

Stockinbingal Buildings And Shops

Garages, Service Stations And Blacksmiths

Fred West's Blacksmiths shop, 1902.
Located on a block next to Ellwood's Hall. Fred West shoeing the horse, Constable Bill Noble standing beside.

R Moons Blacksmiths' Shop, after 1913.
Martin Street , built in 1913.

Hibernia Street, 1928.
T Leslie Stock and Station Agent, Hannafords
Butchery and Crabbs Bakery.

Paterson's Garage.
Hibernia street, year unknown.

Donaldson's Garage.
Year unknown.

Sheather & Corby's Garage.
Martin Street, year unknown.

Sheather & Corby's Garage.
Martin Street, year unknown.

Sheather & Corby's Garage
Martin Street, year unknown.

Looking east down Hibernia street.
Year unknown.

Early Hibernia Street, pre 1907.

Photo taken from railway yard. Rabbit crates staked in foreground for sending into Sydney. House to the left is still standing, next to weatherboard butchers store and Begley's Store.

The Shops And Merchants

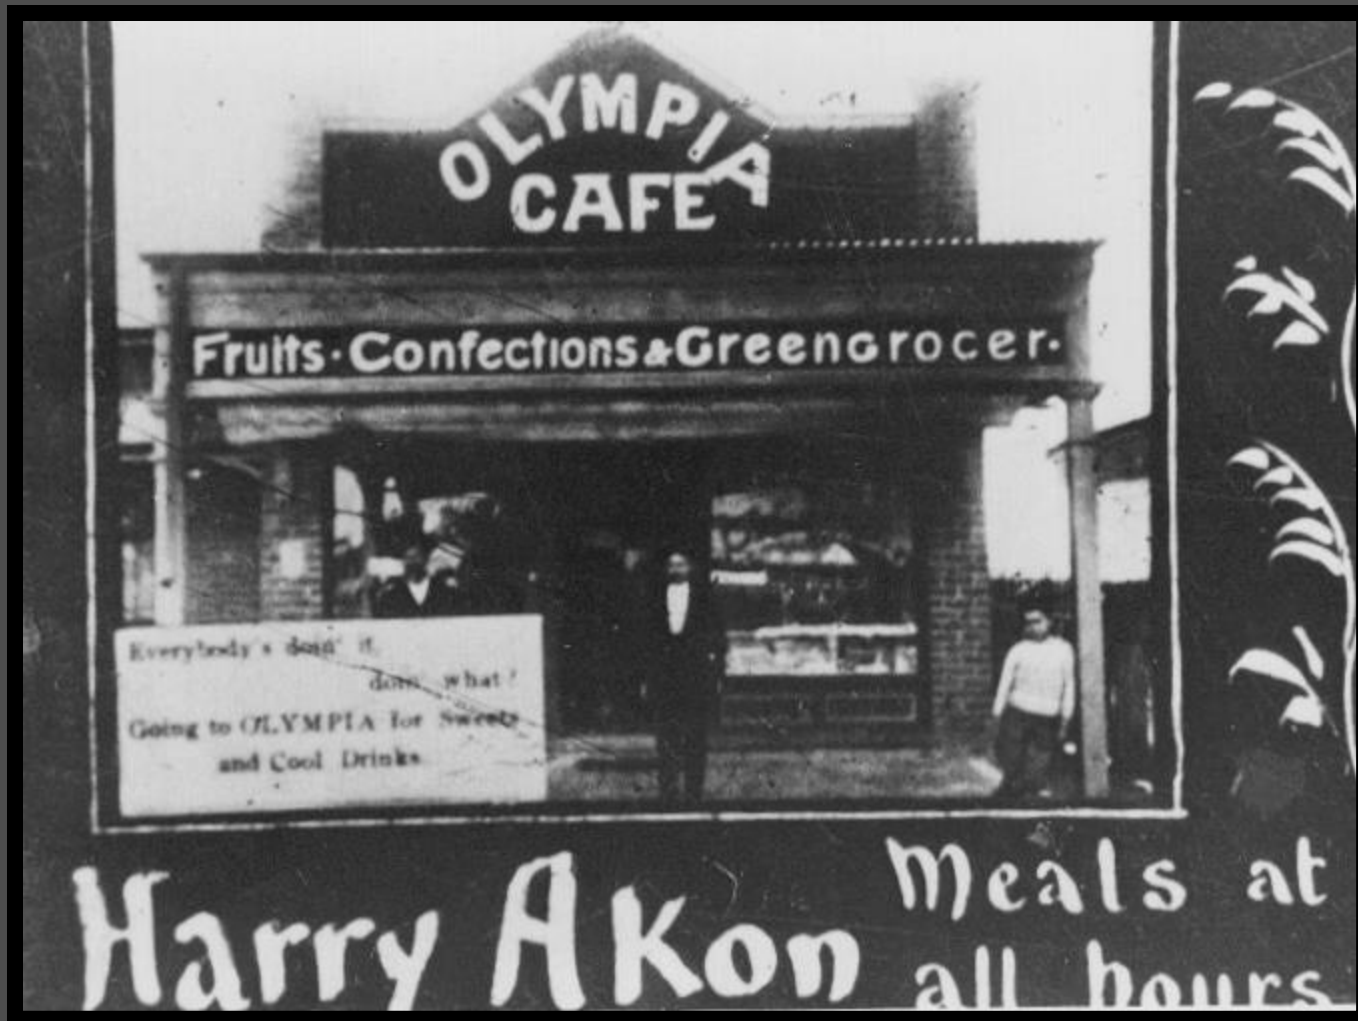

Neville's General Store, 1899.

Troy Street. Housed doctor, dentist, various banks and sold everything. Neville's relocated to the site of the current museum in Hibernia Street in 1911. House in the background still stands.

Olympia Café, early 1900's.

Built around 1900 by Harry Akon. Sold to E. Dukeis, Dave Jordan, in 1920 to Arthur Diamond, Spero Kepreotis, Ivan Manning, B. Jardine, O. Munday, T. Reid, J & G Lomax and in 2000 B & S Tassell.

Shops in Hibernia Street, 1950.

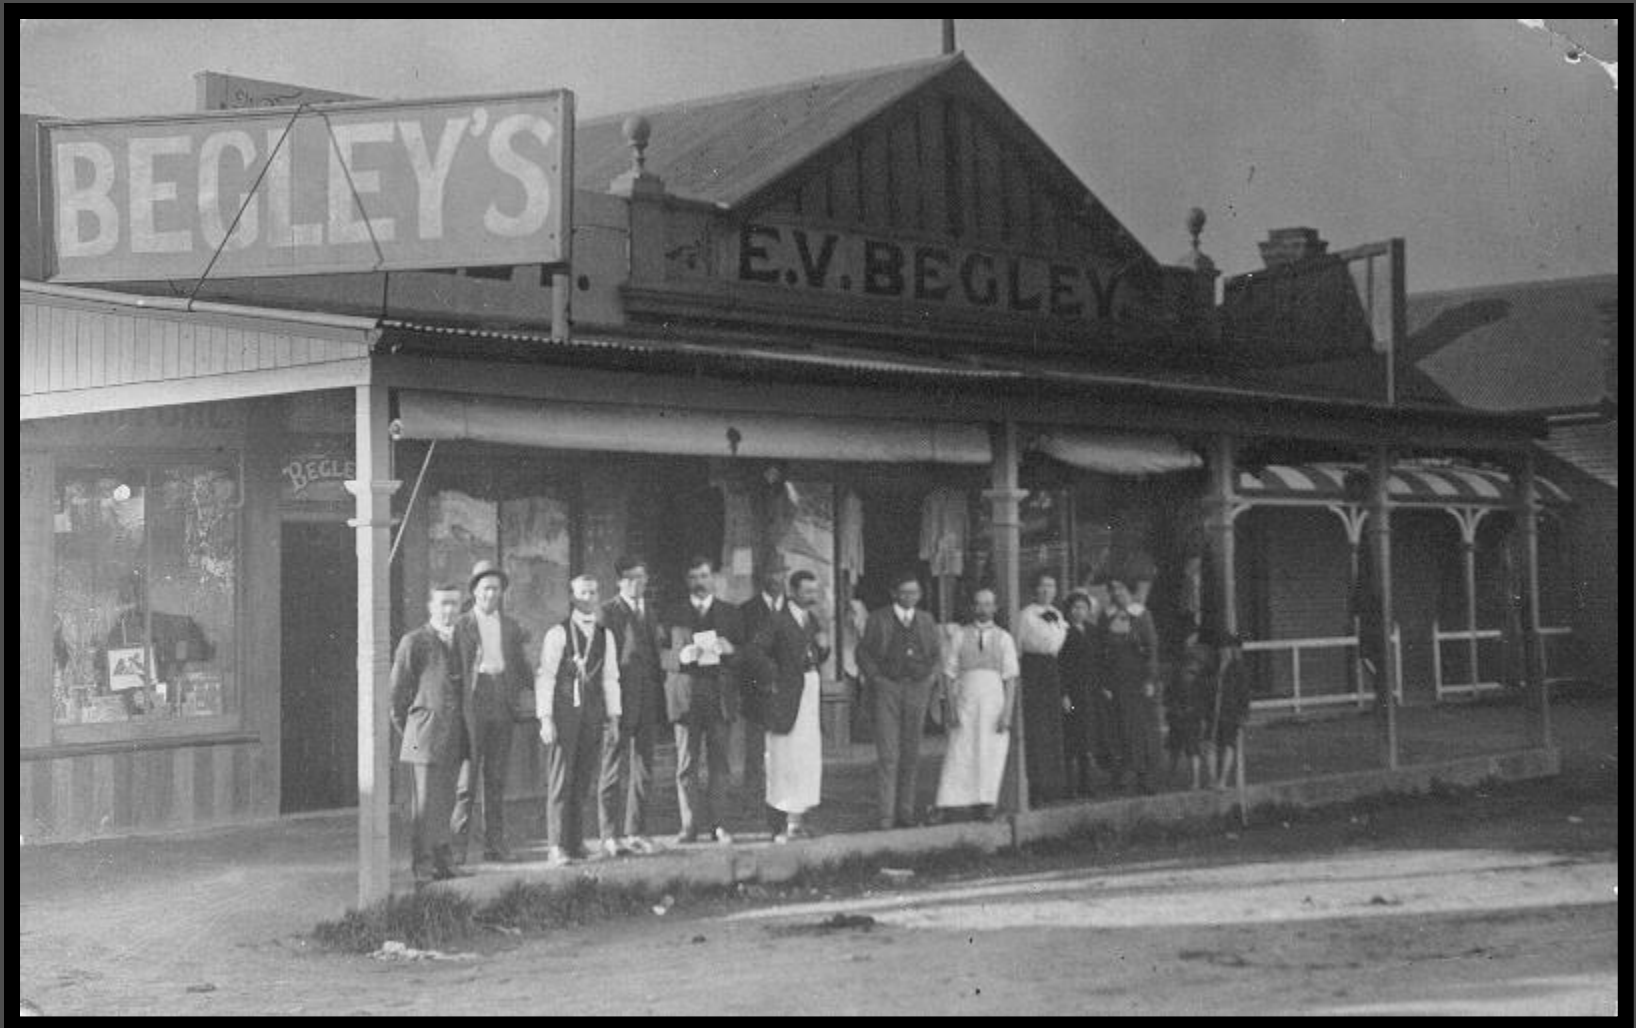

Bakers, Ellwood's Store, Café. Only photo with petrol pump and Shell sign out the front.

Begley's Store.

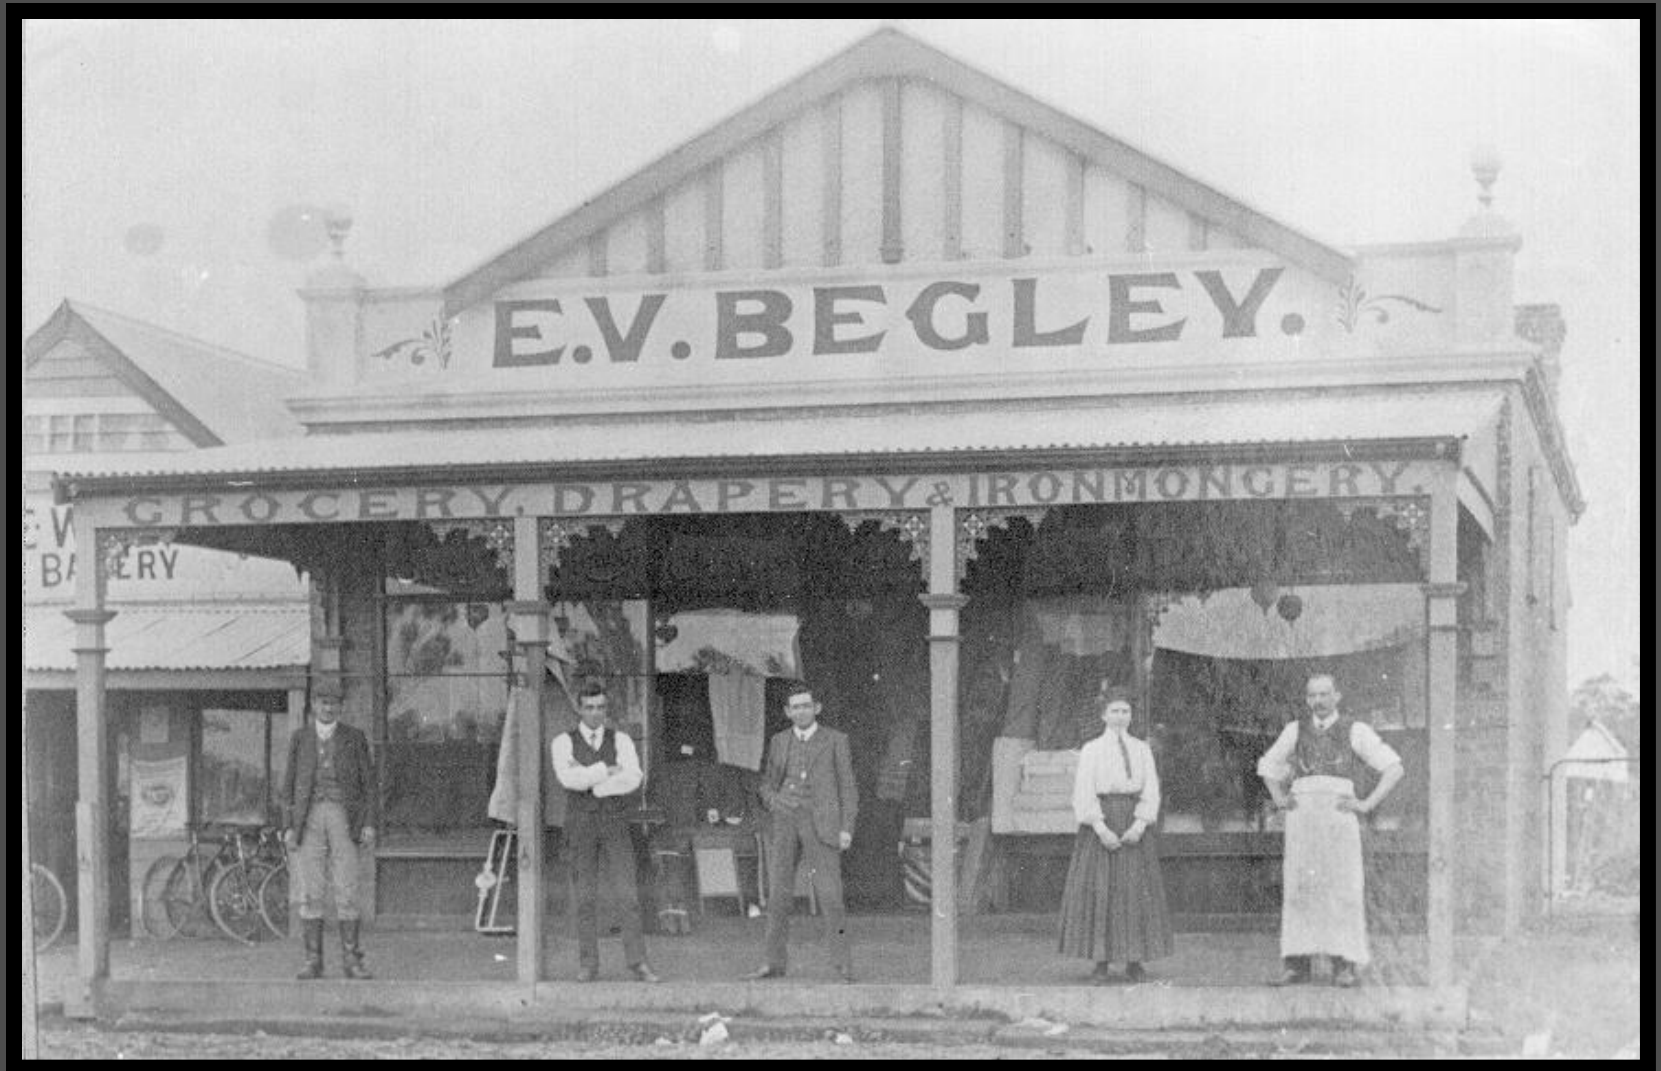

Photo taken between 1913 – 1917.

Begley's Store staff join the bakers staff for this photo.

Begley's Store, 1911.

The people are Wallis (baker), George Begley, J S O'Brien,
Miss Middlemiss, ? Begley.

I J Brovan Merchant.
Photo taken between 1918 – 1920.

J S O'Brien Newsagent, about 1920.

22 Martin Street, shop now demolished.

Syd West, Jim O'Brien, ?, Jerry Collins (Bank of NSW teller).

32 Hibernia Street.

This photo was taken before the bakery was built next door.

Old wooden bridge at the eastern end of Martin Street, 1972.
Demolished 1975.

Opening of the Soldiers
Memorial Hospital
1927

The official group at the opening.

Front L-R: Jim Callen, Fred Smith, Ben Witenden, Mrs Davidson, Fred Pan, Marsden Poole.

Back L-R: Herb Loiterton, Hugh Main, Ted Leslie, Tom Ellwood, J Jeremais, Canon Sheiris, Dick Hanaford, S V Kelly.

The opening dedication.

Soldiers Memorial Hospital, 1927.

Soldiers Memorial Hospital, 1928.

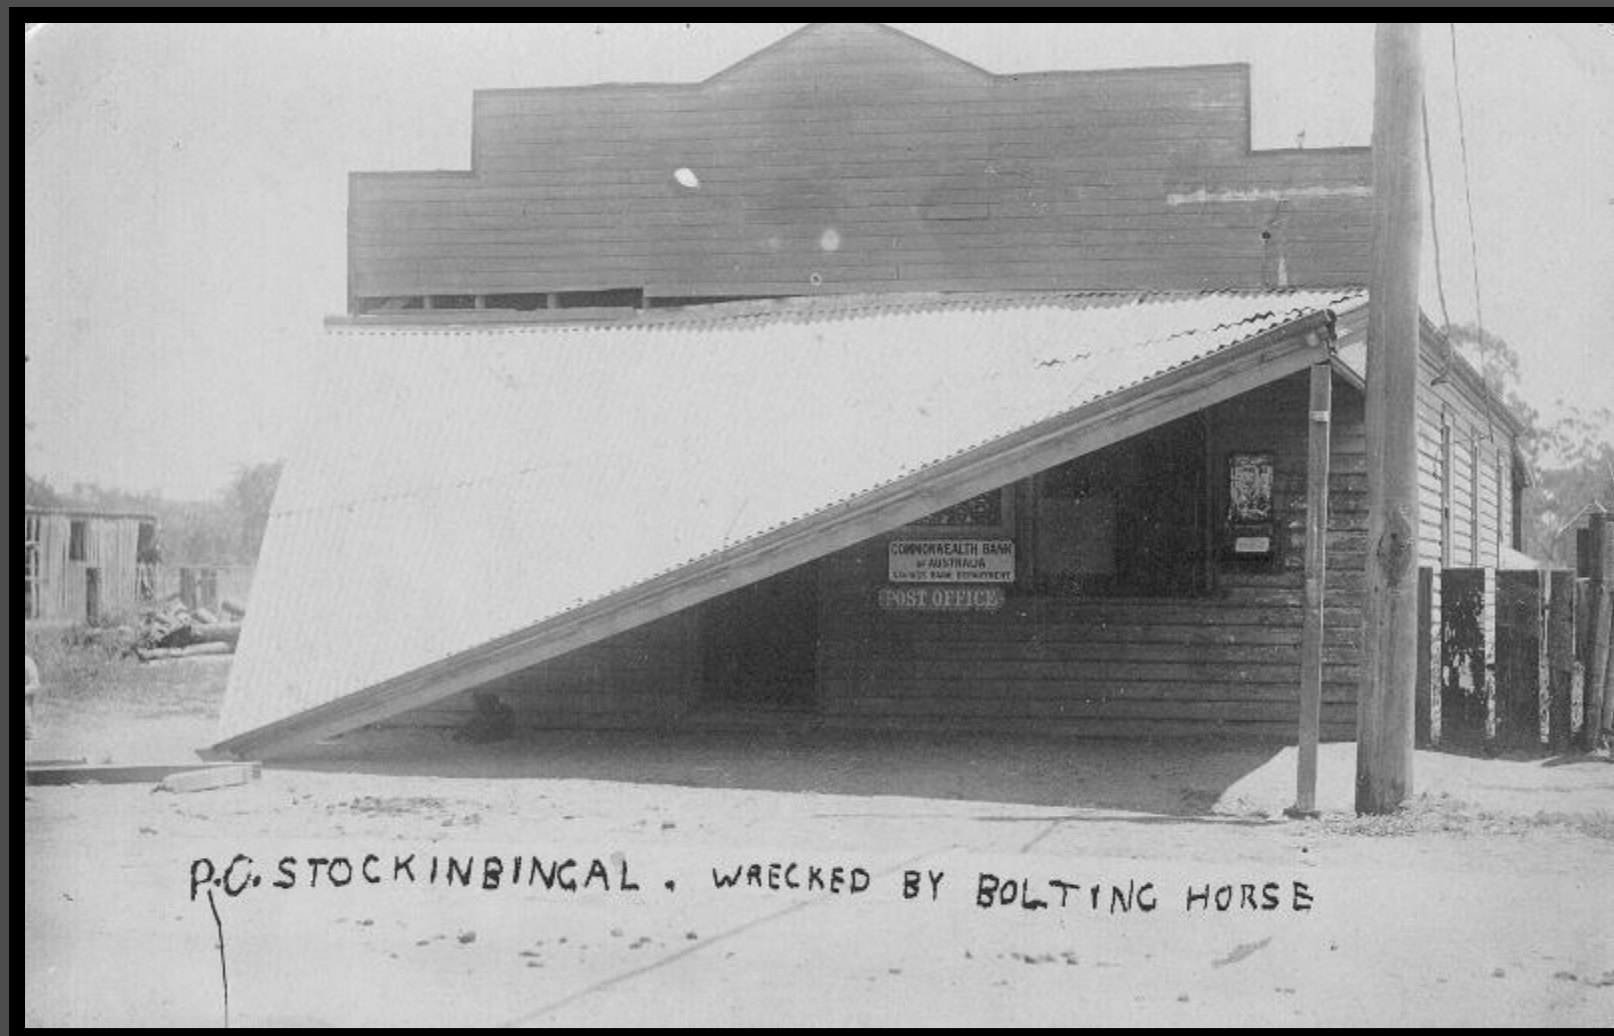

The Post Office and Telegraph over the years

First letter box in Stockinbingal
Situated on Railway Station – Mrs Tracey was both Station
Master and Post Mistress.

Early Post Office, up to 1924.

Located in Martin Street (now Ray Ryan's). The damage was done by a bolting Horse

The current Post Office, 1928.

The Post Office.
Built 1924. Note the horse hitching rail.

Post Office Staff, 1944.

Lance Dawson, Post Master; Bruce Lloyd, Telegram Boy;
Telephonists, Joyce McClintock, Nell Bradley,
Margaret McLachlan, Norma Martin and Mavis Woodman.

Post Office Staff, 1944.

Lance Dawson, Post Master; Bruce Lloyd, Telegram Boy;
Telephonists, Joyce McClintock, Nell Bradley,
Margaret McLachlan, Norma Martin and Mavis Woodman.

Post Office, 1980.
Dudauman Street.

Opening of the Powderhorn Museum, 29 Nov 1975.

Opened by Mr Jack Neville son of Mr John Neville;
Mr John Rees, Shire President; Mrs Neville.

Opening of the Powderhorn Museum, 29 Nov 1975.
Mr Jack Neville cutting the gold ribbon,
Mr John Rees watching on.

Stock and Station Agents

Fred West's Agency and Machinery Store, 1914.
21 Martin Street. EM West in doorway, John Loiterton,
Syd West in car, SV Kelly (Manager of Bank of NSW), Jimmy Major.

West's Home & Business, 1924.
Fred West, Fred Smith (builder), Mrs Smith in car.

West's Home & Business, 1925.
Martin Street.

Rear of West's home, Martin Street.
Date and people unknown.

Banks

Bank of NSW, pre 1907.
Hibernia Street.

Bank of NSW, date unknown.
Built in Martin Street after 1915.

Commercial Banking Company.

Date unknown.

22 Martin Street, shop on right now demolished.

First Bank of NSW.
Now residence for the newsagents.

