WWI Scavenger Hunt

Woodrow Wilson Presidential Library and Museum

Look for these items around the museum in all of the exhibits, and then interact with the questions on your sheet.

Woodrow Wilson Bust – sculpture of the 28th U.S President who received a Nobel Peace Prize for his work in ending the First World War. Wilson was also an honorary chairman of the Red Cross during World War I, urging citizens to help meet the needs of the Allied Forces.

Propaganda Posters – Designed by artists, these posters were used to garner up the war effort on the home front from everything to joining the army, rationing and working in war-related industries.

- Design a small propaganda poster to get people to help the war effort:

![Poster Space]

Campaign Buttons – Candidates running for the presidential races gave out campaign buttons for their supporters to proudly.

- Can you think of a good campaign slogan for Woodrow Wilson?

__________________________________________________________________________________________

Puttees – Made out of wool for water proofing, these were wrapped around the soldier’s calves over their boots while in the trenches to keep their boots, socks and feet dryer in the muddy conditions.

Map of France – in all officer’s quarters, maps of France were necessary to understand where the fronts were, as well as what direction the allies and enemies were moving.

- What lines do you see on the map? How do they help battles?

__________________________________________________________________________________________