Parks and Greenways in the Mill Creek Watershed

- Paved hike and bike trail by Mill Creek and canal path from SR 747 to SR 4
- Foot paths and viewing spots along East Fork Mill Creek at Keehner Park
- Unpaved paths and vistas of Mill Creek at Morris Farm
- Mill Creek Greenway from Salway Park to Hille Playground
- Mill Creek Greenway from Caldwell Playground to Seymour Nature Preserve
- Paved hike and bike path along Mill Creek at Haffey Fields and Koenig Park
- Trails, footpaths and vistas of Mill Creek, East Fork Mill Creek and Beaver Run at Twin Creek Preserve
- Scenic bridge, trails and vistas by West Fork Mill Creek and tributaries at Glenwood Gardens
- Trails and vistas of Winton Lake, West Fork Mill Creek and tributaries at Winton Woods
- Many birds at Heritage Park & Mt. Healthy Wetlands Park
- Footpaths along Cooper Creek at Blue Ash Muni. Golf Course
- Historic “concrete rainbow” bridge between Reading and Lockland

This map shows where to see the Mill Creek, tributaries, lakes, ponds and notable structures. Mill Creek Restoration Project is organizing a greenway network. If you know of other water-related resources, contact Jen Eismeier or Bruce Koehler with the Mill Creek Watershed Council of Communities at jeismeier@millcreekwatershed.org.