My Dear Young Friends,

Whom I am constrain'd to love and honour by many Obligations. It was the generous and condescending Friendship of your Parents under my weak Circumstances of Health; that brought me to their Country-Seat for the Benefit of the Air; but it was an Instance of most uncommon Kindness, to supply me there so cheerfully for two Years of Sickness with the richest Conveniencies of Life. Such a Favour requires my most affectionate Returns of Service to themselves, felves, and to all that is dear to them; and meer Gratitude demands some solemn and publick Acknowledgment.

But great Minds have the true Relish and Pleasure of doing Good, and are content to be unknown.

It is such a silent Satisfaction Sir Thomas Abney enjoys in the unspeakable Blessings of this Year, that brought our present King to the Throne:

Throne: and he permits the World to forget that happy Turn that was given to the Affairs of the Kingdom, by his wife Management in the highest Office of the City, in that Year when the Pretender was proclaim'd King in France. By the successful Influence that his Conduct had upon the whole Nation, a new Parliament was call'd, which gave a fresh and lasting Strength to the Settlement of the Crown.

The Honour you have done me in learning by heart so large a Number of the Hymns I have publish'd, perhaps has been of some Use towards these greater Improvements, and gives me rich Encouragement to offer you this little Present.

Since I have ventured to shew a Part of your early Character to the World, I persuade my self you will remember that it must inlarge and brighten daily. Remember what the World will expect from the Daughters of Sir Thomas Abney's Family, under such an Education, such Examples, and after such fair and promising Blossoms of Piety and Goodness. Remember what God him-himself will expect at your Hands, from whose Grace you have received plentiful Distributions in the Beginning of your Days. May the Blessings of his Right Hand more enrich you daily, as your Capacities and your Years increase; and may he add bountifully of the Favours of his Left Hand, Riches and Honour. PREFACE

To all that are concerned in the Education of CHILDREN.

MY FRIENDS,

It is an awful and important Charge that is committed to you. The Wisdom and Welfare of the succeeding Generation are intrusted with you beforehand, and depend much on your Conduct. The Seeds of Misery or Happiness in this World, and that to come, are oftentimes sown very early, and therefore whatever may conduce to give the Minds of Children a Relish of Virtue and PREFACE.

and Religion, ought in the first place to be proposed to you.

Verse was at first design'd for the Service of God, though it hath been wretchedly abused since. The Antients among the Jews and the Heathens taught their Children and Disciiples the Precepts of Morality and Worship in Verse. The Children of Israel were commanded to learn the Words of the Song of Moses, Deut.
31. 19, 30. And we are directed in the New Testament, not only to sing with Grace in the Heart, but to teach and admonish one another by Hymns and Songs, Eph. 5:19. and there are these four Advantages in it.

1. There is a greater Delight in the very learning of Truths and Duties this way. There is something so amusing and entertaining in Rhymes and Metre, that will incline Children to make this part of their Business a Diversion. And you may turn their very Duty into a Reward, by giving them the Privilege of learning one of these Songs every Week, if they fulfil the Business of the Week well, and promising them the Book it self,
when they have learnt ten or twenty
Songs out of it.

2. What is learnt in Verse is longer retain'd in Memory, and sooner recollected. The like Sounds and the like Number of Syllables exceedingly assist the Remembrance. And it may often happen, that the End of a Song running in the Mind, may be an effectual Means to keep off some Temptation, or to encline to some Duty, when a Word of Scripture is not upon the Thoughts.

3. This will be a constant Furniture for the Minds of Children, that they may have something to think upon when alone, and sing over to themselves. This may sometimes give their Thoughts a divine Turn, and raise a young Meditation. Thus they will not be forced to seek Relief for an Emptiness of Mind, out of the loose and dangerous Sonnets of the Age.

4. These
4. These Divine Songs may be a pleasant and proper Matter for their daily or weekly Worship, to sing one in the Family, at such time as the Parents or Governors shall appoint; and therefore I have confined the Verse to the most usual Psalm Tunes.

The greatest Part of this little Book was composed several Years ago, at the Request of a Friend, who has been long engag'd in the Work of Catechising a very great Number of Children of all kinds, and with abundant Skill and Success. So that you will find here nothing that savours of a Party: The Children of high and low Degree, of the Church of England or Dissenters, baptised in Infancy, or not, may all join together in these Songs. And as I have endeavoured to sink the Language to the Level of a Child's Understanding, and yet to keep it (if possible) above Contempt; so I have design'd to profit all (if possible) and offend none. I hope the more general the Sense is, these Compositions may may be of the more universal Use and Service.

I have added at the End an Attempt or two of Sonnets on Moral Subjects for Children, with an Air of Pleasantry, to provoke some fitter Pen to write a little Book of them. My Talent doth not lie that way, and a Man on the Borders of the Grave has other Work. Besides, if I had Health or Leisure to lay out in Verse, it should be employ'd in finishing the Psalms, which I have so long promised the World.

May the Almighty God make you faithful in this important Work of Education; may he succeed your Cares with his abundant Graces, that the rising Generation of Great Britain may be a Glory amongst the Nations, a Pattern to the Christian World, and a Blessing to the Earth.
Divine Songs
FOR CHILDREN.

SONG I.

A General Song of Praise to God.

I.

How glorious is our heavenly King,
Who reigns above the Sky!
How shall a Child presume to sing
His dreadful Majesty?

II.

How great his Pow’r is none can tell,
Nor think how large his Grace;
Not Men below, nor Saints that dwell
On high before his Face.
DIVINE SONGS

III.
Not Angels that stand round the Lord
Can search his secret Will;
But they perform his heavenly Word,
And sing his Praises still.

IV.
Then let me join this Holy Train,
And my first Offerings bring:
Th' Eternal God will not disdain
To hear an Infant sing.

V.
My Heart resolves, my Tongue obeys,
And Angels shall rejoice,
To hear their mighty Maker's Praise
Sound from a feeble Voice.

SONG II.
Praise for Creation and Providence.

I.
Sing th' Almighty Pow'r of God,
That made the Mountains rise,
That spread the flowing Seas abroad,
And built the lofty Skies.
II.
I sing the Wisdom that ordain'd
The Sun to rule the Day;
The Moon shines full at his Command,
And all the Stars obey.

III.
I sing the Goodness of the Lord,
That fill'd the Earth with Food,
He form'd the Creatures with his Word,
And then pronounc'd them good.

IV.
Lord, how thy Wonders are display'd,
Where'er I turn mine Eye,
If I survey the Ground I tread,
Or gaze upon the Sky.

V.
There's not a Plant or Flower below
But makes thy Glories known;
And Clouds arise, and Tempests blow
By Order from thy Throne.

VI.
Creatures (as numerous as they be)
Are subject to thy Care;
There's not a Place where we can flee,
But God is present there.
VII.
In Heaven he shines with Beams of Love,
With Wrath in Hell beneath:
'Tis on his Earth I stand or move,
And 'tis his Air I breathe.

VIII.
His Hand is my perpetual Guard,
He keeps me with his Eye:
Why should I then forget the Lord
Who is for ever nigh.

SONG III.
Praise to God for our Redemption.

I.
Left be the Wisdom and the Pow'r,
The Justice and the Grace,
That join'd in Council to restore
And save our ruin'd Race.

II.
Our Father eat forbidden Fruit,
And from his Glory fell;
And we his Children thus were brought
To Death, and near to Hell.
III.
Blest be the Lord that sent his Son
To take our Flesh and Blood;
He for our Lives gave up his own,
To make our Peace with God.

IV.
He honour'd all his Father's Laws,
Which we have disobey'd;
He bore our Sins upon the Cross,
And our full Ransom paid.

V.
Behold him rising from the Grave,
Behold him rais'd on high;
He pleads his Merits there to save,
Transgressors doom'd to die.

VI.
There on a glorious Throne he reigns,
And by his Pow'r Divine,
Redeems us from the slavish Chains
Of Satan, and of Sin.

VII.
Hence shall the Lord to Judgment come,
And with a Sov'reign Voice shall call, and break up ev'ry Tomb,
While waking Saints rejoice.
O may I then with Joy appear
Before the Judge's Face,
And with the blest Assembly there,
Sing his Redeeming Grace!

SONG IV.

Praise for Mercies Spiritual and Temporal.

I.
When'er I take my Walks abroad,
How many Poor I see?
What shall I render to my God
For all his Gifts to me?

II.
Not more than others I deserve,
Yet God hath giv'n me more;
For I have Food while others starve,
Or beg from Door to Door.

III.
How many Children in the Street
Half naked I behold?
While I am cloth'd from Head to Feet,
And cover'd from the Cold.
IV.
While some poor Wretches scarce can tell
Where they may lay their Head,
I have a Home wherein to dwell,
And rest upon my Bed.

V.
While others early learn to swear,
And curse, and lye, and steal,
Lord, I am taught thy Name to fear,
And do thy holy Will.

VI.
Are these thy Favours Day by Day
To me above the rest?
Then let me love thee more than they,
And try to serve thee best.

SONG V.
Praise for Birth and Education in a Christian Land.

I.
Great God, to Thee my Voice I raise,
To Thee my youngest Hours belong:
I would begin my Life with Praise,
Till growing Years improve the Song.
II.
'Tis to thy sov'reign Grace I owe,
That I was born on British Ground,
Where Streams of Heavenly Mercy flow,
And Words of sweet Salvation found.

III.
I would not change my native Land,
For rich Peru with all her Gold:
A nobler Prize lies in my Hand
Than East or Western Indies hold.

IV.
How do I pity those that dwell
Where Ignorance and Darkness reigns;
They know no Heaven, they fear no Hell,
Those endless Joys, those endless Pains.

V.
Thy glorious Promises, O Lord,
Kindle my Hopes and my Desire;
While all the Preachers of thy Word,
Warn me to 'scape Eternal Fire.

VI.
Thy Praise shall still employ my Breath,
Since thou hast mark'd my Way to Heav'n;
Nor will I run the Road to Death,
And waste the Blessings thou hast giv'n.
SONG. VI.

Praise for the Gospel.

I.

LORD, I ascribe it to thy Grace,
And not to Chance, as others do
That I was born of Christian Race,
And not a Heathen or a Jew.

II.

What would the antient Jewish Kings,
And Jewish Prophets once have giv'n,
Could they have heard these glorious
Which Christ reveal'd, and brought from (Heav'n !

III.

How glad the Heathens would have been,
That worship Idols, Wood and Stone,
If they the Book of God had seen,
Or Jesus and his Gospel known!

IV.

Then if this Gospel I refuse,
How shall I e'er lift up mine Eyes?
For all the Gentiles and the Jews
Against me will in Judgment rise.
DIVINE SONGS

SONG VII.

The Excellency of the Bible.

I.

Great God, with Wonder, and with
On all thy Works I look;
But still thy Wisdom, Pow'r and Grace,
Shine brighter in thy Book.

II.

The Stars that in their Courses roll
Have much Instruction given:
But thy good Word informs my Soul
How I may climb to Heaven.

III.

The Fields provide me Food, and shew
The Goodness of the Lord;
But Fruits of Life and Glory grow
In thy most holy Word.

IV.

Here are my choicest Treasures hid,
Here my best Comfort lies:
Here my Desires are satisfy'd,
And hence my Hopes arise.
V.
Lord, make me understand thy Law,
Show what my Faults have been;
And from thy Gospel let me draw
Pardon for all my Sin.

VI.
Here I would learn how Christ has dy'd
To save my Soul from Hell:
Not all the Books on Earth beside Such Heav'nly Wonders tell.

VII.
Then let me love my Bible more,
And take a fresh Delight
By Day to read these Wonders o'er,
And meditate by Night.

SONG VIII.
Praise to God for learning to Read.

I.
THE Praises of my Tongue
I offer to the Lord,
That I was taught, and learnt so young
To read his holy Word.
II.
That I am brought to know
The Danger I was in,
By Nature and by Practice too
A wretched Slave to Sin.

III.
That I am led to see
I can do nothing well;
And whither shall a Sinner flee,
To save himself from Hell?

IV.
Dear Lord, this Book of thine
Informs me where to go
For Grace to pardon all my Sin,
And make me holy too.

V.
Here I can read and learn
How Christ the Son of God
Has undertook our great Concern,
Our Ransom cost his Blood.

VI.
And now he reigns above,
He sends his Spirit down
To shew the Wonders of his Love,
And make his Gospel known.
VII.

O may that Spirit teach,
And make my Heart receive
Those Truths which all thy Servants
And all thy Saints believe!
(preach)

VIII.

Then shall I praise the Lord
In a more cheerfulness Strain,
That I was taught to read his Word,
And have not learnt in vain.

SONG IX.

The All-seeing God.

I.

A Almighty God, thy piercing Eye
Strikes thro' the Shades of Night,
And our most secret Actions lie
All open to thy Sight.

II.

There's not a Sin that we commit,
Nor wicked Word we say,
But in thy dreadful Book 'tis writ
Against the Judgment-Day.
III.
And must the Crimes that I have done
Be read and publish'd there,
Be all expos'd before the Sun,
While Men and Angels hear?

IV.
Lord, at thy Foot ashamed I lie,
Upward I dare not look;
Pardon my Sins before I die,
And blot them from thy Book.

V.
Remember all the dying Pains
That my Redeemer felt,
And let his Blood wash out my Stains,
And answer for my Guilt.

VI.
O may I now for ever fear
To indulge a sinful Thought,
Since the Great God can see, and hear,
And writes down ev'ry Fault.
SONG X.

Solemn Thoughts of God and Death.

I.
There is a God that reigns above,
Lord of the Heavens, and Earth,
(and Seas:
I fear his Wrath, I ask his Love,
And with my Lips I sing his Praise.

II.
There is a Law which he has writ,
To teach us all what we must do:
My Soul, to his Commands submit,
For they are holy, just and true.

III.
There is a Gospel of rich Grace,
Whence Sinners all their Comforts draw;
Lord, I repent, and seek thy Face;
For I have often broke thy Law.

IV.
There is an Hour when I must die,
Nor do I know how soon 'twill come;
A thousand Children young as I
Are call'd by Death to hear their Doom.
V.
Let me improve the Hours I have
Before the Day of Grace is fled:
There's no Repentance in the Grave,
Nor Pardons offer'd to the Dead.

VI.
Just as a Tree cut down, that fell
To North, or Southward, there it lies;
So Man departs to Heaven or Hell,
Fix'd in the State wherein he dies.

SONG XI.
Heaven and Hell.

I.
Here is beyond the Sky
A Heaven of Joy and Love,
And holy Children when they die,
Go to that World above.

II.
There is a dreadful Hell,
And everlasting Pains,
There Sinners must with Devils dwell
In Darkness, Fire, and Chains.
III.
Can such a Wretch as I
Escape this cursed End?
And may I hope whene'er I die
I shall to Heav'n ascend?

IV.
Then will I read and pray
While I have Life and Breath;
Left I should be cut off to Day,
And sent t' Eternal Death.

SONG XII.
The Advantages of early Religion.

I. (Years
HAppy's the Child whose youngest Receive Instructions well;
Who hates the Sinners Path, and fears
The Road that leads to Hell.

II.
When we devote our Youth to God,
'Tis pleasing in his Eyes;
A Flower when offer'd in the Bud
Is no vain Sacrifice.
III.
'Tis easier Work if we begin
To fear the Lord betimes;
While Sinners that grow old in Sin
Are hardned in their Crimes.

IV.
'Twill save us from a thousand Snares
To mind Religion young:
Grace will preserve our following Years,
And make our Virtue strong.

V.
To Thee, Almighty God, to Thee,
Our Childhood we resign:
'Twill please us to look back and see
That our whole Lives were thine.

VI.
Let the sweet Work of Prayer and Praise,
Employ my youngest Breath;
Thus I'm prepar'd for longer Days,
Or fit for early Death.
SONG XIII.

The Danger of Delay.

I.

WHY should I say, 'Tis yet too soon
To seek for Heaven, or think of (Death?)
A Flower may fade before 'tis Noon,
And I this Day may lose my Breath.

II.

If this rebellious Heart of mine,
Despise the gracious Calls of Heav'n;
I may be hardened in my Sin,
And never have Repentance giv'n.

III.

What if the Lord grow wroth, and swear,
While I refuse to read and pray,
That he'll refuse to lend an Ear,
To all my Groans another Day?

IV.

What if his dreadful Anger burn,
While I refuse his offer'd Grace,
And all his Love to Fury turn,
And strike me dead upon the Place?
'Tis dangerous to provoke a God;
His Pow'r and Vengeance none can tell;
One Stroke of his Almighty Rod
Shall send young Sinners quick to Hell.

Then 'twill for ever be in vain
To cry for Pardon and for Grace,
To wish I had my Time again,
Or hope to see my Maker's Face.

Examples of early Piety.

What blest Examples do I find
Writ in the Word of Truth;
Of Children that began to mind
Religion in their Youth.

Jesus who reigns above the Sky,
And keeps the World in awe,
Was once a Child as young as I,
And kept his Father's Law.
III.
At Twelve Years old he talk'd with Men,
(The Jews all wond'ring stand)
Yet he obey'd his Mother then,
And came at her Command.

IV.
Children a sweet Hosanna sung,
And blest their Saviour's Name;
They gave him Honour with their Tongue,
While Scribes and Priests blaspheme.

V.
Samuel the Child was wean'd, and brought
To wait upon the Lord;
Young Timothy betimes was taught
To know his holy Word.

VI.
Then why should I so long delay
What others learn so soon?
I would not pass another Day
Without this Work begun.
SONG XV.

Against Lying.

I.

'Tis a lovely Thing for Youth
To walk betimes in Wisdom's Way:
To fear a Lye, to speak the Truth,
That we may trust to all they say.

II.

But Lyers we can never trust, (Tho' they should speak the Thing that's truethat's)
And he that does one Fault at first,
And lies to hide it, makes it two.

III.

Have we not known, nor heard, nor read,
How God abhors Deceit and Wrong?
How Ananias was struck dead,
Catch'd with a Lye upon his Tongue?

IV.

So did his Wife Saphira die
When she came in and grew so bold,
As to confirm that wicked Lye
That just before her Husband told.
for CHILDREN.

V.
The Lord delights in them that speak
The Words of Truth; but ev'ry Lyer
Must have his Portion in the Lake
That burns with Brimstone and with Fire.

VI.
Then let me always watch my Lips,
Left I be struck to Death and Hell,
Since God a Book of Reckoning keeps
For ev'ry Lye that Children tell.

SONG XVI.

'Against Quarrelling and Fighting.'

I.
Let Dogs delight to bark and bite,
For God has made them so;
Let Bears and Lions growl and fight,
For 'tis their Nature too.

II.
But Children, you should never let
Such angry Passions rise;
Your little Hands were never made
To tear each others Eyes.
Let Love thro’ all your Actions run,
   And all your Words be mild,
Live like the blessed Virgin’s Son,
   That sweet and lovely Child.

His Soul was gentle as a Lamb;
   And as his Stature grew,
He grew in Favour both with Man,
   And God his Father too.

Now Lord of all he reigns above,
   And from his heav’nly Throne,
He sees what Children dwell in Love,
   And marks them for his own.

SONG XVII.

Love between Brothers and Sisters.

Whatever Brawls disturb the Street,
   There should be Peace at home;
Where Sisters dwell, and Brothers meet,
   Quarrels shou’d never come.
II.
Birds in their little Nefts agree;
And 'tis a shameful Sight,
When Children of one Family
Fall out, and chide, and fight.

III.
Hard Names at first and threatening Words,
That are but noisy Breath,
May grow to Clubs and naked Swords,
To Murder and to Death.

IV.
The Devil tempts one Mother's Son
To rage against another:
So wicked Cain was hurry'd on Till he had kill'd his Brother.

V.
The Wife will make their Anger cool,
At least before 'tis Night;
But in the Bosom of a Fool
It burns till Morning Light.

VI.
Pardon, O Lord, our childish Rage;
Our little Brawls remove;
That as we grow to riper Age,
Our Hearts may all be Love.
DIVINE SONGS

SONG XVIII.

Against Scoffing and calling Names.

I.

Our Tongues were made to bless
And not speak ill of Men:
When others give a railing Word,
We must not rail again.

II.

Cross Words and angry Names require
To be chastis’d at School;
And he’s in Danger of Hell-fire,
That calls his Brother Fool.

III.

But Lips that dare be so prophane,
To mock, and jeer, and scoff
At Holy Things, or Holy Men,
The Lord shall cut them off.

IV.

When Children in their wanton Play
Serv’d old Elisha so,
And bid the Prophet go his Way,
“Go up thou Bald-head, go.”
for CHILDREN.

V.

God quickly stopped their wicked Breath,
And sent two raging Bears,
That tore them Limb from Limb to Death,
With Blood, and Groans, and Tears.

VI.

Great God, how terrible art thou,
To Sinners ne'er so young!
Grant me thy Grace, and teach me how
To tame and rule my Tongue.

SONG XIX.

Against Swearing and Cursing, and Taking God's Name in vain.

I.

Angels that high in Glory dwell
Adore thy Name, Almighty God!
And Devils tremble down in Hell
Beneath the Terrors of thy Rod.

II.

And yet how wicked Children dare
Abuse thy dreadful glorious Name!
And when they're angry, how they swear,
And curse their Fellows, and blaspheme!
III.
How will they stand before thy Face,
Who treated thee with such Disdain,
While thou shalt doom them to the Place
Of everlasting Fire and Pain?

IV.
Then never shall one cooling Drop
To quench their burning Tongues be (giv'n,
But I will praise thee here, and hope
Thus to employ my Tongue in Heav'n.

V.
My Heart shall be in Pain to hear
Wretches affront the Lord above;
*Tis that great God whose Power I fear,
That heavenly Father whom I love.

VI.
If my Companions grow prophane,
I'll leave their Friendship when I hear
Young Sinners take thy Name in vain,
And learn to curse, and learn to swear.
SONG XX.

Against Idleness and Mischief.

I.

How doth the little busy Bee
Improve each shining Hour,
And gather Honey all the Day
From ev'ry op'ning Flow'r!

II.

How skilfully she builds her Cell!
How neat she spreads the Wax;
And labours hard to store it well
With the sweet Food she makes.

III.

In Works of Labour or of Skill
I would be busy too:
For Satan finds some Mischief still
For idle Hands to do.

IV.

In Books, or Work, or healthful Play
Let my first Years be past,
That I may give for every Day
Some good Account at last.
SONG XXI.

Against evil Company.

I.
WHY should I join with those in play,
In whom I've no delight,
Who curse and swear, but never pray,
Who call ill names, and fight.

II.
I hate to hear a wanton song,
Their words offend my ears,
I should not dare defile my tongue
With language such as theirs.

III.
Away from fools I'll turn my eyes,
Nor with the scoffers go;
I would be walking with the wise,
That wiser I may grow.

IV.
From one rude boy that's us'd to mock,
Ten learn the wicked jest;
One sickly sheep infects the flock,
And poisons all the rest.
V.
My God, I hate to walk or dwell
With sinful Children here;
Then let me not be sent to Hell,
Where none but Sinners are.

SONG XXII.
Against Pride in Clothes.

I.
WHY should our Garments (made to Our Parents Shame) provoke our Pride?
The Art of Dress did ne'er begin,
Till Eve our Mother learnt to sin.

II.
When first she put her Cov'ring on,
Her Robe of Innocence was gone:
And yet her Children vainly boast
In the sad Marks of Glory lost.

III.
How proud we are! how fond to shew Our Clothes, and call them rich and new!
When the poor Sheep and Silk-worm wore That very Cloathing long before.
3.2 DIVINE SONGS

IV.
The Tulip and the Butterfly
Appeal in gayer Coats than I:
Let me be dressed fine as I will, (still:
Flies, Worms, and Flowers exceed me

V.
Then will I set my Heart to find
Inward Adornings of the Mind;
Knowledge and Virtue, Truth and Grace,
These are the Robes of richest Dress.

VI.
No more shall Worms with me compare;
This is the Rayment Angels wear:
The Son of God, when here below,
Put on this blest Apparel too.

VII.
It never fades, it ne'er grows old,
Nor fears the Rain, nor Moth, nor Mould;
It takes no Spot, but still refines;
The more 'tis worn, the more it shines.

VIII.
In this on Earth would I appear,
Then go to Heaven, and wear it there;
God will approve it in his Sight,
'Tis his own Work, and his Delight.
SONG XXIII.

Obedience to Parents.

I.

L E T Children that would fear the Hear what their Teachers say,
With Rev'rence meet their Parents Word,
And with Delight obey.

II.

Have we not heard what dreadful Plagues
Are threatened by the Lord,
To him that breaks his Father's Law,
Or mocks his Mother's Word?

III.

What heavy Guilt upon him lies!
How cursed is his Name!
The Ravens shall pick out his Eyes,
And Eagles eat the same.

IV.

But those that worship God, and give
Their Parents Honour due,
Here on this Earth they long shall live,
And live hereafter too.
SONG XXIV.
The Child’s Complaint.

I.
Why should I love my Sport so well?
   So constant at my Play?
And lose the Thoughts of Heaven and
   And then forget to pray? (Hell?

II.
What do I read my Bible for,
   But, Lord, to learn thy Will?
And shall I daily know thee more,
   And less obey thee still?

III.
How senseless is my Heart, and wild!
   How vain are all my Thoughts!
Pity the Weakness of a Child,
   And pardon all my Faults.

IV.
Make me thy heavenly Voice to hear,
   And let me love to pray,
Since God will lend a gracious Ear,
   To what a Child can say.
SONG XXV.
A Morning Song.

I.
My God, who mak'ft the Sun to know
His proper Hour to rise,
And to give Light to all below,
Dost send him round the Skies.

II.
When from the Chambers of the East
His Morning Race begins,
He never tires, nor stops to rest,
But round the World he shines.

III.
So like the Sun would I fulfill
The Business of the Day;
Begin my Work betimes, and still
March on my heavenly Way!

IV.
Give me, O Lord, thine early Grace,
Nor let my Soul complain,
That the young Morning of my Days
Has all been spent in vain.
SONG XXVI.

An Evening Song.

I.
AND now another Day is gone,
I'll sing my Maker's Praise;
My Comforts every Hour make known,
His Providence and Grace.

II.
But how my Childhood runs to waste!
My Sins, how great their Sum?
Lord, give me Pardon for the past,
And Strength for Days to come.

III.
I lay my Body down to sleep,
Let Angels guard my Head:
And thro' the Hours of Darkness keep Their Watch around my Bed.

IV.
With cheerful Heart I close my Eyes,
Since thou wilt not remove:
And in the Morning let me rise
Rejoycing in thy Love.
SONG XXVII.

For the Lord's Day Morning.

I.
This is the Day when Christ arose
So early from the Dead:
Why should I keep my Eye-lids clos'd,
And waste my Hours on Bed?

II.
This is the Day when Jesus broke
The Powers of Death and Hell:
And shall I still wear Satan's Yoke,
And love my Sins so well?

III.
To Day with Pleasure Christians meet
To pray, and hear the Word:
And I would go with cheerful Feet,
To learn thy Will, O Lord.

IV.
I'll leave my Sport to read and pray,
And so prepare for Heaven:
O may I love this blessed Day
The best of all the seven!
SONG XXVIII.

For the Lord's Day Evening.

I.

ORD, how delightful 'tis to see
A whole Assembly worship thee!
At once they sing, at once they pray,
They hear of Heaven, and learn the Way.

II.

I have been there, and still would go:
'Tis like a little Heaven below.
Not all my Pleasures and my Play
Shall tempt me to forget this Day.

III.

O write upon my Memory, Lord,
The Texts and Doctrines of thy Word;
That I may break thy Laws no more,
But love thee better than before.

IV.

With Thoughts of Christ and things divine
Fill up this foolish Heart of mine;
That hoping Pardon thro' his Blood,
I may lie down, and wake with God.

Exod. xx. (me:
1. Thou shalt have no more Gods but
2. Before no Idol bow thy Knee.
3. Take not the Name of God in vain.
4. Nor dare the Sabbath-Day profane.
5. Give both thy Parents Honour due.
6. Take heed that thou no Murder do.
7. Abstain from Words and Deeds unclean.
8. Nor steal, tho' thou art poor and mean.
9. Nor make a wilful Lye, nor love it.
10. What is thy Neighbour's, dare not cover.

The Sum of the Commandments out of the New Testament.

Matt. xxii. 37.
With all thy Soul love God above,
And as thy self thy Neighbour love.

Our Saviour's Golden Rule.

Matt. vii. 12.
Be you to others Kind and True,
As you'd have others be to you:
And neither do nor say to Men,
Whate'er you would not take again.
Duty to God and our Neighbour.

(Strength,

LOVE God with all your Soul and
With all your Heart and Mind,
And love your Neighbour as your self:
Be faithful, just and kind.
Deal with another as you'd have
Another deal with you.
What you're unwilling to receive,
Be sure you never do.

Out of my Book of Hymns, I have here added, The Hosanna, and Glory to the Father, &c. to be sung at the end of any of these Songs, according to the Direction of Parents or Governors.

The Hosanna; or Salvation ascribed to Christ.

Long Metre.

I.
Hosanna to King David's Son,
Who reigns on a superior Throne:
We bless the Prince of Heav'nly Birth,
Who brings Salvation down to Earth.
II.

Let every Nation, every Age,
In this delightful Work engage;
Old Men and Babes in Sion sing
The growing Glories of her King.

Common Metre.

I.

Hosanna to the Prince of Grace:
Sion behold thy King!
Proclaim the Son of David's Race,
And teach the Babes to sing.

II.

Hosanna to th' Eternal Word,
Who from the Father came:
Ascribe Salvation to the Lord,
With Blessings on his Name.

Short Metre.

I.

Hosanna to the Son
Of David, and of God,
Who brought the News of Pardon down,
And bought it with his Blood.

II.
II.

To Christ th' anointed King
Be endless Blessings giv'n,
Let the whole Earth his Glory sing,
Who made our Peace with Heav'n.

Glory to the Father, and the Son, &c.

Long Metre.

To God the Father, God the Son,
And God the Spirit, Three in One,
Be Honour, Praise, and Glory giv'n
By all on Earth, and all in Heav'n.

Common Metre.

Now let the Father and the Son
And Spirit be ador'd,
Where there are Works to make him
Or Saints to love the Lord. (known,

Short Metre.

Ive to the Father Praise,
Give Glory to the Son,
And to the Spirit of his Grace
Be equal Honour done.
A Slight SPECIMEN of MORAL SONGS,

Such as I wish some happy and condescending Genius would undertake for the Use of Children, and perform much better.

THE Sense and Subjects might be borrowed plentifully from the Proverbs of Solomon, from all the common Appearances of Nature, from all the Occurrences in the Civil Life, both in City and Country: (which would also afford Matter for other divine Songs.) Here the Language and Measures should be easy and flowing with Cheerfulness, and without the Solemnities of Religion, or the sacred Names of God and Holy Things; that Children might find Delight and Profit together.

This would be one effectual way to deliver them from the Temptation of Loving or Learning those Idle, Wanton ton or Profane Songs, which give so early an ill Taint to the Fancy and Memory, and become the Seeds of future Vices.
A Night Specimen

The Sluggard.

I.

This is the Voice of the Sluggard; I hear him complain,
You have wak'd me too soon, I must slumber again.
As the Door on its Hinges, so he on his Bed,
Turns his Sides, and his Shoulders, and his heavy Head.

II.

A little more Sleep, and a little more Slumber,
Thus he wastes half his Days, and his Hours without Number:
And when he gets up, he fits folding his Hands,
Or walks about sauntring, or trifling he stands.
III.
I past by his Garden, and saw the wild Bryar,
The Thorn and the Thistle grow broader and higher:
The Clothes that hang on him are turning to Rags;
And his Money still wastes, till he starves, or he begs.

IV.
I made him a Visit, still hoping to find
He had took better Care for improving his Mind:
He told me his Dreams, talk'd of Eating and Drinking;
But he scarce reads his Bible, and never loves Thinking.

V.
Said I then to my Heart, Here's a Lesson for me,
That Man's but the Picture of what I might be.
But Thanks to my Friends for their Care in my Breeding,
Who taught me betimes to love Working and Reading.
I.

A Bread in the Meadows to see the young Lambs,
Run sporting about by the Side of their Dams,
With Fleeces so clean and so white;
Or a Nest of young Doves in a large open Cage,
When they play all in Love without Anger or Rage,
How much we may learn from the Sight!

II.

If we had been Ducks, we might dabble in Mud:
Or Dogs, we might play till it ended in Blood;
So foul or so fierce are their Natures.
But Thomas and William, and such pretty Names,
Should be cleanly and harmless as Doves, or as Lambs,
Those lovely sweet innocent Creatures.
Of Moral Songs

III.
Not a thing that we do, not a word that we say,
Should injure another in jesting or play:
For he's still in earnest that's hurt.
How rude are the boys that throw pebbles and mire!
There's none but a madman will fling about fire,
And tell you, 'Tis all but in sport.

Some copies of the following hymn having got abroad already into several hands, the author has been persuaded at last to permit it to appear in public, at the end of these divine songs for children.

A Cradle Hymn.

I.
Hush! my dear, lie still and slumber;
Holy angels guard thy bed!
Heavenly blessings without number
Gently falling on thy head.
II.
Sleep my Babe; thy Food and Rayment,
House and Home thy Friends provide;
All without thy Care or Payment,
All thy Wants are well supply'd.

III.
How much better thou'rt attended
Than the Son of God could be,
When from Heaven he descended,
And became a Child like thee.

IV.
Soft and easy is thy Cradle;
Coarse and hard thy Saviour lay,
When his Birth-Place was a Stable,
And his softest Bed was Hay.

V.
Blessed Babe! what glorious Features
Spotless fair, divinely bright!
Must he dwell with brutal Creatures?
How could Angels bear the Sight?

VI.
Was there nothing but a Manger
Cursed Sinners could afford,
To receive the heavenly Stranger?
Did they thus affront their Lord?
A Cradle Hymn.

VII.
Soft, my Child; I did not chide thee,
Tho' my Song might found too hard:
'Tis thy Mother sits beside thee,
And her Arm shall be thy Guard.

VIII.
Yet to read the shameful Story
How the Jews abus'd their King,
How they serv'd the Lord of Glory,
Makes me angry while I sing.

IX.
See the kinder Shepherds round him,
Telling Wonders from the Skie;
There they fought him, there they found
With his Virgin-Mother by.

X.
See the lovely Babe a dressing;
Lovely Infant how he smil'd!
When he wept, the Mother's Blessing
Sooth'd and hush'd the holy Child.

XI.

* Here you may use the Words, Brother, Sister, Neighbour, Friend, &c.
XI.
Lo, he Numbers in his Manger,
Where the horned Oxen fed;
Peace, my Darling, here's no Danger,
Here's no Ox anear thy Bed.

XII.
'Twas to save thee, Child, from dying,
Save my Dear from burning Flame,
Bitter Groans, and endless Crying,
That thy blest Redeemer came.

XIII.
May'ft thou live to know and fear him,
Trust and love him all thy Days!
Then go dwell for ever near him,
See his Face, and sing his Praise!

XIV.
I could give thee thousand Kisses,
Hoping what I most desire;
Not a Mother's fondest Wishes,
Can to greater Joys aspire.

The End.
