first Pride events in Phnom Penh

sexual/behavioural studies began in response to global HIV epidemic first networking of MSM and TG people

first officially recognised LGBTIQ+ organisation

There are gays and lesbians in every country, so there should be no discrimination against them just because of their destiny... Most of them are good people and are not doing alcohol, drugs or racing vehicles.”

“I have my own problem – my adopted daughter has a wife,” he said. “Now I will ask the court to disown her from my family.” However, in the same statement he urged Cambodians not to follow his example: “I urge parents of gays not to discriminate against them, and do not call them transvestites.”

There are gays and lesbians in every country, so there should be no discrimination against them just because of their destiny... Most of them are good people and are not doing alcohol, drugs or racing vehicles.”

“I have my own problem – my adopted daughter has a wife,” he said. “Now I will ask the court to disown her from my family.” However, in the same statement he urged Cambodians not to follow his example: “I urge parents of gays not to discriminate against them, and do not call them transvestites.”

There are gays and lesbians in every country, so there should be no discrimination against them just because of their destiny... Most of them are good people and are not doing alcohol, drugs or racing vehicles.”

“I have my own problem – my adopted daughter has a wife,” he said. “Now I will ask the court to disown her from my family.” However, in the same statement he urged Cambodians not to follow his example: “I urge parents of gays not to discriminate against them, and do not call them transvestites.”