

Robert W. Hauck
Museum Manager &
Member of Advisory Council
nizinc@gmail.com

Mr. Hauck, a New Jersey native, served in the U.S. Army from 1965 to 1967. Upon his discharge from military service he helped operate the family business, Hauck's Greenhouses, in Bloomfield, New Jersey, until 1988. In 1989 he, along with his brother, purchased the Sterling Hill mine property and worked for two years to renovate that property as a mining museum. In 1991 he became a cofounder of the Sterling Hill Mining Museum and has been employed by the museum since that time. Mr. Hauck graduated magna cum laude from the School of Hard Knocks, where he received many bruising and scarring experiences that he later used to the Museum's benefit.
