Important: White House Sets Deadline of Friday, August 7, 2020 for a Deal ... Your Voice is Needed Today

In various news appearances yesterday, President Trump's chief-of-staff Mark Meadows set a deadline of tomorrow, August 7, 2020 to reach a deal with Speaker Pelosi and Minority Leader Schumer. Time is of the essence. We need everyone to email the White House and Treasury Secretary Steven Mnuchin today and let them know pension relief for essential workers and retirees is needed in this economic stimulus package. Emails must be sent today to keep pressure on the White House.

Your voice is important, and an email today could help secure your pension benefit.

1. Click on the Link and Email the White House:

WhiteHouse.gov/contact

Tell President Trump that multiemployer pension relief is the most important issue that will decide how you vote in the 2020 election.

2. Click on the Link and Email Secretary Mnuchin:

Steven.Mnuchin@treasury.gov

Email Secretary Mnuchin and explain that relief has been provided to other industries like banks, the airline industry, and other large businesses, and it's now time to provide pension relief for the essential workers and retirees covered by multiemployer pension funds.

3. Call Your Senator — AGAIN: (833) 738-0064

Insist that Congress provide economic relief to multiemployer pension funds and save the pensions of essential employees and retirees covered by these plans.

What to Say When You Call

- Tell them your story: where you worked and for how long, where you live, how you survive on your pension.
- Tell them that the next Coronavirus bill must include relief for multiemployer pensions for essential workers covered by these plans.
- If you served your country ... thank you. Remind Congress you served.
- Remind them that their decision on this issue will affect how you vote.
- Don't give up if you get a busy signal or voicemail. Keep Trying ... Congress Will Listen!
