Local newspapers and online media outlets are still important to members of communities across the country. Opinion pieces and letters to the editor are a great way to energize supporters and publicize your message. And hey, let’s be honest, politicians pay attention when they see their name in print. We know stuff like this can be intimidating. We are here to help. Just send us an email with Can You Hear Us Now in the subject line to kohlerj@nwf.org and let’s get your voice heard.
