THE MEGAN MEIER FOUNDATION

In December of 2007, Tina Meier founded the Megan Meier Foundation, a 501 (c)(3) nonprofit, in memory of her 13-year old daughter, Megan Taylor Meier, who took her own life after being cyberbullied by an adult neighbor pretending to be a boy on MySpace. Tina is dedicated to preventing this kind of tragedy from happening to other children and families through the Foundation’s mission of supporting and inspiring actions to end bullying and cyberbullying.

YOU CAN MAKE A DIFFERENCE!

Each year, 13 million students are bullied or cyberbullied in the United States, and the consequences can be devastating. By supporting the Megan Meier Foundation, you help an estimated

- 75,000 elementary, middle, and high school students throughout the country each year, and
- 15,000 parents, educators, and other professionals, all of whom want to join our collective fight against bullying and cyberbullying.

Megan Meier Foundation seeks to develop mutually beneficial relationships with businesses and individuals that share a passion for our mission and will work together with us in promoting acceptance and peer-advocacy in today’s society.

Thank you in advance for your support. With your help, we can empower children to “BE MEGAN’S VOICE . . . BE THE CHANGE” and to help stop bullying, cyberbullying, and suicide. You can truly make a difference!

With Sincere Gratitude,

Founder & Executive Director
