La Casa de las Madres

Equal Employment Opportunity Policy

La Casa de las Madres is an equal opportunity employer and makes all employment decisions without unlawful regard for or consideration of any individual’s race, color, creed, religion, sex, gender (including gender identity, gender expression, pregnancy, childbirth or related medical conditions), marital or family care status, age, national origin, ancestry, citizenship status, physical or mental disability (including HIV and AIDS), medical condition (including cancer and genetic characteristics), sexual orientation (heterosexuality, homosexuality and bisexuality), physical appearance, military service or veteran status, height and weight, or any other basis protected by state law, federal law, or local ordinance. Discrimination and harassment based on a perception that an individual is in any of these protected categories, or is associated with a person who has or is perceived as being in any of these protected categories, also are prohibited.
