

Congress and the White House are trying to come to a deal by 1:00 p.m. Eastern TODAY on an economic stimulus bill to respond to COVID-19. A solution to protect struggling multiemployer pensions funds – including Central States Pension Fund – is still part of the negotiations. But, at this time, it could go either way.

Please contact Republican Senators—in particular Majority Leader McConnell -- and the White House now! Again, Congress currently plans to vote on a bill as early as 1:00 p.m. Eastern today. Let your elected leaders know they must protect your hard-earned Central States pension in this bill!

Call the U.S. Capitol at 202-224-3121 and follow the prompts to be connected with the offices of your Members of Congress. Call the White House at 202-456-1111.

CLICK HERE to go straight to a tool on our website to easily email your Members of Congress. Go to www.whitehouse.gov/contact to send an email to the White House.

CLICK HERE for full instructions on how to contact your Members of Congress and The White House, as well as some suggested things to say.

Thank you for taking action now!

More information and the latest updates are available at www.voicesforpensionsecurity.com