PURPOSE

CARE PACKAGES To offer currently incarcerated individuals essential toiletries and modest comfort items that are unavailable or difficult to acquire.

WELCOME HOME BACKPACKS To provide items that will help smooth the transition back into the community after incarceration.

We hope these gifts will help relieve some of the daily, material stresses and remind these men and women that we are thinking of them and supporting them.

HOW TO DONATE

Only new items accepted. Toiletry items must be in original supplier packaging/wrap.

For the Welcome Home Backpacks, list is not exhaustive.

All donations are to be delivered or mailed to:

Thrive For Life Prison Project, Inc
30 W 16th Street, New York, NY 10011.

Donations are also accepted in-person Monday to Friday between 9AM- 4PM at the front desk of Xavier High School.

For any questions, send us an email info@thriveforlife.org.

VISION
Thrive For Life Prison Project envisions a world where spiritual and educational services empower incarcerated individuals to thrive for life.

MISSION
Create opportunities for spiritual development and provide educational resources for incarcerated and formerly incarcerated individuals while partnering with local universities and employers.

AMBITION
By 2020, offer 1,000 incarcerated and formerly incarcerated individuals spiritual exercises; support 10 libraries in correctional facilities with educational and spiritual materials; found and support 2 houses of studies for 10-15 formerly incarcerated individuals who will receive supportive housing and scholarships to local universities for studies, and workforce experience and training with local employers.

Thrive For Life Prison Project's Founder & Executive Director, Zachariah Presutti, SJ, LMSW, is the primary coordinator for Ignacio House. Presutti graduated from Canisius College with a Bachelor of Arts in political science and philosophy, then entered the Jesuits in August 2012. At Saint Louis University, he earned a Master's degree in social work, with a focus on individuals in the criminal justice system. Presutti is a psychotherapist for formerly incarcerated women and men.
