dates: 1963-1975, size: 0.6 linear feet
This collection primarily contains materials related to the Council on Religion and the Homosexual (CRH). Jan Marinissen (1928-2002) was the Rehabilitation Secretary of CRH and served on its board. An ordained minister associated with the American Friends Service Committee (AFSC), Marinissen was a longtime advocate of, and influence on, the inmates' rights and prison reform movements of the 1960s and 1970s. Materials from CRH date from approximately 1963 to 1970 and include organizational records; correspondence and memos; board and member meeting minutes; conference materials; financial records; mass mailings; publications; and writings and bibliographies on the church and homosexuality. Newsletters were transferred to the GLBTHS Periodical Collection. The collection includes materials from other homophile organizations, including the Daughters of Bilitis, the Mattachine Society, the National Legal Defense Fund, the Society for Individual Rights and the Tavern Guild of Southern California. Many of these concern CRH. The collection also includes a flyer for "Ten Days in August," an "unparalleled educational and social program planned by SF Homophile Organizations"; materials from AFSC; documents from Join Hands, a San Francisco-based collective that advocated for the rights of gay men in California's State prisons; and materials from the Eureka Valley Police Community Relations Coalition and Safe Streets Committee, including a newsletter, and flyers for a neighborhood symposium to improve attitudes between police, gays and straights. These date from 1972-1975. The materials in the collection are photocopies, not originals.

Milton Marks subject files (#2006-06)
dates: 1981 - 1990, size: 0.8 linear feet

This collection consists of subject files on LGBT organizations and issues from the office of former California State Senator Milton Marks. The collection includes a good deal of material on LGBT religious groups, racial and ethnic groups within the LGBT community, parenting, politics and discrimination. There are flyers, mass mailings, correspondence, newsletters and reports. Several documents include notes from Marks and/or his staff.

James Martin papers (#1999-37)
dates: 1998, size: 0.21 linear feet

The collection consists of James Martin's personal testimony videotape, 'In My Opinion... Southern Baptists' and two related letters. One is from Martin to his classmates from the Class of 1962, Tupelo High School 'and a few others,' explaining that he made the video because he was denied a chance to speak the truth about prejudice against gays and lesbians at his reunion. The other is from Reverend Jimmy Porter of the First Baptist Church in McComb, Mississippi, telling Martin he didn't view his videotape and cannot accept his views.

Metaphysical Alliance collection (#2018-30)
date: circa 1987, size: 0.01 linear feet

This collection contains materials from the Metaphysical Alliance, a group based in San Francisco that practiced spiritual healing for people with AIDS during the height of the crisis in the mid-1980s. This collection contains photographs of the group and its members during sessions and events, and a DVD of a forum held by the Metaphysical Alliance at the Unitarian Church in San Francisco on January 1987, titled “AIDS Survivors and Thrivers”. Long-term survivors Ron Carey, Bobby Reynolds, and Dan Turner are featured in the forum, including Mike Zonta, Director of the Metaphysical Alliance.

Metropolitan Community Church of San Francisco 20th Anniversary of AIDS service records (#2001-24)
dates: Circa 1986 - 2001, size: 1 linear feet
This collection contains materials from "A Community Says Thank You: A Service to Honor Health Care Workers for 20 Years of Caring for People With AIDS." The event, which commemorated the 20th anniversary of the AIDS epidemic, was held at MCC San Francisco on June 3, 2001. The collection includes ephemera related to the event, as well as memorials to people who died of AIDS before 1991. There are flyers, memorial programs, newsclopping, photographs, ribbons and t-shirts.

Rob Montague correspondence (#2003-34)

dates: Circa 1970 - 2002, size: 1.8 linear feet

This collection contains 30 years of correspondence from friends and family to gay activist Samuel Robinson 'Rob' Montague. Montague (b. 1946) lived in San Francisco from 1976-2003. He was active in LGBT Jewish circles, local and union politics.

Montague was a board member and president of congregations Sha'ar Zahov and Ahavat Shalom. He was involved in 'No on 6' efforts and the Human Rights Coalition and was office manager for Jimmy Carter's primary campaign in California. Montague worked for the United States Department of Health and Human Services for 20 years and was president of National Treasury Employees Union Chapter 212. He was on the bargaining team that negotiated the first union contract in the federal sector that barred discrimination on the basis of sexual orientation.

After leaving San Francisco, Montague divided his time between Rio de Janeiro, Brazil and Kansas City, Kansas. The bulk of the collection is personal correspondence. It also includes a short autobiography and Montague's annotated description of his correspondents, through April 1996.

Leland Moss papers (#1990-04)

dates: Circa 1952 - 1990, size: 4.6 linear feet

The Leland Moss papers document the personal and professional life of this well-known actor, writer and director. Prior to moving to the Bay Area, Moss directed and acted in Cambridge, Massachusetts and New York and was a resident director at La MaMa and Playwrights Horizons. In San Francisco, Moss worked with Theatre Rhinoceros, co-directing 'The AIDS Show' and its updated version, 'Unfinished Business,' with Doug Holsclaw. 'The AIDS Show' was the first play by any theater company in the nation to deal with the AIDS epidemic, and brought The Rhino national attention. The company also produced Moss' play, 'Quisbies,' which dealt with the effects of AIDS.

Moss died of AIDS in 1990. The collection includes 30 years of personal and professional correspondence, including copies of the letters Moss wrote to friends and colleagues informing them that he had tested positive for the AIDS virus, and nearly 30 years of personal journals and writings, including plays, poetry, prose, screenplays and journalism. Materials related to Moss' work with Theatre Rhinoceros include drafts, scripts, notes and research materials for 'The AIDS Show,' 'Unfinished Business,' 'Quisbies' and other plays. The collection also contains documentation of his lengthy career in the theater, including notes from his studies at Harvard University, plays he directed and roles he played, as well as flyers, playbills and photographs. There are also materials related to Moss' practice of Buddhism and personalia, including writings by his parents, Paul and Thelma Moss.

Mothertongue Feminist Theater Collective records (#1999-44)
dates: 1976 - 1999, size: 3.9 linear feet
Scripts, notes, lists, flyers, posters, photographs and administrative files documenting the first 25 years of this well known local feminist theatrical group. The Mothertongue Feminist Theater Collective collection is composed of scripts, 'Extra Pieces' (writing not included in scripts), newsletters, flyers, administrative files, photographs, and various audio-visual materials that reflect the activities of this women's theater group that began in 1976, and were still active when they donated the collection in 1999. Mothertongue Feminist Theater Collective performed to promote feminist education and addressed such topics as women's roles in society, lesbianism, motherhood, and religion.

Harold Newey papers (#1991-25)
dates: 1972 - 1991, size: 1.65 linear feet
Harold Dee 'Hal' Newey (1938-1991) moved to San Francisco in 1971. He was Acquisitions Librarian at the University of San Francisco's Gleason Library until he died, unexpectedly, in 1991. The collection contains correspondence, flyers for local clubs, events and political actions, personalia, including autobiographical materials, and subject files. Newey's papers reflect his interest in the position of the Mormon Church (and other religions) on homosexuality, as well as his interests in music, theater, local politics and San Francisco's gay male leather and SM scene.

John Osterkorn photograph portfolio (#2015-10)
dates: circa 1980s, size: 1.1 linear feet
This collection contains 39 black and white photographs of portraits, still-life and architecture, and abstracts, many of which portray religious symbols or imagery. Of these photographs, 33 are matted on boards. The collection was donated by Visual Aid, a group that formed in 1989 to serve artists affected by HIV/AIDS and that, over time, expanded its mission to help produce, present and preserve the work of professional, visual artists in need, those whose careers are challenged because of any life-threatening illness.
Bonita Ann Palmer papers (#2018-01)
dates: 1981-2012, size: 1.42 linear feet
Dr. Bonita Ann Palmer, M.D., M.Div., MFT, is a family physician and counselor. She is also a life-long Episcopalian, and has been active in gay and lesbian ministry since the 1980s. This collection includes newsletters, clippings, personnel records, correspondence, reports, ephemera, pamphlets, and pastoral letters from Episcopal churches, in particular the Parsonage in the Castro, which was the first GLBT ministry supported as an Episcopal Diocesan institution.

Collection of Personal Journals (#2013-19)
dates: 1982 - 1993, size: 0.8 linear feet
This is a collection of eight personal journals written by an unknown gay male author. The journals were discovered at a flea market and date from 1982-1993. They are handwritten and typed, numbered and bound, and the collection includes Book III and Books VI-XII. Subjects include coming out, drugs, sexuality, HIV, family, a partner named John, the Seth books, spiritual seeking and day to day events. They provide an intimate portrait of one gay man's life in San Francisco during these years.

Alfred E. Robinson correspondence (#2005-32)
dates: Circa 1988 - 1997, size: 0.4 linear feet
This is a collection of letters sent to Alfred Eugene Robinson, a gay poet who lived in San Francisco for 20 years. He died in 2005. The letters reflect on Robinson's work as a poet, his profound interest in spirituality, and his family and friendship circles. Very little is overly gay. The letters have not been sorted.

Will Roscoe papers and Gay American Indians records (#1987-04)
dates: 1970 - 2007, size: 5.5 linear feet
This collection contains papers from scholar and activist Will Roscoe and records from Gay American Indians (GAI), the first gay American Indian liberation organization, founded in July 1975. Roscoe was project coordinator of the GAI History Project and his research on the berdache, or two spirit-tradition has been widely published. He was also involved in efforts that led to the founding of Nomenus, a non-profit religious group that operates a retreat center for Radical Faeries and their friends in Oregon. The collection is divided into two Series: the Will Roscoe papers and the GAI records. Roscoe's papers span the years 1970 to 2007. They contain a berdache bibliography; photocopies of berdache source materials; some of Roscoe's writings, including his 1984 essay, "Making History: The Challenge of Gay Studies"; and correspondence, clippings and proposals related to the American Anthropological Association and the Society of Lesbian and Gay Anthropologists, and the creation of a task force on discrimination against lesbians and gay men in anthropology. There are also materials related to the Radical Faeries, including correspondence with Harry Hay and others, articles of incorporation and a mission statement from the Gay Vision Circle community land trust; Circle of Loving Companions newsletters; a "Blossom of Bone" chapbook; "Towards the New Frontiers of Fairy Vision" by Hay; and Faerie Directories. Documents related to Nomenus include organizational records; and records related to procedural controversies and concerning the organization's tax-exempt status. The collection includes zines, poetry chapbooks and pamphlets about radical politics collected by Roscoe. There are also materials related to Roscoe's work with San Francisco Queer Club & Circuit Party Outreach Project, a joint project of the San Francisco Bay Area DanceSafe chapter and the Sisters of Perpetual Indulgence, which promoted harm reduction at dance clubs and circuit parties. The Gay American Indians records span the years 1983 to 1991 and include correspondence; materials related to the GAI Bibliography; audiotapes and transcripts of interviews with GAI leaders from the GAI History Project; publicity materials; grant materials; business reports to the Board of Directors; t-shirts; and buttons.

Maggi Rubenstein papers (#2000-68)

dates: 1972 - 1997, size: 3.8 linear feet

The Maggi Rubenstein papers document the early professional work of this longtime bisexual activist and sexologist. Sometimes referred to as the 'Godmother of SexEd,' Rubenstein came out as bisexual in 1969 and co-founded numerous sex education institutions and bisexual organizations in San Francisco. These include Glide Memorial Church's National Sex Forum, the San Francisco Sex Information Hotline, the Institute for the Advanced Study of Human Sexuality, the San Francisco Bisexual Center, BiPOL, and the Bay Area Bi Network. In recognition of her work, the Department of Sexuality Studies at San Francisco State University gives a Dr. Maggi Rubenstein Leadership Award. The collection contains writings and research notes, including Rubenstein's MA and Ph.D. theses, and statistical data and questionnaires about bisexuality. There are also materials related to the Bay Area Bisexual Network, the Bi Center, BiPOL and other bisexual organizations and conferences, writings by other sexologists, course materials for classes on bisexuality and sexual anthropology, subject files on a wide range of topics relating to sexuality, particularly bisexuality, one folder of photographs, and buttons. The subject files contain a wide range of materials, including academic articles and studies, news clippings, flyers, brochures and eulogies. Rubenstein's original folder titles have been retained. There are some newsletters in the collection but researchers should also consult the Historical Society's Periodical Collection for newsletters from the bisexual and sexology organizations in Rubenstein's papers. For more information on Rubenstein, see http://www.foundsf.org/index.php?title=Godmother_of_SexEd:_Maggi_Rubenstein.

San Francisco LGBT Biography Ephemera Collection (#BIO EPH)

dates: 1959 - 2010, size: 5.5 linear feet

Consists of ephemera relating to prominent individuals considered members of or involved with the lesbian, gay, bisexual or transgender communities of San Francisco and the greater Bay Area, but not exclusively. The majority of material is self-promotional, though much of it also reflects, promotes or protests aspects of the social movements, lifestyles or philosophies of its time. The range of ephemera includes: fliers, leaflets, badges, identity cards, announcements, advertisements, direct mail, letters, drawings, memorials, programs, memorabilia and other various forms of commemorative material including publicity photographs and newspaper and magazine clippings. Individual ephemera files can contain a single item or more extensive amounts of material. The bulk of the material was produced by the individuals themselves or affiliated parties.

San Francisco LGBT General Subjects Ephemera Collection (#SUB EPH)

dates: 1960 - 2010, size: 16.5 linear feet

Consists of a wide range of ephemera related to LGBT communities in San Francisco and the Bay Area, representing a diverse collection of subjects, ranging from AIDS, bathhouses, city agencies and sex clubs, to collections of catalogs and directories. Much of the materials were produced by unaffiliated groups or individuals and ad hoc coalitions or committees for one-time events or ongoing public causes, including: Pride parades, theater productions, films, art exhibitions and shows, protests, election issues, and AIDS prevention and awareness. Business materials are represented, including: service oriented, networked or freelance businesses, travel agencies, publishers, therapists, instructors, and sex clubs and bathhouses. Includes materials from social clubs, sports teams, religious groups, and gay, lesbian or queer studies classes. Personal ephemera includes: funeral programs and memorials, wedding announcements, garage sales, birth and adoption announcements, and private party invitations. Also contains materials related to the governing bodies of the city of San Francisco. Types of ephemera include: catalogs, fliers, postcards, invitations, theatrical playbills, brochures, direct mail, booklets, guides, directories, business cards, magazine and newspaper clippings, matchbooks, calendars, coloring books and commemorative materials. Individual ephemera files can be varied, the contents ranging from professionally printed to handmade or handwritten materials.

San Francisco LGBT Groups Ephemera Collection (#GRP EPH)

dates: 1950 - 2010, size: 33 linear feet

Consists of ephemera pertaining to groups affiliated with San Francisco's LGBT community. The bulk of the material is from the late 1970s through the 1990s, with the homophile groups of the 1960s represented as well. Groups include: community service centers, governmental organizations, various social groups and clubs, musical groups, choirs and bands, theatrical companies and performance groups, dance troupes, literary groups and non-profit publishers, scholarly associations, universities, colleges, institutes and schools, student and youth groups, religious and spiritual centers, motorcycle clubs, sports teams, communes, cooperatives and collectives, political parties, business and neighborhood associations, legal aid centers, clinics and hospitals, leather groups. Most of the materials are related to the prominent national political and social events and movements of their time, primarily the Gay Liberation Movement, the Gay Rights Movement, and the AIDS crisis. Includes material from many significant Bay Area lesbian feminist, socialist, third world, disability rights, aging LGBT, queer, sex-positive, anti-assimilation, transgender, people of color and diversity movements. Types of ephemera represented include: announcements, fliers, postcards, invitations, theatrical playbills, brochures, direct mail, conference schedules, booklets, guides, directories, letterheads, business cards, meeting minutes, correspondence, and magazine and newspaper clippings. Individual ephemera files can contain a single item or more extensive amounts of material, ranging from printed to handwritten documents.

Photographs from Marie Ueda of gay events during the 1970s to 1990s. There are photos of Harvey Milk, Pride Parades, White Night Riots, Sisters of Perpetual Indulgence, AIDS, and other major events. Most of the photographs are from the late 1970s.

Cees Van Aalst papers (#2005-22)

dates: 1980 - 1999, size: 0.2 linear feet

Van Aalst was an active member of Metropolitan Community Church (MCC). As part of his work with MCC, Van Aalst helped produce the Pillars Dinner, an annual fundraising event begun in 1989. Van Aalst planned the menu and helped produce the evening. The bulk of the materials in the collection includes materials related to the Pillars Club dinner, including programs, menus, invitations, awards and funding requests. There is also documentation of the consecration of Bishop John Darcy Noble in 1980. Bishop was consecrated in the Church of the Beloved Disciple in 1980, a Manhattan church created to reach out to the gay and lesbian community. His life partner was the Most Reverend Robert Mary Clement, Archbishop of North America of the original American Catholic Church and the original Eucharistic Catholic Church, founder of The Church of the Beloved Disciple.

Lee Westbrook papers (#1989-02)

dates: Circa 1984 - 1991, size: 0.4 linear feet

Anonymous surveys, notes and unpublished manuscript materials from C. Leroy (Lee) Westbrook's uncompleted dissertation in Psychology, 'A Comparative Study of the Relationship of Childhood Christian Religious Training To Adjustment Problems of Gay and Straight Men.' Having been raised as the son of an American Baptist minister, Westbrook stated that he chose this topic because he was aware in his own life of issues raised and struggles caused by the juxtaposition of his gayness and the religious training he received as a youngster. The collection includes personal data forms and sexual orientation statements, religious training surveys, surveys about areas of special church influence or impact, and Tennessee Self-Concept Scales, Form C. There is also a CV, his statement explaining why the thesis was not completed and his obituary. Westbrook was born in 1942 and died of AIDS in 1991.
