WE LOVE ARABS

"Masterpiece. I have never before seen a dance work so full of life, provocative, political and hilarious."

-The Jerusalem Post

"Hillel Kogan is multi-talented. [...] His weapons : humor, precision and subtlety." - Le Figaro

"Hilarious parody of didactic art."

-The New York Times

"It is, in short, hilarious."

- Time Out Melbourne

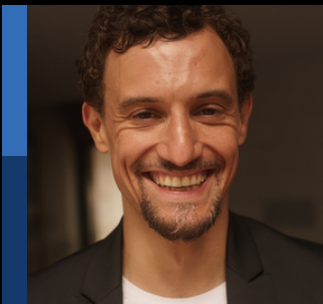

WE LOVE ARABS

HILLEL KOGAN

Hillel Kogan is an award-winning choreographer, dancer, dramaturge and teacher, whose work has been performed in venues and festivals all over the world.

In this Los Angeles Premiere and at the crossroads of theatre and dance, 'We Love Arabs' offers us a demonstration, sometimes hilarious, sometimes provocative, of the ever-present power dynamics on stage, in the wings and beyond.

MOURAD BOUAYAD

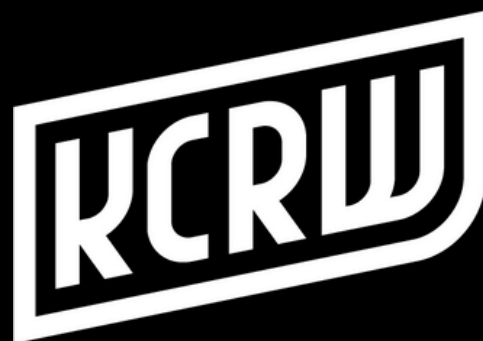

Mourad was born in Paris in 1990. He trained in hip-hop with Dominique Lisette and Dominique Lesdema and in contemporary dance with Martine Harmel and Larrio Ekson. In 2015 he graduated from CNDC of Angers, France, under the direction of Robert Swinston.

Since 2015 he has worked independently in Israel with choreographers such as Hillel Kogan, Ido Feder and Eyal Dadon. He graduated with a biology degree from Paris V Descartes in 2012. He danced with Batsheva – the Young Ensemble in 2017-2018. Since 2018 Mourad is a Gaga certified instructor.
