Sadis & Goldberg Named “Banking & Investment Law Firm of the Year - USA” in the 2019 DealMakers Country Awards

(New York, NY, March 14, 2019) The 2019 DealMakers Country Awards recognize a very small number of leading professional firms from across the globe for their individual areas of specialization. The ultimate aim is to assist the world’s leading corporate businesses with the complex task of finding the correct professional firm to assist them in transactional matters throughout the complex ‘deal’ process. Helping the corporate team select the correct partner to assist them on matters of vital importance in areas associated with the geographical location and the sector that a business may operate within. Regulatory, compliance, property, environmental, fund formation, technology and employment law, amongst others, all ranking high on the agenda. Recognizing the experience and skills that many of the developed nations have, it is important to be recognized as a leader in your field of expertise. This year, over 23,500 votes were received, demonstrating a 26.4% response rate. The poll represents who the readership believes are the leading professional firms within the various areas of specialization across the various geographical regions. Sadis & Goldberg received the award “Banking and Investment Law Firm of the Year - USA”.
