Exchanged for joy at last,—at last!
   Angels carry the royal commands;
   Peace beams forth throughout all the lands;
   The trees of the field shall clap their hands;
   What will it be when the King comes!
   What will it be, &c.

4 Now Zion's hill, with glory crowned,
   Uplifts her head with joy once more;
   And Zion's King, once scorned, disowned,
   Extends her rule from shore to shore.
   Sing, for the land her Lord regains!
   Sing, for the Son of David reigns!
   And living streams o'erflow her plains;
   What will it be when the King comes!
   What will it be, &c.

5 Oh, brothers, stand as men that wait,
   The dawn is purpling in the East,
   And banners wave from Heaven's high gate;
   The conflict now,—(f) but soon the feast!
   Mercy and truth shall meet again;
   Worthy the Lamb that once was slain!
   We can suffer now,—(f) He will know us then;
   What will it be when the King comes!
   What will it be, &c.

   cr And Thy love exceeding great,
   f But Thy coming, and Thy throne,
   cr All for which we long and wait.

4 mf Thou art coming: we are waiting
   With a hope that cannot fail,
   p Asking not the day or hour,

   f Brought to Thee, my Master and my Friend,

   rall Unto earth's remotest end
   Glorified, adored, and owned!

Verses 1, 2, 3, 4.

When the King comes back from the far-off land,
And the trumpet sounds to meet Him;
Oh! the joy that thrills through the raptured band
Of the saints as they rise to greet Him;—
O hasten, Lord, that happy day,
The kingdom of Thy glory;
For our spirits yearn for Thy blest return,
As we muse on the Gospel story.

2 When the morning breaks on the hills of time
And the shadows all are fleeing,
When the Bride awakes to the marriage chime,
And her faith is lost in seeing;—
O hasten, Lord, that happy day, &c.

3 When the fight is o'er: and the victory won,
And the vanquished foe is flying;
When the Captain calls, with His own "Well done!"
To the crown of the life undying;—
O hasten, Lord, that happy day, &c.

4 Oh! to share the grace of the holy place
Where the angel-hosts adore Him;
Where our eyes shall gaze on the Bridegroom's face.
As we stand all fair before Him!
O hasten, Lord, that happy day, &c.

5 Speed, speed that hour when Thy blood-bought power
Shall reveal Thy full salvation;
And the world resound to her utmost bound
With the song of the new creation;—
All blessing, glory, honour be,
And praise that ceaseth never,
To Him that sits upon the throne,
And to the Lamb for ever! Amen.

REV. R. LOWRY.
1. HOW many sheep are straying,
   Lost from the Saviour's fold!
   Upon the lonely mountain
   They shiver with the cold;
   Within the tangled thickets,
   Where poison vines do creep,
   And over rocky ledges
   Wander the poor lost sheep.

2. O who will go to find them?
   Who, for the Saviour's sake,
   Will search, with tireless patience,
   Through briar and through brake?
   Unheeding thirst or hunger,
   Who still, from day to day,
   Will seek, as for a treasure,
   The sheep that go astray?

3. Say, will you seek to find them?
   From pleasant bowers of ease,
   Will you go forth determined
   To find the "least of these"?
   For still the Saviour calls them,
   And looks across the wold,
   And still He holds wide open
   The door into His fold.

4. How sweet 'twould be at evening,
   If you and I could say,—
   "Good Shepherd, we've been seeking,
   The sheep that went astray!"
   Heartsore and faint with hunger,
   We heard them making moan,
   And, lo! we come at nightfall
   And bear them safely home."

When He saw the multitudes, He was moved with compassion on them, because they fainted, and were scattered abroad, as sheep having no shepherd. — St. Matt. ix. 36.

   cr I shall see Him and hear Him above;

4 f In that beautiful place He has gone to prepare
   For all who are washed and forgiven;
   And many dear children are gathering there,
   dim "For of such is the kingdom of heaven.”

5 p But thousands and thousands, who wander and fall,
   Never heard of that heavenly home;
   cr I should like them to know there is room for them all,
   And that Jesus has bid them to come.

6 I long for that blessed and glorious time,
   f The fairest, and brightest, and best;
   When the dear little children of every clime
   Shall crowd to His arms and be blest. Amen.

Jesus called a little child unto Him.—St. Matt. xviii. 2.
Of such is the kingdom of heaven.—St. Matt. xix. 14.

1 p LITTLE travellers Zionward,
   Each one entering into rest
   cr In the kingdom of your Lord,
   In the mansions of the blest;
   f There, to welcome, Jesus waits,
   Gives the crown His followers win:
   ff Lift your heads, ye golden gates!
   Let the little travellers in!

2 p Who are they, whose little feet
   Pacing life’s dark journey through,
   cr Now have reached that heavenly seat
   They have ever kept in view?

3 p All their earthly journey past,

I am the good Shepherd. . . And other sheep I have which are not of this fold: them also I must bring.—St. John x. 14, 16.

1 p JESUS, tender Shepherd,
Thou art very near,
And Thy loving presence
Keeps my soul from fear:
Nothing evil need I dread,
While by such a Shepherd led.

2 p Jesus, tender Shepherd,
cr Thou hast "other sheep," dim Far away from shelter,
p Where dark shadows creep;
cr Seeking Saviour, bring them home,
That they may no longer roam.

3 p Jesus, tender Shepherd,

As Thy little helper Faithful may I be,

Drawing lost ones to Thy side. Amen.

He took them up in His arms, put His hands upon them, and blessed them.—St. Mark x. 16.

1 mf I THINK, when I read that sweet story of old,
When Jesus was here among men,
How He called little children as lambs to His fold,
cr I should like to have been with Him then.

2 mf I wish that His hands had been placed on my head,
That His arms had been thrown around me,
And that I might have seen His kind look when He said,—

His children are far from safety, ... neither is there any to deliver them.—Job v. 4.

He that soweth the good seed is the Son of man.—St. Matt. xiii. 37.

1 mf O SON of man! Great Sower!
   Stretch out Thy gracious hand,
   And scatter seeds of blessing
   On this our Sowers' Band.

2 mf In every heart before Thee
   * May the good seed take root,
   cr And, watered by Thy Spirit,
   f Bring forth abundant fruit;

3 f The fruit of life-long service
   To Thee, O Master dear!
   The fruit of earnest longing
   That souls Thy voice may hear.

4 p Lord Jesus Christ! Great Sower!
   Accept our humble prayer,
   cr That in Thy work of sowing
   Thy little ones may share.

5 mp To Thee, in hopeful waiting,
   We stretch our empty hands:
   cr Fill them, that we may scatter
   The seed in heathen lands.

6 mf And, ere we leave Thy footstoo;

He shall speak peace unto the heathen.—Zech. ix. 10.

1 mf OUR Saviour's voice is soft and sweet,
   When, bending from above,
   He bids us gather round His feet,
   And calls us by His love.

2 mf But while our youthful hearts rejoice
   That thus He bids us come,
   "Jesus!" we cry with pleading voice,
   "Bring heathen wanderers home."

3 p They never heard the Saviour's Name,
   They have not learned His way:
   They do not know His grace, Who came
   To take their sins away.

4 mf Dear Saviour, let the joyful sound
   In distant lands be heard;
   cr And, oh! wherever sin is found,
   Send forth Thy pardoning word.

5 p And if our lips may breathe a prayer,
   Though raised in trembling fear,
   cr O let Thy grace our hearts prepare,
   And choose some heralds here. Amen.

There is a lad here, which hath five barley loaves and two small fishes.—St. John vi. 9.

1 p O WHAT can little hands do
   To please the King of heaven?
   cr The little hands some work may try,
   To help the poor in misery:
   dim Such grace to mine be given,—
   p Such grace to mine be given.

2 p O what can little lips do
   To please the King of heaven?
   f The little lips can praise and pray,

   Such grace to mine be given,—
   p Such grace to mine be given.

3 p O what can little eyes do
   To please the King of heaven?
   cr The little eyes can upward look,
   And learn to read God's holy book:

   p Such grace to mine be given.

4 p O what can little hearts do
   To please the King of heaven?

The fields ... are white already to harvest. And he that reapeth receiveth wages, and gathereth fruit unto life eternal.—St. John iv. 35, 36.

1 mf THE fields are all white, dim And the reapers are few;
   mf We children are willing,
   dim But what can we do
   cr To work for our Lord in His harvest?

2 mp Our hands are so small,
   And our words are so weak,
   We cannot teach others;
   How then shall we seek
   cr To work for our Lord in His harvest?

3 mf We'll work by our prayers,
   By the gifts we can bring,
   By small self-denials;
   cr The least little thing
   f May work for our Lord in His harvest.

4 mf Until, by-and-by,
   As the years pass, at length
   cr We too may be reapers,
   f And go forth in strength
   f To work for our Lord in His harvest. Amen.

ANON.
Thou art my King, O God.—Ps. xli. 4.

1 We are children of the King,
   And His praises we will sing,—
   p The Saviour-King Who died:
   cr While His love we gladly own,
   How we long to make it known
   Throughout the whole world wide!
   mp 'Twas for us His life He gave,
   Shed His precious blood to save,
   cr Brought peace and pardon freely down;
   And to those who trust His word,
   And accept Him as their Lord,
   f He'll give a glorious crown.

2 But across the seas afar
   Many thousand souls there are,
   p Who know not Christ the King;
   cr They have never heard His Name,
   Nor the news of how He came Eternal life to bring
   p Some are groping for the light,
   Some are dying in the night,
   cr And yet our Saviour loves them too,
   And He bids His servants send
   To the world's remotest end
   f The tidings glad and true.

3 There is room enough for all,
   Strong or feeble, great or small,
   In this His service blest;
   Helping others who have gone
   To proclaim what He has done, dim That weary souls may rest.
   mf May each heart among us care,
   And may each among us share
   cr The blessed work for Christ our King
   f And when He shall come again,
   Over all the world to reign,
   f The triumph-song we'll sing! Amen.

He said, Bring them hither to Me.—St. Matt. xiv. 18.

1 mf We bring our hearts to Jesus,
   To have them freed from sin,
   His precious blood will cleanse them,
   His Spirit dwell within;
   cr Then, ready for His service,
   We can go forth with prayer,
   f To do the work He gives us,
   And serve Him anywhere.

2 mf We bring our hands to Jesus, cr That He may make them strong
   To fight the daily battle
   With sin and every wrong;
   f We're soldiers in His army,
   And pledged to serve our King,
   cr Then let us lift His banner
   With faith unwavering.

3 mf We bring our seed to Jesus,
   The seed we want to sow,
   cr That He may give His blessing,
   And cause each grain to grow;
   We're sowing for the harvest,
   And pray for precious corn
   f To fill the Master's garner
   Upon the happy morn.

4 mf We want to glean for Jesus
   In fields both far and near,
   To gather in the lost ones
   The Gospel news to hear;
   Although He may not send us
   To work in distant lands,
   cr We know he also serveth,
   Who by his Master stands.

5 mf But if the voice of Jesus
   Should say,—"Go, work to-day," cr We want to follow gladly dim To dark lands far away.
   f Oh ! Saviour, take us, use us,
   And make us all Thine own,
   dim Thy weak and faltering children,

The children crying in the temple, and saying, Hosanna to the Son of David.—St. Matt. xxi. 15.

1 mf WHEN of old, in lowly state, cr Children did their voices raise

   f In Hosannas to His praise;
   p And the Lord, Who came to die,
   cr Turned on them a loving eye.

3 mf Take your part, your happy part,
   In the work so near His heart;
   Send the news that makes you glad p To the sinful and the sad,— cr Tidings of the love that gave God’s dear Son, a world to save.

4 mp Free the little slave forlorn,
   From his home and country torn;
   Tell the orphan in the wild cr He may be “Our Father’s” child;
   Think how freely ye receive,— Freely work, and freely give.

5 mf Christian children, as ye sing,
   Give yourselves unto your King;
   Early make the blessed choice,
   Early heed His loving voice,— cr Christ, our Master, from above
   Claims your heart, your life, your love.

6 mf Jesus, Saviour, throned on high,
   p Listen to Thy children’s cry;
   cr Perfect from our lips Thy praise,
   Sanctify us all our days,—
   f Till we bless Thee, and adore
   In Thy Temple evermore. Amen.

God so loved the world, that He gave His only-begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in Him should not perish, but have everlasting life.—St. John iii. 16.

1 mf O FATHER, Who hast given Thine only Son
To ransom the whole world from Satan's thrall,
For all the perfect sacrifice of One,
And life, through One Who died, made free for all;
O hear us now, while we Thy children plead
Thy boundless mercy, (p) and our brethren's need.

2 p O Saviour, dost Thou bid the weary come
And lean their weariness upon Thy breast,
Not only the sick souls of Christendom,
But all who crave and have not found Thy rest?
Hear Thou our prayer in this memorial Feast,
Who art for all the Offering and the Priest.

3 f O Spirit of the living God, by Whom
The spirits of all flesh alone can live,
Souls cry to Thee in anguish through the gloom:
Lord, when Thou hearest their dumb cry, forgive,
And draw them to the wounded feet and side
Of Him Who lives for all, for all Who died.

4 mf O Father, Saviour, Comforter Divine,
All hearts are open to Thy searching glance;
Lift up on this our darkened world of sin
The light and glory of Thy countenance,
Till love its final victory hath won,
And as in heaven, on earth Thy will be done. Amen.

Thou wilt keep him in perfect peace, whose mind is stayed on Thee.—Isaiah xxvi. 3.

1 mp PEACE, perfect peace, in this dark world of sin?
p The blood of Jesus whispers peace within.

2 mf Peace, perfect peace, by thronging duties pressed?
cr To do the will of Jesus, (dim) this is rest.

3 mf Peace, perfect peace, with sorrows surging round?
dim On Jesus' bosom nought but calm is found.

4 mp Peace, perfect peace, with loved ones far away?
cr In Jesus' keeping we are safe and they.

5 mp Peace, perfect peace, our future all unknown?
f Jesus we know, and He is on the throne.

6 p Peace, perfect peace, death shadowing us and ours?
f Jesus has vanquished death and all its powers.

7 mf It is enough: (dim) earth's struggles soon shall cease, pp And Jesus call us to heaven's perfect peace. Amen.

We are unprofitable servants.—St. Luke xvii. 10.

1 mp We have not known Thee as we ought,

2 mp We have not feared Thee as we ought,
   Nor bowed beneath Thine awful eye,
   Nor guarded deed, and word, and thought,
   p Remembering that God was nigh.
   cr Lord, give us faith to know Thee near,
   dim And grant the grace of holy fear.

3 mp We have not loved Thee as we ought,
   Nor cared that we are loved by Thee;
   p Thy presence we have coldly sought,
   And feebly longed Thy face to see.
   cr Lord, give a pure and loving heart,
   f To feel and own the love Thou art.

4 mp We have not served Thee as we ought,

   The work with little fervour wrought,
   The battles lost, or scarcely won!
   f Lord, give the zeal, and give the might,
   cr For Thee to toil, for Thee to fight.

5 mf When shall we know Thee as we ought,

   p Lord, may we day by day prepare

Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these My brethren, ye have done it unto Me.—St. Matt. xxv. 40.

1 mf WE give Thee but Thine own,

   All that we have is Thine alone,
   A trust, O Lord, from Thee.

2 mf May we Thy bounties thus

   To Thee our first-fruits give.

3 p Oh! hearts are bruised and dead,

4 cr To comfort and to bless,

And at even, when the sun did set, they brought unto Him all that were diseased, and them that were possessed with devils. And all the city was gathered together at the door.—St. Mark i. 32, 33.

1 mf AT even, ere the sun was set,
   dim The sick, O Lord, around Thee lay;
   p Oh! in what divers pains they met!
   f Oh! with what joy they went away!

2 mf Fast falls the world’s great eventide,

   p And still, O Lord, on every side
   Her sick and suffering round Thee lie.

3 p Mid heathen ignorance and gloom,
   By untold maladies opprest,
   They sink in anguish to the tomb,
   dim Unhealed, un comforted, unblest.

4 mf And souls are sore diseased within

5 mf While we, whom Thou dost richly bless,
   p In thralls of selfish languor lie,
   Unheeding sickness and distress,
   And careless of our brothers’ cry.

6 mf O Saviour, Thou art with us still,
   Through other hands Thy touch we feel,
   Thou workest yet by human skill,
   cr Thy power is present still to heal;

7 p For sickness and for sin afar,—

The Lord is very pitiful, and of tender mercy.—Jas. v. 11.

1 mf GOD of all pity and all power,
     These both we claim,
cr By Thy Son's death and risen life,
And in His Name.

2 mf His earthly acts displayed His power

     And word of love.

3 mf And some still rise up to obey
     His last commands,
cr And heal the sick, and preach the word
     In heathen lands.

5 mf Their double work needs double power,
cr Give, therefore, Lord,
The skill to heal, the grace to preach
f Thyself, the Word. Amen.

4 mp Thy pity called them to this work,—

They brought unto Him all that were diseased; and besought Him that they might only touch the hem of His garment: and as many as touched were made perfectly whole.—St. Matt. xiv. 35, 36.

1 \( f \) THINE arm, O Lord, in days of old,
Was strong to heal and save;
It triumphed o'er disease and death,
O'er darkness and the grave;
\( p \) To Thee they went, the blind, the dumb,
The palsied and the lame,
The leper with his tainted life,
The sick with fevered frame.
2 \( mf \) And lo! Thy touch brought life and health, Gave speech, and strength, and
And youth renewed and frenzy calmed
Owned Thee, the Lord of light;

Where hast thou gleaned to-day?—Ruth ii. 19.

Unto Him shall the gathering of the people be.—Gen. xl. 9.

Let the whole earth be filled with His glory.—Ps. lxxii. 19.

1. GREAT God, we bless Thy Name
   For all Thy grace has done,
   Thy Gospel's growing fame,
   The trophies it has won.
   Praise for Thine arm revealed,
   The Spirit's gracious rain,
   The whitening harvest field,
   The heaven-garnered grain.

2. Where near the ice-bound Pole
   - Dwell few and scattered bands,
   And where the rivers roll
   Their streams o'er tropic sands,
   Peoples of every race,
   Who sat in darkness drear,
   Of God's redeeming grace,
   His great salvation, hear.

3. The joyful tidings reach
   To India's torrid plain,
   And Asia's varied speech
   Has caught the Gospel strain.
   And many a weary soul,
   From idols breaking free,
   Hastens to one glad goal,
   Its rest, O Christ, in Thee.

4. O'er Afric's darkened land
   Has dawned a brighter day,
   To God, with outstretched hand,
   Her ransomed people pray;
   And, from the rising sun
   To where he sinks to rest,
   Immortal souls are won,
   And men in Christ are blest.

5. O Lord, with mighty hand
   Touch every heart and tongue,
   Till rings through every land
   The Hallelujah-song!
   O for the living fire,
   The Pentecostal flame,
   All hearts with love to inspire,
   Dear Saviour, to Thy Name!

6. Come, Dayspring from on high,
   All the round world to bless!
   O'er this beclouded sky
   Rise, Sun of Righteousness!
   Thy glory fill the earth
   As rolls the boundless sea!
   Come, new creation's birth!
   Come, glorious Jubilee! Amen.

Sing unto the Lord; for He hath done excellent things: this is known in all the earth.—Isaiah xii. 5.

1 mf O KING of Glory, God of Grace,
Age after age is telling
Thy mercy to a fallen race,
The Lord with mankind dwelling,
Thou didst of old send forth Thy Word,
Pardon and Peace revealing:
cr From slumber waked our fathers heard,
And sought the nations' healing.

2 mf They gave, for Thou hadst given all,
Their dearest earthly treasure,
Obedient to their Master's call,
cr In Love's own royal measure.
f And we, their children, bring our praise,
Their God and ours confessing,
Faithful and true through all the days,
Twice fifty years of blessing.

3 mf To every land the word has gone,
“Christ comes, go forth to greet Him!”
Where darkness dwelt (cr) the light
“Prepare, O earth, to meet Him.”

4 mf Land of the rising sun, arise,
cr Thy better day is dawning,
From shore to shore the message flies,
That hails earth's brighter morning.

Kinsmen afar responsive sing,
Pass on the Gospel story;
Sing, comrade Band, “Make Jesus King,”—
The Lord comes back in glory!

May also be sung to “Bishopgarth,” No. 237.
Not unto us, O Lord, not unto us, but unto Thy Name give the praise.—Ps. cxv. 1. (P.B.V.)

1 f O Lord of Lords and King of Kings,
   We praise Thy glorious Name,
The Same to-day and yesterday,
   And evermore the Same!
   Who for a world by sin undone
   Cam'st down in love to die,
   And sittest on Thy Father's throne
   In glory now on high.

2 f O Lord of Lords and King of Kings,
   We praise Thy holy Name,
That Thou didst from Thy faithful Church
   A glorious service claim,—
   To bid the Gospel-trumpet sound
   Far over land and sea,
   Until the earth's remotest bound
   Thine own possession be.

3 f O Lord of Lords and King of Kings,
   We praise Thy blessed Name,
   That to our fathers' waking hearts
   Anew Thy summons came;
   Till, where the seed was sown in tears
   Fields white to harvest lay,
   The increase of the Hundred Years
   A hundredfold to-day!

4 f O Lord of Lords and King of Kings,
   We praise Thy gracious Name,
   That in Thy world-wide work Divine
   Our part we too may claim;
   O may we thus Thy Gospel-word
   Proclaim from shore to shore,
   Till all the earth shall hail Thee Lord,
   And praise Thee evermore! Amen.

REV. W. J. L. SHEPPARD.
The Lord hath done great things for us; whereof we are glad.—Ps. cxxvi. 3.

1 mf We scan the years swept from us
By time’s swift-rolling stream,
We gaze in awe and wonder,
We stand like them that dream;
With joyful song we say,— The Lord hath done great things for us,
O praise His Name to-day!

2 mf In years long past our fathers
Cast forth the holy grain,
With faith in Him Who giveth
The first and latter rain;
Where now glad harvests ripen
They trod their fruitless way: [us,
“The Lord hath done great things for us,
O praise His Name to-day!”

3 f The years brought life and blessing
To many a tribe and tongue,
All kindreds of the peoples
Unite with ours their song;
Redeemed from out the nations,
His servants shout and say,— “The Lord hath done great things for us,
We praise His Name to-day!”

4 f On, then, through years before us
The precious seed to bear,
Although with tears of sorrow
The Master’s toil we share,
Sure in the Day of harvest
Sheaves at His feet to lay:—
“The Lord will do great things for us,
O praise His Name alway!”

5 mf Then, when the years are ended,
And time has ceased to be,
When ours the joy of harvest
Through all eternity,
Shall rise the heavenly anthem,
Which ne’er shall pass away,—
“The Lord hath done great things for us,
Praise we His Name for aye!” Amen.

May also be sung to “Cruger,” No. 168, the last chord but one of the seventh line being divided as the Words require.
