

Seeking Community Liaison

The Multistate Environmental Response Trust (Multistate Trust) is looking for a part-time community liaison to help share information with and seek input from residents about the Kerr-McGee Chemical Corp – Columbus Superfund Site (the Site).

The community liaison's activities will include:

- Communicating with residents
- Sharing community member concerns with the Multistate Trust
- Canvassing door-to-door to share information and resources
- Assisting with outreach events and community meetings
- Identifying local businesses and vendors to support the Multistate Trust's local contracting goals
- Building relationships with residents and local leaders

Candidates must be from or live in Columbus, preferably close to the Site in the Memphis Town community.

The Multistate Trust will offer competitive hourly compensation for a six-month, part-time term.

If interested, please submit by Tuesday February 28, 2023, a short written or verbal statement of interest and resume to Claire Woods at cw@g-etg.com or (910) 765-7237.
