PALL MALL

An unforgettable day in an extraordinary venue

T: 020 3814 7592 | info@116pallmall.com | 116pallmall.com/weddings

116 Pall Mall is one of London's most majestic wedding venues

With a range of stunning spaces and exclusive hire of the building on weekends, 116 Pall Mall is the perfect venue for your wedding ceremony or civil partnership. Originally designed by John Nash, the architect behind Marble Arch and Brighton Pavilion, it dates from the early 1820s and is Grade I listed.

Located in the heart of St James's and built on the site of a former Royal palace, 116 Pall Mall offers a glamorous and breath-taking setting, moments from London's most iconic landmarks, such as Trafalgar Square, St James's Park and Buckingham Palace.

With original features throughout the building, you won't miss the glittering 15ft handmade Regency chandelier above the main staircase, which was a gift from George IV to commemorate the Battle of Waterloo. Our spectacular staircase has seen many couples marry on its steps, with loved ones looking on from the balcony above.

In recent years Downton Abbey has been filmed in the building, even James Bond author Ian Fleming was a regular diner at 116 Pall Mall.

We have multiple rooms across our venue, including the staircase, that are licenced to hold ceremonies. To book your date and time, please contact Westminster Registry Office via A Day To Remember.

Please note, there are separate charges for the registry office to marry you.
