

A STEP BY STEP GUIDE
BY HANNAH OBREMSKEY

What to Expect on Your Engagement Photoshoot

Hello & Welcome

Congratulations on your engagement! This is such an exciting time in your life, and capturing these special moments through an engagement photoshoot is a wonderful way to commemorate your journey together.

This guide is designed to help you prepare for your photoshoot, ensuring that the experience is enjoyable, stress-free, and results in beautiful images that you'll cherish for years to come.

Hannah Obrensky

Contents

ESSENTIALS FOR THE DAY	03
PLANNING YOUR OUTFITS	04
HAIR AND MAKEUP TIPS	05
DAY OF SHOOT CHECKLIST	06
WHAT TO EXPECT UPON ARRIVAL	07
POSING TIPS AND COMFORT	08

Essentials for the Day

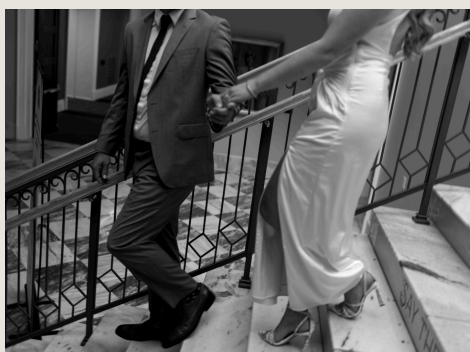

One of the most important steps in preparing for your engagement photoshoot is chatting closely with your photographer- me! By choosing me as your photographer, I hope my timeless, elegant and chic style resonates with you and your partner. Browse all of my portfolios, read reviews, and have a consultation beforehand to ensure that you feel comfortable and excited for your shoot.

Remember, the right photographer will not only capture stunning images but also make you feel at ease throughout the session.

Planning Your Outfits

Your outfits play a significant role in the overall look and feel of your engagement photos. Coordinate with your partner to choose outfits that complement each other. Consider the location and theme of your shoot when selecting your attire. My engagement photos include two outfits so that you can dress up, down or both. Remember, comfort is key – you'll want to feel confident and relaxed in what you're wearing.

Hair and Makeup Tips

Professional hair and makeup can make a big difference in how you feel and look during your photoshoot. Consider booking a session with a makeup artist who can create a natural yet polished look that enhances your features. If you prefer doing your own makeup, go for a look that's slightly more amplified than your everyday style to ensure it shows up well on camera. For hair, choose a style that suits the location and weather conditions.

Day of Shoot Checklist

As your shoot day approaches, it's helpful to have a checklist to ensure everything goes smoothly. Double-check your outfits, pack any props or accessories, such as champagne, glasses, a blanket, makeup, etc. You will have my personal cell phone to get in contact with me to ensure you know the route to your location.

I recommend bringing along some snacks and water, especially if your shoot is outdoors! Most importantly, arrive with a positive attitude and be ready to have fun and feel fabulous!

What to Expect Upon Arrival

The location of your photoshoot sets the backdrop for your love story. Whether you choose a place that holds sentimental value or a picturesque setting, make sure it reflects your personalities. Discuss potential locations with your photographer; they can offer suggestions and help you decide on the perfect spot. Urban settings, nature parks, or even your own home can all make for stunning engagement photo locations.

Posing Tips and Comfort

Posing for photos can feel a bit awkward at first, but with me as your photographer, I will guide you through it. My hope is for you two to feel like you are on a date and your focus is on each other rather than the camera. I want you to move naturally. Simple gestures like holding hands, laughing, or whispering to each other can create genuine, candid moments. The more relaxed and connected you are, the more authentic your photos will be.

CONCLUSION

After the Photoshoot

Once your engagement photoshoot is complete, the anticipation of seeing your photos begins! I will email your sneak peek photos within one week of your shoot and your full gallery will be delivered in two weeks! Take this time to think about how you want to use your photos—whether it's for save-the-date cards, a wedding website, or simply to display in your home. Your engagement photos will be a beautiful reminder of this special chapter in your life, so I hope you enjoy every moment!

LET'S WORK TOGETHER
AND CREATE SOMETHING BEAUTIFUL

Ready To Book Your Engagement Photoshoot?

PHOTOGRAPHY.HANNAHKERR@GMAIL.COM

