Holdings Related to HIV and AIDS

This guide will help you locate archival material related to the history of HIV and AIDS. A large percentage of our collections pertain to AIDS, so this guide is a curated list rather than a complete one. Researchers are encouraged to also explore our larger catalog and to consult the Reference Archivist (reference@glbthistory.org). Our extensive ephemera collection may also be useful.

The guide breaks down the collections into several subtopics and contains a list of relevant periodicals and oral histories.

Some of our collections related to HIV/AIDS have been digitized. For the most current listing of digitized material visit: <https://www.glbthistory.org/online-collections>

Individual Activists' Materials

- Randy Burns papers (1999-43). Randy Burns co-founded Gay American Indians in 1975. This collection contains materials on AIDS as it affected American Indians and other people of color.
- Jorge Cortiñas papers (1998-42). Jorge Cortiñas is a playwright who was also a leader in the movement to end legal restrictions against immigrants with AIDS.
- Hannah Doress papers (2019-69). Hannah Doress was involved in ACT UP San Francisco, where she worked on issues related to women and AIDS. This small collection includes Doress' answers to an in-depth survey about women and ACT UP.
- Arawn Eibhlyn papers (1995-23). Arawn Eibhlyn is a journalist and political activist; his collection documents his work on the behalf of imprisoned people with HIV and AIDS.
- Tomas Fabregas papers (1996-44). Tomas Fabregas' collection represents his work on behalf of HIV-positive immigrants and travelers, asserting their right to free movement.
- Sean Sasser and Pedro Zamora collection (2014-04). Sasser and Zamora's collection chronicles their courtship and brief marriage, which were televised as part of Zamora's appearance as a cast member on The Real World: San Francisco (1994); he died shortly after the show ended.
- M.J. Talbot papers (1999-26). This collection contains papers from activist Michael James (M.J.) Talbot, one of the founders of the Gay Asian Pacific Alliance (GAPA) and its AIDS service organization, GAPA Community HIV Project (GPHC).

Activist Organizations' Records

- AIDS Emergency Fund records (2019-29). The AIDS Emergency Fund was established in 1982 to provide critical financial assistance to people with AIDS.
- AIDS Healing Alliance records (1991-06). The AIDS Healing Alliance was an organization that denied that HIV was the cause of AIDS. It promoted alternative therapies and offered workshops with long-term survivors.
- AIDS Legal Referral Panel records (2000-46). The AIDS Legal Referral Panel was founded in 1983 to help people with AIDS in the Bay Area access crucial legal resources in order to create wills, durable powers of attorney, and other legal paperwork necessary to make their final wishes clear.
- AIDS/ARC Vigil (1991-05). The AIDS/ARC Vigil was a continuous, 24-hour protest held at the Federal Building in San Francisco for several years in the 1980s.
- Asian/Pacific AIDS Coalition (1996-24). The Asian/Pacific AIDS Coalition was organized to provide services to Asians and Pacific Islanders affected by HIV.
- Campaign for Responsible AIDS Action records (1995-26). This organization was founded in Santa Cruz in 1988 to oppose California propositions 69 and 102, which would have allowed people with AIDS to be quarantined and required doctors to report suspected cases.
- Filipino Task Force on AIDS (2006-28). Established in 1988, the Filipino Task Force on AIDS (FTFA) was dedicated to ending the risk of HIV/AIDS in the Filipino community. FTFA offered a comprehensive range of HIV/AIDS-related services to gay, lesbian, and transgender Filipinos and Asian-Pacific Islanders.
- Marin County AIDS Advisory Commission records (2006-08). This collection documents the official response to the epidemic in Marin County.
- Men of All Colors Together San Francisco (2000-64). The bulk of this collection consists of materials from HIV/AIDS programs that served queer men of color, including the National Task Force on AIDS Prevention, Gay Men of Color AIDS Institute, Native American AIDS Project, and the Brothers Network. See also the related collection on the National Task Force on AIDS Prevention, 2000-59.

Materials Documenting Life With AIDS

- Kevin Brew journals (1993-17). Brew's diaries chronicle his disappointment in the gay community, his love of art and hippie culture, and his AIDS diagnosis.
- Jason Howard journals (1997-38). Howard's journals follow his emotional and romantic life as he moved through a close-knit gay circle whose members struggled to deal with daily loss.
- Craig Louis papers (1988-02). Louis' collection contains extensive documentation of his 21 months living with AIDS, with particular focus on his friends and family, who kept a log of their activities as caretakers and even published a newsletter called The

Craig Report. This collection is also remarkable for its preservation of bureaucratic documents, including Louis' will, living will, and power of attorney.

- Joel Redon papers (2005-30). This novelist's collection contains the manuscript of an unpublished essay collection, Loving Dangerously, which deals with the emotional effects of Redon's diagnosis.
- Louis Graydon Sullivan papers (1991-07). The final five years of Sullivan's lifelong diary describe his life with HIV, including its effect on his activism, his body, and his life as a gay trans man.
- Roberto Jesus Vargas papers (2008-45). Vargas was a community and AIDS activist in Sonoma County; his diaries chronicle his daily life, his travels, and the ways that his illness complicated and inflected his desire for love.

Medicine and Health Care

- Bay Area Physicians for Human Rights (1988-44). In the early days of the AIDS epidemic, Bay Area Physicians for Human Rights offered free information and HIV screening at an annual Health Fair, and it has continued to work with other Bay Area AIDS advocacy groups to influence AIDS policy.
- Joseph Dunyan papers (2019-82). Joseph Dunyan was a nurse who provided in-home end-of-life care for people with AIDS.
- G. Catejan Luna papers (2006-24). This collection contains materials related to the professional career of researcher C. Cajetan Luna. Much of the collection relates to Luna's work with homeless youth with HIV/AIDS in Brazil and the United States.
- Shanti Project records (2006-02). The Shanti Project provides volunteer care for people living with HIV/AIDS and other life-threatening or chronic illnesses.
- Hank Wilson papers (1996-02). Hank Wilson was a longtime activist for gay and AIDS causes. His papers contain daily logbooks for the Ambassador Hotel, which he ran as a shelter and medical facility for people with AIDS.

Policy and Law

- Bruce Decker papers (2008-23). Bruce B. Decker (1950-1995) was a Republican political consultant. His papers contain materials related to his AIDS advocacy, including his leadership in the No on 64 and No on 102 campaigns and his service on the California AIDS Advisory Committee.
- Stanley Hadden papers (1997-33). Stanley Hadden was a political operative who worked for California State Senator David Roberti. As one of the first people to respond to the AIDS crisis on the state level, he became known as the "unofficial AIDS czar" of California.

- Steve Morin papers (1992-04). The Steve Morin papers contain documentation relating to Steve Morin's position as legislative assistant to Congresswoman Nancy Pelosi from 1987-1992.

Journalism

- Linda Alband collection of Randy Shilts materials (2003-09). Randy Shilts was a prominent journalist and author of And the Band Played On: Politics, People, and the AIDS epidemic.
- Robert de Andreis papers (1995-13). Robert De Andreis was best known for his weekly San Francisco Sentinel column, "HIV Commentary."
- Mike Hippler papers (1990-12). Mike Hippler was a writer and columnist for the Bay Area Reporter; his collection contains both his professional work and his personal journals from 1971 to 1991.
- Sheldon Ramsdell papers (1996-28). Ramsdell was a photojournalist and activist who kept an extensively annotated scrapbook of clippings and obituaries.
- Sue Rochman papers (2005-14). Rochman is a freelance health journalist; this collection compiles her research on AIDS and the prison system.
- Beowulf Thorne papers (2003-10). Thorne was editor and founder of Diseased Pariah News, a satirical magazine about life with AIDS. Much of each issue of DPN was composed of Thorne's writing and art. Researchers seeking more information on Thorne's personal life may also want to explore the papers of Arion Stone (2003-02), which include a folder of artwork and anecdotes by and about Thorne.

AIDS and Art

- Boy with Arms Akimbo/Girl with Arms Akimbo records (1996-41). Boy with Arms Akimbo/Girl with Arms Akimbo was an anonymous art collective active from 1989 to 1993. Their guerilla art -- much of it in the form of posters -- reclaimed queer sexuality at a time of increasing stigmatization, and redirected the conversation towards the response of the state to the AIDS epidemic.
- Stephen M. Chapot papers (2018-52). Chapot (1951-1988) was a medical illustrator educated at the University of California, San Francisco. The collection includes "a Hundred Legends" - a portfolio of 127 artworks by people with AIDS published in 1989, correspondence, ephemera, and a sculpture by Chapot titled "Saint Kaposi."
- Leland Moss papers (1990-04). The Leland Moss papers document the personal and professional life of this well-known actor, writer and director. Moss worked with Theatre Rhinoceros, co-directing "The AIDS Show" and its updated version, "Unfinished Business," with Doug Holsclaw.

Ephemera

- San Francisco LGBT General Subjects Ephemera Collection (SUB EPH). Ephemera on general subjects, including many related to HIV/AIDS; consult finding aid for more details.
- San Francisco LGBT Groups Ephemera Collection (GRP EPH). Ephemera on local groups, including many related to HIV/AIDS; consult finding aid for more details.
