3.1 Membership is acquired by adherence to the MGCY’s principles and policies, and subscribing to the main mailing list (uncsdyouthcaucus@googlegroups.com);
3.2 A member can resign by unsubscribing from the mailing list;
3.3 Active individual membership in the MGYC automatically ends when a member turns 30 years;
3.4 Active organisational membership can continue so long as there is a representative; and
3.5 Any member not fulfilling the obligations stipulated under Section 4.2. risks removal from the Major Group.

4.0 RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS OF MEMBERS

- Participate on an equal basis with other members in the realisation of the objectives of the MGCY;

5.0 DECISION-MAKING PROCESSES

The MGCY deliberates annually during the CSD meeting, preparatory meetings such as the Inter-governmental Preparatory Meeting (IPM) and Regional Implementation Meetings (RIMs), and via the mailing list specified under Section 3.1. The mailing list will be the main means of communication for all decision-making processes and involvement therein. Different decision-making processes will be followed for the different events, as stipulated below.

5.1 At the CSD:
- The Major Group meets daily if not decided otherwise;
- The meeting is called by the Organising Partners (OP);
- Any member of the Major Group can propose a point of the agenda at least 30 mins in advance of the session;
- The MGCY decides with consensus, using the principles as mentioned in Section 2;
- Any decision that is made through consensus should be implemented by the members of Major Group in a unified fashion, with all members committed fully to the decision that was made;
- In the rare situations/occasions where inclusive consultation does not result in consensus, the OP can make an executive decision to ensure crucial processes go forward; and
- Decisions can be made regarding activities and processes relative to the CSD itself, however more strategic decisions with far reaching consequences can be formulated at the CSD and shall be decided on-line (see 5.3.)

5.2 At Preparatory Process Meetings:
- Same as 6.1;
- If one or more OP members is not present, interim OPs are appointed for that session by the current OP members;
- OPs must be involved in decisions with consequences beyond the session; and
- OPs or Interim OPs must submit a write up of the meeting at the end of the session.

5.3 Through the email list:
- All decisions that need to be made throughout the year, and decisions with far-reaching consequences, will be sent to the MGCY through the mailing list (see 3.1.) by the OPs and Working Groups including both the decision, as well as the time frame;
- A draft proposal will be sent to the mailing list and open for comments for at least 2 weeks, if not otherwise decided. All Major Group members have the opportunity to raise major concerns that they have pertaining to the decisions, with the OP;
- A second proposal will be circulated taking into account the previously raised concerns, for at least one week. If none of the members having issued concerns disagree, the proposal is seen as adopted; and
- Shorter deadlines for a decision can be arranged based on the requirements of significant external time pressure.
