

Beethoven Duo

Press Kit

Known for their passionate performances and own genre-twisting arrangements, Alison and Elizabeth Beck are reimagining the violin/piano duo experience for today's audiences. While honing their skills at the Manhattan School of Music in New York City, the Beckthoven Duo saw how music styles often created more division than harmony among people; inspiring the sisters to use their own gifts to create music that would bridge these musical boundaries and engage people of all backgrounds.

Beckthoven Duo

“Alison and Elizabeth
really shine when
they play together...
[their] arrangements
are relentlessly inventive
and appealing”
—Dr. Tom Jennings:
Music Director,
Redeemer
Presbyterian Church,
New York City

Beethoven Duo

Composer and pianist, Alison Beck, is the first place winner of the “New Music for New York Composer Competition” sponsored by the Manhattan Chorale Ensemble. Alison’s works have been premiered by professional choirs and musicians throughout the United States, including at the DiMenna Center for the Arts in New York City. Her debut CD with her sister, December Carols, was released on the Bolo Classique label and was featured on radio stations throughout the U.S, Europe, and Australia.

BeckThoven Duo

Full Bio

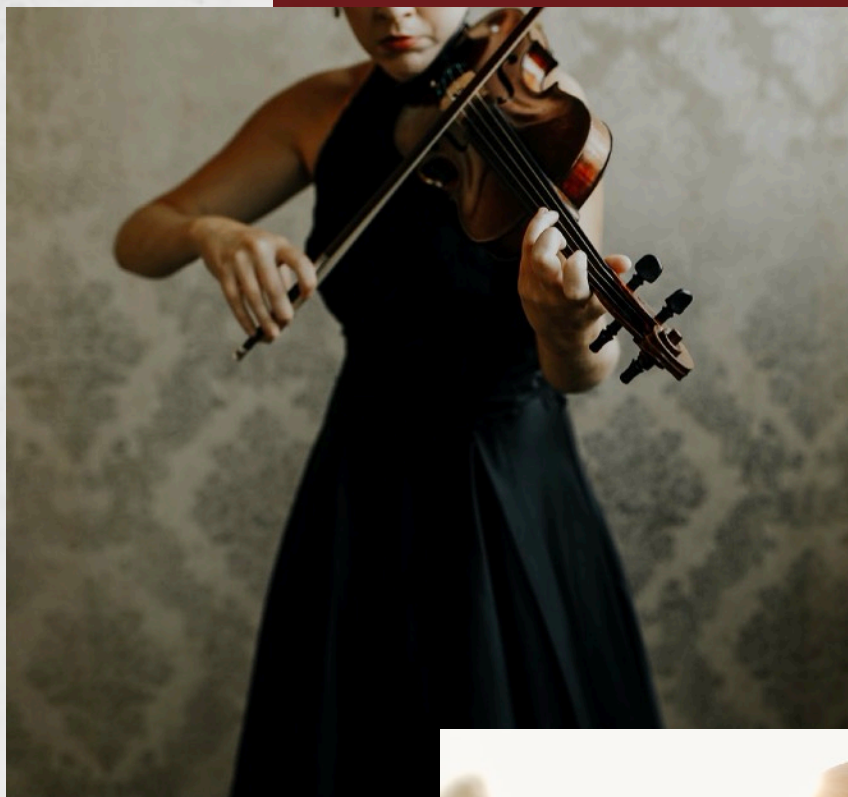

Headshot

Violinist Elizabeth Beck, a recent graduate of the Manhattan School of Music in New York City (B.M. '18, M.M. '20), is an active collaborative artist and chamber musician. She has performed on live radio broadcasts of “What Makes It Great” with Rob Kapilow at the Kaufman Center in New York and has played with the International Orchestra of New York and the MSM Symphony Orchestra in Carnegie Hall’s Perlman/Stern Auditorium to sold- out audiences. Recently chosen to participate in the highly acclaimed Chelsea Music Festival, led by conductor and Artistic Director Ken-David Masur, Elizabeth performed in a variety of traditional and contemporary music concerts that garnered praise from the New York Times.

Headshot

Full Bio

Equally at home on the traditional concert stage, within the Christian worship service, or on a computer live-stream, the Beckthoven Duo is committed to creating a captivating musical experience for all listeners.

“We see all music as a divinely inspired, God-created gift. We bring the same level of passion and energy to the music of Beethoven as to our arrangement of Amazing Grace.”

—Alison and Elizabeth

Contact

Beethoven Duo

beckthovenduo@gmail.com

www.beckthovenduo.com

