

H.R. 397 Passes the House of Representatives

On Wednesday evening, the U.S. House of Representatives voted to approve H.R. 397, the Rehabilitation for Multiemployer Pensions Act, more commonly referred to as The Butch Lewis Act. The House of Representatives approved the bill in a 264-to-169 vote with 29 Republicans voting in support of the legislation. To read a copy of the bill, or to see if your Representatives supported the legislation, more information is available here.

In addition, U.S. Senator Sherrod Brown (D-OH) and 26 Democrat co-sponsors, including Minority Leader Charles E. Schumer (D-NY), reintroduced the Butch Lewis Act (S. 2254) in the Senate on July 24. A copy of the press release from Sen. Sherrod Brown with more information on the Senate bill is available here.

Updated Economic Impact Reports

The Voices for Pension Security website now has updated Economic Impact Reports that contain powerful information to support our collective efforts to protect your pension benefits. We encourage Local Unions and participants to use the information found in these economic impact reports when reaching out to their legislators and other stakeholders. There are a few different ways you can view Central States' economic impact on the website – downloadable reports, an online database, and interactive maps. Data for the economic impact reports is current as of January 1, 2019.

$13.1 Billion in Assets as of June 30, 2019

Net assets in the Central

States Pension Fund were $13.1 Billion as of June 30, 2019.

Annually, the Pension Fund pays out over $2.1 billion ($5.5 million each day) more in benefits than the contributions it receives.

At this rate, the Pension Fund will not be able to pay full pension benefits in 2025 (65 months from now).

A legislated solution is the only answer to fix this pension crisis. Your voice is critical. We urge you to act now to protect your pension benefits.

Stay Informed

As always, your voice and your help are vital for success. We encourage you to check our website regularly at VoicesForPensionSecurity.com for updates and actions you can take to make your voice heard. In addition, our website makes it easy for participants to reach out to their legislators to share their personal story of how hard they worked to earn your pension. Participants should be sure to emphasize how important this issue is to them and their family.
