WORK EXPERIENCE

Photo Editor | QuiBids

February 2018 to May 2018

Deal Nova, a subsidiary of QuiBids, creates and develops new brands, product imagery, package designs, and email marketing for over 60 brands and over 150 products that we have created within those brands. As a member of the creative team, my role was to edit photos that highlight product features and maintain brand identity.

Photographer and Retoucher | Freelance, Upwork.com

January 2014 to Current

As a freelance photographer and retoucher, my work experience includes projects like beauty and fashion photography, product photos, promotional material, headshots, portraits, rendering images for future products and ideas, and preparing images for online commerce and design applications.

Operations Manager | FunSports Brands

March 2016 to August 2016

My role at FunSports Brands was to manage and maintain e-commerce websites, photograph and create renders of current and future products, as well as creating promotional images and videos.
