92 pounds of wool was collected in May of 1918 to donate to the American Red Cross (Image Courtesy of Library of Congress)
New Lambs born in May of 1919 standing on the White House Lawn to be bottle fed (Image Courtesy of National Archives and Records Administration)
Sheep grazing on the white House Lawn in 1919 (Image courtesy of the Library of Congress)
Sheep grazing on the White House Lawn, unknown year (Image Courtesy of National Archives and Records Administration)
Sheep with Shepard near East Lawn of White House (Image courtesy of Library of Congress)
Sheep grazing on East Lawn of the White House (Image courtesy of the Smithsonian Institution)