 - a. President
 - Would prefer in person conference to ensure better productivity
 - ii. Would prefer to do it in fall a date in late October or earlier November
 - iii. Could do in DC, potentially Colorado
 - iv. Encourages a meeting with conference committee in next few weeks to determine approximate date
 - b. Board members expressed general preference for Colorado
 - Administrator recommended Oklahoma as potential venue because OU planning an event roundtable at time problem is released

- Vice President noted that Colorado's MPRE are 11 -14 or 11-15 so worth keeping in mind - won't make it weekend before
- Annual:
 - a. No discussion on this point
- ii. Fundraising & Finance -
 - Nothing especially noticeable to report hoping to schedule formal meeting soon; happy to assist the Grants Committee, to help local chapters do fundraising
- iii. Grants Committee:
 - o Rep. Welsh
 - a. Planning meeting with board members to discuss plans on reaching out to firms for grants
 - b. President requested form we can give to chapters about how to get funding for their local chapters e.g., Notre Dame Law School where they should reach out to
 - c. Vice President has small list of potential sponsor ideas to get money for NNALSA, but could also have local chapters utilize
 - d. Doesn't need to be ultra-specific, but a more abstract how-to to provide some basic levels of guidance for local chapters
 - e. President indicated she'd be happy to sit in on next Grants Committee meeting
 - f. Goal of being a helpful resource for local chapters
- iv. Moot Court (Presented by Administrator):
 - o Met with last year's Administrator and spoke extensively with him
 - Then had meeting with NNALSA moot court committee
 - o 2023 is 200th anniversary of Johnson v. M'Intosh
 - The Moot Court Courtroom in OU has two paintings
 - a. One of John Marshall
 - b. And the other of Sequoia
 - c. An interesting juxtaposition to say the least
 - o 50th anniversary of OU's American Indian Law Review
 - Hoping to include members of the leaders of the following Oklahoma-based tribes: Seminole, Choctaw, Cherokee, Chickasaw, and Choctaw
 - Timeline given to problem authors two of the faculty at OU who will be drafting the problem
 - a. The professors know their dates, when should have ready for peer review; when peer review needs to be done
 - b. Official release will be November 4th
 - c. Will livestream roundtable event on that date as well
 - Working on logo and website design for 2023 competition to outsource it to a class at UCO
 - a. Excited for the logo going to get the costs done for free
 - b. Flyer to send out to announce official dates
 - c. Need to amend rules to change when certain dates fall on for deadlines
 - Coordinations with administration Run by OU Board of Advocates

- Getting compliance with fundraising expectations
- Working on planning rooms setup
- United front as OU Law against mistreatment of Natives historically and recently by the State of Oklahoma
- Already secured one final round judge
 - a. One a prominent litigator working on Mt. Rushmore fireworks litigation
 - b. Other is potential right now but is long-established in Indian law field
 - c. Need five at minimum for final round
- Administrator would like to sit in on fundraising committee to get better ideas on how to proceed on that front

v. Bylaws:

- Overhaul of by-laws some of the relic bylaws that are out of date;
- Want to update specific matters to better reflect our functionings
- No meetings yet but each member reviewing the bylaws and ready to get revisions in coming months
- b. Any update PR Director may wish to share regarding the proposed Student Spotlight and the "Swag" design ideas
 - i. Member spotlight
 - Form on website to nominate spotlight candidates, opening up door to help encourage recognition of students

- c. President's discussion on the Indigenous Fellowship
 - Someone reached out to her from organization in Oregon about nonprofit environmental law work; they want to create an indigenous fellowship for Native students specifically
 - ii. President will send outline to board members for them to consider

7. New Business

- a. A discussion on Oklahoma v. Castro-Huerta and any thoughts we have on that case; whether we wish to issue any statements or anything
 - Secretary offered his thoughts on the decision and his criticism of Supreme Court decisions that viewed tribal courts as inherently inferior/incompetent and having created, in part, the criminal jurisdiction problems in Indian Country today
 - ii. Vice President said would schedule advocacy meeting to focus on this moving forward
 - iii. Treasurer:
 - discussed history of violence implicit in SCOTUS cases, among other areas of law, and the antagonism against the existence of tribal sovereignty - especially by states
 - We as tribal people are unique and different and there shouldn't be judgment on how we run our societies

- Trying to provide indigenous perspective on tribal law from an actual indiegnous perspective; being Native 101 involves having to learn these complex schemes that are parts of this culture of contumaciousness against
- iv. Eldred provided link regarding NARF"s event in relation to the Castro-Huerta decision
 - o Could benefit from roundtable discussion on effects of decision
- v. Administrator
 - To advocacy point: it doesn't stop here; we're going to have to advocate in response to Brackeen - possibly Court reform
- b. Updates from Area Representatives (with the exception of Area 6) on any updates they may have on communications with their chapters
 - i. Presentations from each Area Representative on what correspondence they've had with the chapters in their respective areas
 - No new updates, but Rep. SparrowSmith contacted by school interested in new NNALSA chapter, put it into discussion point d.
- c. Indigenous Fellowship: President discussed earlier
- d. Process for starting a new NALSA chapter
 - i. Obviously this varies from school to school on how to start such a chapter
 - Secretary offered logistical frustration with re-registering KU NALSA last year
 - Perhaps creating a rough template/sample bylaws applicable for local NALSA chapters?
 - iii. President we could take that under by-laws and be able to provide them to local chapters or prospective new chapters
 - President will work to circulate rough sample local chapter by laws to by-laws committee before next meeting
 - Pro forma approval by NNALSA Board to admit new chapters
 - iv. Rep. Russell Duke Law wants to start new membership but Duke requires 15 members signing charter in order to start new group
 - Could they join a nearby law school and have a dual organization that meets NNALSA's expectations?
 - Could update by-laws to allow for two schools to form joint groups? Keeping in mind that one does not need to have a local chapter in order to be a member of NNALSA/compete in competitions
 - v. Rep. SparrowSmith SACNAS
 - Group for advancing Chicano/Latino interests they have guidelines on draft local by-laws, ideas for membership recruitment
 - vi. Administrator discussed Ashley Williams who started a chapter at NYU want impetus on this year's NNALSA Board to increase assistance that we provide to new prospective chapters
 - vii. DISCUSSION POINT for Next By-laws meeting: providing sample bylaws for local chapters and adjusting the membership fee for chapters
- e. Funding sources we can recommend to local chapters
