As with gladness men of old

As they offered gifts most rare

As with joyful steps they sped,

Holy Jesus, every day

Saviour, to Thy lowly bed,

Keep us in the narrow way;

There to bend the knee before

And, when earthly things are past,

Thee Whom heaven and earth adore;

Bring our ransomed souls at last

So may we with willing feet

Where they need no star to guide,

Ever seek the mercy-seat.

Where no clouds Thy glory hide.

5.

In the heavenly country bright

Need they no created light;

At Thy cradle rude and bare;

Thou its Light, its Joy, its Crown,

So may we with holy joy,

Pure and free from sin's alloy,

All our costliest treasures bring,

Thou its Sun which goes not

Christ, to Thee our heavenly King.

There for ever may we sing

Alleluias to our King.
