THE WAYNE MESSENGER

Carol Steck, Editor

January news is due by Dec. 15th editorwcc@gmail.com.

It is Christmas.

“Glory to God in the highest heaven, and on earth peace to those on whom his favor rests.”

(Luke 2.14)

December for me has always had a different atmosphere. I have been trying for a long time to explain what is inside of me and it has been quite difficult. However, it is worth trying again. I feel that it is similar to coming inside a house where some delicious food is being baked, and you can smell it, and your emotions, memories, and feelings all come together and create an expectation to enjoy that food.

For me, December always brings back memories, feelings, and emotions and it all generates a desire for enjoyment and to tell everyone how grateful I am and how great is the Christmas season.

It could appear crazy to emphasize it but, Christmas is about Christ. We have many traditions that make Christmas colorful and festive, and it is all good. However, what is always present in my heart and memory is the central part of the Christmas Message. Glory to God and peace to us. Peace (shalom) in Jewish tradition could be: “Social well-being, universal flourishing, wholeness and delight.” As we can see Shalom is much more than peace as we usually understand it.

For this time, my prayers are asking God to make it a reality in our life and in our families, neighborhoods, and upon all people everywhere. Because those are “whom God’s favor rests.”

I would like to finish my words with this beautiful poetry from a traditional Christmas carol.

*Silent night, holy night, Son of God, love's pure light
Radiant beams from Thy holy face, With the dawn of redeeming grace
Jesus Lord, at Thy birth, Jesus Lord, at Thy birth.*

Merry Christmas and God bless you all!!

Pastors Marcos Juliao and Mauren

For those who receive paper copies of The Wayne Messenger, an envelope is included for our special Christmas offering. This offering will be split between the:

The Maine Community Foundation's Lewiston-Auburn Area Response Fund for Victims and Families, and the Pastor's Discretionary Fund.

If you receive your Messenger online and would like to contribute, please send your check to Wayne Community Church, PO Box 300, Wayne, Maine 04284, indicating "Christmas Offering" on the memo line.

Thanks and Blessings, Sue Spalding

December Update on The Gathering Place

During the past three years, many outdoor gatherings have been held under the Cary Library's white pop-up tents. Children, visitors, civic committees, and long-time library patrons have met under the tents and have appreciated visiting with one another, views of Androscoggin Lake, and the library gardens.

In memory of their daughter, Emily, Jim Perkins and Theresa Kerchner have offered to raise funds to build a permanent outdoor structure to replace the temporary tents. The outdoor gathering place would be constructed by a Maine contractor with wood and stone and would be designed to complement the historic character of the Cary Library.

We invite those who wish to donate to a fund supporting the construction and maintenance of The Gathering Place to send a check to the Cary Memorial Library, PO Box 127, Wayne, ME 04284, designating it for the The Gathering Place Fund.

Library Note: We appreciate the many generous donations made to The Gathering Place Fund. We anticipate an April construction date, and look forward to sharing news as more plans unfold over the winter.
