

Prayer of Encouragement for your husband

Dear God,

Thank you for caring about the small things in our lives. Thank you for always being available and willing to listen to my heart. You know what's on my heart. You know the reasons I want to encourage my husband.

But before that, Lord, help me be the wife you created me to be. Rather than focus on his faults, help me to love and serve him well. Show me opportunities to serve him. When I am tired, give me a burst of energy. Highlight the ways I fail you and fail him. Help me to not nag, but instead trust that you are in control.

God, I ask that you send a role model to mentor my husband. Please, send him someone who seeks after you and is able to lead my husband well. Someone who can display what it looks like to be a good Christian husband. Someone to show him how to love me well. Someone to show him what it looks like for a man to participate in caring for the home.

Lord, maybe there is a godly couple that can mentor the both of us, if so, reveal them to us.

When my husband is at work, equip him with the words to say when he is interacting with his co-workers. Guide his hands to do the tasks efficiently and effectively.

When he is home, help him relieve any stress that burdens him. Temper the anger and emotions.

Help him love our family well and give him enough energy to serve us well.

Lastly, Lord, help me be a safe place for him. Use me to encourage him, uplift him, and be his helper. I want him to trust that I will always be there for him, and he can trust me with all his worries or concerns. Guide my words and actions so I can be that safe place for him.

In your Sons name,
Amen
